

Hi, my name is Jaye Hussell and I live in Franklin County. I'm asking that you oppose any budget language that redefines "sex" as "biological sex." This change would exclude recognition of transgender, nonbinary, and intersex individuals, potentially requiring them to carry identification documents that do not align with their gender identity. Such a definition could also impact access to gender-affirming care and other services. Please reject this cruel and unnecessary proposal.