

SB 153 goes too far especially considering that Ohio's current voting laws are very good. Why fix what is not broken? I could understand if we had severe voting violations but we don't. Let's not disenfranchise good US citizens just because of some minor clerical error.

Thanks,

Keith Gehring