Following complaints from residents, state and local authorities raided a business and a house in Pickaway County this afternoon and seized records and slot machines as part of a suspected illegal gambling operation.

Agents with the Ohio Casino Control Commission, the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation and deputies and detectives from the Pickaway County sheriff's office seized 143 gambling machines, cash and documents from Spinners, a business at 24753 Rt. 23 in Circleville, said Jessica Franks, spokeswoman for the commission.

Authorities also raided the home of the business's owner, Stephen Cline, 68, at 14270 Walnut Pike Creek in Ashville. He has not been criminally charged.

But he could be, if the investigation shows that he was, in fact, giving out cash prizes. In Ohio, the charge of illegal gambling is a fifth-degree felony.

Illegal Casino Investigations

- Warrants served on 165 locations
- 7,490 + illegal slot machines seized/disabled
- Approx. $7.5 million in cash seized on site
