Question	Answer
1. Board Name	Division of Air Pollution Control, Mobile Sources Section
2. Point of Contact	Mike Riggleman
3. Describe the board's primary purpose, goals and objectives, and licenses issued.	To ensure the inspectors are properly trained to conduct vehicle inspections and the waiver repair technicians are properly qualified to perform automotive repairs associated with emission controls. For Enhanced Motor Vehicles Inspection and Maintenance Inspector – with Ohio EPA approval, the contractor provides a certificate Waiver Repair Technician – Ohio EPA issues a certificate
4. Describe the board's annual workload. How many staff are employed?	The contractor conducts the training for the inspectors along with the issuance of certificates, so there is minimal amount of time required for the oversight from Ohio EPA. There are no dedicated staff associated with the issuance of certificates for waiver repair technicians since there is only an average of 8 applications per year with a minimal amount of time needed for processing.
5. How many new licenses does the board issue annually? How many renewed licenses are issued annually? How much does a new license cost? How much does a renewal cost?	a) Inspector certificates ~ 200 avg., Repair Technician certificates ~8 avg. b) Inspector certificates – only if necessary, Repair Technician certificates are renewed every 3 years ~ 8. c) No cost. d) No cost.
6. In the past 5 years, has there been any consideration to lower the licensure cost?	No cost.
7. How much revenue is procured from the licensure fees? What does this revenue fund?	a) No revenue. b) No revenue
8. Are there any federal regulations, or regulations required to be met outside of the existing licensure requirements that have to be complied with? Does federal law require the board to be renewed in some form?	No federal requirements.
9. Does the board issue an examination prior to licensure? Does the board issue continuing education courses? If so, how often is continuing education necessary? If the examination or continuing education requirements are done outside the board then	a) Inspector certificates have an exam; Repair Technician certificates do not have an exam. b) No. c) Inspectors are not required to have continuing education. Repair technicians must stay current with ASE technician courses. d) ASE

what determines the selection of an outside organization to host it?	(Automotive Service Excellence) is the outside training organization for technicians.
10. How many other states regulate the occupation or occupations under the board's jurisdiction? Is a license required to engage in that occupation or those occupations in other states?	a) None. b) Unaware of what other state's require.
11. Has the operation of the board inhibited economic growth, reduced efficiency, or increased the cost of government?	No.
12. Are there any licenses that are no longer issued by the board?	No.
13. Is there anything that the board would like to see changed or implemented in regards to occupational licensing within the scope of this legislative review?	No.
14. Has the board recommended statutory changes to the general assembly that would benefit the public as opposed to the persons regulated by the board, if any, and have those recommendations and other policies been adopted and implemented?	No, the waiver repair technician certificates are voluntary.
15. Is the preservation of the board and the board's licenses necessary to protect the public's health, safety, or welfare?	Yes.
16. Could the public be protected or served in an alternate or less restrictive manner? If applicable, please identify any licenses or functions of the board that could be eliminated or consolidated.	No.
17. Any additional notes or comments the board believes the committee should be aware of?	None.