

I am writing to oppose any bill that proposes cuts to higher education. Ohio State University is a pillar of this state and damaging its reputation and ability to conduct research will negatively impact our economy. I urge you to support freedom of speech and higher education, so that Ohioans will continue to excel.