

Hello Chair O'Brien,

I host in Berlin, OH- the heart of Amish Country. My place is right in town, with access to all the shops and restaurants on foot. We have many customers who travel from different states and sometimes countries to stay at our place. They love the location and we enjoy getting to know them. They are very thankful to have a home away from home when they visit Amish Country and that is what we provide. This has benefited us greatly in a personal and business aspect as we have met many new people and we have gained more customers to our retail business which is also located in Berlin. I would lose important connections and a needed income if I could no longer host. Please take this into consideration. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Morgan Ritz
