

Hello Chair O'Brien,

The industry that has been created to provide the middle class with extended revenue has strengthened property values, increased tax base and allowed those middle class homeowners to float in an economy that is constantly stretching to find it's way with increased living expense and depleting retirement resources. Please see the boon this is to the constituents of Ohio and help support us through easy access to and motivation towards short term rental.

Sincerely,

Christopher Zerges