

As Introduced

136th General Assembly
Regular Session
2025-2026

H. B. No. 177

Representatives Williams, Tims

---

A BILL

To amend sections 181.25, 2929.06, 2945.79, 1 2945.80, 2945.81, 2953.21, and 2953.23 and to 2 enact section 2945.811 of the Revised Code to 3 allow a person to file a motion for a new trial 4 or a petition for postconviction relief if the 5 person produces new evidence that would 6 establish a strong probability of a different 7 result at trial. 8

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 181.25, 2929.06, 2945.79, 9 2945.80, 2945.81, 2953.21, and 2953.23 be amended and section 10
2945.811 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows: 11

Sec. 181.25. (A) If the comprehensive criminal sentencing 12 structure that it recommends to the general assembly pursuant to 13 section 181.24 of the Revised Code or any aspects of that 14 sentencing structure are enacted into law, the state criminal 15 sentencing commission shall do all of the following: 16

(1) Assist the general assembly in the implementation of 17 those aspects of the sentencing structure that are enacted into 18 law; 19

(2) Monitor the operation of the aspects of the sentencing structure that are enacted into law and report to the general assembly no later than January 1, 1997, and biennially thereafter, on all of the following matters:

(a) The impact of the sentencing structure in effect on and after July 1, 1996, on political subdivisions and other relevant aspects of local government in this state, including all of the following information:

(i) The number and type of offenders who were being imprisoned in a state correctional institution under the law in effect prior to July 1, 1996, but who are being punished under a community control sanction, as defined in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code, under the law in effect on and after July 1, 1996;

(ii) The fiscal and other impact of the law in effect on and after July 1, 1996, on political subdivisions and other relevant aspects of local government in this state, including law enforcement agencies, the court system, prosecutors, as defined in section 2935.01 of the Revised Code, the public defender and assigned counsel system, jails and workhouses, probation departments, the drug and alcohol abuse intervention and treatment system, and the mental health intervention and treatment system.

(b) The impact of the sentencing structure in effect on and after July 1, 1996, on the population of state correctional institutions, including information regarding the number and types of offenders who are being imprisoned under the law in effect on and after July 1, 1996, and the amount of space in state correctional institutions that is necessary to house those offenders;

(c) The impact of the sentencing structure and the 49 sentence appeal provisions in effect on and after July 1, 1996, 50 on the appellate courts of this state, including information 51 regarding the number of sentence-based appeals, the cost of 52 reviewing appeals of that nature, whether a special court should 53 be created to review sentences, and whether changes should be 54 made to ensure that sentence-based appeals are conducted 55
expeditiously. 56

(3) Review all bills that are introduced in the general 57 assembly that provide for new criminal offenses or that change 58
the penalty for any criminal offense, determine if those bills 59 are consistent with the sentencing policy adopted under division 60
(B) of section 181.23 of the Revised Code, determine the impact 61 of those bills upon the correctional resources of the state, and 62 recommend to the general assembly any necessary amendments to 63 those bills. When the commission recommends any amendment for a 64 bill before the general assembly, it shall do so in a manner 65 that is consistent with the requirements of section 181.24 of 66
the Revised Code. 67

(4) Study criminal sentencing structures in this state, 68 other states, and the federal government, recommend necessary 69 changes to the sentencing structure of the state, and determine 70 the costs and effects of any proposed changes in the sentencing 71 structure of the state; 72

(5) Collect and maintain data that pertains to the cost to 73 counties of the felony sentence appeal provisions set forth in 74 section 2953.08 of the Revised Code, of the postconviction 75 relief proceeding provisions set forth in division ~~(A) (2)~~ (B) (2) 76 of section 2953.21 of the Revised Code, and of appeals from 77 judgments entered in such postconviction relief proceedings. The 78 data so collected and maintained shall include, but shall not be 79 limited to, the increase in expenses that counties experience as 80 a result of those provisions and those appeals and the number of 81 felony sentence appeals made, postconviction relief proceedings 82 filed, and appeals of postconviction relief proceeding judgments 83 made in each county under those provisions. 84

(B) In addition to its duties set forth in section 181.24 85 of the Revised Code and division (A) of this section, the state 86 criminal sentencing commission shall review all forfeiture 87 statutes in Titles XXIX and XLV of the Revised Code and, not 88 later than July 1, 2002, recommend to the general assembly any 89 necessary changes to those statutes. 90

Sec. 2929.06. (A) (1) If a sentence of death imposed upon 91 an offender is set aside, nullified, vacated, or voided for any 92 of the following reasons, the trial court that sentenced the 93 offender shall conduct a hearing to resentence the offender in 94 accordance with division (A) (2) of this section: 95

(a) The court of appeals, in a case in which a sentence of 96 death was imposed for an offense committed before January 1, 97 1995, or the supreme court, in a case in which the supreme court 98 reviews the sentence upon appeal, could not affirm the sentence 99 of death under the standards imposed by section 2929.05 of the 100
Revised Code. 101

(b) The sole reason that the statutory procedure for 102 imposing the sentence of death that is set forth in sections 103 2929.03 and 2929.04 of the Revised Code is unconstitutional. 104

(c) The sentence of death is set aside, nullified, or 105 vacated pursuant to division (C) of section 2929.05 of the 106
Revised Code. 107

(d) A court has determined that the offender is a person 108 with an intellectual disability under standards set forth in 109 decisions of the supreme court of this state or the United 110 States supreme court. 111

(e) The sentence of death is voided by a court pursuant to 112 division ~~(H)~~(I) of section 2953.21 of the Revised Code. 113

(2) At a resentencing hearing conducted under division (A) 114
(1) of this section, the court shall impose upon the offender a 115 sentence of life imprisonment or an indefinite term consisting 116 of a minimum term of thirty years and a maximum term of life 117 imprisonment that is determined as specified in this division. 118
If the sentence of death was voided by a court pursuant to 119 division ~~(H)~~(I) of section 2953.21 of the Revised Code, the 120 offender has waived any right to be sentenced to any sentence 121 other than life imprisonment without parole as described in 122 division (A) (3) (b) of that section and the court shall impose a 123 sentence of life imprisonment without parole. If the immediately 124 preceding sentence does not apply and if division (D) of section 125 2929.03 of the Revised Code, at the time the offender committed 126 the aggravated murder for which the sentence of death was 127 imposed, required the imposition when a sentence of death was 128 not imposed of a sentence of life imprisonment without parole or 129 a sentence of an indefinite term consisting of a minimum term of 130 thirty years and a maximum term of life imprisonment to be 131 imposed pursuant to division (A) or (B) (3) of section 2971.03 of 132 the Revised Code and served pursuant to that section, except as 133 provided in division (F) of this section, the court shall impose 134 the sentence so required. In all other cases, except as provided 135 in division (F) of this section, the sentences of life 136 imprisonment that are available at the hearing, and from which 137 the court shall impose sentence, shall be the same sentences of 138 life imprisonment that were available under division (D) of 139 section 2929.03 or under section 2909.24 of the Revised Code at 140 the time the offender committed the offense for which the 141 sentence of death was imposed. Nothing in this division 142 regarding the resentencing of an offender shall affect the 143 operation of section 2971.03 of the Revised Code. 144

(B) Whenever any court of this state or any federal court 145 sets aside, nullifies, or vacates a sentence of death imposed 146 upon an offender because of error that occurred in the 147 sentencing phase of the trial and if division (A) of this 148 section does not apply, the trial court that sentenced the 149 offender shall conduct a new hearing to resentence the offender. 150
If the offender was tried by a jury, the trial court shall 151 impanel a new jury for the hearing. If the offender was tried by 152 a panel of three judges, that panel or, if necessary, a new 153 panel of three judges shall conduct the hearing. At the hearing, 154 the court or panel shall follow the procedure set forth in 155 division (D) of section 2929.03 of the Revised Code in 156 determining whether to impose upon the offender a sentence of 157 death, a sentence of life imprisonment, or an indefinite term 158 consisting of a minimum term of thirty years and a maximum term 159 of life imprisonment. If, pursuant to that procedure, the court 160 or panel determines that it will impose a sentence other than a 161 sentence of death, except as provided in division (F) of this 162 section, the court or panel shall impose upon the offender one 163 of the sentences of life imprisonment that could have been 164 imposed at the time the offender committed the offense for which 165 the sentence of death was imposed, determined as specified in 166 this division, or an indefinite term consisting of a minimum 167 term of thirty years and a maximum term of life imprisonment 168 that is determined as specified in this division. If division 169

(D) of section 2929.03 of the Revised Code, at the time the 170 offender committed the aggravated murder for which the sentence 171 of death was imposed, required the imposition when a sentence of 172 death was not imposed of a sentence of life imprisonment without 173 parole or a sentence of an indefinite term consisting of a 174 minimum term of thirty years and a maximum term of life 175 imprisonment to be imposed pursuant to division (A) or (B) (3) of 176 section 2971.03 of the Revised Code and served pursuant to that 177 section, except as provided in division (F) of this section, the 178 court or panel shall impose the sentence so required. In all 179 other cases, except as provided in division (F) of this section, 180 the sentences of life imprisonment that are available at the 181 hearing, and from which the court or panel shall impose 182 sentence, shall be the same sentences of life imprisonment that 183 were available under division (D) of section 2929.03 or under 184 section 2909.24 of the Revised Code at the time the offender 185 committed the offense for which the sentence of death was 186 imposed. 187

(C) If a sentence of life imprisonment without parole 188 imposed upon an offender pursuant to section 2929.021 or 2929.03 189 of the Revised Code is set aside, nullified, or vacated for the 190 sole reason that the statutory procedure for imposing the 191 sentence of life imprisonment without parole that is set forth 192 in sections 2929.03 and 2929.04 of the Revised Code is 193 unconstitutional, the trial court that sentenced the offender 194 shall conduct a hearing to resentence the offender to life 195 imprisonment with parole eligibility after serving twenty-five 196 full years of imprisonment or to life imprisonment with parole 197 eligibility after serving thirty full years of imprisonment. 198

(D) Nothing in this section limits or restricts the rights 199 of the state to appeal any order setting aside, nullifying, or 200 vacating a conviction or sentence of death, when an appeal of 201 that nature otherwise would be available. 202

(E) This section, as amended by H.B. 184 of the 125th 203 general assembly, shall apply to all offenders who have been 204 sentenced to death for an aggravated murder that was committed 205 on or after October 19, 1981, or for terrorism that was 206 committed on or after May 15, 2002. This section, as amended by 207 H.B. 184 of the 125th general assembly, shall apply equally to 208 all such offenders sentenced to death prior to, on, or after 209 March 23, 2005, including offenders who, on March 23, 2005, are 210 challenging their sentence of death and offenders whose sentence 211 of death has been set aside, nullified, or vacated by any court 212 of this state or any federal court but who, as of March 23, 213 2005, have not yet been resentenced. 214

(F) A court shall not impose a sentence of life 215 imprisonment without parole on a person under division (A) or 216
(B) of this section for an offense that was committed when the 217 person was under eighteen years of age. 218

Sec. 2945.79. A new trial, after a verdict of conviction, 219 may be granted on the application of the defendant for any of 220
the following causes ~~affecting that materially his~~ affect the 221 fairness of the defendant's substantial rights ~~trial or that~~ 222 demonstrate a miscarriage of justice: 223

(A) Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury, 224 prosecuting attorney, or the witnesses for the state, or for any 225 order of the court, or abuse of discretion by which the 226 defendant was prevented from having a fair trial; 227

(B) Misconduct of the jury, prosecuting attorney, or the 228 witnesses for the state; 229

(C) Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;	230 231
(D) That the verdict is not sustained by sufficient evidence or is contrary to law; but if the evidence shows the defendant is not guilty of the degree of crime for which he the defendant was convicted, but guilty of a lesser degree thereof, or of a lesser crime included therein, the court may modify the verdict or finding accordingly, without granting or ordering a new trial, and pass sentence on such verdict or finding as modified, provided that this power extends to any court to which the cause may be taken on appeal;	232 233 234 235 236 237 238 239 240
(E) Error of law occurring at the trial;	241
(F) When new evidence is discovered material to the defendant, which he the defendant could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the trial. When a motion for a new trial is made upon the ground of newly discovered evidence, the defendant must produce at the hearing of said motion, in support thereof, the affidavits of the witnesses by whom such evidence is expected to be given, and if time is required by the defendant to procure such affidavits, the court may postpone the hearing of the motion for such length of time as under all the circumstances of the case is reasonable. The prosecuting attorney may produce affidavits or other evidence to impeach the affidavits of such witnesses.	242 243 244 245 246 247 248 249 250 251 252 253
(G) When new evidence is discovered that, were it to be considered at a new trial, would establish a strong probability of a different result at trial.	254 255 256
Sec. 2945.80. Application (A) Except as provided in divisions (B) and (C) of this section, applications for a new	257 258

trial shall be made by motion upon written grounds, and ~~except~~ 259 ~~for the cause of newly discovered evidence material for the~~ 260 ~~person applying, which he could not with reasonable diligence~~ 261
~~have discovered and produced at the trial,~~ shall be filed within 262 three days after the verdict was rendered, or the decision of 263 the court where a trial by jury has been waived, unless it is 264 made to appear by clear and convincing proof that the defendant 265 was unavoidably prevented from filing ~~his~~ a motion for new trial 266 in which case it shall be filed within three days from the order 267 of the court finding that ~~he~~ the defendant was unavoidably 268 prevented from filing such motion within the time provided 269 herein. 270

(B) Motions for new trial on account of newly discovered 271 evidence under division (F) of section 2945.79 of the Revised 272 Code shall be filed within one hundred twenty days following the 273 day upon which the verdict was rendered, or the decision of the 274 court where trial by jury has been waived. If it is made to 275 appear by clear and convincing proof that the defendant was 276 unavoidably prevented from the discovery of the evidence upon 277 which ~~he~~ the defendant must rely, such motion shall be filed 278 within three days from an order of the court finding that ~~he~~ the 279 defendant was unavoidably prevented from discovering the 280 evidence within the one hundred twenty day period. 281

(C) Motions for new trial on account of newly discovered 282 evidence under division (G) of section 2945.79 of the Revised 283
Code shall be filed at any time after the verdict was rendered. 284

Sec. 2945.81. (A) The causes enumerated in divisions (B) 285 and (C) of section 2945.79 of the Revised Code must be sustained 286 by affidavit showing their truth, and may be controverted by 287 affidavits. 288

(B) The causes enumerated in division (G) of section 2945.79 of the Revised Code must be sustained by affidavit showing their truth, and may be controverted by affidavit and other documentary evidence in support of the claim for relief. 289
292

Sec. 2945.811. (A) As used in this section, "patently frivolous" means offering evidence that, even if true, would not satisfy the standard in division (G) of section 2945.79 of the Revised Code. 293
294
296

(B) A motion for new trial on account of newly discovered evidence under division (G) of section 2945.79 of the Revised Code shall include all of the following: 297
299

(1) Specific, nonconclusory facts identifying the newly discovered evidence; 300
301

(2) An explanation of how the newly discovered evidence entitles the defendant to relief; 302
303

(3) An explanation of why the newly discovered evidence was not proffered at trial or at any pretrial proceedings in the case; 304
305
306

(4) Any supporting evidence or documentation. 307

(C) Before granting a hearing on a motion for a new trial, the court shall review, in addition to the motion and supporting evidence or documentation described in division (B) of this section, the supporting affidavits and the documentary evidence, all the files and records pertaining to the proceedings against the defendant, including, but not limited to, the indictment, the court's journal entries, the journalized records of the clerk of the court, and the court reporter's transcript. 308
311
313
314
315

(D) If, after reviewing the materials described in 316 division (C) of this section, the court finds that the motion 317 for a new trial is patently frivolous, the court shall dismiss 318

the motion. 319

(E) If the court does not dismiss the motion for a new 320 trial pursuant to division (D) of this section, the parties may 321 obtain discovery in accordance with the Ohio Rules of Civil 322 Procedure. 323

(F) After reviewing the materials described in division 324
(C) of this section and after discovery is completed pursuant to 325 division (D) of this section, the court shall promptly hold a 326 hearing on the motion for a new trial. 327

(G) If the court finds that the new evidence, were it to 328 be considered at a new trial, would establish a strong 329 probability of a different result at trial, the court shall 330 grant a new trial. If the court does not find that the new 331 evidence would establish a strong probability of a different 332 result at trial, the court shall not grant a new trial. 333

(H) The court may appoint counsel to represent a person 334 who files a motion for a new trial upon a finding that the 335 person is indigent, unless after reviewing the materials 336 described in division (C) of this section, the court finds that 337
the motion is patently frivolous. 338

Sec. 2953.21. ~~(A) (1) (a)~~ (A) As used in this section, 339
"patently frivolous" means offering evidence which, even if 340 true, would not satisfy the standard in division (B) (1) (a) (v) of 341
this section. 342

(B) (1) (a) A person in any of the following categories may 343 file a petition in the court that imposed sentence, stating the 344 grounds for relief relied upon, and asking the court to vacate 345 or set aside the judgment or sentence or to grant other 346 appropriate relief: 347

(i) Any person who has been convicted of a criminal 348 offense or adjudicated a delinquent child and who claims that 349 there was such a denial or infringement of the person's rights 350 as to render the judgment void or voidable under the Ohio 351 Constitution or the Constitution of the United States; 352

(ii) Any person who has been convicted of a criminal 353 offense and sentenced to death and who claims that there was a 354 denial or infringement of the person's rights under either of 355 those Constitutions that creates a reasonable probability of an 356 altered verdict; 357

(iii) Any person who has been convicted of a criminal 358 offense that is a felony and who is an offender for whom DNA 359 testing that was performed under sections 2953.71 to 2953.81 of 360 the Revised Code or under former section 2953.82 of the Revised 361 Code and analyzed in the context of and upon consideration of 362 all available admissible evidence related to the person's case 363 as described in division (D) of section 2953.74 of the Revised 364 Code provided results that establish, by clear and convincing 365 evidence, actual innocence of that felony offense or, if the 366 person was sentenced to death, establish, by clear and 367 convincing evidence, actual innocence of the aggravating 368 circumstance or circumstances the person was found guilty of 369 committing and that is or are the basis of that sentence of 370 death; 371

(iv) Any person who has been convicted of aggravated 372 murder and sentenced to death for the offense and who claims 373 that the person had a serious mental illness at the time of the 374 commission of the offense and that as a result the court should 375 render void the sentence of death, with the filing of the 376 petition constituting the waiver described in division ~~(A) (3) (b)~~ 377

(B) (3) (b) of this section; 378

(v) Any person who produces newly discovered evidence 379 that, were it to be considered at a new trial, would establish a 380 strong probability of a different result at trial. 381

(b) A petitioner under division ~~(A) (1) (a)~~ (B) (1) (a) of 382 this section may file a supporting affidavit and other 383 documentary evidence in support of the claim for relief. 384

(c) As used in division ~~(A) (1) (a)~~ (B) (1) (a) of this 385 section: 386

(i) "Actual innocence" means that, had the results of the 387
DNA testing conducted under sections 2953.71 to 2953.81 of the 388
Revised Code or under former section 2953.82 of the Revised Code 389 been presented at trial, and had those results been analyzed in 390 the context of and upon consideration of all available 391 admissible evidence related to the person's case as described in 392 division (D) of section 2953.74 of the Revised Code, no 393 reasonable factfinder would have found the petitioner guilty of 394 the offense of which the petitioner was convicted, or, if the 395 person was sentenced to death, no reasonable factfinder would 396 have found the petitioner guilty of the aggravating circumstance 397 or circumstances the petitioner was found guilty of committing 398 and that is or are the basis of that sentence of death. 399

(ii) "Serious mental illness" has the same meaning as in 400
section 2929.025 of the Revised Code. 401

(d) As used in divisions ~~(A) (1) (a)~~ (B) (1) (a) and (c) of 402 this section, "former section 2953.82 of the Revised Code" means 403 section 2953.82 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to July 404

6, 2010. 405

(e) At any time in conjunction with the filing of a 406 petition for postconviction relief under division ~~(A)~~(B) of 407 this section ~~by a person who has been sentenced to death,~~ or 408 with the litigation of a petition so filed, the court, for good 409 cause shown, may authorize the petitioner in seeking the 410 postconviction relief and the prosecuting attorney of the county 411 served by the court in defending the proceeding, to take 412 depositions and to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum in 413 accordance with divisions ~~(A) (1) (e)~~ (B) (1) (e), ~~(A) (1) (f)~~ (B) (1) 414 (f), and ~~(C)~~(D) of this section, and to any other form of 415 discovery as in a civil action that the court in its discretion 416 permits. The court may limit the extent of discovery under this 417 division. In addition to discovery that is relevant to the claim 418 and was available under Criminal Rule 16 through conclusion of 419 the original criminal trial, the court, for good cause shown, 420 may authorize the petitioner or prosecuting attorney to take 421 depositions and issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum in 422 either of the following circumstances: 423

(i) For any witness who testified at trial or who was 424 disclosed by the state prior to trial, except as otherwise 425 provided in this division, the petitioner or prosecuting 426 attorney shows clear and convincing evidence that the witness is 427 material and that a deposition of the witness or the issuing of 428 a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum is of assistance in order to 429 substantiate or refute the petitioner's claim that there is a 430 reasonable probability of an altered verdict. This division does 431 not apply if the witness was unavailable for trial or would not 432 voluntarily be interviewed by the defendant or prosecuting 433 attorney. 434

(ii) For any witness with respect to whom division ~~(A) (1)~~ 435
~~(e) (i)~~ (B) (1) (e) (i) of this section does not apply, the 436 petitioner or prosecuting attorney shows good cause that the 437 witness is material and that a deposition of the witness or the 438 issuing of a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum is of assistance 439 in order to substantiate or refute the petitioner's claim that 440 there is a reasonable probability of an altered verdict. 441

(f) If a person ~~who has been sentenced to death and who~~ 442
files a petition for postconviction relief under division ~~(A)~~ 443
(B) of this section requests postconviction discovery as 444 described in division ~~(A) (1) (e)~~ (B) (1) (e) of this section or if 445
the prosecuting attorney of the county served by the court 446
requests postconviction discovery as described in that division, 447 within ten days after the docketing of the request, or within 448 any other time that the court sets for good cause shown, the 449 prosecuting attorney shall respond by answer or motion to the 450 petitioner's request or the petitioner shall respond by answer 451 or motion to the prosecuting attorney's request, whichever is 452 applicable. 453

(g) If a person ~~who has been sentenced to death and who~~ 454
files a petition for postconviction relief under division ~~(A)~~ 455
(B) of this section requests postconviction discovery as 456
described in division ~~(A) (1) (e)~~ (B) (1) (e) of this section or if 457
the prosecuting attorney of the county served by the court 458
requests postconviction discovery as described in that division, 459 upon motion by the petitioner, the prosecuting attorney, or the 460 person from whom discovery is sought, and for good cause shown, 461 the court in which the action is pending may make any order that 462 justice requires to protect a party or person from oppression or 463 undue burden or expense, including but not limited to the orders 464 described in divisions ~~(A) (1) (h) (i)~~ (B) (1) (h) (i) to (viii) of 465 this section. The court also may make any such order if, in its 466 discretion, it determines that the discovery sought would be 467 irrelevant to the claims made in the petition; and if the court 468 makes any such order on that basis, it shall explain in the 469 order the reasons why the discovery would be irrelevant. 470

(h) If a petitioner, prosecuting attorney, or person from 471 whom discovery is sought makes a motion for an order under 472 division ~~(A) (1) (g)~~ (B) (1) (g) of this section and the order is 473 denied in whole or in part, the court, on terms and conditions 474 as are just, may order that any party or person provide or 475 permit discovery as described in division ~~(A) (1) (e)~~ (B) (1) (e) of 476 this section. The provisions of Civil Rule 37(A) (4) apply to the 477 award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion, except 478 that in no case shall a court require a petitioner who is 479 indigent to pay expenses under those provisions. 480

Before any person moves for an order under division ~~(A) (1)~~ 481 ~~(g)~~ (B) (1) (g) of this section, that person shall make a 482 reasonable effort to resolve the matter through discussion with 483 the petitioner or prosecuting attorney seeking discovery. A 484 motion for an order under division ~~(A) (1) (g)~~ (B) (1) (g) of this 485 section shall be accompanied by a statement reciting the effort 486 made to resolve the matter in accordance with this paragraph. 487

The orders that may be made under division ~~(A) (1) (g)~~ (B) 488
(1) (g) of this section include, but are not limited to, any of 489
the following: 490

(i) That the discovery not be had; 491

(ii) That the discovery may be had only on specified terms 492 and conditions, including a designation of the time or place; 493

(iii) That the discovery may be had only by a method of 494

discovery other than that selected by the party seeking	495
discovery;	496
(iv) That certain matters not be inquired into or that the	497
scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters;	498
(v) That discovery be conducted with no one present except	499
persons designated by the court;	500
(vi) That a deposition after being sealed be opened only	501
by order of the court;	502
(vii) That a trade secret or other confidential research,	503 development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be	504
disclosed only in a designated way;	505
(viii) That the parties simultaneously file specified	506
documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be	507
opened as directed by the court.	508
(i) Any postconviction discovery authorized under division	509
(A) (1) (e) (B) (1) (e) of this section shall be completed not later	510
than eighteen months after the start of the discovery	511 proceedings unless, for good cause shown, the court extends that	512
period for completing the discovery.	513
(j) Nothing in division (A) (1) (e) (B) (1) (e) of this	514
section authorizes, or shall be construed as authorizing, the	515
relitigation, or discovery in support of relitigation, of any	516
matter barred by the doctrine of res judicata.	517
(k) Division (A) (1) (B) (1) of this section does not apply	518 to any person who has been convicted of a criminal offense and	519 sentenced to death and who has unsuccessfully raised the same	520 claims in a petition for postconviction relief.	521
(2) (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 2953.23 of	522

the Revised Code, a petition under division ~~(A) (1) (a) (i)~~ (B) (1) (a) (i), (ii), or (iii) of this section shall be filed no later than three hundred sixty-five days after the date on which the trial transcript is filed in the court of appeals in the direct appeal of the judgment of conviction or adjudication or, if the direct appeal involves a sentence of death, the date on which the trial transcript is filed in the supreme court. If no appeal is taken, except as otherwise provided in section 2953.23 of the Revised Code, the petition shall be filed no later than three hundred sixty-five days after the expiration of the time for filing the appeal.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in section 2953.23 of the Revised Code, a petition under division ~~(A) (1) (a) (iv)~~ (B) (1) (a) (iv) of this section shall be filed not later than three hundred sixty-five days after ~~the effective date of this amendment~~ April 12, 2021.

(c) A petition under division (B) (1) (a) (v) of this section shall be filed at any time after the expiration of the time for filing the appeal.

(3) (a) In a petition filed under division ~~(A) (1) (a) (i)~~ (B) (1) (a) (i), (ii), ~~or (iii)~~, or (v) of this section, a person who has been sentenced to death may ask the court to render void or voidable the judgment with respect to the conviction of aggravated murder or the specification of an aggravating circumstance or the sentence of death.

(b) A person sentenced to death who files a petition under division ~~(A) (1) (a) (iv)~~ (B) (1) (a) (iv) of this section may ask the court to render void the sentence of death and to order the resentencing of the person under division (A) of section 2929.06 of the Revised Code. If a person sentenced to death files such a petition and asks the court to render void the sentence of death 553 and to order the resentencing of the person under division (A) 554 of section 2929.06 of the Revised Code, the act of filing the 555 petition constitutes a waiver of any right to be sentenced under 556 the law that existed at the time the offense was committed and 557 constitutes consent to be sentenced to life imprisonment without 558 parole under division (A) of section 2929.06 of the Revised 559 Code. 560

(4) A petitioner shall state in the original or amended 561 petition filed under division ~~(A)~~(B) of this section all 562 grounds for relief claimed by the petitioner. Except as provided 563 in section 2953.23 of the Revised Code, any ground for relief 564 that is not so stated in the petition is waived. 565

(5) If the petitioner in a petition filed under division 566
~~(A) (1) (a) (i)~~(B) (1) (a) (i), (ii), or (iii) of this section was 567 convicted of or pleaded guilty to a felony, the petition may 568 include a claim that the petitioner was denied the equal 569 protection of the laws in violation of the Ohio Constitution or 570 the United States Constitution because the sentence imposed upon 571 the petitioner for the felony was part of a consistent pattern 572 of disparity in sentencing by the judge who imposed the 573 sentence, with regard to the petitioner's race, gender, ethnic 574 background, or religion. If the supreme court adopts a rule 575 requiring a court of common pleas to maintain information with 576 regard to an offender's race, gender, ethnic background, or 577 religion, the supporting evidence for the petition shall 578 include, but shall not be limited to, a copy of that type of 579 information relative to the petitioner's sentence and copies of 580 that type of information relative to sentences that the same 581 judge imposed upon other persons. 582

(6) Notwithstanding any law or court rule to the contrary, 583 there is no limit on the number of pages in, or on the length 584 of, a petition filed under division ~~(A) (1) (a) (i)~~ (B) (1) (a) (i), 585 (ii), (iii), ~~or (iv)~~, or (v) of this section by a person who has 586 been sentenced to death. If any court rule specifies a limit on 587 the number of pages in, or on the length of, a petition filed 588 under division ~~(A) (1) (a) (i)~~ (B) (1) (a) (i), (ii), (iii), ~~or (iv)~~, 589 or (v) of this section or on a prosecuting attorney's response 590 to such a petition by answer or motion and a person who has been 591 sentenced to death files a petition that exceeds the limit 592 specified for the petition, the prosecuting attorney may respond 593 by an answer or motion that exceeds the limit specified for the 594 response. 595

~~(B)~~ (C) The clerk of the court in which the petition for 596 postconviction relief and, if applicable, a request for 597 postconviction discovery described in division ~~(A) (1) (e)~~ (B) (1) 598 (e) of this section is filed shall docket the petition and the 599 request and bring them promptly to the attention of the court. 600
The clerk of the court in which the petition for postconviction 601 relief and, if applicable, a request for postconviction 602 discovery described in division ~~(A) (1) (e)~~ (B) (1) (e) of this 603 section is filed immediately shall forward a copy of the 604 petition and a copy of the request if filed by the petitioner to 605 the prosecuting attorney of the county served by the court. If 606 the request for postconviction discovery is filed by the 607 prosecuting attorney, the clerk of the court immediately shall 608 forward a copy of the request to the petitioner or the 609
petitioner's counsel. 610

~~(C)~~ (D) If a person who has been sentenced to death and 611 who files a petition for postconviction relief under division 612
~~(A) (1) (a) (i)~~ (B) (1) (a) (i), (ii), (iii), ~~or (iv)~~, or (v) of this 613 section requests a deposition or the prosecuting attorney in the 614 case requests a deposition, and if the court grants the request 615 under division ~~(A) (1) (e)~~ (B) (1) (e) of this section, the court 616 shall notify the petitioner or the petitioner's counsel and the 617 prosecuting attorney. The deposition shall be conducted pursuant 618 to divisions (B), (D), and (E) of Criminal Rule 15. 619 Notwithstanding division (C) of Criminal Rule 15, the petitioner 620 is not entitled to attend the deposition. The prosecuting 621 attorney shall be permitted to attend and participate in any 622

deposition. 623

~~(D)~~ (E) The court shall consider a petition that is timely 624 filed within the period specified in division ~~(A) (2)~~ (B) (2) of 625 this section even if a direct appeal of the judgment is pending. 626
Before granting a hearing on a petition filed under division ~~(A)~~ 627
~~(1) (a) (i)~~ (B) (1) (a) (i), (ii), (iii), ~~or (iv)~~, or (v) of this 628 section, the court shall determine whether there are substantive 629 grounds for relief. In making such a determination, the court 630 shall consider, in addition to the petition, the supporting 631 affidavits, and the documentary evidence, all the files and 632 records pertaining to the proceedings against the petitioner, 633 including, but not limited to, the indictment, the court's 634 journal entries, the journalized records of the clerk of the 635 court, and the court reporter's transcript. The court reporter's 636 transcript, if ordered and certified by the court, shall be 637 taxed as court costs. If the court dismisses the petition, it 638 shall make and file findings of fact and conclusions of law with 639 respect to such dismissal. If the petition was filed by a person 640 who has been sentenced to death, the findings of fact and 641 conclusions of law shall state specifically the reasons for the 642 dismissal of the petition and of each claim it contains. 643

~~(E)~~ (F) Within ten days after the docketing of the 644 petition, or within any further time that the court may fix for 645 good cause shown, the prosecuting attorney shall respond by 646 answer or motion. Division ~~(A) (6)~~ (B) (6) of this section applies 647 with respect to the prosecuting attorney's response. Within 648 twenty days from the date the issues are raised, either party 649 may move for summary judgment. The right to summary judgment 650 shall appear on the face of the record. 651

~~(F) Unless~~ (G) For a petition filed under division (B) (1) 652
(a) (i), (ii), (iii), or (iv) of this section, unless the 653 petition and the files and records of the case show the 654 petitioner is not entitled to relief, the court shall proceed to 655 a prompt hearing on the issues even if a direct appeal of the 656 case is pending. For a petition filed under division (B) (1) (a) 657 (v) of this section, unless the petition and the files and 658 records of the case show that the petition is patently 659 frivolous, the court shall hold a hearing on the issues thirty 660 days after the prosecuting attorney is required to respond by 661 answer or motion as described in division (E) of this section 662 even if a direct appeal of the case is pending. If the court 663 notifies the parties that it has found grounds for granting 664 relief, either party may request an appellate court in which a 665 direct appeal of the judgment is pending to remand the pending 666 case to the court. 667

With respect to a petition filed under division ~~(A) (1) (a)~~ 668
~~(iv)~~ (B) (1) (a) (iv) of this section, the procedures and rules 669 regarding introduction of evidence and burden of proof at the 670 pretrial hearing that are set forth in divisions (C), (D), and 671 (F) of section 2929.025 of the Revised Code apply in considering 672 the petition. With respect to such a petition, the grounds for 673 granting relief are that the person has been diagnosed with one 674 or more of the conditions set forth in division (A) (1) (a) of 675 section 2929.025 of the Revised Code and that, at the time of 676 the aggravated murder that was the basis of the sentence of 677 death, the condition or conditions significantly impaired the 678 person's capacity in a manner described in division (A) (1) (b) of 679

that section. 680

~~(G)~~ (H) A petitioner who files a petition under division 681
~~(A) (1) (a) (i)~~ (B) (1) (a) (i), (ii), (iii), ~~or (iv)~~, or (v) of this 682
section may amend the petition as follows: 683

(1) If the petition was filed by a person who has been 684 sentenced to death, at any time that is not later than one 685 hundred eighty days after the petition is filed, the petitioner 686 may amend the petition with or without leave or prejudice to the 687 proceedings. 688

(2) If division ~~(G) (1)~~ (H) (1) of this section does not 689 apply, at any time before the answer or motion is filed, the 690 petitioner may amend the petition with or without leave or 691 prejudice to the proceedings. 692

(3) The petitioner may amend the petition with leave of 693 court at any time after the expiration of the applicable period 694 specified in division ~~(G) (1)~~ (H) (1) or (2) of this section. 695

~~(H)~~ (I) If the court does not find grounds for granting 696 relief, it shall make and file findings of fact and conclusions 697 of law and shall enter judgment denying relief on the petition. 698
If the petition was filed by a person who has been sentenced to 699 death, the findings of fact and conclusions of law shall state 700 specifically the reasons for the denial of relief on the 701 petition and of each claim it contains. If no direct appeal of 702 the case is pending and the court finds grounds for relief or if 703 a pending direct appeal of the case has been remanded to the 704 court pursuant to a request made pursuant to division ~~(F)~~(G) of 705 this section and the court finds grounds for granting relief, it 706 shall make and file findings of fact and conclusions of law and 707 shall enter a judgment that vacates and sets aside the judgment 708 in question, and, in the case of a petitioner who is a prisoner 709 in custody, except as otherwise described in this division, 710 shall discharge or resentence the petitioner or grant a new 711 trial as the court determines appropriate. If the court finds 712 grounds for relief in the case of a petitioner who filed a 713 petition under division ~~(A) (1) (a) (iv)~~(B) (1) (a) (iv) of this 714 section, the court shall render void the sentence of death and 715 order the resentencing of the offender under division (A) of 716 section 2929.06 of the Revised Code. If the petitioner has been 717 sentenced to death, the findings of fact and conclusions of law 718 shall state specifically the reasons for the finding of grounds 719 for granting the relief, with respect to each claim contained in 720 the petition. The court also may make supplementary orders to 721 the relief granted, concerning such matters as rearraignment, 722 retrial, custody, and bail. If the trial court's order granting 723 the petition is reversed on appeal and if the direct appeal of 724 the case has been remanded from an appellate court pursuant to a 725 request under division ~~(F)~~(G) of this section, the appellate 726 court reversing the order granting the petition shall notify the 727 appellate court in which the direct appeal of the case was 728 pending at the time of the remand of the reversal and remand of 729 the trial court's order. Upon the reversal and remand of the 730 trial court's order granting the petition, regardless of whether 731 notice is sent or received, the direct appeal of the case that 732 was remanded is reinstated. 733

~~(I)~~(J) Upon the filing of a petition pursuant to division 734
~~(A) (1) (a) (i)~~(B) (1) (a) (i), (ii), (iii), or (v) of this 735 section by a person sentenced to death, only the supreme court 736 may stay execution of the sentence of death. 737

~~(J)(1)~~ If (K) (1) (a) Except as provided in division (J) (1) 738
(b) of this section, if a person sentenced to death intends to 739 file a petition under division (B) (1) (a) (i), (ii), (iii), or 740 (iv) of this section, the court shall appoint counsel to 741 represent the person upon a finding that the person is indigent 742 and that the person either accepts the appointment of counsel or 743 is unable to make a competent decision whether to accept or 744 reject the appointment of counsel. The court may decline to 745 appoint counsel for the person only upon a finding, after a 746 hearing if necessary, that the person rejects the appointment of 747 counsel and understands the legal consequences of that decision 748 or upon a finding that the person is not indigent. If a person 749 sentenced to death intends to file a petition under division (B) 750
(1) (a) (v) of this section, the court shall appoint counsel to 751 represent the person upon a finding that the person is indigent 752
is unable to make a competent decision whether to accept or 754
reject the appointment of counsel, unless the court finds that 755 the evidence is patently frivolous. The court may decline to 756 appoint counsel for the person only upon a finding, after a 757 hearing if necessary, that the person rejects the appointment of 758
counsel and understands the legal consequences of that decision 759
or upon a finding that the person is not indigent. 760

(b) The court may appoint counsel to represent a person 761 who files a petition under division (B) (1) (a) (v) of this section 762 upon a finding that the person is indigent, unless the court 763 finds that the evidence is patently frivolous. 764

(2) The court shall not appoint as counsel under division 765

~~(J)(1)~~ (K)(1) of this section an attorney who represented the 766 petitioner at trial in the case to which the petition relates 767 unless the person and the attorney expressly request the 768 appointment. The court shall appoint as counsel under division 769 ~~(J)(1)~~ (K)(1) of this section only an attorney who is certified 770 under Rule 20 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of 771 Ohio to represent indigent defendants charged with or convicted 772 of an offense for which the death penalty can be or has been 773 imposed. The ineffectiveness or incompetence of counsel during 774 proceedings under this section does not constitute grounds for 775 relief in a proceeding under this section, in an appeal of any 776 action under this section, or in an application to reopen a 777 direct appeal. 778

(3) Division ~~(J)~~ (K) of this section does not preclude 779 attorneys who represent the state of Ohio from invoking the 780 provisions of 28 U.S.C. 154 with respect to capital cases that 781 were pending in federal habeas corpus proceedings prior to July 782 1, 1996, insofar as the petitioners in those cases were 783 represented in proceedings under this section by one or more 784 counsel appointed by the court under this section or section 785 120.06, 120.16, 120.26, or 120.33 of the Revised Code and those 786 appointed counsel meet the requirements of division ~~(J)(2)~~ (K) 787
(2) of this section. 788

~~(K)~~ (L) Subject to the appeal of a sentence for a felony 789 that is authorized by section 2953.08 of the Revised Code, the 790 remedy set forth in this section is the exclusive remedy by 791 which a person may bring a collateral challenge to the validity 792 of a conviction or sentence in a criminal case or to the 793 validity of an adjudication of a child as a delinquent child for 794 the commission of an act that would be a criminal offense if 795 committed by an adult or the validity of a related order of 796 disposition. 797

Sec. 2953.23. (A) Whether a hearing is or is not held on a 798 petition filed pursuant to section 2953.21 of the Revised Code, 799 a court may not entertain a petition filed after the expiration 800 of the period prescribed in division ~~(A)~~(B) of that section or 801 a second petition or successive petitions for similar relief on 802 behalf of a petitioner unless division (A) (1) or (2) of this 803 section applies: 804

(1) Both of the following apply: 805

(a) Either the petitioner shows that the petitioner was 806 unavoidably prevented from discovery of the facts upon which the 807 petitioner must rely to present the claim for relief, or, 808 subsequent to the period prescribed in division ~~(A) (2)~~(B) (2) of 809 section 2953.21 of the Revised Code or to the filing of an 810 earlier petition, the United States Supreme Court recognized a 811 new federal or state right that applies retroactively to persons 812 in the petitioner's situation, and the petition asserts a claim 813 based on that right. 814

(b) The petitioner shows by clear and convincing evidence 815 that, but for constitutional error at trial, no reasonable 816 factfinder would have found the petitioner guilty of the offense 817 of which the petitioner was convicted or, if the claim 818 challenges a sentence of death that, but for constitutional 819 error at the sentencing hearing, no reasonable factfinder would 820 have found the petitioner eligible for the death sentence. 821

(2) The petitioner was convicted of a felony, the 822 petitioner is an offender for whom DNA testing was performed 823 under sections 2953.71 to 2953.81 of the Revised Code or under 824 former section 2953.82 of the Revised Code and analyzed in the 825 context of and upon consideration of all available admissible 826 evidence related to the inmate's case as described in division 827 (D) of section 2953.74 of the Revised Code, and the results of 828 the DNA testing establish, by clear and convincing evidence, 829 actual innocence of that felony offense or, if the person was 830 sentenced to death, establish, by clear and convincing evidence, 831 actual innocence of the aggravating circumstance or 832 circumstances the person was found guilty of committing and that 833 is or are the basis of that sentence of death. 834

As used in this division, "actual innocence" has the same 835 meaning as in division ~~(A) (1) (e)~~ (B) (1) (c) of section 2953.21 of 836 the Revised Code, and "former section 2953.82 of the Revised 837 Code" has the same meaning as in division ~~(A) (1) (d)~~ (B) (1) (d) of 838
section 2953.21 of the Revised Code. 839

(B) An order awarding or denying relief sought in a 840 petition filed pursuant to section 2953.21 of the Revised Code 841 is a final judgment and may be appealed pursuant to Chapter 842 2953. of the Revised Code. 843

If a petition filed pursuant to section 2953.21 of the 844
Revised Code by a person who has been sentenced to death is 845 denied and the person appeals the judgment, notwithstanding any 846 law or court rule to the contrary, there is no limit on the 847 number of pages in, or on the length of, a notice of appeal or 848 briefs related to an appeal filed by the person. If any court 849 rule specifies a limit on the number of pages in, or on the 850 length of, a notice of appeal or briefs described in this 851 division or on a prosecuting attorney's response or briefs with 852 respect to such an appeal and a person who has been sentenced to 853 death files a notice of appeal or briefs that exceed the limit 854 specified for the petition, the prosecuting attorney may file a 855 response or briefs that exceed the limit specified for the 856 answer or briefs. 857

Section 2. That existing sections 181.25, 2929.06, 858 2945.79, 2945.80, 2945.81, 2953.21, and 2953.23 of the Revised 859
Code are hereby repealed. 860

Section 3. Section 2929.06 of the Revised Code is 861 presented in this act as a composite of the section as amended 862 by both H.B. 136 and S.B. 256 of the 133rd General Assembly. The 863 General Assembly, applying the principle stated in division (B) 864 of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that amendments are to be 865 harmonized if reasonably capable of simultaneous operation, 866 finds that the composite is the resulting version of the section 867 in effect prior to the effective date of the section as 868 presented in this act. 869
