Senator Manning

To amend sections 2903.22 and 2921.31 of the Revised Code to modify the offense of obstructing official business when the victim is an emergency service responder, to increase the penalty for obstructing official business when the victim is an emergency service responder who is engaged in the lawful performance of a legal duty, and to clarify that heightened penalties apply for menacing a probation officer.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 2903.22 and 2921.31 of the Revised Code be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2903.22. (A) (1) No person shall knowingly cause another to believe that the offender will cause physical harm to the person or property of the other person, the other person's unborn, or a member of the other person's immediate family. In addition to any other basis for the other person's belief that 16 the offender will cause physical harm to the person or property 17 of the other person, the other person's unborn, or a member of 18 the other person's immediate family, the other person's belief 19 may be based on words or conduct of the offender that are 20 directed at or identify a corporation, association, or other 21 organization that employs the other person or to which the other 22 person belongs. 23

(2) No person shall knowingly place or attempt to place 24 another in reasonable fear of physical harm or death by 25 displaying a deadly weapon, regardless of whether the deadly 26 weapon displayed is operable or inoperable, if either of the 27 following applies: 28

(a) The other person is an emergency service responder, 29 the person knows or reasonably should know that the other person 30 is an emergency service responder, and it is the person's 31 specific purpose to engage in the specified conduct against an 32 emergency service responder. 33

(b) The other person is a family or household member or 34 co-worker of an emergency service responder, the person knows or 35 reasonably should know that the other person is a family or 36 household member or co-worker of an emergency service responder, 37 and it is the person's specific purpose to engage in the 38 specified conduct against a family or household member or co- 39 worker of an emergency service responder. 40

(B) Whoever violates this section is guilty of menacing. 41

Except as otherwise provided in this division, menacing is 42 a misdemeanor of the fourth degree. If the victim of the offense 43 is an officer or employee of a public children services agency 44 or a private child placing agency and the offense relates to the 45 officer's or employee's performance or anticipated performance 46 of official responsibilities or duties or if the victim of the 47 offense is an emergency service responder in the performance of 48 the responder's official duties, menacing is one of the 49 following: 50

(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) (2) of 51
this section, a misdemeanor of the first degree; 52

(2) If the offender previously has been convicted of or 53 pleaded guilty to an offense of violence, the victim of that 54 prior offense was an officer or employee of a public children 55 services agency or private child placing agency or an emergency 56 service responder, and that prior offense related to the 57
officer's or employee's performance or anticipated performance 58
of official responsibilities or duties or to the responder's 59 performance of the responder's official duties, a felony of the 60 fourth degree. 61

(C) A prosecution for a violation of this section does not 62 preclude a prosecution of a violation of any other section of 63 the Revised Code. One or more acts, a series of acts, or a 64 course of behavior that can be prosecuted under this section or 65 any other section of the Revised Code may be prosecuted under 66 this section, the other section of the Revised Code, or both 67 sections. However, if an offender is convicted of or pleads 68 guilty to a violation of this section and also is convicted of 69 or pleads guilty to a violation of section 2903.13 of the 70 Revised Code based on the same conduct involving the same victim 71 that was the basis of the violation of this section, the two 72 offenses are allied offenses of similar import under section 73 2941.25 of the Revised Code. 74

(D) As used in this section:	75
(1) "Emergency service responder," "family has the same meaning as in section 2903.13 of the Revised Code and also includes a probation officer.	76 77 78
(2) "Family or household member," and "co-worker" have the same meanings as in section 2903.13 of the Revised Code.	79 80
(2) (3) "Organization" includes an entity that is a governmental employer.	81 82
(4) "Probation officer" means a probation officer appointed by a municipal court under section 1901.33 of the Revised Code, a probation officer appointed by a county court under section 1907.201 of the Revised Code, and a probation officer appointed by a court of common pleas under section 2301.27 of the Revised Code.	83 84 85 86 87 88
Sec. 2921.31. (A) As used in this section:	89
(1) "Emergency service responder" has the same meaning as in section 2903.22 of the Revised Code.	90 91
(2) "Warning" means a verbal command made by an emergency service responder through which the emergency service responder does both of the following:	92 93 94
(a) Commands a person to maintain the person's distance, to stay away, to back away, to not interfere, or another similar instruction;	95 96 97
(b) Communicates the verbal command in a manner such that a reasonable person would believe that the person must comply with the verbal command under the circumstances.	98 99 100
(B) No person, without privilege to do so and with purpose	101 to prevent, obstruct, or delay the performance by a public 102 official of any authorized act within the public official's 103 official capacity, shall do any act that hampers or impedes a 104 public official in the performance of the public official's 105 lawful duties. 106

~~(B)~~(C) No person, without privilege to do so, and after 107 receiving a warning, shall knowingly approach or remain within 108 fifteen feet of an emergency service responder engaged in the 109 lawful performance of the responder's legal duty and do either 110 of the following: 111

(1) Impede or interfere with the emergency service 112 responder's ability to perform the responder's legal duty; 113

(2) Threaten the emergency service responder with physical 114 harm. 115

(D) (1) Whoever violates this section is guilty of 116 obstructing official business. Except as otherwise provided in 117 ~~this division~~ divisions (D) (2), (3), and (4) of this section, 118 obstructing official business is a misdemeanor of the second 119 degree. 120

(2) If the victim is an emergency service responder 121 engaged in the lawful performance of the responder's legal duty, 122 and the responder issued a warning to the person before the 123 person engaged in or continued to engage in the conduct 124 described in division (B) of this section, obstructing official 125 business is a misdemeanor of the first degree. 126

(3) If a violation of this section creates a risk of 127 physical harm to ~~any~~ a person other than an emergency service 128 responder, obstructing official business is a felony of the 129 fifth degree. 130

(4) If a violation of this section creates a risk of 131 physical harm to an emergency service responder, obstructing 132 official business is a felony of the fourth degree. 133

Section 2. That existing sections 2903.22 and 2921.31 of 134 the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 135
