SUMMARY

- Prohibits the payment of state Medicaid funds to specified abortion providers.

DETAILED ANALYSIS

Medicaid payments to abortion providers

Federal law enacted in H.R. 1, the “One Big Beautiful Bill Act,” prohibits the payment of federal funds for one year to a nonprofit organization that (1) serves predominantly low-income, medically underserved individuals by primarily providing family planning services, reproductive health, and related medical care, (2) provides abortions in cases where the life of the mother is not in danger and the pregnancy is not the result of rape or incest, and (3) received over $800,000 in federal and state Medicaid payments in fiscal year 2023.<sup>1</sup>

H.B. 410 prohibits the payment of state Medicaid funds to the same organizations identified in H.R. 1.<sup>2</sup>
