5818.30, 5818.31, 5818.32, and 5818.33 of the Revised Code be	23
enacted to read as follows:	24
Sec. 1336.04. (A) A—Subject to division (C) of this	25
section, a transfer made or an obligation incurred by a debtor	26
is fraudulent as to a creditor, whether the claim of the	27 creditor arose before, or within a reasonable time not to exceed	28
four years after, the transfer was made or the obligation was	29 incurred, if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the	30 obligation in either of the following ways:	31
(1) With actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any	32 creditor of the debtor;	33
creditor of the deptor;	33
(2) Without receiving a reasonably equivalent value in	34 exchange for the transfer or obligation, and if either of the	35
following applies:	36
(a) The debtor was engaged or was about to engage in a	37 business or a transaction for which the remaining assets of the	38 debtor were unreasonably small in relation to the business or	39 transaction;	40
(b) The debtor intended to incur, or believed or	41 reasonably should have believed that the debtor would incur,	42 debts beyond the debtor's ability to pay as they became due.	43
(B) In determining actual intent under division (A)(1) of	44
this section, consideration may be given to all relevant	45 factors, including, but not limited to, the following:	46
(1) Whether the transfer or obligation was to an insider;	47
(2) Whether the debtor retained possession or control of	48
the property transferred after the transfer;	49

(3) Whether the transfer or obligation was disclosed or	50 concealed;	51
(4) Whether before the transfer was made or the obligation	52 was incurred, the debtor had been sued or threatened with suit;	53
(5) Whether the transfer was of substantially all of the	54 assets of the debtor;	55
(6) Whether the debtor absconded;	56
(7) Whether the debtor removed or concealed assets;	57
(8) Whether the value of the consideration received by the	58
debtor was reasonably equivalent to the value of the asset	59 transferred or the amount of the obligation incurred;	60
(9) Whether the debtor was insolvent or became insolvent	61
shortly after the transfer was made or the obligation was	62 incurred;	63
(10) Whether the transfer occurred shortly before or	64
shortly after a substantial debt was incurred;	65
(11) Whether the debtor transferred the essential assets	66 of the business to a lienholder who transferred the assets to an	67 insider of the debtor.	68
(C) No transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor	69
due to or as a result of the debtor's death is actionable under	70
division (A)(2) of this section.	71
Sec. 1336.05. (A) A—Subject to division (C) of this	72
is fraudulent as to a creditor whose claim arose before the	74 transfer was made or the obligation was incurred if the debtor	75 made the transfer or incurred the obligation without receiving a	76 reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or	77 obligation and the debtor was insolvent at that time or the	78 debtor became insolvent as a result of the transfer or	79 obligation.	80

(B) A—Subject to division (C) of this section, a transfer	81 made or an obligation incurred by a debtor is fraudulent as to a	82 creditor whose claim arose before the transfer was made or the	83 obligation was incurred if the transfer was made to or the	84 obligation was incurred with respect to an insider for an	85 antecedent debt, the debtor was insolvent at that time, and the	86 insider had reasonable cause to believe that the debtor was	87
insolvent.	88
(C) No transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor	89
due to or as a result of the debtor's death is actionable under	90
this section.	91
Sec. 1336.09. A-(A) Subject to division (B) of this	92 section, a claim for relief with respect to a transfer or an	93 obligation that is fraudulent under section 1336.04 or 1336.05	94 of the Revised Code is extinguished unless an action is brought	95
in accordance with one of the following:	96
$\frac{A}{A}$ (1) If the transfer or obligation is fraudulent under	97 division (A)(1) of section 1336.04 of the Revised Code, within	98
four years after the transfer was made or the obligation was	99 incurred or, if later, within one year after the transfer or	100 obligation was or reasonably could have been discovered by the	101
claimant;	102
$\frac{B}{B}$ If the transfer or obligation is fraudulent under	103 division (A)(2) of section 1336.04 or division (A) of section	104
1336.05 of the Revised Code, within four years after the	105

transfer was made or the obligation was incurred;	106
$\frac{(C)}{(3)}$ If the transfer or obligation is fraudulent under	107 division (B) of section 1336.05 of the Revised Code, within one	108 year after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred.	109
(B) Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, any	110 claim for relief based on a transfer made or obligation incurred	111
by a debtor due to or as a result of the debtor's death is	112 extinguished unless an action is brought within six months after	113
the debtor's death.	114
Sec. 1337.34. (A) Notwithstanding provisions in the power	115 of attorney, an agent that has accepted appointment shall do all	116 of the following act in accordance with all of the following	117 mandatory duties, none of which can be waived:	118
(1) Act in accordance with the principal's reasonable	119 expectations to the extent actually known by the agent and,	120 otherwise, in the principal's best interest;	121
(2) Act in good faith;	122
(3) Act only within the scope of authority granted in the	123 power of attorney;	124
(4) Attempt to preserve the principal's estate plan to the	125 extent actually known by the agent if preserving the plan is	126 consistent with the principal's best interest based on all	127 relevant factors, including all of the following:	128
(a) The value and nature of the principal's property;	129
(b) The principal's foreseeable obligations and need for	130 maintenance;	131
(c) Minimization of taxes, including income, estate,	132

inheritance, generation-skipping transfer, and gift taxes;	133
(d) Eligibility for a benefit, a program, or assistance	134
under a statute or regulation.	135
(B) Except as otherwise provided in the power of attorney,	136
an agent that has accepted appointment shall do all of the	137
following:	138
(1) Act loyally for the principal's benefit;	139
(2) Act so as not to create a conflict of interest that	140
impairs the agent's ability to act impartially in the	141
<pre>principal's best interest;</pre>	142
(3) Act with the care, competence, and diligence	143
ordinarily exercised by agents in similar circumstances;	144
(4) Keep a record of all receipts, disbursements, and	145
transactions made on behalf of the principal;	146
(5) Cooperate with a person that has authority to make	147 health-care decisions for the principal to carry out the	148
principal's reasonable expectations to the extent actually known	149 by the agent and, otherwise, act in the principal's best	150 interest.	151
(C) An agent that acts in good faith is not liable to any	152 beneficiary of the principal's estate plan for failure to	153 preserve the plan.	154
(D) An agent that acts with care, competence, and	155 diligence for the best interest of the principal is not liable	156 solely because the agent also benefits from the act or has an	157 individual or conflicting interest in relation to the property	158 or affairs of the principal.	159

(E) If an agent is selected by the principal because of	160
special skills or expertise possessed by the agent or in	161 reliance on the agent's representation that the agent has	162 special skills or expertise, the special skills or expertise	163 must be considered in determining whether the agent has acted	164
with care, competence, and diligence under the circumstances.	165
(F) Absent a breach of duty to the principal, an agent is	166 not liable if the value of the principal's property declines.	167
(G) An agent that exercises authority to delegate to	168
another person the authority granted by the principal or that	169 engages another person on behalf of the principal is not liable	170 for an act, error of judgment, or default of that person if the	171 agent exercises care, competence, and diligence in selecting and	172 monitoring the person.	173
(H) Except as otherwise provided in the power of attorney,	174

(1) The principal or the agent;	189
(2) A guardian, conservator, or other fiduciary acting for	190
the principal, including an executor or administrator of the	191 estate of a deceased principal;	192
(3) A person authorized to make health-care decisions for	193
the principal;	194
(4) The principal's spouse, parent, or descendant;	195
(5) An individual who would qualify as a presumptive heir	196
of the principal;	197
(6) A person named as a beneficiary to receive any	198 property, benefit, or contractual right on the principal's death	199 or as a beneficiary of a trust created by or for the principal	200 that has a financial interest in the principal's estate;	201
(7) A governmental agency having regulatory authority to	202 protect the welfare of the principal;	203
(8) The principal's caregiver or another person that	204 demonstrates sufficient interest in the principal's welfare;	205
(9) A person asked to accept the power of attorney.	206
(B) Upon motion by the principal, the court shall dismiss	207
a petition filed under this section, unless the court finds that	208
the principal lacks capacity to revoke the agent's authority or	209
the power of attorney.	210
(C) In a judicial proceeding under this chapter involving	211
the administration of a power of attorney, including actions	212
under this section, the court, as justice may require, may award	213 costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, to any	214 party, to be paid by another party.	215

Sec. 1337.42. (A) An agent under a power of attorney may	216
do any of the following on behalf of the principal or with the	217 principal's property only if the power of attorney expressly	218 grants the agent the authority and if exercise of the authority	219 is not otherwise prohibited by another agreement or instrument	220 to which the authority or property is subject, and, with respect	221 to a revocable trust of which the principal was the settlor, if	222
the trust agreement also expressly authorizes the agent to	223 exercise the principal's powers with respect to the revocation,	224 amendment, or distribution withdrawal of trust property, or the	225 ability to direct the distribution of trust property:	226
(1) Create, amend, revoke, or terminate an inter vivos	227 trust to the extent permitted by section 5801.05 of the Revised	228
Code or any other provision of Title LVIII of the Revised Code;	229
(2) Make a gift;	230
(3) Create or change rights of survivorship;	231
(4) Create or change a beneficiary designation;	232
(5) Delegate authority granted under the power of	233
attorney;	234
(6) Waive the principal's right to be a beneficiary of a	235 joint and survivor annuity, including a survivor benefit under a	236 retirement plan;	237
(7) Exercise fiduciary powers that the principal has	238 authority to delegate.	239
(B) Notwithstanding a grant of authority to do an act	240 described in division (A) of this section, unless the power of	241 attorney otherwise provides, an agent that is not an ancestor,	242 spouse, or descendant of the principal may not exercise	243 authority under a power of attorney to create in the agent, or	244 in an individual to whom the agent owes a legal obligation of	245 support, an interest in the principal's property, whether by	246 gift, right of survivorship, beneficiary designation,	247

disclaimer, or otherwise.	248
(C) Subject to divisions (A), (B), (D), and (E) of this	249 section, if a power of attorney grants to an agent authority to	250 do all acts that a principal could do, the agent has the general	251 authority described in sections 1337.45 to 1337.57 of the	252
Revised Code.	253
(D) Unless the power of attorney otherwise provides, a	254
grant of authority to make a gift is subject to section 1337.58	255
of the Revised Code.	256
(E) Subject to divisions (A), (B), and (D) of this	257 section, if the subjects over which authority is granted in a	258 power of attorney are similar or overlap, the broadest authority	259
controls.	260
(F) Authority granted in a power of attorney is	261
exercisable with respect to property that the principal has when	262 the power of attorney is executed or acquires later, whether or	263 not the property is located in this state and whether or not the	264 authority is exercised or the power of attorney is executed in	265
this state.	266
(G) An act performed by an agent pursuant to a power of	267 attorney has the same effect and inures to the benefit of and	268 binds the principal and the principal's successors in interest	269
as if the principal had performed the act.	270
(H) Notwithstanding a grant of authority to perform any of	271
the acts enumerated in division (A) of this section an agent is	273 bound by the mandatory fiduciary duties set forth in division	273

(A) of section 1337.34 of the Revised Code, including the duty	274 to attempt to preserve the principal's estate plan, as well as	275
the default duties set forth in division (B) of section 1337.34	276 of the Revised Code that the principal has not modified.	277
Sec. 1337.52. (A) As used in this section, "estate, trust,	278 or other beneficial interest" means a trust, probate estate,	279 guardianship, conservatorship, escrow, or custodianship or a	280 fund from which the principal is, may become, or claims to be	281 entitled to a share or payment.	282
(B) Unless Subject to division (E) of section 5806.02 and	283 division (A) of section 1337.42 of the Revised Code, unless the	284 power of attorney otherwise provides, language in a power of	285 attorney granting general authority with respect to estates,	286 trusts, and other beneficial interests authorizes the agent to	287
do all of the following:	288
(1) Accept, receive, receipt for, sell, assign, pledge, or	289 exchange a share in or payment from an estate, trust, or other	290 beneficial interest;	291
$\frac{(2)}{(2)}$ (2) (a) Demand or obtain money or another thing of value	292 to which the principal is, may become, or claims to be entitled	293 by reason of an estate, trust, or other beneficial interest, by	294 litigation or otherwise;	295
(b) With respect to a revocable trust of which the	296 principal is the settlor, an agent shall not exercise a right	297 reserved by the principal to withdraw, or to direct the	298 distribution of, trust property unless specifically permitted by	299
the trust instrument.	300
(3) Exercise for the benefit of the principal a presently	301

exercisable general power of appointment held by the principal;	302
(4) Initiate, participate in, submit to alternative	303
dispute resolution, settle, oppose, or propose or accept a	304
compromise with respect to litigation to ascertain the meaning,	305 validity, or effect of a deed, will, declaration of trust, or	306 other instrument or transaction affecting the interest of the	307 principal;	308
(5) Initiate, participate in, submit to alternative	309
dispute resolution, settle, oppose, or propose or accept a	310
compromise with respect to litigation to remove, substitute, or	311 surcharge a fiduciary;	312
(6) Conserve, invest, disburse, or use anything received	313
for an authorized purpose;	314
(7) Transfer an interest of the principal in real	315 property, stocks and bonds, accounts with financial institutions	316 or securities intermediaries, insurance, annuities, and other	317 property to the trustee of a revocable trust created by the	318
<pre>principal as settlor;</pre>	319
(8) Reject, renounce, disclaim, release, or consent to a	320 reduction in or modification of a share in or payment from an	321 estate, trust, or other beneficial interest.	322
Sec. 2117.02. An executor or administrator within three	323 months after the date of appointment, and before the expiration	324 of the period prescribed for the claim by section 2117.06 of the	325
Revised Code, shall present any claim the executor or	326 administrator has against the estate to the probate court for	327 allowance. The claim shall not be paid unless allowed by the	328 court. When an executor or administrator presents a claim	329 amounting to five hundred dollars or more, the court shall fix a	330

day not less than four nor more than six weeks from its	331 presentation, when the testimony touching it shall be heard. The	332 court shall issue an order directed to the executor or	333 administrator requiring the executor or administrator to give	334 notice in writing to all the heirs, legatees, or devisees of the	335 decedent interested in the estate, and to the creditors named in	336
the order. The notice shall contain a statement of the amount	337 claimed, designate the time fixed for hearing the testimony, and	338 be served upon the persons named in the order at least twenty	339 days before the time for hearing. If any persons mentioned in	340
the order are not residents of the county, service of notice may	341 be made upon them by publication for three consecutive weeks in	342
a newspaper published or circulating in the county, or as the	343 court may direct. All persons named in the order shall be	344 parties to the proceeding, and any other person having an	345 interest in the estate may be made a party.	346

Sec. 5701.11. The effective date to which this section refers is the effective date of this section as amended by H.B. 348 14 of the 136th general assembly.

The filing by the taxpayer for that taxable year of a report or	371 return that incorporates the provisions of the Internal Revenue	372
Code or other laws of the United States applicable for federal	373 income tax purposes for that taxable year, and that does not	374 include any adjustments to reverse the effects of any	375 differences between those provisions and the provisions that	376 would otherwise apply, constitutes the making of an irrevocable	377 election under this division for that taxable year.	378
(2) Elections under prior versions of division (B)(1) of	379 this section remain in effect for the taxable years to which	380
they apply.	381
Sec. 5801.04. (A) Except as otherwise provided in the	382 terms of the trust, Chapters 5801. to 5811. of the Revised Code	383 govern the duties and powers of a trustee, relations among	384 trustees, and the rights and interests of a beneficiary.	385
(B) The terms of a trust prevail over any provision of	386
Chapters 5801. to 5811. of the Revised Code except the	387
following:	388
(1) The requirements for creating a trust;	389

(2) The Subject to Chapter 5818. of the Revised Code, the	390 duty of a trustee to act in good faith and in accordance with	391
the purposes of the trust;	392
the purposes of the clase,	332
(3) The requirement that the trust have a purpose that is	393 lawful, not contrary to public policy, and possible to achieve;	394
(4) The power of the court to modify or terminate a trust	395
under sections 5804.10 to 5804.16 of the Revised Code;	396
(5) The effect of a spendthrift provision and the rights	397 of certain creditors and assignees to reach a trust as provided	398
in Chapter 5805. of the Revised Code;	399
(6) The power of the court under section 5807.02 of the	400
Revised Code to require, dispense with, or modify or terminate a	401
bond;	402
(7) The power of the court under division (B) of section	403
5807.08 of the Revised Code to adjust a trustee's compensation	404 specified in the terms of the trust which is unreasonably low or	405 high;	406
(8) Subject to division (C) of this section, the duty	407
under divisions (B)(2) and (3) of section 5808.13 of the Revised	408
Code to notify current beneficiaries of an irrevocable trust who	409 have attained twenty-five years of age of the existence of the	410 trust, of the identity of the trustee, and of their right to	411 request trustee's reports;	412
(9) Subject to division (C) of this section, the duty	413
under division (A) of section 5808.13 of the Revised Code to	414 respond to the request of a current beneficiary of an	415 irrevocable trust for trustee's reports and other information	416 reasonably related to the administration of a trust;	417

(10) The effect of an exculpatory term under section	418
5810.08 of the Revised Code;	419
(11) The rights under sections 5810.10 to 5810.13 of the	420
Revised Code of a person other than a trustee or beneficiary;	421
(12) Periods of limitation for commencing a judicial	422 proceeding;	422
proceeding,	120
(13) The power of the court to take any action and	424 exercise any jurisdiction that may be necessary in the interests	425 of justice;	426
(14) The subject-matter jurisdiction of the court for	427 commencing a proceeding as provided in section 5802.03 of the	428
Revised Code.	429
(C) With respect to one or more of the gurrent	430
(C) With respect to one or more of the current beneficiaries, the settlor, in the trust instrument, may waive	431 or modify the duties of the trustee described in divisions (B)	432
(8) and (9) of this section. The waiver or modification may be	433 made only by the settlor designating in the trust instrument one	434 or more beneficiary surrogates to receive any notices,	435 information, or reports otherwise required under those divisions	436 to be provided to the current beneficiaries. If the settlor	437 makes a waiver or modification pursuant to this division, the	438 trustee shall provide the notices, information, and reports to	439
the beneficiary surrogate or surrogates in lieu of providing	440 them to the current beneficiaries. The beneficiary surrogate or	441 surrogates shall act in good faith to protect the interests of	442
the current beneficiaries for whom the notices, information, or	443 reports are received. A waiver or modification made under this	444 division shall be effective for so long as the beneficiary	445 surrogate or surrogates, or their successor or successors	446 designated in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument,	447 act in that capacity.	448

(D) Except as provided under divisions (B) and (C) of this	449 section, it is the policy of this state to give maximum effect	450 to the principle of freedom of disposition and to the	451
enforceability of governing instruments.	452
Sec. 5801.07. (A) Without precluding other means for	453 establishing a sufficient connection with the designated	454 jurisdiction, the terms of a trust designating the principal	455 place of administration of the trust are valid and controlling	456
if a trustee's principal place of business is located in or a	457 trustee is a resident of the designated jurisdiction or if all	458 or part of the administration occurs in the designated	459 jurisdiction.	460
(B) A trustee is under a continuing duty to administer the	461 trust at a place appropriate to its purposes, its	462 administration, and the interests of the beneficiaries. If there	463 is more than one place reasonably appropriate for administration	464 of a trust, the trustee may administer the trust at any of those	465 places. The original place of administration selected by the	466
settlor remains an appropriate place of administration.	467
(C) Without precluding the right of the court to order,	468 approve, or disapprove a transfer, the trustee, in furtherance	469 of the duty prescribed by division (B) of this section, may	470 transfer the trust's principal place of administration to	471 another state or to a jurisdiction outside of the United States.	472
(D) The trustee shall notify the current beneficiaries of	473
a proposed transfer of a trust's principal place of	474 administration not less than sixty days before initiating the	475

transfer. The notice of a proposed transfer shall include all of	476
the following:	477
(1) The name of the jurisdiction to which the principal	478
place of administration is to be transferred;	479
(2) The address and telephone number at the new location	480
at which the trustee can be contacted;	481
(3) An explanation of the reasons for the proposed	482 transfer;	483
(4) The date on which the trustee expects the proposed	484 transfer to occur.	485
(E) In connection with a transfer of the trust's principal	486 place of administration, the trustee may transfer some or all of	487
the trust property to a successor trustee designated in the	488 terms of the trust or appointed pursuant to section 5807.04 of	489
the Revised Code.	490
Sec. 5806.02. (A) Unless the terms of a trust expressly	491 provide that the trust is irrevocable, the settlor may revoke or	492 amend the trust. This division does not apply to a trust created	493 under an instrument executed before January 1, 2007.	494
	405
(B) If a revocable trust is created or funded by more than	495
one settlor, all of the following apply:	496
(1) To the extent the trust consists of community	497 property, either spouse acting alone may revoke the trust, but	498
the trust may be amended only by joint action of both spouses.	499
(2) To the extent the trust consists of property other	500 than community property, each settlor may revoke or amend the	501 trust with regard to the portion of the trust property	502 attributable to that settlor's contribution.	503

(3) Upon the revocation or amendment of the trust by less	504 than all of the settlors, the trustee shall promptly notify the	505 other settlors of the revocation or amendment.	506
(C) The settlor may revoke or amend a revocable trust by	507 substantial compliance with a method provided in the terms of	508
the trust or, if the terms of the trust do not provide a method,	509
by any method manifesting clear and convincing evidence of the	510 settlor's intent, provided that a revocable trust may not be	511 revoked or amended by a will or codicil, regardless of whether	512
it refers to the trust or specifically devises property that	513 would otherwise have passed according to the terms of the trust	514 unless the terms of the trust expressly allow it to be revoked	515 or amended by a will or codicil.	516
(D) Upon revocation of a revocable trust, the trustee	517 shall deliver the trust property as the settlor directs.	518
(E) An agent under a power of attorney may exercise a	519 settlor's powers with respect to revocation, amendment,	520 withdrawal of trust property, or the ability to direct the	521 distribution of trust property only to the extent expressly	522 authorized by both the terms of the trust and the power.	523
(F) A guardian of the estate of the settlor or, if no	524 guardian of the estate has been appointed, a guardian of the	525 person of the settlor may exercise a settlor's powers with	526 respect to revocation, amendment, or distribution of trust	527 property only with the approval of the court supervising the	528
guardianship.	529
(G) A trustee who does not know that a trust has been	530 revoked or amended is not liable to the settlor or settlor's	531 successors in interest for distributions made and other actions	532 taken on the assumption that the trust had not been amended or	533 revoked.	534

Sec. 5806.03. (A) During the lifetime of the settlor of a	535
revocable trust, whether or not the settlor has capacity to	536 revoke the trust, the rights of the beneficiaries are subject to	537
the control of the settlor, and the duties of the trustee,	538 including the duties to inform and report under section 5808.13	539 of the Revised Code, are owed exclusively to the settlor. If the	540 trustee breaches its duty during the lifetime of the settlor,	541 any recovery obtained from the trustee after the settlor becomes	542 incapacitated or dies shall be apportioned by the court. If the	543 settlor is living when the recovery is obtained, the court shall	544 apportion the recovery between the settlor and the trust, or	545 allocate the entire recovery to the settlor or the trust, as it	546 determines to be equitable under the circumstances. If the	547 settlor is not living when the recovery is obtained, the court	548 shall apportion the recovery between the settlor's estate and	549
the trust, or allocate the entire recovery to the settlor's	550 estate or the trust, as it determines to be equitable under the	551 circumstances.	552
(B) During the period the power may be exercised, the	553
holder of a power of withdrawal has the rights of a settlor of a	554 revocable trust under this section to the extent of the property	555 subject to the power.	556
(C) While a trust is revocable, the trustee may follow a	557 direction of the settlor that is contrary to the terms of the	558
trust.	559
Sec. 5808.161. (A) As used in this section:	560
(1) "Protector" has the same meaning as in section 5818.01	561

(2) "Internal Revenue Code" has the same meaning as in	563
section 5747.01 of the Revised Code.	564
(B) With respect to any trust, or portion thereof, that is	565 treated as being owned by a person under sections 671 to 679 of	566
the Internal Revenue Code or any similar federal, state, or	567
other tax law, the trustee, in the trustee's sole discretion,	568 may pay to the appropriate taxing authority or may reimburse the	569 person being treated as the owner any amount of the person's	570
income tax liability attributable to the inclusion of the	571
trust's income, capital gains, deductions, or credits in the	572
calculation of the person's taxable income. In the trustee's	573 sole discretion, the trustee may pay such tax reimbursement	574 amount to the person directly or to the appropriate taxing	575 authority.	576
(C) This section applies to all trusts, whether created	577 on, before, or after the effective date of this section, unless	578 any of the following apply:	579
(1) Applying this section would reduce or prevent a	580 contribution to the trust from qualifying for a federal tax	581 benefit, including a federal tax exclusion or deduction, which	582 was originally claimed or could have been claimed for the	583 contribution;	584
(2) The trust is a grantor retained annuity trust or	585
grantor retained unitrust during a term interest under paragraph	586
(c) (3) of section 2702 of the Internal Revenue Code;	587
(3) Applying this section would be the only trigger that	588 would result in any trust, or portion thereof, as treated as	589 being owned by a person under sections 671 to 679 of the	590

Internal Revenue Code or any similar federal, state, or other	591 tax law. This division does not prohibit reimbursement in a	592 subsequent year provided that the reimbursement relates to a	593 year in which the person was treated as an owner under sections	594
671 to 679 of the Internal Revenue Code.	595
(D) A trustee who acts in good faith in exercising or not	596 exercising the power granted by this section is rebuttably	597 presumed to have acted in accordance with the terms and purposes	598 of the trust and the interests of the beneficiaries, and no	599 inference of impropriety shall arise as a result of a trustee	600 exercising or not exercising the power.	601
(E)(1) If the terms of a trust require the trustee to act	602
at the direction or with the consent of a protector or that the	603 decisions governed by this section be made directly by a	604 protector, the powers granted by this section to the trustee	605 shall instead or also be granted, pursuant to the terms of the	606 trust, to the protector.	607
(2) If a protector is granted powers under division (E)(1)	608 of this section, that person is subject to the limitations	609 described in this section, which shall be applied as if the	610 protector were a trustee.	611
(F) A person shall not be considered a beneficiary of a	612 trust solely by reason of the application of this section or the	613 application of a similar provision in the trust instrument.	614
Sec. 5808.19. (A) As used in this section, unless	615 otherwise provided in any other provision in this section:	616
(1)(1)(a) "Beneficiary" means—includes the beneficiary of	617
a primary gift, the beneficiary of a future interest, and	618 includes a class member if the future interest is in the form of	619

a class gift.	620
(b) Except as otherwise provided in this division, the	621 amendment to division (A)(1)(a) of this section in this act	622 shall be given retroactive effect to the fullest extent	623 permitted under Ohio Constitution, Article II, Section 28. The	624 amendment shall not be given retroactive effect in those	625 instances where doing so would invalidate or supersede any	626 instrument that conveys real property or any interest in the	627 real property, recorded in the office of the county recorder in	628 which that real property is situated.	629
(2) "Class member" means an individual who fails to	630
survive the distribution date by at least one hundred twenty	631 hours but who would have taken under a future interest in the	632 form of a class gift had the individual survived the	633
distribution date by at least one hundred twenty hours.	634
(3) "Descendant of a grandparent of the transferor" means	635
an individual who would qualify as a descendant of a grandparent	636 of the transferor under the rules of construction that would	637
apply to a class gift under the transferor's will to the	638 descendants of the transferor's grandparent.	639
(4) "Distribution date," with respect to a future	640 interest, means the time when the future interest is to take	641 effect in possession or enjoyment. The distribution date need	642 not occur at the beginning or end of a calendar day but may	643 occur at a time during the course of a day.	644
(5) "Future interest" means an alternative future interest	645 or a future interest in the form of a class gift.	646
(6) "Future interest under the terms of a trust" means a	647 future interest that was created by a transfer creating a trust	648 or a transfer to an existing trust, or by an exercise of a power	649 of appointment to an existing trust, that directs the	650 continuance of an existing trust, designates a beneficiary of an	651 existing trust, or creates a trust.	652

(7) "Per stirpes" means that the shares of the descendants	653 of a beneficiary who does not survive the distribution date by	654 at least one hundred twenty hours are determined in the same way	655
they would have been determined under division (A) of section	656
2105.06 of the Revised Code if the beneficiary had died	657
intestate and unmarried on the distribution date.	658
(8) "Revocable trust" means a trust that was revocable	659 immediately before the settlor's death by the settlor alone or	660 by the settlor with the consent of any person other than a	661 person holding an adverse interest. A trust's characterization	662 as revocable is not affected by the settlor's lack of capacity	663 to exercise the power of revocation, regardless of whether an	664 agent of the settlor under a power of attorney, or a guardian of	665
the person or estate of the settlor, was serving.	666
(9) "Stepchild" means a child of the surviving, deceased,	667 or former spouse of the transferor and not of the transferor.	668
(10) "Transferor" means any of the following:	669
(a) The donor and donee of a power of appointment, if the	670 future interest was in property as a result of the exercise of a	671 power of appointment;	672
(b) The testator, if the future interest was devised by	673
will;	674
(c) The settlor, if the future interest was conveyed by	675
inter vivos trust.	676

(B)(1)(a) As used in "surviving descendants" in divisions	6.7.7
(B)(2)(b)(i) and (ii) of this section, "descendants" means the	678 descendants of a deceased beneficiary or class member who would	679 take under a class gift created in the trust.	680
(b) As used in divisions (B)(2)(b)(i) and (ii) of this	681
section, "surviving beneficiaries" or "surviving descendants"	682 means beneficiaries or descendants, whichever is applicable, who	683 survive the distribution date by at least one hundred twenty	684
hours.	685
(2) Unless a contrary intent appears in the instrument	686 creating a future interest under the terms of a trust, each of	687
the following applies:	688
(a) A future interest under the terms of a trust is	689
contingent on the beneficiary's surviving the distribution date	690
by at least one hundred twenty hours.	691
(b) If a beneficiary of a future interest under the terms	692 of a trust does not survive the distribution date by at least	693
one hundred twenty hours and if the beneficiary is a grandparent	694 of the transferor, a descendant of a grandparent of the	695
transferor, or a stepchild of the transferor, either of the	696
following applies:	697
(i) If the future interest is not in the form of a class	698 gift and the deceased beneficiary leaves surviving descendants,	699
a substitute gift is created in the beneficiary's surviving	700 descendants. The surviving descendants take, per stirpes, the	701 property to which the beneficiary would have been entitled had	702 the beneficiary survived the distribution date by at least one	703 hundred twenty hours.	704
(ii) If the future interest is in the form of a class	705

gift, other than a future interest to "issue," "descendants,"	706
"heirs of the body," "heirs," "next of kin," "relatives," or	707
"family," or a class described by language of similar import	708 that includes more than one generation, a substitute gift is	709 created in the surviving descendants of the deceased beneficiary	710 or beneficiaries. The property to which the beneficiaries would	711 have been entitled had all of them survived the distribution	712
date by at least one hundred twenty hours passes to the	713 surviving beneficiaries and the surviving descendants of the	714 deceased beneficiaries. Each surviving beneficiary takes the	715 share to which the surviving beneficiary would have been	716 entitled had the deceased beneficiaries survived the	717 distribution date by at least one hundred twenty hours. Each	718 deceased beneficiary's surviving descendants who are substituted	719 for the deceased beneficiary take, per stirpes, the share to	720 which the deceased beneficiary would have been entitled had the	721 deceased beneficiary survived the distribution date by at least	722 one hundred twenty hours. For purposes of division (B)(2)(b)(ii)	723 of this section, "deceased beneficiary" means a class member who	724 failed to survive the distribution date by at least one hundred	725 twenty hours and left one or more surviving descendants.	726

- (C) For purposes of this section, each of the following 727 applies: 728
- (1) Describing a class of beneficiaries as "surviving" or 729
 "living," without specifying when the beneficiaries must be 730 surviving or living, such as a gift "for my spouse for life, 731 then to my surviving (or living) children," is not, in the 732 absence of other language in the trust instrument or other 733 evidence to the contrary, a sufficient indication of an intent 734 to negate the application of division (B)(2)(b) of this section. 735

(2) Subject to division (C)(1) of this section, attaching	736 words of survivorship to a future interest under the terms of a	737 trust, such as "for my spouse for life, then to my children who	738
living children" is, in the absence of other language in the	740 trust instrument or other evidence to the contrary, a sufficient	741 indication of an intent to negate the application of division	742
(B)(2)(b) of this section. Words of survivorship under division	743
(C)(2) of this section include words of survivorship that relate	744 to the distribution date or to an earlier or an unspecified	745 time, whether those words of survivorship are expressed as	746 condition-precedent, condition-subsequent, or in any other form.	747

- (3) A residuary clause in a will is not a sufficient 748 indication of an intent that is contrary to the application of 749 this section, whether or not the will specifically provides that 750 lapsed or failed devises are to pass under the residuary clause. 7.5.1 A residuary clause in a revocable trust instrument is not a 752 sufficient indication of an intent that is contrary to the 753 application of this section unless the distribution date is the 754 date of the settlor's death and the revocable trust instrument 755 specifically provides that upon lapse or failure the 756 nonresiduary devise, or nonresiduary devises in general, pass 757 under the residuary clause. 758
- (D) If, after the application of divisions (B) and (C) of this section there is no surviving taker of the property, and a contrary intent does not appear in the instrument creating the future interest, the property passes in the following order:
- (1) If the future interest was created by the exercise of 763 a power of appointment, the property passes under the donor's 764 gift-in-default clause, if any, which clause is treated as 765

762

creating a future interest under the terms of a trust.	766
(2) If no taker is produced under division (D)(1) of this	767 section and the trust was created in a nonresiduary devise in	768
the transferor's will or in a codicil to the transferor's will,	769
the property passes under the residuary clause in the	770 transferor's will. For purposes of division (D)(2) of this	771 section, the residuary clause is treated as creating a future	772 interest under the terms of a trust.	773
(3) If no taker is produced under divisions (D)(1) and (2)	774 of this section, the transferor is deceased, and the trust was	775 created in a nonresiduary gift under the terms of a revocable	776 trust of the transferor, the property passes under the residuary	777 clause in the transferor's revocable trust instrument. For	778 purposes of division (D)(3) of this section, the residuary	779 clause in the transferor's revocable trust instrument is treated	780
as creating a future interest under the terms of a trust.	781
(4) If no taker is produced under divisions (D)(1), (2),	782 and (3) of this section, the property passes to those persons	783 who would succeed to the transferor's intestate estate and in	784
the shares as provided in the intestate succession law of the	785 transferor's domicile if the transferor died on the distribution	786 date. Notwithstanding division (A)(10) of this section, for	787 purposes of division (D)(4) of this section, if the future	788 interest was created by the exercise of a power of appointment,	789
"transferor" means the donor if the power is a nongeneral power,	790

793

794

or the donee if the power is a general power.

(E) This section applies to all trusts that become irrevocable on or after March 22, 2012. This section does not even if property was added to the trust on or after March 22, apply to any trust that was irrevocable before March 22, 2012,

Sec. 5810.08. A-(A) As used in this section, "trust	797 directive" has the same meaning as in section 5818.01 of the	798
Revised Code.	799
(B) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, a	800 term of a trust relieving a trustee of liability for breach of	801 trust is unenforceable to the extent that it either of the	802
<pre>following apply:</pre>	803
(1) The term relieves the trustee of liability for breach	804 of trust committed in bad faith or with reckless indifference to	805
the purposes of the trust or the interests of the beneficiaries-	806 or_;	807
(2) The term was inserted as the result of an abuse by the	808 trustee of a fiduciary or confidential relationship to with the	809
settlor.	810
(C) A trustee may be relieved from liability for	811 implementing or complying with a trust directive to the extent	812 that the relief meets any of the following criteria:	813
(1) The relief is permitted or allowed by Chapter 5818. of	814
the Revised Code.	815
(2) The relief is authorized by any term of a trust that	816 is permitted or allowed by Chapter 5818. of the Revised Code.	817
(3) The relief is otherwise allowed by the Ohio Trust	818
Code.	819
Sec. 5812.43. (A) A trustee shall make all of the	820
following disbursements from principal:	821
(1) The remaining one-half of the disbursements described	822

in divisions (A) and (B) of section 5812.42 of the Revised Code;	823
(2) All of the trustee's compensation calculated on	824
principal as a fee for acceptance, distribution, or termination,	825 and disbursements made to prepare property for sale;	826
(3) Payments on the principal of a trust debt;	827
(4) Expenses of a proceeding that concerns primarily	828 principal, including a proceeding to construe the trust or to	829 protect the trust or its property;	830
(5) Premiums paid on a policy of insurance not described	831
in division (D) of section 5812.42 of the Revised Code of which	832
the trust is the owner and beneficiary;	833
(6) Estate, inheritance, and other transfer taxes,	834 including penalties, apportioned to the trust;	835
(7) Dishursements related to environmental matters	836
(7) Disbursements related to environmental matters, including reclamation, assessing environmental conditions,	837
remedying and removing environmental contamination, monitoring	838 remedial activities and the release of substances, preventing	839 future releases of substances, collecting amounts from persons	840 liable or potentially liable for the costs of those activities,	841 penalties imposed under environmental laws or regulations and	842 other payments made to comply with those laws or regulations,	843 statutory or common law claims by third parties, and defending	844 claims based on environmental matters;	845
craims based on environmental matters.	010
(8) Disbursements related to payments to a taxing	846 authority or reimbursement to a person being treated as the	847 owner under sections 671 to 679 of the Internal Revenue Code, as	848 defined in section 5747.01 of the Revised Code, or any similar	849 federal, state, or other tax law, for any amount of the person's	850
income tax liability attributable to the inclusion of the	851

calculation of the person's taxable income.	853
(B) If a principal asset is encumbered with an obligation	854 that requires income from that asset to be paid directly to the	855 creditor, the trustee shall transfer from principal to income an	856 amount equal to the income paid to the creditor in reduction of	857
the principal balance of the obligation.	858
Sec. 5815.25. (A) As used in this section, "fiduciary"	859 means a trustee under any testamentary, inter vivos, or other	860 trust, an executor or administrator, or any other person who is	861 acting in a fiduciary capacity for any person, trust, or estate.	862
(B) If an instrument or other applicable written agreement	863 describes, appoints, or directs a fiduciary to handle only the	864 administrative duties and responsibilities of a trust, that	865 administrative fiduciary shall not have any duties,	866 responsibilities, or liabilities to the trust beneficiaries or	867 to other persons interested in a trust except for those	868 administrative duties and responsibilities specifically	869 described in the instrument or written agreement. The	870 administrative duties and responsibilities of a trust under this	871 division may include any of the following:	872
(1) Opening and maintaining bank, brokerage, financial, or	873
other custodial accounts to receive trust income or	874 contributions and from which trust expenditures, bills, and	875 distributions may be disbursed;	876
(2) Maintaining and handling trust records, reports,	877
correspondence, or communications;	878
(3) Maintaining an office for trust business;	879
(4) Filing any trust tax returns;	880

(5) Employing agents in connection with the fiduciary's	881 administrative duties;	882
(6) Taking custody of or storing trust property;	883
(7) Any other similar administrative duties for the trust.	884
(C) If an instrument under which a fiduciary acts reserves	885 to the grantor, or vests in an advisory or investment committee-	886 or in one or more other persons, including one or more	887 fiduciaries, to the exclusion of the fiduciary or of one or more	888 of several fiduciaries, any power, including, but not limited	889 to, the authority to direct the acquisition, disposition, or	890 retention of any investment or the power to authorize any act	891 that an excluded fiduciary may propose, any excluded fiduciary	892 is not liable, either individually or as a fiduciary, for either	893 of the following:	894
(1) Any loss that results from compliance with an	895 authorized direction of the grantor, committee, person, or	896 persons;	897
(2) Any loss that results from a failure to take any	898 action proposed by an excluded fiduciary that requires a prior-	899 authorization of the grantor, committee, person, or persons if	900 that excluded fiduciary timely sought but failed to obtain that	901 authorization.	902
(D)—Any administrative fiduciary as described in division	903
(B) of this section or any excluded fiduciary as described in	904 division (C) of this section is relieved from any obligation to	905 perform investment reviews and make recommendations with respect	906 to any investments to the extent the grantor settlor, an advisory	907 or investment committee, or one or more other persons have	908 authority to direct the acquisition, disposition, or retention	909

of any investment.	910
$\frac{E}{D}$ This section does not apply to the extent that the	911 instrument under which an administrative fiduciary as described	912 in division (B) of this section or an excluded fiduciary as	913 described in division (C) of this section—contains provisions	914 that are inconsistent with this section.	915
Sec. 5816.11. (A) Any person may serve as an advisor of a	916 legacy trust, except that a as follows:	917
(1) A transferor may act as an advisor only in connection	918 with investment decisions.	919
(2) No person shall concurrently serve as a trustee and	920 advisor of a legacy trust.	921
(B) If a person concurrently serves or purports to	922 concurrently serve as trustee and advisor of a legacy trust in	923 violation of division (A)(2) of this section, then the effects,	924 consequences, and time period of that concurrent service are	925 subject to section 5818.06 of the Revised Code.	926
(C) An advisor shall be considered a fiduciary unless the	927
terms of a legacy trust instrument expressly provide otherwise.	928
Sec. 5818.01. As used in this chapter:	929
(A)(1) "Breach of trust" means a breach of a fiduciary	930 duty imposed on a protector by this chapter, any other	931 applicable laws of this state, or the terms of a trust.	932
(2) "Breach of trust" includes only acts or omissions	933 undertaken by a protector while acting in a fiduciary capacity,	934 and does not include any act or omission undertaken by a	935 protector in a nonfiduciary capacity.	936

(3) "Breach of trust" does not encompass or include any	937 act or omission of a protector if the act or omission is allowed	938
<pre>by either of the following:</pre>	939
(a) The terms of a trust, except where those terms are	940 expressly prohibited by this chapter or other applicable laws of	941
<pre>this state;</pre>	942
(b) This chapter, except if the trust expressly prohibits	943
the act or omission.	944
(B) "Directed trust" means a trust that includes terms	945 granting a power of direction to a protector.	946
(C) "Legacy trust" has the same meaning as in section	947
5816.02 of the Revised Code.	948
(D) "Ohio legacy trust act" means Chapter 5816. of the	949
Revised Code.	950
(E) "Person" has the same meaning as in section 5801.01 of	951
the Revised Code.	952
(F) "Power of direction" means a power vested in a	953 protector by the terms of a trust that allows a protector to do	954
any of the following:	955
(1) Issue binding trust directives to another trust	956
officeholder, including trust directives that direct, order,	957 mandate, require, veto, bar, prohibit, or prevent any actual or	958 proposed decisions or actions by a trust officeholder regarding	959
the trust or trust estate, including decisions or actions	960 regarding trust investments, trust administration, or	961 distributions to or for trust beneficiaries;	962
(2) Remove another trust officeholder from a trust office,	963
or appoint another person to a trust office;	964

(3) Modify or amend the trust instrument, including	965 amendments that do any of the following:	966
(a) Achieve favorable tax treatment;	967
(b) Respond to or take advantage of any changes in any	968 federal, state, local, or other tax laws that affect or might	969 affect a trust, the trust settlor, any of the trust	970 beneficiaries, or the administration of the trust;	971
(c) Respond to or take advantage of any changes in the	972 circumstances of any beneficiary.	973
(4) Increase or decrease the interests of any	974 beneficiaries to the trust;	975
(5) Modify the terms of any power of appointment granted	976
by the trust, provided that, except to the extent the terms of a	977 trust expressly allow otherwise, such a modification shall not	978 allow appointments to any person or class of persons who are not	979 beneficiaries of the trust;	980
(6) Terminate a trust;	981
(7) Change the situs or the governing law of a trust;	982
(8) Make binding interpretations of the terms of a trust;	983
(9) Require a trustee to consult with the protector	984
regarding specified matters;	985
(10) Add or remove persons as beneficiaries of a trust;	986
(11) Add or remove powers and discretion granted under the	987
terms of a trust;	988
(12) Otherwise direct the administration of a trust or the	989 conduct of a trust officeholder.	990

(G) "Protector" means a trust officeholder, other than a	991
trustee, that holds a power of direction pursuant to the terms	992 of a trust, regardless of whether the terms of a trust refer to	993
the person holding a power of direction as a "protector,"	994
<pre>"adviser," "director," or some other name or title.</pre>	995
(H) "Settlor," "state," "terms of a trust," "trustee," and	996
"trust instrument" have the same meanings as in section 5801.01	997
of the Revised Code.	998
(I) "Trust directive" means a verbal, written, or other	999 directive, order, or instruction issued by a protector to	1000 another trust officeholder whereby the protector, as part of the	1001 protector's exercise or nonexercise of a power of direction,	1002 requires the trust officeholder to implement, comply with, or	1003 otherwise act in a manner consistent with the directive, order,	1004 or instruction.	1005
(J)(1) "Trust office" means any office, position, or role	1006 created by the terms of a trust whereby the person holding or	1007 occupying such office is wholly or partially responsible for	1008
<pre>either of the following:</pre>	1009
(a) The management, administration, or supervision of the	1010
<pre>trust or the trust estate;</pre>	1011
(b) The investment of trust property.	1012
(2) Without limiting the generality of division (J)(1) of	1013
this section, "trust office" includes the offices of trustee,	1014 protector, advisor, and investment advisor.	1015
(3) "Trust office" does not include the position or role	1016
of settlor or beneficiary.	1017
(4) "Trust office" does not include the position or role	1018

of beneficiary surrogate, as defined in section 5801.01 of the	1019
Revised Code, unless the trust instrument expressly provides	1020 otherwise.	1021
(K) "Trust officeholder" means any person who holds a	1022
<pre>trust office.</pre>	1023
(L) "Willful misconduct" means intentional wrongdoing.	1024
"Willful misconduct" does not include negligence, gross	1025
<pre>negligence, or recklessness.</pre>	1026
(M) "Wrongdoing" means malicious conduct or conduct	1027 designed to defraud or seek an unconscionable advantage.	1028
Sec. 5818.011. This chapter may be cited as the Ohio trust	1029
<pre>protector and directed trust act.</pre>	1030
Sec. 5818.02. (A) This chapter governs the rights, powers,	1031 discretion, duties, and liabilities of a protector in connection	1032 with the protector's exercise or nonexercise of a power of	1033 direction. Where permitted by this chapter, the terms of a trust	1034 prevail over this chapter and may modify, supplement, limit,	1035 eliminate, waive, or restrict the application of this chapter.	1036
(B)(1) Except as otherwise provided by the terms of a	1037 trust or section 5518.03 of the Revised Code, and to the maximum	1038 extent allowed by the Ohio Constitution and the United States	1039
Constitution, this chapter applies to any trust, whenever	1040 created, that is wholly or partially administered in this state	1041 or that is wholly or partially governed by the laws of this	1042
state.	1043
(2) The terms of a trust may provide that the laws of this	1044
state wholly or partially govern some of the rights, powers,	1045 discretion, duties, or liabilities of a protector while the laws	1046 of one or more jurisdictions other than this state govern all	1047

other rights, powers, discretion, duties, or liabilities of a	1048
<pre>protector.</pre>	1049
Sec. 5818.03. Any person who is, within the meaning of the	1050
Ohio legacy trust act, an "advisor" is considered a protector in	1051 connection with the legacy trust for the purposes of this	1052 chapter. This chapter applies to any legacy trust that provides	1053 for, permits, allows, or includes such an advisor, except that	1054
the Ohio legacy trust act governs and controls in the event of	1055 any conflict between the Ohio legacy trust act and this chapter.	1056
Sec. 5818.04. A protector is a fiduciary unless the terms	1057 of a trust expressly provide otherwise.	1058
Sec. 5818.05. (A) Except as otherwise provided by this	1059 section, any person who is not at the time in question a trustee	1060 of a trust may serve as a protector of that trust. No person	1061 shall concurrently serve as trustee and protector of the same	1062
trust.	1063
(B) The terms of a trust may further restrict or limit the	1064 eligibility of a person to serve as a protector of the trust.	1065
(C) If a trust instrument creates more than one trust, a	1066 person may serve as protector of any such trust for which the	1067 person is not concurrently serving as trustee.	1068
(D) The terms of a trust may provide that any rights,	1069 powers, or authority granted to a protector may vest in and be	1070 exercised by a trustee during any time the protector's office is	1071 vacant or upon the occurrence of a stated contingency, but the	1072 trustee shall be treated as holding and exercising those vested	1073 rights, powers, and authorities in the trustee's capacity as a	1074 trustee and fiduciary.	1075
(E) A person that is a transferor to a legacy trust.	1076 within the meaning of the Ohio legacy trust act, may serve as an	1077 advisor to that legacy trust only to the extent authorized by	1078 division (A) of section 5816.11 of the Revised Code.	1079

Sec. 5818.06. If a person attempts or purports to	1080 concurrently serve as a trustee and protector of the same trust,	1081
both of the following apply:	1082
(A) The person shall be treated as having acted as a	1083 trustee rather than as a protector during the time of the	1084 attempted or purported concurrent service.	1085
(B) (1) The terms of a trust may provide rules and	1086 procedures that permit a subsequent protector to wholly or	1087
partially ratify, assume, affirm, reject, invalidate, or disavow	1088 any trust directives issued by the person during the time of the	1089 person's attempted or purported concurrent service as trustee	1090 and protector.	1091
(2) Except to the extent otherwise provided by or decided	1092 pursuant to the terms of a trust, a subsequent protector is	1093 presumed to have ratified and affirmed all trust directives	1094 issued by the person during the person's time of attempted or	1095 purported concurrent service.	1096
(3) Any actions taken or treated as having been taken by	1097
the person in the capacity of trustee during the person's time	1098 of attempted or purported concurrent service shall be treated as	1099 valid and effective to the same extent, and in the same fashion,	1100 that the trustee actions would be if the office of protector was	1101 vacant during the time of concurrent service.	1102
Sec. 5818.07. Subject to section 5818.13 of the Revised	1103
Code, the rights, powers, discretion, duties, and liabilities of	1104 a protector may be varied, allocated, and limited among one or	1105

<pre>more protectors as follows:</pre>	1106
(A) The terms of a trust may do either or both of the	1107
<pre>following:</pre>	1108
(1) Provide that a protector is a fiduciary in connection	1109 with some matters and not a fiduciary in connection with other	1110
<pre>matters;</pre>	1111
(2) Impose different duties and liabilities on a protector	1112 regarding different matters.	1113
(B) If a trust has more than one protector, the terms of	1114
the trust may do either or both of the following:	1115
(1) Allocate different rights, powers, duties, discretion,	1116
and authority to different protectors;	1117
(2) Provide different standards of liability for different	1118 protectors.	1119
(C) Protectors with jointly held powers shall act by a	1120
majority decision, except to the extent the terms of a trust	1121
<pre>provide otherwise.</pre>	1122
Sec. 5818.08. Except to the extent otherwise provided by	1123
the terms of a trust, a protector may take additional,	1124 supplemental, or ancillary steps that the protector reasonably	1125 deems to be necessary or appropriate to exercise or refrain from	1126 exercising a power of direction.	1127
Sec. 5818.09. Subject to sections 5818.10, 5818.11,	1128
5818.12, and 5818.13 of the Revised Code, all of the following	1129
apply to the scope of a protector's discretion:	1130
(A) If a protector is acting in a fiduciary capacity, then	1131
the protector may exercise any power of direction to the same	1132 extent as, and subject to the same fiduciary obligations and	1133

limitations applicable to, a trustee of the trust if the trustee	1134 is authorized to exercise the same power.	1135
(B) If a protector is not acting in a fiduciary capacity,	1136
then, except as otherwise provided by the terms of the trust,	1137
the protector may exercise any protector's power in the	1138 protector's sole and absolute discretion.	1139
(C) Nothing in this section limits or impairs any power or	1140 discretion that a person serving as protector might hold in such	1141 person's capacity as a settlor or beneficiary.	1142
Sec. 5818.10. Except to the extent that the terms of a	1143 trust expressly provide otherwise, a person serving as protector	1144 shall not exercise a protector's power of direction to require	1145 or compel a distribution to or for the benefit of such person.	1146
Sec. 5818.11. Notwithstanding the terms of a trust, a	1147 protector shall not use a power of direction to do either of the	1148
<pre>following:</pre>	1149
(A) Require another person to release a trust officeholder	1150 from liability for the willful misconduct of that trust	1151
officeholder;	1152
(B) Alter the terms of a trust in ways that exculpate a	1153 trust officeholder from liability for the willful misconduct of	1154 that trust officeholder.	1155
Sec. 5818.12. (A) (1) If a protector holds a power of	1156 direction in a fiduciary capacity, then the protector may be	1157
found liable for breach of trust due to the protector's exercise	1158 or nonexercise of that power of direction whenever the protector	1159 has committed such a breach.	1160

(2) If a protector is found liable for breach of trust,	1161
then the protector's liability shall be the same that would	1162
attach under the following circumstances:	1163
(a) To a sole trustee holding the same power in a	1164 fiduciary capacity, if the protector is the only protector	1165
<pre>holding that power;</pre>	1166
(b) To a co-trustee holding the same power in a fiduciary	1167 capacity with another co-trustee, if the protector holds that	1168 power with one or more other protectors.	1169
(3) Nothing in division (A) of this section precludes a	1170
protector from being found liable for wrongful acts or omissions	1171
other than, or in addition to, breach of trust.	1172
(B)(1) If a protector holds a power of direction in a	1173 nonfiduciary capacity, then the protector is not liable for	1174 breach of trust or other breach of fiduciary duty due to a	1175 protector's exercise or nonexercise of that power of direction.	1176
(2) Nothing in division (B) of this section precludes a	1177
protector from being found liable for wrongful acts or omissions	1178
other than breach of trust or breach of fiduciary duty.	1179
(C) If a protector is licensed, certified, or otherwise	1180 authorized by law to provide health care in the ordinary course	1181 of the protector's business or practice of a profession, then,	1182 to the extent the protector acts in the capacity of a health	1183 care provider, the protector has no duty or liability under this	1184
<pre>chapter.</pre>	1185
(D) The terms of a trust may impose duties or liabilities	1186 on a protector in addition to the duties and liabilities imposed	1187
by this chapter.	1188

Sec. 5818.13. (A) Whenever a protector is not acting as a	1189 fiduciary, the terms of a trust may vary, limit, restrict, or	1190 eliminate the duties or liability of a protector, except that	1191
the terms of a trust shall not do either of the following:	1192
(1) Eliminate a protector's liability for acts or	1193 omissions that constitute willful misconduct by the protector;	1194
(2) Preclude a court of competent jurisdiction from	1195 removing a protector on account of the protector's willful	1196
misconduct.	1197
(B) Whenever a protector is acting as a fiduciary, a term	1198 of a trust relieving the protector of liability for breach of	1199 trust is unenforceable if either of the following apply:	1200
(1) The term relieves the protector of liability for a	1201 breach of trust committed in bad faith or with reckless	1202 indifference to the purposes of the trust or the interests of	1203
<pre>the beneficiaries;</pre>	1204
(2) The term is added to the trust as the result of an	1205 abuse by the protector of a fiduciary or confidential	1206 relationship with the settlor.	1207
(C) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a	1208 protector is always liable for any act or omission that	1209 constitutes willful misconduct by the protector.	1210
(D) In the event of any conflict between this section and	1211
controls.	1213
Sec. 5818.14. (A) In any action against a protector, the	1214 protector may assert any defense available at law or equity,	1215 including any defense available under this chapter or under the	1216

(B) If a protector is a fiduciary, then, in connection	1218 with any claim for breach of trust asserted against that	1219 protector, the protector may also assert any defense that would	1220 be available to a trustee in that position and under similar	1221 circumstances regarding an action for breach of trust against	1222
the trustee.	1223
(C) A protector who undertakes acts or omissions in a	1224
nonfiduciary capacity is not liable for breach of trust based on	1225 such acts or omissions.	1226
Sec. 5818.15. (A)(1) Upon receipt of a trust directive, a	1227 trust officeholder shall take reasonable steps to implement or	1228
<pre>comply with the trust directive.</pre>	1229
(2) A trust officeholder has no duty to implement or	1230 comply with a trust directive until the trust directive is	1231 actually received by the trust officeholder.	1232
(B) Except to the extent that a trust officeholder's	1233 conduct constitutes willful misconduct, all of the following	1234
<pre>apply:</pre>	1235
(1) A trust officeholder may presume that a trust	1236 directive is valid and appropriate.	1237
(2) A trust officeholder may rely upon information	1238 provided by a protector in connection with a trust directive.	1239
(3) A trust officeholder may ask a protector to clarify a	1240
trust directive.	1241
(4) A trust officeholder may require a protector to place	1242
a verbal trust directive in writing before the trust	1243
officeholder implements or complies with the trust directive.	1244

(5) A trust officeholder has no liability to any person	1245
for implementing or complying with a trust directive.	1246
(C) A trust officeholder shall not do any of the following	1247 to the extent that such acts would constitute willful misconduct	1248
<pre>by the trust officeholder:</pre>	1249
(1) Presume that a trust directive is valid or	1250
appropriate;	1251
(2) Implement or comply with a trust directive;	1252
(3) Rely upon information provided by a protector in	1253 connection with a trust directive.	1254
(D) Any person who claims that a trust officeholder	1255 engaged in willful misconduct when implementing or complying	1256 with a trust directive bears the burden of proving that	1257
misconduct.	1258
(E) The terms of a trust may impose duties or liabilities	1259
on a trust officeholder in addition to the duties and	1260 liabilities imposed by divisions (A) to (D) of this section.	1261
(F) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this	1262
chapter, a trust officeholder that has actually received a trust	1263
directive is always liable for any act or omission undertaken by	1264
the trust officeholder in connection with such trust directive	1265 that constitutes willful misconduct by the trust officeholder.	1266
(G) In the event of any conflict between this section and	1267
any other provision of this chapter, this section governs and	1268
controls.	1269
Sec. 5818.16. A trust officeholder may petition a court of	1270 competent jurisdiction for instructions regarding the trust	1271
officeholder's duties under section 5818.15 of the Revised Code.	1272

The right conferred by this section is in addition to the	1273 trust officeholder's rights under section 5818.15 of the Revised	1274
Code to seek clarification of a trust directive from a protector	1275 and require a trust directive to be in writing, and the trust	1276 officeholder's right under section 5818.23 of the Revised Code	1277 to ask a person to clarify the capacity in which that person is	1278
acting.	1279
A trust officeholder may exercise the rights granted by	1280 sections 5818.15 and 5818.23 of the Revised Code in addition to	1281
or instead of petitioning for judicial instructions under this	1282
section.	1283
Sec. 5818.17. The following rules of construction apply in	1284 connection with all protectors, directed trusts, and trust	1285
directives:	1286
(A) Courts shall give effect to this state's policy of	1287 maximizing a settlor's freedom of disposition as set forth in	1288
division (D) of section 5801.04 of the Revised Code.	1289
(B) Courts shall liberally interpret, construe, and apply	1290
this chapter in ways and means that do all of the following:	1291
(1) (a) Recognize and allow directed trusts;	1292
(b) Uphold the rights, powers, discretion, and authority	1293
of a protector;	1294
(c) Uphold the validity and enforceability of trust	1295
directives.	1296
(2) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the	1297 term "power of direction" shall be liberally and broadly	1298 interpreted, construed, and applied.	1299
(C) The rule of the common law that statutes in derogation	1300 of common law are to be strictly construed does not apply to	1301

this chapter.	1302
Sec. 5818.18. Except as otherwise provided by section	1303
5818.19 of the Revised Code or the terms of a trust, protectors	1303
and trustees have all of the following limited duties:	1305
and trustees have all of the following limited duties.	1303
(A) (1) A trustee shall provide information to a protector	1306 to the extent that the information is reasonably related to the	1307 powers and duties of the protector.	1308
(2) A protector shall provide information to a trustee to	1309
the extent the information is reasonably related to the powers	1310 or duties of the trustee.	1311
(B)(1) Subject to division (B)(2) of this section, a	1312 protector, referred to in division (B) of this section as a	1313
"first protector," shall provide information to another	1314 protector, referred to in division (B) of this section as an	1315
"other protector," to the extent the information is reasonably	1316 related to the powers or duties of the other protector.	1317
(2) Subject to division (B)(3) of this section, the first	1318 protector need not provide the other protector with information	1319 related to either of the following:	1320
(a) Any power to direct that may be exercised by the other	1321 protector without the consent or approval of the first	1322
<pre>protector;</pre>	1323
(b) Any duty that the first protector does not share with	1324
the other protector.	1325
(3) Division (B)(2) of this section does not apply if the	1326
first protector's failure to provide the information to the	1327
other protector would constitute willful misconduct by the first	1328

<pre>protector.</pre>	1329
Sec. 5818.19. Except as otherwise provided by the terms of	1330
a trust:	1331
(A) A trustee does not have a duty to do any of the	1332
<pre>following:</pre>	1333
(1) Monitor or supervise a protector;	1334
(2) Inform a protector of the trustee's communications	1335 with beneficiaries regarding a protector's performance in or	1336
<pre>suitability for trust office;</pre>	1337
(3) Inform a protector of matters that were communicated	1338
in confidence to the trustee by a beneficiary, or that the	1339 trustee reasonably believes were communicated in confidence to	1340
the trustee by a beneficiary;	1341
(4) Inform or give advice to a settlor, beneficiary,	1342
trustee, or protector regarding any instance in which the	1343 trustee might have acted differently than a protector.	1344
(B) A protector, referred to in this division as a "first	1345 protector," does not have a duty to do any of the following:	1346
(1) Monitor a trustee or another protector;	1347
(2) Inform a trustee of the first protector's	1348
communications with beneficiaries regarding a trustee's	1349
<pre>performance in or suitability for trust office;</pre>	1350
(3) Inform another protector of the first protector's	1351
communications with beneficiaries regarding the other	1352
<pre>protector's performance in or suitability for trust office;</pre>	1353
(4) Inform a trustee or another protector of matters that	1354
were communicated in confidence to the first protector, or that	1355

the first protector reasonably believes were communicated in	1356 confidence to the first protector, by a beneficiary;	1357
(5) Inform or give advice to a settlor, beneficiary,	1358
trustee, or another protector regarding any instance in which	1359
the first protector might have acted differently than a trustee	1360 or another protector.	1361
(C)(1) Subject to division (C)(2) of this section, no act,	1362 omission, or course of conduct undertaken by a trustee or	1363 protector impairs, limits, restricts, or waives divisions (A)	1364 and (B) of this section.	1365
(2) A trustee may wholly or partially assume any duty	1366 referred to or described in division (A) of this section, and a	1367 protector may wholly or partially assume any duty referred to or	1368 described in division (B) of this section, by means of an	1369 express, written, and signed agreement to wholly or partially	1370 assume that duty.	1371
Sec. 5818.20. (A) A protector, referred to in this	1372 division as a "first protector," that acts in reliance on	1373 information provided by a trustee or another protector is not	1374 liable for any damage or loss directly or indirectly caused by	1375 such reliance, except to the extent that the reliance	1376 constitutes willful misconduct by the first protector.	1377
(B) A trustee that acts in reliance on information	1378 provided by a protector is not liable for any damage or loss	1379 directly or indirectly caused by such reliance, except to the	1380
extent to that the reliance constitutes willful misconduct by	1381
the trustee.	1382
(C) The terms of a trust may expressly impose on trustees_	1383 and protectors duties and liabilities greater than those imposed	1384

by divisions (A) and (B) of this section.	1385
Sec. 5818.21. This chapter does not apply to any exercise	1386 or nonexercise of a power or authority by either of the	1387
<pre>following:</pre>	1388
(A) A settlor, if the power or authority is conferred on	1389 or retained by the settlor, in the capacity of a settlor,	1390
pursuant to the terms of a trust;	1391
(B) A beneficiary, if the power or authority is conferred	1392 on the beneficiary, in the capacity of a beneficiary, pursuant	1393 to the terms of a trust.	1394
Sec. 5818.22. (A) A court shall consider both of the	1395
following factors in determining whether a person is acting in	1396 that person's capacity as a settlor, beneficiary, or protector:	1397
(1) The terms of a trust;	1398
(2) Any documents or communications regarding the person's	1399 exercise or nonexercise of a power or authority.	1400
(B) A court shall presume that the capacity asserted or	1401 identified by the person in a document is correctly asserted or	1402 identified when all of the following conditions are met:	1403
(1) The person executes the document.	1404
(2) The document specifies the capacity in which a person	1405
acts.	1406
(3) The terms of a trust grant the person the capacity	1407 specified in the document.	1408
(C) If a person's capacity as settlor, beneficiary, or	1409 protector is unclear after applying the factors provided in	1410 divisions (A) and (B) of this section, then a court may consider	1411

any other facts or circumstances that may be relevant to	1412
determining the capacity in which the person is acting.	1413
Sec. 5818.23. In addition to any other rights conferred	1414 upon a trust officeholder by this chapter or by the terms of a	1415 trust, a trust officeholder may ask a person that issues a	1416 communication or instruction to clarify whether that	1417 communication or instruction was issued in that person's	1418 capacity as a settlor, beneficiary, or trust officeholder. If a	1419 person purports to issue a communication or instruction in that	1420 person's capacity as a trust officeholder, then any other trust	1421 officeholder receiving the communication or instruction may ask	1422
the issuer to specify the official capacity in which the issuer	1423 is acting.	1424
Sec. 5818.24. To the maximum extent allowed by the Ohio	1425
Constitution and the United States Constitution, the courts of	1426 this state have personal jurisdiction over a person who accepts	1427 an appointment to serve as a protector of a trust subject to	1428
this chapter.	1429
Sec. 5818.25. (A) No beneficiary shall commence a	1430 proceeding against a protector for breach of trust, based on	1431 acts or omissions undertaken by the protector in a fiduciary	1432 capacity, more than two years after the date that a beneficiary,	1433
a representative of a beneficiary, or a beneficiary surrogate is	1434 sent a report or accounting that adequately discloses the	1435 existence of a potential claim for breach of trust and informs	1436
the beneficiary, representative, or surrogate of the time	1437 allowed for commencing a proceeding against the protector.	1438
(B) If a claim is brought against a protector regarding	1439 acts or omissions undertaken by the protector in a nonfiduciary	1440 capacity, or for causes of action other than breach of trust,	1441

then the action must be commenced within the same limitation	1442 period that would otherwise apply to that claim.	1443
Sec. 5818.26. Nothing in this chapter requires a trust to	1444 have a protector, and the terms of a trust may omit any	1445 requirement for or reference to a protector.	1446
Sec. 5818.27. (A) The terms of a trust may set forth	1447 reasonable procedures for the issuance or delivery of a trust	1448 directive, or any other document related to or arising out of	1449
any of the following:	1450
(1) The implementation of a trust directive;	1451
(2) A protector's exercise or nonexercise of the	1452
<pre>protector's rights, powers, authority, or discretion;</pre>	1453
(3) Any other matter related to or arising out of such	1454
<pre>protector's duties, liabilities, or service as protector.</pre>	1455
(B) The terms of a trust concerning the issuance or	1456 delivery of any item described in division (A) of this section	1457 are presumed to be both reasonable and the exclusive means for	1458 such issuance or delivery. The presumptions set forth in this	1459 division may be rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence.	1460
Nothing in this division shall be construed to impair, limit, or	1461 restrict a trust officeholder's rights to do any of the	1462
<pre>following:</pre>	1463
(1) Seek clarification of a trust directive from a	1464 protector or request that the protector put the trust directive	1465 in writing pursuant to section 5818.15 of the Revised Code;	1466
(2) Seek judicial instructions pursuant to section 5818.16	1467
of the Revised Code;	1468
(3) Ask a person to clarify the capacity in which such	1469 person is acting pursuant to section 5818.23 of the Revised	1470 1471

Code.	14/1
(C) If the terms of a trust do not set forth reasonable	1472 procedures for the issuance or delivery of any item described in	1473 division (A) of this section, or if the terms of a trust provide	1474 that those reasonable procedures are nonexhaustive, then any	1475 such item may be issued or delivered by any method that is	1476 consistent with section 5801.08 of the Revised Code.	1477
Sec. 5818.28. (A) A person designated as a protector of a	1478 trust may accept such designation by complying with a method of	1479 acceptance provided in the terms of the trust, exercising powers	1480 or performing duties of the protector, or otherwise indicating	1481 acceptance of the office and responsibilities of the protector.	1482
(B) A person designated as a protector who has not yet	1483 accepted may reject the designation. A designated protector who	1484 does not accept within a reasonable time after knowing of the	1485 designation is deemed to have rejected the designation.	1486
Sec. 5818.29. All of the following apply to a trust except	1487 to the extent that the terms of the trust provide otherwise:	1488
(A) A protector shall give bond to secure performance of	1489
the protector's duties only if the court finds that a bond is	1490 needed to protect the interests of the beneficiaries or is	1491 required by the terms of the trust and the court has not	1492 dispensed with the requirement.	1493
(B) The court may specify the amount of a bond, its	1494 liabilities, and whether sureties are necessary. The court may	1495 modify or terminate a bond at any time.	1496
(C) A regulated financial-service institution or licensed	1497 trust company qualified to do trust business in this state need	1498

not give bond.	1499
Sec. 5818.30. Except as otherwise provided under the terms	1500 of the trust, a vacancy in a protector position occurs under any	1501 of the following circumstances:	1502
(A) A person designated as a protector rejects the	1503
designation.	1504
(B) A person designated as a protector cannot be	1505 identified or does not exist.	1506
(C) A protector resigns.	1507
(D) A protector is disqualified or removed.	1508
(E) A protector dies.	1509
(F) A guardian of the estate or person is appointed for an	1510 individual serving as a protector.	1511
Sec. 5818.31. (A) Except as otherwise provided under the	1512
terms of the trust, a protector may resign upon at least thirty	1513 days' notice to any person who is a qualified beneficiary as	1514 defined by section 5801.01 of the Revised Code, the settlor, if	1515 living, and all trustees, or with the approval of the court.	1516
(B) In approving a resignation of a protector, the court	1517 may issue orders and impose conditions reasonably necessary for	1518
the protection of the trust property.	1519
(C) Any liability of a resigning protector or of any	1520 sureties on the protector's bond for acts or omissions of the	1521 protector is not discharged or affected by the protector's	1522 resignation.	1523
Sec. 5818.32. Subject to the terms of a trust instrument,	1524
all of the following apply:	1525

(A) The settlor, a trustee, or a beneficiary may request	1526
the court to remove a protector, or the court may remove a	1527
<pre>protector on its own initiative.</pre>	1528
(B) The court may remove a protector for any of the	1529
<pre>following reasons:</pre>	1530
(1) The protector has committed a serious breach of trust,	1531
but only if the protector is a fiduciary.	1532
(2) Lack of cooperation among protectors substantially	1533
impairs the administration of the trust.	1534
(3) Because of unfitness, willful misconduct, or	1535 unwillingness to serve as protector, the court determines that	1536
removal of the protector best serves the interests of the	1537
beneficiaries.	1538
(4) If the protector is a fiduciary, because of persistent	1539 failure of the protector to discharge the duties imposed on the	1540 protector by the trust instrument, the court determines that	1541
removal of the protector best serves the interests of the	1542
beneficiaries.	1543
(C) Pending a final decision on a request to remove a	1544 protector, or in lieu of or in addition to removing a protector,	1545
the court may do any of the following, as necessary to protect	1546
the trust property or the interests of the beneficiaries:	1547
(1) Compel the protector to perform the protector's	1548
duties;	1549
(2) Enjoin the protector from engaging in acts of willful	1550
misconduct;	1551
(3) If the protector is a fiduciary, enjoin the protector	1552
from committing a breach of trust;	1553

(4) If the protector is serving in a nonfiduciary	1554 capacity, compel the protector to redress an act of willful	1555 misconduct by paying money, restoring property, or other means;	1556
(5) If the protector is a fiduciary, compel the protector	1557 to redress a breach of trust by paying money, restoring	1558 property, or other means;	1559
(6) Order a protector to account;	1560
(7) Appoint a special fiduciary to take possession of any	1561
trust property held by the protector;	1562
(8) Suspend the protector;	1563
(9) Reduce or deny compensation to the protector;	1564
(10) Void an act of the protector, impose a lien or a	1565 constructive trust on any trust property held by the protector,	1566 or trace trust property wrongfully disposed of by the protector	1567 and recover the property or its proceeds;	1568
(11) Order any other appropriate relief.	1569
Sec. 5818.33. (A) If the terms of a trust do not specify	1570
the protector's compensation, a protector is entitled to	1571 compensation that is reasonable under the circumstances.	1572
(B) If the terms of a trust specify the protector's	1573 compensation, the protector is entitled to be compensated as	1574
specified, but the court may allow more or less compensation if	1575
the duties of the protector are substantially different from	1576
those contemplated when the trust was created or the	1577 compensation specified by the terms of the trust would be	1578
