SYNOPSIS

Consumer protection enforcement fund; out-of-state inspection

R.C. 109.967, 109.9616, and 1345.51

Specifies that 50% of fines imposed under the bill on companies deploying artificial intelligence models are to be credited to the Consumer Protection Enforcement Fund and 50% to the 9-8-8 Fund, instead of 100% being credited to the 9-8-8 Fund.

Removes the authority of the Attorney General to designate a representative to inspect a matter on behalf of the Attorney General and instead authorizes the Attorney General to request any representative law enforcement authority within the state in which the matter is located to inspect the matter on behalf of the Attorney General.
