Backdating attendance	19
R.C. 5104.32	20

Generally limits the backdating of a child's attendance | 21
record to the time period that is within seven calendar days of | 22
the date that publicly funded child care was provided. | 23

Authorizes DCY to approve backdating a child's attendance | 24 record within 30 days of the date that PFCC was provided or | 25 scheduled to be provided if the backdating relates to either of | 26
the following: | 27

(1) A documented emergency or extenuating circumstance | 28
beyond the PFCC provider's or caretaker parent's control, | 29 including a system outage, natural disaster, or other serious | 30
event as DCY determines; | 31

(2) The thirty-day period during which PFCC may be | 32
provided when a caretaker parent is seeking employment or | 33
participating in employment orientation or other activities in | 34
anticipation of education or training. | 35
