Jared Cape, Budget Analyst

The bill has no direct fiscal effect on the state or political subdivisions. It specifies that a tenant with a rental agreement or tenant residing in a manufactured home park, or a property owner or resident subject to neighborhood or condominium association rules, may not be prevented from displaying a thin blue line flag or emblem. The provisions in the bill mirror those that exist in current law regarding the display of service flags and POW/MIA flags. Finally, the bill, if enacted, would be named the Chief Steven DiSario Act.
