six per cent above what has been charged in the previous 65838 academic year one time for the first cohort enrolled under the 65839 tuition guarantee program. If the board of trustees determines 65840 increase for the first cohort of above six per cent, the board 65842 shall submit a request to increase the amount by a specified 65843 percentage to the chancellor. The chancellor, based on 65844 years after September 29, 2013, the board of trustees determines that the general and instructional fees charged under the tuition guarantee have fallen significantly lower than those of other state universities, the board of trustees may submit a request to increase the amount charged to a cohort by a specified percentage to the chancellor, who shall approve or disapprove such a request.

trustees, the university shall provide the necessary course or 65897 courses for completion to the student at a rate determined 65898 through a method established by the board under division (B) (7) 65899 of this section. 65900

Sec. 3501.12. (A) The annual compensation of members of 67906 the board of elections shall be determined on the basis of the 67907 to the board and upon vouchers or payrolls certified by the 67910 chairperson, or a member of the board designated by it, and 67911 countersigned by the director or in the director's absence by 67912 the deputy director. Upon presentation of any such voucher or 67913 payroll, the county auditor shall issue a warrant upon the 67914 county treasurer for the amount thereof as in the case of 67915 manner as other county expenses are paid. If the board of county 67948 commissioners fails to appropriate an amount sufficient to 67949 provide for the necessary and proper expenses of the board of 67950 elections pertaining to the conduct of elections, the board of 67951 elections may apply to the court of common pleas within the 67952 county, which shall fix the amount necessary to be appropriated 67953 chairperson or acting chairperson and the director or deputy 67956 director, upon warrants of the county auditor. 67957

The board of elections shall not incur any obligation 67958 involving the expenditure of money unless there are moneys 67959 sufficient in the funds appropriated therefor to meet the 67960 obligation. If the board of elections requests a transfer of 67961 funds from one of its appropriation items to another, the board 67962 of county commissioners shall adopt a resolution providing for 67963 the transfer except as otherwise provided in section 5705.40 of 67964 the Revised Code. The expenses of the board of elections shall 67965 be apportioned among the county and the various subdivisions as 67966 provided in this section, and the amount chargeable to each 67967 subdivision shall be paid as provided in division (J) of this 67968 section or withheld by the county auditor from the moneys 67969 payable thereto at the time of the next tax settlement. At the 67970 time of submitting budget estimates in each year, the board of 67971 elections shall submit to the taxing authority of each 67972 subdivision, upon the request of the subdivision, an estimate of 67973 the amount to be paid or withheld from the subdivision during 67974 the current or next fiscal year. 67975

A board of township trustees may, by resolution, request 67976 that the county auditor withhold expenses charged to the 67977 township from a specified township fund that is to be credited 67978 with revenue at a tax settlement. The resolution shall specify 67979 the tax levy ballot issue, the date of the election on the levy 67980 issue, and the township fund from which the expenses the board 67981 of elections incurs related to that ballot issue shall be 67982 withheld. 67983

(B) Except as otherwise provided in division (F) of this 67984 section, the compensation of the members of the board of 67985 elections and of the director, deputy director, and regular 67986 employees in the board's offices, other than compensation for 67987 overtime worked; the expenditures for the rental, furnishing, 67988 and equipping of the office of the board and for the necessary 67989 office supplies for the use of the board; the expenditures for 67990 the acquisition, repair, care, and custody of the polling 67991 places, booths, guardrails, and other equipment for polling 67992 places; the cost of tally sheets, maps, flags, ballot boxes, and 67993 all other permanent records and equipment; the cost of all 67994 elections held in and for the state and county; and all other 67995 expenses of the board which are not chargeable to a political 67996 subdivision in accordance with this section shall be paid in the 67997 same manner as other county expenses are paid. 67998

(C) The compensation of precinct election officials and 67999 intermittent employees in the board's offices; the cost of 68000 renting, moving, heating, and lighting polling places and of 68001 placing and removing ballot boxes and other fixtures and 68002 equipment thereof, including voting machines, marking devices, 68003 and automatic tabulating equipment; the cost of printing and 68004 delivering ballots, cards of instructions, registration lists 68005 required under section 3503.23 of the Revised Code, and other 68006 election supplies, including the supplies required to comply 68007 with division (H) of section 3506.01 of the Revised Code; the 68008 cost of contractors engaged by the board to prepare, program, 68009 test, and operate voting machines, marking devices, and 68010 automatic tabulating equipment; and all other expenses of 68011 conducting primaries and elections in the odd-numbered years 68012 shall be charged to the subdivisions in and for which such 68013 primaries or elections are held. The charge for each primary or 68014 general election in odd-numbered years for each subdivision 68015 shall be determined in the following manner: first, the total 68016 cost of all chargeable items used in conducting such elections 68017 shall be ascertained; second, the total charge shall be divided 68018 by the number of precincts participating in such election, in 68019 order to fix the cost per precinct; third, the cost per precinct 68020 shall be prorated by the board of elections to the subdivisions 68021 conducting elections for the nomination or election of offices 68022 in such precinct; fourth, the total cost for each subdivision 68023 shall be determined by adding the charges prorated to it in each 68024 precinct within the subdivision. 68025

~~(D) The~~ (D) (1) Except as otherwise provided in division 68026
(D) (2) of this section, the entire cost of special elections 68027 held on a day other than the day of a primary or general 68028 election, both in odd-numbered or in even-numbered years, shall 68029 be charged to the subdivision. Where a special election is held 68030 on the same day as a primary or general election in an even- 68031 numbered year, the subdivision submitting the special election 68032 shall be charged only for the cost of ballots and advertising. 68033 Where a special election is held on the same day as a primary or 68034 general election in an odd-numbered year, the subdivision 68035 submitting the special election shall be charged for the cost of 68036 ballots and advertising for such special election, in addition 68037 to the charges prorated to such subdivision for the election or 68038 nomination of candidates in each precinct within the 68039 subdivision, as set forth in the preceding paragraph. 68040

(2) The entire cost of a local option election held 68041 pursuant to sections 4301.32 to 4301.391 of the Revised Code on 68042 a day other than the day of a primary or general election, both 68043 in odd-numbered or in even-numbered years, or on a day other 68044 than the day of a special election of a political subdivision 68045 seeking to submit a question or issue, a nomination for office, 68046 or an election to office, shall be charged to the petitioner. 68047

(E) Where a special election is held on the day specified 68048 by division (E) of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code for the 68049 holding of a primary election, for the purpose of submitting to 68050 the voters of the state constitutional amendments proposed by 68051 the general assembly, and a subdivision conducts a special 68052 election on the same day, the entire cost of the special 68053 election shall be divided proportionally between the state and 68054 the subdivision based upon a ratio determined by the number of 68055 issues placed on the ballot by each, except as otherwise 68056 provided in division (G) of this section. Such proportional 68057 division of cost shall be made only to the extent funds are 68058 available for such purpose from amounts appropriated by the 68059 general assembly to the secretary of state. If a primary 68060 election is also being conducted in the subdivision, the costs 68061 shall be apportioned as otherwise provided in this section. 68062

(F) When a precinct is open during a general, primary, or 68063 special election solely for the purpose of submitting to the 68064 voters a statewide ballot issue, the state shall bear the entire 68065 cost of the election in that precinct and shall reimburse the 68066 county for all expenses incurred in opening the precinct. 68067

(G) (1) The state shall bear the entire cost of advertising 68068 in newspapers statewide ballot issues, explanations of those 68069 issues, and arguments for or against those issues, as required 68070 by Section 1g of Article II and Section 1 of Article XVI, Ohio 68071 Constitution, and any other section of law. Appropriations made 68072 to the controlling board shall be used to reimburse the 68073 secretary of state for all expenses the secretary of state 68074 incurs for such advertising under division (G) of section 68075
3505.062 of the Revised Code. 68076

(2) There is hereby created in the state treasury the 68077 statewide ballot advertising fund. The fund shall receive 68078 transfers approved by the controlling board, and shall be used 68079 by the secretary of state to pay the costs of advertising state 68080 ballot issues as required under division (G) (1) of this section. 68081 Any such transfers may be requested from and approved by the 68082 controlling board prior to placing the advertising, in order to 68083 facilitate timely provision of the required advertising. 68084

(H) The cost of renting, heating, and lighting 68085 registration places; the cost of the necessary books, forms, and 68086 supplies for the conduct of registration; and the cost of 68087 printing and posting precinct registration lists shall be 68088 charged to the subdivision in which such registration is held. 68089

(I) (1) (a) At the request of a majority of the members of 68090 the board of elections, the board of county commissioners may, 68091 by resolution, establish an elections revenue fund. Except as 68092 otherwise provided in this division and in division (I) (2) of 68093 this section, the purpose of the fund shall be to accumulate 68094 revenue withheld by or paid to the county under this section for 68095 the payment of any expense related to the duties of the board of 68096 elections specified in section 3501.11 of the Revised Code, upon 68097 approval of a majority of the members of the board of elections. 68098

The fund shall not accumulate any revenue withheld by or paid to 68099 the county under this section for the compensation of the 68100 members of the board of elections or of the director, deputy 68101 director, or other regular employees in the board's offices, 68102 other than compensation for overtime worked. 68103

(b) Notwithstanding sections 5705.14, 5705.15, and 5705.16 68104 of the Revised Code, the board of county commissioners may, by 68105 resolution, transfer money to the elections revenue fund from 68106 any other fund of the political subdivision from which such 68107 payments lawfully may be made. Following an affirmative vote of 68108 a majority of the members of the board of elections, the board 68109 of county commissioners may, by resolution, rescind an elections 68110 revenue fund established under this division. If an elections 68111 revenue fund is rescinded, money that has accumulated in the 68112 fund shall be transferred to the county general fund. 68113

(2) (a) The board of county commissioners of a county that 68114 receives a payment from a political subdivision under division 68115 (J) of this section shall, by resolution, establish a special 68116 elections fund. The purpose of the fund shall be to accumulate 68117 revenue paid to the county by political subdivisions under 68118 division (J) of this section for the cost of preparing for and 68119 conducting special elections. 68120

(b) If both of the following apply, the board of county 68121 commissioners may, by resolution, rescind the special elections 68122 fund and transfer any remaining money in the fund to the county 68123 general fund or to the elections revenue fund: 68124

(i) All notifications and payments required under division 68125
(J) (3) of this section have been made. 68126

(ii) The county has not received any payments from 68127 political subdivisions under division (J) (2) of this section for 68128 a future special election. 68129

(J) (1) Not less than fifteen business days before the 68130 deadline for submitting a question or issue for placement on the 68131 ballot at a special election, the board of elections shall 68132 prepare and file with the board of county commissioners and the 68133 office of the secretary of state the estimated cost, based on 68134 the factors enumerated in this section, for preparing for and 68135 conducting an election on one question or issue, one nomination 68136 for office, or one election to office in each precinct in the 68137 county at that special election and shall divide that cost by 68138 the number of registered voters in the county. 68139

(2) The board of elections shall provide to a political 68140 subdivision seeking to submit a question or issue, a nomination 68141 for office, or an election to office for placement on the ballot 68142 at a special election with the estimated cost for preparing for 68143 and conducting that election, which shall be calculated either 68144 by multiplying the number of registered voters in the political 68145 subdivision with the cost calculated under division (J) (1) of 68146 this section or by multiplying the cost per precinct with the 68147 number or precincts in the political subdivision. A political 68148 subdivision submitting a question or issue, a nomination for 68149 office, or an election to office for placement on the ballot at 68150 that special election shall pay to the county special elections 68151 fund sixty-five per cent of the estimated cost of the election 68152 not less than ten business days after the deadline for 68153 submitting a question or issue for placement on the ballot for 68154 that special election. 68155

(3) Not later than sixty days after the date of a special 68156 election, the board of elections shall provide to each political 68157 subdivision the true and accurate cost for the question or 68158 issue, nomination for office, or election to office that the 68159 subdivision submitted to the voters on the special election 68160 ballots. If the board of elections determines that a subdivision 68161 paid less for the cost of preparing and conducting a special 68162 election under division (J) (2) of this section than the actual 68163 cost calculated under this division, the subdivision shall remit 68164 to the county special elections fund the difference between the 68165 payment made under division (J) (2) of this section and the final 68166 cost calculated under this division within thirty days after 68167 being notified of the final cost. If the board of elections 68168 determines that a subdivision paid more for the cost of 68169 preparing and conducting a special election under division (J) 68170

(2) of this section than the actual cost calculated under this 68171 division, the board of elections promptly shall notify the board 68172 of county commissioners of that difference. The board of county 68173 commissioners shall remit from the county special elections fund 68174 to the political subdivision the difference between the payment 68175 made under division (J) (2) of this section and the final cost 68176 calculated under this division within thirty days after 68177 receiving that notification. 68178

(K) As used in this section: 68179

(1) "Political subdivision" and "subdivision" mean any 68180 board of county commissioners, board of township trustees, 68181 legislative authority of a municipal corporation, board of 68182 education, or any other board, commission, district, or 68183 authority that is empowered to levy taxes or permitted to 68184 receive the proceeds of a tax levy, regardless of whether the 68185 entity receives tax settlement moneys as described in division 68186
(A) of this section; 68187

(2) "Statewide ballot issue" means any ballot issue, 68188

(B) (1) Questions and issues shall be grouped together on 68482

the ballot from top to bottom as provided in division (B)(1) of 68483 this section, except as otherwise provided in division (B)(2) of 68484

In each succeeding calendar year after 1997, each group of 68494 questions and issues described in division (B)(1)(a) to (d) of 68495 this section shall be moved down one place on the ballot except 68496 that the group that was last on the ballot during the 68497 immediately preceding calendar year shall appear at the top of 68498 the ballot after the state questions and issues. The rotation 68499 the first election held during the calendar year. The rotation 68501 of groups of questions and issues shall be performed during each 68502

calendar year. 68506

(2) Questions and issues shall be grouped together on the 68507 ballot, from top to bottom, in the following order when it is 68508 not practicable to group them together as required by division 68509 group of state questions or issues is placed on the ballot shall 68515 be determined by, and certified to each board of elections by, 68516

the secretary of state. 68517

(3) Failure of the board of elections to rotate questions 68518 and issues as required by division (B) (1) of this section does 68519 not affect the validity of the election at which the failure 68520 occurred, and is not grounds for contesting an election under 68521
section 3515.08 of the Revised Code. 68522

(C) The particular order in which each of a group of 68523 county, municipal, township, or school district questions or 68524 issues is placed on the ballot shall be determined by the board 68525 providing the ballots. 68526

(D) The printed matter pertaining to each question or 68527 issue on the ballot shall be enclosed at the top and bottom 68528 thereof by a heavy horizontal line across the width of the 68529 ballot. Immediately below such top line shall be printed a brief 68530 title descriptive of the question or issue below it, such as 68531 Rate," or such other brief title as will be descriptive of the 68534 statement of the percentage of affirmative votes necessary for 68536 passage, such as "A sixty-five per cent affirmative vote is 68537 necessary for passage," "A majority vote is necessary for 68538 passage," or such other brief statement as will be descriptive 68539 of the percentage of affirmative votes required. 68540

(E) The questions and issues ballot need not contain the 68541 full text of the proposal to be voted upon. A condensed text 68542 that will properly describe the question, issue, or an amendment 68543 proposed by other than the general assembly shall be used as 68544 prepared and certified by the secretary of state for state-wide 68545 questions or issues or by the board for local questions or 68546 issues. If other than a full text is used, the full text of the 68547 proposed question, issue, or amendment together with the 68548 percentage of affirmative votes necessary for passage as 68549 required by law shall be posted in each polling place in some 68550 spot that is easily accessible to the voters. 68551

(F) (1) Except as otherwise provided in division (F) (2) of 68552 and issues ballot may be consecutively numbered. The question or 68554 issue determined to appear at the top of the ballot may be 68555 designated on the face thereof by the Arabic numeral "1" and all 68556 questions and issues placed below on the ballot shall be 68557 consecutively numbered. Such numeral shall be placed below the 68558 heavy top horizontal line enclosing such question or issue and 68559 to the left of the brief title thereof. 68560

(2) Beginning with the general election to be held on 68561
November 5, 2024, a state question or issue determined to appear 68562 at the top of the ballot shall be designated on the face thereof 68563 by the Arabic numeral "1" and all state questions and issues 68564 placed below on the ballot shall be consecutively numbered. For 68565 elections occurring after the general election held on November 68566 5, 2024, a state question or issue determined to appear at the 68567 top of the ballot shall be designated on the face thereof by the 68568 Arabic numeral that is consecutive to the Arabic numeral of the 68569 last state question or issue that appeared on the ballot at the 68570 immediately preceding election at which a state question or 68571 issue appeared on the ballot and all state questions or issues 68572 placed below on the ballot shall be consecutively numbered. Such 68573 numeral shall be placed below the heavy top horizontal line 68574 enclosing such question or issue and to the left of the brief 68575 title thereof. Once a state question or issue appears on the 68576 day of the primary election, file a declaration of candidacy and 68643 petition and pay the fees required under divisions (A) and (B) 68644 same time as one instrument. When the offices are to be voted 68647 for at a primary election, persons desiring to become joint 68648 shall, not later than four p.m. of the ninetieth day before the 68650 day of the primary election, comply with section 3513.04 of the 68651 candidacy and all separate petition papers of candidacies shall 68653 be filed at the same time as one instrument. The secretary of 68654 state or a board of elections shall not accept for filing a 68655 declaration of candidacy and petition of a person seeking to 68656 become a candidate if that person, for the same election, has 68657 already filed a declaration of candidacy or a declaration of 68658 intent to be a write-in candidate, or has become a candidate by 68659 the filling of a vacancy under section 3513.30 of the Revised 68660 Code for any federal, state, or county office, if the 68661 declaration of candidacy is for a state or county office, or for 68662 any municipal or township office, if the declaration of 68663

(B) If the declaration of candidacy declares a candidacy 68665

which is to be submitted to electors throughout the entire state, the petition, including a petition for joint candidates for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor, shall be signed by at least one thousand qualified electors who are members of the same political party as the candidate or joint candidates, and the declaration of candidacy and petition shall be filed with the secretary of state; provided that the secretary of state shall not accept or file any such petition appearing on its face to contain signatures of more than three thousand electors.

(C) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this ~~paragraph~~ section, if the declaration of candidacy is of one that is to be submitted only to electors within a district, political subdivision, or portion thereof, the petition shall be signed by not less than fifty qualified electors who are members of the same political party as the political party of which the candidate is a member. ~~If~~

that is to be submitted to electors throughout the entire state, 68697 shall be accepted for filing if it appears to contain on its 68698 face signatures of more than three times the minimum number of 68699 signatures. When a petition of a candidate has been accepted for 68700 filing by a board of elections, the petition shall not be deemed 68701 invalid if, upon verification of signatures contained in the 68702 petition, the board of elections finds the number of signatures 68703 accepted exceeds three times the minimum number of signatures 68704 required. A board of elections may discontinue verifying 68705 signatures on petitions when the number of verified signatures 68706 equals the minimum required number of qualified signatures. 68707

(E) If the declaration of candidacy declares a candidacy 68708 for party nomination or for election as a candidate of a minor 68709 party, the minimum number of signatures on such petition is one- 68710 half the minimum number provided in this section, except that, 68711 when the candidacy is one for election as a member of the state 68712 central committee or the county central committee of a political 68713 party, the minimum number shall be the same for a minor party as 68714 for a major party. 68715

(F) If a declaration of candidacy is one for election as a 68716 member of the state central committee or the county central 68717 committee of a political party, the petition shall be signed by 68718

The electors signing such petition shall be members of the same 68721 political party as the political party of which the candidate is 68722 a member. 68723

(G) For purposes of signing or circulating a petition of 68724 candidacy for party nomination or election, an elector is 68725 considered to be a member of a political party if the elector 68726 voted in that party's primary election within the preceding two 68727 calendar years, or if the elector did not vote in any other 68728 party's primary election within the preceding two calendar 68729 years. 68730

(H) If the declaration of candidacy is of one that is to 68731 be submitted only to electors within a county, or within a 68732 district or subdivision or part thereof smaller than a county, 68733 the petition shall be filed with the board of elections of the 68734 county. If the declaration of candidacy is of one that is to be 68735 submitted only to electors of a district or subdivision or part 68736 thereof that is situated in more than one county, the petition 68737 shall be filed with the board of elections of the county within 68738 which the major portion of the population thereof, as 68739 ascertained by the next preceding federal census, is located. 68740

(I) A petition shall consist of separate petition papers, 68741 each of which shall contain signatures of electors of only one 68742 county. Petitions or separate petition papers containing 68743 signatures of electors of more than one county shall not thereby 68744 be declared invalid. In case petitions or separate petition 68745 papers containing signatures of electors of more than one county 68746 are filed, the board shall determine the county from which the 68747 majority of signatures came, and only signatures from such 68748 county shall be counted. Signatures from any other county shall 68749 be invalid. 68750

(J) Each separate petition paper shall be circulated by 68751 one person only, who shall be the candidate or a joint candidate 68752 or a member of the same political party as the candidate or 68753 joint candidates, and each separate petition paper shall be 68754 governed by the rules set forth in section 3501.38 of the Revised Code.

(K) The secretary of state shall promptly transmit to each board such separate petition papers of each petition accompanying a declaration of candidacy filed with the secretary of state as purport to contain signatures of electors of the county of such board. The board of the most populous county of a district shall promptly transmit to each board within such district such separate petition papers of each petition accompanying a declaration of candidacy filed with it as purport to contain signatures of electors of the county of each such board. The board of a county within which the major portion of the population of a subdivision, situated in more than one county, is located, shall promptly transmit to the board of each other county within which a portion of such subdivision is located such separate petition papers of each petition accompanying a declaration of candidacy filed with it as purport to contain signatures of electors of the portion of such subdivision in the county of each such board.

(L) All petition papers so transmitted to a board and all petitions accompanying declarations of candidacy filed with a board shall, under proper regulations, be open to public inspection until four p.m. of the eightieth day before the day of the next primary election. Each board shall, not later than the seventy-eighth day before the day of that primary election, examine and determine the validity or invalidity of the signatures on the petition papers so transmitted to or filed with it and shall return to the secretary of state all petition papers transmitted to it by the secretary of state, together with its certification of its determination as to the validity or invalidity of signatures thereon, and shall return to each other board all petition papers transmitted to it by such board, 68786 together with its certification of its determination as to the 68787 validity or invalidity of the signatures thereon. All other 68788 matters affecting the validity or invalidity of such petition 68789 papers shall be determined by the secretary of state or the 68790 board with whom such petition papers were filed. 68791

(M) (1) Protests against the candidacy of any person filing 68792 a declaration of candidacy for party nomination or for election 68793 to an office or position, as provided in this section, may be 68794 filed by any qualified elector who is a member of the same 68795 political party as the candidate and who is eligible to vote at 68796 the primary election for the candidate whose declaration of 68797 candidacy the elector objects to, or by the controlling 68798 committee of that political party. The protest shall be in 68799 writing, and shall be filed not later than four p.m. of the 68800 seventy-fourth day before the day of the primary election. The 68801 protest shall be filed with the election officials with whom the 68802 declaration of candidacy and petition was filed. Upon the filing 68803 of the protest, the election officials with whom it is filed 68804 shall promptly fix the time for hearing it, and shall forthwith 68805 mail notice of the filing of the protest and the time fixed for 68806 hearing to the person whose candidacy is so protested. They 68807 shall also forthwith mail notice of the time fixed for such 68808 hearing to the person who filed the protest. At the time fixed, 68809 such election officials shall hear the protest and determine the 68810 validity or invalidity of the declaration of candidacy and 68811 petition. If they find that such candidate is not an elector of 68812 the state, district, county, or political subdivision in which 68813 the candidate seeks a party nomination or election to an office 68814 or position, or has not fully complied with this chapter, the 68815 candidate's declaration of candidacy and petition shall be 68816 determined to be invalid and shall be rejected; otherwise, it 68817 shall be determined to be valid. That determination shall be 68818 final. 68819

(2) A protest against the candidacy of any persons filing 68820 a declaration of candidacy for joint party nomination to the 68821 offices of governor and lieutenant governor shall be filed, 68822 heard, and determined in the same manner as a protest against 68823 the candidacy of any person filing a declaration of candidacy 68824 singly. 68825

(N) (1) The secretary of state shall, on the seventieth day 68826 before the day of a primary election, certify to each board in 68827 the state the forms of the official ballots to be used at the 68828 primary election, together with the names of the candidates to 68829 be printed on the ballots whose nomination or election is to be 68830 determined by electors throughout the entire state and who filed 68831 valid declarations of candidacy and petitions. 68832

(2) The board of the most populous county in a district 68833 comprised of more than one county but less than all of the 68834 counties of the state shall, on the seventieth day before the 68835 day of a primary election, certify to the board of each county 68836 in the district the names of the candidates to be printed on the 68837 official ballots to be used at the primary election, whose 68838 nomination or election is to be determined only by electors 68839
within the district and who filed valid declarations of 68840 candidacy and petitions. 68841

(3) The board of a county within which the major portion 68842 of the population of a subdivision smaller than the county and 68843 situated in more than one county is located shall, on the 68844 seventieth day before the day of a primary election, certify to 68845 the board of each county in which a portion of that subdivision 68846 is located the names of the candidates to be printed on the 68847 official ballots to be used at the primary election, whose 68848

within that subdivision and who filed valid declarations of 68850
candidacy and petitions. 68851

Sec. 3513.052. (A) No person shall seek nomination or 68852 election to any of the following offices or positions at the 68853 same election by filing a declaration of candidacy and petition, 68854 a declaration of intent to be a write-in candidate, or a 68855 nominating petition, or by becoming a candidate through party 68856 nomination in a primary election, or by the filling of a vacancy 68857 under section 3513.30 or 3513.31 of the Revised Code: 68858 village board of education, or positions as a member of a 68865 governing board of an educational service center. 68866

(B) The secretary of state or a board of elections shall 68867 not accept for filing a declaration of candidacy and petition, a 68868 declaration of intent to be a write-in candidate, or a 68869 nominating petition of a person seeking to become a candidate if 68870 that person, for the same election, has already filed a 68871 declaration of candidacy, a declaration of intent to be a write- 68872 in candidate, or a nominating petition, or has become a 68873 candidate through party nomination at a primary election or by 68874 the filling of a vacancy under section 3513.30 or 3513.31 of the 68875

Revised Code for: 68876

(1) Any federal, state, or county office, if the 68877 declaration of candidacy, declaration of intent to be a write-in 68878 candidate, or nominating petition is for a state or county 68879
office; 68880

(2) Any municipal or township office, or for member of a 68881 city, local, or exempted village board of education, or for 68882 member of a governing board of an educational service center, if 68883

(C) (1) If the secretary of state determines, before the 68889 day of the primary election, that a person is seeking nomination 68890 to more than one office at that election in violation of 68891 division (A) of this section, the secretary of state shall do 68892 one of the following: 68893

(a) If each office or the district for each office for 68894
which the person is seeking nomination is wholly within a single 68895 county and none of those offices is a federal office, the 68896 secretary of state shall notify the board of elections of that 68897 county. The board then shall determine the date on which the 68898 person first sought to become a candidate for each of those 68899 offices by filing a declaration of candidacy or a declaration of 68900 intent to be a write-in candidate or by the filling of a vacancy 68901 under section 3513.30 of the Revised Code. The board shall vote 68902 promptly to disqualify that person as a candidate for each 68903 office for which the person sought to become a candidate after 68904 the date on which the person first sought to become a candidate 68905 for any of those offices. If the board determines that the person sought to become a candidate for more than one of those offices on the same date, the board shall vote promptly to disqualify that person as a candidate for each office that would be listed on the ballot below the highest office for which that person seeks nomination, according to the ballot order prescribed under section 3505.03 of the Revised Code.

(b) If one or more of the offices for which the person is seeking nomination is a state office or an office with a district larger than a single county and none of the offices for which the person is seeking nomination is a federal office, the secretary of state shall determine the date on which the person first sought to become a candidate for each of those offices by filing a declaration of candidacy or a declaration of intent to be a write-in candidate or by the filling of a vacancy under section 3513.30 of the Revised Code. The secretary of state shall order the board of elections of each county in which the person is seeking to appear on the ballot to disqualify that person as a candidate for each office for which the person sought to become a candidate after the date on which the person first sought to become a candidate for any of those offices. If the secretary of state determines that the person sought to become a candidate for more than one of those offices on the same date, the secretary of state shall order the board of elections of each county in which the person is seeking to appear on the ballot to disqualify that person as a candidate for each office that would be listed on the ballot below the highest office for which that person seeks nomination, according to the ballot order prescribed under section 3505.03 of the Revised Code. Each board of elections so notified shall vote promptly to disqualify the person as a candidate in accordance with the order of the secretary of state. 68937

which the person is seeking nomination is wholly within a single 68939 county and any of those offices is a federal office, the 68940 secretary of state shall notify the board of elections of that 68941 county. The board then shall vote promptly to disqualify that 68942 person as a candidate for each office that is not a federal 68943
office. 68944

(d) If one or more of the offices for which the person is 68945 seeking nomination is a state office and any of the offices for 68946 which the person is seeking nomination is a federal office, the 68947 secretary of state shall order the board of elections of each 68948 county in which the person is seeking to appear on the ballot to 68949 disqualify that person as a candidate for each office that is 68950 not a federal office. Each board of elections so notified shall 68951 vote promptly to disqualify the person as a candidate in 68952 accordance with the order of the secretary of state. 68953

(2) If a board of elections determines, before the day of 68954 the primary election, that a person is seeking nomination to 68955 more than one office at that election in violation of division 68956
(A) of this section, the board shall do one of the following: 68957

which the person is seeking nomination is wholly within that 68959 county and none of those offices is a federal office, the board 68960 shall determine the date on which the person first sought to 68961 become a candidate for each of those offices by filing a 68962 declaration of candidacy or a declaration of intent to be a 68963 write-in candidate or by the filling of a vacancy under section 68964 3513.30 of the Revised Code. The board shall vote promptly to 68965 disqualify that person as a candidate for each office for which 68966 the person sought to become a candidate after the date on which 68967 the person first sought to become a candidate for any of those 68968 offices. If the board determines that the person sought to 68969 become a candidate for more than one of those offices on the 68970 same date, the board shall vote promptly to disqualify that 68971 person as a candidate for each office that would be listed on 68972 the ballot below the highest office for which that person seeks 68973 nomination, according to the ballot order prescribed under 68974

section 3505.03 of the Revised Code. 68975

(b) If one or more of the offices for which the person is 68976 seeking nomination is a state office or an office with a 68977 district larger than a single county and none of the offices for 68978 which the person is seeking nomination is a federal office, the 68979 board shall notify the secretary of state. The secretary of 68980 state then shall determine the date on which the person first 68981 sought to become a candidate for each of those offices by filing 68982 a declaration of candidacy or a declaration of intent to be a 68983
write-in candidate or by the filling of a vacancy under section 68984 3513.30 of the Revised Code. The secretary of state shall order 68985 the board of elections of each county in which the person is 68986 seeking to appear on the ballot to disqualify that person as a 68987 candidate for each office for which the person sought to become 68988 a candidate after the date on which the person first sought to 68989 become a candidate for any of those offices. If the secretary of 68990 state determines that the person sought to become a candidate 68991 for more than one of those offices on the same date, the 68992 secretary of state shall order the board of elections of each 68993
disqualify that person as a candidate for each office that would 68995 be listed on the ballot below the highest office for which that 68996 person seeks nomination, according to the ballot order 68997 prescribed under section 3505.03 of the Revised Code. Each board 68998 of elections so notified shall vote promptly to disqualify the 68999 person as a candidate in accordance with the order of the 69000 secretary of state. 69001

which the person is seeking nomination is wholly within a single 69003 county and any of those offices is a federal office, the board 69004 shall vote promptly to disqualify that person as a candidate for 69005 each office that is not a federal office. 69006

Revised Code. Each board of elections so notified shall vote 69050 promptly to disqualify the person as a candidate in accordance 69051 with the order of the secretary of state. If the person sought 69052

(c) If each office or the district for each office for which the person is seeking election is wholly within a single county and any of those offices is a federal office, the secretary of state shall notify the board of elections of that county. The board then shall vote promptly to disqualify that person as a candidate for each office that is not a federal office. (2) If a board of elections determines, after the day of the primary election and before the day of the general election, that a person is seeking election to more than one office at that election in violation of division (A) of this section, the board of elections shall do one of the following:

(a) If each office or the district for each office for which the person is seeking election is wholly within that

(b) If one or more of the offices for which the person is seeking election is a state office or an office with a district larger than a single county and none of the offices for which the person is seeking election is a federal office, the board shall notify the secretary of state. The secretary of state promptly shall investigate and determine the offices for which the person seeks to appear as a candidate on the ballot. person for any office that would be listed on the ballot below 69120 the highest office for which that person seeks election, 69121 each office that is not a federal office. If the person sought 69128

certificate of nomination, the board shall not issue that 69130 certificate for that person for any office that is not a federal 69131

seeking election is a state office and any of the offices for 69134

If a person becomes a candidate less than twenty days before an election, the candidate's campaign committee is not required to file the statement required by division (A) (1) of this section.

No statement under division (A) (3) of this section shall be required for any year in which a campaign committee, political action committee, legislative campaign fund, political party, or political contributing entity is required to file a postgeneral election statement under division (A) (2) of this section. However, a statement under division (A) (3) of this section may be filed, at the option of the campaign committee, political action committee, legislative campaign fund, political party, or political contributing entity.

No campaign committee of a candidate for the office of chief justice or justice of the supreme court, and no campaign committee of a candidate for the office of judge of any court in this state, shall be required to file a statement under division (A) (4) of this section.

Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph and in the next paragraph of this section, the only campaign committees required to file a statement under division (A) (4) of this section are the campaign committee of a statewide candidate and the campaign committee of a candidate for county office. The campaign committee of a candidate for any other nonjudicial office is required to file a statement under division (A) (4) of this section if that campaign committee receives, during that period, contributions exceeding ten thousand dollars.

No statement under division (A) (4) of this section shall be required of a campaign committee, a political action committee, a legislative campaign fund, a political party, or a political contributing entity for any year in which the campaign 69830 committee, political action committee, legislative campaign 69831 date reflected in its last previously filed statement. However, 69843 the campaign committee, political action committee, legislative 69844 campaign fund, political party, or political contributing entity 69845 committee of a statewide candidate shall file the monthly 69854 statement not later than three business days after the last day 69855 of governor and lieutenant governor or of a candidate for the 69861 office of secretary of state, auditor of state, treasurer of 69862 state, or attorney general receives a contribution from a 69863 contributor that causes the aggregate amount of contributions 69864 received from that contributor during that period to equal or 69865 exceed ten thousand dollars and each time the campaign committee 69866 of a candidate for the office of chief justice or justice of the 69867 supreme court receives a contribution from a contributor that 69868 causes the aggregate amount of contributions received from that 69869 contributor during that period to exceed ten thousand dollars, 69870 the campaign committee shall file a two-business-day statement 69871 reflecting that contribution. Contributions reported on a two- 69872 business-day statement required to be filed by a campaign 69873 committee of a statewide candidate in a primary election shall 69874 also be included in the postprimary election statement required 69875 to be filed by that campaign committee under division (A) (2) of 69876 this section. A two-business-day statement required by this 69877 paragraph shall be filed in addition to any other statements 69880 required by this section. 69881 contributing entity acts on behalf of or represents a county 70154 political party, unless the designation is accompanied by a 70155 protection and the vendor shall jointly agree on the content of 74938 the notice. However, the notice shall include at a minimum the 74939 locations of all inspection facilities within a specified 74940 distance of the address that is listed on the owner's motor 74941 vehicle registration. 74942

(c) A requirement that the vendor comply with testing 74943 methodology and supply the required equipment approved by the 74944 director of environmental protection as specified in the 74945 competitive selection process in compliance with Chapter 125. of 74946
the Revised Code. 74947

(4) A decentralized motor vehicle inspection and 74948 maintenance program operated under this section shall comply 74949 with division (B) of this section. The director of environmental 74950 protection shall administer the decentralized motor vehicle 74951 inspection and maintenance program operated under this section. 74952

(B) The director shall establish a decentralized motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program as authorized by this section and, at a minimum, the director shall ensure that the program does all of the following:

(1) Complies with the federal Clean Air Act;

(2) Provides for the issuance of inspection certificates and alternative emissions certificates as specified in rules adopted under division (C) (2) of this section;

(3) Provides for a new car exemption for motor vehicles six years old or newer and provides that a new motor vehicle is exempt for six years regardless of whether legal title to the motor vehicle is transferred during that period;

(4) Provides for an exemption for battery electric motor vehicles;

(5) Provides for an exemption for hybrid motor vehicles seven years old or newer and provides that a hybrid motor vehicle is exempt for seven years regardless of whether legal title to the motor vehicle is transferred during that period.

(2) The rules adopted under division (C) (1) of this section shall provide for the issuance of inspections certificates and alternative emissions certificates. Under the 74982 rules, an inspection certificate shall be issued to the owner or 74983 lessee of a motor vehicle when the motor vehicle passes an 74984 emissions inspection conducted in accordance with the motor 74985 vehicle inspection and maintenance program established under 74986 this section. In lieu of obtaining an inspection certificate, 74987 the rules shall establish a system by which the owner or lessee 74988 of a motor vehicle may request an alternative emissions 74989 certificate from the director. 74990

(a) The rules providing for the issuance of alternative 74991 emissions certificates shall require an owner or lessee of a 74992 motor vehicle to do the following in order to receive the 74993 certificate: 74994

(i) Complete and submit an attestation form created by the 74995 director that includes a statement that reads substantially as 74996 follows: 74997

"I, _____, attest that, to the best of my knowledge, the 74998 motor vehicle concerning which I am the owner or lessee complies 74999 with all laws of Ohio and the United States governing motor 75000 vehicle emissions. I, _____, am aware that a false statement on 75001 this form is not permitted." 75002

(ii) Sign and date the form either manually or 75003
electronically; 75004

(iii) Submit the form to the director either by regular 75005 mail, certified mail, or electronically. 75006

(b) The rules shall require the director to include both 75007 of the following additional information on the attestation form: 75008

(i) A provision that allows the owner or lessee of a motor 75009 vehicle to specify one of the following methods by which the 75010 owner or lessee may request delivery of the alternative 75011 emissions certificate: certified mail, noncertified mail, or 75012

(ii) A provision that allows the owner or lessee of a 75014 motor vehicle to specify the vehicle identification number, 75015 make, model, and year of the relevant motor vehicle and the date 75016 the attestation form is submitted to the director. 75017

(c) Subject to division (C)(2)(d) of this section, the 75018 rules shall require the director to deliver an alternative 75019 emission certificate to the owner or lessee of a motor vehicle 75020 who complies with rules adopted under division (C)(2)(a) of this 75021 section. The director shall deliver the certificate within 75022 thirty business days after the director's receipt of the 75023 attestation form or, if the owner or lessee submits the form 75024 electronically, within five business days after receipt of the 75025 form. The director shall confirm the receipt of the attestation 75026 form if the director receives it by electronic means. 75027

(d) The rules shall require the director to reject an 75028 attestation form for any of the following reasons: 75029

(i) The motor vehicle that is the subject of the 75030 attestation form was in an accident or collision within the two 75031 years prior to the date of submission of the form, and the 75032 accident or collision caused substantial damage to the internal 75033 structure of the motor vehicle. 75034

(ii) The owner or lessee of the motor vehicle that is the 75035 subject of the attestation form has received a ticket, citation, 75036 or summons with regard to that motor vehicle within the two 75037 years prior to the date of submission of the form for a 75038 violation of section 4513.22 of the Revised Code or 75039 substantially equivalent municipal ordinance. 75040

(iii) The information in the attestation form is 75041 determined by the director to be false. 75042

If the director rejects an attestation form under division 75043
(C) (2) (d) (iii) of this section, the director shall provide 75044 notice to the owner or lessee that the attestation form was 75045 determined to be false. The notice shall inform the owner or 75046 lessee that the owner or lessee may submit a corrected form to 75047 the director within thirty days of the receipt of the notice. If 75048 the owner or lessee submits a corrected attestation form that 75049 complies with rules adopted under division (C) (2) of this 75050 section within that thirty-day period, the director shall issue 75051 an alternative emissions certificate to the owner or lessee. If 75052 the owner or lessee fails to correct the attestation form, the 75053 director shall require the owner or lessee to complete an 75054 emissions inspection and obtain an inspection certificate in 75055 accordance with rules adopted under this section. 75056

(C) (2) (d) (i) or (ii) of this section, the director shall require 75058 the owner or lessee to complete an emissions inspection and 75059 obtain an inspection certificate in accordance with rules 75060 adopted under this section. 75061

(e) In adopting rules under division (C) (2) of this 75062 section, the director shall ensure that the owner or lessee of a 75063 motor vehicle who falsifies an attestation form receives a 75064 notice that includes a statement that reads substantially as 75065 follows: "You have falsified an attestation form for your 75066 vehicle under the E-Check/motor vehicle emissions testing 75067 program. Your vehicle is registered in one of [insert the number 75068 of counties] counties in this state that has federal emission 75069 mandates imposed on it that the State of Ohio is required, under 75070 threat of penalty, to enforce. This letter serves as Ohio's only 75071 penalty for falsification of an attestation form. You have 75072 thirty days from the date of this notice to amend your 75073 attestation form and submit the amended form to the 75074 Environmental Protection Agency. However, if you choose not to 75075 submit an amended attestation form, you must have a motor 75076 vehicle emissions inspection conducted for your vehicle in 75077 accordance with section 3704.14 of the Revised Code and rules 75078 adopted under it." 75079

(f) No penalties apply to a person who the director has 75080 determined to have falsified an attestation form, other than the 75081 issuance of the notice required under division (C) (2) (e) of this 75082
section. 75083

(D) There is hereby created in the state treasury the auto 75084 emissions test fund, which shall consist of money received by 75085 the director from any cash transfers, state and local grants, 75086 and other contributions that are received for the purpose of 75087 funding the program established under this section. The director 75088 of environmental protection shall use money in the fund solely 75089 for the implementation, supervision, administration, operation, 75090 and enforcement of the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance 75091 program established under this section. Money in the fund shall 75092 not be used for either of the following: 75093

(1) To pay for the inspection costs incurred by a motor 75094 vehicle dealer so that the dealer may provide inspection 75095 certificates to an individual purchasing a motor vehicle from 75096 the dealer when that individual resides in a county that is 75097 subject to the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program; 75098

(2) To provide payment for more than one free passing 75099 emissions inspection or a total of three emissions inspections 75100 for a motor vehicle in any three-hundred-sixty-five-day period. 75101

The owner or lessee of a motor vehicle is responsible for 75102 inspection fees that are related to emissions inspections beyond 75103 one free passing emissions inspection or three total emissions 75104 inspections in any three-hundred-sixty-five-day period. 75105 Inspection fees that are charged by a contractor conducting 75106 emissions inspections under a motor vehicle inspection and 75107 maintenance program shall be approved by the director of 75108 environmental protection. 75109

(E) The motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program 75110 established under this section expires upon the termination of 75111 all contracts entered into under this section and shall not be 75112 implemented beyond the final date on which termination occurs. 75113

(F) As used in this section "battery electric motor 75114 vehicle" and "hybrid motor vehicle" have the same meanings as in 75115
section 4501.01 of the Revised Code. 75116

(G) On ~~the effective date of this amendment~~ June 30, 2025, 75117 the director shall immediately begin procedures to submit to the 75118 United States environmental protection agency the alternative 75119 emissions certification program for approval as part of the Ohio 75120 state implementation plan. If the United States environmental 75121 protection agency approves the modification of the decentralized 75122 motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program as providing 75123 sufficient air pollution reductions to meet the federal Clean 75124 Air Act requirements for a vehicle inspection and maintenance 75125 program and modifies the Ohio state implementation plan, the 75126 director shall immediately begin to modify the Ohio 75127 environmental protection agency rules to implement the 75128 alternative emissions certification program. Nothing in this 75129 division requires the Ohio environmental protection agency to 75130 take action to implement the alternative emissions certification 75131 program until the United States environmental protection agency 75132 approves the alternative program as part of the Ohio state 75133 implementation plan. 75134

(H) If the United States environmental protection agency 75135 determines that the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance 75136 program implemented in accordance with this section is not 75137 necessary for the state or any area of the state to comply with 75138 the federal Clean Air Act, the director shall immediately 75139 discontinue the program and take any actions necessary to 75140 effectuate the termination of the program. 75141

(E) Any death certificate registered pursuant to this 75263 section shall contain the social security number of the 75264 vital statistics. No such permit shall be issued by a local 75272 registrar or sub-registrar until a satisfactory death, fetal 75273 death, or provisional death certificate is filed with the local 75274 registrar or sub-registrar. When the medical certification as to 75275 the cause of death cannot be provided by the attending physician 75276 or coroner prior to burial, for sufficient cause, as determined 75277 by rule of the director of health, the funeral director may file 75278 a provisional death certificate with the local registrar or sub- 75279 registrar for the purpose of securing a burial or burial-transit 75280 permit. When the funeral director files a provisional death 75281 the division of real estate and professional licensing in the 75296 department of commerce in discharging its duties prescribed in 75297 Chapter 4767. of the Revised Code and the Ohio cemetery dispute 75298

Code. A local registrar or sub-registrar shall transmit payments 75300 of that portion of the amount of each fee collected under this 75301 section to the treasurer of state on a quarterly basis or more 75302 frequently, if possible. The director of health, by rule, shall 75303 provide for the issuance of a burial permit without the payment 75304 of the fee required by this section if the total cost of the 75305 burial will be paid by an agency or instrumentality of the 75306 United States, the state or a state agency, or a political 75307 subdivision of the state. 75308

The director of commerce may by rule adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code reduce the total amount of the fee required by this section and that portion of the amount of the fee required to be paid to the credit of the division of real estate and professional licensing for the use of the division and the Ohio cemetery dispute resolution commission, if the director determines that the total amount of funds the fee is generating at the amount required by this section exceeds the amount of funds the division of real estate and professional licensing and the commission need to carry out their powers and duties prescribed in Chapter 4767. of the Revised Code.

No person in charge of any premises in which interments or cremations are made shall inter or cremate or otherwise dispose of a body, unless it is accompanied by a burial permit. Each person in charge of a cemetery, crematory, or other place of disposal shall indorse upon a burial permit the date of interment, cremation, or other disposal and shall retain such permits for a period of at least five years. The person in charge shall keep an accurate record of all interments, cremations, or other disposal of dead bodies, made in the premises under the person's charge, stating the name of the deceased person, place of death, date of burial, cremation, or other disposal, and name and address of the funeral director. Sec. 3709.15. The board of health of a city or general health district may appoint as many persons for sanitary duty as the public health and sanitary conditions of the district require, and such persons shall have general police powers and be known as "sanitarians." The board may also appoint as many registered nurses for public health nurse duty as the public health and sanitary conditions of the district require, who shall be known as "public health nurses," and where such are appointed, the board may appoint licensed practical nurses as defined by section ~~4723.15~~ 4723.02 of the Revised Code. The legislative authority of the city may determine the maximum number of sanitarians and public health nurses and licensed practical nurses to be appointed.

The board of health of a city or general health district may provide nursing care and other therapeutic and supportive care services to maintain an ill or infirm person in a place of residence used as such person's home or elsewhere. The board shall charge and collect reasonable fees not to exceed the cost of service for such care from patients financially able to pay, or may accept payment for such services from persons or public or private agencies on behalf of the recipient, either directly or by contract with such persons or agencies. The fees shall be retained by the board and placed in a special fund to be known as the home health services fund, and shall be used by the board only for defraying the cost of personnel, equipment, supplies, rental of physical facilities including real property, utilities, and administrative costs in providing services under this section. ~~The approval of the auditor of state referred to in section 5705.12 of the Revised Code shall not be required for the establishment of the fund.~~

The board, in addition, may contract with any individual or a public or private agency to furnish services authorized by 75607 this section on behalf of a city or general health district for 75608 such time and for such compensation as may be agreed upon by the 75609 board and the individual or agency. The compensation shall be 75610 paid by the board from the home health services fund, or from 75611 any other available fund of the board. 75612

Sec. 3717.071. (A) The director of agriculture and 75613 director of health shall prescribe forms for use in calculating 75614 the licensing fees that may be charged under sections 3717.25 75615 and 3717.45 of the Revised Code. Each licensor that charges 75616 licensing fees shall use the forms in calculating its costs 75617 according to the uniform methodologies established in rules 75618 adopted under section 3717.07 of the Revised Code. 75619

(B) (1) If the licensor is a board of health, the board 75620 shall submit the form to the director of agriculture in the case 75621 of fees being charged for retail food establishment licenses, 75622 and to the director of health in the case of fees being charged 75623 for food service operation licenses. The board shall submit the 75624 form to the appropriate director not later than the first day of 75625 the fiscal year in which the fees will apply. A form that is 75626 mailed to the director shall be considered to have been 75627 submitted on its postmark date. 75628

(2) On receipt of a form from a board of health, the 75629 director of agriculture or director of health shall review the 75630 form to determine if the board has calculated its fees in 75631 accordance with the uniform methodologies. ~~The director may~~ 75632 ~~request that the auditor of state conduct an audit of the board~~ 75633
~~to determine if the fees it established are appropriate. The~~ 75634 ~~audit is in addition to the annual or biennial audit conducted~~ 75635
~~pursuant to division (A) of section 117.11 of the Revised Code,~~ 75636

(C) (1) If a board of health fails to submit the forms as required under division (B) (1) of this section and the failure has occurred not more than twice in the immediately preceding five-year period, the board is subject to the following penalties:

(a) If the form is late by one but not more than five working days, a fine of fifty dollars for each working day the form is late;

(b) If the form is late by six working days but not more than ten working days, a fine of one hundred dollars for each working day the form is late;

(c) If the form is late by more than ten working days, the board shall reduce by twenty per cent the fees it charges under section 3717.25 or 3717.45 of the Revised Code during the next succeeding fiscal year.

(3) A board of health that is required to pay a fine or reduce its licensing fees shall not include any part of the cost of the penalty in the fees it charges under section 3717.25 or 3717.45 of the Revised Code or the fees it charges in operating any other licensing program.

Sec. 3718.02. (A) The director of health, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt, and subsequently may amend and rescind, rules of general application throughout the state to administer this chapter. Rules adopted under division (A) of this section shall do at least all of the following:

(1) Require that the appropriate board of health approve or disapprove the installation, operation, and alteration of a sewage treatment system if it is not connected to a sanitary sewerage system;

(2) Require a board of health, or other person as established by rule, to conduct a site evaluation for any proposed installation of a sewage treatment system;

(3) Prescribe standards for the siting, design, installation, operation, monitoring, maintenance, and abandonment of sewage treatment systems that may be used in this state and for the progressive or incremental alteration or repair of an existing sewage treatment system or the progressive or incremental installation of a new system to replace an existing sewage treatment system. The rules shall be adopted so as to establish a preference for the repair of an existing sewage treatment system, when technically and economically feasible, rather than its replacement with a new system. The standards shall include at a minimum all of the following:

(a) Soil absorption specifications and vertical separation distances. 75695
75696

(i) Soil absorption specifications established in rules shall include standards regarding the sizing of sewage treatment systems in use in the state. 75697

(ii) In establishing soil absorption specifications and vertical separation distances, the rules shall identify those soil conditions that present a low or moderate risk of inadequate treatment or dispersal of sewage from sewage treatment systems. For low and moderate risk conditions, the required vertical separation distance shall not exceed eighteen inches except as authorized pursuant to rules adopted under divisions (A) (3) (a) (iii) and (iv) of this section. 75700
75703
75707

In addition, the rules shall identify those soil conditions that present a high risk of inadequate treatment or dispersal of sewage. For such high risk conditions, the vertical separation distance shall be set at a depth from twenty-four to thirty-six inches and shall not be lowered unless a reduction of vertical separation is granted in accordance with rules adopted under division (A) (3) (a) (iii) of this section. 75708
75714

(iii) The rules shall establish options to be utilized by a board of health when approving the reductions of or compliance with vertical separation distances that are established in rules adopted under division (A) (3) (a) (ii) of this section. The options for a board of health in providing such approval shall include, but not be limited to: the use where deemed appropriate for a particular site of subsurface interceptor drains, perimeter drains, or engineered drainage; pretreatment of sewage; or soil elevation. 75715
75719

(b) Specifications for the quality of treated sewage effluent from household sewage treatment systems that is applied to soil on the property where a household sewage treatment system is located. The specifications established in the rules for the quality of effluent from discharging systems shall comply with discharge requirements imposed by the national pollutant discharge elimination system permit program established under section 6111.03 of the Revised Code and rules adopted under it.

(c) Requirements for the reasonable maintenance of a 75755 system according to maintenance requirements approved by the 75756 director of health as recommended by the sewage treatment system 75757 technical advisory committee or according to accepted standards 75758 and practices established in rules, as applicable. The 75759 requirements may include standards for service contracts or 75760 other arrangements that assure regular maintenance and upkeep of 75761 the system. In determining the reasonableness of a maintenance 75762 requirement, the director shall consider a manufacturer's 75763 maintenance requirements as well as all other maintenance 75764 alternatives. 75765

(4) Prescribe procedures for notification to boards of 75766 health of the approval of a sewage treatment system or 75767 components of a system by the director of health under section 75768

(5) Prescribe criteria and procedures under which boards 75770 of health shall issue installation permits, operation permits, 75771 and alteration permits for sewage treatment systems. The rules 75772 shall require as a condition of an installation permit that the 75773 installer of a system must warrant that the system was installed 75774 in accordance with all applicable rules and design requirements. 75775
In addition, the rules shall require a board of health, not 75776 later than sixty days after the issuance of an installation, 75777 operation, or alteration permit, to notify the director that the 75778 permit was issued. The rules shall require the notification to 75779 be in a format prescribed by the director and to include 75780 information related to the issuance of the permit. With the 75781 assistance of the department of health, a board of health, to 75782 the extent practicable, shall computerize the process of the 75783 issuance of permits for sewage treatment systems. 75784

(6) Require a board of health to inspect a sewage treatment system not later than twelve months after its installation to ensure that the system is operating properly. The rules shall require a board of health, not later than sixty days after the inspection, to certify to the director on a form provided by the director that the inspection was performed.

an inspection in accordance with section 3709.09 of the Revised Code. The rules shall allow, but shall not require, a board of health to continue an inspection program that was established by the board prior to the effective date of the rules, provided that the program authorizes a person to demonstrate the required maintenance of a system in lieu of an inspection.

(8) Require a board of health to register installers, service providers, and septage haulers that perform work within the health district; prescribe criteria and procedures for the registration; and prescribe criteria for a demonstration of competency as a part of the registration. The rules shall establish uniform statewide bonding requirements or other financial security requirements for installers, service providers, and septage haulers as a condition of registration within any health district. The rules shall establish a methodology by which the required amount of a bond or other security may be calculated for each installer, service provider, and septage hauler. The methodology, at a minimum, shall consider the number of systems installed or serviced and the type of system installed or serviced by an installer, service provider, or septage hauler on an annual basis. The rules shall provide that no board of health shall require an additional or different bond or security requirement as a condition of registration beyond the bonding and security requirements established in the rules adopted under division (A) (8) of this section.

The rules shall establish a cost methodology for determining the fee for the registration of an installer, service provider, or septage hauler in any health district.

division (A) of this section. In proposing or adopting the 75954 rules, a board of health shall consider and document the 75955 economic impact of the rules on property owners within the 75956 applicable health district. 75957

(2) A board that intends to adopt rules shall notify the 75958 proposed rule within ninety days after receiving a copy of the 75963 proposed rule from the board of health. 75964

(3) In reviewing a proposed rule, the director shall 75965 approve the rule if all of the following apply: 75966

(a) The proposed rule is not in conflict with this chapter 75967 or rules adopted under it. 75968

(b) The proposed rule is authorized by division (B) of 75969
this section. 75970

(c) The proposed rule is no less stringent than rules 75971 adopted by the director. 75972

(d) Unless otherwise authorized by this chapter or rules 75973 adopted under it, the proposed rule does not require design 75974 changes to a sewage treatment system, or component thereof, that 75975 differ from a design authorized in rules adopted under division 75976
(A) of this section, including rules adopted under division (A) 75977
(1) or (A) (3) (a) (iii) or (iv) of this section, or approved by 75978 the director under section 3718.04 of the Revised Code. 75979

(e) The proposed rule does not require operation or 75980 maintenance procedures for a sewage treatment system that 75981 conflict with operation or maintenance procedures authorized in 75982 rules adopted under division (A) of this section, including 75983 rules adopted under division (A) (1) or (A) (3) (a) (iii) or (iv) of 75984 this section, or approved by the director under section 3718.04 75985

(4) If a board of health fails to submit a proposed rule 75987 to the director or fails to demonstrate that the board has 75988 considered the economic impact of the proposed rule, the rule 75989 shall have no force or effect and is not enforceable. 75990

Sec. 3718.04. (A) A manufacturer seeking approval for the 75991 installation and use of a sewage treatment system or a component 75992 of a system in this state that differs in design or function 75993 from systems or components of systems the use of which is 75994 authorized in rules adopted under section 3718.02 of the Revised 75995 Code shall request an application form from the department of 75996 health. The applicant shall complete the form and include with 75997 it all of the information that is required by the department and 75998 the sewage treatment system technical advisory committee. The 75999 applicant shall submit a completed application and all required 76000 information to the director of health. 76001

(B) Upon receipt of an application, the director shall 76002 examine the application and all accompanying information to 76003 determine if the application is complete. If the director 76004 determines that the application is not complete, the director 76005 shall notify the applicant not later than sixty days after 76006 submission of the application that the application is not 76007 complete, provide a description of the information that is 76008 missing from the application, and return the application and all 76009 accompanying information to the applicant. The applicant may 76010 resubmit the application to the director if the application 76011 includes the information that was identified by the director. 76012 Not later than thirty days after receipt of a complete 76013 application, the director shall notify the committee of the 76014 complete application and send a copy of the complete application 76015 and all accompanying information to the committee together with 76016 a request that the committee recommend that the director approve 76017 or disapprove the system. 76018

Not later than ninety days after receipt of a complete application, the committee shall recommend approval or disapproval of the application and submit its recommendation in writing to the director. The director shall approve or disapprove the application not later than sixty days after the committee submits its recommendation to the director or, if the committee fails to recommend approval or disapproval within the required time, not later than one hundred twenty days after the submission of a complete application. If the director fails to approve or disapprove an application within the required time, the application shall be deemed approved.

(D) If the director approves an application under this section, the director shall notify the applicant in writing. The director also shall notify boards of health in accordance with 76050 the procedures established in rules adopted under section 76051 3718.02 of the Revised Code that the sewage treatment system or 76052 component of a system that is the subject of the application is 76053 approved for statewide use. If the director disapproves an 76054 application under this section, the director shall notify the 76055 applicant in writing and provide a brief explanation for the 76056 disapproval. 76057

(E) Decisions of the director approving or disapproving 76058 applications under this section may be appealed in accordance 76059 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 76060

(F) No approval shall be required under this section with 76061 respect to a sewage treatment system or component of a system 76062 that has been approved by the director prior to ~~the effective~~ 76063 ~~date of this amendment~~ September 17, 2010, unless the 76064 manufacturer of the system or component changes the design or 76065 seeks modifications to any terms and conditions of the prior 76066 approval. 76067

(G) The director may revoke the approval of a sewage 76068 treatment system or component of a system if the director finds, 76069 based on substantial evidence, that the system or component 76070 fails to comply with applicable standards for the system or 76071 component. The revocation of an approval under this division may 76072 be appealed in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 76073

(H) (1) The director shall not implement or enforce any 76074 special device approval or similar policy imposing additional 76075 requirements or restrictions on a sewage treatment system or 76076 component of a system that combines the treatment of effluent 76077 with subsurface dispersal of treated effluent directly to the 76078 soil, sand bed, or gravel for any approval in effect as of 76079

December 31, 2020. 76080

(2) If the director issued an approval for such a system 76081 and the approval was in effect as of December 31, 2020, the 76082 system may be modified upon request by the manufacturer if the 76083 system meets the intent of applicable standards, guidelines, and 76084 protocols. However, the system's approval otherwise remains 76085 valid under the original terms and conditions and may not be 76086 revoked or subjected to any new application or monitoring 76087 requirements unless clear, independent statistically significant 76088 evidence demonstrates that the system design consistently 76089 underperforms relative to gravel distribution trenches. 76090

(3) Divisions (H) (1) and (2) of this section apply only to 76091 subsurface dispersal systems or components of a system and do 76092 not apply to effluent discharged into waters of the state. 76093

Terms and conditions included in a license or revision to a 76631 license by a board of health shall be consistent with, and 76632 pertain only to the subjects addressed in, the rules adopted 76633 under division (A) of section 3734.02 and division (D) of 76634

(2) (a) Except as provided in divisions (A) (2) (b), (6), and 76636
(7) of this section, each person proposing to open a new solid 76637 waste facility or to modify an existing solid waste facility 76638 shall submit an application for a permit with accompanying 76639 detail plans and specifications to the environmental protection 76640 agency for required approval under the rules adopted by the 76641 director pursuant to division (A) of section 3734.02 of the 76642 Revised Code and applicable rules adopted under division (D) of 76643 section 3734.12 of the Revised Code at least two hundred seventy 76644 days before proposed operation of the facility and shall 76645 concurrently make application for the issuance of a license 76646 under division (A) (1) of this section with the board of health 76647 of the health district in which the proposed facility is to be 76648 located. 76649

(b) On and after the effective date of the rules adopted 76650 under division (A) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and 76651 division (D) of section 3734.12 of the Revised Code governing 76652 solid waste transfer facilities, each person proposing to open a 76653 new solid waste transfer facility or to modify an existing solid 76654 waste transfer facility shall submit an application for a permit 76655 with accompanying engineering detail plans, specifications, and 76656 information regarding the facility and its method of operation 76657 to the environmental protection agency for required approval 76658 under those rules at least two hundred seventy days before 76659 commencing proposed operation of the facility and concurrently 76660 shall make application for the issuance of a license under 76661 division (A) (1) of this section with the board of health of the 76662 health district in which the facility is located or proposed. 76663

(c) Each application for a permit under division (A) (2) (a) 76664 or (b) of this section shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable 76665 application fee of four hundred dollars that shall be credited 76666

to the general revenue fund. Each application for an annual license under division (A) (1) or (2) of this section shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of one hundred dollars. If the application for an annual license is submitted to a board of health on the approved list under section 3734.08 of the Revised Code, the application fee shall be credited to the special fund of the health district created in division (B) of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code. If the application for an annual license is submitted to the director, the application fee shall be credited to the general revenue fund. If a permit or license is issued, the amount of the application fee paid shall be deducted from the amount of the permit fee due under division ~~(Q)~~(P) of section 3745.11 of the Revised Code or the amount of the license fee due under division (A) (1), (2), (3), (4), or (5) of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code.

(ii) Any expansion of the limits of solid waste placement at a solid waste facility;

(iii) Any increase in the depth of excavation at a solid waste facility;

(iv) Any change in the technique of waste receipt or type of waste received at a solid waste facility that may endanger human health, as determined by the director by rules adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

Not later than forty-five days after submitting an application under division (A) (2) (a) or (b) of this section for a permit to open a new or modify an existing solid waste facility, the applicant, in conjunction with an officer or employee of the environmental protection agency, shall hold a public meeting on the application within the county in which the new or modified solid waste facility is or is proposed to be located or within a contiguous county. ~~Not~~

Not less than thirty days before holding the public meeting on the application, the applicant shall publish notice of the meeting in each newspaper of general circulation that is published in the county in which the facility is or is proposed to be located. If no newspaper of general circulation is published in the county, the applicant shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The notice shall contain the date, time, and location of the public meeting and a general description of the proposed new or modified facility. ~~Not~~

Not later than five days after publishing the notice, the applicant shall send by certified mail a copy of the notice and the date the notice was published to the director and the legislative authority of each municipal corporation, township, and county, and to the chief executive officer of each municipal corporation, in which the facility is or is proposed to be located. ~~At~~

Not more than thirty days after the public meeting, the applicant shall provide the director with a copy of a transcript 76726 of the full meeting, copies of any exhibits, displays, or other 76727 original copy of any written comments submitted at the meeting. 76729

(e) Except as provided in division (A) (2) (f) of this 76730 section, prior to taking an action, other than a proposed or 76731 final denial, upon an application submitted under division (A) 76732
(2) (a) of this section for a permit to open a new or modify an 76733 existing solid waste facility, the director shall hold a public 76734 information session and a public hearing on the application 76735 within the county in which the new or modified solid waste 76736 facility is or is proposed to be located or within a contiguous 76737 county. If the application is for a permit to open a new solid 76738 waste facility, the director shall hold the hearing not less 76739 than fourteen days after the information session. If the 76740 application is for a permit to modify an existing solid waste 76741 facility, the director may hold both the information session and 76742 the hearing on the same day unless any individual affected by 76743 the application requests in writing that the information session 76744 and the hearing not be held on the same day, in which case the 76745 director shall hold the hearing not less than fourteen days 76746 after the information session. The director shall publish notice 76747 of the public information session or public hearing not less 76748 than thirty days before holding the information session or 76749 hearing, as applicable. The notice shall be published in each 76750 newspaper of general circulation that is published in the county 76751 in which the facility is or is proposed to be located. ~~If no~~ 76752 ~~newspaper of general circulation is published in the county, the~~ 76753
~~director shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general~~ 76754
~~circulation in the county or by publication on the environmental~~ 76755 protection agency's official web site. The notice shall contain 76756 the date, time, and location of the information session or 76757 hearing, as applicable, and a general description of the 76758 proposed new or modified facility. At the public information 76759 session, an officer or employee of the environmental protection 76760 agency shall describe the status of the permit application and 76761 be available to respond to comments or questions concerning the 76762 application. At the public hearing, any person may submit 76763 written or oral comments on or objections to the approval of the 76764 application. The applicant, or a representative of the applicant 76765 who has knowledge of the location, construction, and operation 76766 of the facility, shall attend the information session and public 76767 hearing to respond to comments or questions concerning the 76768 facility directed to the applicant or representative by the 76769 officer or employee of the environmental protection agency 76770 presiding at the information session and hearing. 76771

(f) The solid waste management policy committee of a 76772 county or joint solid waste management district may adopt a 76773 resolution requesting expeditious consideration of a specific 76774 application submitted under division (A) (2) (a) of this section 76775 for a permit to modify an existing solid waste facility within 76776 the district. The resolution shall make the finding that 76777 expedited consideration of the application without the public 76778 information session and public hearing under division (A) (2) (e) 76779 of this section is in the public interest and will not endanger 76780 human health, as determined by the director by rules adopted in 76781 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. Upon receiving 76782 such a resolution, the director, at the director's discretion, 76783 may issue a final action upon the application without holding a 76784 public information session or public hearing pursuant to 76785 division (A) (2) (e) of this section. 76786

(3) The director may issue an order in accordance with 76787

Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code to the owner or operator of a 76788 solid waste facility requiring the person to submit to the 76789 director updated engineering detail plans, specifications, and 76790 information regarding the facility and its method of operation 76791
for approval under rules adopted under division (A) of section 76792 3734.02 of the Revised Code and applicable rules adopted under 76793 division (D) of section 3734.12 of the Revised Code if, in the 76794 director's judgment, conditions at the facility constitute a 76795 substantial threat to public health or safety or are causing or 76796 contributing to or threatening to cause or contribute to air or 76797 water pollution or soil contamination. Any person who receives 76798 such an order shall submit the updated engineering detail plans, 76799 specifications, and information to the director within one 76800 hundred eighty days after the effective date of the order. 76801

(4) The director shall act upon any updated engineering 76802
plans, specifications, and information submitted under division 76803 (A) (3) of this section within one hundred eighty days after 76804 receiving them. If the director issues an order disapproving the 76805
(A) (3) of this section, the order shall include all of the 76807 following requirements: 76808

(a) That the owner or operator submit a plan for closure 76809 and post-closure care of the facility to the director for 76810 approval within six months after issuance of the order; 76811

(b) That the owner or operator cease accepting solid 76812 wastes for disposal or transfer at the facility; and 76813

(c) The owner or operator commence closure of the facility 76814 not later than one year after issuance of the order. 76815

If the director determines that closure of the facility 76816 within that one-year period would result in the unavailability 76817 of sufficient solid waste management facility capacity within 76818 the county or joint solid waste management district in which the 76819 facility is located to dispose of or transfer the solid waste 76820 generated within the district, the director in the order of 76821 disapproval may postpone commencement of closure of the facility 76822 for such period of time as the director finds necessary for the 76823 board of county commissioners or directors of the district to 76824 secure access to or for there to be constructed within the 76825 district sufficient solid waste management facility capacity to 76826 meet the needs of the district, provided that the director shall 76827 certify in the director's order that postponing the date for 76828 commencement of closure will not endanger ground water or any 76829 property surrounding the facility, allow methane gas migration 76830 to occur, or cause or contribute to any other type of 76831 environmental damage. 76832

If an emergency need for disposal capacity that may affect 76833 public health and safety exists as a result of closure of a 76834 facility under division (A)(4) of this section, the director may 76835 issue an order designating another solid waste facility to 76836 accept the wastes that would have been disposed of at the 76837 facility to be closed. 76838

(5) If the director determines that standards more 76839 stringent than those applicable in rules adopted under division 76840 (A) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and division (D) of 76841 section 3734.12 of the Revised Code, or standards pertaining to 76842 subjects not specifically addressed by those rules, are 76843 necessary to ensure that a solid waste facility constructed at 76844 the proposed location will not cause a nuisance, cause or 76845 contribute to water pollution, or endanger public health or 76846 safety, the director may issue a permit for the facility with 76847 such terms and conditions as the director finds necessary to 76848 protect public health and safety and the environment. If a 76849 permit is issued, the director shall state in the order issuing 76850 it the specific findings supporting each such term or condition. 76851

(6) Divisions (A) (1) and (2) (a) of this section do not 76852 apply to a solid waste compost facility that accepts exclusively 76853 source separated yard wastes and that is registered under 76854 division (C) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code or, unless 76855 otherwise provided in rules adopted under division (N) (3) of 76856 section 3734.02 of the Revised Code, to a solid waste compost 76857 facility if the director has adopted rules establishing an 76858 alternative system for authorizing the establishment, operation, 76859 or modification of a solid waste compost facility under that 76860 division. 76861

(7) Divisions (A) (1) to (5) of this section do not apply 76862 to scrap tire collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and 76863 recovery facilities. The approval of plans and specifications, 76864 as applicable, and the issuance of registration certificates, 76865 permits, and licenses for those facilities are subject to 76866 sections 3734.75 to 3734.78 of the Revised Code, as applicable, 76867 and section 3734.81 of the Revised Code. 76868

(B) (1) No person shall operate or maintain an infectious 76869 waste treatment facility without a license issued by the board 76870 of health of the health district in which the facility is 76871 located or by the director when the health district in which the 76872 facility is located is not on the approved list under section 76873
3734.08 of the Revised Code. 76874

(2) (a) During the month of December, but before the first 76875 day of January of the next year, every person proposing to 76876 continue to operate an existing infectious waste treatment 76877 facility shall procure a license to operate the facility for 76878 that year from the board of health of the health district in 76879 which the facility is located or, if the health district is not 76880 on the approved list under section 3734.08 of the Revised Code, 76881 from the director. The application for such a license shall be 76882 submitted to the board of health or to the director, as 76883 appropriate, on or before the last day of September of the year 76884 preceding that for which the license is sought. In addition to 76885 the application fee prescribed in division (B) (2) (c) of this 76886 section, a person who submits an application after that date 76887 shall pay an additional ten per cent of the amount of the 76888 application fee for each week that the application is late. Late 76889 payment fees accompanying an application submitted to the board 76890 of health shall be credited to the special infectious waste fund 76891 of the health district created in division (C) of section 76892 3734.06 of the Revised Code, and late payment fees accompanying 76893 an application submitted to the director shall be credited to 76894 the general revenue fund. A person who has received a license, 76895 upon sale or disposition of an infectious waste treatment 76896 facility and upon consent of the board of health and the 76897 director, may have the license transferred to another person. 76898

The board of health or the director may include such terms and 76899 conditions in a license or revision to a license as are 76900 appropriate to ensure compliance with the infectious waste 76901 provisions of this chapter and rules adopted under them. 76902

(b) Each person proposing to open a new infectious waste 76903 treatment facility or to modify an existing infectious waste 76904 treatment facility shall submit an application for a permit with 76905 accompanying detail plans and specifications to the 76906 environmental protection agency for required approval under the 76907 rules adopted by the director pursuant to section 3734.021 of 76908

the Revised Code two hundred seventy days before proposed 76909 operation of the facility and concurrently shall make 76910 application for a license with the board of health of the health 76911 district in which the facility is or is proposed to be located. 76912 Not later than ninety days after receiving a complete 76913 application under division (B) (2) (b) of this section for a 76914 permit to open a new infectious waste treatment facility or 76915 modify an existing infectious waste treatment facility to expand 76916 its treatment capacity, or receiving a complete application 76917 under division (A) (2) (a) of this section for a permit to open a 76918 new solid waste incineration facility, or modify an existing 76919 solid waste incineration facility to also treat infectious 76920 wastes or to increase its infectious waste treatment capacity, 76921 that pertains to a facility for which a notation authorizing 76922 infectious waste treatment is included or proposed to be 76923 included in the solid waste incineration facility's license 76924 pursuant to division (B) (3) of this section, the director shall 76925 hold a public hearing on the application within the county in 76926 which the new or modified infectious waste or solid waste 76927 facility is or is proposed to be located or within a contiguous 76928 county. Not less than thirty days before holding the public 76929 hearing on the application, the director shall publish notice of 76930 the hearing in each newspaper that has general circulation and 76931 that is published in the county in which the facility is or is 76932 proposed to be located. ~~If there is no newspaper that has~~ 76933 ~~general circulation and that is published in the county, the~~ 76934
~~director shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general~~ 76935
protection agency's official web site. The notice shall contain 76937 the date, time, and location of the public hearing and a general 76938 description of the proposed new or modified facility. At the 76939 public hearing, any person may submit written or oral comments 76940 on or objections to the approval or disapproval of the 76941 application. The applicant, or a representative of the applicant 76942

who has knowledge of the location, construction, and operation 76943 of the facility, shall attend the public hearing to respond to 76944 comments or questions concerning the facility directed to the 76945 applicant or representative by the officer or employee of the 76946 environmental protection agency presiding at the hearing. 76947

(c) Each application for a permit under division (B) (2) (b) 76948 of this section shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable 76949
to the general revenue fund. Each application for an annual 76951 license under division (B) (2) (a) of this section shall be 76952 accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of one hundred 76953 dollars. If the application for an annual license is submitted 76954 to a board of health on the approved list under section 3734.08 76955 of the Revised Code, the application fee shall be credited to 76956 the special infectious waste fund of the health district created 76957 in division (C) of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code. If the 76958 application for an annual license is submitted to the director, 76959 the application fee shall be credited to the general revenue 76960 fund. If a permit or license is issued, the amount of the 76961 application fee paid shall be deducted from the amount of the 76962 permit fee due under division ~~(Q)~~ (P) of section 3745.11 of the 76963 Revised Code or the amount of the license fee due under division 76964
(C) of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code. 76965

(d) The director may issue an order in accordance with 76966 Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code to the owner or operator of an 76967 infectious waste treatment facility requiring the person to 76968 submit to the director updated engineering detail plans, 76969 specifications, and information regarding the facility and its 76970 method of operation for approval under rules adopted under 76971 section 3734.021 of the Revised Code if, in the director's 76972 judgment, conditions at the facility constitute a substantial 76973 threat to public health or safety or are causing or contributing 76974 to or threatening to cause or contribute to air or water 76975 pollution or soil contamination. Any person who receives such an 76976 order shall submit the updated engineering detail plans, 76977

hundred eighty days after the effective date of the order. 76979

(e) The director shall act on any updated engineering 76980
(B) (2) (d) of this section within one hundred eighty days after 76982 receiving them. If the director disapproves any such updated 76983 engineering plans, specifications, and information, the director 76984 shall include in the order disapproving the plans the 76985 requirement that the owner or operator cease accepting 76986 infectious wastes for treatment at the facility. 76987

(3) Division (B) of this section does not apply to a 76988 generator of infectious wastes that meets any of the following 76989 conditions: 76990

(a) Treats, by methods, techniques, and practices 76991 established by rules adopted under division (B) (2) (a) of section 76992 3734.021 of the Revised Code, any of the following wastes: 76993

(i) Infectious wastes that are generated on any premises 76994 that are owned or operated by the generator; 76995

(ii) Infectious wastes that are generated by a generator 76996 who has staff privileges at a hospital as defined in section 76997
3727.01 of the Revised Code; 76998

(iii) Infectious wastes that are generated in providing 76999 care to a patient by an emergency medical services organization 77000 as defined in section 4765.01 of the Revised Code. 77001

(b) Holds a license or renewal of a license to operate a crematory facility issued under Chapter 4717. and a permit issued under Chapter 3704. of the Revised Code; 77002

(c) Treats or disposes of dead animals or parts thereof, or the blood of animals, and is subject to any of the following: 77005

(ii) Chapter 918. of the Revised Code; 77009

(iii) Chapter 953. of the Revised Code. 77010

Nothing in division (B) of this section requires a facility that holds a license issued under division (A) of this section as a solid waste facility and that also treats infectious wastes by the same method, technique, or process to obtain a license under division (B) of this section as an infectious waste treatment facility. However, the solid waste facility license for the facility shall include the notation that the facility also treats infectious wastes. 77011
77014
77015
77016
77018

The director shall not issue a permit to open a new solid waste incineration facility unless the proposed facility complies with the requirements for the location of new infectious waste incineration facilities established in rules adopted under division (B) (2) (b) of section 3734.021 of the Revised Code. 77019
77022
77024

detail plans, specifications, and such information as the 77030 director may require to the environmental protection agency at 77031 least one hundred eighty days before the proposed beginning of 77032 operation of the facility. The applicant shall notify by 77033 certified mail the legislative authority of each municipal 77034 corporation, township, and county in which the facility is 77035 proposed to be located of the submission of the application 77036 within ten days after the submission or at such earlier time as 77037 the director may establish by rule. If the application is for a 77038 proposed new hazardous waste disposal or thermal treatment 77039 facility, the applicant also shall give actual notice of the 77040 general design and purpose of the facility to the legislative 77041 authority of each municipal corporation, township, and county in 77042 which the facility is proposed to be located at least ninety 77043 days before the permit application is submitted to the 77044 environmental protection agency. 77045

In accordance with rules adopted under section 3734.12 of 77046 the Revised Code, prior to the submission of a complete 77047 application for a hazardous waste facility installation and 77048 operation permit, the applicant shall hold at least one meeting 77049 in the township or municipal corporation in which the facility 77050 is proposed to be located, whichever is geographically closer to 77051 the proposed location of the facility. The meeting shall be open 77052 to the public and shall be held to inform the community of the 77053 proposed hazardous waste management activities and to solicit 77054 questions from the community concerning the activities. 77055

(D) (1) Except as provided in section 3734.123 of the 77056 Revised Code, upon receipt of a complete application for a 77057 hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit under 77058 division (C) of this section, the director shall consider the 77059 application and accompanying information to determine whether 77060 the application complies with agency rules and the requirements 77061 of division (D) (2) of this section. After making a 77062 determination, the director shall issue either a draft permit or 77063 a notice of intent to deny the permit. The director, in 77064 accordance with rules adopted under section 3734.12 of the 77065 Revised Code or with rules adopted to implement Chapter 3745. of 77066 the Revised Code, shall provide public notice of the application 77067 and the draft permit or the notice of intent to deny the permit, 77068 provide an opportunity for public comments, and, if significant 77069 interest is shown, schedule a public meeting in the county in 77070 which the facility is proposed to be located and give public 77071 notice of the date, time, and location of the public meeting in 77072 a newspaper of general circulation in that county. 77073

(2) The director shall not approve an application for a 77074 hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit or an 77075 application for a modification under division (I) (3) of this 77076 section unless the director finds and determines as follows: 77077

(a) The nature and volume of the waste to be treated, 77078 stored, or disposed of at the facility; 77079

(b) That the facility complies with the director's 77080 hazardous waste standards adopted pursuant to section 3734.12 of 77081

(c) That the facility represents the minimum adverse 77083 environmental impact, considering the state of available 77084 technology and the nature and economics of various alternatives, 77085 and other pertinent considerations; 77086

(d) That the facility represents the minimum risk of all 77087 of the following: 77088

(i) Fires or explosions from treatment, storage, or disposal methods;	77089 77090
(ii) Release of hazardous waste during transportation of hazardous waste to or from the facility;	77091 77092
(iii) Adverse impact on the public health and safety.	77093
(e) That the facility will comply with this chapter and Chapters 3704. and 6111. of the Revised Code and all rules and standards adopted under them;	77094 77095 77096

general prepared pursuant to section 3734.42 of the Revised Code 77119 as a basis for making a finding and determination under division 77120
(D) (2) (f) of this section. 77121

(g) That the active areas within a new hazardous waste 77122 facility where acute hazardous waste as listed in 40 C.F.R. 77123 261.33 (e), as amended, or organic waste that is toxic and is 77124 listed under 40 C.F.R. 261, as amended, is being stored, 77125 treated, or disposed of and where the aggregate of the storage 77126 design capacity and the disposal design capacity of all 77127 hazardous waste in those areas is greater than two hundred fifty 77128 thousand gallons, are not located or operated within any of the 77129
following: 77130

(i) Two thousand feet of any residence, school, hospital, 77131 jail, or prison; 77132

(ii) Any naturally occurring wetland; 77133

(iii) Any flood hazard area if the applicant cannot show 77134 that the facility will be designed, constructed, operated, and 77135 maintained to prevent washout by a one-hundred-year flood. 77136

Division (D) (2) (g) of this section does not apply to the 77137 facility of any applicant who demonstrates to the director that 77138 the limitations specified in that division are not necessary 77139 because of the nature or volume of the waste and the manner of 77140 management applied, the facility will impose no substantial 77141 danger to the health and safety of persons occupying the 77142 structures listed in division (D) (2) (g) (i) of this section, and 77143 the facility is to be located or operated in an area where the 77144 proposed hazardous waste activities will not be incompatible 77145 with existing land uses in the area. 77146

(h) That the facility will not be located within the 77147 boundaries of a state park established or dedicated under 77148 Chapter 1546. of the Revised Code, a state park purchase area 77149 established under section 1546.06 of the Revised Code, any unit 77150 of the national park system, or any property that lies within 77151 the boundaries of a national park or recreation area, but that 77152 has not been acquired or is not administered by the secretary of 77153 the United States department of the interior, located in this 77154 state, or any candidate area located in this state identified 77155 for potential inclusion in the national park system in the 77156 edition of the "national park system plan" submitted under 77157 paragraph (b) of section 8 of "The Act of August 18, 1970," 84 77158

Stat. 825, 16 U.S.C.A. 1a-5, as amended, current at the time of 77159 filing of the application for the permit, unless the facility 77160 will be used exclusively for the storage of hazardous waste 77161 generated within the park or recreation area in conjunction with 77162 the operation of the park or recreation area. Division (D) (2) (h) 77163 of this section does not apply to the facility of any applicant 77164 for modification of a permit unless the modification application 77165 proposes to increase the land area included in the facility or 77166 to increase the quantity of hazardous waste that will be 77167 treated, stored, or disposed of at the facility. 77168

(3) Not later than one hundred eighty days after the end 77169 of the public comment period, the director, without prior 77170 hearing, shall issue or deny the permit in accordance with 77171 Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. If the director approves an 77172
operation permit, the director shall issue the permit, upon such 77174 terms and conditions as the director finds are necessary to 77175 ensure the construction and operation of the hazardous waste 77176 facility in accordance with the standards of this section. 77177

(E) No political subdivision of this state shall require 77178 any additional zoning or other approval, consent, permit, 77179 certificate, or condition for the construction or operation of a 77180 hazardous waste facility authorized by a hazardous waste 77181 facility installation and operation permit issued pursuant to 77182 this chapter, nor shall any political subdivision adopt or 77183 enforce any law, ordinance, or rule that in any way alters, 77184 impairs, or limits the authority granted in the permit. 77185

(F) The director may issue a single hazardous waste 77186 facility installation and operation permit to a person who 77187 operates two or more adjoining facilities where hazardous waste 77188 is stored, treated, or disposed of if the application includes 77189 detail plans, specifications, and information on all facilities. 77190
For the purposes of this section, "adjoining" means sharing a 77191 common boundary, separated only by a public road, or in such 77192 proximity that the director determines that the issuance of a 77193 single permit will not create a hazard to the public health or 77194 safety or the environment. 77195

(G) No person shall falsify or fail to keep or submit any 77196 plans, specifications, data, reports, records, manifests, or 77197 other information required to be kept or submitted to the 77198 director by this chapter or the rules adopted under it. 77199

(H) (1) Each person who holds an installation and operation 77200 permit issued under this section and who wishes to obtain a 77201 permit renewal shall submit a completed application for an 77202 installation and operation permit renewal and any necessary 77203 accompanying general plans, detail plans, specifications, and 77204 such information as the director may require to the director no 77205 later than one hundred eighty days prior to the expiration date 77206 of the existing permit or upon a later date prior to the 77207 expiration of the existing permit if the permittee can 77208 demonstrate good cause for the late submittal. The director 77209 shall consider the application and accompanying information, 77210 inspection reports of the facility, results of performance 77211 tests, a report regarding the facility's compliance or 77212 noncompliance with the terms and conditions of its permit and 77213 rules adopted by the director under this chapter, and such other 77214 information as is relevant to the operation of the facility and 77215 shall issue a draft renewal permit or a notice of intent to deny 77216 the renewal permit. The director, in accordance with rules 77217 adopted under this section or with rules adopted to implement 77218 Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code, shall give public notice of 77219 the application and draft renewal permit or notice of intent to 77220 deny the renewal permit, provide for the opportunity for public 77221 comments within a specified time period, schedule a public 77222 meeting in the county in which the facility is located if 77223 significant interest is shown, and give public notice of the 77224 public meeting. 77225

(2) Within sixty days after the public meeting or close of 77226 the public comment period, the director, without prior hearing, 77227 shall issue or deny the renewal permit in accordance with 77228 Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. The director shall not issue 77229 a renewal permit unless the director determines that the 77230 facility under the existing permit has a history of compliance 77231 with this chapter, rules adopted under it, the existing permit, 77232 or orders entered to enforce such requirements that demonstrates 77233 sufficient reliability, expertise, and competency to operate the 77234 facility henceforth under this chapter, rules adopted under it, 77235 and the renewal permit. If the director approves an application 77236 for a renewal permit, the director shall issue the permit 77237 subject to the payment of the annual permit fee required under 77238 division (E) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and upon 77239 such terms and conditions as the director finds are reasonable 77240 to ensure that continued operation, maintenance, closure, and 77241 post-closure care of the hazardous waste facility are in 77242 accordance with the rules adopted under section 3734.12 of the 77243

Revised Code. 77244

(3) An installation and operation permit renewal 77245 application submitted to the director that also contains or 77246 would constitute an application for a modification shall be 77247 acted upon by the director in accordance with division (I) of 77248 this section in the same manner as an application for a 77249 modification. In approving or disapproving the renewal portion 77250 of a permit renewal application containing an application for a 77251 modification, the director shall apply the criteria established 77252 under division (H) (2) of this section. 77253

(4) An application for renewal or modification of a permit 77254 that does not contain an application for a modification as 77255 described in divisions (I) (3) (a) to (d) of this section shall 77256 not be subject to division (D) (2) of this section. 77257

(I) (1) As used in this section, "modification" means a 77258 change or alteration to a hazardous waste facility or its 77259 operations that is inconsistent with or not authorized by its 77260 existing permit or authorization to operate. Modifications shall 77261 be classified as Class 1, 2, or 3 modifications in accordance 77262 with rules adopted under division (K) of this section. 77263 Modifications classified as Class 3 modifications, in accordance 77264 with rules adopted under that division, shall be further 77265 classified by the director as either Class 3 modifications that 77266 are to be approved or disapproved by the director under 77267 divisions (I) (3) (a) to (d) of this section or as Class 3 77268 modifications that are to be approved or disapproved by the 77269 director under division (I) (5) of this section. Not later than 77270 thirty days after receiving a request for a modification under 77271 division (I) (4) of this section that is not listed in Appendix I 77272 to 40 C.F.R. 270.42 or in rules adopted under division (K) of 77273 this section, the director shall classify the modification and 77274 shall notify the owner or operator of the facility requesting 77275 the modification of the classification. Notwithstanding any 77276 other law to the contrary, a modification that involves the 77277 transfer of a hazardous waste facility installation and 77278 operation permit to a new owner or operator for any off-site 77279 facility as defined in section 3734.41 of the Revised Code shall 77280 be classified as a Class 3 modification. The transfer of a 77281 hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit to a 77282 new owner or operator for a facility that is not an off-site 77283 facility shall be classified as a Class 1 modification requiring 77284 prior approval of the director. 77285

(2) Except as provided in section 3734.123 of the Revised 77286
Code, a hazardous waste facility installation and operation 77287 permit may be modified at the request of the director or upon 77288 the written request of the permittee only if any of the 77289 following applies: 77290

(a) The permittee desires to accomplish alterations, 77291 additions, or deletions to the permitted facility or to 77292 undertake alterations, additions, deletions, or activities that 77293 are inconsistent with or not authorized by the existing permit; 77294

(b) New information or data justify permit conditions in 77295 addition to or different from those in the existing permit; 77296

(c) The standards, criteria, or rules upon which the 77297 existing permit is based have been changed by new, amended, or 77298 rescinded standards, criteria, or rules, or by judicial decision 77299 after the existing permit was issued, and the change justifies 77300 permit conditions in addition to or different from those in the 77301 existing permit; 77302

(d) The permittee proposes to transfer the permit to 77303
another person. 77304

(3) The director shall approve or disapprove an 77305 application for a modification in accordance with division (D) 77306 (2) of this section and rules adopted under division (K) of this 77307 section for all of the following categories of Class 3 77308 modifications: 77309

(a) Authority to conduct treatment, storage, or disposal 77310 at a site, location, or tract of land that has not been 77311 authorized for the proposed category of treatment, storage, or 77312 disposal activity by the facility's permit; 77313

(b) Modification or addition of a hazardous waste 77314 management unit, as defined in rules adopted under section 77315 3734.12 of the Revised Code, that results in an increase in a 77316 facility's storage capacity of more than twenty-five per cent 77317 over the capacity authorized by the facility's permit, an 77318 increase in a facility's treatment rate of more than twenty-five 77319 per cent over the rate so authorized, or an increase in a 77320 facility's disposal capacity over the capacity so authorized. 77321
The authorized disposal capacity for a facility shall be 77322 calculated from the approved design plans for the disposal units 77323 at that facility. In no case during a five-year period shall a 77324 facility's storage capacity or treatment rate be modified to 77325 increase by more than twenty-five per cent in the aggregate 77326 without the director's approval in accordance with division (D) 77327
(2) of this section. Notwithstanding any provision of division 77328
(I) of this section to the contrary, a request for modification 77329 of a facility's annual total waste receipt limit shall be 77330 classified and approved or disapproved by the director under 77331

division (I) (5) of this section. 77332

(c) Authority to add any of the following categories of 77333 regulated activities not previously authorized at a facility by 77334 the facility's permit: storage at a facility not previously 77335 authorized to store hazardous waste, treatment at a facility not 77336 previously authorized to treat hazardous waste, or disposal at a 77337 facility not previously authorized to dispose of hazardous 77338 waste; or authority to add a category of hazardous waste 77339 management unit not previously authorized at the facility by the 77340 facility's permit. Notwithstanding any provision of division (I) 77341 of this section to the contrary, a request for authority to add 77342 or to modify an activity or a hazardous waste management unit 77343 for the purposes of performing a corrective action shall be 77344
division (I) (5) of this section. 77346

(d) Authority to treat, store, or dispose of waste types 77347 listed or characterized as reactive or explosive, in rules 77348 adopted under section 3734.12 of the Revised Code, or any acute 77349 hazardous waste listed in 40 C.F.R. 261.33(e), as amended, at a 77350 facility not previously authorized to treat, store, or dispose 77351 of those types of wastes by the facility's permit unless the 77352 requested authority is limited to wastes that no longer exhibit 77353 characteristics meeting the criteria for listing or 77354 characterization as reactive or explosive wastes, or for listing 77355 as acute hazardous waste, but still are required to carry those 77356 waste codes as established in rules adopted under section 77357 3734.12 of the Revised Code because of the requirements 77358 established in 40 C.F.R. 261(a) and (e), as amended, that is, 77359 the "mixture," "derived-from," or "contained-in" regulations. 77360

(4) A written request for a modification from the 77361 permittee shall be submitted to the director and shall contain 77362 such information as is necessary to support the request. 77363 Requests for modifications shall be acted upon by the director 77364 in accordance with this section and rules adopted under it. 77365

(5) Class 1 modification applications that require prior 77366 approval of the director, as provided in division (I)(1) of this 77367 section or as determined in accordance with rules adopted under 77368 division (K) of this section, Class 2 modification applications, 77369 and Class 3 modification applications that are not described in 77370 divisions (I)(3)(a) to (d) of this section shall be approved or 77371 disapproved by the director in accordance with rules adopted 77372 under division (K) of this section. The board of county 77373 commissioners of the county, the board of township trustees of 77374 the township, and the city manager or mayor of the municipal 77375 corporation in which a hazardous waste facility is located shall 77376 receive notification of any application for a modification for 77377 that facility and shall be considered as interested persons with 77378 respect to the director's consideration of the application. 77379

As used in division (I) of this section: 77380

(a) "Owner" means the person who owns a majority or 77381 controlling interest in a facility. 77382

(b) "Operator" means the person who is responsible for the 77383 overall operation of a facility. 77384

The director shall approve or disapprove an application 77385 for a Class 1 modification that requires the director's approval 77386 within sixty days after receiving the request for modification. 77387
The director shall approve or disapprove an application for a 77388 Class 2 modification within three hundred days after receiving 77389 the request for modification. The director shall approve or 77390 disapprove an application for a Class 3 modification within 77391 three hundred sixty-five days after receiving the request for 77392 modification. 77393

(6) The approval or disapproval by the director of a Class 77394
1 modification application is not a final action that is 77395 appealable under Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. The approval 77396 or disapproval by the director of a Class 2 modification or a 77397 Class 3 modification is a final action that is appealable under 77398 that chapter. In approving or disapproving a request for a 77399 modification, the director shall consider all comments 77400 pertaining to the request that are received during the public 77401 comment period and the public meetings. The administrative 77402 record for appeal of a final action by the director in approving 77403 or disapproving a request for a modification shall include all 77404 comments received during the public comment period relating to 77405 the request for modification, written materials submitted at the 77406 public meetings relating to the request, and any other documents 77407 related to the director's action. 77408

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the 77409 contrary, a change or alteration to a hazardous waste facility 77410 described in division (E) (3) (a) or (b) of section 3734.02 of the 77411 Revised Code, or its operations, is a modification for the 77412 purposes of this section. An application for a modification at 77413 such a facility shall be submitted, classified, and approved or 77414 disapproved in accordance with divisions (I) (1) to (6) of this 77415 section in the same manner as a modification to a hazardous 77416 waste facility installation and operation permit. 77417

(J) (1) Except as provided in division (J) (2) of this 77418 section, an owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility that 77419 is operating in accordance with a permit by rule under rules 77420 adopted by the director under division (E) (3) (b) of section 77421 3734.02 of the Revised Code shall submit either a hazardous 77422 waste facility installation and operation permit application for 77423 the facility or a modification application, whichever is 77424 required under division (J) (1) (a) or (b) of this section, within 77425 one hundred eighty days after the director has requested the 77426 application or upon a later date if the owner or operator 77427 demonstrates to the director good cause for the late submittal. 77428

(a) If the owner or operator does not have a hazardous 77429 waste facility installation and operation permit for any 77430 hazardous waste treatment, storage, or disposal activities at 77431 the facility, the owner or operator shall submit an application 77432 for such a permit to the director for the activities authorized 77433 by the permit by rule. Notwithstanding any other provision of 77434 law to the contrary, the director shall approve or disapprove 77435 the application for the permit in accordance with the procedures 77436 governing the approval or disapproval of permit renewals under 77437 division (H) of this section. 77438

(b) If the owner or operator has a hazardous waste 77439 facility installation and operation permit for hazardous waste 77440 treatment, storage, or disposal activities at the facility other 77441 than those authorized by the permit by rule, the owner or 77442 operator shall submit to the director a request for modification 77443 in accordance with division (I) of this section. Notwithstanding 77444 any other provision of law to the contrary, the director shall 77445 approve or disapprove the modification application in accordance 77446 with division (I) (5) of this section. 77447

(2) The owner or operator of a boiler or industrial 77448 furnace that is conducting thermal treatment activities in 77449 accordance with a permit by rule under rules adopted by the 77450 director under division (E) (3) (b) of section 3734.02 of the 77451 Revised Code shall submit a hazardous waste facility 77452 installation and operation permit application if the owner or 77453 operator does not have such a permit for any hazardous waste 77454 treatment, storage, or disposal activities at the facility or, 77455 if the owner or operator has such a permit for hazardous waste 77456 treatment, storage, or disposal activities at the facility other 77457 than thermal treatment activities authorized by the permit by 77458 rule, a modification application to add those activities 77459 authorized by the permit by rule, whichever is applicable, 77460 within one hundred eighty days after the director has requested 77461 the submission of the application or upon a later date if the 77462 owner or operator demonstrates to the director good cause for 77463 the late submittal. The application shall be accompanied by 77464 information necessary to support the request. The director shall 77465 approve or disapprove an application for a hazardous waste 77466 facility installation and operation permit in accordance with 77467 division (D) of this section and approve or disapprove an 77468 application for a modification in accordance with division (I) 77469

(3) of this section, except that the director shall not 77470 disapprove an application for the thermal treatment activities 77471 on the basis of the criteria set forth in division (D) (2) (g) or 77472
(h) of this section. 77473

(3) As used in division (J) of this section: 77474

(a) "Modification application" means a request for a 77475 modification submitted in accordance with division (I) of this 77476
section. 77477

(b) "Thermal treatment," "boiler," and "industrial 77478 furnace" have the same meanings as in rules adopted under 77479

(K) The director shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or 77481 rescind, rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 77482 Code in order to implement divisions (H) and (I) of this 77483 section. Except when in actual conflict with this section, rules 77484 governing the classification of and procedures for the 77485 modification of hazardous waste facility installation and 77486 operation permits shall be substantively and procedurally 77487 identical to the regulations governing hazardous waste facility 77488 permitting and permit modifications adopted under the "Resource 77489 Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 42 77490
U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended. 77491

In the case of solid wastes that are taken to a solid waste transfer facility located in this state prior to being transported for disposal at a solid waste disposal facility located in this state or outside of this state, the fees levied under this division shall be collected by the owner or operator of the transfer facility as a trustee for the state. The amount of fees required to be collected under this division at such a transfer facility shall equal the total tonnage of solid wastes received at the facility multiplied by the fees levied under this division. In the case of solid wastes that are not taken to a solid waste transfer facility located in this state prior to being transported to a solid waste disposal facility, the fees shall be collected by the owner or operator of the solid waste disposal facility as a trustee for the state. The amount of fees required to be collected under this division at such a disposal facility shall equal the total tonnage of solid wastes received at the facility that was not previously taken to a solid waste transfer facility located in this state multiplied by the fees levied under this division. Fees levied under this division do not apply to materials separated from a mixed waste stream for 77519 recycling by a generator or materials removed from the solid 77539 waste stream through recycling, as "recycling" is defined in 77540 rules adopted under section 3734.02 of the Revised Code. 77541

The owner or operator of a solid waste transfer facility 77542 or disposal facility, as applicable, shall prepare and file with 77543 the director of environmental protection each month a return 77544 indicating the total tonnage of solid wastes received at the 77545 facility during that month and the total amount of the fees 77546 required to be collected under this division during that month. 77547
In addition, the owner or operator of a solid waste disposal 77548 facility shall indicate on the return the total tonnage of solid 77549 wastes received from transfer facilities located in this state 77550 during that month for which the fees were required to be 77551 collected by the transfer facilities. The monthly returns shall 77552 be filed on a form prescribed by the director. Not later than 77553 thirty days after the last day of the month to which a return 77554 applies, the owner or operator shall mail to the director the 77555 return for that month together with the fees required to be 77556 collected under this division during that month as indicated on 77557 the return or may submit the return and fees electronically in a 77558 manner approved by the director. If the return is filed and the 77559 amount of the fees due is paid in a timely manner as required in 77560 this division, the owner or operator may retain a discount of 77561 three-fourths of one per cent of the total amount of the fees 77562 that are required to be paid as indicated on the return. 77563

The owner or operator may request an extension of not more 77564 than thirty days for filing the return and remitting the fees, 77565 provided that the owner or operator has submitted such a request 77566 in writing to the director together with a detailed description 77567 of why the extension is requested, the director has received the 77568 request not later than the day on which the return is required 77569 to be filed, and the director has approved the request. If the 77570 fees are not remitted within thirty days after the last day of 77571 the month to which the return applies or are not remitted by the 77572 last day of an extension approved by the director, the owner or 77573 operator shall not retain the three-fourths of one per cent 77574 discount and shall pay an additional ten per cent of the amount 77575 of the fees for each month that they are late. For purposes of 77576 calculating the late fee, the first month in which fees are late 77577 begins on the first day after the deadline has passed for timely 77578 submitting the return and fees, and one additional month shall 77579 be counted every thirty days thereafter. 77580

The owner or operator of a solid waste facility may 77581 request a refund or credit of fees levied under this division 77582 and remitted to the director that have not been paid to the 77583 owner or operator. Such a request shall be made only if the fees 77584 have not been collected by the owner or operator, have become a 77585 debt that has become worthless or uncollectable for a period of 77586 six months or more, and may be claimed as a deduction, including 77587 a deduction claimed if the owner or operator keeps accounts on 77588 an accrual basis, under the "Internal Revenue Code of 1954," 68A 77589 Stat. 50, 26 U.S.C. 166, as amended, and regulations adopted 77590 under it. Prior to making a request for a refund or credit, an 77591 owner or operator shall make reasonable efforts to collect the 77592 applicable fees. A request for a refund or credit shall not 77593 include any costs resulting from those efforts to collect unpaid 77594 fees. 77595

A request for a refund or credit of fees shall be made in 77596 writing, on a form prescribed by the director, and shall be 77597 supported by evidence that may be required in rules adopted by 77598 the director under this chapter. After reviewing the request, 77599 and if the request and evidence submitted with the request 77600 indicate that a refund or credit is warranted, the director 77601 shall grant a refund to the owner or operator or shall permit a 77602 credit to be taken by the owner or operator on a subsequent 77603 monthly return submitted by the owner or operator. The amount of 77604 a refund or credit shall not exceed an amount that is equal to 77605 ninety days' worth of fees owed to an owner or operator by a 77606 particular debtor of the owner or operator. A refund or credit 77607 shall not be granted by the director to an owner or operator 77608 more than once in any twelve-month period for fees owed to the 77609 owner or operator by a particular debtor. 77610

If, after receiving a refund or credit from the director, 77611 an owner or operator receives payment of all or part of the 77612 fees, the owner or operator shall remit the fees with the next 77613 monthly return submitted to the director together with a written 77614 explanation of the reason for the submittal. 77615

For purposes of computing the fees levied under this 77616 division or division (B) of this section, any solid waste 77617 transfer or disposal facility that does not use scales as a 77618 means of determining gate receipts shall use a conversion factor 77619 of three cubic yards per ton of solid waste or one cubic yard 77620 per ton for baled waste, as applicable. 77621

The fees levied under this division and divisions (B) and 77622
(C) of this section are in addition to all other applicable fees 77623 and taxes and shall be paid by the customer or a political 77624 subdivision to the owner or operator of a solid waste transfer 77625 or disposal facility. In the alternative, the fees shall be paid 77626 by a customer or political subdivision to a transporter of waste 77627 who subsequently transfers the fees to the owner or operator of 77628 such a facility. The fees shall be paid notwithstanding the 77629 existence of any provision in a contract that the customer or a 77630 political subdivision may have with the owner or operator or 77631 with a transporter of waste to the facility that would not 77632 require or allow such payment regardless of whether the contract 77633 was entered prior to or after October 16, 2009. For those 77634 purposes, "customer" means a person who contracts with, or 77635 utilizes the solid waste services of, the owner or operator of a 77636 solid waste transfer or disposal facility or a transporter of 77637 solid waste to such a facility. 77638

(B) For the purposes specified in division (G) of this 77639 section, the solid waste management policy committee of a county 77640 or joint solid waste management district may levy fees upon the 77641 following activities: 77642

(1) The disposal at a solid waste disposal facility 77643 located in the district of solid wastes generated within the 77644 district; 77645

(2) The disposal at a solid waste disposal facility within 77646
the district of solid wastes generated outside the boundaries of 77647 the district, but inside this state; 77648

the district of solid wastes generated outside the boundaries of 77650
this state. 77651

The solid waste management plan of the county or joint 77652 district approved under section 3734.521 or 3734.55 of the 77653 Revised Code and any amendments to it, or the resolution adopted 77654 under this division, as appropriate, shall establish the rates 77655 of the fees levied under divisions (B) (1), (2), and (3) of this 77656 section, if any, and shall specify whether the fees are levied 77657 on the basis of tons or cubic yards as the unit of measurement. 77658
A solid waste management district that levies fees under this 77659 division on the basis of cubic yards shall do so in accordance 77660 with division (A) of this section. 77661

The fee levied under division (B) (1) of this section shall 77662 be not less than one dollar per ton nor more than two dollars 77663 per ton, the fee levied under division (B) (2) of this section 77664 shall be not less than two dollars per ton nor more than four 77665 dollars per ton, and the fee levied under division (B) (3) of 77666 this section shall be not more than the fee levied under 77667 division (B) (1) of this section. 77668

Prior to the approval of the solid waste management plan 77669 of a district under section 3734.55 of the Revised Code, the 77670 solid waste management policy committee of a district may levy 77671 fees under this division by adopting a resolution establishing 77672 the proposed amount of the fees. Upon adopting the resolution, 77673 the committee shall deliver a copy of the resolution to the 77674 board of county commissioners of each county forming the 77675 district and to the legislative authority of each municipal 77676 corporation and township under the jurisdiction of the district 77677 and shall prepare and publish the resolution and a notice of the 77678 time and location where a public hearing on the fees will be 77679 held. Upon adopting the resolution, the committee shall deliver 77680 written notice of the adoption of the resolution; of the amount 77681 of the proposed fees; and of the date, time, and location of the 77682 public hearing to the director and to the fifty industrial, 77683 commercial, or institutional generators of solid wastes within 77684 the district that generate the largest quantities of solid 77685 wastes, as determined by the committee, and to their local trade 77686 associations. The committee shall make good faith efforts to 77687 identify those generators within the district and their local 77688 trade associations, but the nonprovision of notice under this 77689 division to a particular generator or local trade association 77690 does not invalidate the proceedings under this division. The 77691 publication shall occur at least thirty days before the hearing. 77692

After the hearing, the committee may make such revisions to the 77693 proposed fees as it considers appropriate and thereafter, by 77694 resolution, shall adopt the revised fee schedule. Upon adopting 77695 the revised fee schedule, the committee shall deliver a copy of 77696 the resolution doing so to the board of county commissioners of 77697 each county forming the district and to the legislative 77698 authority of each municipal corporation and township under the 77699 jurisdiction of the district. Within sixty days after the 77700 delivery of a copy of the resolution adopting the proposed 77701 revised fees by the policy committee, each such board and 77702 legislative authority, by ordinance or resolution, shall approve 77703 or disapprove the revised fees and deliver a copy of the 77704 ordinance or resolution to the committee. If any such board or 77705 legislative authority fails to adopt and deliver to the policy 77706 committee an ordinance or resolution approving or disapproving 77707 the revised fees within sixty days after the policy committee 77708 delivered its resolution adopting the proposed revised fees, it 77709 shall be conclusively presumed that the board or legislative 77710 authority has approved the proposed revised fees. The committee 77711 shall determine if the resolution has been ratified in the same 77712 manner in which it determines if a draft solid waste management 77713 plan has been ratified under division (B) of section 3734.55 of 77714
the Revised Code. 77715

The committee may amend the schedule of fees levied 77716 pursuant to a resolution adopted and ratified under this 77717 division by adopting a resolution establishing the proposed 77718 amount of the amended fees. The committee may repeal the fees 77719 levied pursuant to such a resolution by adopting a resolution 77720 proposing to repeal them. Upon adopting such a resolution, the 77721 committee shall proceed to obtain ratification of the resolution 77722 in accordance with this division. 77723

Not later than fourteen days after declaring the new fees 77724 to be ratified or the fees to be repealed under this division, 77725 the committee shall notify by certified mail the owner or 77726 operator of each solid waste disposal facility that is required 77727 to collect the fees of the ratification and the amount of the 77728 fees or of the repeal of the fees. Collection of any fees shall 77729 commence or collection of repealed fees shall cease on the first 77730 day of the second month following the month in which 77731 notification is sent to the owner or operator. 77732

Fees levied under this division also may be established, 77733 amended, or repealed by a solid waste management policy 77734 committee through the adoption of a new district solid waste 77735 management plan, the adoption of an amended plan, or the 77736 amendment of the plan or amended plan in accordance with 77737 sections 3734.55 and 3734.56 of the Revised Code or the adoption 77738 or amendment of a district plan in connection with a change in 77739 district composition under section 3734.521 of the Revised Code. 77740

Not later than fourteen days after the director issues an 77741 order approving a district's solid waste management plan, 77742 amended plan, or amendment to a plan or amended plan that 77743 establishes, amends, or repeals a schedule of fees levied by the 77744 district, the committee shall notify by certified mail the owner 77745 or operator of each solid waste disposal facility that is 77746 required to collect the fees of the approval of the plan or 77747 amended plan, or the amendment to the plan, as appropriate, and 77748 the amount of the fees, if any. In the case of an initial or 77749 amended plan approved under section 3734.521 of the Revised Code 77750 in connection with a change in district composition, other than 77751 one involving the withdrawal of a county from a joint district, 77752 the committee, within fourteen days after the change takes 77753 effect pursuant to division (G) of that section, shall notify by 77754 certified mail the owner or operator of each solid waste 77755 disposal facility that is required to collect the fees that the 77756 change has taken effect and of the amount of the fees, if any. 77757 Collection of any fees shall commence or collection of repealed 77758 fees shall cease on the first day of the second month following 77759 the month in which notification is sent to the owner or 77760 operator. 77761

If, in the case of a change in district composition 77762 involving the withdrawal of a county from a joint district, the 77763 director completes the actions required under division (G)(1) or 77764
(3) of section 3734.521 of the Revised Code, as appropriate, 77765 forty-five days or more before the beginning of a calendar year, 77766 the policy committee of each of the districts resulting from the 77767 change that obtained the director's approval of an initial or 77768 amended plan in connection with the change, within fourteen days 77769 after the director's completion of the required actions, shall 77770 notify by certified mail the owner or operator of each solid 77771 waste disposal facility that is required to collect the 77772 district's fees that the change is to take effect on the first 77773 day of January immediately following the issuance of the notice 77774 and of the amount of the fees or amended fees levied under 77775 divisions (B)(1) to (3) of this section pursuant to the 77776 district's initial or amended plan as so approved or, if 77777 appropriate, the repeal of the district's fees by that initial 77778 or amended plan. Collection of any fees set forth in such a plan 77779 or amended plan shall commence on the first day of January 77780 immediately following the issuance of the notice. If such an 77781 initial or amended plan repeals a schedule of fees, collection 77782 of the fees shall cease on that first day of January. 77783

If, in the case of a change in district composition 77784
involving the withdrawal of a county from a joint district, the 77785 director completes the actions required under division (G)(1) or 77786
(3) of section 3734.521 of the Revised Code, as appropriate, 77787 less than forty-five days before the beginning of a calendar 77788 year, the director, on behalf of each of the districts resulting 77789 from the change that obtained the director's approval of an 77790 initial or amended plan in connection with the change 77791 proceedings, shall notify by certified mail the owner or 77792 operator of each solid waste disposal facility that is required 77793
to collect the district's fees that the change is to take effect 77794 on the first day of January immediately following the mailing of 77795 the notice and of the amount of the fees or amended fees levied 77796 under divisions (B)(1) to (3) of this section pursuant to the 77797 district's initial or amended plan as so approved or, if 77798
or amended plan. Collection of any fees set forth in such a plan 77800 or amended plan shall commence on the first day of the second 77801 month following the month in which notification is sent to the 77802 owner or operator. If such an initial or amended plan repeals a 77803 schedule of fees, collection of the fees shall cease on the 77804 first day of the second month following the month in which 77805
notification is sent to the owner or operator. 77806

If the schedule of fees that a solid waste management 77807 district is levying under divisions (B)(1) to (3) of this 77808 section is amended or repealed, the fees in effect immediately 77809 prior to the amendment or repeal shall continue to be collected 77810 until collection of the amended fees commences or collection of 77811 the repealed fees ceases, as applicable, as specified in this 77812 division. In the case of a change in district composition, money 77813 so received from the collection of the fees of the former 77814 districts shall be divided among the resulting districts in 77815 accordance with division (B) of section 343.012 of the Revised 77816 Code and the agreements entered into under division (B) of 77817 section 343.01 of the Revised Code to establish the former and 77818 resulting districts and any amendments to those agreements. 77819

For the purposes of the provisions of division (B) of this 77820 section establishing the times when newly established or amended 77821 fees levied by a district are required to commence and the 77822 collection of fees that have been amended or repealed is 77823 required to cease, "fees" or "schedule of fees" includes, in 77824 addition to fees levied under divisions (B)(1) to (3) of this 77825 section, those levied under section 3734.573 or 3734.574 of the 77826
Revised Code. 77827

(C) For the purposes of defraying the added costs to a 77828 municipal corporation or township of maintaining roads and other 77829 public facilities and of providing emergency and other public 77830 services, and compensating a municipal corporation or township 77831 for reductions in real property tax revenues due to reductions 77832 in real property valuations resulting from the location and 77833 operation of a solid waste disposal facility within the 77834 municipal corporation or township, a municipal corporation or 77835 township in which such a solid waste disposal facility is 77836 located may levy a fee of not more than twenty-five cents per 77837 ton on the disposal of solid wastes at a solid waste disposal 77838 facility located within the boundaries of the municipal 77839 corporation or township regardless of where the wastes were 77840 generated. 77841

The legislative authority of a municipal corporation or 77842 township may levy fees under this division by enacting an 77843 ordinance or adopting a resolution establishing the amount of 77844 the fees. Upon so doing the legislative authority shall mail a 77845 certified copy of the ordinance or resolution to the board of 77846 county commissioners or directors of the county or joint solid 77847 waste management district in which the municipal corporation or 77848 township is located or, if a regional solid waste management 77849 authority has been formed under section 343.011 of the Revised 77850 Code, to the board of trustees of that regional authority, the 77851 owner or operator of each solid waste disposal facility in the 77852 municipal corporation or township that is required to collect 77853 the fee by the ordinance or resolution, and the director of 77854 environmental protection. Although the fees levied under this 77855 division are levied on the basis of tons as the unit of 77856 measurement, the legislative authority, in its ordinance or 77857 resolution levying the fees under this division, may direct that 77858 the fees be levied on the basis of cubic yards as the unit of 77859 measurement based upon a conversion factor of three cubic yards 77860 per ton generally or one cubic yard per ton for baled wastes. 77861

Not later than five days after enacting an ordinance or 77862 adopting a resolution under this division, the legislative 77863 authority shall so notify by certified mail the owner or 77864 operator of each solid waste disposal facility that is required 77865
to collect the fee. Collection of any fee levied on or after 77866 March 24, 1992, shall commence on the first day of the second 77867
owner or operator. 77869 of this section do not apply to the disposal of solid wastes 77871 that: 77872

(a) Are disposed of at a facility owned by the generator 77873 of the wastes when the solid waste facility exclusively disposes 77874 of solid wastes generated at one or more premises owned by the 77875 generator regardless of whether the facility is located on a 77876

(b) Are generated from the combustion of coal, or from the 77878

generated; 77881

(c) Are asbestos or asbestos-containing materials or 77882 products disposed of at a construction and demolition debris 77883

Code or at a solid waste facility that is licensed under this 77885
chapter. 77886

(2) Except as provided in section 3734.571 of the Revised 77887
Code, any fees levied under division (B)(1) of this section 77888 apply to solid wastes originating outside the boundaries of a 77889 county or joint district that are covered by an agreement for 77890 the joint use of solid waste facilities entered into under 77891 section 343.02 of the Revised Code by the board of county 77892 commissioners or board of directors of the county or joint 77893 district where the wastes are generated and disposed of. 77894

(3) When solid wastes, other than solid wastes that 77895 consist of scrap tires, are burned in a disposal facility that 77896 is an incinerator or energy recovery facility, the fees levied 77897 under divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this section shall be 77898 levied upon the disposal of the fly ash and bottom ash remaining 77899 after burning of the solid wastes and shall be collected by the 77900 owner or operator of the sanitary landfill where the ash is 77901 disposed of. 77902

providing for the expenditure of public funds entered into by 77936 the administrator or regional administrator of the United States 77937 environmental protection agency, the director of environmental 77938 protection, or the director of administrative services on behalf 77939 of the director of environmental protection for the purpose of 77940 remediating conditions at a hazardous waste facility, solid 77941 waste facility, or other location at which the administrator or 77942 regional administrator or the director of environmental 77943 protection has reason to believe that there is a substantial 77944 threat to public health or safety or the environment or that the 77945 conditions are causing or contributing to air or water pollution 77946 or soil contamination. An order issued by the director of 77947 environmental protection under division (D) (8) of this section 77948 shall include a determination that the amount of the fees not 77949 received by a solid waste management district as a result of the 77950 order will not adversely impact the implementation and financing 77951 of the district's approved solid waste management plan and any 77952 approved amendments to the plan. Such an order is a final action 77953 of the director of environmental protection. 77954

(E) The fees levied under divisions (B) and (C) of this 77955 section shall be collected by the owner or operator of the solid 77956 waste disposal facility where the wastes are disposed of as a 77957 trustee for the county or joint district and municipal 77958 corporation or township where the wastes are disposed of. Moneys 77959 from the fees levied under division (B) of this section shall be 77960 directors of the district in accordance with rules adopted under 77962 division (H) of this section. Moneys from the fees levied under 77963 division (C) of this section shall be forwarded to the treasurer 77964 as it existed prior to that date, any moneys arising from the 78077 fees levied under division (B) (3) of this section prior to 78078 January 1, 1994, may be expended for any of the purposes 78079 authorized in divisions (G) (1) to (10) of this section. 78080

(H) The director shall adopt rules in accordance with 78081 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code prescribing procedures for 78082 collecting and forwarding the fees levied under divisions (B) 78083 and (C) of this section to the boards of county commissioners or 78084 directors of county or joint solid waste management districts 78085 and to the treasurers or other officers of municipal 78086 corporations and the fiscal officers of townships. The rules 78087 also shall prescribe the dates for forwarding the fees to the 78088 boards and officials and may prescribe any other requirements 78089 from the amount of the applicable permit fee due under division 78099 ~~(R)~~(Q) of section 3745.11 of the Revised Code. 78100

(B) Division (A) of this section does not apply to an 78101 application for a permit for a scrap tire storage facility 78102 provisions, and terms and conditions of orders, variances, and 78110 licenses issued under those provisions; to abate accumulations 78111 of scrap tires; to make grants supporting market development 78112 activities for scrap tires and synthetic rubber from tire 78113 manufacturing processes and tire recycling processes and to 78114 support scrap tire amnesty and cleanup events; to make loans to 78115 promote the recycling or recovery of energy from scrap tires; 78116 and to defray the costs of administering and enforcing sections 78117 3734.90 to 3734.9014 of the Revised Code, a fee of fifty cents 78118 per tire is hereby levied on the sale of tires. The proceeds of 78119 the fee shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit 78120 of the scrap tire management fund created in section 3734.82 of 78121 the Revised Code. The fee is levied from the first day of the 78122 calendar month that begins next after thirty days from October 78123 29, 1993, through June 30, ~~2026~~2028. 78124

(2) Beginning on July 1, 2011, and ending on June 30, 78125 ~~2026~~2028, there is hereby levied an additional fee of fifty 78126 cents per tire on the sale of tires the proceeds of which shall 78127 be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the soil and 78128 water conservation district assistance fund created in section 78129

(B) Only one sale of the same article shall be used in 78131 computing the amount of the fee due. 78132

Sec. 3734.907. (A) Any person required to pay the fee 78133 imposed by section 3734.901 of the Revised Code is personally 78134 liable for the fee. The tax commissioner may make an assessment, 78135 based upon any information in the commissioner's possession, 78136 against any person who fails to file a return or pay any fee, 78137 interest, or additional charge as required by sections 3734.90 78138 to 3734.9014 of the Revised Code. The commissioner shall give 78139 the person assessed written notice of the assessment in the 78140 manner provided in section 5703.37 of the Revised Code. With the 78141 notice, the commissioner shall provide instructions on how to 78142 petition for reassessment and request a hearing on the petition. 78143

(D) Unless the person assessed files with the tax commissioner within sixty days after service of the notice of assessment, ~~either personally or by certified mail,~~ a written petition for reassessment signed by the person assessed or that person's authorized agent having knowledge of the facts, the assessment becomes final and the amount of the assessment is due and payable from the person assessed to the treasurer of state. The petition shall indicate the objections of the person assessed, but additional objections may be raised in writing if received by the commissioner prior to the date shown on the final determination. If the petition has been properly filed, the commissioner shall proceed under section 5703.60 of the Revised Code.

(E) After an assessment becomes final, if any portion of the assessment, including accrued interest, remains unpaid, a certified copy of the tax commissioner's entry making the assessment final may be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of common pleas in the county in which the person assessed resides or in which the person's business is conducted. If the person assessed maintains no place of business in this state and is not a resident of this state, the certified copy of the entry 78174 may be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of common 78175 pleas of Franklin county. 78176

Immediately upon the filing of the entry, the clerk shall 78177 enter a judgment for the state against the person assessed in 78178 the amount shown on the entry. The judgment may be filed by the 78179 clerk in a loose-leaf book entitled "special judgments for state 78180 tire fee," and shall have the same effect as other judgments. 78181 Execution shall issue upon the judgment upon the request of the 78182 tax commissioner, and all laws applicable to sales on execution 78183 shall apply to sales made under the judgment. 78184

If the assessment is not paid in its entirety within sixty 78185 days after the day the assessment was issued, the portion of the 78186 assessment consisting of the fee due shall bear interest at the 78187 rate per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code 78188 from the day the commissioner issues the assessment until the 78189 day the assessment is paid or until it is certified to the 78190 attorney general for collection under section 131.02 of the 78191 Revised Code, whichever comes first. If the unpaid portion of 78192 the assessment is certified to the attorney general for 78193 collection, the entire unpaid portion of the assessment shall 78194 bear interest at the rate per annum prescribed by section 78195 5703.47 of the Revised Code from the date of certification until 78196 the date it is paid in its entirety. Interest shall be paid in 78197 the same manner as the fee and may be collected by the issuance 78198 of an assessment under this section. 78199

(F) If the tax commissioner believes that collection of 78200 the fee will be jeopardized unless proceedings to collect or 78201 secure collection of the fee are instituted without delay, the 78202 commissioner may issue a jeopardy assessment against the person 78203 liable for the fee. Immediately upon the issuance of the 78204 jeopardy assessment, the commissioner shall file an entry with 78205 the clerk of the court of common pleas in the manner prescribed 78206 by division (E) of this section. Notice of the jeopardy 78207 assessment shall be served on the person assessed or the 78208 person's legal representative, as provided in section 5703.37 of 78209 the Revised Code, within five days of the filing of the entry 78210 with the clerk. The total amount assessed is immediately due and 78211 payable, unless the person assessed files a petition for 78212 reassessment in accordance with division (D) of this section and 78213 provides security in a form satisfactory to the commissioner and 78214 in an amount sufficient to satisfy the unpaid balance of the 78215 assessment. Full or partial payment of the assessment does not 78216 prejudice the commissioner's consideration of the petition for 78217 reassessment. 78218

(G) All money collected by the tax commissioner under this 78219 section shall be paid to the treasurer of state as revenue 78220 arising from the fee imposed by section 3734.901 of the Revised 78221
Code. 78222

Sec. 3735.67. (A) The owner of real property located in a 78223 community reinvestment area and eligible for exemption from 78224 taxation under a resolution adopted pursuant to section 3735.66 78225 of the Revised Code may file an application for an exemption 78226 from real property taxation of a percentage of the assessed 78227 valuation of a new structure, or of the increased assessed 78228 valuation of an existing structure after remodeling began, if 78229 the new structure or remodeling is completed after the effective 78230 date of the resolution adopted pursuant to section 3735.66 of 78231 the Revised Code. The application shall be filed with the 78232 housing officer designated for the community reinvestment area 78233 in which the property is located. If any part of the new 78234 structure or remodeled structure that would be exempted is of 78235 real property to be used for commercial or industrial purposes, 78236 the legislative authority and the owner of the property shall 78237 enter into a written agreement pursuant to section 3735.671 of 78238 the Revised Code prior to commencement of construction or 78239 remodeling; if such an agreement is subject to approval by the 78240 board of education of the school district within the territory 78241 of which the property is or will be located, the agreement shall 78242 not be formally approved by the legislative authority until the 78243 board of education approves the agreement in the manner 78244 prescribed by that section. If a structure is already subject to 78245 a written agreement pursuant to section 3735.671 of the Revised 78246 Code, is on the site of a proposed megaproject, and is expected 78247 to be owned or occupied by a megaproject operator as defined in 78248 division (A) (12) of section 122.17 of the Revised Code, or is 78249 not situated on the site of a proposed megaproject but is 78250 expected to be owned or occupied by a megaproject supplier that 78251 meets the requirements described in division (A) (13) (b) of 78252 section 122.17 of the Revised Code, the legislative authority 78253 may amend the agreement to cause the exemption for the structure 78254 to continue for a maximum amended term not exceeding thirty 78255 years by following the process for approving an agreement 78256 described in section 3735.671 of the Revised Code. 78257

(B) The housing officer shall verify the construction of 78258 the new structure or the cost of the remodeling of the existing 78259 structure and the facts asserted in the application. The housing 78260 officer shall determine whether the construction or remodeling 78261 meets the requirements for an exemption under this section. In 78262 cases involving a structure of historical or architectural 78263 significance, the housing officer shall not determine whether 78264 the remodeling meets the requirements for a tax exemption unless 78265 the appropriateness of the remodeling has been certified, in 78266 writing, by the society, association, agency, or legislative 78267 authority that has designated the structure or by any 78268 organization or person authorized, in writing, by such society, 78269 association, agency, or legislative authority to certify the 78270 appropriateness of the remodeling. 78271

(C) If the construction or remodeling meets the 78272 requirements for exemption, the housing officer shall forward 78273 the application to the county auditor with a certification as to 78274 the division of this section under which the exemption is 78275 granted, and the period and percentage of the exemption as 78276 determined by the legislative authority pursuant to that 78277 division. If the construction or remodeling is of commercial or 78278 industrial property and the legislative authority is not 78279 required to certify a copy of a resolution under section 78280 3735.671 of the Revised Code, the housing officer shall comply 78281 with the notice requirements prescribed under section 5709.83 of 78282 the Revised Code, unless the board has adopted a resolution 78283 under that section waiving its right to receive such a notice. 78284

(D) Except as provided in division (F) of this section, 78285 the tax exemption shall first apply in the year the construction 78286 or remodeling would first be taxable but for this section. In 78287 the case of remodeling that qualifies for exemption, a 78288 percentage, not to exceed one hundred per cent, of the increased 78289 assessed valuation of an existing structure after remodeling 78290 began shall be exempted from real property taxation. In the case 78291 of construction of a structure that qualifies for exemption, a 78292 percentage, not to exceed one hundred per cent, of the assessed 78293 value of the structure shall be exempted from real property 78294 taxation. In either case, the percentage shall be the percentage 78295 set forth in the agreement if the structure or remodeling is to 78296 be used for commercial or industrial purposes, or the percentage 78297 set forth in the resolution describing the community 78298 reinvestment area if the structure or remodeling is to be used 78299 for residential purposes. 78300

The construction of new structures and the remodeling of 78301 existing structures are hereby declared to be a public purpose 78302 for which exemptions from real property taxation may be granted 78303 for the following periods: 78304

(1) For every dwelling and commercial or industrial 78305 properties, located within the same community reinvestment area, 78306 upon which the cost of remodeling is at least two thousand five 78307 hundred dollars in the case of a dwelling containing not more 78308 than two family units or at least five thousand dollars in the 78309 case of all other property, a period to be determined by the 78310 legislative authority adopting the resolution, but not exceeding 78311 fifteen years. The period of exemption for a dwelling described 78312 in division (D) (1) of this section may be extended by a 78313 legislative authority for up to an additional ten years if the 78314 dwelling is a structure of historical or architectural 78315 significance, is a certified historic structure that has been 78316 subject to federal tax treatment under 26 U.S.C. 47 and 170(h), 78317 and units within the structure have been leased to individual 78318 tenants for five consecutive years; 78319

(2) Except as provided in division (F) of this section, 78320 for construction of every dwelling, and commercial or industrial 78321 structure located within the same community reinvestment area, a 78322 period to be determined by the legislative authority adopting 78323 the resolution, but not exceeding one of the following: 78324

(a) Thirty years, if the commercial or industrial 78325 structure is situated on the site of a megaproject and is owned 78326

~~and or~~ occupied by a megaproject operator as defined in division 78327
(A) (12) of section 122.17 of the Revised Code, or is not 78328 situated on the site of a megaproject but is owned ~~and or~~ 78329 occupied by a megaproject supplier that meets the requirements 78330 described in division (A) (13) (b) of section 122.17 of the 78331
Revised Code; 78332

(b) Fifteen years, for any other dwelling or commercial or 78333 industrial structure. 78334

(E) Any person, board, or officer authorized by section 78335 5715.19 of the Revised Code to file complaints with the county 78336 board of revision may file a complaint with the housing officer 78337 challenging the continued exemption of any property granted an 78338 exemption under this section. A complaint against exemption 78339 shall be filed prior to the thirty-first day of December of the 78340 tax year for which taxation of the property is requested. The 78341 housing officer shall determine whether the property continues 78342 to meet the requirements for exemption and shall certify the 78343 housing officer's findings to the complainant. If the housing 78344 officer determines that the property does not meet the 78345 requirements for exemption, the housing officer shall notify the 78346 county auditor, who shall correct the tax list and duplicate 78347 accordingly. 78348

(F) The owner of a dwelling constructed in a community 78349 reinvestment area may file an application for an exemption after 78350 the year the construction first became subject to taxation. The 78351 application shall be processed in accordance with the procedures 78352 prescribed under this section and shall be granted if the 78353 construction that is the subject of the application otherwise 78354 meets the requirements for an exemption under this section. If 78355 approved, the exemption sought in the application first applies 78356 in the year the application is filed. An exemption approved 78357 pursuant to this division continues only for those years 78358 remaining in the period described in division (D) (2) of this 78359 section. No exemption may be claimed for any year in that period 78360 that precedes the year in which the application is filed. 78361

Sec. 3735.671. (A) If construction or remodeling of 78362 commercial or industrial property is to be exempted from 78363 taxation pursuant to section 3735.67 of the Revised Code, the 78364 legislative authority and the owner of the property, prior to 78365 the commencement of construction or remodeling, shall enter into 78366 a written agreement, binding on both parties for a period of 78367 time that does not end prior to the end of the period of the 78368 exemption, that includes all of the information and statements 78369 described in divisions (B) (1) to (8) of this section. Agreements 78370 may include terms not described in those divisions or otherwise 78371 prescribed by the model agreement adopted by the director of 78372 development under division (B) of this section, but such terms 78373 shall in no way derogate from the information and statements 78374 described in divisions (B) (1) to (8) of this section. 78375

(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (A) (2) or (3) 78376 of this section, an agreement entered into under this section 78377 shall not be approved by the legislative authority unless the 78378 board of education of the city, local, or exempted village 78379 school district within the territory of which the property is or 78380 will be located approves the agreement. For the purpose of 78381 obtaining such approval, the legislative authority shall certify 78382 a copy of the agreement to the board of education not later than 78383 forty-five days prior to approving the agreement, excluding 78384 Saturday, Sunday, and a legal holiday as defined in section 1.14 78385 of the Revised Code. The board of education, by resolution 78386 adopted by a majority of the board, shall approve or disapprove 78387 the agreement and certify a copy of the resolution to the 78388 legislative authority not later than fourteen days prior to the 78389 date stipulated by the legislative authority as the date upon 78390 which approval of the agreement is to be formally considered by 78391 the legislative authority. The board of education may include in 78392 the resolution conditions under which the board would approve 78393 the agreement. The legislative authority may approve an 78394 agreement at any time after the board of education certifies its 78395 resolution approving the agreement to the legislative authority, 78396 or, if the board approves the agreement conditionally, at any 78397 time after the conditions are agreed to by the board and the 78398 legislative authority. 78399

(2) Approval of an agreement by the board of education is 78400 not required under division (A)(1) of this section if, for each 78401 tax year the real property is exempted from taxation, the sum of 78402 the following quantities, as estimated at or prior to the time 78403 the agreement is formally approved by the legislative authority, 78404 equals or exceeds twenty-five per cent of the amount of taxes, 78405 as estimated at or prior to that time, that would have been 78406 charged and payable that year upon the real property had that 78407 property not been exempted from taxation: 78408

(a) The amount of taxes charged and payable on any portion 78409 of the assessed valuation of the new structure or of the 78410 increased assessed valuation of an existing structure after 78411 remodeling began that will not be exempted from taxation under 78412
the agreement; 78413

(b) The amount of taxes charged and payable on tangible 78414 personal property located on the premises of the new structure 78415 or of the structure to be remodeled under the agreement, whether 78416 payable by the owner of the structure or by a related member, as 78417 defined in section 5733.042 of the Revised Code without regard 78418 to division (B) of that section. 78419

(c) The amount of any cash payment by the owner of the new 78420 structure or structure to be remodeled to the school district, 78421 the dollar value, as mutually agreed to by the owner and the 78422 board of education, of any property or services provided by the 78423 owner of the property to the school district, whether by gift, 78424 loan, or otherwise, and any payment by the legislative authority 78425 to the school district pursuant to section 5709.82 of the 78426
Revised Code. 78427

The estimates of quantities used for purposes of division 78428
(A) (2) of this section shall be estimated by the legislative 78429 authority. The legislative authority shall certify to the board 78430 of education that the estimates have been made in good faith. 78431 Departures of the actual quantities from the estimates 78432 subsequent to approval of the agreement by the board of 78433 education do not invalidate the agreement. 78434

(3) If a board of education has adopted a resolution 78435 waiving its right to approve agreements and the resolution 78436 remains in effect, approval of an agreement by the board is not 78437 required under division (A) (1) of this section. If a board of 78438 education has adopted a resolution allowing a legislative 78439 authority to deliver the notice required under this division 78440 fewer than forty-five business days prior to the legislative 78441 authority's execution of the agreement, the legislative 78442 authority shall deliver the notice to the board not later than 78443 the number of days prior to such execution as prescribed by the 78444 board in its resolution. If a board of education adopts a 78445 resolution waiving its right to approve agreements or shortening 78446 the notification period, the board shall certify a copy of the 78447 resolution to the legislative authority. If the board of 78448 education rescinds such a resolution, it shall certify notice of 78449 the rescission to the legislative authority. 78450

(4) If the owner of the property or the legislative 78451 authority agree to make any payment to the school district as 78452 described in division (A) (2) (c) of this section, the owner or 78453 legislative authority shall agree to make payments to the joint 78454 vocational school district within which the property is located 78455 at the same rate or amount and under the same terms received by 78456 the city, local, or exempted village school district. 78457

(B) The director of development shall adopt rules in 78458 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code prescribing the 78459 form of a model agreement that a legislative authority may, in 78460 its discretion, use as the basis for an agreement to be executed 78461 under this section. The model agreement may include any term 78462 necessary for the administration and enforcement of such 78463 agreements by the director and legislative authority, but must 78464 include all of the following: 78465

(1) A space to include the description of real property to 78466 be exempted from taxation under the agreement and to identify 78467 the property's owners; 78468

(2) A space to denote the percentage of the assessed 78469 valuation of real property exempted from taxation and the period 78470 for which the exemption is granted; 78471

(3) A statement requiring the owner to pay real property 78472 taxes not exempted under the agreement, as required by law, and 78473 requiring rescission of the agreement if the owner fails to pay 78474 those taxes beginning in and after the year any such taxes are 78475 charged; 78476

(5) A statement requiring the owner to provide to the property tax incentive review council any information reasonably required by the council to evaluate the applicant's compliance with the agreement;

(6) A statement that the agreement is not transferable or assignable without the approval of the legislative authority;

(7) A statement describing the circumstances under which the legislative authority may revoke an agreement for noncompliance;

(8) A statement requiring the owner to provide an estimate of the following for each agreement:

(a) The number of employment opportunities created due to the remodeling or construction, as well as the payroll attributable to those opportunities;

(b) The number of employment opportunities retained due to the remodeling or construction, as well as the payroll attributable to those opportunities.

The model agreement shall also provide that a legislative authority may, but is not required to, include a statement describing the manner by which the legislative authority may recover already-received benefits, which may include an action 78506 brought in law or equity, a lien on the exempted property in the 78507 amount to be recovered, or other means. In the case of a lien on 78508 the exempted property, the lien shall attach, and may be 78509 perfected, collected, and enforced, in the same manner as a 78510 mortgage lien on real property, and otherwise has the same force 78511 and effect as a mortgage lien on real property. 78512

Once the director adopts rules prescribing a model 78513 agreement under this division, the model agreement may not be 78514 changed unless the director adopts, amends, or rescinds those 78515 rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 78516

(C) If any person that is party to an agreement granting 78517 an exemption from taxation discontinues operations at the 78518 structure to which that exemption applies prior to the 78519 expiration of the term of the agreement, that person, any 78520 successor to that person, and any related member shall not enter 78521 into an agreement under this section or section 5709.62, 78522 5709.63, or 5709.632 of the Revised Code, and no legislative 78523 authority shall enter into such an agreement with such a person, 78524 successor, or related member prior to the expiration of three 78525 years after the person's discontinuation of operations. As used 78526 in this division, "successor" means a person to which the assets 78527 or equity of another person has been transferred, which transfer 78528 resulted in the full or partial nonrecognition of gain or loss, 78529 or resulted in a carryover basis, both as determined by rule 78530 adopted by the tax commissioner. "Related member" has the same 78531 meaning as defined in section 5733.042 of the Revised Code 78532 without regard to division (B) of that section. 78533

The director of development shall review all agreements 78534 submitted to the director under section 3735.672 of the Revised 78535

Code for the purpose of enforcing this division. If the director 78536 determines there has been a violation of this division, the 78537 director shall notify the legislative authority of such 78538 violation, and the legislative authority immediately shall 78539 revoke the exemption granted under the agreement. 78540

(D) A political subdivision other than the legislative 78541 authority is not required to be a party to an agreement 78542 authorized under this section unless the political subdivision 78543 is a fee simple owner of real property subject to an exemption 78544 pursuant to section 3735.67 of the Revised Code that would 78545 otherwise be obligated to pay real property taxes for such real 78546 property. 78547

Sec. 3737.83. The state fire marshal shall, as part of the 78548 state fire code, adopt rules to: 78549

(A) Establish minimum standards of performance for fire 78550 protection equipment and fire fighting equipment; 78551

(B) Establish minimum standards of training, fix minimum 78552 qualifications, and require certificates for all persons who 78553 engage in the business for profit of installing, testing, 78554 repairing, or maintaining fire protection equipment; 78555

(C) Provide for the issuance of certificates required 78556 under division (B) of this section and establish the fees to be 78557 charged for such certificates. A certificate shall be granted, 78558 renewed, or revoked according to rules the state fire marshal 78559 shall adopt, except that the state fire marshal shall grant a 78560 certificate in accordance with Chapter 4796. of the Revised Code 78561 to an applicant if either of the following applies: 78562

(1) The applicant holds a license or certificate in 78563 another state. 78564

(2) The applicant has satisfactory work experience, a 78565 government certification, or a private certification as 78566 described in that chapter as a person engaged in the business of 78567 installing, testing, repairing, or maintaining fire protection 78568 equipment in a state that does not issue that certificate. 78569

(D) Establish minimum standards of flammability for 78570 consumer goods in any case where the federal government or any 78571 department or agency thereof has established, or may from time 78572 to time establish standards of flammability for consumer goods. 78573
The standards established by the state fire marshal shall be 78574 identical to the minimum federal standards. 78575

In any case where the federal government or any department 78576 or agency thereof, establishes standards of flammability for 78577 consumer goods subsequent to the adoption of a flammability 78578 standard by the state fire marshal, standards previously adopted 78579 by the state fire marshal shall not continue in effect to the 78580 extent such standards are not identical to the minimum federal 78581 standards. 78582

With respect to the adoption of minimum standards of 78583 flammability, this division shall supersede any authority 78584 granted a political subdivision by any other section of the 78585
Revised Code. 78586

(E) Establish minimum standards pursuant to section 78587 5104.05 of the Revised Code for fire prevention and fire safety 78588 in child care centers and in type A family child care homes, as 78589 defined in section 5104.01 of the Revised Code. 78590

(F) Establish minimum standards for fire prevention and 78591 safety in a residential facility licensed under section 5119.34 78592 of the Revised Code that provides accommodations, supervision, 78593 and personal care services for three to sixteen unrelated 78594 adults. The state fire marshal shall adopt the rules under this 78595 division in consultation with the director of mental health and 78596 addiction services and interested parties designated by the 78597 director of mental health and addiction services. 78598

(H) No person shall negligently discharge, ignite, or 79812 explode fireworks on the property of another person without that 79813 person's permission to use fireworks on that property. 79814

Sec. 3745.11. (A) Applicants for and holders of permits, 79815 licenses, variances, plan approvals, and certifications issued 79816 by the director of environmental protection pursuant to Chapters 79817 3704., 3734., 6109., and 6111. of the Revised Code shall pay a 79818 fee to the environmental protection agency for each such 79819 issuance and each application for an issuance as provided by 79820 this section. No fee shall be charged for any issuance for which 79821 no application has been submitted to the director. 79822

(B) Except as otherwise provided in division (C) (2) of 79823 this section, beginning July 1, 1994, each person who owns or 79824 operates an air contaminant source and who is required to apply 79825 for and obtain a Title V permit under section 3704.036 of the 79826 Revised Code shall pay an annual fee of five thousand dollars in 79827 addition to the fees set forth in this division. For the 79828 purposes of this division, total emissions of air contaminants 79829 may be calculated using engineering calculations, emissions 79830 factors, material balance calculations, or performance testing 79831 procedures, as authorized by the director. 79832

The following fees shall be assessed on the total actual 79833 emissions from a source in tons per year of the regulated 79834 pollutants particulate matter, sulfur dioxide, nitrogen oxides, 79835 organic compounds, and lead: 79836

(1) Fifteen dollars per ton on the total actual emissions 79837 of each such regulated pollutant during the period July through 79838
December 1993, to be collected no sooner than July 1, 1994; 79839

(2) Twenty dollars per ton on the total actual emissions 79840 of each such regulated pollutant during calendar year 1994, to 79841 be collected no sooner than April 15, 1995; 79842

(3) Twenty-five dollars per ton on the total actual 79843 emissions of each such regulated pollutant in calendar year 79844 1995, and each subsequent calendar year, to be collected no 79845 sooner than the fifteenth day of April of the year next 79846 succeeding the calendar year in which the emissions occurred. 79847

The fees levied under this division do not apply to that 79848 portion of the emissions of a regulated pollutant at a facility 79849 that exceed four thousand tons during a calendar year. 79850

(C) (1) The fees assessed under division (B) of this 79851 section are for the purpose of providing funding for the Title V 79852 permit program. 79853

(2) The fees assessed under division (B) of this section 79854 do not apply to emissions from any electric generating unit 79855 designated as a Phase I unit under Title IV of the federal Clean 79856 Air Act prior to calendar year 2000. Those fees shall be 79857 assessed on the emissions from such a generating unit commencing 79858 in calendar year 2001 based upon the total actual emissions from 79859 the generating unit during calendar year 2000 and shall continue 79860 to be assessed each subsequent calendar year based on the total 79861 actual emissions from the generating unit during the preceding 79862
calendar year. 79863

(3) The director shall issue invoices to owners or 79864 operators of air contaminant sources who are required to pay a 79865 fee assessed under division (B) or (D) of this section. Any such 79866 invoice shall be issued no sooner than the applicable date when 79867 the fee first may be collected in a year under the applicable 79868 division, shall identify the nature and amount of the fee 79869 assessed, and shall indicate that the fee is required to be paid 79870 within thirty days after the issuance of the invoice. 79871

(D) (1) Except as provided in division (D) (2) of this 79872 section, beginning January 1, 2004, each person who owns or 79873 operates an air contaminant source; who is required to apply for 79874 a permit to operate pursuant to rules adopted under division 79875 (G), or a variance pursuant to division (H), of section 3704.03 79876 of the Revised Code; and who is not required to apply for and 79877 obtain a Title V permit under section 3704.03 of the Revised 79878 Code shall pay a single fee based upon the sum of the actual 79879 annual emissions from the facility of the regulated pollutants 79880 particulate matter, sulfur dioxide, nitrogen oxides, organic 79881 compounds, and lead in accordance with the following schedule: 79882

C	10 or more, but less than 50	200
D	50 or more, but less than 100	300

(2) (a) As used in division (D) of this section, "synthetic minor facility" means a facility for which one or more permits to install or permits to operate have been issued for the air contaminant sources at the facility that include terms and conditions that lower the facility's potential to emit air contaminants below the major source thresholds established in rules adopted under section 3704.036 of the Revised Code.

(b) ~~Beginning January 1, 2000, through June 30, 2026, each~~
Each person who owns or operates a synthetic minor facility_ shall pay an annual fee of five thousand dollars in addition to a fee based on the sum of the actual annual emissions from the facility of particulate matter, sulfur dioxide, nitrogen dioxide, organic compounds, and lead in accordance with the following schedule:

section shall be collected annually no sooner than the fifteenth	79900 day of April, commencing in 2005. The fees assessed under	79901 division (D) (2) of this section shall be collected no sooner	79902 than the fifteenth day of April, commencing in 2000. The fees	79903 assessed under division (D) of this section in a calendar year	79904

shall be based upon the sum of the actual emissions of those regulated pollutants during the preceding calendar year. For the purpose of division (D) of this section, emissions of air contaminants may be calculated using engineering calculations, emission factors, material balance calculations, or performance testing procedures, as authorized by the director. The director, by rule, may require persons who are required to pay the fees assessed under division (D) of this section to pay those fees biennially rather than annually.

(E) (1) Consistent with the need to cover the reasonable costs of the Title V permit program, the director annually shall increase the fees assessed on emissions prescribed in division (B) of this section by the percentage, if any, by which the consumer price index for the most recent calendar year ending before the beginning of a year exceeds the consumer price index for calendar year 1989. Upon calculating an increase in fees authorized by division (E) (1) of this section, the director shall compile revised fee schedules for the purposes of division (B) of this section and shall make the revised schedules available to persons required to pay the fees assessed under that division and to the public.

(2) For the purposes of division (E) (1) of this section:

(a) The consumer price index for any year is the average of the consumer price index for all urban consumers published by the United States department of labor as of the close of the twelve-month period ending on the thirty-first day of August of that year.

(b) If the 1989 consumer price index is revised, the director shall use the revision of the consumer price index that is most consistent with that for calendar year 1989.

(F) Each person who is issued a permit to install pursuant to rules adopted under division (F) of section 3704.03 of the Revised Code on or after July 1, 2003, shall pay the fees specified in the following schedules:

A thirty-five per cent reduction for exceptional quality 80627 sludge applies to the maximum annual fees established under 80628 division ~~(Y)~~~~(3)~~(X) (3) of this section. 80629

(c) A sewage sludge facility that transfers sewage sludge 80630 to another sewage sludge facility in this state for further 80631 treatment prior to disposal in this state shall not be required 80632 to pay the annual sludge fee for the tons of sewage sludge that 80633 have been transferred. In such a case, the sewage sludge 80634 facility that disposes of the sewage sludge shall pay the annual 80635 sludge fee. However, the facility transferring the sewage sludge 80636 shall pay the one-hundred-dollar minimum fee required under 80637 division ~~(Y)~~~~(2)~~~~(a)~~(X) (2) (a) of this section. 80638

In the case of a sewage sludge facility that treats sewage 80639 sludge in this state and transfers it out of this state to 80640 another entity for disposal, the sewage sludge facility in this 80641 state shall be required to pay the annual sludge fee for the 80642 tons of sewage sludge that have been transferred. 80643

(d) A sewage sludge facility that generates sewage sludge 80644 resulting from an average daily discharge flow of less than five 80645 thousand gallons per day is not subject to the fees assessed 80646 sludge fee shall be required to pay more than the maximum annual 80649 fee for each disposal method that the sewage sludge facility 80650 uses. The maximum annual fee does not include the additional 80651 amount that may be charged under division ~~(Y) (5)~~ (X) (5) of this 80652 section for late payment of the annual sludge fee. The maximum 80653 transfers the sewage sludge to an incineration facility for 80664 disposal, the incineration facility, and not the entity 80665 generating the sewage sludge or the sewage sludge facility 80666 treating the sewage sludge, shall pay the annual sludge fee for 80667 the tons of sewage sludge that are transferred. However, the 80668 entity or facility generating or treating the sewage sludge 80669 shall pay the one-hundred-dollar minimum fee required under 80670

division ~~(Y) (2) (a)~~ (X) (2) (a) of this section. 80671

and transfers the sewage sludge to a landfill for disposal or to 80673 a sewage sludge facility for land reclamation or surface 80674 disposal, the entity generating the sewage sludge, and not the 80675 landfill or sewage sludge facility, shall pay the annual sludge 80676 fee for the tons of sewage sludge that are transferred. 80677

(5) Not later than the first day of April of the calendar 80678 year following March 17, 2000, and each first day of April 80679 thereafter, the director shall issue invoices to persons who are 80680 required to pay the annual sludge fee. The invoice shall 80681

Not later than the first day of May following receipt of 80686 an invoice, a person required to pay the annual sludge fee may 80687 submit objections to the director concerning the accuracy of 80688 information regarding the number of dry tons of sewage sludge 80689 used to calculate the amount of the annual sludge fee or 80690 regarding whether the sewage sludge qualifies for the 80691 exceptional quality sludge discount established in division ~~(Y)~~ 80692 ~~(2) (b)~~ (X) (2) (b) of this section. The director may consider the 80693 objections and adjust the amount of the fee to ensure that it is 80694 accurate. 80695

If the director does not adjust the amount of the annual 80696 sludge fee in response to a person's objections, the person may 80697 appeal the director's determination in accordance with Chapter 80698
119. of the Revised Code. 80699

Not later than the first day of June, the director shall 80700 notify the objecting person regarding whether the director has 80701 found the objections to be valid and the reasons for the 80702 finding. If the director finds the objections to be valid and 80703 adjusts the amount of the annual sludge fee accordingly, the 80704 director shall issue with the notification a new invoice to the 80705 person identifying the amount of the annual sludge fee assessed 80706 and stating the first day of July as the deadline for payment. 80707

Not later than the first day of July, any person who is 80708 required to do so shall pay the annual sludge fee. Any person 80709 who is required to pay the fee, but who fails to do so on or 80710 before that date shall pay an additional amount that equals ten 80711

(6) The director shall transmit all moneys collected under 80713 division ~~(Y)~~(X) of this section to the treasurer of state for 80714 to defray the costs of administering and enforcing provisions in 80717 Chapter 6111. of the Revised Code and rules adopted under it 80718 that govern the use, storage, treatment, or disposal of sewage 80719 sludge. 80720

(7) Beginning in fiscal year 2001, and every two years 80721 thereafter, the director shall review the total amount of moneys 80722 generated by the annual sludge fees to determine if that amount 80723 exceeded six hundred thousand dollars in either of the two 80724 preceding fiscal years. If the total amount of moneys in the 80725 fund exceeded six hundred thousand dollars in either fiscal 80726 year, the director, after review of the fee structure and 80727 consultation with affected persons, shall issue an order 80728 reducing the amount of the fees levied under division ~~(Y)~~(X) of 80729 this section so that the estimated amount of moneys resulting 80730 from the fees will not exceed six hundred thousand dollars in 80731 any fiscal year. 80732

If, upon review of the fees under division ~~(Y)~~(7) ~~(X)~~ (7) of 80733 this section and after the fees have been reduced, the director 80734 determines that the total amount of moneys collected and 80735 accumulated is less than six hundred thousand dollars, the 80736 director, after review of the fee structure and consultation 80737 with affected persons, may issue an order increasing the amount 80738 of the fees levied under division ~~(Y)~~(X) of this section so that 80739 the estimated amount of moneys resulting from the fees will be 80740 approximately six hundred thousand dollars. Fees shall never be 80741 increased to an amount exceeding the amount specified in 80742

division ~~(Y)~~~~(7)~~(X) (7) of this section. 80743

Notwithstanding section 119.06 of the Revised Code, the 80744 director may issue an order under division ~~(Y)~~~~(7)~~(X) (7) of this 80745 section without the necessity to hold an adjudicatory hearing in 80746 connection with the order. The issuance of an order under this 80747 division is not an act or action for purposes of section 3745.04 80748

(2) For a facility that is, or is operated by, a medical practitioner or medical-practitioner group and proposes to handle radiation-generating equipment, the fee for an inspection if the facility is not licensed or registered, and no license or registration is pending at the time of inspection, is four hundred seventy-four dollars plus the fee applicable under the schedule in division (B) (2) of this section.

(D) (1) Except as provided in division (D) (2) of this section, for a facility that handles radioactive material or radiation-generating equipment, the fee for an inspection to determine whether violations cited in a previous inspection have been corrected is the amount specified in rules adopted under division (A) (9) of section 3748.04 of the Revised Code.

(2) For a facility that is, or is operated by, a medical practitioner or medical-practitioner group and handles radiation-generating equipment, the fee for an inspection to determine whether violations cited in a previous inspection have been corrected is fifty per cent of the applicable fee under the schedule in division (B) (2) of this section.

(E) The director may conduct a review of shielding plans or the adequacy of shielding on the request of a licensee or registrant or an applicant for licensure or registration or during an inspection when the director considers a review to be necessary.

(1) Except as provided in division (E) (2) of this section, the fee for the review is the applicable amount specified in rules adopted under division (A) (9) of section 3748.04 of the Revised Code.

(2) For a facility that is, or is operated by, a medical practitioner or medical-practitioner group and handles or 80954 proposes to handle radiation-generating equipment, the fee for 80955 the review is seven hundred sixty-two dollars for each room 80956

under it. 80965

(G) Any fee required under this section that remains 80966

(H) If the director determines that a board of health of a 80970 city or general health district is qualified to conduct 80971 inspections of radiation-generating equipment, the director may 80972 delegate to the board, by contract, the authority to conduct 80973 such inspections. In making a determination of the 80974 qualifications of a board of health to conduct those 80975 inspections, the director shall evaluate the credentials of the 80976 individuals who are to conduct the inspections of radiation- 80977 generating equipment and the radiation detection and measuring 80978 equipment available to them for that purpose. If a contract is 80979 entered into, the board shall have the same authority to make 80980 inspections of radiation-generating equipment as the director 80981 has under this chapter and rules adopted under it. The contract 80982 shall stipulate that only individuals approved by the director 80983 as qualified shall be permitted to inspect radiation-generating 80984 equipment under the contract's provisions. The contract shall 80985 provide for such compensation for services as is agreed to by 80986 the director and the board of health of the contracting health 80987 district. The director may reevaluate the credentials of the 80988 inspection personnel and their radiation detecting and measuring 80989 equipment as often as the director considers necessary and may 80990 terminate any contract with the board of health of any health 80991 district that, in the director's opinion, is not satisfactorily 80992 performing the terms of the contract. 80993

(I) The director may enter at all reasonable times upon 80994 any public or private property to determine compliance with this 80995 chapter and rules adopted under it. 80996 members; and ten members to be appointed by the governor with 81013 the advice and consent of the senate. The appointed members, to 81014 the extent practicable, shall have technical expertise in the 81015 field of emergency response. Of the appointed members, two shall 81016 represent environmental advocacy organizations, one shall 81017 represent the interests of petroleum refiners or marketers or 81018

An appointed member of the commission also may serve as a 81027 member of the local emergency planning committee of an emergency 81028 planning district. An appointed member of the commission who is 81029 also a member of a local emergency planning committee shall not 81030 participate as a member of the commission in the appointment of 81031 members of the local emergency planning committee of which the 81032 member is a member, in the review of the chemical emergency 81033 response and preparedness plan submitted by the local emergency 81034 planning committee of which the member is a member, in any vote 81035 to approve a grant to the member's district, or in any vote of 81036 the commission on any motion or resolution pertaining 81037 specifically to the member's district or the local emergency 81038 planning committee on which the member serves. A commission 81039 member who is also a member of a local emergency planning 81040 committee shall not lobby or otherwise act as an advocate for 81041 the member's district to other members of the commission to 81042 obtain from the commission anything of value for the member's 81043 district or the local emergency planning committee of which the 81044 member is a member. A member of the commission who is also a 81045 member of a local emergency planning committee may vote on 81046 resolutions of the commission that apply uniformly to all local 81047 emergency planning committees and districts in the state and do 81048 not provide a grant or other pecuniary benefit to the member's 81049 district or the committee of which the member is a member. 81050

The governor shall make the initial appointments to the 81051 commission within thirty days after December 14, 1988. Of the 81052 initial appointments to the commission, five shall be for a term 81053 of two years and five shall be for a term of one year. 81054 Thereafter, terms of office of the appointed members of the 81055 commission shall be for two years, with each term ending on the 81056 same day of the same month as did the term that it succeeds. 81057
Each member shall hold office from the date of appointment until 81058 the end of the term for which the member was appointed. Members 81059 may be reappointed. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner 81060 provided for original appointments. Any member appointed to fill 81061 a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for 81062 which the member's predecessor was appointed shall hold office 81063 for the remainder of that term. A member shall continue in 81064 office subsequent to the expiration date of the member's term 81065 until the member's successor takes office or until a period of 81066 sixty days has elapsed, whichever occurs first. The commission 81067 may at any time by a vote of two-thirds of all the members 81068 remove any appointed member of the commission for misfeasance, 81069 nonfeasance, or malfeasance. Members of the commission shall 81070 serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for the 81071 reasonable expenses incurred by them in the discharge of their 81072 duties as members of the commission. 81073

The commission shall meet at least annually and shall hold 81074 such additional meetings as are necessary to implement and 81075 administer this chapter. Additional meetings may be held at the 81076 behest of either a co-chairperson or a majority of the members. 81077

The commission shall, by adoption of internal management rules 81078 under division (B) (9) of this section, establish an executive 81079 committee and delegate to it the performance of such of the 81080 commission's duties and powers under this chapter as are 81081 required or authorized to be so delegated by that division. The 81082 commission may organize itself into such additional committees 81083 as it considers necessary or convenient to implement and 81084 administer this chapter. The director of environmental 81085 protection and the director of public safety or their designees 81086 shall serve as co-chairpersons of the commission and the 81087 executive committee. Except as otherwise provided in this 81088 chapter, a majority of the voting members of the commission 81089 constitutes a quorum and the affirmative vote of a majority of 81090 the voting members of the commission is necessary for any action 81091 taken by the commission. Meetings of the executive committee 81092 conducted for the purpose of determining whether to issue an 81093 enforcement order or request that a civil action, civil penalty 81094 action, or criminal action be brought to enforce this chapter or 81095 rules adopted or orders issued under it are not subject to 81096 section 121.22 of the Revised Code pursuant to division (D) of 81097 that section. 81098

Except for the purposes of Chapters 102. and 2921. and 81099 sections 9.86 and 109.36 to 109.366 of the Revised Code, serving 81100 as an appointed member of the commission does not constitute 81101 holding a public office or position of employment under the laws 81102 of this state and does not constitute grounds for removal of 81103 public officers or employees from their offices or positions of 81104 employment. 81105

(B) The commission shall: 81106

(1) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are consistent with and equivalent in scope, content, and coverage to the "Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 100 Stat. 1729, 42 U.S.C.A. 11001, and applicable regulations adopted under it:

(a) Identifying or listing extremely hazardous substances and establishing a threshold planning quantity for each such substance. To the extent consistent with that act and applicable regulations adopted under it, the rules may establish threshold planning quantities based upon classes of those substances or categories of facilities at which such substances are present.

(b) Listing hazardous chemicals, establishing threshold quantities for those chemicals, establishing categories of health and physical hazards of those chemicals, establishing criteria or procedures for identifying those chemicals and the appropriate hazard categories of those chemicals, and establishing ranges of quantities for those chemicals to be used in preparing emergency and hazardous chemical inventory forms under section 3750.08 of the Revised Code. To the extent consistent with that act and applicable regulations adopted under it, the rules may establish threshold quantities based upon classes of those chemicals or categories of facilities where those chemicals are present.

To the extent consistent with that act, the threshold quantities for purposes of the submission of lists of hazardous chemicals under section 3750.07 and the submission of emergency and hazardous chemical inventory forms under section 3750.08 of the Revised Code may differ.

(c) Identifying or listing hazardous substances and establishing reportable quantities of each of those substances and each extremely hazardous substance. In addition to being 81137 consistent with and equivalent in scope, content, and coverage 81138 to that act and applicable regulations adopted under it, the 81139 rules shall be consistent with and equivalent in scope, content, 81140 and coverage to regulations identifying or listing hazardous 81141 substances and reportable quantities of those substances adopted 81142 under the "Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, 81143 and Liability Act of 1980," 94 Stat. 2779, 42 U.S.C.A. 9602, as 81144 amended. 81145

(d) Prescribing the information to be included in the 81146 lists of hazardous chemicals required to be submitted under 81147
section 3750.07 of the Revised Code; 81148

(e) Prescribing the information to be included in the 81149 emergency and hazardous chemical inventory forms required to be 81150 submitted under section 3750.08 of the Revised Code. If the 81151 commission establishes its own emergency and hazardous chemical 81152 inventory form, the rules shall authorize owners and operators 81153 of facilities who also have one or more facilities located 81154 outside the state for which they are required to submit 81155 inventory forms under the federal act and regulations adopted 81156 under it to submit their annual inventories on forms prescribed 81157 by the administrator of the United States environmental 81158 protection agency under that act instead of on forms prescribed 81159 by the commission and shall require those owners or operators to 81160 submit any additional information required by the commission's 81161 inventory form on an attachment to the federal form. 81162

(f) Establishing procedures for giving verbal notice of 81163 releases under section 3750.06 of the Revised Code and 81164 prescribing the information to be provided in such a notice and 81165 in the follow-up written notice required by that section; 81166

(g) Establishing standards for determining valid needs for the release of tier II information under division (B) (4) of section 3750.10 of the Revised Code;	81167 81168 81169
(h) Identifying the types or categories of information submitted or obtained under this chapter and rules adopted under it that constitute confidential business information;	81170 81171 81172
(i) Establishing criteria and procedures to protect trade secret and confidential business information from unauthorized disclosure;	81173 81174 81175
(j) Establishing other requirements or authorizations that the commission considers necessary or appropriate to implement, administer, and enforce this chapter.	81176 81177 81178
(2) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement and administer this chapter that may be more stringent than the "Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 100 Stat. 1729, 42 U.S.C.A. 11001, and regulations adopted under it. Rules adopted under division (B) (2) of this section shall not be inconsistent with that act or the regulations adopted under it. The rules shall:	81179 81180 81181 81182 81183 81184 81185
(a) Prescribe the information to be included in the chemical emergency response and preparedness plans prepared and submitted by local emergency planning committees under section 3750.04 of the Revised Code;	81186 81187 81188 81189
(b) Establish criteria and procedures for reviewing the chemical emergency response and preparedness plans of local emergency planning committees required by section 3750.04 of the Revised Code and the annual exercise of those plans and for providing concurrence or requesting modifications in the plans and the exercise of those plans. The criteria shall include,	81190 81191 81192 81193 81194 81195

without limitation, the requirement that each exercise of a 81196 committee's plan involve, in addition to local emergency 81197 response and medical personnel, either a facility that is 81198 subject to the plan or a transporter of materials that are 81199 identified or listed as hazardous materials by regulations 81200 adopted under the "Hazardous Materials Transportation Act," 88 81201 Stat. 2156 (1975), 49 U.S.C.A. 1801, as amended. 81202

(c) Establish policies and procedures for maintaining 81203 information submitted to the commission and local emergency 81204 planning committees under this chapter, and for receiving and 81205 fulfilling requests from the public for access to review and to 81206 obtain copies of that information. The criteria and procedures 81207 shall include the following requirements and authorizations 81208 regarding that information and access to it: 81209

(i) Information that is protected as trade secret 81210 information or confidential business information under this 81211 chapter and rules adopted under it shall be kept in files that 81212 are separate from those containing information that is not so 81213 protected. 81214

(ii) The original copies of information submitted to the 81215 commission or committee shall not be removed from the custody 81216 and control of the commission or committee. 81217

(iii) A person who, either in person or by mail, requests 81218 to obtain a copy of a material safety data sheet submitted under 81219 this chapter by a facility owner or operator shall submit a 81220 separate application for each facility for which a material 81221 safety data sheet is being requested. 81222

(iv) A person who requests to receive by mail a copy of 81223 information submitted under this chapter by a facility owner or 81224 operator shall submit a separate application for each facility 81225 for which information is being requested and shall specify both 81226 the facility for which information is being requested and the 81227 particular types of documents requested. 81228

(v) Only employees of the commission or committee shall 81229 copy information in the files of the commission or committee. 81230

(vi) The commission or committee may require any person 81231 who requests to review or obtain a copy of information in its 81232 files to schedule an appointment for that purpose with the 81233 information coordinator of the commission or committee at least 81234 twenty-four hours before arriving at the office of the 81235 commission or committee for the review or copy. 81236

(vii) Any person who seeks access to information in the 81237 files of the commission or a local emergency planning committee 81238 shall submit a written application, either in person or by mail, 81239 to the information coordinator on a form provided by the 81240 commission or committee. The person also shall provide the 81241 person's name and current mailing address on the application and 81242 may be requested by the commission or committee to provide basic 81243 demographic information on the form to assist in the evaluation 81244 of the information access provisions of this chapter and rules 81245 adopted under it. Application forms may be obtained by mail or 81246 in person or by request by telephone at the office of the 81247 commission or committee during regular business hours. Upon 81248 receipt of a request for an application by telephone or mail, 81249 the information coordinator shall promptly mail an application 81250 to the person who requested it. 81251

(viii) The application form shall provide the applicant 81252 with a means of indicating that the applicant's name and address 81253 are to be kept confidential. If the applicant so indicates, that 81254 information is not a public record under section 149.43 of the Revised Code and shall not be disclosed to any person who is not a member or employee of the commission or committee or an employee of the environmental protection agency. When a name and address are to be kept confidential, they also shall be deleted from the copy of the application required to be placed in the file of the facility under division (B)(2)(c)(xii) of this section and shall be withheld from any log of information requests kept by the commission or committee pursuant to that division.

(ix) Neither the commission nor a local emergency planning committee shall charge any fee for access to review information in its files when no copies or computer searches of that information are requested.

(x) An applicant shall be informed of the cost of copying, mailing, or conducting a computer search of information on file with the commission or committee before such a copy or search is made, and the commission or committee shall collect the appropriate fees as established under section 3750.13 of the Revised Code. Each applicant shall acknowledge on the application form that the applicant is aware that the applicant will be charged for copies and computer searches of that information the applicant requests and for the costs of mailing copies of the information to the applicant.

(xi) The commission or committee may require a person requesting copies of information on file with it to take delivery of them in the office of the commission or committee whenever it considers the volume of the information to be large enough to make mailing or delivery by a parcel or package delivery service impractical.

(xii) When the commission or committee receives a request 81285 for access to review or obtain copies of information in its 81286 files, it shall not routinely notify the owner or operator of 81287 the facility involved, but instead shall either keep a log or 81288 file of requests for the information or shall place a copy of 81289 each completed application form in the file for the facility to 81290 which the application pertains. Such a log or file shall be 81291 available for review by the public and by the owners and 81292 operators of facilities required to submit information to the 81293 commission or committee under this chapter and rules adopted 81294
under it. 81295

(d) Require that claims for the protection, as a trade 81296 secret, of information obtained under this chapter regarding 81297 extremely hazardous substances identified or listed in rules 81298 adopted under division (B) (1) (a) of this section and hazardous 81299 chemicals identified or listed in rules adopted under division 81300
(B) (1) (b) of this section be submitted to the administrator of 81301 the United States environmental protection agency for 81302 determination under section 322 of the the "Emergency Planning 81303 and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 100 Stat. 1747, 42 81304 U.S.C.A. 11042, and regulations adopted under that section; 81305

(e) Establish criteria and procedures for the issuance of 81306 variances under divisions (B) and (C) of section 3750.11 of the 81307 Revised Code. The rules shall require that, before approval of 81308 an application for a variance, the commission or committee find 81309
by a preponderance of the scientific evidence based upon 81310
generally accepted scientific principles or laboratory tests 81311 that the extremely hazardous substances, hazardous chemicals, or 81312 hazardous substances that would be subject to the reporting 81313 requirement pose a substantial risk of catastrophic injury to 81314 public health or safety or to the environment, or pose an 81315 extraordinary risk of injury to emergency management personnel 81316 responding to a release of the chemicals or substances, when the 81317 substances or chemicals are present at a facility in an amount 81318 equal to or exceeding the quantity for which reporting would be 81319 required under the reporting requirement for which the variance 81320 is sought. The rules shall also require that before approval of 81321 an application for a variance, the commission or committee find 81322 by a preponderance of the evidence that the development and 81323 implementation of a local emergency response plan for releases 81324 of the substances or chemicals covered by the reporting 81325 requirement will reduce the risk of catastrophic injury to 81326 public health or safety or to the environment, or will reduce 81327 the extraordinary risk of injury to responding emergency 81328 management personnel, in the event of a release of the 81329 substances or chemicals and find by a preponderance of the 81330 evidence that the reporting requirement is necessary for the 81331 development of such a local emergency response plan. The rules 81332 shall require that when determining whether the substances or 81333 chemicals that would be subject to the reporting requirement 81334 pose a substantial risk of catastrophic injury to public health 81335 or safety or to the environment, or pose an extraordinary risk 81336 of injury to emergency management personnel responding to a 81337 release of the substance or chemical, the commission or 81338 committee consider all of the following factors: 81339

(i) The specific characteristics and degree and nature of 81340 the hazards posed by a release of the extremely hazardous 81341 substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances; 81342

(ii) The proximity of the facilities that would be subject 81343 to the reporting requirement to residential areas, to areas 81344 where significantly large numbers of people are employed or 81345 otherwise congregate, and to environmental resources that are 81346 subject to injury; 81347

(iii) The quantities of the extremely hazardous 81348 substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances that 81349 are routinely present at facilities that would be subject to the 81350 reporting requirement; 81351

(iv) The frequency with which the extremely hazardous 81352 substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances are 81353 present at the facilities that would be subject to the reporting 81354 requirement in quantities for which reporting would be required 81355 thereunder. 81356

(f) Establish criteria and procedures for the issuance of 81357 orders under division (D) of section 3750.11 of the Revised Code 81358 requiring the placement of emergency response lock box units. 81359
The rules shall require that before approval of an application 81360 for issuance of such an order, the commission or committee find 81361
by a preponderance of the scientific evidence based upon 81362
generally accepted scientific principles or laboratory tests 81363 that the presence of the extremely hazardous substances, 81364 hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances in the quantities 81365 in which they are routinely or intermittently present at the 81366 facility for which the order is sought pose a substantial risk 81367 of catastrophic injury to public health or safety or to the 81368 environment, or pose an extraordinary risk of injury to 81369 responding emergency management personnel, in the event of a 81370 release of any of those substances or chemicals from the 81371 facility. The rules shall require that before approval of an 81372 application for issuance of such an order, the commission or 81373 committee also find by a preponderance of the evidence that the 81374 placement of an emergency response lock box unit at the facility 81375 is necessary to protect against the substantial risk of 81376 catastrophic injury to public health or safety or the 81377 environment, or to protect against an extraordinary risk of 81378 injury to responding emergency management personnel, in the 81379 event of a release of any of the extremely hazardous substances, 81380 hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances routinely or 81381 intermittently present at the facility. The rules shall require 81382 that when determining whether the extremely hazardous 81383 substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances present 81384 at the facility pose a substantial risk of catastrophic injury 81385 to public health or safety or to the environment, or pose an 81386 extraordinary risk of injury to responding emergency management 81387 personnel, in the event of a release of any of those substances 81388 or chemicals from the facility, the commission or committee 81389 consider all of the following factors: 81390

(i) The specific characteristics and the degree and nature 81391 of the hazards posed by a release of the extremely hazardous 81392 substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances present 81393
at the facility; 81394

(ii) The proximity of the facility to residential areas, 81395 to areas where significantly large numbers of people are 81396 employed or otherwise congregate, and to environmental resources 81397 that are subject to injury; 81398

(iii) The quantities of the extremely hazardous 81399
substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances that 81400
are routinely present at the facility; 81401

(iv) The frequency with which the extremely hazardous 81402
substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances are 81403 present at the facility. 81404

(g) Establish procedures to be followed by the commission 81405 and the executive committee of the commission for the issuance 81406 of orders under this chapter. 81407

(3) In accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 81408 adopt rules establishing reportable quantities for releases of 81409 oil that are consistent with and equivalent in scope, content, 81410 and coverage to section 311 of the "Federal Water Pollution 81411 Control Act Amendments of 1972," 86 Stat. 862, 33 U.S.C.A. 1321, 81412 as amended, and applicable regulations adopted under it; 81413

(4) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 81414
Revised Code establishing criteria and procedures for 81415 identifying or listing extremely hazardous substances in 81416 addition to those identified or listed in rules adopted under 81417 division (B)(1)(a) of this section and for establishing 81418 threshold planning quantities and reportable quantities for the 81419 added extremely hazardous substances; for identifying or listing 81420 hazardous chemicals in addition to those identified or listed in 81421 rules adopted under division (B)(1)(b) of this section and for 81422 establishing threshold quantities and categories of health and 81423 physical hazards for the added hazardous chemicals; and for 81424 identifying or listing hazardous substances in addition to those 81425 identified or listed in rules adopted under division (B)(1)(c) 81426 of this section and for establishing reportable quantities for 81427 the added hazardous substances. The criteria for identifying or 81428 listing additional extremely hazardous substances and 81429 establishing threshold planning quantities and reportable 81430 quantities therefor and for identifying or listing additional 81431 hazardous chemicals and establishing threshold quantities and 81432 categories of health and physical hazards for the added 81433 hazardous chemicals shall be consistent with and equivalent to 81434 applicable criteria therefor under the "Emergency Planning and 81435 Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 100 Stat. 1729, 42 81436

U.S.C.A. 11001, and regulations adopted under it. The criteria 81437 for identifying additional hazardous substances and for 81438 establishing reportable quantities of the added hazardous 81439 substances shall be consistent with and equivalent to the 81440 applicable criteria for identifying or listing hazardous 81441 substances and establishing reportable quantities therefor under 81442 the "Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and 81443 Liability Act of 1980," 94 Stat. 2779, 42 U.S.C.A. 9602, as 81444 amended, and regulations adopted under it. 81445

The rules shall require that, before identifying or 81446 listing any such additional extremely hazardous substance, 81447 hazardous chemical, or hazardous substance and establishing a 81448 threshold planning quantity, threshold quantity, or reportable 81449 quantity therefor, the commission find by a preponderance of the 81450 scientific evidence based on generally accepted scientific 81451 principles or laboratory tests that the substance or chemical 81452 poses a substantial risk of catastrophic injury to public health 81453 or safety or to the environment, or poses an extraordinary risk 81454
of injury to emergency management personnel responding to a 81455 release of the chemical or substance, when the chemical or 81456 substance is present at a facility in an amount equal to the 81457 proposed threshold planning quantity or threshold quantity or, 81458 in the instance of a proposed additional extremely hazardous 81459 substance or hazardous substance, poses a substantial risk of 81460 catastrophic injury to public health or safety or to the 81461 environment if a release of the proposed reportable quantity of 81462 the substance occurs. The rules shall further require that, 81463 before so identifying or listing a substance or chemical, the 81464 commission find by a preponderance of the evidence that the 81465 development and implementation of state or local emergency 81466 response plans for releases of the substance or chemical will 81467 reduce the risk of a catastrophic injury to public health or 81468 safety or to the environment, or will reduce the extraordinary 81469 risk of injury to responding emergency response personnel, in 81470 the event of a release of the substance or chemical and find by 81471 a preponderance of the evidence that the identification or 81472 listing of the substance or chemical is necessary for the 81473 development of state or local emergency response plans for 81474 releases of the substance or chemical. The rules shall require 81475 that the commission consider the toxicity of the substance or 81476 chemical in terms of both the short-term and long-term health 81477 effects resulting from exposure to it and its reactivity, 81478 volatility, dispersibility, combustibility, and flammability 81479 when determining the risks posed by a release of the substance 81480 or chemical and, as appropriate, when establishing a threshold 81481 planning quantity, threshold quantity, reportable quantity, or 81482 category of health or physical hazard for it. 81483

(5) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 81484
Revised Code establishing criteria and procedures for receiving 81485 and deciding claims for protection of information as a trade 81486 secret that are applicable only to extremely hazardous 81487 substances and hazardous chemicals identified or listed in rules 81488 adopted under division (C) (5) of this section. The rules shall 81489 be equivalent in scope, content, and coverage to section 322 of 81490 the "Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 81491 1986," 100 Stat. 1747, 42 U.S.C.A. 11042, and regulations 81492
adopted under it. 81493

(6) (a) After consultation with the fire marshal, adopt 81494
rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 81495 establishing standards for the construction, placement, and use 81496 of emergency response lock box units at facilities that are 81497 subject to this chapter. The rules shall establish all of the 81498

following: 81499

(i) Specific standards of construction for lock box units; 81500

(ii) The specific types of information that shall be 81501 placed in the lock box units required to be placed at a facility 81502 by an order issued under division (D) of section 3750.11 of the 81503 Revised Code, which shall include the location of on-site 81504 emergency fire-fighting and spill cleanup equipment; a diagram 81505 of the public and private water supply and sewage systems 81506 serving the facility that are known to the owner or operator of 81507 the facility; a copy of the emergency and hazardous chemical 81508 inventory form for the facility most recently required to be 81509 submitted under section 3750.08 of the Revised Code from which 81510 the owner or operator may withhold information claimed or 81511 determined to be trade secret information pursuant to rules 81512 adopted under division (B) (2) (d) of this section, or pursuant to 81513 division (B) (14) of this section and rules adopted under 81514 division (B) (5) of this section, and confidential business 81515 information identified in rules adopted under division (B) (1) (h) 81516 of this section; a copy of the local fire department's and 81517 facility's emergency management plans for the facility, if any; 81518 a current list of the names, positions, addresses, and telephone 81519 numbers of all key facility personnel knowledgeable in facility 81520 safety procedures and the locations at the facility where 81521 extremely hazardous substances, hazardous chemicals, and 81522 hazardous substances are produced, used, or stored. The rules 81523 shall stipulate that, in the instance of lock box units placed 81524 voluntarily at facilities by the owners or operators of the 81525 facilities, such information shall be maintained in them as is 81526 prescribed by agreement by the owner or operator and the fire 81527 department having jurisdiction over the facility. 81528

(iii) The conditions that shall be met in order to provide 81529 safe and expedient access to a lock box unit during a release or 81530 threatened release of an extremely hazardous substance, 81531 hazardous chemical, or hazardous substance. 81532

(b) Unless the owner or operator of a facility is issued 81533 an order under division (D) of section 3750.11 of the Revised 81534 Code requiring the owner or operator to place a lock box unit at 81535 the facility, the owner or operator may place a lock box unit at 81536 the facility at the owner's or operator's discretion. If the 81537 owner or operator chooses to place a lock box unit at the 81538 facility, the responsibility to deposit information in the lock 81539 box unit is in addition to any other obligations established in 81540
this chapter. 81541

(c) Any costs associated with the purchase, construction, 81542 or placement of a lock box unit shall be paid by the owner or 81543 operator of the facility. 81544

(7) In accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, 81545 adopt rules governing the application for and awarding of grants 81546 under division (C) of section 3750.14 and division (B) of 81547
section 3750.15 of the Revised Code; 81548

(8) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 81549
Revised Code establishing reasonable maximum fees that may be 81550 charged by the commission and local emergency planning 81551 committees for copying information in the commission's or 81552 committee's files to fulfill requests from the public for that 81553
information; 81554

(9) Adopt internal management rules governing the 81555 operations of the commission. The internal management rules 81556 shall establish an executive committee of the commission 81557 consisting of the director of environmental protection or the 81558 director's designee, the director of public safety or the 81559 director's designee, the attorney general or the attorney 81560 general's designee, one of the appointed members of the 81561 commission representing industries subject to this chapter to be 81562 appointed by the commission, one of the appointed members of the 81563 commission representing the interests of environmental advocacy 81564 organizations to be appointed by the commission, and one other 81565 appointed member or member ex officio of the commission to be 81566 appointed by the commission. The executive committee has 81567 exclusive authority to issue enforcement orders under section 81568 3750.18 of the Revised Code and to request the attorney general 81569 to bring a civil action, civil penalty action, or criminal 81570 action under section 3750.20 of the Revised Code in the name of 81571 the commission regarding violations of this chapter, rules 81572 adopted under it, or orders issued under it. The internal 81573 management rules may set forth the other specific powers and 81574 duties of the commission that the executive committee may 81575 exercise and carry out and the conditions under which the 81576 executive committee may do so. The internal management rules 81577 shall not authorize the executive committee to issue variances 81578 under division (B) or (C) of section 3750.11 of the Revised Code 81579 or orders under division (D) of that section. 81580

(10) Oversee and coordinate the implementation and 81581 enforcement of this chapter and make such recommendations to the 81582 director of environmental protection and the director of public 81583 safety as it considers necessary or appropriate to improve the 81584 implementation and enforcement of this chapter; 81585

(11) Make allocations of moneys under division (B) of 81586 section 3750.14 of the Revised Code and make grants under 81587 division (C) of section 3750.14 and division (B) of section 81588

(12) Designate an officer of the environmental protection 81590 agency to serve as the commission's information coordinator 81591 under this chapter; 81592

(13) Not later than December 14, 1989, develop and 81593 distribute a state emergency response plan that defines the 81594 emergency response roles and responsibilities of the state 81595 agencies that are represented on the commission and that 81596 provides appropriate coordination with the national contingency 81597 plan and the regional contingency plan required by section 105 81598 of the "Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and 81599 Liability Act of 1980," 94 Stat. 2767, 42 U.S.C.A. 9601, as 81600 amended. The plan shall ensure a well-coordinated response by 81601 state agencies that may be involved in assisting local emergency 81602 responders during a major release of oil or a major sudden and 81603 accidental release of a hazardous substance or extremely 81604 hazardous substance. The plan may incorporate existing state 81605 emergency response plans by reference. At least annually, the 81606 commission and the state agencies that are represented on it 81607 shall jointly exercise the state plan in conjunction with the 81608 exercise of a local emergency response plan by a local emergency 81609 planning committee under section 3750.04 of the Revised Code. 81610 After any such exercise, the commission shall review the state 81611 plan and make such revisions in it as the commission considers 81612 necessary or appropriate. 81613

(14) Receive and decide claims for the protection of 81614 information as a trade secret that pertain only to extremely 81615 hazardous substances and hazardous chemicals identified or 81616 listed by rules adopted under division (C)(5) of this section. 81617
If the commission determines that the claim meets the criteria 81618 established in rules adopted under division (B) (5) of this 81619 section, it shall issue an order to that effect in accordance 81620 with section 3750.18 of the Revised Code. If the commission 81621 determines that the claim does not meet the criteria established 81622 in those rules, it shall issue an order to that effect in 81623 accordance with section 3750.18 of the Revised Code. 81624

(15) Annually compile, make available to the public, and 81625 submit to the president of the senate and the speaker of the 81626 house of representatives a summary report on the number of 81627 facilities estimated to be subject to regulation under sections 81628 3750.05, 3750.07, and 3750.08 of the Revised Code, the number of 81629 facilities reporting to the commission, an estimate of the 81630 percentage of facilities in compliance with those sections, and 81631 recommendations regarding the types of activities the commission 81632 considers necessary to improve such compliance. The commission 81633 shall base its estimate of the number of facilities that are 81634 subject to regulation under those sections on the current 81635 estimates provided by the local emergency planning committees 81636 under division (D) (6) of section 3750.03 of the Revised Code. 81637

(C) The commission may: 81638

(1) Procure by contract the temporary or intermittent 81639 services of experts or consultants when those services are to be 81640 performed on a part-time or fee-for-service basis and do not 81641 involve the performance of administrative duties; 81642

(2) Enter into contracts or agreements with political 81643 subdivisions or emergency planning districts for the purposes of 81644
this chapter; 81645

(3) Accept on behalf of the state any gift, grant, or 81646 contribution from any governmental or private source for the 81647 purposes of this chapter; 81648

(4) Enter into contracts, agreements, or memoranda of 81649 understanding with any state department, agency, board, 81650 commission, or institution to obtain the services of personnel 81651 thereof or utilize resources thereof for the purposes of this 81652 chapter. Employees of a state department, agency, board, 81653 commission, or institution providing services to the commission 81654 under any such contract, agreement, or memorandum shall perform 81655 only those functions and provide only the services provided for 81656 in the contract, agreement, or memorandum. 81657

(5) Identify or list extremely hazardous substances in 81658 addition to those identified or listed in rules adopted under 81659 division (B)(1)(a) of this section and establish threshold 81660 planning quantities and reportable quantities for the additional 81661 extremely hazardous substances, identify or list hazardous 81662 chemicals in addition to those identified or listed in rules 81663 adopted under division (B)(1)(b) of this section and establish 81664 threshold quantities and categories or health and physical 81665 hazards for the added chemicals, and identify or list hazardous 81666 substances in addition to those identified or listed in rules 81667 adopted under division (B)(1)(c) of this section and establish 81668 reportable quantities for the added hazardous substances. The 81669 commission may establish threshold planning quantities for the 81670 additional extremely hazardous substances based upon classes of 81671 those substances or categories of facilities at which they are 81672 present and may establish threshold quantities for the 81673 additional hazardous chemicals based upon classes of those 81674 chemicals or categories of facilities where they are present. 81675
The commission shall identify or list such additional substances 81676 or chemicals and establish threshold planning quantities, 81677 threshold quantities, reportable quantities, and hazard 81678 categories therefor in accordance with the criteria and 81679 procedures established in rules adopted under division (B) (4) of 81680 this section and, after compliance with those criteria and 81681 procedures, by the adoption of rules in accordance with Chapter 81682 119. of the Revised Code. The commission shall not adopt rules 81683 under division (C) (5) of this section modifying any threshold 81684 planning quantity established in rules adopted under division 81685

(B) (1) (a) of this section, any threshold quantity established in 81686 rules adopted under division (B) (1) (b) of this section, or any 81687 reportable quantity established in rules adopted under division 81688
(B) (1) (c) of this section. 81689

If, after the commission has adopted rules under division 81690
(C) (5) of this section identifying or listing an extremely 81691 hazardous substance, hazardous chemical, or hazardous substance, 81692 the administrator of the United States environmental protection 81693 agency identifies or lists the substance or chemical as an 81694 extremely hazardous substance or hazardous chemical under the 81695
"Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 81696 100 Stat. 1729, 42 U.S.C.A. 11001, or identifies or lists a 81697 substance as a hazardous substance under the "Comprehensive 81698 Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 81699 1980," 94 Stat. 2779, 42 U.S.C.A. 9602, as amended, the 81700 commission shall rescind its rules adopted under division (C) (5) 81701 of this section pertaining to the substance or chemical and 81702 adopt the appropriate rules under division (B) (1) (a), (b), or 81703
(c) of this section. 81704

(6) From time to time, request the director of 81705 environmental protection and the executive director of the 81706 emergency management agency to review implementation, 81707 administration, and enforcement of the chemical emergency 81708 response planning and reporting programs created by this chapter 81709 and rules adopted under it regarding their effectiveness in 81710 preparing for response to releases of extremely hazardous 81711 substances, hazardous chemicals, and hazardous substances. After 81712 completion of any such review, the director of environmental 81713 protection and the director of public safety shall report their 81714 findings to the commission. Upon receipt of their findings, the 81715 commission may make such recommendations for legislative and 81716 administrative action as the commission finds necessary or 81717 appropriate to promote achievement of the purposes of this 81718

chapter. 81719

(D) Except as provided in section 3750.06 of the Revised 81720
Code, nothing in this chapter applies to the transportation, 81721 including the storage incident to transportation, of any 81722 substance or chemical subject to the requirements of this 81723 chapter, including the transportation and distribution of 81724

(E) This chapter authorizes the state, through the 81726 emergency response commission, the department of public safety, 81727 and the environmental protection agency, to establish and 81728 maintain chemical emergency response planning and preparedness, 81729 community right-to-know, and hazardous substance and extremely 81730 hazardous substance release reporting programs that are 81731 consistent with and equivalent in scope, coverage, and content 81732 to the "Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 81733 1986," 100 Stat. 1729, 42 U.S.C.A. 11001, and regulations 81734 adopted under it, except as otherwise specifically required or 81735 authorized in this chapter. The commission, department, and 81736 agencies may do all things necessary, incidental, or appropriate 81737 to implement, administer, and enforce this chapter and to 81738 perform the duties and exercise the powers of the state 81739 emergency response commission under that act and regulations 81740 adopted under it and under this chapter. 81741

Sec. 3769.088. (A) (1) If any permit holder required by 81742 this chapter to pay the taxes levied by sections 3769.08, 81743 3769.087, 3769.26, and 3769.28 of the Revised Code fails to pay 81744 the taxes as required, the tax commissioner may make an 81745 assessment against the permit holder based upon any information 81746 in the commissioner's possession. 81747

(2) If a permit holder required to remit taxes or file a 81748 report electronically in the manner prescribed under section 81749 3769.103 of the Revised Code fails to do so, the tax 81750 commissioner may impose an additional penalty of fifty dollars 81751 or ten per cent of the tax due as shown on the report, whichever 81752 is greater. 81753

(3) A penalty of up to fifteen per cent may be added to 81754 the amount of every assessment made under this section. 81755

(4) The commissioner may adopt rules providing for the 81756 imposition and remission of penalties added to assessments made 81757 under this section. 81758

(5) The commissioner shall give the party assessed written 81759 notice of the assessment in the manner provided in section 81760 5703.37 of the Revised Code. With the notice, the commissioner 81761 shall provide instructions on how to petition for reassessment 81762 and request a hearing on the petition. 81763

(B) Unless the party assessed files with the tax 81764 commissioner within sixty days after service of the notice of 81765 assessment, ~~either personally or by certified mail,~~ a written 81766 petition for reassessment signed by the party assessed or that 81767 party's authorized agent having knowledge of the facts, the 81768 assessment becomes final and the amount of the assessment is due 81769 and payable from the party assessed to the commissioner. The 81770 petition shall indicate the objections of the party assessed, 81771 but additional objections may be raised in writing if received 81772 by the commissioner prior to the date shown on the final 81773 determination. If the petition has been properly filed, the 81774 commissioner shall proceed under section 5703.60 of the Revised 81775

Code. 81776

(C) After an assessment becomes final, if any portion of 81777 the assessment remains unpaid, including accrued interest, a 81778 certified copy of the tax commissioner's entry making the 81779 assessment final may be filed in the office of the clerk of the 81780 court of common pleas in the county in which the place, track, 81781 or enclosure for which the permit was issued is located or the 81782 county in which the party assessed resides or has its principal 81783 place of business. If the party assessed maintains no place of 81784 business in this state and is not a resident of this state, the 81785 certified copy of the entry may be filed in the office of the 81786 clerk of the court of common pleas of Franklin county. 81787

Immediately upon the filing of the entry, the clerk shall 81788 enter a judgment for the state against the party assessed in the 81789 amount shown on the entry. The judgment may be filed by the 81790 clerk in a loose-leaf book entitled "special judgments for state 81791 horse racing tax," and shall have the same effect as other 81792 judgments. Execution shall issue upon the judgment upon the 81793 request of the tax commissioner, and all laws applicable to 81794 sales on execution shall apply to sales made under the judgment. 81795

If the assessment is not paid in its entirety within sixty 81796
days after the day the assessment was issued, the portion of the 81797 assessment consisting of tax due shall bear interest at the rate 81798 per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code from 81799 the day the tax commissioner issues the assessment until the day 81800 the assessment is paid or until it is certified to the attorney 81801 general for collection under section 131.02 of the Revised Code, 81802 whichever comes first. If the unpaid portion of the assessment 81803 is certified to the attorney general for collection, the entire 81804 unpaid portion of the assessment shall bear interest at the rate 81805 per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code from 81806 the date of certification until the date it is paid in its 81807 entirety. Interest shall be paid in the same manner as the tax 81808 and may be collected by the issuance of an assessment under this 81809

section. 81810

(D) All money collected by the tax commissioner under this 81811 section shall be treated as revenue arising from the taxes 81812 imposed by sections 3769.08, 3769.087, 3769.26, and 3769.28 of 81813
the Revised Code. 81814

Sec. 3770.06. (A) There is hereby created the state 81815 lottery gross revenue fund, which shall be in the custody of the 81816 treasurer of state but shall not be part of the state treasury. 81817 All gross revenues received from sales of lottery tickets, 81818 fines, fees, and related proceeds in connection with the 81819 statewide lottery, all gross proceeds of lottery sports gaming 81820 described in sections 3770.23 to 3770.25 of the Revised Code, 81821 and all gross proceeds from statewide joint lottery games shall 81822 be deposited into the fund. The treasurer of state shall invest 81823 any portion of the fund not needed for immediate use in the same 81824 manner as, and subject to all provisions of law with respect to 81825 the investment of, state funds. The treasurer of state shall 81826 disburse money from the fund on order of the director of the 81827 state lottery commission or the director's designee. 81828

Except for gross proceeds from statewide joint lottery 81829 games, all revenues of the state lottery gross revenue fund that 81830 are not paid to holders of winning lottery tickets, that are not 81831 required to meet short-term prize liabilities, that are not 81832 credited to lottery sales agents in the form of bonuses, 81833 commissions, or reimbursements, that are not paid to financial 81834 institutions to reimburse those institutions for sales agent 81835 nonsufficient funds, and that are collected from sales agents 81836 for remittance to insurers under contract to provide sales agent 81837 bonding services shall be transferred to the state lottery fund, 81838 which is hereby created in the state treasury. In addition, all 81839 revenues of the state lottery gross revenue fund that represent 81840 the gross proceeds from the statewide joint lottery games and 81841 that are not paid to holders of winning lottery tickets, that 81842 are not required to meet short-term prize liabilities, that are 81843 not credited to lottery sales agents in the form of bonuses, 81844 commissions, or reimbursements, and that are not necessary to 81845 cover operating expenses associated with those games or to 81846 otherwise comply with the agreements signed by the governor that 81847 the director enters into under division (J) of section 3770.02 81848 of the Revised Code or the rules the commission adopts under 81849 division (B) (5) of section 3770.03 of the Revised Code shall be 81850 transferred to the state lottery fund. All investment earnings 81851 of the fund shall be credited to the fund. Moneys shall be 81852 disbursed from the fund pursuant to vouchers approved by the 81853 director. Total disbursements for monetary prize awards to 81854 holders of winning lottery tickets in connection with the 81855 statewide lottery, other than lottery sports gaming, and 81856 purchases of goods and services awarded as prizes to holders of 81857 winning lottery tickets shall be of an amount equal to at least 81858 fifty per cent of the total revenue accruing from the sale of 81859 lottery tickets. 81860

(B) Pursuant to Section 6 of Article XV, Ohio 81861
Constitution, there is hereby established in the state treasury 81862 the lottery profits education fund. Whenever, in the judgment of 81863
the director of the state lottery commission, the amount to the 81864 credit of the state lottery fund that does not represent 81865 proceeds from statewide joint lottery games is in excess of that 81866 needed to meet the maturing obligations of the commission and as 81867 working capital for its further operations, the director of the 81868 state lottery commission shall recommend the amount of the 81869 excess to be transferred to the lottery profits education fund, 81870 and the director of budget and management may transfer the 81871 excess to the lottery profits education fund in connection with 81872 the statewide lottery. In addition, whenever, in the judgment of 81873
the director of the state lottery commission, the amount to the 81874 credit of the state lottery fund that represents proceeds from 81875 statewide joint lottery games equals the entire net proceeds of 81876 those games as described in division (B) (5) of section 3770.03 81877 of the Revised Code and the rules adopted under that division, 81878 the director of the state lottery commission shall recommend the 81879 amount of the proceeds to be transferred to the lottery profits 81880 education fund, and the director of budget and management may 81881 transfer those proceeds to the lottery profits education fund. 81882 ~~Investment earnings of the lottery profits education fund shall~~ 81883
~~be credited to the fund.~~ 81884

The lottery profits education fund shall be used solely 81885 for the support of elementary, secondary, vocational, and 81886 special education programs as determined in appropriations made 81887 by the general assembly, or as provided in applicable bond 81888 proceedings for the payment of debt service on obligations 81889 issued to pay costs of capital facilities, including those for a 81890 system of common schools throughout the state pursuant to 81891 section 2n of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution. When determining 81892 the availability of money in the lottery profits education fund, 81893 the director of budget and management may consider all balances 81894 and estimated revenues of the fund. 81895

(C) There is hereby established in the state treasury the 81896 deferred prizes trust fund. With the approval of the director of 81897 budget and management, an amount sufficient to fund annuity 81898 prizes shall be transferred from the state lottery fund and 81899 credited to the trust fund. The treasurer of state shall credit 81900 all earnings arising from investments purchased under this 81901 division to the trust fund. Within sixty days after the end of 81902 each fiscal year, the treasurer of state shall certify to the 81903 director of budget and management whether the actuarial amount 81904 of the trust fund is sufficient over the fund's life for 81905 continued funding of all remaining deferred prize liabilities as 81906 of the last day of the fiscal year just ended. Also, within that 81907 sixty days, the director of budget and management shall certify 81908 the amount of investment earnings necessary to have been 81909 credited to the trust fund during the fiscal year just ending to 81910 provide for such continued funding of deferred prizes. Any 81911 earnings credited in excess of the latter certified amount shall 81912 be transferred to the lottery profits education fund. 81913

To provide all or a part of the amounts necessary to fund 81914 deferred prizes awarded by the commission in connection with the 81915 statewide lottery, the treasurer of state, in consultation with 81916 the commission, may invest moneys contained in the deferred 81917 prizes trust fund which represents proceeds from the statewide 81918 lottery in obligations of the type permitted for the investment 81919 of state funds but whose maturities are thirty years or less. 81920 Notwithstanding the requirements of any other section of the 81921 Revised Code, to provide all or part of the amounts necessary to 81922 fund deferred prizes awarded by the commission in connection 81923 with statewide joint lottery games, the treasurer of state, in 81924 consultation with the commission, may invest moneys in the trust 81925 fund which represent proceeds derived from the statewide joint 81926 lottery games in accordance with the rules the commission adopts 81927 under division (B) (5) of section 3770.03 of the Revised Code. 81928 Investments of the trust fund are not subject to the provisions 81929 of division (A) (11) of section 135.143 of the Revised Code 81930 limiting to twenty-five per cent the amount of the state's total 81931 average portfolio that may be invested in debt interests other 81932 than commercial paper and limiting to five per cent the amount 81933 that may be invested in debt interests, including commercial 81934 paper, of a single issuer. 81935

All purchases made under this division shall be effected 81936 on a delivery versus payment method and shall be in the custody 81937 of the treasurer of state. 81938

The treasurer of state may retain an investment advisor, 81939 if necessary. The commission shall pay any costs incurred by the 81940 treasurer of state in retaining an investment advisor. 81941

(D) The auditor of state shall conduct annual audits of 81942 all funds and any other audits as the auditor of state or the 81943 general assembly considers necessary. The auditor of state may 81944 examine all records, files, and other documents of the 81945 commission, and records of lottery sales agents that pertain to 81946 their activities as agents, for purposes of conducting 81947 authorized audits. 81948

(E) The state lottery commission shall establish an 81949 internal audit plan before the beginning of each fiscal year, 81950 subject to the approval of the office of internal audit in the 81951 office of budget and management. At the end of each fiscal year, 81952 the commission shall prepare and submit an annual report to the 81953 office of internal audit for the office's review and approval, 81954 specifying the internal audit work completed by the end of that 81955 fiscal year and reporting on compliance with the annual internal 81956 audit plan. 81957

(F) Whenever, in the judgment of the director of budget 81958 and management, an amount of net state lottery proceeds is 81959 necessary to be applied to the payment of debt service on 81960 obligations, all as defined in sections 151.01 and 151.03 of the 81961 Revised Code, the director shall transfer that amount directly 81962 from the state lottery fund or from the lottery profits 81963 education fund to the bond service fund defined in those 81964 sections. The provisions of this division are subject to any 81965 prior pledges or obligation of those amounts to the payment of 81966 bond service charges as defined in division (C) of section 81967 3318.21 of the Revised Code, as referred to in division (B) of 81968
this section. 81969

Sec. 3770.071. (A) As used in this section, "lottery prize 81970 award" does not include a prize award from a video lottery 81971 terminal and does not include winnings from lottery sports 81972 gaming, except that "lottery prize award" includes winnings from 81973 lottery sports gaming wagers placed through a terminal described 81974
in division (B) (3) of section 3770.24 of the Revised Code. 81975

(B) If the amount of the prize money or the cost of goods 81976 or services awarded as a lottery prize award meets or exceeds 81977 the reportable winnings amounts set by 26 U.S.C. 6041, or a 81978 subsequent analogous section of the Internal Revenue Code, the 81979 director of the state lottery commission or the director's 81980 designee shall consult the data match program established under 81981 section 3123.89 of the Revised Code to determine whether the 81982 person is subject to a final and enforceable determination of 81983 default made under sections 3123.01 to 3123.07 of the Revised 81984 Code. If so, the director or the director's designee shall 81985 withhold an amount from the prize award in accordance with 81986

section 3123.89 of the Revised Code. 81987

Sec. 3770.072. (A) As used in this section, "prize 81988 winner," and "transferee," and "transferor" have the same 81989 meanings as in section 3770.10 of the Revised Code. 81990

(B) The state lottery commission shall deduct amounts from 81991 lottery prize awards and file returns in accordance with 81992 ~~sections~~ section 5747.062 and ~~5747.064~~ of the Revised Code and 81993 any rules adopted by the tax commissioner pursuant to ~~these~~ 81994 ~~sections~~ that section. This division also applies to lottery 81995 prize award payments the commission remits to transferees. 81996

~~(C) (1) (a)~~ (C) (1) Each transferee shall deduct and withhold 81997 from each gross amount payable to each prize winner four per 81998 cent of the gross amount payable prior to making any other 81999 reduction required by this chapter. 82000

~~(b) Subject to division (C) (1) (c) of this section, each~~ 82001
~~transferee, including any transferee that is a related member,~~ 82002
~~as defined in section 5733.042 of the Revised Code, to the~~ 82003 ~~transferor, shall deduct and withhold from each amount payable~~ 82004
~~to a transferor that is not a prize winner four per cent of the~~ 82005

~~(c) For purposes of division (C) (1) (b) of this section,~~ 82008
~~the portion of any payment representing gain or income~~ 82009

~~date on which the payment is to be made, the transferor shall~~ 82014 ~~deliver the written statement to the transferee and deliver a~~ 82015
~~copy of the written statement to the tax commissioner. If the~~ 82016 ~~transferee does not receive the written statement by the time~~ 82017
~~the payment is made, the transferee shall withhold four per cent~~ 82018
~~of the entire amount of the payment. If the tax commissioner~~ 82019 ~~notifies the transferee that the transferor has erroneously~~ 82020

~~shall withhold four per cent of the entire amount of each~~ 82022 ~~payment to be made after the transferee receives the notice.~~ 82023

~~(d) The tax commissioner may impose a penalty of up to one~~ 82024 ~~thousand dollars for any person failing to timely deliver to the~~ 82025 ~~tax commissioner the copy of the written statement as required~~ 82026
~~by division (C) (1) (c) of this section. Proceeds from the~~ 82027

~~from the tax imposed under section 5733.06 or 5747.02 of the~~ 82029
~~Revised Code, as applicable.~~ 82030

(2) With respect to amounts deducted and withheld pursuant 82031 to division (C) (1) of this section, each transferee shall comply 82032 with divisions (A) (2) to (4) of section 5747.062 of the Revised 82033
Code. 82034

(3) An employee of a corporation, limited liability 82035 company, or business trust having control or supervision of or 82036 charged with the responsibility of filing the report and making 82037 the payment required by division (C) of this section and section 82038 5747.062 of the Revised Code, or an officer, member, manager, or 82039 trustee of a corporation, limited liability company, or business 82040 trust who is responsible for the execution of the corporation's, 82041 limited liability company's, or business trust's fiscal 82042 responsibilities, shall be personally liable for failure to file 82043 the report or pay the amount due as required by division (C) of 82044 this section and section 5747.062 of the Revised Code. The 82045 dissolution, termination, or bankruptcy of a corporation, 82046 limited liability company, or business trust does not discharge 82047 a responsible officer's, member's, manager's, employee's, or 82048 trustee's liability for a failure of the corporation, limited 82049 liability company, or business trust to file returns or pay the 82050 amount due. 82051

(4) (a) The tax commissioner may make an assessment against 82052 any person listed in division (C) (1) or (3) of this section for 82053 any deficiency for any period. Section 5747.13 of the Revised 82054 Code shall apply with respect to issuing assessments, filing 82055 petitions for reassessments, conducting hearings, issuing final 82056 determinations, making the assessment final, and filing the 82057 entry that makes the assessment final. Section 5717.02 of the 82058 Revised Code shall apply to appeals of the commissioner's final 82059 decision in connection with assessments issued pursuant to 82060 division (C) (4) of this section. 82061

(b) An assessment issued against any person listed in 82062 division (C) (1) or (3) of this section shall not be considered 82063 an election of remedies or a bar to an assessment against any 82064 other person for the failure to comply with division (C) (1) of 82065 this section. No assessment shall be issued against any person 82066 who is so listed if the amount required to be withheld has been 82067 paid by another. 82068

(c) The assessment shall include interest at the rate per 82069 annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code on 82070 liability from the time the payment is due until the date of 82071 assessment. Interest shall continue to accrue from the date of 82072 assessment until the date the assessment is paid in full. Any 82073 interest accruing subsequent to the date of the issuance of the 82074 assessment shall be considered to be an additional deficiency 82075 for which the tax commissioner may issue subsequent assessments. 82076

The initial assessment and any subsequent assessments may 82077 include a penalty in an amount not to exceed twice the 82078 applicable interest charged under this division. 82079

award" does not include a prize award from a video lottery 82081
terminal and does not include winnings from lottery sports 82082
gaming, except that "lottery prize award" includes winnings from 82083
lottery sports gaming wagers placed through a terminal described 82084
in division (B) (3) of section 3770.24 of the Revised Code. 82085

(B) The attorney general shall provide the state lottery 82086 commission or its designee with access to the real time data 82087 match program described in sections 3772.37 and 3775.16 of the 82088 Revised Code for the purpose of identifying prize winners who 82089 owe amounts to the state or a political subdivision. 82090

(C) If a person is entitled to a lottery prize award and 82091 is indebted to the state for the payment of any tax, workers' 82092 compensation premium, unemployment contribution, payment in lieu 82093 of unemployment contribution, or certified claim under section 82094 issuer's reimbursement and the provider's charge for the 83751 services. 83752

emergency facility in this state, neither the emergency facility 83754 nor an out-of-network provider shall bill a covered person for 83755 and the emergency facility's or the provider's charge for the 83757 ambulance in this state, neither the ambulance nor an out-of- 83760 network provider shall bill a covered person for the difference 83761 between the health plan issuer's reimbursement and the 83762 ambulance's or provider's charge for the services. 83763

between the health plan issuer's reimbursement and the 83768 provider's or facility's charge for the clinical laboratory 83769
services. 83770

(D) A health plan issuer shall not require cost sharing 83771 for any service described in division (A) of this section from 83772 estimate shall contain a disclaimer that the covered person is 83792 not required to obtain the health care service at that location 83793 or from that provider. 83794

(c) The covered person affirmatively consents to receive 83795
the services. 83796

employer entered into on or after the effective date of this 84854 amendment. 84855

Except for sections 306.08, 306.12, 306.35, and 4981.22 of 84856

the Revised Code and arrangements entered into thereunder, and 84857

section 3301.07 of the Revised Code. 84871

(B) The public employer shall submit a request for funds 84872 necessary to implement an agreement and for approval of any 84873 other matter requiring the approval of the appropriate 84874 legislative body to the legislative body within fourteen days of 84875 the date on which the parties finalize the agreement, unless 84876 otherwise specified, but if the appropriate legislative body is 84877 not in session at the time, then within fourteen days after it 84878 convenes. The legislative body must approve or reject the 84879 submission as a whole, and the submission is deemed approved if 84880 the legislative body fails to act within thirty days after the 84881 public employer submits the agreement. The parties may specify 84882 that those provisions of the agreement not requiring action by a 84883 legislative body are effective and operative in accordance with 84884 the terms of the agreement, provided there has been compliance 84885 with division (C) of this section. If the legislative body 84886 rejects the submission of the public employer, either party may 84887 reopen all or part of the entire agreement. 84888 governing board of a municipal corporation, school district, 84890 college or university, village, township, or board of county 84891 commissioners or any other body that has authority to approve 84892 the budget of their public jurisdiction and, with regard to the 84893 state, "legislative body" means the controlling board. 84894

(C) The chief executive officer, or the chief executive 84895 officer's representative, of each municipal corporation, the 84896 designated representative of the board of education of each 84897 school district, college or university, or any other body that 84898 has authority to approve the budget of their public 84899 jurisdiction, the designated representative of the board of 84900 county whose employees are covered by the collective 84902 negotiations, and the designated representative of the village 84903 or the board of township trustees of each township is 84904 responsible for negotiations in the collective bargaining 84905 process; except that the legislative body may accept or reject a 84906 proposed collective bargaining agreement. When the matters about 84907 which there is agreement are reduced to writing and approved by 84908 the employee organization and the legislative body, the 84909 agreement is binding upon the legislative body, the employer, 84910 and the employee organization and employees covered by the 84911 agreement. 84912

modification, or deletion of an existing provision of a 84919 collective bargaining agreement. Nothing in any provision of law 84920 to the contrary shall be interpreted as excluding the bureau of 84921 workers' compensation and the industrial commission from the 84922 preceding sentence. This office shall not negotiate on behalf of 84923 other statewide elected officials or boards of trustees of state 84924 however, the office may negotiate on behalf of these officials 84927 or trustees where authorized by the officials or trustees. The 84928 staff of the office of collective bargaining are in the 84929 unclassified service. The director of administrative services 84930 recently completed calendar quarters preceding the first day of 85735 the individual's benefit year. Such base period shall be known 85736 wages for the most recent quarter of the alternate base period 85738 is not available to the director from the regular quarterly 85739 reports of wage information, which are systematically 85740 accessible, the director may, consistent with the provisions of 85741 section 4141.28 of the Revised Code, base the determination of 85742 eligibility for benefits on the affidavit of the claimant with 85743 respect to weeks and wages for that calendar quarter. The 85744 claimant shall furnish payroll documentation, where available, 85745 in support of the affidavit. The determination based upon the 85746 alternate base period as it relates to the claimant's benefit 85747 rights, shall be amended when the quarterly report of wage 85748 information from the employer is timely received and that 85749 information causes a change in the determination. As provided in 85750 division (B) of section 4141.28 of the Revised Code, any 85751 benefits paid and charged to an employer's account, based upon a 85752 claimant's affidavit, shall be adjusted effective as of the 85753 beginning of the claimant's benefit year. No calendar quarter in 85754 a base period or alternate base period shall be used to 85755 establish a subsequent benefit year. 85756

file a valid application, "employment" means the performance of 85793 services for which remuneration is payable. 85794 beginning on and after July 1, 2022, any application for 85808 determination of benefit rights made in accordance with section 85809 4141.28 of the Revised Code is valid if the individual satisfies 85810 disqualification imposed pursuant to division (D) (2) of section 85812

the validity of an application. 85814 by the director once a year based on the twelve-month period 85816

~~(B) (1) Any contribution or payment in lieu of contribution, due from an employer on or before December 31, 1992, shall, if not paid when due, bear interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum. In such computation any fraction of a month shall be considered as a full month.~~ 86277

86281

86284

due, bear interest at the annual rate of fourteen per cent 86285 compounded monthly on the aggregate receivable balance due. In 86286 such computation any fraction of a month shall be considered as 86287 a full month. 86288

(2) Any contribution, payment in lieu of contribution, 86289 interest, forfeiture, or fine due from an employer on or after 86290 fifteen per cent. In such computation any fraction of a month 86294 shall be considered as a full month. 86295

(C) The director may waive the interest assessed under 86296 division ~~(B)~~ ~~(2)~~ (B) of this section if the employer meets all of 86297 the following conditions within thirty days after the date the 86298 director mails or delivers the notice of assessment of interest: 86299

(1) Provides to the director a written request for a 86300 waiver of interest clearly demonstrating that the employer's 86301 failure to timely pay contributions, payments in lieu of 86302 contributions, interest, forfeiture, and fines was a result of 86303 circumstances beyond the control of the employer or the 86304 employer's agent, except that negligence on the part of the 86305 employer or the employer's agent shall not be considered beyond 86306 the control of the employer or the employer's agent; 86307

(2) Furnishes to the director all quarterly reports 86308 required under section 4141.20 of the Revised Code; 86309

(3) Pays in full all contributions, payments in lieu of 86310 contributions, interest, forfeiture, and fines for each quarter 86311 for which such payments are due. 86312

The director shall deny an employer's request for a waiver 86313 of interest after finding that the employer's failure to timely 86314 furnish reports or make payments as required under this chapter 86315 was due to an attempt to evade payment. 86316

(D) Any contribution, interest, forfeiture, or fine 86317 required to be paid under this chapter by any employer shall, if 86318 not paid when due, become a lien upon the real and personal 86319 property of such employer. Upon failure of such employer to pay 86320 the contributions, interest, forfeiture, or fine required to be 86321 paid under this chapter, the director shall file notice of such 86322 lien, for which there shall be no charge, in the office of the 86323 county recorder of the county in which it is ascertained that 86324 such employer owns real estate or personal property. The 86325 director shall notify the employer by mail of the lien. The 86326 absence of proof that the notice was sent does not affect the 86327 validity of the lien. Such lien shall not be valid as against 86328 the claim of any mortgagee, pledgee, purchaser, judgment 86329 creditor, or other lienholder of record at the time such notice 86330 is filed. 86331

If the employer acquires real or personal property after 86332 notice of lien is filed, such lien shall not be valid as against 86333 the claim of any mortgagee, pledgee, subsequent bona fide 86334 purchaser for value, judgment creditor, or other lienholder of 86335 record to such after-acquired property, unless the notice of 86336 lien is refiled after such property was acquired by the employer 86337 and before the competing lien attached to such after-acquired 86338 property or before the conveyance to such subsequent bona fide 86339 purchaser for value. 86340

Such a notice shall be recorded in the county recorder's 86341 official records and indexed in the direct and reverse indexes 86342 under the name of the employer. When such unpaid contributions, 86343 interest, forfeiture, or fines have been paid, the employer may 86344 record with the county recorder of the county in which such 86345 notice of lien has been filed and recorded, notice of such 86346 payment, and the notice of payment shall be recorded in the 86347 county recorder's official records and indexed in the direct and 86348 reverse indexes. For recording the notice of payment, the county 86349 recorder shall charge and receive from the employer a base fee 86350 of two dollars for services and a housing trust fund fee of two 86351 dollars pursuant to section 317.36 of the Revised Code. 86352

(E) Notwithstanding other provisions in this section, the 86353 director may reduce, in whole or in part, the amount of 86354 interest, forfeiture, or fines required to be paid under this 86355 chapter if the director determines that the reduction is in the 86356 best interest of the unemployment compensation fund. 86357

(F) Assessment of contributions shall not be made after 86358 four years from the date on which such contributions became 86359 payable, and no action in court for the collection of 86360 contributions without assessment of such contributions shall be 86361 begun after the expiration of five years from the date such 86362 contributions became payable. In case of a false or fraudulent 86363 report or of a willful attempt in any manner to evade 86364 contributions, such contributions may be assessed or a 86365 proceeding in court for the collection of such contributions may 86366 be begun without assessment at any time. When the assessment of 86367 contributions has been made within such four-year period 86368 provided, action in court to collect such contributions may be 86369 begun within, but not later than, six years after such 86370 assessment. 86371

(G) In the event of a distribution of an employer's 86372 assets, pursuant to an order of any court under the law of this 86373 state, including any receivership, assignment for benefit of 86374 creditors, adjudicated insolvency, or similar proceedings, 86375 contributions, interest, forfeiture, or fine then or thereafter 86376 due have the same priority as provided by law for the payment of 86377 taxes due the state and shall be paid out of the trust fund in 86378 the same manner as provided for other claims for unpaid taxes 86379 due the state. 86380

(H) If the attorney general finds after investigation that 86381 any claim for delinquent contributions, interest, forfeitures, 86382 or fines owing to the director is uncollectible, in whole or in 86383 part, the attorney general shall recommend to the director the 86384 cancellation of such claim or any part thereof. The director may 86385 thereupon effect such cancellation. 86386

Sec. 4141.281. APPEALS 86387

(A) APPEAL FILED 86388

Any party notified of a determination of benefit rights or 86389 a claim for benefits determination may appeal within twenty-one 86390 calendar days after the written determination was sent to the 86391 party or within an extended period as provided under division 86392
(D) (9) of this section. 86393

(B) REDETERMINATION 86394

Within twenty-one days after receipt of the appeal, the 86395 director of job and family services shall issue a 86396 redetermination or transfer the appeal to the unemployment 86397 compensation review commission. A redetermination under this 86398 section is appealable in the same manner as an initial 86399 determination by the director. 86400

(C) REVIEW COMMISSION 86401

(1) JURISDICTION 86402

The commission shall provide an opportunity for a fair 86403 hearing to the interested parties of appeals over which the 86404 commission has jurisdiction. The commission has jurisdiction 86405 over an appeal on transfer or on direct appeal to the 86406 commission. If the commission concludes that a pending appeal 86407 does not warrant a hearing, the commission may remand the appeal 86408 to the director for redetermination. The commission retains 86409 jurisdiction until the appeal is remanded to the director or a 86410 final decision is issued and appealed to court, or the time to 86411 request a review or to appeal a decision of a hearing officer or 86412 the commission is expired. 86413

(2) CONDUCT OF HEARINGS 86414

Hearings before the commission are held at the hearing 86415 officer level and the review level. Unless otherwise provided in 86416 this chapter, initial hearings involving claims for compensation 86417 and other unemployment compensation issues are conducted at the 86418 hearing officer level by hearing officers appointed by the 86419 commission. Hearings at the review level are conducted by 86420 hearing officers appointed by the commission, by members of the 86421 commission acting either individually or collectively, and by 86422 members of the commission and hearing officers acting jointly. 86423
In all hearings conducted at the review level, the commission 86424 shall designate the hearing officer or officers who are to 86425 conduct the hearing. When the term "hearing officer" is used in 86426 reference to hearings conducted at the review level, the term 86427 includes members of the commission. All decisions issued at the 86428 review level are issued by the commission. 86429

Provisions contained in the remainder of this paragraph 86430 apply to hearings at both the hearing officer level and the 86431 review level. The principles of due process in administrative 86432 hearings shall be applied to all hearings conducted under the 86433 authority of the commission. In conducting hearings, all hearing 86434 officers shall control the conduct of the hearing, exclude 86435 irrelevant or cumulative evidence, and give weight to the kind 86436 of evidence on which reasonably prudent persons are accustomed 86437 to rely in the conduct of serious affairs. Hearing officers have 86438 an affirmative duty to question parties and witnesses in order 86439 to ascertain the relevant facts and to fully and fairly develop 86440 the record. Hearing officers are not bound by common law or 86441 statutory rules of evidence or by technical or formal rules of 86442 procedure. No person shall impose upon the claimant or the 86443 employer any burden of proof as is required in a court of law. 86444

The proceedings at hearings shall be recorded by mechanical 86445 means or otherwise as may be prescribed by the commission. In 86446 the absence of further proceedings, the record need not be 86447 transcribed. After considering all of the evidence, a hearing 86448 officer shall issue a written decision that sets forth the facts 86449 as the hearing officer finds them to be, cites the applicable 86450 law, and gives the reasoning for the decision. 86451

(3) HEARING OFFICER LEVEL 86452

When an appeal is transferred to the commission by the 86453 director, the commission shall notify all interested parties of 86454 the time and place of the hearing and assign the appeal for a 86455 hearing by a hearing officer. The hearings shall be de novo, 86456 except that the director's file pertaining to a case shall be 86457 included in the record to be considered. 86458

Following a hearing, the hearing officer shall affirm, 86459 modify, or reverse the determination of the director in the 86460 manner that appears just and proper. The hearing officer's 86461 written decision shall be sent to all interested parties. The 86462 decision shall state the right of an interested party to request 86463 a review by the commission. 86464

A request for review shall be filed within twenty-one days 86465 after the decision was sent to the party, or within an extended 86466 period as provided under division (D) (9) of this section. The 86467 hearing officer's decision shall become final unless a request 86468 for review is filed and allowed or the commission removes the 86469 appeal to itself within twenty-one days after the hearing 86470 officer's decision is sent. 86471

(4) REVIEW LEVEL 86472

At the review level, the commission may affirm, modify, or 86473 reverse previous determinations by the director or at the 86474 hearing officer level. At the review level, the commission may 86475 affirm, modify, or reverse a hearing officer's decision or 86476 remand the decision to the hearing officer level for further 86477 hearing. The commission shall consider an appeal at the review 86478 level under the following circumstances: when an appeal is 86479 required to be heard initially at the review level under this 86480 chapter; when the commission on its own motion removes an appeal 86481 to itself within twenty-one days after the hearing officer's 86482 decision is sent; when the assigned hearing officer refers an 86483 appeal to the commission before the hearing officer's decision 86484 is sent; or when an interested party files a request for review 86485 with the commission within twenty-one days after the hearing 86486 officer's decision is sent. 86487

(5) COMMISSION EXAMINATION 86488

The commission shall consider a request for review by an 86489 interested party, including the reasons for the request. The 86490 commission may adopt rules prescribing the methods for 86491 requesting a review. The commission may allow or disallow the 86492 request for review. The disallowance of a request for review 86493 constitutes a final decision by the commission. 86494

(6) REVIEW PROCEDURE 86495

If the commission allows a request for review, the 86496 commission shall notify all interested parties of that fact and 86497 provide a reasonable period of time, as the commission defines 86498 by rule, in which interested parties may file a response. After 86499 that period of time, the commission, based on the record before 86500 it, may do one of the following: affirm the decision of the 86501 hearing officer; provide for the appeal to be heard or reheard 86502 at the hearing officer or review level; provide for the appeal 86503 to be heard at the review level as a potential precedential 86504 decision; or provide for the decision to be rewritten without 86505 further hearing at the review level. When a further hearing is 86506 provided or the decision is rewritten, the commission may 86507 affirm, modify, or reverse the previous decision. 86508

If a member of the commission is unable or unavailable to 86509 consider an appeal allowed by the commission, the other members 86510 of the commission may appoint a hearing officer as a temporary 86511 commissioner to fulfill the unable or unavailable commissioner's 86512 duties with respect to the appeal. The members of the commission 86513 may not appoint the hearing officer who decided the appeal at 86514 the hearing officer level. 86515

(7) NOTICES 86516

The commission shall send written notice to all interested 86517 parties when it orders an appeal to be heard or reheard. The 86518 notice shall include the reasons for the hearing or rehearing. 86519

(8) PRECEDENTIAL 86520

An appeal the commission identifies as potentially 86521 precedential shall be heard at the review level. In the notice 86522 for that type of hearing, the commission shall notify the 86523 director, all interested parties, and any other parties, as the 86524 commission determines appropriate, that the appeal is designated 86525 as potentially precedential. After the hearing, parties shall be 86526 given the opportunity to submit briefs on the issue or issues 86527 involved. The commission may designate a decision as 86528 precedential after issuing the decision or at any point in the 86529 appeal process, even if the commission does not initially 86530 identify the appeal as potentially precedential. 86531

(9) MASS APPEALS 86532

When the commission determines that it has five appeals 86533 pending that have common facts or common issues, the commission 86534 may transfer the appeals to the review level on its own motion 86535 to be heard as a mass appeal, including appeals from claimants 86536 separated due to a labor dispute, on the condition that there 86537 are fewer than twenty-five claimants involved. 86538

To facilitate a mass hearing, the commission may allow an 86539 authorized agent to accept notice of hearing on behalf of 86540 claimants. An authorized agent may waive this notice of hearing 86541 and also the sending of decisions to individual claimants 86542 represented by the agent. 86543

(D) SPECIAL PROVISIONS 86544

(1) TIMELINESS OF APPEALS 86545

The date of the mailing provided by the director or the 86546 commission is sufficient evidence upon which to conclude that a 86547 determination, redetermination, or decision was sent to the 86548 party on that date. Appeals may be filed with the director, 86549 commission, with an employee of another state or federal agency 86550 charged with the duty of accepting claims, or with the 86551 unemployment insurance commission of Canada. Any timely written 86552 notice by an interested party indicating a desire to appeal 86553 shall be accepted. 86554

The director, commission, or authorized agent must receive 86555 the appeal within the specified appeal period in order for the 86556 appeal to be deemed timely filed, except that: if the United 86557 States postal service is used as the means of delivery, the 86558 enclosing envelope must have a postmark date or postal meter 86559 postmark that is on or before the last day of the specified 86560 appeal period; and where the postmark is illegible or missing, 86561 the appeal is timely filed if received not later than the end of 86562 the fifth calendar day following the last day of the specified 86563 appeal period. 86564

The director and the commission may adopt rules pertaining 86565 to alternate methods of filing appeals under this section. 86566

(2) WAIVER 86567

Interested parties may waive, in writing, a hearing at 86568 either the hearing officer or review level. If the parties waive 86569 a hearing, the hearing officer shall issue a decision based on 86570 the evidence of record. 86571

(3) TELEPHONE HEARINGS 86572

Hearing officers may conduct hearings at either the 86573 hearing officer or review level in person or by telephone or 86574 interactive video conference. The commission shall adopt rules 86575 that designate the circumstances under which hearing officers 86576 may conduct a hearing by telephone or interactive video 86577 conference or grant a party to the hearing the opportunity to 86578 object to a hearing by telephone or interactive video 86579 conference. An interested party whose hearing would be by 86580 telephone or interactive video conference may elect to have an 86581 in-person hearing, provided that the party agrees to have the 86582 hearing at the time and place the commission determines pursuant 86583 to rule. 86584

(4) EVENING HEARINGS 86585

Unless the commission grants a request for an evening 86586 telephone or interactive video conference hearing, hearing 86587 officers shall conduct hearings at the hearing officer and 86588 review level during normal business hours. An interested party 86589 who is regularly employed throughout those hours may request to 86590 have a hearing by telephone or interactive video conference 86591 during the evening. The commission shall grant or deny a request 86592 for an evening telephone or interactive video conference 86593 hearing. If a conflict concerning a request for an evening 86594 hearing and an in-person hearing arises, the commission shall 86595 schedule the hearing by telephone or interactive video 86596 conference during evening hours. 86597

(5) NO APPEARANCE -- APPELLANT 86598

For hearings at either the hearing officer or review 86599 level, if the appealing party fails to appear at the hearing, 86600 the hearing officer shall dismiss the appeal. The commission 86601 shall vacate the dismissal upon a showing that written notice of 86602 the hearing was not sent to that party's last known address, or 86603 good cause for the appellant's failure to appear is shown to the 86604 commission within fourteen days after the hearing date. 86605

If the commission finds that the appealing party's reason 86606 for failing to appear does not constitute good cause for failing 86607 to appear, the commission shall send written notice of that 86608 finding, and the appealing party may request a hearing to 86609 present testimony on the issue of good cause for failing to 86610 appear. The appealing party shall file a request for a hearing 86611 on the issue of good cause for failing to appear within ten days 86612 after the commission sends written notice indicating a finding 86613 of no good cause for failing to appear. 86614

(6) NO APPEARANCE -- APPELLEE 86615

For hearings at either the hearing officer or review 86616 level, if the appellee fails to appear at the hearing, the 86617 hearing officer shall proceed with the hearing and shall issue a 86618 decision based on the evidence of record. The commission shall 86619 vacate the decision upon a showing that written notice of the 86620 hearing was not sent to the appellee's last known address, or 86621 good cause for the appellee's failure to appear is shown to the 86622

(7) AGENT 86624

Any appeal or request for review may be executed on behalf 86625 of any party or any group of claimants by an agent. 86626

(8) COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL 86627

No finding of fact or law, decision, or order of the 86628 director, hearing officer, the commission, or a reviewing court 86629 under this section or section 4141.28 of the Revised Code shall 86630 be given collateral estoppel or res judicata effect in any 86631 separate or subsequent judicial, administrative, or arbitration 86632 proceeding, other than a proceeding arising under this chapter. 86633

(9) EXTENSION OF APPEAL PERIODS 86634

The time for filing an appeal or a request for review 86635 under this section or a court appeal under section 4141.282 of 86636 the Revised Code shall be extended in the manner described in 86637 the following four sentences. When the last day of an appeal 86638 period is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal 86639 period is extended to the next work day after the Saturday, 86640 Sunday, or legal holiday. When an interested party provides 86641 certified medical evidence stating that the interested party's 86642 physical condition or mental capacity prevented the interested 86643 party from filing an appeal or request for review under this 86644 section within the appropriate twenty-one-day period, the appeal 86645 period is extended to twenty-one days after the end of the 86646 physical or mental condition, and the appeal or request for 86647 review is considered timely filed if filed within that extended 86648 period. When an interested party provides evidence, which 86649 evidence may consist of testimony from the interested party, 86650 that is sufficient to establish that the party did not actually 86651 receive the determination or decision within the applicable 86652 appeal period under this section, and the director or the 86653 commission finds that the interested party did not actually 86654 receive the determination or decision within the applicable 86655 appeal period, then the appeal period is extended to twenty-one 86656 days after the interested party actually receives the 86657 determination or decision. When an interested party provides 86658 evidence, which evidence may consist of testimony from the 86659 interested party, that is sufficient to establish that the party 86660 did not actually receive a decision within the thirty-day appeal 86661 period provided in section 4141.282 of the Revised Code, and a 86662 court of common pleas finds that the interested party did not 86663 actually receive the decision within that thirty-day appeal 86664 period, then the appeal period is extended to thirty days after 86665 the interested party actually receives the decision. 86666

Sec. 4141.29. Each eligible individual shall receive 86667 benefits as compensation for loss of remuneration due to 86668 involuntary total or partial unemployment in the amounts and 86669 subject to the conditions stipulated in this chapter. 86670

(A) No individual is entitled to a waiting period or 86671 benefits for any week unless the individual: 86672

(1) Has filed a valid application for determination of 86673 benefit rights in accordance with section 4141.28 of the Revised 86674
Code; 86675

(2) Has made a claim for benefits in accordance with 86676
section 4141.28 of the Revised Code; 86677

(3) (a) Has registered for work and thereafter continues to 86678 report to an employment office or other registration place 86679 maintained or designated by the director of job and family 86680 services. Registration shall be made in accordance with the time 86681 limits, frequency, and manner prescribed by the director. 86682

(b) For purposes of division (A) (3) of this section, an 86683 individual has "registered" upon doing any of the following: 86684

(i) Filing an application for benefit rights; 86685

(ii) Making a weekly claim for benefits; 86686

(iii) Reopening an existing claim following a period of 86687 employment or nonreporting. 86688

(c) After an applicant is registered, that registration 86689 continues for a period of three calendar weeks, including the 86690 week during which the applicant registered. However, an 86691 individual is not registered for purposes of division (A) (3) of 86692 this section during any period in which the individual fails to 86693 report, as instructed by the director, or fails to reopen an 86694 existing claim following a period of employment. 86695

(d) The director may, for good cause, extend the period of registration. 86696
86697

(e) For purposes of this section, "report" means contact by phone, access electronically, or be present for an in-person appointment, as designated by the director. 86698

86702
86704
86705
86707

86709
86711
86712
86713
86714
86715
86717

86719 employer's plant for a purpose other than inventory or vacation 86724 that will cause unemployment for a definite period not exceeding 86725 twenty-six weeks beginning on the date the employer notifies the 86726 director, for the period of the specific shutdown, if all of the 86727

following apply: 86728

(I) The employer and the individuals affected by the 86729 layoff who are claiming benefits under this chapter jointly 86730 request the exemption. 86731

(II) The employer provides that the affected individuals 86732 shall return to work for the employer within twenty-six weeks 86733 after the date the employer notifies the director. 86734

(III) The director determines that the waiver of the 86735 active search for work requirement will promote productivity and 86736 economic stability within the state. 86737

(iv) Division (A) (4) (a) (iii) of this section does not 86738 exempt an individual from meeting the other requirements 86739 specified in division (A) (4) (a) (i) of this section to be able to 86740 work and otherwise fully be available for work. An exemption 86741 granted under division (A) (4) (a) (iii) of this section may be 86742 granted only with respect to a specific plant closing. 86743

(b) (i) The individual shall be instructed as to the 86744 efforts that the individual must make in the search for suitable 86745 work, including that, within six months after October 11, 2013, 86746

(III) Where the active search for work requirement is considered to be met under division (A) (4) (c), (d), or (e) of this section. 86753
86755

(ii) An individual who is registered with the OhioMeansJobs web site shall receive a weekly listing of available jobs based on information provided by the individual at the time of registration. For each week that the individual claims benefits, the individual shall keep a record of the individual's work search efforts and shall produce that record in the manner and means prescribed by the director. 86756
86757
86759
86760
86762

(iii) No individual shall be required to register with the OhioMeansJobs web site if the individual is legally prohibited from using a computer, has a physical or visual impairment that makes the individual unable to use a computer, or has a limited ability to read, write, speak, or understand a language in which the OhioMeansJobs web site is available. 86763
86764
86766
86767
86768

(iv) As used in division (A) (4) (b) of this section: 86769

(I) "OhioMeansJobs web site" has the same meaning as in section 6301.01 of the Revised Code. 86770
86771

(II) "Registration" includes the creation, electronic posting, and maintenance of an active, searchable resume. 86772
86773

86775
86777
86778
86779
86780
86781

(B) of section 5709.61 of the Revised Code, is paying all or 86782 part of the cost of the individual's participation in the 86783 training program with the intention of hiring the individual for 86784 employment as a new employee, as defined in division (L) of 86785 section 5709.61 of the Revised Code, for at least ninety days 86786 after the individual's completion of the training program. 86787

(d) An individual who becomes unemployed while attending a 86788 regularly established school and whose base period qualifying 86789 weeks were earned in whole or in part while attending that 86790 school, meets the availability and active search for work 86791 requirements of division (A) (4) (a) of this section if the 86792 individual regularly attends the school during weeks with 86793 respect to which the individual claims unemployment benefits and 86794 makes self available on any shift of hours for suitable 86795 employment with the individual's most recent employer or any 86796 other employer in the individual's base period, or for any other 86797 suitable employment to which the individual is directed, under 86798
this chapter. 86799

(e) An individual who is a member in good standing with a 86800 labor organization that refers individuals to jobs meets the 86801 active search for work requirement specified in division (A) (4) 86802
(a) of this section if the individual provides documentation 86803 that the individual is eligible for a referral or placement upon 86804 request and in a manner prescribed by the director. 86805

(f) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, 86806 no otherwise eligible individual shall be denied benefits for 86807 any week because the individual is in training approved under 86808 section 236(a) (1) of the "Trade Act of 1974," 88 Stat. 1978, 19 86809 U.S.C.A. 2296, nor shall that individual be denied benefits by 86810 reason of leaving work to enter such training, provided the work 86811 left is not suitable employment, or because of the application 86812 to any week in training of provisions in this chapter, or any 86813 applicable federal unemployment compensation law, relating to 86814 availability for work, active search for work, or refusal to 86815 accept work. 86816

For the purposes of division (A) (4) (f) of this section, 86817 the purposes of the "Trade Act of 1974," 88 Stat. 1978, 19 86821 U.S.C.A. 2101, and wages for such work at not less than eighty 86822 per cent of the individual's average weekly wage as determined 86823

(5) ~~Is unable to obtain suitable work. An individual who 86825 is provided temporary work assignments by the individual's 86826 employer under agreed terms and conditions of employment, and 86827 who is required pursuant to those terms and conditions to 86828 inquire with the individual's employer for available work 86829 assignments upon the conclusion of each work assignment, is not 86830 considered unable to obtain suitable employment if suitable work 86831 assignments are available with the employer but the individual 86832 fails to contact the employer to inquire about work assignments. 86833~~

(6) Participates in reemployment services, such as job 86834

(b) There is justifiable cause for the claimant's failure to participate in such services.	86843 86844
Ineligibility for failure to participate in reemployment services as described in division (A)(6) of this section shall be for the week or weeks in which the claimant was scheduled and failed to participate without justifiable cause.	86845 86846 86847 86848

(ii) Justifiable cause exists for the failure of the individual to participate in those services.	86859 86860

(c) An individual whose active search for work requirement has been waived under division (A) (4) (a) of this section or is considered to be satisfied under division (A) (4) (c), (d), or (e) of this section is exempt from the requirements of division (A) (7) of this section.

(B) An individual suffering total or partial unemployment is eligible for benefits for unemployment occurring subsequent to a waiting period of one week and no benefits shall be payable during this required waiting period. Not more than one week of waiting period shall be required of any individual in any benefit year in order to establish the individual's eligibility for total or partial unemployment benefits.

(C) The waiting period for total or partial unemployment shall commence on the first day of the first week with respect to which the individual first files a claim for benefits at an employment office or other place of registration maintained or designated by the director or on the first day of the first week with respect to which the individual has otherwise filed a claim for benefits in accordance with the rules of the department of job and family services, provided such claim is allowed by the director.

(D) Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, no individual may serve a waiting period or be paid benefits under the following conditions:

(1) For any week with respect to which the director finds that:

(a) The individual's unemployment was due to a labor dispute other than a lockout at any factory, establishment, or other premises located in this or any other state and owned or operated by the employer by which the individual is or was last 86899 employed; and for so long as the individual's unemployment is 86900 due to such labor dispute. No individual shall be disqualified 86901

(i) The individual's employment was with such employer at 86903 any factory, establishment, or premises located in this state, 86904 owned or operated by such employer, other than the factory, 86905 it is shown that the individual is not financing, participating 86907 in, or directly interested in such labor dispute; 86908

(ii) The individual's employment was with an employer not 86909 involved in the labor dispute but whose place of business was 86910 located within the same premises as the employer engaged in the 86911 dispute, unless the individual's employer is a wholly owned 86912 subsidiary of the employer engaged in the dispute, or unless the 86913 individual actively participates in or voluntarily stops work 86914 because of such dispute. If it is established that the claimant 86915 was laid off for an indefinite period and not recalled to work 86916 prior to the dispute, or was separated by the employer prior to 86917 the dispute for reasons other than the labor dispute, or that 86918 the individual obtained a bona fide job with another employer 86919 while the dispute was still in progress, such labor dispute 86920 shall not render the employee ineligible for benefits. 86921

(b) The individual has been given a disciplinary layoff 86922 for misconduct in connection with the individual's work. 86923

(2) For the duration of the individual's unemployment if 86924 the director finds that: 86925

(a) The individual quit work without just cause or has 86926 been discharged for just cause in connection with the 86927 individual's work, provided division (D) (2) of this section does 86928 following circumstances: 86930

(i) Separation from employment for the purpose of entering 86931 the armed forces of the United States if the individual is 86932 inducted into the armed forces within one of the following 86933

(I) Thirty days after separation; 86935

(II) One hundred eighty days after separation if the 86936 individual's date of induction is delayed solely at the 86937 section 4141.24 of the Revised Code. In the case of a 87105 in divisions (B) (2) (a) and (b) of section 4141.01 of the Revised 87116 Code shall be payable in the same amount, on the same terms, and 87117 subject to the same conditions as benefits payable on the basis 87118 of other service subject to this chapter; except that after 87119

December 31, 1977: 87120

(a) Benefits based on service in an instructional, 87121 research, or principal administrative capacity in an institution 87122 of higher education, as defined in division (Y) of section 87123 4141.01 of the Revised Code; or for an educational institution 87124 between two regular but not successive terms or during a period 87129 of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's 87130 contract, if the individual performs such services in the first 87131 of those academic years or terms and has a contract or a 87132 reasonable assurance that the individual will perform services 87133 in any such capacity for any such institution in the second of 87134 those academic years or terms. 87135 individual performed those services for the educational 87143 institution or institution of higher education during the first 87144 such academic year or term and, there is a reasonable assurance 87145 that such individual will perform those services for any 87146 educational institution or institution of higher education in 87147 the second of such academic years or terms. 87148

If compensation is denied to any individual for any week 87149 under division (I) (1) (b) of this section and the individual was 87150 not offered an opportunity to perform those services for an 87151 institution of higher education or for an educational 87152 institution for the second of such academic years or terms, the 87153 individual is entitled to a retroactive payment of compensation 87154 for each week for which the individual timely filed a claim for 87155 compensation and for which compensation was denied solely by 87156 reason of division (I) (1) (b) of this section. An application for 87157 retroactive benefits shall be timely filed if received by the 87158 director or the director's deputy within or prior to the end of 87159 the fourth full calendar week after the end of the period for 87160

1983. The provisions under division (I) (1) (b) of this section 87165

3301 to 3311, the United States secretary of labor determines 87169 that retroactivity is required by federal law. 87170

(c) With respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after 87171
December 31, 1977, benefits shall be denied to any individual 87172 for any week which commences during an established and customary 87173 vacation period or holiday recess, if the individual performs 87174 any services described in divisions (I)(1)(a) and (b) of this 87175 section in the period immediately before the vacation period or 87176 holiday recess, and there is a reasonable assurance that the 87177 individual will perform any such services in the period 87178 immediately following the vacation period or holiday recess. 87179

(d) With respect to any services described in division (I) 87180
(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section, benefits payable on the 87181 basis of services in any such capacity shall be denied as 87182 specified in division (I)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section to 87183 any individual who performs such services in an educational 87184 institution or institution of higher education while in the 87185 employ of an educational service agency. For this purpose, the 87186 term "educational service agency" means a governmental agency or 87187 governmental entity that is established and operated exclusively 87188 for the purpose of providing services to one or more educational 87189 institutions or one or more institutions of higher education. 87190

(e) Any individual employed by a county board of 87191 developmental disabilities shall be notified by the thirtieth 87192 day of April each year if the individual is not to be reemployed 87193 the following academic year. 87194 under this division, unless the director or the director's 87202 deputy has received a statement in writing from the educational 87203 institution or institution of higher education that the claimant 87204 has a contract for, or a reasonable assurance of, reemployment 87205 for the ensuing academic year or term. 87206

(3) If an individual has employment with an educational 87207 institution or an institution of higher education and employment 87208 with a noneducational employer, during the base period of the 87209 individual's benefit year, then the individual may become 87210 eligible for benefits during the between-term, or vacation or 87211 holiday recess, disqualification period, based on employment 87212 performed for the noneducational employer, provided that the 87213 employment is sufficient to qualify the individual for benefit 87214 rights separately from the benefit rights based on school 87215 employment. The weekly benefit amount and maximum benefits 87216 payable during a disqualification period shall be computed based 87217 solely on the nonschool employment. 87218

(J) Benefits shall not be paid on the basis of employment 87219 performed by an alien, unless the alien had been lawfully 87220 admitted to the United States for permanent residence at the 87221 time the services were performed, was lawfully present for 87222 purposes of performing the services, or was otherwise 87223 permanently residing in the United States under color of law at 87224 the time the services were performed, under section 212(d)(5) of 87225

(2) In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to the individual are not payable because of the individual's alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence that the individual had not, in fact, been lawfully admitted to the United States.	87232 87233 87234 87235 87236 87237
(K) The director shall establish and utilize a system of profiling all new claimants under this chapter that:	87238 87239 section shall begin on the first day of the week in which the claimant becomes ineligible for benefits and shall end on the last day of the week preceding the week in which the claimant satisfies the eligibility requirements.

(M) The director may adopt rules that the director considers necessary for the administration of division (A) of this section.

Sec. 4141.33. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Reasonable assurance" means a written, verbal, or implied agreement that the individual will perform services in the same or similar capacity during the ensuing sports season or seasonal period.

(2) "Seasonal employment" means employment of individuals hired primarily to perform services in an industry which because of climatic conditions or because of the seasonal nature of such industry it is customary to operate only during regularly recurring periods of forty weeks or less in any consecutive fifty-two weeks.

(3) "Seasonal employer" means an employer determined by the director of job and family services to be an employer whose operations and business, with the exception of certain administrative and maintenance operations, are substantially all in a seasonal industry.

(4) "Significantly" means forty per cent or more of an individual's base period consists of services performed in seasonal employment.

(B) Any employer who claims to have seasonal employment in a seasonal industry may file with the director a written application for classification of such employment as seasonal.

Whenever in any industry it is customary to operate because of 87284 climatic conditions or because of the seasonal nature of such 87285 industry only during regularly recurring periods of forty weeks 87286 or less duration, benefits shall be payable only during the 87287 longest seasonal periods which the best practice of such 87288 industry will reasonably permit. The director shall determine, ~~after~~ 87289 ~~investigation, hearing, and due notice,~~ whether the 87290 industry is seasonal and, if seasonal, establish seasonal 87291 periods for such seasonal employer. The director shall make the 87292 determination based on the application for classification filed 87293 under this section and any other relevant information available. 87294 Until such determination by the director, no industry or 87295 employment shall be deemed seasonal. 87296

(C) When the director has determined such seasonal 87297 periods, the director shall also establish the proportionate 87298 number of weeks of employment and earnings required to qualify 87299 for seasonal benefit rights in place of the weeks of employment 87300 and earnings requirement stipulated in division (R) of section 87301 4141.01 and section 4141.30 of the Revised Code, and the 87302 proportionate number of weeks for which seasonal benefits may be 87303 paid. An individual whose base period employment consists of 87304 only seasonal employment for a single seasonal employer and who 87305 meets the employment and earnings requirements determined by the 87306 director pursuant to this division will have benefit rights 87307 determined in accordance with this division, except benefits 87308 shall not be paid for any week between two successive seasonal 87309 periods. Benefit charges for such seasonal employment shall be 87310 computed and charged in accordance with division (D) of section 87311 4141.24 of the Revised Code. The director may adopt rules for 87312 implementation of this section. 87313

(D) An individual whose base period employment consists of 87314 either seasonal employment with two or more seasonal employers 87315 or both seasonal employment and nonseasonal employment with 87316 employers subject to this chapter, will have benefit rights 87317 determined in accordance with division (R) of section 4141.01 87318 and section 4141.30 of the Revised Code. Benefit charges for 87319 both seasonal and nonseasonal employment shall be computed and 87320 charged in accordance with division (D) of section 4141.24 of 87321 the Revised Code. The total seasonal and nonseasonal benefits 87322 during a benefit year cannot exceed twenty-six times the weekly 87323 benefit amount. Effective October 30, 2011, an individual who 87324 performs services that significantly consist of services 87325 performed in seasonal employment shall not be paid benefits for 87326 those services for any week in the period between two successive 87327 seasonal periods if the individual performed those services in 87328 the first of the seasonal periods and there is reasonable 87329 assurance that the individual will perform those services in the 87330 later of the seasonal periods. The director shall adopt rules 87331 for the implementation of this division. 87332

(E) Benefits shall not be paid to any individual on the 87333 basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of 87334 participating in sports or athletic events or training or 87335 preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during 87336 the period between two successive sport seasons, or similar 87337 periods, if the individual performed services in the first of 87338 the seasons, or similar periods, and there is a reasonable 87339 assurance that the individual will perform services in the later 87340 of the seasons, or similar periods. 87341

(F) The director shall adopt rules concerning the 87342 eligibility for benefits of individuals under divisions (D) and 87343

office. 90345

(b) If the registrar, with the approval of the director, 90346 determines that there is good cause to believe that a deputy 90347 registrar or a person proposing for a deputy registrar contract 90348 has engaged in any conduct that would require the denial or 90349 termination of the deputy registrar contract, the registrar may 90350 require the production of books, records, and papers as the 90351 registrar determines are necessary, and may take the depositions 90352 civil actions in the court of common pleas, and for that purpose 90355 the registrar may issue a subpoena for any witness or a subpoena 90356 served on any person or the refusal of any witness to testify to 90369 any matter regarding which the witness lawfully may be 90370 interrogated, the court of common pleas of any county where the 90371 disobedience, neglect, or refusal occurs or any judge of that 90372 court, on application by the registrar, shall compel obedience 90373 by attachment proceedings for contempt, as in the case of 90374 disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from that 90375 court, or a refusal to testify in that court. 90376

(4) Nothing in division (E) of this section shall be 90377 construed to require a hearing of any nature prior to the 90378 termination of any deputy registrar contract by the registrar, 90379 with the approval of the director, for cause. 90380 or the registrar, or of any employee of the department or 90391 bureau, in the performance of official duties in the selection 90392 and appointment of, and contracting with, deputy registrars. 90393 registrar. The bonds required of deputy registrars, in the 90405

(a) By multiplying the assessable value of the home by the 90549 the county auditor shall record the assessable value and the 90560 and deliver a duplicate of the list to the county treasurer. In 90562 the case of an emergency as defined in section 323.17 of the 90563 that will cause the unavoidable delay and must be received by 90571 the tax commissioner on or before the last day of the month 90572 preceding the day delivery of the duplicate is otherwise 90573 required. When an extension is granted for delivery of the 90574 duplicate, the time period for payment of taxes shall be 90575 extended for a like period of time. When a delay in the closing 90576 of a tax collection period becomes unavoidable, the tax 90577 commissioner, upon application by the county auditor and county 90578 treasurer, may order the time for payment of taxes to be 90579 extended if the tax commissioner determines that penalties have 90580 accrued or would otherwise accrue for reasons beyond the control 90581 of the taxpayers of the county. The order shall prescribe the 90582 final extended date for payment of taxes for that collection 90583 period. 90584

(4) After January 1, 1999, the owner of a manufactured or 90585 mobile home taxed pursuant to division (D)(1) of this section 90586 this section by filing a written request with the county auditor 90588 of the taxing district in which the home is located on or before 90589 the first day of December of any year. Upon the filing of the 90590 request, the county auditor shall determine whether all taxes 90591 levied under division (D)(1) of this section have been paid, and 90592 if those taxes have been paid, the county auditor shall tax the 90593 manufactured or mobile home pursuant to division (D)(2) of this 90594 section commencing in the next tax year. 90595

(5) A manufactured or mobile home that acquired situs in 90596 this state prior to January 1, 2000, shall be taxed pursuant to 90597 been paid for the home and the home was not exempted from 90599 taxation pursuant to division (E) of this section for the year 90600 for which the taxes were not paid. 90601

(6) (a) Immediately upon receipt of any manufactured home 90602 this section, the county treasurer shall cause to be prepared 90606 and mailed or delivered to each person charged on that duplicate 90607 with taxes, or to an agent designated by such person, the tax 90608 bill prescribed by the tax commissioner under division (D)(7) of 90609 this section. When taxes are paid by installments, the county 90610 treasurer shall mail or deliver to each person charged on such 90611 duplicate or the agent designated by that person a second tax 90612 bill showing the amount due at the time of the second tax 90613 collection. The second half tax bill shall be mailed or 90614 delivered at least twenty days prior to the close of the second 90615 half tax collection period. A change in the mailing address, 90616 electronic mail address, or telephone number of any tax bill 90617 shall be made in writing to the county treasurer. Failure to 90618 receive a bill required by this section does not excuse failure 90619 or delay to pay any taxes shown on the bill or, except as 90620 provided in division (B)(1) of section 5715.39 of the Revised 90621 Code, avoid any penalty, interest, or charge for such delay. 90622

A policy adopted by a county treasurer under division (A) 90623
(2) of section 323.13 of the Revised Code shall also allow any 90624 person required to receive a tax bill under division (D)(6)(a) 90625 of this section to request electronic delivery of that tax bill 90626 in the same manner. A person may rescind such a request in the 90627 same manner as a request made under division (A)(2) of section 90628 323.13 of the Revised Code. The request shall terminate upon a 90629 change in the name of the person charged with the taxes pursuant 90630 to section 4503.061 of the Revised Code. 90631

(b) After delivery of the copy of the delinquent 90632 manufactured home tax list under division (H) of this section, 90633 the county treasurer may prepare and mail to each person in 90634 whose name a home is listed an additional tax bill showing the 90635 total amount of delinquent taxes charged against the home as 90636 shown on the list. The tax bill shall include a notice that the 90637 interest charge prescribed by division (G) of this section has 90638 begun to accrue. 90639

(7) Each tax bill prepared and mailed or delivered under 90640 division (D)(6) of this section shall be in the form and contain 90641 the information required by the tax commissioner. The 90642 commissioner may prescribe different forms for each county and 90643 may authorize the county auditor to make up tax bills and tax 90644 receipts to be used by the county treasurer. The tax bill shall 90645 not contain or be mailed or delivered with any information or 90646 material that is not required by this section or that is not 90647 authorized by section 321.45 of the Revised Code or by the tax 90648 commissioner. In addition to the information required by the 90649 commissioner, each tax bill shall contain the following 90650

information: 90651

(a) The taxes levied and the taxes charged and payable 90652 against the manufactured or mobile home; 90653

(b) The following notice: "Notice: If the taxes are not 90654 paid within sixty days after the county auditor delivers the 90655 delinquent manufactured home tax list to the county treasurer, 90656 you and your home may be subject to collection proceedings for 90657 tax delinquency." Failure to provide such notice has no effect 90658 upon the validity of any tax judgment to which a home may be 90659 subjected. 90660

(c) In the case of manufactured or mobile homes taxed 90661 under division (D) (2) of this section, the following additional 90662
information: 90663

(i) The effective tax rate. The words "effective tax rate" 90664 shall appear in boldface type. 90665

(ii) The following notice: "Notice: If the taxes charged 90666 against this home have been reduced by the 2-1/2 per cent tax 90667 reduction for residences occupied by the owner but the home is 90668 not a residence occupied by the owner, the owner must notify the 90669 county auditor's office not later than March 31 of the year for 90670 which the taxes are due. Failure to do so may result in the owner being convicted of a fourth degree misdemeanor, which is punishable by imprisonment up to 30 days, a fine up to $250, or both, and in the owner having to repay the amount by which the taxes were erroneously or illegally reduced, plus any interest that may apply.

If the taxes charged against this home have not been reduced by the 2-1/2 per cent tax reduction and the home is a residence occupied by the owner, the home may qualify for the tax reduction. To obtain an application for the tax reduction or further information, the owner may contact the county auditor's office at _____ (insert the address and telephone number of the county auditor's office)."

(d) For a manufactured or mobile home, the tax liability of which has been reduced under section 5705.316 of the Revised Code for the current tax year, the following notice: "Notice: The school district taxes shown due on this bill are reduced only for the current year due to the school district's excess carry-over balance."

(E) (1) A manufactured or mobile home is not subject to this section when any of the following applies:

(a) It is taxable as personal property pursuant to section 5709.01 of the Revised Code. Any manufactured or mobile home that is used as a residence shall be subject to this section and shall not be taxable as personal property pursuant to section 5709.01 of the Revised Code.

(b) It bears a license plate issued by any state other than this state unless the home is in this state in excess of an accumulative period of thirty days in any calendar year.

(c) The annual tax has been paid on the home in this state 90700 for the current year. 90701

(d) The tax commissioner has determined, pursuant to 90702 section 5715.27 of the Revised Code, that the property is exempt 90703 from taxation, or would be exempt from taxation under Chapter 90704 5709. of the Revised Code if it were classified as real 90705
property. 90706

(2) A travel trailer or park trailer, as these terms are 90707 defined in section 4501.01 of the Revised Code, is not subject 90708 to this section if it is unused or unoccupied and stored at the 90709 owner's normal place of residence or at a recognized storage 90710 facility. 90711

(3) A travel trailer or park trailer, as these terms are 90712 defined in section 4501.01 of the Revised Code, is subject to 90713 this section and shall be taxed as a manufactured or mobile home 90714 if it has a situs longer than thirty days in one location and is 90715 connected to existing utilities, unless either of the following 90716 applies: 90717

(a) The situs is in a state facility or a camping or park 90718 area as defined in division (C), (Q), (S), or (V) of section 90719
3729.01 of the Revised Code. 90720

(b) The situs is in a camping or park area that is a tract 90721 of land that has been limited to recreational use by deed or 90722 zoning restrictions and subdivided for sale of five or more 90723 individual lots for the express or implied purpose of occupancy 90724 by either self-contained recreational vehicles as defined in 90725 division (T) of section 3729.01 of the Revised Code or by 90726 dependent recreational vehicles as defined in division (D) of 90727
section 3729.01 of the Revised Code. 90728

(F) Except as provided in division (D) (3) of this section, 90729 the manufactured home tax is due and payable as follows: 90730

(1) When a manufactured or mobile home has a situs in this 90731 state, as provided in this section, on the first day of January, 90732 one-half of the amount of the tax is due and payable on or 90733 before the first day of March and the balance is due and payable 90734 on or before the thirty-first day of July. At the option of the 90735 owner of the home, the tax for the entire year may be paid in 90736 full on the first day of March. 90737

(2) When a manufactured or mobile home first acquires a 90738 situs in this state after the first day of January, no tax is 90739 due and payable for that year. 90740

(G) (1) (a) Except as otherwise provided in division (G) (1) 90741
(b) of this section, if one-half of the current taxes charged 90742 under this section against a manufactured or mobile home, 90743 together with the full amount of any delinquent taxes, are not 90744 paid on or before the first day of March in that year, or on or 90745 before the last day for such payment as extended pursuant to 90746 section 4503.063 of the Revised Code, a penalty of ten per cent 90747 shall be charged against the unpaid balance of such half of the 90748 current taxes. If the total amount of all such taxes is not paid 90749 on or before the thirty-first day of July, next thereafter, or 90750 on or before the last day for payment as extended pursuant to 90751 section 4503.063 of the Revised Code, a like penalty shall be 90752 charged on the balance of the total amount of the unpaid current 90753 taxes. 90754

(b) After a valid delinquent tax contract that includes 90755 unpaid current taxes from a first-half collection period 90756 described in division (F) of this section has been entered into 90757 under section 323.31 of the Revised Code, no ten per cent 90758 penalty shall be charged against such taxes after the second- 90759 half collection period while the delinquent tax contract remains 90760 in effect. On the day a delinquent tax contract becomes void, 90761 the ten per cent penalty shall be charged against such taxes and 90762 shall equal the amount of penalty that would have been charged 90763 against unpaid current taxes outstanding on the date on which 90764 the second-half penalty would have been charged thereon under 90765 division (G) (1) (a) of this section if the contract had not been 90766 in effect. 90767

(2) (a) On the first day of the month following the last 90768 day the second installment of taxes may be paid without penalty 90769 beginning in 2000, interest shall be charged against and 90770 computed on all delinquent taxes other than the current taxes 90771 that became delinquent taxes at the close of the last day such 90772 second installment could be paid without penalty. The charge 90773 shall be for interest that accrued during the period that began 90774 on the preceding first day of December and ended on the last day 90775 of the month that included the last date such second installment 90776 could be paid without penalty. The interest shall be computed at 90777 the rate per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised 90778 Code and shall be entered as a separate item on the delinquent 90779 manufactured home tax list compiled under division (H) of this 90780
section. 90781

(b) On the first day of December beginning in 2000, the 90782 interest shall be charged against and computed on all delinquent 90783 taxes. The charge shall be for interest that accrued during the 90784 period that began on the first day of the month following the 90785 last date prescribed for the payment of the second installment 90786 of taxes in the current year and ended on the immediately 90787 preceding last day of November. The interest shall be computed 90788 at the rate per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the 90789

Revised Code and shall be entered as a separate item on the 90790 delinquent manufactured home tax list. 90791

(c) After a valid undertaking has been entered into for 90792 the payment of any delinquent taxes, no interest shall be 90793 charged against such delinquent taxes while the undertaking 90794 remains in effect in compliance with section 323.31 of the 90795 Revised Code. If a valid undertaking becomes void, interest 90796 shall be charged against the delinquent taxes for the periods 90797 that interest was not permitted to be charged while the 90798 undertaking was in effect. The interest shall be charged on the 90799 day the undertaking becomes void and shall equal the amount of 90800 interest that would have been charged against the unpaid 90801 delinquent taxes outstanding on the dates on which interest 90802 would have been charged thereon under divisions (G) (1) and (2) 90803 of this section had the undertaking not been in effect. 90804

(3) If the full amount of the taxes due at either of the 90805 times prescribed by division (F) of this section is paid within 90806 ten days after such time, the county treasurer shall waive the 90807 collection of and the county auditor shall remit one-half of the 90808 penalty provided for in this division for failure to make that 90809 payment by the prescribed time. 90810

(4) The treasurer shall compile and deliver to the county 90811 auditor a list of all tax payments the treasurer has received as 90812 provided in division (G) (3) of this section. The list shall 90813 include any information required by the auditor for the 90814 remission of the penalties waived by the treasurer. The taxes so 90815 collected shall be included in the settlement next succeeding 90816 the settlement then in process. 90817

(H) (1) The county auditor shall compile annually a 90818
"delinquent manufactured home tax list" consisting of homes the 90819 county treasurer's records indicate have taxes that were not 90820 paid within the time prescribed by divisions (D) (3) and (F) of 90821 this section, have taxes that remain unpaid from prior years, or 90822 have unpaid tax penalties or interest that have been assessed. 90823

(2) Within thirty days after the settlement under division 90824
(H) (2) of section 321.24 of the Revised Code, the county auditor 90825 shall deliver a copy of the delinquent manufactured home tax 90826 list to the county treasurer. The auditor shall update and 90827 publish the delinquent manufactured home tax list annually in 90828 the same manner as delinquent real property tax lists are 90829 published. The county auditor may apportion the cost of 90830 publishing the list among taxing districts in proportion to the 90831 amount of delinquent manufactured home taxes so published that 90832 each taxing district is entitled to receive upon collection of 90833 those taxes, or the county auditor may charge the owner of a 90834 home on the list a flat fee established under section 319.54 of 90835 the Revised Code for the cost of publishing the list and, if the 90836 fee is not paid, may place the fee upon the delinquent 90837 manufactured home tax list as a lien on the listed home, to be 90838 collected as other manufactured home taxes. 90839

(3) When taxes, penalties, or interest are charged against 90840 a person on the delinquent manufactured home tax list and are 90841 not paid within sixty days after the list is delivered to the 90842 county treasurer, the county treasurer shall, in addition to any 90843 other remedy provided by law for the collection of taxes, 90844 penalties, and interest, enforce collection of such taxes, 90845 penalties, and interest by civil action in the name of the 90846 treasurer against the owner for the recovery of the unpaid taxes 90847 following the procedures for the recovery of delinquent real 90848 property taxes in sections 323.25 to 323.28 of the Revised Code. 90849
The action may be brought in municipal or county court, provided 90850 the amount charged does not exceed the monetary limitations for 90851 original jurisdiction for civil actions in those courts. 90852

It is sufficient, having made proper parties to the suit, 90853 for the county treasurer to allege in the treasurer's bill of 90854 particulars or petition that the taxes stand chargeable on the 90855 books of the county treasurer against such person, that they are 90856 due and unpaid, and that such person is indebted in the amount 90857 of taxes appearing to be due the county. The treasurer need not 90858 set forth any other matter relating thereto. If it is found on 90859 the trial of the action that the person is indebted to the 90860 state, judgment shall be rendered in favor of the county 90861 treasurer prosecuting the action. The judgment debtor is not 90862 entitled to the benefit of any law for stay of execution or 90863 exemption of property from levy or sale on execution in the 90864 enforcement of the judgment. 90865

Upon the filing of an entry of confirmation of sale or an 90866 order of forfeiture in a proceeding brought under this division, 90867 title to the manufactured or mobile home shall be in the 90868 purchaser. The clerk of courts shall issue a certificate of 90869 title to the purchaser upon presentation of proof of filing of 90870 the entry of confirmation or order and, in the case of a 90871 forfeiture, presentation of the county auditor's certificate of 90872 sale. 90873

(I) The total amount of taxes collected shall be 90874 distributed in the following manner: four per cent shall be 90875 allowed as compensation to the county auditor for the county 90876 auditor's service in assessing the taxes; two per cent shall be 90877 allowed as compensation to the county treasurer for the services 90878 the county treasurer renders as a result of the tax levied by 90879 this section. Such amounts shall be paid into the county 90880 treasury, to the credit of the county general revenue fund, on 90881 the warrant of the county auditor. Fees to be paid to the credit 90882 of the real estate assessment fund shall be collected pursuant 90883 to division (C) of section 319.54 of the Revised Code and paid 90884 into the county treasury, on the warrant of the county auditor. 90885

The balance of the taxes collected shall be distributed among 90886 the taxing subdivisions of the county in which the taxes are 90887 collected and paid in the same proportions that the amount of 90888 manufactured home tax levied by each taxing subdivision of the 90889 county in the current tax year bears to the amount of such tax 90890 levied by all such subdivisions in the county in the current tax 90891 year. The taxes levied and revenues collected under this section 90892 shall be in lieu of any general property tax and any tax levied 90893 with respect to the privilege of using or occupying a 90894 manufactured or mobile home in this state except as provided in 90895 sections 4503.04 and 5741.02 of the Revised Code. 90896

(J) An agreement to purchase or a bill of sale for a 90897 manufactured home shall show whether or not the furnishings and 90898 equipment are included in the purchase price. 90899

(K) If the county treasurer and the county prosecuting 90900 attorney agree that an item charged on the delinquent 90901 manufactured home tax list is uncollectible, they shall certify 90902 that determination and the reasons to the county board of 90903 revision. If the board determines the amount is uncollectible, 90904 it shall certify its determination to the county auditor, who 90905 shall strike the item from the list. 90906

(L) (1) The county auditor shall appraise at its true value 90907 any manufactured or mobile home in which ownership is 90908 transferred or which first acquires situs in this state on or 90909 after January 1, 2000, and any manufactured or mobile home the 90910 owner of which has elected, under division (D) (4) of this 90911 section, to have the home taxed under division (D) (2) of this 90912 section. The true value shall include the value of the home, any 90913 additions, and any fixtures, but not any furnishings in the 90914 home. In determining the true value of a manufactured or mobile 90915 home, the auditor shall consider all facts and circumstances 90916 relating to the value of the home, including its age, its 90917 capacity to function as a residence, any obsolete 90918 characteristics, and other factors that may tend to prove its 90919 true value. 90920

(2) (a) If a manufactured or mobile home has been the 90921 subject of an arm's length sale between a willing seller and a 90922 willing buyer within a reasonable length of time prior to the 90923 determination of true value, the county auditor shall consider 90924 the sale price of the home to be the true value for taxation 90925 purposes. 90926

(b) The sale price in an arm's length transaction between 90927 a willing seller and a willing buyer shall not be considered the 90928 true value of the home if either of the following occurred after 90929 the sale: 90930

(i) The home has lost value due to a casualty. 90931

(ii) An addition or fixture has been added to the home. 90932

(3) The county auditor shall have each home viewed and 90933 appraised at least once in each six-year period in the same year 90934 in which real property in the county is appraised pursuant to 90935 Chapter 5713. of the Revised Code, and shall update the 90936 appraised values in the third calendar year following the 90937 appraisal. The person viewing or appraising a home may enter the 90938 home to determine by actual view any additions or fixtures that 90939 have been added since the last appraisal. In conducting the 90940 appraisals and establishing the true value, the auditor shall 90941 follow the procedures set forth for appraising real property in 90942 sections 5713.01 and 5713.03 of the Revised Code. 90943

(4) The county auditor shall place the true value of each 90944 home on the manufactured home tax list upon completion of an 90945 appraisal. 90946

(5) (a) If the county auditor changes the true value of a 90947 home, the auditor shall notify the owner of the home in writing, 90948 delivered by mail or in person. The notice shall be given at 90949 least thirty days prior to the issuance of any tax bill that 90950 reflects the change. Failure to receive the notice does not 90951 invalidate any proceeding under this section. 90952

(b) Any owner of a home or any other person or party that 90953 would be authorized to file a complaint under division (A) of 90954 section 5715.19 of the Revised Code if the home was real 90955 property may file a complaint against the true value of the home 90956 as appraised under this section. The complaint shall be filed 90957 with the county auditor on or before the thirty-first day of 90958 March of the current tax year or the date of closing of the 90959 collection for the first half of manufactured home taxes for the 90960 current tax year, whichever is later. The auditor shall present 90961 to the county board of revision all complaints filed with the 90962 auditor under this section. The board shall hear and investigate 90963 the complaint and may take action on it as provided under 90964 sections 5715.11 to 5715.19 of the Revised Code. 90965

(c) If the county board of revision determines, pursuant 90966 to a complaint against the valuation of a manufactured or mobile 90967 home filed under this section, that the amount of taxes, 90968 assessments, or other charges paid was in excess of the amount 90969 due based on the valuation as finally determined, then the 90970 overpayment shall be refunded in the manner prescribed in 90971

section 5715.22 of the Revised Code. 90972

(d) Payment of all or part of a tax under this section for 90973 any year for which a complaint is pending before the county 90974 board of revision does not abate the complaint or in any way 90975 affect the hearing and determination thereof. 90976

(M) If the county auditor determines that any tax or other 90977 charge or any part thereof has been erroneously charged as a 90978 result of a clerical error as defined in section 319.35 of the 90979 Revised Code, the county auditor shall call the attention of the 90980 county board of revision to the erroneous charges. If the board 90981 finds that the taxes or other charges have been erroneously 90982 charged or collected, it shall certify the finding to the 90983 auditor. Upon receipt of the certification, the auditor shall 90984 remove the erroneous charges on the manufactured home tax list 90985 or delinquent manufactured home tax list in the same manner as 90986 is prescribed in section 319.35 of the Revised Code for 90987 erroneous charges against real property, and refund any 90988 erroneous charges that have been collected, with interest, in 90989 the same manner as is prescribed in section 319.36 of the 90990 Revised Code for erroneous charges against real property. 90991

(N) As used in this section and section 4503.061 of the 90992
Revised Code: 90993

(1) "Manufactured home taxes" includes taxes, penalties, 90994 and interest charged under division (C) or (G) of this section 90995 and any penalties charged under division (G) or (H) (5) of 90996
section 4503.061 of the Revised Code. 90997

(2) "Current taxes" means all manufactured home taxes 90998 charged against a manufactured or mobile home that have not 90999 appeared on the manufactured home tax list for any prior year. 91000 Current taxes become delinquent taxes if they remain unpaid 91001 after the last day prescribed for payment of the second 91002 installment of current taxes without penalty, whether or not 91003 they have been certified delinquent. 91004

(3) "Delinquent taxes" means: 91005

(a) Any manufactured home taxes that were charged against 91006 a manufactured or mobile home for a prior year, including any 91007 penalties or interest charged for a prior year and the costs of 91008 publication under division (H) (2) of this section, and that 91009 remain unpaid; 91010

(b) Any current manufactured home taxes charged against a 91011 manufactured or mobile home that remain unpaid after the last 91012 day prescribed for payment of the second installment of current 91013 taxes without penalty, whether or not they have been certified 91014 delinquent, including any penalties or interest and the costs of 91015 publication under division (H) (2) of this section. 91016

Sec. 4503.065. (A) (1) Division (A) of this section applies 91017 to any of the following persons: 91018

(a) An individual who is permanently and totally disabled; 91019

(b) An individual who is sixty-five years of age or older; 91020 entered into by the deputy registrar prohibits the acceptance of 91741 such payments by financial transaction device. However, 91742 commencing with deputy registrar contract awards that have a 91743

(3) A motor carrier certificated by the interstate 93794 commerce commission or by the public utilities commission may 93795 demonstrate proof of financial responsibility by providing a 93796 statement designating the motor carrier's operating authority 93797 and averring that the insurance coverage required by the 93798 certificating authority is in full force and effect. 93799

(4) (a) A finding by the registrar or court that a person 93800 is covered by proof of financial responsibility in the form of 93801 an insurance policy or surety bond is not binding upon the named 93802 insurer or surety or any of its officers, employees, agents, or 93803 representatives and has no legal effect except for the purpose 93804 of administering this section. 93805

(b) The preparation and delivery of a financial 93806 responsibility identification card or any other document 93807 authorized to be used as proof of financial responsibility and 93808 the generation and delivery of proof of financial responsibility 93809 to an electronic wireless communications device that is 93810 displayed on the device as text or images does not do any of the 93811

following: 93812

(i) Create any liability or estoppel against an insurer or 93813 surety, or any of its officers, employees, agents, or 93814 representatives; 93815

(ii) Constitute an admission of the existence of, or of 93816 any liability or coverage under, any policy or bond; 93817

(iii) Waive any defenses or counterclaims available to an 93818 insurer, surety, agent, employee, or representative in an action 93819 commenced by an insured or third-party claimant upon a cause of 93820 action alleged to have arisen under an insurance policy or 93821 surety bond or by reason of the preparation and delivery of a 93822 document for use as proof of financial responsibility or the 93823 generation and delivery of proof of financial responsibility to 93824 an electronic wireless communications device. 93825

(c) Whenever it is determined by a final judgment in a 93826 judicial proceeding that an insurer or surety, which has been 93827 named on a document or displayed on an electronic wireless 93828 communications device accepted by a court or the registrar as 93829 proof of financial responsibility covering the operation of a 93830 motor vehicle at the time of an accident or offense, is not 93831 liable to pay a judgment for injuries or damages resulting from 93832 such operation, the registrar, notwithstanding any previous 93833 contrary finding, shall forthwith suspend the operating 93834 privileges and registration rights of the person against whom 93835 the judgment was rendered as provided in division (A) (2) of this 93836

section. 93837

(H) In order for any document or display of text or images 93838 on an electronic wireless communications device described in 93839 division (G)(1) of this section to be used for the demonstration 93840 of proof of financial responsibility under this section, the 93841 document or words or images shall state the name of the insured 93842 or obligor, the name of the insurer or surety company, and the 93843 effective and expiration dates of the financial responsibility, 93844 and designate by explicit description or by appropriate 93845 reference all motor vehicles covered which may include a 93846 reference to fleet insurance coverage. 93847

(I) For purposes of this section, "owner" does not include 93848 a licensed motor vehicle leasing dealer as defined in section 93849 4517.01 of the Revised Code, but does include a motor vehicle 93850 renting dealer as defined in section 4549.65 of the Revised 93851
Code. Nothing in this section or in section 4509.51 of the 93852 Revised Code shall be construed to prohibit a motor vehicle 93853 renting dealer from entering into a contractual agreement with a 93854 person whereby the person renting the motor vehicle agrees to be 93855 solely responsible for maintaining proof of financial 93856 responsibility, in accordance with this section, with respect to 93857 the operation, maintenance, or use of the motor vehicle during 93858 the period of the motor vehicle's rental. 93859

(J) The purpose of this section is to require the 93860 maintenance of proof of financial responsibility with respect to 93861 the operation of motor vehicles on the highways of this state, 93862 so as to minimize those situations in which persons are not 93863 compensated for injuries and damages sustained in motor vehicle 93864 accidents. The general assembly finds that this section contains 93865 reasonable civil penalties and procedures for achieving this 93866 purpose. 93867

(K) Nothing in this section shall be construed to be 93868 subject to section 4509.78 of the Revised Code. 93869

(L) (1) The registrar may terminate any suspension imposed 93870 under this section and not require the owner to comply with 93871 division (A) (5) of this section if the registrar with or without 93872 a hearing determines that the owner of the vehicle has 93873 established by clear and convincing evidence that all of the 93874
following apply: 93875

(a) The owner customarily maintains proof of financial 93876 responsibility. 93877

(b) Proof of financial responsibility was not in effect 93878 for the vehicle on the date in question for one of the following 93879 reasons: 93880

(i) The vehicle was inoperable. 93881

(ii) The vehicle is operated only seasonally, and the date 93882 in question was outside the season of operation. 93883

(iii) A person other than the vehicle owner or driver was 93884 at fault for the lapse of proof of financial responsibility 93885 through no fault of the owner or driver. 93886

(iv) The lapse of proof of financial responsibility was 93887 caused by excusable neglect under circumstances that are not 93888 likely to recur and do not suggest a purpose to evade the 93889 requirements of this chapter. 93890

(2) The registrar may grant an owner or driver relief for 93891 a reason specified in division (L) (1) (b) (iii) or (iv) of this 93892 section only if the owner or driver has not previously been 93893 granted relief under division (L) (1) (b) (iii) or (iv) of this 93894

section. 93895

(M) The registrar shall adopt rules in accordance with 93896 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are necessary to 93897 administer and enforce this section. The rules shall include 93898 provisions relating to acceptable forms of proof of financial 93899 responsibility, the use of an electronic wireless communications 93900 device to present proof of financial responsibility, and 93901 verification of the existence of financial responsibility during 93902 the period of registration. 93903

(N) (1) When a person utilizes an electronic wireless 93904 communications device to present proof of financial 93905 responsibility, only the evidence of financial responsibility 93906 displayed on the device shall be viewed by the registrar, peace 93907 officer, employee or official of the traffic violations bureau, 93908 or the court. No other content of the device shall be viewed for 93909 purposes of obtaining proof of financial responsibility. 93910

(2) When a person provides an electronic wireless 93911 communications device to the registrar, a peace officer, an 93912 employee or official of a traffic violations bureau, or the 93913 court, the person assumes the risk of any resulting damage to 93914 the device unless the registrar, peace officer, employee, or 93915 official, or court personnel purposely, knowingly, or recklessly 93916 commits an action that results in damage to the device. 93917

Sec. 4509.70. (A) After consultation with the insurance 93918 companies authorized to issue automobile liability or physical 93919 damage policies, or both, in this state, the superintendent of 93920 insurance shall approve a reasonable plan, fair and equitable to 93921 the insurers and to their policyholders, for the apportionment 93922 among such companies of applicants for such policies and for 93923 motor-vehicle liability policies who are in good faith entitled 93924 to but are unable to procure such policies through ordinary 93925 methods. When any such plan has been approved by the 93926 superintendent, all such insurance companies shall subscribe and 93927 participate. Any applicant for such policy, any person insured 93928 under such plan of operation, and any insurance company 93929 affected, may appeal to the superintendent of insurance from any 93930 ruling or decision of the manager or committee designated in the 93931 plan to operate the assigned risk insurance plan. Any order or 93932 act of the superintendent under this section is subject to 93933 review as provided in sections 119.01 to 119.13 of the Revised 93934 Code, at the instance of any party in interest. 93935

(B) The plan described in division (A) of this section may 93936 permit the assigned risk insurance plan to directly issue and 93937 process claims arising from such policies described in division 93938
(A) of this section to applicants of automobile insurance 93939 policies who are in good faith entitled to but are unable to 93940 procure such policies through ordinary methods. 93941

(C) Every form of a policy, endorsement, rider, manual of 93942 classifications, rules, and rates, every rating plan, and every 93943 modification of any of them proposed to be used by the assigned 93944 risk insurance plan shall be filed, or the plan may satisfy its 93945 obligation to make such filings, as described in section 3937.03 93946
of the Revised Code. 93947

(D) Any automobile insurance policy issued by the assigned 93948 risk insurance plan under division (B) of this section: 93949

(1) Shall be recognized as if issued by an insurance 93950 company authorized to do business in this state; 93951

(2) Shall meet all requirements of proof of financial 93952 responsibility as described in division (K) of section 4509.01 93953

of the Revised Code. 93954

(E) Proof of financial responsibility provided by the 93955 assigned risk insurance plan to an automobile insurance 93956 policyholder that meets the requirements described in division 93957 (G) (1) (a) or (b) of section 4509.101 of the Revised Code shall 93958 be recognized as if issued by an insurance company authorized to 93959 do business in this state to demonstrate proof of financial 93960 responsibility under section 4509.101 of the Revised Code. 93961

(F) The assigned risk insurance plan designated in 93962 division (A) of this section shall do both of the following: 93963

(1) Make annual audited financial reports available to the 93964 superintendent of insurance promptly upon the completion of such 93965 audit; 93966

(2) Upon reasonable notice, make available to the 93967 superintendent of insurance all books and records relating to 93968 the insurance transactions of the assigned risk insurance plan. 93969

(G) (1) Except as provided in division (G) (2) of this 93970 section, records created, held by, or pertaining to the assigned 93971 risk insurance plan are not public records under section 149.43 93972 of the Revised Code, are confidential, and are not subject to 93973 inspection or disclosure. 93974

(2) Division (G) (1) of this section does not apply to the 93975 plan of operation and other information required to be filed 93976 under this section with the superintendent unless otherwise 93977 prohibited from release by law. 93978

(H) (1) For the purposes of division (H) of this section, 93979
"insurance agent" has the same meaning as in section 3905.01 of 93980
the Revised Code. 93981

(2) Provided that the assigned risk insurance plan 93982 establishes registration procedures for insurance agents under 93983 division (H) (3) of this section, the plan shall not accept an 93984 application for an automobile insurance policy issued under 93985 division (B) of this section unless that application is 93986 submitted through an insurance agent registered in accordance 93987 with those procedures. 93988

(3) The plan may do all of the following: 93989

(a) Establish procedures to register insurance agents; 93990

(b) Establish separate registrations for commercial and 93991 personal insurance agents, or one registration for both; 93992

(c) Empower the manager of the plan to make determinations 93993 on registration status, including by revoking an insurance 93994 agent's registration. 93995

(4) If an insurance agent is denied registration with the 93996 plan, or the insurance agent's registration is revoked, the plan 93997 may notify the superintendent of the plan's decision. The plan 93998 and manager are immune from civil liability for any decision to 93999 deny or revoke registration and from any decision to report 94000 denials or revocations to the superintendent. 94001

(5) All insurance agents submitting applications to the 94002 plan for automobile insurance coverage have an affirmative duty 94003 to ensure that all information included in the application and 94004 any supporting materials is true and accurate. 94005

(6) (a) An insurance agent shall not submit an application 94006 to the plan for automobile insurance coverage unless the agent 94007 exercises due diligence in confirming that the person seeking 94008 insurance is unable to obtain coverage through an insurer 94009 authorized to do business in this state. 94010

(b) For the purposes of this section, due diligence 94011 requires an insurance agent to contact at least five of the 94012 authorized insurers the agent represents or, if the agent does 94013 not represent five authorized insurers that customarily write 94014 automobile insurance coverage, as many of such insurers as the 94015 agent represents. 94016

(c) An insurance agent may assume that insurance coverage 94017 cannot be procured for the applicant through ordinary methods 94018 after each insurer contacted under division (H) (6) (b) of this 94019 section declines to provide coverage. 94020

(d) An insurance agent may assume that an authorized 94021 insurer declines to provide coverage to the applicant seeking 94022 insurance upon either of the following: 94023

(i) Receiving notice from the insurer declining coverage; 94024

(ii) Receiving no response from the insurer within ten 94025 days after the date the insurance agent initially makes contact 94026 with the insurer. 94027

(e) The determination of whether an insurance agent has 94028 adequately complied with the due diligence requirements is at 94029
the discretion of the manager of the plan. 94030

(f) An agent shall not submit an application on behalf of 94031 an applicant to the plan for any automobile insurance policy if 94032 any insurer admitted, authorized, or otherwise eligible to do 94033 business in this state has in any way communicated a willingness 94034 to insure the applicant, even if coverage provided by the plan 94035 costs less than other insurers. 94036

(g) The manager of the plan may revoke the registration of 94037 an insurance agent who fails to comply with division (H) (6) of 94038
this section. 94039
