SYNOPSIS 32

County family and children first council opt-out 33

R.C. 121.37 34

Restores House-added provisions that permit a board of 35 county commissioners to decline to establish or maintain a 36 county family and children first council for the county if it 37 determines all the following conditions exist in the county: 38

-- Alternative programs and services exist to meet the 39 needs of those served by a county council. 40

-- A county council is not or would not be sustainably 41 funded; 42

-- The director of the county department of job and family 43 services, executive director of the public children services 44 agency, and county board of developmental disabilities each 45 recommend a county council not be established or maintained. 46

Permits a board of county commissioners that has decided 47 not to establish or maintain a family and children first council 48 to reconsider that decision at any time but requires it to be 49 reconsidered with five years. 50
