WHEREAS, This prestigious honor is a fitting tribute to Robert Reynolds in recognition of his exemplary contributions to breeding and training bird dogs. A local veterinarian who had hunted with bird dogs for many years, he became a top breeder and trainer for hunt tests and field trials, with several of his animals winning national awards and championships, and he also served as a judge of numerous high-profile field trial events. A member of the Canfield Sportsman Club, he has been active with the German Shorthaired Pointer Club of Ohio since 1998, holding various posts and helping to restart the National German Shorthaired Pointer Association of Ohio Championship in 2008, and he served on the NGSPA Board for six years. He is, indeed, worthy of acknowledgement; and 5
