H. R. No. 60

Representatives Mathews, T., Santucci

A RESOLUTION

To support moving NASA headquarters to Cleveland, Ohio.

1

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

WHEREAS, Ohio is the birthplace of aviation and has produced some of our nation's greatest pioneers in space exploration, including more astronauts than any other state; and

2

3

4

WHEREAS, Ohio continues to lead the nation in aerospace research and development and is home to world-class research institutions such as NASA Glenn Research Center, NASA Neil Armstrong Test Facility, and the Air Force Research Laboratory; and

5

6

7

8

9

WHEREAS, Ohio's highly skilled workforce, robust transportation infrastructure, and developed manufacturing sector make Ohio a strategic location to support NASA's operations; and 10

11

12

13

WHEREAS, Relocating NASA headquarters to Cleveland would honor Ohio's contributions to aerospace and space exploration and best position NASA for sustained success; therefore be it

14

15

16

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the House of Representatives of the 136th General Assembly of Ohio, strongly encourage President Trump, Vice President Vance, and NASA Administrator Designate Isaacman to relocate NASA headquarters

17
