BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 103.52 and 103.53 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows: 5 6

Sec. 103.52. (A) As used in sections 103.52 and 103.53 of the Revised Code: 7 8

(1) "JLEOC" means the joint law enforcement oversight committee created under this section. 9 10

(2) "Peace officer" has the meaning defined in section 109.71 of the Revised Code. 11
12

(B) The joint law enforcement oversight committee (JLEOC) is created. JLEOC shall evaluate training standards and programs required to be completed by any peace officer in the state. 13
14
15

(C) JLEOC shall consist of the following members: 16

(1) Three members of the senate appointed by the president 17 of the senate, two of whom are members of the majority party and 18 one of whom is a member of the minority party; 19

(2) Three members of the house of representatives 20 appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, two of 21 whom are members of the majority party and one of whom is a 22 member of the minority party. 23

(D) The term of each JLEOC member shall begin on the day 24 of appointment to JLEOC and end on the last day that the member 25 serves in the house (in the case of a member appointed by the 26 speaker) or senate (in the case of a member appointed by the 27 president) during the general assembly for which the member is 28 appointed to JLEOC. The president and speaker shall make the 29 initial appointments not later than sixty days after the 30 effective date of this section. The president and speaker shall 31 make subsequent appointments not later than fifteen days after 32 the commencement of the first regular session of each general 33 assembly. JLEOC members may be reappointed. A vacancy on JLEOC 34 shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. 35

(E) In odd-numbered years, the speaker shall designate one 36 of the majority members from the house as the JLEOC chairperson, 37 the president shall designate one of the majority members from 38 the senate as the JLEOC vice-chairperson, and the president 39 shall designate one of the minority members from the senate as 40 the JLEOC ranking minority member. In even-numbered years, the 41 president shall designate one of the majority members from the 42 senate as the JLEOC chairperson, the speaker shall designate one 43 of the majority members from the house as the JLEOC vice- 44 chairperson, and the speaker shall designate one of the minority 45 members from the house as the JLEOC ranking minority member. 46

(F) In appointing members from the minority, and in 47

designating ranking minority members, the president and speaker 48 shall consult with the minority leader of their respective 49 houses. 50

(G) JLEOC shall meet at the call of the JLEOC chairperson. 51
The chairperson shall call JLEOC to meet not less often than 52 once each calendar month, unless the chairperson and ranking 53 minority member agree that the chairperson should not call JLEOC 54 to meet for a particular month. 55

(H) Notwithstanding section 101.26 of the Revised Code, 56 the members, when engaged in their duties as members of JLEOC on 57 days when there is not a voting session of the member's house of 58 the general assembly, shall be paid at the per diem rate of one 59 hundred fifty dollars, and their necessary traveling expenses, 60 which shall be paid from the funds appropriated for the payment 61 of expenses of legislative committees. 62

(I) The JLEOC chairperson may, subject to approval by the 63 speaker of the house of representatives or the speaker's 64 designee and the president of the senate or the president's 65 designee, employ professional, technical, and clerical employees 66 as are necessary for JLEOC to be able, successfully and 67 efficiently, to perform its duties. All such employees are in 68 the unclassified service and may be terminated by the 69 chairperson, subject to approval of the speaker or the speaker's 70 designee and president or the president's designee. JLEOC may 71 contract for the services of persons who are qualified by 72 education and experience to advise, consult with, or otherwise 73 assist JLEOC in the performance of its duties. 74

(J) The JLEOC chairperson, when authorized by JLEOC and 75 the president and speaker, may issue subpoenas and subpoenas 76 duces tecum in aid of JLEOC's performance of its duties. A 77 subpoena may require a witness in any part of the state to 78 appear before JLEOC at a time and place designated in the 79 subpoena to testify. A subpoena duces tecum may require 80 witnesses or other persons in any part of the state to produce 81 books, papers, records, and other tangible evidence before JLEOC 82 at a time and place designated in the subpoena duces tecum. A 83 subpoena or subpoena duces tecum shall be issued, served, and 84 returned, and has consequences, as specified in sections 101.41 85 to 101.45 of the Revised Code. 86

(K) The JLEOC chairperson may administer oaths to 87
witnesses appearing before JLEOC. 88

Sec. 103.53. (A) JLEOC shall do both of the following: 89

(1) Review and evaluate training standards and programs 90 required to be completed by any peace officer in the state; 91

(2) Recommend, to the extent JLEOC determines appropriate, 92 improvements in statutes and rules concerning peace officer 93 training standards and programs. 94

(B) JLEOC may do all of the following: 95

(1) Require that the chairperson of the Ohio peace officer 96 training commission appear before JLEOC to provide information 97 and answer questions about the activities of the Ohio peace 98 officer training commission; 99

(2) Review bills and resolutions regarding the peace 100 officer training standards and programs that are introduced in 101 the general assembly. JLEOC may submit a report of its review of 102 a bill or resolution to the general assembly in accordance with 103 section 101.68 of the Revised Code. The report may include 104 JLEOC's determination regarding the bill's or resolution's 105 desirability as a matter of public policy; JLEOC's decision on 106 whether and when to review a bill or resolution has no effect on 107 the general assembly's authority to act on the bill or 108 resolution. 109

(3) Solicit written comments on, and conduct public 110 hearings at which persons may offer verbal comments on, drafts 111 of its reports. 112

Section 2. All items in this act are hereby appropriated 113 as designated out of any moneys in the state treasury to the 114 credit of the designated fund. For all operating appropriations 115 made in this act, those in the first column are for fiscal year 116 2026 and those in the second column are for fiscal year 2027. 117
The operating appropriations made in this act are in addition to 118 any other operating appropriations made for these fiscal years. 119

the Revised Code, in the performance of its duty of evaluating 127 training standards and programs required to be completed by any 128 peace officer in the state. 129

Section 4. Within the limits set forth in this act, the 130
Director of Budget and Management shall establish accounts 131 indicating the source and amount of funds for each appropriation 132 made in this act, and shall determine the manner in which 133 appropriation accounts shall be maintained. Expenditures from 134 operating appropriations contained in this act shall be 135 accounted for as though made in, and are subject to all 136 applicable provisions of, the main operating appropriations act 137 of the 136th General Assembly. 138
