voting marks, the ballot shall be returned immediately to the 10
board of elections; otherwise, the elector shall cause the 11 ballot to be marked, folded in a manner that the stub on it and 12 the indorsements and facsimile signatures of the members of the 13 board of elections on the back of it are visible, and placed and 14 sealed within the identification envelope received from the 15 board of elections for that purpose. Then, the elector shall 16 cause the statement of voter on the outside of the 17 identification envelope to be completed and signed, under 18

(d) Only a bipartisan team of election officials may open 67 a secure receptacle or handle its contents. A bipartisan team of 68 election officials shall collect the contents of each secure 69 receptacle and deliver them to the board for processing at least 70 once each day and at seven-thirty p.m. on the day of the 71 election. If, at seven-thirty p.m. on the day of the election, 72 there are persons waiting in line to deposit absent voter's 73
