Chairman Wiggam, Vice Chair John, Ranking Member Kelly, and member of the House State and Local Government Committee:

My name is Kathryn Przywara. I am a graduate of the University of Notre Dame and the Maurer School of Law at Indiana University. I am licensed to practice law in the state of Ohio and the District of Columbia. After practicing law for nearly 35 years, I retired in 2019. I am a reliable voter. As a wife, mother, grandmother, attorney and Ohioan, I strongly oppose HB 62 for several obvious reasons. First, it clearly is unconstitutional in violation of the Supremacy Clause. Moreover, it jeopardizes public safety by encouraging armed criminal behavior, by creating confusion and by tying the hands of local law enforcement. I urge you and the members of your committee to discontinue hearing on HB 62 and to spend your time considering more productive legislation that would make Ohio a better place to live and raise a family. Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathryn Przywara
