

Since the increase registration fee on EV (electric Vehicles) went into effect, this discriminatory tax has become an increasing burden to those people who are attempting to curb the pollution caused by gasoline powered means of transportation. This bill corrects a wrong imposed upon those who must continue to pay gas tax and $200 registration fees.