

Sub Bill-4

- Promotional Play:
  - Deleted language dealing with traditional casino promotional play
  - Added caps on promotional play credits in regards to sports gaming:
    - First 5 years there shall be no tax deduction allowed for promotional play credits
    - Years 6-10 it shall not exceed more than 10%
    - Years eleven and thereafter shall not exceed 20%
- The total amount of Management Service Provider's a Type A license holder may hold is two
  - They all shall apply for one, after a year they may apply for a second
  - Both Type A, Type B, and a Management Service Providers shall pay a $500k fee in year 2 and 3 of the license
    - That money goes to education and problem gaming
- Type A license holders shall not make trades, or selling sports betting rights, access, or benefits in other states
- Added language which requires the name of the Type A license holder to appear on the Management Service Provider mobile app
- Language was added to include additional guardrails on integrity monitoring and testing equipment labs
- Added E-sports to games that may be wagered and defined E-sports
- Added additional guardrails clarifying that events that include athletes or participants who are under the age of 18 are prohibited
- Added that horse racing may be wagered on in sports gaming apps and in Type B establishments
- Adds language in regards to prohibiting certain persons from placing wagers on sports
- Added language which matches current law in regards to holding winnings from patron's in respect to state income tax, muni income tax, past due child or spousal support, amounts owed to state or political subdivision to also apply to sports gaming winnings
- Increased from 15% to 25% the amount an institutional investor may invest in a casino and other entities in regards to sports gaming
- Definition change of sports gaming agent to sports gaming proprietor
- Minor changes to definitions of sports gaming equipment and sports gaming supplier

- E-Bingo: each establishment may have up to 6 machines
  - Added language further defining the machines
  - A seal must be added to the machines by the AG clarifying that they have been tested and deemed not a slot machine
  - The AG shall in consultation work with OCCC to determine that they are not slot machines