A BILL

regard to a park district.

Section 1. That section 1545.06 of the Revised Code be	4
amended to read as follows:	5
Sec. 1545.06. (A) Any park commissioner may be removed at	6
the discretion of the probate judge, either upon complaint filed	7 with such judge or upon his the judge's own motion. No such	8 removal shall be made without giving such commissioner not less	9
than ten days' notice and a full opportunity to be heard in-his-	10 the commissioner's own behalf in a public hearing. The order	11
removing such commissioner shall state the reasons therefor and	12 shall be entered upon the records of the probate court. In case	13 of such removal, or in case of other vacancy in the office of	14
commissioner, the vacancy shall be filled by the judge by	15
appointment for the unexpired term.	16
(B) A probate court may do any of the following with	17
regard to a park district created by an order of the court:	18

(1) Enforce the court's order that created the park

district;	20
(2) Issue an order compelling compliance with this	21
<pre>chapter;</pre>	22
	0.2
(3) Investigate matters involving the park district either	23
through a court hearing or through a special master commissioner	24 appointed pursuant to section 2101.06 of the Revised Code, if a	25 written request is made to the court by a majority of the board	26
of park commissioners;	27
(4) Tax the cost of proceedings, including special master	28
commissioner investigation fees, as court costs to be assessed	29
by the court in its discretion.	30
(C) Before taking any action authorized under division (B)	31 of this section, the probate court shall give prior written	32 notice to any person or party affected by the action. The court	33 shall conduct a hearing on the matter if a hearing is requested	34 in writing by such person or party. The probate court also may	35 conduct a hearing on its own motion. If a hearing is scheduled,	36
the court shall provide notice of the time and place of the	37 hearing to all affected persons and parties. The court shall	38 provide the notice not less than twenty-eight days prior to the	39
hearing.	40
(D) The probate court may order that a person become a	41
party to a proceeding concerning a park district if the person's	42 presence as a party is necessary to enable the court to make a	43 decision fairly and effectively in the proceeding. The probate	44
court shall give such person notice of its intention to make the	45 person a party. The court shall conduct a hearing prior to	46 issuing the order if requested in writing by the person. The	47 probate court also may conduct a hearing on its own motion. The	48

court shall provide notice of the hearing in the manner	49
prescribed in division (C) of this section.	50
(E) The probate court may order that a party to a	51
proceeding concerning a park district is no longer a party if	52
either of the following applies:	53
elemen of the rottowing applies.	33
(1) The person's presence is not necessary to enable the	54
court to make a decision fairly and effectively in the	55
<pre>proceeding; or</pre>	56
(2) The court determines that the person should not be a	57
party to the proceeding for any other reason.	58
(F) Nothing in this section authorizes a probate court to	59
take any action that infringes upon any rights of an individual	60
or organization that are protected by the United States	61
Constitution or the Ohio Constitution.	62
(G) A probate court shall not impede or interfere with the	63
daily operations of a park district created under this chapter	64
or the maintenance of the park district's property unless such	65 maintenance or operations are in violation of this chapter or	66
the order of the court that created the park district.	67
(H) Any actions taken by the probate court authorized	68
under division (B)(1) or (2) of this section are limited to	69
injunctive relief or a declaratory judgment.	70
(I) As used in this section, "party" means any person who	71
is the subject of a probate court proceeding or investigation,	72 and any other person specifically designated by the court. The	73 entity that submits a petition to the probate court for the	74
creation of a park district under this chapter is a party,	75
unless otherwise designated by the court.	76
