March 1, 2022. Of the initial appointments made by the president	155 of the senate, at least two, but not more than three, shall be	156 for terms ending March 1, 2019, at least one, but not more than	157
two, shall be for terms ending March 1, 2020, at least one, but	158 not more than two, shall be for terms ending March 1, 2021, and	159
two shall be for terms ending March 1, 2022. The initial	160 appointments made by the director shall be for terms ending	161
March 1, 2022. The initial appointment made by the commission	162
chairperson shall be for a term ending March 1, 2020.	163
Thereafter, except for the term of office for the council	164
chairperson, terms of office shall be for four years, with each	165 term ending on the same day of the same month as the term that	166
it succeeds. The term of office for the council chairperson	167 shall be for two years, with the term ending on the same day of	168
the same month as the term it succeeds.	169
Each member of the council shall hold office from the date	170 of appointment until the end of the term for which the member	171 was appointed. Members may be reappointed. Vacancies shall be	172 filled in the manner provided for original appointments. Any	173 member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the	174 expiration date of the term for which the member's predecessor	175 was appointed shall hold office as a member for the remainder of	176 that term. A member shall continue in office subsequent to the	177 expiration date of the term until the member's successor takes	178 office or until a period of sixty days has elapsed, whichever	179 occurs first.	180
(C) Members of the council shall serve without	181
compensation but shall be reimbursed for the actual and	182 necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official	183 duties.	184

Sec. 103.36. (A) The long-range financial outlook council	185
annually shall:	186
(1) Conduct regular reviews of the current fiscal position	187
of the state, including the state debt and debt service, and	188 establish a method for a long-range financial projection at the	189 state level in order to help maintain the state's financial	190 stability between fiscal years and avoid future budget problems;	191
(2) Integrate baseline projections of the budget	192
requirements of the major programs comprising the state's budget	193 with revenue estimates for the state based on current law;	194
(3) Analyze the state's long-range financial outlook for	195
the purpose of providing impartial, accurate information to	196 assist the general assembly in establishing the state's biennial	197
<pre>budget;</pre>	198
(4) Study economic forecasts for the state;	199
(5) Review the demographics of the state;	200
(6) Request information from state agencies about their	201
financial status and projections for the next four fiscal years;	202
(7) Determine the accuracy of financial projections in	203
previous long-range financial outlook reports issued pursuant to	204
section 103.38 of the Revised Code.	205
(B) State agencies, including the office of budget and	206 management, shall cooperate with the council and provide	207
information based on current law to the council as requested.	208
(C) The council may study other issues that the council	209
determines have the potential to temporarily or permanently	210
affect the financial outlook of the state.	211

Sec. 103.37. The long-range financial outlook council	212 shall meet at the call of the chairperson and shall conduct	213 public hearings at which interested parties, including state	214
agency representatives, may submit testimony about the financial	215
<pre>outlook of the state.</pre>	216
Sec. 103.38. (A) Upon completion of the review and	217
analysis required under section 103.36 of the Revised Code, but	218 not later than September 1, 2018, and the first of September	219 annually thereafter, the long-range financial outlook council	220 shall issue a long-range financial outlook report, including an	221 executive summary, of its findings. The report shall include,	222
but shall not be limited to, the following information agreed to	223
by council consensus and based on current law and demographic	224
and other factors as specified by the council:	225
(1) Projections of future financial needs of the state for	226
the next four fiscal years;	227
(2) Projections of future resources of the state;	228
(3) Actual revenues for the previous three fiscal years	229
and revenue estimates for the next four fiscal years;	230
(4) A review of both revenue estimates and projections for	231
the budget requirements and expenditures of major state-funded	232 programs;	233
(5) Per agency workload estimates for state agencies.	234
(B) The Ohio legislative service commission shall conduct	235
research and provide staffing and technical assistance for the	236
<pre>council.</pre>	237
(C) Upon request of the commission, the office of budget	238
and management and all other state agencies shall provide all	239

readily available information based on current law to the	240
commission.	241
(D) Each year upon the adoption of the report by a	242
majority of the council members, the council shall do the	243
<pre>following:</pre>	244
(1) Publish the latest report on the web sites of the	245
general assembly, the commission, and the office of budget and	246
<pre>management;</pre>	247
(2) Submit the report to the general assembly and the	248
executive summary of the report to the clerk of the house of	249
representatives.	250
Sec. 103.39. Beginning in 2019 and annually thereafter,	251
the general assembly shall meet in joint convention, not later	252 than January 31, for the purpose of receiving the most recent	253 long-range financial outlook report issued by the long-range	254
financial outlook council pursuant to section 103.38 of the	255
Revised Code. The clerk of the house of representatives or a	256 person designated by the clerk shall read the executive summary	257
of the report at the joint convention.	258
Sec. 107.036. As part of the governor's executive budget	259 proposal submitted biennially to the general assembly pursuant	260 to section 107.03 of the Revised Code, the governor shall	261 include a review of the most recent long-range financial outlook	262 report adopted by the long-range financial outlook council along	263
with recommendations for revisions to the report.	264
Section 2. That existing sections 101.82 and 103.13 of the	265
Revised Code are hereby repealed.	266
