As Introduced

132nd General Assembly

Regular Session 2017-2018

H. B. No. 542

Representative Kelly

Cosponsors: Representatives Howse, Henne, Riedel, Ramos, Antonio, Ashford, Seitz, Ingram, Boggs, Arndt, Smith, K., Lepore-Hagan, Boccieri, Strahorn, Sykes, West, Brown

A BILL

To enact section 4113.14 of the Revised Code to	1
require an employer to provide earnings and	2 deductions statements to each of the employer's	3
employees.	4

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That section 4113.14 of the Revised Code be	5
enacted to read as follows:	6
Sec. 4113.14. (A) As used in this section:	7
(1) "Employee" and "employer" have the same meanings as in	8
section 4113.51 of the Revised Code.	9
(2) "Regular hourly wage rate" means the following:	10
(a) For an employee who is paid on an hourly basis, the	11
hourly wage rate at which the employee is customarily paid when	12 working for an employer;	13
(b) For an employee who is not paid on an hourly basis,	14
one-fortieth of the weekly wage rate at which the employee is	15

customarily paid when working for an employer.	16
(3) "Workweek" means a fixed, regularly recurring period	17
of one hundred sixty-eight hours that an employer expressly	18
adopts for purposes of complying with the "Fair Labor Standards	19
Act of 1938," 29 U.S.C. 207, as amended.	20
(B) Every employer shall provide each of the employer's	21
employees with a written or electronic statement or access to a	22 statement of the employee's earnings and deductions for each pay	23 period on the employer's regular paydays. An employer shall	24 include all of the following information in the statement:	25
(1) The employee's name;	26
(2) The employee's address;	27
(3) The employer's name;	28
(4) The total number of hours the employee worked each	29
workweek covered in that pay period;	30
(5) The employee's regular hourly wage rate;	31
(6) The employee's hourly wage rate for any hours worked	32
in excess of forty hours in one workweek;	33
(7) The total gross wages earned by the employee during	34
the pay period;	35
(8) The total net wages paid to the employee for the pay	36
period;	37
(9) A listing of the amount and purpose of each addition	38
to or deduction from the wages paid to the employee during the	39
pay period;	40
(10) The date the employee was paid and the pay period	41
covered by that payment.	42

(C) An employer is not required to include the information43described in division (B) (6) of this section on a statement44required under division (B) of this section if either of the45following apply to an employee:46(1) The employee is exempt from the requirements of47section 7 of the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 29 U.S.C.48207, as amended, or section 4111.03 of the Revised Codez49(2) The employee is granted compensatory time off for any50hours worked in excess of forty hours in one workweek.51(D) An employee who does not receive a statement as52required by division (B) of this section shall make a written53request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The54employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later55than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64 required under division (B) of this section if either of the following apply to an employee:45following apply to an employee:46(1) The employee is exempt from the requirements of section 7 of the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 29 U.S.C.48207, as amended, or section 4111.03 of the Revised Code;49(2) The employee is granted compensatory time off for any hours worked in excess of forty hours in one workweek.50(D) An employee who does not receive a statement as required by division (B) of this section shall make a written request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The statement not later53than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period, the employee may submit a report of the violation to the director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a wiolation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	(C) An employer is not required to include the information	43 following apply to an employee: 46   (1) The employee is exempt from the requirements of 47   section 7 of the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 29 U.S.C. 48   207, as amended, or section 4111.03 of the Revised Code; 49   (2) The employee is granted compensatory time off for any 50   hours worked in excess of forty hours in one workweek. 51   (D) An employee who does not receive a statement as 52   required by division (B) of this section shall make a written 53   request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The 54   employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later 55   than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does 56   not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period, 57   the employee may submit a report of the violation to the 58   director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director 59   determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a 60   violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to 61   the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer 62   shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a 63   conspicuous place	described in division (B)(6) of this section on a statement	44
(1) The employee is exempt from the requirements of47section 7 of the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 29 U.S.C.48207, as amended, or section 4111.03 of the Revised Code;49(2) The employee is granted compensatory time off for any50hours worked in excess of forty hours in one workweek.51(D) An employee who does not receive a statement as52required by division (B) of this section shall make a written53request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The54employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later55than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	required under division (B) of this section if either of the	45
section 7 of the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 29 U.S.C. 48   207, as amended, or section 4111.03 of the Revised Code; 49   (2) The employee is granted compensatory time off for any 50   hours worked in excess of forty hours in one workweek. 51   (D) An employee who does not receive a statement as 52   required by division (B) of this section shall make a written 53   request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The 54   employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later 55   than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does 56   not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period, 57   the employee may submit a report of the violation to the 58   director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director 59   determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a 60   violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to 61   the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer 62   shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a 63   conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall 64	following apply to an employee:	46
section 7 of the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 29 U.S.C. 48   207, as amended, or section 4111.03 of the Revised Code; 49   (2) The employee is granted compensatory time off for any 50   hours worked in excess of forty hours in one workweek. 51   (D) An employee who does not receive a statement as 52   required by division (B) of this section shall make a written 53   request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The 54   employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later 55   than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does 56   not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period, 57   the employee may submit a report of the violation to the 58   director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director 59   determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a 60   violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to 61   the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer 62   shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a 63   conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall 64	(1) The employee is exempt from the requirements of	47
207, as amended, or section 4111.03 of the Revised Code;49(2) The employee is granted compensatory time off for any hours worked in excess of forty hours in one workweek.50(D) An employee who does not receive a statement as52required by division (B) of this section shall make a written53request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The54employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later55than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64
(2) The employee is granted compensatory time off for any50hours worked in excess of forty hours in one workweek.51(D) An employee who does not receive a statement as52required by division (B) of this section shall make a written53request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The54employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later55than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	section 7 of the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 29 U.S.C.	48 hours worked in excess of forty hours in one workweek.51(D) An employee who does not receive a statement as52required by division (B) of this section shall make a written53request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The54employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later55than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	207, as amended, or section 4111.03 of the Revised Code;	49
(D) An employee who does not receive a statement as52required by division (B) of this section shall make a written53request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The54employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later55than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	(2) The employee is granted compensatory time off for any	50
required by division (B) of this section shall make a written53request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The54employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later55than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	hours worked in excess of forty hours in one workweek.	51
required by division (B) of this section shall make a written53request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The54employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later55than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64 request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The54employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later55than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	(D) An employee who does not receive a statement as	52 employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later55than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	required by division (B) of this section shall make a written	53
than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does56not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	request to the employee's employer to receive the statement. The	54
not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,57the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	employer shall provide the employee with the statement not later	55
the employee may submit a report of the violation to the58director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	than ten days after receiving the request. If the employee does	56
director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director59determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	not receive the requested statement within the ten-day period,	57 determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a60violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	the employee may submit a report of the violation to the	58 violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to61the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	director of commerce. If, on receipt of a report, the director	59
the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer62shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a	60 shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a63conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall64	violation exists, the director shall issue a written notice to	61 conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall 64	the employee's employer. On receipt of a notice, the employer	62 shall immediately post the notice, or a copy of the notice, in a	63 keep the notice posted for ten days. 65	conspicuous place on the employer's premises. The employer shall	64 keep the notice posted for ten days.	65