H. B. No. 332

Representatives West, Denson

A BILL

To amend section 2744.09 and to enact section 1 2307.48 of the Revised Code to provide that 2 qualified immunity does not apply in civil 3 actions against peace officers employed by a 4 political subdivision who, under color of law, 5 subject any individual to a deprivation of 6 rights and to provide for indemnification by the 7 political subdivision of a peace officer against 8 whom judgment is found. 9

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That section 2744.09 be amended and section 10
2307.48 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows: 11

Sec. 2307.48. (A) As used in this section: 12

(1) "Individual rights" means all rights of an individual 13 that are secured by Article I of the Ohio Constitution, and that 14 create binding obligations on government actors to protect those 15 rights. 16

(2) "Peace officer" means a peace officer, as defined in 17 section 2935.01 of the Revised Code, who is employed by a 18 political subdivision, whether full-time or part-time. 19

(3) "Political subdivision" has the same meaning as in 20
section 2744.01 of the Revised Code. 21

(4) "Qualified immunity" means a defense to, or an 22 immunity from, a civil action for damages for injury, death, or 23 loss to person, injunctive relief, or other appropriate relief 24 against any peace officer based on the officer's act or 25 omission, or failure to intervene in another peace officer's act 26 or omission, as described in division (B) (1) of this section, if 27 that act or omission or failure to intervene does not violate a 28 clearly established individual right or clearly established law 29 that implements the individual right of which a reasonable 30 person would have known. 31

(B) (1) Subject to division (B) (2) of this section and 32 except as provided in division (B) (3) of this section, any peace 33 officer who, under color of law, and by the officer's act or 34 omission in the course of the performance of the officer's 35 official responsibilities, subjects or causes to be subjected 36 any other individual to the deprivation of that individual's 37 individual rights is liable to that individual in an action for 38 damages for injury, death, or loss to person or for injunctive 39 relief or any other appropriate relief. Subject to division (B) 40
(2) of this section and except as provided in division (B) (3) of 41 this section, any peace officer who fails to intervene in 42 another peace officer's act or omission as described in division 43
(B) (1) of this section is liable in an action for damages for 44 injury, death, or loss to person or for injunctive relief or any 45 other appropriate relief. 46

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, 47 qualified immunity or any immunity or defense provided by any 48 section of the Revised Code does not apply as an immunity from, 49 or a defense to, any action described in division (B)(1) of this section. 50 51

(3) Chapter 2744. of the Revised Code does not apply to any action brought under division (B)(1) of this section. 52
53

(C)(1) If the court enters judgment in favor of the plaintiff who brings an action under division (B)(1) of this section, the court shall award to the plaintiff any recoverable compensatory and punitive or exemplary damages if the action is for damages and any reasonable attorney's fees and court costs incurred by the plaintiff in any action described in that division. 54

65
67

(D)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subject to division (D)(2) of this section and except as provided in division (F) of this section, the political subdivision that employs a peace officer shall indemnify and hold harmless the peace officer in the amount of any judgment or settlement, other than a judgment for punitive or exemplary damages, that is obtained against the officer in an action brought under this section. 68
69
70
71
72
73
74
75

(2) If the political subdivision that employs a peace officer against whom an action is brought under this section determines that the officer did not act upon a good faith and 76
77
78

reasonable belief that the officer's act or omission was lawful 79 or the officer's failure to intervene in another peace officer's 80 act or omission was lawful, the peace officer is personally 81 liable pursuant to any judgment or settlement entered against 82 the peace officer. The political subdivision that employs that 83 peace officer shall not indemnify the officer under division (D) 84
(2) of this section for five per cent of the amount of the 85 judgment or settlement or twenty-five thousand dollars, 86 whichever is less. 87

(E) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the 88 contrary, if the judgment or settlement or any portion of the 89 judgment or settlement entered against the peace officer is 90 uncollectible from the officer, the peace officer's employer or 91 employer's liability insurance shall satisfy the amount of the 92 judgment or settlement that is so uncollectible. 93

(F) The political subdivision that employs a peace officer 94 shall not indemnify the officer under division (D) of this 95 section if the peace officer was convicted of or pleaded guilty 96 to a criminal offense for the officer's act or omission, or for 97 the officer's failure to intervene in another peace officer's 98 act or omission, that gave rise to the claim in an action 99 brought under this section. 100

(G) A civil action under this section shall be commenced 101 within two years after the cause of action accrues. 102

Sec. 2744.09. This chapter does not apply to, and shall 103 not be construed to apply to, the following: 104

(A) Civil actions that seek to recover damages from a 105 political subdivision or any of its employees for contractual 106 liability; 107

(B) Civil actions by an employee, or the collective bargaining representative of an employee, against ~~his~~the employee's political subdivision relative to any matter that arises out of the employment relationship between the employee and the political subdivision;

(C) Civil actions by an employee of a political subdivision against the political subdivision relative to wages, hours, conditions, or other terms of ~~his~~ employment;

(D) Civil actions by sureties, and the rights of sureties, under fidelity or surety bonds;

(E) Civil claims based upon alleged violations of the constitution or statutes of the United States, except that the provisions of section 2744.07 of the Revised Code shall apply to such claims or related civil actions;

(F) Civil actions brought under section 2307.48 of the Revised Code against a peace officer who is employed by a political subdivision.

Section 2. That existing section 2744.09 of the Revised Code is hereby repealed.
