A BILL

To provide a one-time bonus award to eligible first responders and to make an appropriation. 1
2

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. (A) As used in this section: 3

(1) "Employer" means the state or any agency or instrumentality of the state, and any municipal corporation, county, township, school district, or other political subdivision or any agency or instrumentality thereof. 4
5
7

(2) "First responder" means all of the following: 8

(a) A regular police officer employed by a municipal corporation or township; 9
10

(b) A regular firefighter employed by a municipal corporation, township, or joint fire district; 11
12

(c) A qualified employee in the uniform division of the State Highway Patrol; 13
14

(d) A county deputy sheriff; 15

(e) An investigator, as defined in section 109.541 of the Revised Code, of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation who is commissioned by the superintendent of the bureau as a special agent for the purpose of assisting law enforcement officers or providing emergency assistance to peace officers pursuant to authority granted under that section;

(f) A jail officer as described in section 341.05 of the Revised Code;

(g) A volunteer firefighter as defined in section 146.01 of the Revised Code;

(h) An individual employed by an employer in a position that requires a certificate issued under section 4765.30 of the Revised Code to practice as a first responder, emergency medical technician-basic, emergency medical technician-intermediate, or emergency medical technician paramedic, whether paid or volunteer.

(3) "State agency" has the same meaning as in section 1.60 of the Revised Code.

(B) The One-Time Bonus Awards to Pandemic First Responders Program is created to provide one-time bonus awards to eligible first responders. A first responder is eligible to receive a one-time bonus award under this section if, with respect to the period beginning March 1, 2020, and ending on the date on which the first responder's employer submits a certification under division (D) of this section, the first responder meets both of following requirements:

(1) The first responder has continuously been employed as a first responder by any employer;

(2) The first responder was not subject to any form of disciplinary action, including a written reprimand, suspension, 45 dismissal, or voluntary or involuntary demotion associated with 46

a disciplinary action. 47

(C) (1) An eligible first responder shall receive a one- 48
time bonus award in the following amounts: 49

(a) For a full-time first responder, one thousand dollars; 50

(b) For a part-time first responder, volunteer 51 firefighter, or first responder described in division (A) (2) (h) 52 who performs services for the employer on a volunteer basis, 53
five hundred dollars. 54

(2) An eligible first responder employed on a full-time 55
basis at any time during the time period described in division 56
(B) of this section shall receive the one-time bonus award of 57
one thousand dollars under this section, regardless of whether 58
the first responder serves in a full-time position at the time 59
the employer issues the award. 60

(D) Not later than thirty days after the effective date of 61
this section, each employer that employs an eligible first 62 responder shall certify both of the following to the Attorney 63
General in accordance with any guidelines the Attorney General 64
establishes under division (F) of this section: 65

(1) The number of first responders employed by the 66
employer who meet the eligibility requirements under division 67
(B) of this section to receive a one-time bonus award; 68

(2) The award amount for which each eligible first 69
responder qualifies under division (C) of this section. 70

(E) (1) Not later than ninety days after the effective date 71
of this section, the Attorney General shall distribute the 72

appropriate funds to each employer that submitted a 73 certification under division (D) of this section in accordance 74
with any guidelines the Attorney General establishes under 75 division (F) of this section. 76

(2) On the Attorney General distributing the funds, each 77
employer that receives funds shall, as soon as administratively 78 practicable, issue the one-time bonus award to each eligible 79
first responder. 80

(F) (1) The Attorney General may do either of the 81
following: 82

(a) Require any employer to provide the Attorney General 83
with any information necessary to carry out the Attorney 84
General's duties under this section, including payroll and 85
employment records; 86

(b) Establish guidelines regarding either of the 87
following: 88

(i) The certification requirement described in division 89
(D) of this section, including the manner by which each employer 90
shall submit a certification under that division; 91

(ii) The manner by which the Attorney General shall 92
distribute funds under division (E) (1) of this section. 93

(2) The Attorney General shall not establish eligibility 94
requirements that are in addition to the requirements described 95 in division (B) of this section for a first responder to receive 96
a one-time bonus award. 97

(G) No award issued under this section shall be considered 98
earnable salary for purposes of Chapter 145. of the Revised 99
Code, salary for purposes of Chapter 742. of the Revised Code, 100 or salary for purposes of Chapter 5505. of the Revised Code. 101

(H) Eligibility for, the amount of, and payment of a one- 102 time bonus award under this section are not appropriate subjects 103 of bargaining under Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code. 104

(I) The Auditor of State may audit the program created 105
under this section, including any spending by an employer under 106
it against an employer's payroll and employment records, with 107 respect to either of the following: 108

(1) The certification an employer submits to the Attorney 109
General under division (D) of this section; 110

(2) Any one-time bonus award an employer issues to a first 111
responder under this section. 112

Section 2. All items in this section are hereby 113 appropriated as designated out of any moneys in the state 114 treasury to the credit of the designated fund. For all 115 appropriations made in this act, those in the first column are 116
for fiscal year 2022 and those in the second column are for 117 fiscal year 2023. The appropriations made in this act are in 118 addition to any other appropriations made for the FY 2022-FY 119
2023 biennium. 120
