

I am very opposed to this hindrance to developing renewable energy in Ohio. With the urgency for climate action to avoid the worst disasters for our children and grandchildren, we need to promote renewables every way we can. Renewables also will provide badly needed jobs and reduce the health effects of pollution. Ohio's economy can benefit from being a leader in renewables.