enacted to read as follows: 23

Sec. 101.15. (A) As used in this section: 24

(1) "Caucus" means all of the members of either house of 25 the general assembly who are members of the same political 26 party. 27

(2) "Committee" means any committee of either house of the 28 general assembly, a joint committee of both houses of the 29 general assembly, including a committee of conference, or a 30 subcommittee of any committee listed in division (A)(2) of this 31
section. 32

(3) "Meeting" means any prearranged discussion of the 33 public business of a committee by a majority of its members. 34

(B) Except as otherwise provided in division (F) of this 35 section, all meetings of any committee are declared to be public 36 meetings open to the public at all times. The secretary assigned 37 to the chairperson of the committee shall prepare, file, and 38 maintain the minutes of every regular or special meeting of a 39 committee. The committee, at its next regular or special 40 meeting, shall approve the minutes prepared, filed, and 41 maintained by the secretary, or, if the minutes prepared, filed, 42 and maintained by the secretary require correction before their 43 approval, the committee shall correct and approve the minutes at 44 the next following regular or special meeting. The committee 45 shall make the minutes available for public inspection not later 46 than seven days after the meeting the minutes reflect or not 47 later than the committee's next regular or special meeting, 48 whichever occurs first. 49

(C) Each committee shall establish a reasonable method 50 whereby any person may determine the time and place of all 51 regularly scheduled meetings and the time, place, and purpose of 52 all special meetings. No committee shall hold a regular or 53 special meeting unless it gives at least twenty-four hours' 54 advance notice to the news media that have requested 55
notification. 56

The method established by each committee shall provide 57 that, upon request and payment of a reasonable fee, any person 58 may obtain reasonable advance notification of all meetings at 59 which any specific type of public business will be discussed. 60 Provisions for advance notification may include, but are not 61 limited to, mailing the agenda of meetings to all subscribers on 62 a mailing list or mailing notices in self-addressed stamped 63 envelopes provided by the person who desires advance 64
notification. 65

(D) Any action of a committee relating to a bill or 66 resolution, or any other formal action of a committee, is 67 invalid unless taken in an open meeting of the committee. Any 68 action of a committee relating to a bill or resolution, or any 69 other formal action of a committee, taken in an open meeting is 70 invalid if it results from deliberations in a meeting not open 71 to the public. 72

(E) (1) Any person may bring an action to enforce this 73 section. An action under this division shall be brought within 74 two years after the date of the alleged violation or threatened 75 violation. Upon proof of a violation or threatened violation of 76 this section in an action brought by any person, the court of 77 common pleas shall issue an injunction to compel the members of 78 the committee to comply with its provisions. 79

(2) (a) If the court of common pleas issues an injunction 80 under division (E) (1) of this section, the court shall order the 81 committee that it enjoins to pay a civil forfeiture of five 82 hundred dollars to the party that sought the injunction and 83 shall award to that party all court costs and, subject to 84 reduction as described in this division, reasonable attorney's 85 fees. The court, in its discretion, may reduce an award of 86 attorney's fees to the party that sought the injunction or not 87 award attorney's fees to that party if the court determines both 88 of the following: 89

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory 90 law and case law as it existed at the time of the violation or 91 threatened violation that was the basis of the injunction, a 92 well-informed committee reasonably would believe that the 93 committee was not violating or threatening to violate this 94
section; 95

(ii) That a well-informed committee reasonably would 96 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct that was the 97 basis of the injunction would serve the public policy that 98 underlies the authority that is asserted as permitting that 99 conduct or threatened conduct. 100

(b) If the court of common pleas does not issue an 101 injunction under division (E) (1) of this section and the court 102 determines at that time that the bringing of the action was 103 frivolous conduct as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 104 of the Revised Code, the court shall award to the committee all 105 court costs and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the 106 court. 107

(3) Irreparable harm and prejudice to the party that 108 sought the injunction shall be conclusively and irrebuttably 109 presumed upon proof of a violation or threatened violation of 110 this section. 111

(4) A member of a committee who knowingly violates an 112 injunction issued under division (E)(1) of this section may be 113 removed from office by an action brought in the court of common 114 pleas for that purpose by the prosecuting attorney of Franklin 115 county or by the attorney general. 116

(5) The remedies described in divisions (E)(1) to (4) of 117 this section shall be the exclusive remedies for a violation of 118 has been clearly designated to the public official or employee 2248 as confidential when that confidential designation is warranted 2249 because of the status of the proceedings or the circumstances 2250 behalf of an elected public officer or other public official or 2298 employee who seeks elective office shall be considered to accrue 2299 ordinarily to the public official or employee for the purposes 2300 of divisions (D), (E), and (F) of this section. 2301

As used in this division, "contributions," "campaign 2302 committee," "political party," "legislative campaign fund," 2303 "political action committee," and "political contributing 2304 entity" have the same meanings as in section 3517.01 of the 2305 who is required to file a financial disclosure statement under 2311 section 102.02 of the Revised Code shall solicit or accept, and 2312 no person shall give to that public official or employee, an 2313

section, this division and divisions (D), (E), and (F) of this 2315 section do not prohibit a public official or employee who is 2316 required to file a financial disclosure statement under section 2317 payment of actual travel expenses, including any expenses 2320 incurred in connection with the travel for lodging, and meals, 2321 food, and beverages provided to the public official or employee 2322 at a meeting at which the public official or employee 2323 participates in a panel, seminar, or speaking engagement or 2324 provided to the public official or employee at a meeting or 2325 convention of a national organization to which any state agency, 2326 including, but not limited to, any state legislative agency or 2327 state institution of higher education as defined in section 2328 3345.011 of the Revised Code, pays membership dues. Except as 2329 provided in division (H) (2) of this section, this division and 2330 divisions (D), (E), and (F) of this section do not prohibit a 2331 public official or employee who is not required to file a 2332 financial disclosure statement under section 102.02 of the 2333 Revised Code from accepting and do not prohibit a person from 2334 promising or giving to that public official or employee an 2335 honorarium or the payment of travel, meal, and lodging expenses 2336 which the public official or employee serves. 2347

(2) No person who is a member of the board of a state 2348 retirement system, a state retirement system investment officer, 2349 or an employee of a state retirement system whose position 2350 involves substantial and material exercise of discretion in the 2351 investment of retirement system funds shall solicit or accept, 2352 travel, meals, and lodging, expenses, or reimbursement is not of 2361 such a character as to manifest a substantial and improper 2362 that person's duties. The house of representatives and senate, 2364 in their code of ethics, and the Ohio ethics commission, under 2365 section 111.15 of the Revised Code, may adopt rules setting 2366 standards and conditions for the furnishing and acceptance of 2367 such travel, meals, and lodging, expenses, or reimbursement. 2368

A person who acts in compliance with this division and any 2369 applicable rules adopted under it, or any applicable, similar 2370 rules adopted by the supreme court governing judicial officers 2371 and employees, does not violate division (D), (E), or (F) of 2372 this section. This division does not preclude any person from 2373 seeking an advisory opinion from the appropriate ethics 2374 commission under section 102.08 of the Revised Code. 2375

(J) For purposes of divisions (D), (E), and (F) of this 2376 section, the membership of a public official or employee in an 2377 organization shall not be considered, in and of itself, to be of 2378
such a character as to manifest a substantial and improper 2379 influence on the public official or employee with respect to 2380 that person's duties. As used in this division, "organization" 2381 means a church or a religious, benevolent, fraternal, or 2382 organization, or otherwise holds a fiduciary relationship with 2388 an organization. This division does not allow a public official 2389 or employee who is a member of an organization to participate, 2390 formally or informally, in deliberations, discussions, or voting 2391 on a matter or to use the public official's or employee's 2392 official position with regard to the interests of the 2393 organization on the matter if the public official or employee 2394 has assumed a particular responsibility in the organization with 2395 respect to the matter or if the matter would affect that 2396 person's personal, pecuniary interests. 2397

(K) It is not a violation of this section for a 2398 operator, management company, holding company, casino facility, 2423

As used in this division, "passive investing" means 2427 investment by the public official or employee by means of a 2428 mutual fund in which the public official or employee has no 2429 control of the investments or investment decisions. "Casino operator," "holding company," "management company," "casino facility," and "gaming-related vendor" have the same meanings as in section 3772.01 of the Revised Code.

(M) A member of the Ohio casino control commission, the executive director of the commission, or an employee of the commission shall not:

the Revised Code, if the information sought is directly relevant 2536 to a complaint or charges received by the commission pursuant to 2537 this section. This information is confidential, except that the 2538 commission, in its discretion, may share information gathered in 2539 the course of any investigation with, or disclose the 2540 information to, the inspector general, any appropriate 2541 prosecuting authority, any law enforcement agency, or any other 2542 appropriate ethics commission. If the accused person is a member 2543 of the public employees retirement board, state teachers 2544 constitute a violation of division (C) or (D) of section 102.07 2573 or section 102.02, ~~102.021~~, 102.03, 102.04, ~~102.07~~, ~~102.10~~, 2574

~~(C)(1)(a)~~ (C)(1)(a)(i) If, upon the basis of the hearing, 2593 the appropriate ethics commission finds by a preponderance of 2594 the evidence that the facts alleged in the complaint are true 2595 and constitute a violation of division (C) or (D) of section 2596
102.07 or section 102.02, ~~102.021, 102.03, 102.04, 102.07,~~ 2597
2921.42, ~~or 2921.43,~~ or 4901.022 of the Revised Code, it shall 2598 report its findings to the appropriate prosecuting authority for 2599 proceedings in prosecution of the violation and to the 2600 authority has not initiated any official action on those 2611 findings within ninety days after receiving the commission's 2612 report of them, the commission may publicly comment that no 2613 official action has been taken on its findings, except that the 2614 commission shall make no comment in violation of the Rules of 2615 Criminal Procedure or about any indictment that has been sealed 2616 pursuant to any law or those rules. The commission shall make no 2617 a fine upon the accused person in an amount equal to the amount 2627 of compensation or other payment the person received in 2628

(2) If the appropriate ethics commission does not find by 2630 a preponderance of the evidence that the facts alleged in the 2631 complaint are true and constitute a violation of division (C) or 2632
(D) of section 102.07 or section 102.02, ~~102.021, 102.03,~~ 2633
102.04, ~~102.07, 102.10,~~ 2921.42, ~~or 2921.43,~~ or 4901.022 of the 2634 Revised Code or if the commission has not scheduled a hearing 2635 within ninety days after the complaint is filed or has not 2636 finally disposed of the complaint within six months after it has 2637 been heard, it shall dismiss the complaint and notify the 2638 accused person in writing of the dismissal of the complaint. The 2639 commission shall not make a report of its finding unless the 2640 accused person requests a report. Upon the request of the 2641 accused person, the commission shall make a public report of the 2642 finding, but in this case all evidence and the record of the 2643 hearing shall remain confidential unless the accused person also 2644 requests that the evidence and record be made public. Upon 2645 request by the accused person, the commission shall make the 2646 evidence and the record available for public inspection. 2647

(D) The appropriate ethics commission, or a member of the 2648
