

I believe having a license is very important! Going to school helps you learn everything that is needed to be successful. And helps you understand how mandatory it is to follow infection control guidelines.

- Chyna Williams