73

the proceedings. A person identified in a complaint or motion 74 filed by a party to the proceedings as a proposed legal 75 custodian shall be awarded legal custody of the child only if 76 the person identified signs a statement of understanding for 77 legal custody that contains at least the following provisions: 78

(a) That it is the intent of the person to become the 79 legal custodian of the child and the person is able to assume 80 legal responsibility for the care and supervision of the child; 81

(b) That the person understands that legal custody of the 82 child in question is intended to be permanent in nature and that 83 the person will be responsible as the custodian for the child 84 until the child reaches the age of majority. Responsibility as 85 custodian for the child shall continue beyond the age of 86 majority if, at the time the child reaches the age of majority, 87 education under standards adopted by the state board of 96 education, whichever occurs first. 97

(c) That the parents of the child have residual parental 98 rights, privileges, and responsibilities, including, but not 99 affirm that the person understands the effect of the 106 custodianship before the court, and to answer any questions that 107 the court or any parties to the case may have. 108

(4) Commit the child to the permanent custody of a public 109 children services agency or private child placing agency, if the 110 court determines in accordance with division (E) of section 111 2151.414 of the Revised Code that the child cannot be placed 112 with one of the child's parents within a reasonable time or 113 should not be placed with either parent and determines in 114 accordance with division (D) (1) of section 2151.414 of the 115 Revised Code that the permanent commitment is in the best 116 interest of the child. If the court grants permanent custody 117 under this division, the court, upon the request of any party, 118 shall file a written opinion setting forth its findings of fact 119 and conclusions of law in relation to the proceeding. 120

(5) Place the child in a planned permanent living 121 arrangement with a public children services agency or private 122 child placing agency, if a public children services agency or 123 private child placing agency requests the court to place the 124 child in a planned permanent living arrangement and if the court 125 finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that a planned 126 permanent living arrangement is in the best interest of the 127 child, that the child is sixteen years of age or older, and that 128
one of the following exists: 129

(a) The child, because of physical, mental, or 130 psychological problems or needs, is unable to function in a 131
family-like setting and must remain in residential or 132 institutional care now and for the foreseeable future beyond the 133 date of the dispositional hearing held pursuant to section 134 2151.35 of the Revised Code. 135

(b) ~~The child is sixteen years of age or older, the~~ 136 parents of the child have significant physical, mental, or 137 psychological problems and are unable to care for the child 138 because of those problems, adoption is not in the best interest 139 of the child, as determined in accordance with division (D) (1) 140 of section 2151.414 of the Revised Code, and the child retains a 141 significant and positive relationship with a parent or relative. 142

(c) ~~The child is sixteen years of age or older,~~ has been 143 counseled on the permanent placement options available to the 144 child, and is unwilling to accept or unable to adapt to a 145 permanent placement. 146

(6) Order the removal from the child's home until further 147 order of the court of the person who committed abuse as 148 described in section 2151.031 of the Revised Code against the 149 child, who caused or allowed the child to suffer neglect as 150 described in section 2151.03 of the Revised Code, or who is the 151 parent, guardian, or custodian of a child who is adjudicated a 152 dependent child and order any person not to have contact with 153 the child or the child's siblings. 154

(B) (1) When making a determination on whether to place a 155 child in a planned permanent living arrangement pursuant to 156 division (A) (5) (b) or (c) of this section, the court shall 157 consider all relevant information that has been presented to the 158 court, including information gathered from the child, the 159 child's guardian ad litem, and the public children services 160 agency or private child placing agency. 161

(2) A child who is placed in a planned permanent living 162 arrangement pursuant to division (A) (5) (b) or (c) of this 163 section shall be placed in an independent living setting or in a 164 family setting in which the caregiver has been provided by the 165 agency that has custody of the child with a notice that 166 addresses the following: 167

(a) The caregiver understands that the planned permanent 168 living arrangement is intended to be permanent in nature and 169 that the caregiver will provide a stable placement for the child 170 through the child's emancipation or until the court releases the 171 child from the custody of the agency, whichever occurs first. 172

(b) The caregiver is expected to actively participate in 173 the youth's independent living case plan, attend agency team 174 meetings and court hearings as appropriate, complete training, 175 as provided in division (B) of section 5103.035 of the Revised 176 Code, related to providing the child independent living 177 services, and assist in the child's transition into adulthood. 178

(3) The department of job and family services shall 179 develop a model notice to be provided by an agency that has 180 custody of a child to a caregiver under division (B) (2) of this 181 section. The agency may modify the model notice to apply to the 182 needs of the agency. 183

(C) No order for permanent custody or temporary custody of 184 a child or the placement of a child in a planned permanent 185 living arrangement shall be made pursuant to this section unless 186 the complaint alleging the abuse, neglect, or dependency 187 contains a prayer requesting permanent custody, temporary 188 custody, or the placement of the child in a planned permanent 189 living arrangement as desired, the summons served on the parents 190 of the child contains as is appropriate a full explanation that 191 the granting of an order for permanent custody permanently 192 divests them of their parental rights, a full explanation that 193 an adjudication that the child is an abused, neglected, or 194 dependent child may result in an order of temporary custody that 195 will cause the removal of the child from their legal custody 196 until the court terminates the order of temporary custody or 197 permanently divests the parents of their parental rights, or a 198 full explanation that the granting of an order for a planned 199 permanent living arrangement will result in the removal of the 200 child from their legal custody if any of the conditions listed 201 in divisions (A) (5) (a) to (c) of this section are found to 202 exist, and the summons served on the parents contains a full 203 explanation of their right to be represented by counsel and to 204 have counsel appointed pursuant to Chapter 120. of the Revised 205

Code if they are indigent. 206

If after making disposition as authorized by division (A) 207
(2) of this section, a motion is filed that requests permanent 208 custody of the child, the court may grant permanent custody of 209 the child to the movant in accordance with section 2151.414 of 210
the Revised Code. 211

(D) If the court issues an order for protective 212 supervision pursuant to division (A) (1) of this section, the 213 court may place any reasonable restrictions upon the child, the 214 child's parents, guardian, or custodian, or any other person, 215 including, but not limited to, any of the following: 216

(1) Order a party, within forty-eight hours after the 217 issuance of the order, to vacate the child's home indefinitely 218 or for a specified period of time; 219

(2) Order a party, a parent of the child, or a physical 220 custodian of the child to prevent any particular person from 221 having contact with the child; 222

(3) Issue an order restraining or otherwise controlling 223 the conduct of any person which conduct would not be in the best 224 interest of the child. 225

(E) As part of its dispositional order, the court shall 226 journalize a case plan for the child. The journalized case plan 227 shall not be changed except as provided in section 2151.412 of 228
the Revised Code. 229

(F)(1) The court shall retain jurisdiction over any child 230 for whom the court issues an order of disposition pursuant to 231 division (A) of this section or pursuant to section 2151.414 or 232 2151.415 of the Revised Code until the child attains the age of 233 eighteen years if the child is not mentally retarded, 234 developmentally disabled, or physically impaired, the child 235 attains the age of twenty-one years if the child is mentally 236 retarded, developmentally disabled, or physically impaired, or 237 the child is adopted and a final decree of adoption is issued, 238 except that the court may retain jurisdiction over the child and 239 continue any order of disposition under division (A) of this 240 section or under section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the Revised 241 Code for a specified period of time to enable the child to 242 graduate from high school or vocational school. The court shall 243 retain jurisdiction over a person who meets the requirements 244 described in division (A)(1) of section 5101.1411 of the Revised 245 Code and who is subject to a voluntary participation agreement 246 that is in effect. The court shall make an entry continuing its 247 jurisdiction under this division in the journal. 248

(2) Any public children services agency, any private child 249 placing agency, the department of job and family services, or 250 any party, other than any parent whose parental rights with 251 respect to the child have been terminated pursuant to an order 252 issued under division (A) (4) of this section, by filing a motion 253 with the court, may at any time request the court to modify or 254 terminate any order of disposition issued pursuant to division 255

(A) of this section or section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the 256 Revised Code. The court shall hold a hearing upon the motion as 257 if the hearing were the original dispositional hearing and shall 258 give all parties to the action and the guardian ad litem notice 259 of the hearing pursuant to the Juvenile Rules. If applicable, 260 the court shall comply with section 2151.42 of the Revised Code. 261

(G) Any temporary custody order issued pursuant to 262 division (A) of this section shall terminate one year after the 263 earlier of the date on which the complaint in the case was filed 264 or the child was first placed into shelter care, except that, 265 upon the filing of a motion pursuant to section 2151.415 of the 266 Revised Code, the temporary custody order shall continue and not 267 terminate until the court issues a dispositional order under 268 that section. In resolving the motion, the court shall not order 269 an existing temporary custody order to continue beyond two years 270 after the date on which the complaint was filed or the child was 271 first placed into shelter care, whichever date is earlier, 272 regardless of whether any extensions have been previously 273 ordered pursuant to division (D) of section 2151.415 of the 274
Revised Code. 275

(H) (1) No later than one year after the earlier of the 276 date the complaint in the case was filed or the child was first 277 placed in shelter care, a party may ask the court to extend an 278 order for protective supervision for six months or to terminate 279 the order. A party requesting extension or termination of the 280 order shall file a written request for the extension or 281 termination with the court and give notice of the proposed 282 extension or termination in writing before the end of the day 283

after the day of filing it to all parties and the child's guardian ad litem. If a public children services agency or private child placing agency requests termination of the order, the agency shall file a written status report setting out the facts supporting termination of the order at the time it files the request with the court. If no party requests extension or termination of the order, the court shall notify the parties that the court will extend the order for six months or terminate it and that it may do so without a hearing unless one of the parties requests a hearing. All parties and the guardian ad litem shall have seven days from the date a notice is sent pursuant to this division to object to and request a hearing on the proposed extension or termination.

(a) If it receives a timely request for a hearing, the court shall schedule a hearing to be held no later than thirty days after the request is received by the court. The court shall give notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing to all parties and the guardian ad litem. At the hearing, the court shall determine whether extension or termination of the order is in the child's best interest. If termination is in the child's best interest, the court shall terminate the order. If extension is in the child's best interest, the court shall extend the order for six months.

the expiration of the applicable fourteen-day time period and 315 give notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing to 316 all parties and the child's guardian ad litem. At the hearing, 317 the court shall determine whether extension or termination of 318 the order is in the child's best interest. If termination is in 319 the child's best interest, the court shall terminate the order. 320
If extension is in the child's best interest, the court shall 321 issue an order extending the order for protective supervision 322 six months. 323

(2) If the court grants an extension of the order for 324 protective supervision pursuant to division (H)(1) of this 325 section, a party may, prior to termination of the extension, 326 file with the court a request for an additional extension of six 327 months or for termination of the order. The court and the 328 parties shall comply with division (H)(1) of this section with 329 respect to extending or terminating the order. 330

(3) If a court grants an extension pursuant to division 331
(H)(2) of this section, the court shall terminate the order for 332 protective supervision at the end of the extension. 333

(I) The court shall not issue a dispositional order 334 pursuant to division (A) of this section that removes a child 335 from the child's home unless the court complies with section 336 2151.419 of the Revised Code and includes in the dispositional 337 order the findings of fact required by that section. 338

(J) If a motion or application for an order described in 339 division (A)(6) of this section is made, the court shall not 340 issue the order unless, prior to the issuance of the order, it 341 provides to the person all of the following: 342

(1) Notice and a copy of the motion or application; 343

(2) The grounds for the motion or application;	344
(3) An opportunity to present evidence and witnesses at a hearing regarding the motion or application;	345 346
(4) An opportunity to be represented by counsel at the hearing.	347 348
(K) The jurisdiction of the court shall terminate one year after the date of the award or, if the court takes any further action in the matter subsequent to the award, the date of the latest further action subsequent to the award, if the court awards legal custody of a child to either of the following:	349 350 351 352 353
(1) A legal custodian who, at the time of the award of legal custody, resides in a county of this state other than the county in which the court is located;	354 355 356
(2) A legal custodian who resides in the county in which the court is located at the time of the award of legal custody, but moves to a different county of this state prior to one year after the date of the award or, if the court takes any further action in the matter subsequent to the award, one year after the date of the latest further action subsequent to the award.	357 358 359 360 361 362
The court in the county in which the legal custodian resides then shall have jurisdiction in the matter.	363 364
Sec. 2151.415. (A) Except for cases in which a motion for permanent custody described in division (D) (1) of section 2151.413 of the Revised Code is required to be made, a public children services agency or private child placing agency that has been given temporary custody of a child pursuant to section 2151.353 of the Revised Code, not later than thirty days prior to the earlier of the date for the termination of the custody order pursuant to division (H) of section 2151.353 of the	365 366 367 368 369 370 371 372

Revised Code or the date set at the dispositional hearing for 373 the hearing to be held pursuant to this section, shall file a 374 motion with the court that issued the order of disposition 375 requesting that any of the following orders of disposition of 376 the child be issued by the court: 377

(1) An order that the child be returned home and the 378 custody of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian without 379 any restrictions; 380

(2) An order for protective supervision; 381

(3) An order that the child be placed in the legal custody 382 of a relative or other interested individual; 383

(4) An order permanently terminating the parental rights 384 of the child's parents; 385

(5) An order that the child be placed in a planned 386 permanent living arrangement; 387

(6) In accordance with division (D) of this section, an 388 order for the extension of temporary custody. 389

(B) Upon the filing of a motion pursuant to division (A) 390 of this section, the court shall hold a dispositional hearing on 391 the date set at the dispositional hearing held pursuant to 392 section 2151.35 of the Revised Code, with notice to all parties 393 to the action in accordance with the Juvenile Rules. After the 394 dispositional hearing or at a date after the dispositional 395 hearing that is not later than one year after the earlier of the 396 date on which the complaint in the case was filed or the child 397 was first placed into shelter care, the court, in accordance 398 with the best interest of the child as supported by the evidence 399 presented at the dispositional hearing, shall issue an order of 400 disposition as set forth in division (A) of this section, except 401 that all orders for permanent custody shall be made in 402 accordance with sections 2151.413 and 2151.414 of the Revised 403 Code. In issuing an order of disposition under this section, the 404 court shall comply with section 2151.42 of the Revised Code. 405

(C) (1) If an agency pursuant to division (A) of this 406 section requests the court to place a child into a planned 407 permanent living arrangement, the agency shall present evidence 408 to indicate why a planned permanent living arrangement is 409 appropriate for the child, including, but not limited to, 410 evidence that the agency has tried or considered all other 411 possible dispositions for the child. A court shall not place a 412 child in a planned permanent living arrangement, unless it 413
finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that a planned 414
permanent living arrangement is in the best interest of the 415
child, that the child is sixteen years of age or older, and that 416
one of the following exists: 417

(a) The child, because of physical, mental, or 418
psychological problems or needs, is unable to function in a 419
family-like setting and must remain in residential or 420
institutional care. 421

(b) The parents of the child have significant physical, 422 mental, or psychological problems and are unable to care for the 423 child because of those problems, adoption is not in the best 424 interest of the child, as determined in accordance with division 425
(D) (1) of section 2151.414 of the Revised Code, and the child 426 retains a significant and positive relationship with a parent or 427 relative; 428

(c) The child ~~is sixteen years of age or older,~~ has been 429 counseled on the permanent placement options available, is 430 unwilling to accept or unable to adapt to a permanent placement, 431 and is in an agency program preparing for independent living. 432

(2) If the court issues an order placing a child in a 433 planned permanent living arrangement, both of the following 434 apply: 435

(a) The court shall issue a finding of fact setting forth 436 the reasons for its finding; 437

(b) The agency may make any appropriate placement for the 438 child and shall develop a case plan for the child that is 439 designed to assist the child in finding a permanent home outside 440 of the home of the parents. 441

(D) (1) If an agency pursuant to division (A) of this 442 section requests the court to grant an extension of temporary 443 custody for a period of up to six months, the agency shall 444 include in the motion an explanation of the progress on the case 445 plan of the child and of its expectations of reunifying the 446 child with the child's family, or placing the child in a 447 permanent placement, within the extension period. The court 448 shall schedule a hearing on the motion, give notice of its date, 449 time, and location to all parties and the guardian ad litem of 450 the child, and at the hearing consider the evidence presented by 451 the parties and the guardian ad litem. The court may extend the 452 temporary custody order of the child for a period of up to six 453 months, if it determines at the hearing, by clear and convincing 454 evidence, that the extension is in the best interest of the 455
