(1) A requirement that both the obligor and the obligee 296 obtain private health insurance coverage for the children if 297 coverage is available for the children at a reasonable cost to 298 for coordination of medical benefits without unnecessary 300 duplication of coverage. 301

(2) A requirement that the obligee obtain private health 302 insurance coverage for the children if coverage is available 303 through any group policy, contract, or plan available to the 304

(3) A requirement that the obligor obtain private health 307 agency shall determine if the private health insurance coverage 319 is available at a reasonable cost and if coverage is reasonable, 320 division (B) (2) or (3) shall apply, as applicable. 321

(C) When a child support order is issued or modified, and 322 the obligor's gross income is one hundred fifty per cent or more 323 of the federal poverty level for an individual, the order shall 324 include the amount of cash medical support to be paid by the 325 expenditure per child as determined in accordance with federal 329 law and regulation, whichever is the lower amount. The amount of 330 cash medical support paid by the obligor shall be paid during 331 any period after the court or child support enforcement agency 332 issues or modifies the order in which the children are not 333 covered by private health insurance. 334

(D) Any cash medical support paid pursuant to division (C) 335 medicaid expenditures if the children are ~~Medicaid~~ medicaid 339 recipients. The child support enforcement agency administering 340 the court or administrative order shall amend the amount of 341 monthly child support obligation to reflect the amount paid when 342 private health insurance is not provided, as calculated in the 343 current order pursuant to section 3119.022 or 3119.023 of the 344

Revised Code, as applicable. 345

The child support enforcement agency shall give the 346 obligor notice in accordance with Chapter 3121. of the Revised 347 Code and provide the obligor an opportunity ~~to be heard for an~~ 348 administrative hearing if the obligor believes there is a 349 mistake of fact regarding the availability of private health 350 insurance at a reasonable cost as determined under division (B) 351 of this section. The obligor shall file a written request for 352 the administrative hearing with the agency not later than 353 fourteen days after the notice is issued. 354

(E) The obligor shall begin payment of any cash medical 355 support on the first day of the month immediately following the 356 month in which private health insurance coverage is unavailable 357 or terminates and shall cease payment on the last day of the 358 month immediately preceding the month in which private health 359 insurance coverage begins or resumes. During the period when 360 cash medical support is required to be paid, the obligor or 361 obligee must immediately inform the child support enforcement 362 agency that health insurance coverage for the children has 363 become available. 364

Sec. 3119.38. A person who receives a notice of medical 365 later than ~~seven business~~ fourteen days after the date on which 373 any other individual the agency determines appropriate written 380 notice of the date, time, place, and purpose of the hearing. The 381 notice to the person and any other appropriate individual also 382 shall indicate that the person may present testimony and 383 evidence at the hearing only in regard to the issue of whether a 384 mistake of fact has been made in the national medical support 385 notice. 386

At the hearing, the agency shall determine whether there 387 is a mistake of fact in the national medical support notice. The 388 days after the agency ~~makes~~issues its determination, the person 391 files a written motion with the court for a hearing to determine 392 support notice. 394

If an agency's determination becomes final under this 395 section, the agency shall take further action as required by 396 section 3119.41 of the Revised Code. 397

Sec. 3119.43. If the person required to obtain health 398

Code of 1986," 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C. 1, as amended. If the 759 parties agree on which parent should claim the children as 760 dependents, the court shall designate that parent as the parent 761 who may claim the children. If the parties do not agree, the 762 court, in its order, may permit the parent who is not the 763 residential parent and legal custodian to claim the children as 764 dependents for federal income tax purposes only if the court 765 determines that this furthers the best interest of the children 766 and, with respect to orders the court modifies, reviews, or 767 reconsiders, the payments for child support are substantially 768 current as ordered by the court for the year in which the 769 children will be claimed as dependents. In cases in which the 770 parties do not agree which parent may claim the children as 771 dependents, the court shall consider, in making its 772 determination, any net tax savings, the relative financial 773 circumstances and needs of the parents and children, the amount 774 of time the children spend with each parent, the eligibility of 775 either or both parents for the federal earned income tax credit 776 or other state or federal tax credit, and any other relevant 777 factor concerning the best interest of the children. 778

If the court determines that the parent who is not the 779 residential parent and legal custodian may claim the children as 780 dependents for federal income tax purposes, it shall order the 781 residential parent to take whatever action is necessary pursuant 782 to section 152 of the "Internal Revenue Code of 1986," 100 Stat. 783 2085, 26 U.S.C. 1, as amended, to enable the parent who is not 784 the residential parent and legal custodian to claim the children 785 as dependents for federal income tax purposes in accordance with 786 the order of the court. Any willful failure of the residential 787 parent to comply with the order of the court is contempt of 788 court. 789

Sec. 3119.87. The parent who is the residential parent and 790 legal custodian of a child for whom a child support order is 791 issued or the person who otherwise has custody of a child for 792 whom a child support order is issued immediately shall notify, 793 and the obligor under a child support order may notify, the 794 child support enforcement agency administering the child support 795 order of any reason for which the child support order should 796 terminate. Nothing in this section shall preclude a person from 797 notifying the agency that a reason for which a child support 798 order should terminate is imminent. With respect to a court 799 child support order, a willful failure to notify the ~~child-~~ 800 ~~support enforcement~~ agency as required by this division is 801 contempt of court. 802

Sec. 3119.88. (A) Reasons for which a child support order 803 should terminate through the administrative process under 804 section 3119.89 of the Revised Code include all of the 805 continuously attends such a high school after attaining that 811 age; 812

~~(B)~~ (2) The child ceasing ceases to attend an accredited 813 high school on a full-time basis after attaining the age of 814

~~(C)~~ (3) A termination condition specified in the court 818 child support order has been met for a child who reaches 819 nineteen years of age; 820

Code; 833

(13) Marriage of the obligor under a child support order 834 of the court, unless otherwise prohibited by law. 841

Sec. 3119.89. (A) Upon receipt of a notice pursuant to 842 section 3119.87 of the Revised Code, the child support 843 enforcement agency administering a child support order, within 844 twenty days after receipt of the notice, shall complete an 845 investigation if an application for services under Title IV-D of 846 the "Social Security Act," 88 Stat. 2351 (1975), 42 U.S.C. 651, 847 as amended has been completed and filed. The agency 848 administering a child support order may conduct an investigation 849 upon its own initiative if it otherwise has reason to believe 850 that there may be a reason for which the order should terminate. 851 Nothing in sections 3119.86 to 3119.94 of the Revised Code shall 852 preclude the agency from initiating an investigation under this 853 section before a reason for which the order should terminate has 854 occurred. The agency's investigation shall determine the 855 following: 856

- (1) Whether any reason exists for which the order should 857 terminate; 858
