5325.06, 5325.07, 5325.08, 5325.081, 5325.09, 3
5325.10, 5325.13, 5325.14, 5325.15, 5325.17, and 4 5325.18 of the Revised Code to regulate the 5 reselling of public utility service. 6

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 4781.401, 5311.082, 5321.061, 7
5325.01, 5325.02, 5325.021, 5325.04, 5325.05, 5325.06, 5325.07, 8
5325.08, 5325.081, 5325.09, 5325.10, 5325.13, 5325.14, 5325.15, 9 5325.17, and 5325.18 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as 10 follows: 11

Sec. 4781.401. A park operator shall comply with Chapter 12
5325. of the Revised Code. 13

Sec. 5311.082. A unit owners association shall comply with 14
Chapter 5325. of the Revised Code. 15

Sec. 5321.061. A landlord shall comply with Chapter 5325. 16
of the Revised Code. 17

Sec. 5325.01. As used in this chapter: 18

(A) "Consumer" means a resident, tenant, or unit owner.	19
(B) "Landlord" and "tenant" have the same meanings as in	20
section 5321.01 of the Revised Code.	21
(C) "Park operator" and "resident" have the same meanings	22
as in section 4781.01 of the Revised Code.	23
(D) "Proprietor" means a landlord, park operator, unit	24
owners association, or other person or entity that has an	25
ownership interest in the property or in facilities at the	26
property, as applicable.	27
(E) "Proprietor's agent" means any person or entity that	28
provides public utility service or billing services related to	29
public utility service to consumers for or on behalf of a	30
proprietor.	31
(F) "Public utility service" includes service provided by	32
an electric company, natural gas company, water-works company,	33
or sewage disposal system company, but excludes a municipal	34
corporation and cooperative.	35
(G) "Ratio utility billing system" means a method of	36
billing a consumer by using a formula to allocate utility	37
service charges based on factors including occupancy, square	38
footage, or some combination of factors.	39
(H) "Unit owner" and "unit owners association" have the	40
same meanings as in section 5311.01 of the Revised Code.	41
Sec. 5325.02. A proprietor or proprietor's agent charging	42
rates, fees, or costs under this chapter shall measure public	43
utility service provided to the consumer through a master meter,	44
a master meter in conjunction with a submeter, or a public-	45
utility-owned meter.	46

Sec. 5325.021. (A) All meters operating under this chapter 47 shall meet the same accuracy and quality standards for utility 48 meters established by rule by the public utilities commission 49 under section 4905.28 of the Revised Code. 50

(B) (1) Upon the consumer's written request to the 51 proprietor, the proprietor shall test the accuracy of the 52 consumer's submeter. At the request of the consumer, the test 53 shall be conducted in the presence of the consumer or the 54 consumer's authorized representative and at a time convenient to 55 the consumer or consumer's representative desiring to observe 56 the test. 57

(2) The proprietor shall promptly inform the consumer or 58 consumer's representative of the results of the test. 59

(3) (a) A fee not to exceed fifty dollars may be charged to 60 the consumer if the submeter tests within accuracy standards. 61

(b) The fee shall be disclosed to the consumer at the time 62 of the lease, rental agreement, or association service 63 agreement. 64

Sec. 5325.04. A proprietor or proprietor's agent charging 65 consumers for public utility service shall allocate rates, fees, 66 and costs using one of the following methods: 67

(A) The actual rates, fees, and costs of consumption as 68 measured by a submeter for the public utility service provided 69 to the consumers; 70

(B) Market-based rates, fees, or charges as determined by 71 a proprietor or proprietor's agent that shall not exceed the 72 residential rates, fees, or charges collected in the immediate 73 service area from residential customers by public utilities for 74 the same type and quantity of service on an annualized basis; 75

(C) Fixed rate per unit of utility service, in which the 76 fixed rate per unit shall be set upon the commencement of the 77 lease, rental agreement, or association service agreement for 78 the term of the lease, rental agreement, or association service 79
agreement. 80

(D) Actual consumption as measured by a formula, including 81 a ratio utility billing system, for determining the cost of the 82 public utility service provided to a consumer. 83

Sec. 5325.05. (A) A proprietor or proprietor's agent 84 charging rates, fees, and costs for public utility services 85 under division (A) of section 5325.04 of the Revised Code may 86 charge one reasonable administrative fee to a consumer relating 87 to the provision of, or billing for, all public utility services 88 for which the consumer is charged under that division. 89

(B) Except for a fee imposed under division (B) (3) of 90 section 5325.021 of the Revised Code, a consumer may be charged 91 only one fee each month for all public utility services. 92

(C) The fee shall be disclosed to the consumer at the time 93 of the lease, rental agreement, or association service agreement 94 and expressed as a cost per unit of public utility service. 95

Sec. 5325.06. No proprietor or proprietor's agent charging 96 consumers for public utility services provided to common areas 97 and for commonly used equipment shall charge rates, fees, or 98 costs that exceed the actual rates, fees, or costs incurred for 99 public utility services for common areas and equipment. 100

Sec. 5325.07. A proprietor or proprietor's agent charging 101 consumers for public utility service shall bill consumers 102 monthly unless the proprietor or proprietor's agent is billed on 103 a less frequent basis by the utility. 104

Sec. 5325.08. Prior to entering into a rental agreement, 105 association agreement, lease, or contract for public utility 106 service, a proprietor or proprietor's agent shall provide to 107 each prospective consumer an acknowledgment form to sign before 108 entering into the agreement, lease, or contract that contains 109 the following information: 110

(A) A description of how the consumer shall be billed for 111 public utility service; 112

(B) Whether a charge will be allocated pursuant to section 113
5325.06 of the Revised Code; 114

(C) An estimation of monthly and annual costs for the 115 consumer based on a typical unit; 116

(D) A clear statement that the residence is submetered, if 117 applicable; 118

(E) A clear statement that the consumer shall be 119 responsible for actual rates, fees, or costs incurred for public 120 utility services provided to common areas and for commonly used 121 equipment in accordance with section 5325.06 of the Revised 122
Code, if applicable. 123

Sec. 5325.081. A consumer's bill for submetered electric 124 service shall include all of the following information: 125

(A) The date and reading of the submeter at the beginning 126 and end of the period for which the bill is rendered; 127

(B) The number of billing units metered; 128

(C) The computed rate per billing unit; 129

(D) The total payment amount due for electricity consumed; 130

(E) The name of the company supplying the public utility 131 service provided by the proprietor or proprietor's agent, along 132 with a clear and unambiguous statement that the bill is not 133 rendered by that company; 134

(F) The name and address of the consumer to whom the bill 135 is applicable; 136

(G) The name of the proprietor or proprietor's agent, 137 whichever rendered the bill, and the name or title, address, and 138 telephone number of the person or persons to be contacted in 139 case of a billing dispute. 140

Sec. 5325.09. (A) A proprietor or proprietor's agent shall 141 do the following: 142

(1) Maintain adequate records detailing all public utility 143 service measurements for which a proprietor or proprietor's 144 agent charges rates, fees, and costs pursuant to this chapter 145 and the charges for the service; 146

(2) Keep the records described in division (A)(1) of this 147 section applicable to the previous three years for a minimum of 148 three years after the termination of the lease, rental 149 agreement, association agreement, or any contract for public 150 utility service between a consumer and agent. 151

(B) Upon reasonable prior request, shall make a record 152 created under this section available for inspection by a 153 consumer during normal business hours. The consumer may inspect 154 only those records pertaining to that consumer's public utility 155 service consumption. 156

Sec. 5325.10. (A) A proprietor or proprietor's agent shall 157 be responsible for all costs related to routine operation, 158 routine repair, and routine maintenance of service lines. 159

(B) A proprietor's agent shall not be responsible for 160 repairs to service lines required as a result of a force majeure 161 event, tampering, or careless actions by a proprietor or 162 consumer. 163

Sec. 5325.13. (A) (1) A proprietor or proprietor's agent 164 may terminate public utility service for nonpayment. Such 165 termination, regardless of the type of service being terminated, 166 shall be done in accordance with all rules for terminating 167 public utility service for nonpayment established by the public 168 utilities commission as such rules are applied to electric light 169 companies or natural gas companies. 170

(2) A unit owners association may terminate public utility 171 service in accordance with this section regardless of whether 172 such authority is specifically set forth in documents required 173 by section 5311.05 or 5311.26 of the Revised Code. 174

(B) Termination of public utility service pursuant to this 175 section is not constructive eviction subject to Chapter 1923. or 176
5321. of the Revised Code. 177

Sec. 5325.14. (A) If a park operator, landlord, or 178 proprietor's agent terminates public utility service for a 179 consumer pursuant to section 5325.13 of the Revised Code, the 180 park operator or landlord waives the right to evict the consumer 181 for failure to make timely payment for public utility service 182 pursuant to Chapter 1923. of the Revised Code. 183

(B) If a park operator, landlord, or proprietor's agent 184 terminates public utility service for a consumer pursuant to 185 section 5325.13 of the Revised Code, the park operator's or 186 landlord's right to seek eviction for violations of any other 187 provision of a lease or rental agreement shall not be waived or 188 diminished. 189

Sec. 5325.15. Nothing in this chapter shall limit the 190 authority of the public utilities commission or other authority, 191 as jurisdictionally applicable, to prohibit or limit the 192
reselling of public utility service. 193

Sec. 5325.17. In addition to other remedies authorized by 194 law, the attorney general may bring a civil action to enforce 195 this chapter. The authority of the attorney general to bring an 196 action under this section shall not affect the right of a 197 consumer to pursue any remedy available under law for a failure 198 to comply with, or a violation of, this chapter. 199

Sec. 5325.18. If a proprietor or proprietor's agent fails 200 to comply with section 5325.04 or 5325.05 of the Revised Code, 201 or violates section 5325.06 of the Revised Code, the affected 202 consumer may bring a civil action to recover treble the total 203 amount of the overcharges resulting from a compliance failure or 204 violation as treble damages and reasonable attorney's fees, 205 obtain injunctive relief to prevent the recurrence of the 206 conduct, or both, within three years of the compliance failure 207 or violation. The three-year period shall begin when the 208 affected consumer discovered or reasonably should have 209 discovered the failure or violation. 210

(A) A consumer is not entitled to treble damages if the 211 proprietor or proprietor's agent refunds to the consumer the 212 amount of the overcharge by the earliest occurrence of the 213 following dates: 214

(1) Thirty days after the consumer notifies the proprietor 215
or proprietor's agent about the compliance failure or violation; 216

(2) Sixty days, if the consumer is billed monthly, or 217

ninety days, if the consumer is billed quarterly, after the 218 proprietor or proprietor's agent learns of or reasonably should 219 have learned of the compliance failure or violation, including 220 by the filing of an action described in division (A) (3) of this 221 section by any similarly situated consumer; 222

(3) Thirty days after the filing of any lawsuit by the 223 consumer relating to the compliance failure or violation. 224

(B) The consumer is not entitled to reasonable attorney's 225 fees if the proprietor or proprietor's agent refunds to the 226 consumer the amount of the overcharge by the earliest occurrence 227 of the following dates: 228

(1) Thirty days after the consumer notifies the proprietor 229
or proprietor's agent about the compliance failure or violation; 230

(2) Sixty days, if the consumer is billed monthly, or 231
ninety days, if the consumer is billed quarterly, after the 232
proprietor or proprietor's agent learns of or reasonably should 233
have learned of the compliance failure or violation, including 234 by the filing of an action by any similarly situated consumer. 235

(C) Divisions (A) and (B) of this section are not 236 applicable in either of the following cases: 237

(1) The proprietor or proprietor's agent overcharged the 238 consumer as a result of conduct that the proprietor or 239 proprietor's agent knew or reasonably should have known would 240 result in a failure to comply with section 5325.04 or 5325.05 of 241 the Revised Code or a violation of section 5325.06 of the 242
Revised Code. 243

(2) The consumer files a lawsuit to recover the amount of 244 the overcharge and at the time of the filing of the suit, the 245 amount by which the consumer was overcharged, less any amount 246 already refunded to the consumer, exceeds three hundred fifty dollars.
