division (B) of this section, is sufficient to warrant 385 forfeiture under this chapter: 386

(a) (i) A felony;	387

(C) This chapter does not apply to or limit forfeitures under Title XLV of the Revised Code, including forfeitures relating to section 2903.06 or 2903.08 of the Revised Code.	410 411 412
Sec. 2981.04. (A) (1) Property described in division (A) or (B) of section 2981.02 of the Revised Code may be forfeited	413 414

under this section only if the complaint, indictment, or 415 information charging the offense or municipal violation, or the 416 complaint charging the delinquent act, contains a specification 417 of the type described in section 2941.1417 of the Revised Code 418 that sets forth all of the following to the extent it is 419 reasonably known at the time of the filing: 420

(a) The nature and extent of the alleged offender's or 421 delinquent child's interest in the property; 422

(b) A description of the property; 423

(c) If the property is alleged to be an instrumentality, 424 the alleged use or intended use of the property in the 425 commission or facilitation of the offense. 426

(2) If any property is not reasonably foreseen to be 427 subject to forfeiture at the time of filing the indictment, 428 information, or complaint, the trier of fact still may return a 429 verdict of forfeiture concerning that property in the hearing 430 described in division (B) of this section if the prosecutor, 431 upon discovering the property to be subject to forfeiture, gave 432 prompt notice of this fact to the alleged offender or delinquent 433 child under Criminal Rule 7(E) or Juvenile Rule 10(B). 434

(3) For good cause shown, the court may consider issues of 435 the guilt of the alleged offender or the delinquency of the 436 alleged delinquent child separate from whether property 437 specified as subject to forfeiture should be forfeited. 438

(B) If a person pleads guilty to or is convicted of an 439 offense or is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing a 440 delinquent act and the complaint, indictment, or information 441 charging the offense or act contains a specification covering 442 property subject to forfeiture under section 2981.02 of the 443

Revised Code, the trier of fact shall determine whether the 444 person's property shall be forfeited. If the state or political 445 subdivision proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the 446 property is in whole or part subject to forfeiture under section 447 2981.02 of the Revised Code, after a proportionality review 448 under section 2981.09 of the Revised Code when relevant, the 449 trier of fact shall return a verdict of forfeiture that 450 specifically describes the extent of the property subject to 451 forfeiture. If the trier of fact is a jury, on the offender's or 452 delinquent child's motion, the court shall make the 453 determination of whether the property shall be forfeited. 454

(C) If the court enters a verdict of forfeiture under this 455 section, the court imposing sentence or disposition, in addition 456 to any other sentence authorized by Chapter 2929. of the Revised 457 Code or any disposition authorized by Chapter 2152. of the 458 Revised Code, shall order that the offender or delinquent child 459 forfeit to the state or political subdivision the offender's or 460 delinquent child's interest in the property. The property vests 461 with the state or political subdivision subject to the claims of 462 third parties. The court may issue any additional order to 463 affect the forfeiture, including, but not limited to, an order 464 under section 2981.06 of the Revised Code. 465

(D) After the entry of a forfeiture order under this 466 section, the prosecutor shall attempt to identify any person 467 with an interest in the property subject to forfeiture by 468 searching appropriate public records and making reasonably 469 diligent inquiries. The prosecutor shall give notice of the 470 forfeiture that remains subject to the claims of third parties 471 and proposed disposal of the forfeited property to any person 472 known to have an interest in the property. The prosecutor also 473 shall publish notice of the forfeiture that remains subject to 474 the claims of third parties and proposed disposal of the 475 forfeited property once each week for two consecutive weeks in a 476 newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the 477 property was seized. 478

(E) (1) Any person, other than the offender or delinquent 479 child whose conviction or plea of guilty or delinquency 480 adjudication is the basis of the forfeiture order, who asserts a 481 legal interest in the property that is the subject of the order 482 may petition the court that issued the order for a hearing under 483 division (E) (3) of this section to adjudicate the validity of 484 the person's alleged interest in the property. All of the 485 following apply to the petition: 486

(a) It shall be filed within thirty days after the final 487 publication of notice or the person's receipt of notice under 488 division (D) of this section. 489

(b) It shall be signed by the petitioner under the 490 penalties for falsification specified in section 2921.13 of the 491 Revised Code. 492

(c) It shall describe the nature and extent of the 493 petitioner's interest in the property, the time and 494 circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of that interest, 495 any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim, and the 496 relief sought. 497

(2) (a) In lieu of filing a petition as described in 498 division (E) (1) of this section, a person, other than the 499 offender or delinquent child whose conviction or plea of guilty 500 or delinquency adjudication is the basis of the forfeiture 501 order, may file an affidavit as described in this division to 502 establish the validity of the alleged right, title, or interest 503 in the property that is the subject of the forfeiture order if 504 the person is a secured party or other lienholder of record that 505 asserts a legal interest in the property, including, but not 506 limited to, a mortgage, security interest, or other type of 507 lien. The affidavit shall contain averments that the secured 508 party or other lienholder acquired its alleged right, title, or 509 interest in the property in the regular course of its business, 510 for a specified valuable consideration, without actual knowledge 511 of any facts pertaining to the offense that was the basis of the 512 forfeiture order, in good faith, and without the intent to 513 prevent or otherwise impede the state or political subdivision 514 from seizing or obtaining a forfeiture of the property. The 515 person shall file the affidavit within thirty days after the 516 earlier of the final publication of notice or the receipt of 517 notice under division (D) of this section. 518

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the 519 affidavit shall constitute prima-facie evidence of the validity 520 of the affiant's alleged interest in the property. 521

(c) Unless the prosecutor files a motion challenging the 522 affidavit within ten days after its filing and unless the 523 prosecutor establishes by a preponderance of the evidence at the 524 hearing held under division (E) (3) of this section that the 525 affiant does not possess the alleged interest in the property or 526 that the affiant had actual knowledge of facts pertaining to the 527 offense or delinquent act that was the basis of the forfeiture 528 order, the affidavit shall constitute conclusive evidence of the 529 validity of the affiant's interest in the property. 530

(d) Any subsequent purchaser or other transferee of 531 property pursuant to forfeiture under this section shall take 532 the property subject to the continued validity of the interest 533 of the affiant. 534

(3) Upon receipt of a petition or affidavit filed under 535 division (E) (1) or (2) of this section, the court shall hold a 536 hearing to determine the validity of the petitioner's interest 537 in the property that is the subject of the forfeiture order or, 538 if the affidavit was challenged, to determine the validity of 539 the affiant's interest in the property. To the extent 540 practicable and consistent with the interests of justice, the 541 court shall hold the hearing within thirty days after the filing 542 of the petition or within thirty days after the prosecutor files 543 the motion challenging the affidavit. The court may consolidate 544 the hearing with a hearing on any other petition or affidavit 545 that is filed by a person other than the offender or delinquent 546 child whose conviction or plea of guilty or delinquency 547 adjudication is the basis of the forfeiture order and that 548 relates to the property that is the subject of the forfeiture 549 order. 550

At the hearing, the petitioner or affiant may testify, 551 present evidence and witnesses on the petitioner's or affiant's 552 behalf, and cross-examine witnesses for the state or political 553 subdivision. In regards to a petition, the state or political 554 subdivision may present evidence and witnesses in rebuttal and 555 in defense of its claim to the property and may cross-examine 556 witnesses for the petitioner. In regards to an affidavit, the 557 prosecutor may present evidence and witnesses and cross-examine 558 witnesses for the affiant. 559

In addition to the evidence and testimony presented at the 560 hearing, the court also shall consider the relevant portions of 561 the record in the criminal or delinquent child case that 562 resulted in the forfeiture order. 563

(F) (1) If the hearing involves a petition, the court shall 564 amend its forfeiture order if it determines at the hearing held 565 pursuant to division (E) (3) of this section that the petitioner 566 has established either of the following by a preponderance of 567
the evidence: 568

(a) The petitioner has a legal interest in the property 569 that is subject to the forfeiture order that renders the order 570 completely or partially invalid because the legal interest in 571 the property was vested in the petitioner, rather than the 572 offender or delinquent child whose conviction or plea of guilty 573 or delinquency adjudication is the basis of the order, or was 574 superior to any interest of that offender or delinquent child, 575 at the time of the commission of the offense or delinquent act 576 that is the basis of the order. 577

(b) The petitioner is a bona fide purchaser for value of 578 the interest in the property that is subject to the forfeiture 579 order and was, at the time of the purchase, reasonably without 580 cause to believe that it was subject to forfeiture. 581

(2) The court also shall amend its forfeiture order to 582 reflect any interest of a secured party or other lienholder of 583 record in the property subject to forfeiture who prevails at a 584 hearing on the petition or affidavit filed pursuant to division 585
(E) (1) or (2) of this section. 586

(G) If the court disposes of all petitions or affidavits 587 timely filed under this section in favor of the state or 588 political subdivision, the state or political subdivision shall 589 have clear title to the property that is the subject of a 590 forfeiture order issued under this section, but only to the 591 extent that other parties' lawful interests in the property are 592 not infringed. To the extent that the state or political 593 subdivision has clear title to the property, the state or 594 political subdivision may warrant good title to any subsequent 595 purchaser or other transferee. 596

Sec. 3345.58. (A) No student who is enrolled in an 597 institution of higher education in Ohio and is the victim of a 598 violation of section 2917.211 of the Revised Code shall lose any 599 educational expenses, including grants, scholarships, and 601 fellowships, for the sole reason of being the victim of such a 602 section 2917.211 of the Revised Code applies to an institution 608 of higher education in Ohio, that person's status as such a 609
