the ex parte hearing, may enter any temporary orders, with or	329
protection of the person to be protected by the order. Immediate	331
and present danger to the person to be protected by the	332

offenses against the person to be protected by the protection	343

the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be heard at, the 349 full hearing. The court also shall give notice of the full 350 hearing to the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the 351 respondent. The court shall hold the full hearing on the date 352 scheduled under this division unless the court grants a 353 continuance of the hearing in accordance with this division. 354 following reasons, the court may grant a continuance of the full 356 hearing to a reasonable time determined by the court: 357

petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full 360
hearing. 361

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 362

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain 363
counsel. 364

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 365

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 366
upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing 368
under division (D) (2) (a) of this section or because the court 369
grants a continuance under that division. 370

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 371
section does not request an ex parte order, or if a person 372

parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 374
matter. 376

(E) (1) (a) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 377
issue any protection order, with or without bond, that contains 378
terms designed to ensure the safety and protection of the person 379 to be protected by the protection order. The court may include 380 within a protection order issued under this section a term 381 requiring that the respondent not remove, damage, hide, harm, or 382 dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by the person 383 to be protected by the order, and may include within the order a 384 term authorizing the person to be protected by the order to 385 remove a companion animal owned by the person to be protected by 386 the order from the possession of the respondent. 387

(b) After a full hearing, if the court considering a 388 petition that includes an allegation of the type described in 389 division (C) (2) (b) of this section or the court, upon its own 390
petitioner reasonably believed that the respondent's conduct at 392
any time preceding the filing of the petition endangered the 393
that the respondent presents a continuing danger to the person 395
to be protected and if division (N) of this section does not 396 prohibit the issuance of an order that the respondent be 397 electronically monitored, the court may order that the 398 respondent be electronically monitored for a period of time and 399 under the terms and conditions that the court determines are 400 appropriate. Electronic monitoring shall be in addition to any 401 other relief granted to the petitioner. 402

(2) (a) Any protection order issued pursuant to this 403 section shall be valid until a date certain but not later than 404 the date the respondent attains nineteen years of age. 405

(b) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 406 may be renewed in the same manner as the original order was 407 issued. 408

(3) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 409
a petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the 410
under division (E) (1) of this section unless all of the 412 following apply: 413

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 414
protection order in accordance with this section. 415

(b) The petitioner is served with notice of the 416 respondent's petition at least forty-eight hours before the 417 court holds a hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, 418 or the petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 419

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 420
pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not 421 delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 422
with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 424

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 425
evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 426
the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 427
a violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 429 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, a sexually 430 oriented offense, or a violation of any municipal ordinance that 431 is substantially equivalent to any of those offenses against the 432 person to be protected by the protection order issued pursuant 433 to division (E) (3) of this section, or has violated a protection 434 order issued pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the 435 Revised Code relative to the person to be protected by the 436 protection order issued pursuant to division (E) (3) of this 437

section. 438

(4) No protection order issued pursuant to this section 439 shall in any manner affect title to any real property. 440

(5) (a) A protection order issued under this section shall 441 clearly state that the person to be protected by the order 442 cannot waive or nullify by invitation or consent any requirement 443 in the order. 444

(b) Division (E) (5) (a) of this section does not limit any 445 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent alleged to 446 have violated section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, violated a 447 municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to that section, or 448 committed contempt of court, which allegation is based on an 449 alleged violation of a protection order issued under this 450 section, did not commit the violation or was not in contempt of 451
court. 452

(6) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 453 shall include a provision that the court will automatically seal 454 all of the records of the proceeding in which the order is 455 issued on the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen 456 years unless the petitioner provides the court with evidence 457 that the respondent has not complied with all of the terms of 458 the protection order. The protection order shall specify the 459 date when the respondent attains the age of nineteen years. 460

(F) (1) The court shall cause the delivery of a copy of any protection order that is issued under this section to the petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the respondent and the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the respondent on the same day that the order is entered.

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this section, the court shall provide the parties to the order with the following notice orally or by form:

As a result of this order, it may be unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g) (8) for the duration of this order. If you have any questions whether this law makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, you should consult an attorney."

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain an index for the protection orders delivered to the agencies pursuant to division (F) (1) of this section. With respect to each order delivered, each agency shall note on the index the date and time that it received the order.

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered the protection order in the county in which the officer's agency has jurisdiction pursuant to division (M) of this section, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a protection order issued pursuant to this section by any court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the order, including removing the respondent from the premises, if appropriate. 490

(G) Any proceeding under this section shall be conducted 491
in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that a 492
without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an 494 ex parte order, that grants a protection order, or that refuses 495
to grant a protection order, is a final, appealable order. The 496 remedies and procedures provided in this section are in addition 497
to, and not in lieu of, any other available civil or criminal 498 remedies or any other available remedies under Chapter 2151. or 499 2152. of the Revised Code. 500

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 501 excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 502
law. 504

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates an 505 alleged violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 506 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, an alleged 507 commission of a sexually oriented offense, or an alleged 508 violation of a municipal ordinance that is substantially 509 equivalent to any of those offenses shall provide information to 510 the victim and the family or household members of the victim 511 regarding the relief available under this section. 512

(J) (1) Subject to division (J) (2) of this section and 513
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 514
shall charge the petitioner any fee, cost, deposit, or money in 517
section, in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 519

a protection order, consent agreement, or witness subpoena or 521
for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 522
agreement. 523

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 524
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 525 court may assess costs against the respondent in connection with 526
the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 527
dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 528
agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 529
of a protection order or consent agreement. 530

(K) (1) A person who violates a protection order issued 531
under this section is subject to the following sanctions: 532

(a) A delinquent child proceeding or a criminal 533 prosecution for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised 534 Code, if the violation of the protection order constitutes a 535 violation of that section; 536

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 537

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 538 violation of a protection order issued under this section does 539 not bar criminal prosecution of the person or a delinquent child 540 proceeding concerning the person for a violation of section 541 2919.27 of the Revised Code. However, a person punished for 542 contempt of court is entitled to credit for the punishment 543 imposed upon conviction of or adjudication as a delinquent child 544 for a violation of that section, and a person convicted of or 545 adjudicated a delinquent child for a violation of that section 546 shall not subsequently be punished for contempt of court arising 547 out of the same activity. 548

(L) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate.

(2) A petitioner may register a protection order issued pursuant to this section in a county other than the county in which the court that issued the order is located in the following manner:

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the order from the clerk of the court that issued the order and present that certified copy to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the clerk of a municipal court or county court in the county in which the order is to be registered.

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order for registration, the clerk of the court of common pleas, municipal court, or county court shall place an endorsement of registration on the order and give the petitioner a copy of the order that bears that proof of registration.

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, municipal 579
court, or county court shall maintain a registry of certified 580
copies of protection orders that have been issued by courts in 581 other counties pursuant to this section and that have been 582 registered with the clerk. 583

(N) If the court orders electronic monitoring of the 584
respondent under this section, the court shall direct the 585
sheriff's office or any other appropriate law enforcement agency 586
respondent. Unless the court determines that the respondent is 588
indigent, the court shall order the respondent to pay the cost 589
of the installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring 590
year from the fund and the rules promulgated by the attorney 593
general under section 2903.214 of the Revised Code, the cost of 594 the installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring 595 device may be paid out of funds from the reparations fund 596 created pursuant to section 2743.191 of the Revised Code. The 597 total amount paid from the reparations fund created pursuant to 598 section 2743.191 of the Revised Code for electronic monitoring 599 under this section and sections 2903.214 and 2919.27 of the 600 Revised Code shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars per 601 year. When the total amount paid from the reparations fund in 602 any year for electronic monitoring under those sections equals 603 or exceeds three hundred thousand dollars, the court shall not 604 order pursuant to this section that an indigent respondent be 605 electronically monitored. 606

(O) The court, in its discretion, may determine if the 607 respondent is entitled to court-appointed counsel in a 608 proceeding under this section. 609

Sec. 2903.214. (A) As used in this section:	610
(1) "Court" means the court of common pleas of the county in which the person to be protected by the protection order resides.	611 612 613
(2) "Victim advocate" means a person who provides support and assistance for a person who files a petition under this section.	614 615 616
(3) "Family or household member" has the same meaning as in section 3113.31 of the Revised Code.	617 618
(4) "Protection order issued by a court of another state" has the same meaning as in section 2919.27 of the Revised Code.	619 620
(5) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in section 2950.01 of the Revised Code.	621 622
(6) "Electronic monitoring" has the same meaning as in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code.	623 624
(7) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 959.131 of the Revised Code.	625 626
(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under this section.	627 628
(C) A person may seek relief under this section for the person, or any parent or adult household member may seek relief under this section on behalf of any other family or household member, by filing a petition with the court. The petition shall contain or state all of the following:	629 630 631 632 633
(1) An allegation that the respondent is eighteen years of age or older and engaged in a violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code against the person to be protected by the	634 635 636 protection order or committed a sexually oriented offense 637 against the person to be protected by the protection order, 638 including a description of the nature and extent of the 639 violation; 640

(2) If the petitioner seeks relief in the form of 641 electronic monitoring of the respondent, an allegation that at 642 any time preceding the filing of the petition the respondent 643 engaged in conduct that would cause a reasonable person to 644 believe that the health, welfare, or safety of the person to be 645 protected was at risk, a description of the nature and extent of 646 that conduct, and an allegation that the respondent presents a 647 continuing danger to the person to be protected; 648

(3) A request for relief under this section. 649

(D) (1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 650 section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 651 parte hearing as soon as possible after the petition is filed, 652 but not later than the next day that the court is in session 653 after the petition is filed. The court, for good cause shown at 654
protection order constitutes good cause for purposes of this 659 section. Immediate and present danger includes, but is not 660 limited to, situations in which the respondent has threatened 661
the person to be protected by the protection order with bodily 662 harm or in which the respondent previously has been convicted of 663 or pleaded guilty to a violation of section 2903.211 of the 664 Revised Code or a sexually oriented offense against the person 665 to be protected by the protection order. 666

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues a protection order described in division (E) of this section, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is within ten court days after the ex parte hearing. The court shall give the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be heard at, the full hearing. The court shall hold the full hearing on the date scheduled under this division unless the court grants a continuance of the hearing in accordance with this division. Under any of the following circumstances or for any of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance of the full hearing to a reasonable time determined by the court:

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under this division, the respondent has not been served with the petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full hearing.

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance.

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain counsel.

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause.

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not expire because of a failure to serve notice of the full hearing upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing under division (D) (2) (a) of this section or because the court grants a continuance under that division.

(E) (1) (a) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 697
to be protected by the protection order, including, but not 700 limited to, a requirement that the respondent refrain from 701 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 702 of the petitioner or family or household member. If the court 703 includes a requirement that the respondent refrain from entering 704 the residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 705 petitioner or family or household member in the order, it also 706 shall include in the order provisions of the type described in 707 division (E) (5) of this section. The court may include within a 708 protection order issued under this section a term requiring that 709 the respondent not remove, damage, hide, harm, or dispose of any 710 companion animal owned or possessed by the person to be 711 protected by the order, and may include within the order a term 712 authorizing the person to be protected by the order to remove a 713 companion animal owned by the person to be protected by the 714 order from the possession of the respondent. 715

(b) After a full hearing, if the court considering a 716
petition that includes an allegation of the type described in 717 division (C) (2) of this section, or the court upon its own 718
to be protected, the court may order that the respondent be 724 electronically monitored for a period of time and under the 725 terms and conditions that the court determines are appropriate. 726

Electronic monitoring shall be in addition to any other relief granted to the petitioner.	727 728
(2) (a) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section shall be valid until a date certain but not later than five years from the date of its issuance.	729 730 731
(b) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section may be renewed in the same manner as the original order was issued.	732 733 734
(3) A court may not issue a protection order that requires a petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the court may require a respondent to do or to refrain from doing under division (E) (1) of this section unless all of the following apply:	735 736 737 738 739
(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a protection order in accordance with this section.	740 741
(b) The petitioner is served with notice of the respondent's petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the petitioner waives the right to receive this notice.	742 743 744 745
(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time specified in that division in order to consolidate the hearing with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent.	746 747 748 749 750
(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents evidence in support of the request for a protection order and the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed a violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code against the	751 752 753 754 755

to division (E) (3) of this section, has committed a sexually 757 oriented offense against the person to be protected by the 758 protection order issued pursuant to division (E) (3) of this 759
section, or has violated a protection order issued pursuant to 760 section 2903.213 of the Revised Code relative to the person to 761 be protected by the protection order issued pursuant to division 762 (E) (3) of this section. 763

(4) No protection order issued pursuant to this section 764
shall in any manner affect title to any real property. 765

(5) (a) If the court issues a protection order under this 766 section that includes a requirement that the alleged offender 767 refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or place 768 of employment of the petitioner or a family or household member, 769 the order shall clearly state that the order cannot be waived or 770 nullified by an invitation to the alleged offender from the 771 complainant to enter the residence, school, business, or place 772 of employment or by the alleged offender's entry into one of 773
family or household member. 775

(b) Division (E) (5) (a) of this section does not limit any 776
charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 778 with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially 779
charge is based on an alleged violation of a protection order 781 issued under this section, did not commit the violation or was 782 not in contempt of court. 783

(F) (1) The court shall cause the delivery of a copy of any 784 protection order that is issued under this section to the 785

petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement 786 agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court 787 shall direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the 788 respondent on the same day that the order is entered. 789

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 790
section, the court shall provide the parties to the order with 791
the following notice orally or by form: 792

As a result of this order, it may be unlawful for you to 794 possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or 795 revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 796 922(g) (8) for the duration of this order. If you have any 797 questions whether this law makes it illegal for you to possess 798 or purchase a firearm or ammunition, you should consult an 799 attorney." 800

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 801 maintain an index for the protection orders delivered to the 802 agencies pursuant to division (F) (1) of this section. With 803 respect to each order delivered, each agency shall note on the 804 index the date and time that it received the order. 805

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 806 the protection order in the county in which the officer's agency 807 has jurisdiction pursuant to division (M) of this section, any 808 officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a protection 809 order issued pursuant to this section by any court in this state 810 in accordance with the provisions of the order, including 811
removing the respondent from the premises, if appropriate. 812

(G) Any proceeding under this section shall be conducted 813

without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an 816
remedies and procedures provided in this section are in addition 819
remedies. 821

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 822
excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 823
law. 825

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates an 826 alleged violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code or an 827 alleged commission of a sexually oriented offense shall provide 828 information to the victim and the family or household members of 829 the victim regarding the relief available under this section and 830 section 2903.213 of the Revised Code. 831

(J) (1) Subject to division (J) (2) of this section and 832
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 833
section, in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 838
for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 841
agreement. 842

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 843
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 844

the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 846
dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 847
agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 848
of a protection order or consent agreement. 849

(K) (1) A person who violates a protection order issued 850
under this section is subject to the following sanctions: 851

(a) Criminal prosecution for a violation of section 852 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the violation of the protection 853 order constitutes a violation of that section; 854

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 855

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 856
violation of a protection order issued under this section does 857 not bar criminal prosecution of the person for a violation of 858 section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. However, a person punished 859 for contempt of court is entitled to credit for the punishment 860 imposed upon conviction of a violation of that section, and a 861 person convicted of a violation of that section shall not 862 subsequently be punished for contempt of court arising out of 863 the same activity. 864

(L) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 865 petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 866

(M) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order under 867 this section or a protection order under section 2903.213 of the 868 Revised Code may provide notice of the issuance or approval of 869 the order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 870 county other than the county in which the order is issued by 871 registering that order in the other county pursuant to division 872 (M) (2) of this section and filing a copy of the registered order 873 with a law enforcement agency in the other county in accordance 874 with that division. A person who obtains a protection order 875 issued by a court of another state may provide notice of the 876 issuance of the order to the judicial and law enforcement 877 officials in any county of this state by registering the order 878 in that county pursuant to section 2919.272 of the Revised Code 879 and filing a copy of the registered order with a law enforcement 880 agency in that county. 881

(2) A petitioner may register a protection order issued 882 pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the Revised Code 883 in a county other than the county in which the court that issued 884 the order is located in the following manner: 885

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 886 order from the clerk of the court that issued the order and 887 present that certified copy to the clerk of the court of common 888 pleas or the clerk of a municipal court or county court in the 889 county in which the order is to be registered. 890

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order for 891 registration, the clerk of the court of common pleas, municipal 892 court, or county court shall place an endorsement of 893 registration on the order and give the petitioner a copy of the 894 order that bears that proof of registration. 895

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, municipal 896
other counties pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of 899 the Revised Code and that have been registered with the clerk. 900

(N) (1) If the court orders electronic monitoring of the 901
respondent under this section, the court shall direct the 902

of the installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring 907
year from the fund and the rules promulgated by the attorney 910
general under division (N) (2) of this section, the cost of the 911 installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring device 912 may be paid out of funds from the reparations fund created 913 pursuant to section 2743.191 of the Revised Code. The total 914 amount of costs for the installation and monitoring of 915 electronic monitoring devices paid pursuant to this division and 916 sections 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code from the 917 reparations fund shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars 918 per year. 919

(2) The attorney general may promulgate rules pursuant to 920 section 111.15 of the Revised Code to govern payments made from 921 the reparations fund pursuant to this division and sections 922 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code. The rules may include 923 reasonable limits on the total cost paid pursuant to this 924 division and sections 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code 925 per respondent, the amount of the three hundred thousand dollars 926 allocated to each county, and how invoices may be submitted by a 927 county, court, or other entity. 928 alleges a violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 930 2911.211 of the Revised Code if the alleged victim of the 931 violation was a family or household member at the time of the 932 violation, a violation of a municipal ordinance that is 933 substantially similar to any of those sections if the alleged 934 victim of the violation was a family or household member at the 935 time of the violation, any offense of violence if the alleged 936 victim of the offense was a family or household member at the 937 time of the commission of the offense, or any sexually oriented 938 offense if the alleged victim of the offense was a family or 939 household member at the time of the commission of the offense, 940 the complainant, the alleged victim, or a family or household 941 member of an alleged victim may file, or, if in an emergency the 942 alleged victim is unable to file, a person who made an arrest 943 for the alleged violation or offense under section 2935.03 of 944 the Revised Code may file on behalf of the alleged victim, a 945 motion that requests the issuance of a temporary protection 946 order as a pretrial condition of release of the alleged 947 offender, in addition to any bail set under Criminal Rule 46. 948

The motion shall be filed with the clerk of the court that has 949 jurisdiction of the case at any time after the filing of the 950 complaint. 951

(2) For purposes of section 2930.09 of the Revised Code, 952 all stages of a proceeding arising out of a complaint alleging 953 the commission of a violation, offense of violence, or sexually 954 oriented offense described in division (A)(1) of this section, 955 including all proceedings on a motion for a temporary protection 956 order, are critical stages of the case, and a victim may be 957 accompanied by a victim advocate or another person to provide 958 support to the victim as provided in that section. 959

(B) The motion shall be prepared on a form that is 960 provided by the clerk of the court, which form shall be 961 substantially as follows: 962

"MOTION FOR TEMPORARY PROTECTION ORDER 963 unable to appear because of hospitalization or a medical 992 condition resulting from the offense alleged in the complaint, a 993 person who can provide information about my need for a temporary 994 protection order must appear before the court in lieu of my 995 appearing in court. I understand that any temporary protection 996 order granted pursuant to this motion is a pretrial condition of 997 release and is effective only until the disposition of the 998 criminal proceeding arising out of the attached complaint, or 999 the issuance of a civil protection order or the approval of a 1000 consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those 1001 that were the basis of the complaint, under section 3113.31 of 1002 the Revised Code. 1003

Signature of person 1005

(or signature of the arresting officer who filed the motion on 1006 behalf of the alleged victim) 1007
..... 1008
Address of person (or office address of the arresting officer 1009 who filed the motion on behalf of the alleged victim)" 1010

 (C) (1) As soon as possible after the filing of a motion 1011 that requests the issuance of a temporary protection order, but 1012 not later than twenty-four hours after the filing of the motion, 1013 the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether to issue 1014 the order. The person who requested the order shall appear 1015 before the court and provide the court with the information that 1016 it requests concerning the basis of the motion. If the person 1017 who requested the order is unable to appear and if the court 1018 finds that the failure to appear is because of the person's 1019 hospitalization or medical condition resulting from the offense 1020 alleged in the complaint, another person who is able to provide 1021 the court with the information it requests may appear in lieu of 1022 the person who requested the order. If the court finds that the 1023 safety and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, or any 1024 other family or household member of the alleged victim may be 1025 impaired by the continued presence of the alleged offender, the 1026 court may issue a temporary protection order, as a pretrial 1027 condition of release, that contains terms designed to ensure the 1028 safety and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, or the 1029 family or household member, including a requirement that the 1030 alleged offender refrain from entering the residence, school, 1031 business, or place of employment of the complainant, alleged 1032 victim, or the family or household member. The court may include 1033 within a protection order issued under this section a term 1034 requiring that the alleged offender not remove, damage, hide, 1035 harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by 1036 the complainant, alleged victim, or any other family or 1037 household member of the alleged victim, and may include within 1038 the order a term authorizing the complainant, alleged victim, or 1039 other family or household member of the alleged victim to remove 1040 a companion animal owned by the complainant, alleged victim, or 1041 other family or household member from the possession of the 1042 alleged offender. 1043

(2) (a) If the court issues a temporary protection order 1044 that includes a requirement that the alleged offender refrain 1045 from entering the residence, school, business, or place of 1046 employment of the complainant, the alleged victim, or the family 1047 or household member, the order shall state clearly that the 1048 order cannot be waived or nullified by an invitation to the 1049 alleged offender from the complainant, alleged victim, or family 1050 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 1051

place of employment or by the alleged offender's entry into one 1052 of those places otherwise upon the consent of the complainant, 1053 alleged victim, or family or household member. 1054

(b) Division (C)(2)(a) of this section does not limit any 1055
charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 1057
with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially 1058
charge is based on an alleged violation of a temporary 1060 protection order issued under this section, did not commit the 1061 violation or was not in contempt of court. 1062

(D)(1) Upon the filing of a complaint that alleges a 1063 violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 2911.211 of 1064 the Revised Code if the alleged victim of the violation was a 1065 family or household member at the time of the violation, a 1066 violation of a municipal ordinance that is substantially similar 1067 to any of those sections if the alleged victim of the violation 1068 was a family or household member at the time of the violation, 1069 any offense of violence if the alleged victim of the offense was 1070 a family or household member at the time of the commission of 1071 the offense, or any sexually oriented offense if the alleged 1072 victim of the offense was a family or household member at the 1073 time of the commission of the offense, the court, upon its own 1074 motion, may issue a temporary protection order as a pretrial 1075 condition of release if it finds that the safety and protection 1076 of the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or household 1077 member of the alleged offender may be impaired by the continued 1078 presence of the alleged offender. 1079

(2) If the court issues a temporary protection order under 1080 this section as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as soon as 1081 possible after the issuance of the order, a hearing in the 1082 presence of the alleged offender not later than the next day on 1083 which the court is scheduled to conduct business after the day 1084 on which the alleged offender was arrested or at the time of the 1085 appearance of the alleged offender pursuant to summons to 1086 determine whether the order should remain in effect, be 1087 modified, or be revoked. The hearing shall be conducted under 1088 the standards set forth in division (C) of this section. 1089

(3) An order issued under this section shall contain only 1090 those terms authorized in orders issued under division (C) of 1091
this section. 1092

(4) If a municipal court or a county court issues a 1093 temporary protection order under this section and if, subsequent 1094 to the issuance of the order, the alleged offender who is the 1095 subject of the order is bound over to the court of common pleas 1096 for prosecution of a felony arising out of the same activities 1097 as those that were the basis of the complaint upon which the 1098 order is based, notwithstanding the fact that the order was 1099 issued by a municipal court or county court, the order shall 1100 remain in effect, as though it were an order of the court of 1101 common pleas, while the charges against the alleged offender are 1102 pending in the court of common pleas, for the period of time 1103 described in division (E)(2) of this section, and the court of 1104 common pleas has exclusive jurisdiction to modify the order 1105 issued by the municipal court or county court. This division 1106 applies when the alleged offender is bound over to the court of 1107 common pleas as a result of the person waiving a preliminary 1108 hearing on the felony charge, as a result of the municipal court 1109 or county court having determined at a preliminary hearing that 1110 there is probable cause to believe that the felony has been 1111 committed and that the alleged offender committed it, as a 1112 result of the alleged offender having been indicted for the 1113 felony, or in any other manner. 1114

(E) A temporary protection order that is issued as a 1115 pretrial condition of release under this section: 1116

(1) Is in addition to, but shall not be construed as a 1117 part of, any bail set under Criminal Rule 46; 1118

(2) Is effective only until the occurrence of either of 1119 the following: 1120

section, by the court of common pleas to which the alleged 1123 offender is bound over for prosecution, of the criminal 1124 proceeding arising out of the complaint upon which the order is 1125 based; 1126

(b) The issuance of a protection order or the approval of 1127 a consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those 1128 that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order is 1129 based, under section 3113.31 of the Revised Code~~+~~. 1130

(3) Shall not be construed as a finding that the alleged 1131 offender committed the alleged offense, and shall not be 1132 introduced as evidence of the commission of the offense at the 1133 trial of the alleged offender on the complaint upon which the 1134 order is based. 1135

(F) A person who meets the criteria for bail under 1136 Criminal Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that 1137 rule, executes or posts bond or deposits cash or securities as 1138 that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall 1145 direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the defendant on 1146 the same day that the order is entered. If a municipal court or 1147 a county court issues a temporary protection order under this 1148 section and if, subsequent to the issuance of the order, the 1149 defendant who is the subject of the order is bound over to the 1150 court of common pleas for prosecution as described in division 1151 (D) (4) of this section, the municipal court or county court 1152 shall direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the court 1153 of common pleas to which the defendant is bound over. 1154

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 1155
the following notice orally or by form: 1157

for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, 1160 pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 1161 18 U.S.C. 922(g) (8) for the duration of this order. If you have 1162 any questions whether this law makes it illegal for you to 1163 possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, you should consult 1164 an attorney." 1165

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 1166
maintain an index for the temporary protection orders delivered 1167 to the agencies pursuant to division (G) (1) of this section. 1168

the index, the date and time of the receipt of the order by the 1170 agency. 1171

(4) A complainant, alleged victim, or other person who 1172 obtains a temporary protection order under this section may 1173 provide notice of the issuance of the temporary protection order 1174 to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county 1175 other than the county in which the order is issued by 1176 division (N) of section 3113.31 of the Revised Code and filing a 1178 copy of the registered protection order with a law enforcement 1179

(5) Any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce 1181 a temporary protection order issued by any court in this state 1182 removing the defendant from the premises, regardless of whether 1184 the order is registered in the county in which the officer's 1185 agency has jurisdiction as authorized by division (G) (4) of this 1186

section. 1187

(H) Upon a violation of a temporary protection order, the 1188 order to do or refrain from doing the act committed a violation 1209 or offense of violence of the type described in division (A) of 1210

this section. 1211

(b) The court determines that both the complainant, 1212 doing the act and the defendant acted primarily as aggressors, 1215 limited to, an order described in division (E) (1) (a), (b), or 1395 (c) of this section, that the court finds necessary to protect 1396 the family or household member from domestic violence. Immediate 1397 and present danger of domestic violence to the family or 1398 household member constitutes good cause for purposes of this 1399

limited to, situations in which the respondent has threatened 1401
the family or household member with bodily harm, in which the 1402 respondent has threatened the family or household member with a 1403 sexually oriented offense, or in which the respondent previously 1404 has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a 1405 delinquent child for an offense that constitutes domestic 1406 violence against the family or household member. 1407

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues an 1408 order described in division (E) (1) (b) or (c) of this section, 1409 the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is 1410 within seven court days after the ex parte hearing. If any other 1411 type of protection order that is authorized under division (E) 1412 of this section is issued by the court after an ex parte 1413 hearing, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that 1414 is within ten court days after the ex parte hearing. The court 1415 shall give the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be 1416 heard at, the full hearing. The court shall hold the full 1417 hearing on the date scheduled under this division unless the 1418 court grants a continuance of the hearing in accordance with 1419
this division. Under any of the following circumstances or for 1420
any of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance 1421 of the full hearing to a reasonable time determined by the 1422
court: 1423

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 1424
petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full 1426
hearing. 1427

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 1428

counsel. 1430

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 1431

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 1432
under division (D) (2) (a) of this section or because the court 1435

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 1437
parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 1440
matter. 1442

(E) (1) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 1443 grant any protection order, with or without bond, or approve any 1444 consent agreement to bring about a cessation of domestic 1445 violence against the family or household members. The order or 1446 agreement may: 1447

(a) Direct the respondent to refrain from abusing or from 1448 committing sexually oriented offenses against the family or 1449 household members; 1450

(b) Grant possession of the residence or household to the 1451 petitioner or other family or household member, to the exclusion 1452 of the respondent, by evicting the respondent, when the 1453 residence or household is owned or leased solely by the 1454 petitioner or other family or household member, or by ordering 1455 the respondent to vacate the premises, when the residence or 1456 household is jointly owned or leased by the respondent, and the 1457 petitioner or other family or household member; 1458

(c) When the respondent has a duty to support the 1459 petitioner or other family or household member living in the 1460 residence or household and the respondent is the sole owner or 1461 lessee of the residence or household, grant possession of the 1462 residence or household to the petitioner or other family or 1463 household member, to the exclusion of the respondent, by 1464 ordering the respondent to vacate the premises, or, in the case 1465 of a consent agreement, allow the respondent to provide 1466 suitable, alternative housing; 1467

(d) Temporarily allocate parental rights and 1468 responsibilities for the care of, or establish temporary 1469 parenting time rights with regard to, minor children, if no 1470 other court has determined, or is determining, the allocation of 1471 parental rights and responsibilities for the minor children or 1472 parenting time rights; 1473

(e) Require the respondent to maintain support, if the 1474 respondent customarily provides for or contributes to the 1475 support of the family or household member, or if the respondent 1476 has a duty to support the petitioner or family or household 1477 member; 1478

(f) Require the respondent, petitioner, victim of domestic 1479 violence, or any combination of those persons, to seek 1480 counseling; 1481

(g) Require the respondent to refrain from entering the 1482 residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 1483 petitioner or family or household member; 1484

(h) Grant other relief that the court considers equitable 1485 and fair, including, but not limited to, ordering the respondent 1486 to permit the use of a motor vehicle by the petitioner or other 1487 family or household member and the apportionment of household 1488 and family personal property; 1489

(i) Require that the respondent not remove, damage, hide, 1490 harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by 1491
the petitioner; 1492

(j) Authorize the petitioner to remove a companion animal 1493 owned by the petitioner from the possession of the respondent; 1494

(k) Require a wireless service transfer in accordance with 1495 sections 3113.45 to 3113.459 of the Revised Code. 1496

(2) If a protection order has been issued pursuant to this 1497 section in a prior action involving the respondent and the 1498 petitioner or one or more of the family or household members or 1499 victims, the court may include in a protection order that it 1500 issues a prohibition against the respondent returning to the 1501 residence or household. If it includes a prohibition against the 1502 respondent returning to the residence or household in the order, 1503 it also shall include in the order provisions of the type 1504 described in division (E) (7) of this section. This division does 1505 not preclude the court from including in a protection order or 1506 consent agreement, in circumstances other than those described 1507 in this division, a requirement that the respondent be evicted 1508 from or vacate the residence or household or refrain from 1509 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 1510 of the petitioner or a family or household member, and, if the 1511 court includes any requirement of that type in an order or 1512 agreement, the court also shall include in the order provisions 1513 of the type described in division (E) (7) of this section. 1514

(3) (a) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 1515 approved under this section shall be valid until a date certain, 1516 but not later than five years from the date of its issuance or 1517 approval, or not later than the date a respondent who is less 1518 than eighteen years of age attains nineteen years of age, unless 1519 modified or terminated as provided in division (E) (8) of this section. 1520

(b) Subject to the limitation on the duration of an order 1522 or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this section, 1523 any order under division (E) (1) (d) of this section shall 1524 terminate on the date that a court in an action for divorce, 1525 dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by the 1526 petitioner or respondent issues an order allocating parental 1527 rights and responsibilities for the care of children or on the 1528 date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 1529 petitioner or respondent issues an order awarding legal custody 1530 of minor children. Subject to the limitation on the duration of 1531 an order or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this 1532 section, any order under division (E) (1) (e) of this section 1533 shall terminate on the date that a court in an action for 1534 divorce, dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by 1535 the petitioner or respondent issues a support order or on the 1536
date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 1537
petitioner or respondent issues a support order. 1538

(c) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 1539 approved pursuant to this section may be renewed in the same 1540 manner as the original order or agreement was issued or 1541 approved. 1542

(4) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 1543
under division (E) (1) (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g), or (h) of 1546 this section unless all of the following apply: 1547

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 1548
protection order in accordance with this section. 1549

(b) The petitioner is served notice of the respondent's petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the petitioner waives the right to receive this notice.

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time specified in that division in order to consolidate the hearing with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent.

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents evidence in support of the request for a protection order and the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed an act of domestic violence or has violated a temporary protection order issued pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code, that both the petitioner and the respondent acted primarily as aggressors, and that neither the petitioner nor the respondent acted primarily in self-defense.

(5) No protection order issued or consent agreement approved under this section shall in any manner affect title to any real property.

the court may require the public children services agency of the 1580 county in which the court is located to provide supervision of 1581 the respondent's exercise of parenting time or visitation or 1582 companionship rights with respect to the child for a period not 1583 to exceed nine months, if the court makes the following findings 1584 of fact: 1585

(i) The child is in danger from the respondent; 1586

(ii) No other person or agency is available to provide the 1587 supervision. 1588

(b) A court that requires an agency to provide supervision 1589 pursuant to division (E) (6) (a) of this section shall order the 1590 respondent to reimburse the agency for the cost of providing the 1591 supervision, if it determines that the respondent has sufficient 1592 income or resources to pay that cost. 1593

(7) (a) If a protection order issued or consent agreement 1594 approved under this section includes a requirement that the 1595
respondent be evicted from or vacate the residence or household 1596 or refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or 1597 place of employment of the petitioner or a family or household 1598 member, the order or agreement shall state clearly that the 1599 order or agreement cannot be waived or nullified by an 1600 invitation to the respondent from the petitioner or other family 1601 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 1602 place of employment or by the respondent's entry into one of 1603
other family or household member. 1605

(b) Division (E) (7) (a) of this section does not limit any 1606
discretion of a court to determine that a respondent charged 1607 with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, with a 1608 violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to 1609 that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 1610 on an alleged violation of a protection order issued or consent 1611 agreement approved under this section, did not commit the 1612 violation or was not in contempt of court. 1613

(8) (a) The court may modify or terminate as provided in 1614 division (E) (8) of this section a protection order or consent 1615 agreement that was issued after a full hearing under this 1616 section. The court that issued the protection order or approved 1617
termination of the protection order or consent agreement 1619
pursuant to division (E) (8) of this section. 1620

(b) Either the petitioner or the respondent of the 1621 original protection order or consent agreement may bring a 1622 motion for modification or termination of a protection order or 1623 consent agreement that was issued or approved after a full 1624 hearing. The court shall require notice of the motion to be made 1625 as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure. If the petitioner 1626 for the original protection order or consent agreement has 1627 requested that the petitioner's address be kept confidential, 1628 the court shall not disclose the address to the respondent of 1629 the original protection order or consent agreement or any other 1630 person, except as otherwise required by law. The moving party 1631 has the burden of proof to show, by a preponderance of the 1632 evidence, that modification or termination of the protection 1633 order or consent agreement is appropriate because either the 1634 protection order or consent agreement is no longer needed or 1635 because the terms of the original protection order or consent 1636 agreement are no longer appropriate. 1637

(c) In considering whether to modify or terminate a 1638

including, but not limited to, the following: 1641

(i) Whether the petitioner consents to modification or 1642
termination of the protection order or consent agreement; 1643

(ii) Whether the petitioner fears the respondent; 1644

(iii) The current nature of the relationship between the 1645 petitioner and the respondent; 1646

(iv) The circumstances of the petitioner and respondent, 1647 including the relative proximity of the petitioner's and 1648 respondent's workplaces and residences and whether the 1649 petitioner and respondent have minor children together; 1650

(v) Whether the respondent has complied with the terms and 1651 conditions of the original protection order or consent 1652
agreement; 1653

(vi) Whether the respondent has a continuing involvement 1654 with illegal drugs or alcohol; 1655

(vii) Whether the respondent has been convicted of, 1656 pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a delinquent child for an 1657 offense of violence since the issuance of the protection order 1658 or approval of the consent agreement; 1659

(viii) Whether any other protection orders, consent 1660 agreements, restraining orders, or no contact orders have been 1661 issued against the respondent pursuant to this section, section 1662 2919.26 of the Revised Code, any other provision of state law, 1663 or the law of any other state; 1664

(ix) Whether the respondent has participated in any 1665 domestic violence treatment, intervention program, or other 1666 counseling addressing domestic violence and whether the 1667 respondent has completed the treatment, program, or counseling; 1668

(x) The time that has elapsed since the protection order 1669
was issued or since the consent agreement was approved; 1670

(xi) The age and health of the respondent; 1671

(xii) When the last incident of abuse, threat of harm, or 1672 commission of a sexually oriented offense occurred or other 1673 relevant information concerning the safety and protection of the 1674
petitioner or other protected parties. 1675

(d) If a protection order or consent agreement is modified 1676 or terminated as provided in division (E)(8) of this section, 1677
the court shall issue copies of the modified or terminated order 1678 or agreement as provided in division (F) of this section. A 1679
petitioner may also provide notice of the modification or 1680 termination to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 1681 county other than the county in which the order or agreement is 1682 modified or terminated as provided in division (N) of this 1683
section. 1684

(e) If the respondent moves for modification or 1685
termination of a protection order or consent agreement pursuant 1686 to this section and the court denies the motion, the court may 1687 assess costs against the respondent for the filing of the 1688

(9) Any protection order issued or any consent agreement 1690
approved pursuant to this section shall include a provision that 1691
the court will automatically seal all of the records of the 1692
proceeding in which the order is issued or agreement approved on 1693
the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen years unless 1694

respondent has not complied with all of the terms of the 1696
protection order or consent agreement. The protection order or 1697 consent agreement shall specify the date when the respondent 1698

(F) (1) A copy of any protection order, or consent 1700 agreement, that is issued, approved, modified, or terminated 1701
under this section shall be issued by the court to the 1702
petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement 1703
agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order or 1704 agreement. The court shall direct that a copy of an order be 1705
entered. 1707

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order or the 1708 approval of a consent agreement under this section, the court 1709 shall provide the parties to the order or agreement with the 1710

"NOTICE 1712

As a result of this order or consent agreement, it may be 1713 unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a 1714 rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal 1715 law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8) for the duration of this order or 1716 consent agreement. If you have any questions whether this law 1717 makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or 1718
ammunition, you should consult an attorney." 1719

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 1720
maintain an index for the protection orders and the approved 1721
consent agreements delivered to the agencies pursuant to 1722
consent agreement delivered, each agency shall note on the index 1724

agreement. 1726

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 1727
the order or agreement in the county in which the officer's 1728 agency has jurisdiction pursuant to division (N) of this 1729 section, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a 1730
protection order issued or consent agreement approved by any 1731
court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the 1732
premises, if appropriate. 1734

(G) Any proceeding under this section shall be conducted 1735
in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that an 1736 order under this section may be obtained with or without bond. 1737
An order issued under this section, other than an ex parte 1738 order, that grants a protection order or approves a consent 1739
agreement, that refuses to grant a protection order or approve a 1740 consent agreement that modifies or terminates a protection order 1741 or consent agreement, or that refuses to modify or terminate a 1742 protection order or consent agreement, is a final, appealable 1743 order. The remedies and procedures provided in this section are 1744
criminal remedies. 1746

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 1747
excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 1748
law. When a petition under this section alleges domestic 1750 violence against minor children, the court shall report the 1751 fact, or cause reports to be made, to a county, township, or 1752 municipal peace officer under section 2151.421 of the Revised 1753 Code. 1754

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates a 1755 domestic dispute shall provide information to the family or 1756 household members involved regarding the relief available under 1757 this section and section 2919.26 of the Revised Code. 1758

(J) (1) Subject to divisions (E) (8) (e) and (J) (2) of this 1759 section and regardless of whether a protection order is issued 1760 or a consent agreement is approved by a court of another county 1761
or a court of another state, no court or unit of state or local 1762
or consent agreement. 1769

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 1770
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 1771
the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 1773
agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 1775
of a protection order or consent agreement. 1776

(K) (1) The court shall comply with Chapters 3119., 3121., 1777
an order for child support under this section. 1779

(2) If any person required to pay child support under an 1780 order made under this section on or after April 15, 1985, or 1781 modified under this section on or after December 31, 1986, is 1782 found in contempt of court for failure to make support payments 1783 under the order, the court that makes the finding, in addition 1784 to any other penalty or remedy imposed, shall assess all court 1785 costs arising out of the contempt proceeding against the person 1786 and require the person to pay any reasonable attorney's fees of 1787 any adverse party, as determined by the court, that arose in 1788 relation to the act of contempt. 1789

(L) (1) A person who violates a protection order issued or 1790 a consent agreement approved under this section is subject to 1791 the following sanctions: 1792

(a) Criminal prosecution or a delinquent child proceeding 1793 for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the 1794 violation of the protection order or consent agreement 1795 constitutes a violation of that section; 1796

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 1797

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 1798 violation of a protection order issued or a consent agreement 1799 approved under this section does not bar criminal prosecution of 1800 the person or a delinquent child proceeding concerning the 1801 person for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. 1802 However, a person punished for contempt of court is entitled to 1803 credit for the punishment imposed upon conviction of or 1804 adjudication as a delinquent child for a violation of that 1805 section, and a person convicted of or adjudicated a delinquent 1806 child for a violation of that section shall not subsequently be 1807 punished for contempt of court arising out of the same activity. 1808

(M) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 1809
petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 1810

(N) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order or 1811 consent agreement under this section or a temporary protection 1812 order under section 2919.26 of the Revised Code may provide 1813 notice of the issuance or approval of the order or agreement to 1814 the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other 1815 than the county in which the order is issued or the agreement is 1816 approved by registering that order or agreement in the other 1817 county pursuant to division (N) (2) of this section and filing a 1818 copy of the registered order or registered agreement with a law 1819 enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that 1820 division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a 1821

order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 1823 county of this state by registering the order in that county 1824 pursuant to section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a 1825 copy of the registered order with a law enforcement agency in 1826

(2) A petitioner may register a temporary protection 1828 order, protection order, or consent agreement in a county other 1829
than the county in which the court that issued the order or 1830

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 1832
order or agreement from the clerk of the court that issued the 1833 order or approved the agreement and present that certified copy 1834 to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the clerk of a 1835 municipal court or county court in the county in which the order 1836

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order or 1838
agreement for registration, the clerk of the court of common 1839
proof of registration. 1843

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, the clerk of each municipal court, and the clerk of each county court shall maintain a registry of certified copies of temporary protection orders, protection orders, or consent agreements that have been issued or approved by courts in other counties and that have been registered with the clerk.

(0) Nothing in this section prohibits the domestic relations division of a court of common pleas in counties that have a domestic relations division or a court of common pleas in counties that do not have a domestic relations division from designating a minor child as a protected party on a protection order or consent agreement.

Sec. 3113.311. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Dating violence" means the occurrence of one or more of the following acts against a petitioner alleging dating violence:

(a) Attempting to cause or recklessly causing bodily injury; violence" or "person alleging dating violence" does not include, 1876 with respect to a specified respondent, another person who has 1877 only a casual relationship with the specified respondent or 1878 persons shall be determined based on a consideration of either 1882 of the following factors: 1883

(i) The nature of the relationship must have been 1884 characterized by the expectation of affection between the two 1885 persons. 1886

(ii) The frequency and type of interaction between the two 1887 persons involved in the relationship must have included that the 1888 persons have been involved over time and on a continuous basis 1889 during the course of the relationship. 1890

(4) "Victim advocate" means a person who provides support 1891 and assistance for a person who files a petition under this 1892
section. 1893

(C) A petitioner alleging dating violence may seek relief under this section on the person's own behalf, or any parent or adult household member of a person alleging dating violence may seek relief under this section on behalf of that person, by filing a petition with the court. The petition shall contain or state: 1900

(D) (1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex parte hearing on the same day that the petition is filed. The court, for good cause shown at the ex parte hearing, may enter any temporary orders, with or without bond, including, but not limited to, an order described in division (E) (1) (a) of this section, that the court finds necessary to protect the petitioner alleging dating violence from any dating violence. Immediate and present danger of dating violence to the petitioner alleging dating violence constitutes good cause for purposes of this section. Immediate and present danger includes, but is not limited to, situations in which the respondent has 1918 threatened the petitioner alleging dating violence with bodily 1930 harm, in which the respondent has threatened that petitioner 1931 with a sexually oriented offense, or in which the respondent 1932 previously has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been 1933 adjudicated a delinquent child for an offense that constitutes 1934 dating violence against the petitioner alleging dating violence. 1935

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues any 1936 protection order that is authorized under division (E) of this 1937 section, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that 1938
heard at, the full hearing. The court shall hold the full 1941 hearing on the date scheduled under this division unless the 1942
court grants a continuance of the hearing in accordance with 1943
this division. Under any of the following circumstances or for 1944
of the full hearing to a reasonable time determined by the 1946
court: 1947

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 1948
this division, the respondent has not been served with the 1949
petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full 1950
hearing. 1951

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 1952

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain 1953
counsel. 1954

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 1955

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 1956
upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing 1958

under division (D) (2) (a) of this section or because the court grants a continuance under that division. 1959 1960

1966

(E) (1) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may grant any protection order, with or without bond, or approve any consent agreement to bring about a cessation of dating violence against the petitioner alleging dating violence. The order or agreement may: 1967
1968
1969
1970
1971

(a) Direct the respondent to refrain from abusing or from committing sexually oriented offenses against the petitioner alleging dating violence; 1972
1973

1984

(e) Authorize the petitioner alleging dating violence to remove a companion animal owned by that petitioner from the 1986
1987

(f) Grant other relief that the court considers equitable and fair.	1989 1990
(2) If a protection order has been issued pursuant to this section in a prior action involving the respondent and the petitioner alleging dating violence or the petitioner filing the petition if other than the person alleging dating violence, the court may include in a protection order that it issues a prohibition against the respondent returning to the residence, school, business, or place of employment.	1991 1992 1993 1994 1995 1996 1997
(b) Any protection order issued or consent agreement approved pursuant to this section may be renewed in the same manner as the original order or agreement was issued or approved.	2005 2006 2007 2008
(4) A court may not issue a protection order that requires a petitioner alleging dating violence to do or to refrain from doing an act that the court may require a respondent to do or to refrain from doing under division (E) (1) (a), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of this section unless all of the following apply:	2009 2010 2011 2012 2013
(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a protection order in accordance with this section.	2014 2015

petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a 2017 hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the 2018 petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 2019

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 2020
pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not 2021
delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 2022
specified in that division in order to consolidate the hearing 2023
with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 2024

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 2025 evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 2026
the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 2027
evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed 2028 an act of dating violence, that both the petitioner and the 2029 respondent acted primarily as aggressors, and that neither the 2030 petitioner nor the respondent acted primarily in self-defense. 2031

(5) (a) If a protection order issued or consent agreement 2032
approved under this section includes a requirement that the 2033
respondent refrain from entering the residence, school, 2034 business, or place of employment of the petitioner alleging 2035 dating violence or the petitioner filing the petition if other 2036 than the person alleging dating violence, the order or agreement 2037 shall state clearly that the order or agreement cannot be waived 2038 or nullified by an invitation to the respondent from the 2039 petitioner alleging dating violence or the petitioner filing the 2040 petition to enter the residence, school, business, or place of 2041 employment or by the respondent's entry into one of those places 2042 otherwise upon the consent of the applicable petitioner. 2043

(b) Division (E) (5) (a) of this section does not limit any 2044
with contempt of court, which charge is based on an alleged 2046 violation of a protection order issued or consent agreement 2047 approved under this section, did not commit the violation or was 2048

not in contempt of court. 2049

(6) (a) The court may modify or terminate as provided in 2050
division (E) (6) of this section a protection order or consent 2051 agreement that was issued after a full hearing under this 2052
section. The court that issued the protection order or approved 2053
the consent agreement shall hear a motion for modification or 2054
termination of the protection order or consent agreement 2055
pursuant to division (E) (6) of this section. 2056

(b) Either the petitioner alleging dating violence or the 2057
respondent of the original protection order or consent agreement 2058 may bring a motion for modification or termination of a 2059 protection order or consent agreement that was issued or 2060 approved after a full hearing. The court shall require notice of 2061 the motion to be made as provided by the Rules of Civil 2062 Procedure. If that petitioner for the original protection order 2063 or consent agreement has requested that the petitioner's address 2064 be kept confidential, the court shall not disclose the address 2065 to the respondent of the original protection order or consent 2066 agreement or any other person, except as otherwise required by 2067
law. The moving party has the burden of proof to show, by a 2068 preponderance of the evidence, that modification or termination 2069 of the protection order or consent agreement is appropriate 2070 because either the protection order or consent agreement is no 2071 longer needed or because the terms of the original protection 2072 order or consent agreement are no longer appropriate. 2073

(c) In considering whether to modify or terminate a 2074
this section, the court shall consider all relevant factors, 2076

including, but not limited to, the following:	2077
(i) Whether the petitioner consents to modification or	2078
termination of the protection order or consent agreement;	2079
(ii) Whether the petitioner fears the respondent;	2080
(iii) The current nature of the relationship between the	2081
petitioner and the respondent;	2082
(iv) The circumstances of the petitioner and respondent,	2083
including the relative proximity of the petitioner's and	2084
respondent's workplaces and residences;	2085
(v) Whether the respondent has complied with the terms and	2086
conditions of the original protection order or consent	2087
agreement;	2088
(vi) Whether the respondent has a continuing involvement	2089
with illegal drugs or alcohol;	2090
(vii) Whether the respondent has been convicted of,	2091
pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a delinquent child for an	2092
offense of violence since the issuance of the protection order	2093
or approval of the consent agreement;	2094
(viii) Whether any other protection orders, consent	2095
agreements, restraining orders, or no contact orders have been	2096
issued against the respondent pursuant to this section, section	2097
2919.26 or 3113.31 of the Revised Code, any other provision of	2098
state law, or the law of any other state;	2099
(ix) Whether the respondent has participated in any dating	2100
violence treatment, intervention program, or other counseling	2101
addressing dating violence and whether the respondent has	2102
completed the treatment, program, or counseling;	2103

(x) The time that has elapsed since the protection order 2104
was issued or since the consent agreement was approved; 2105

(xi) The age and health of the respondent; 2106

(xii) When the last incident of abuse, threat of harm, or 2107
commission of a sexually oriented offense occurred or other 2108
relevant information concerning the safety and protection of the 2109
petitioner alleging dating violence, or the petitioner filing 2110
the petition if other than the person alleging dating violence. 2111

(d) If a protection order or consent agreement is modified 2112
or terminated as provided in division (E) (6) of this section, 2113
the court shall issue copies of the modified or terminated order 2114
or agreement as provided in division (F) of this section. A 2115
petitioner may also provide notice of the modification or 2116
termination to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 2117
county other than the county in which the order or agreement is 2118 modified or terminated as provided in division (L) of this 2119
section. 2120

(e) If the respondent moves for modification or 2121
termination of a protection order or consent agreement pursuant 2122
to this section and the court denies the motion, the court may 2123
assess costs against the respondent for the filing of the 2124
motion. 2125

(7) Any protection order issued or any consent agreement 2126
approved pursuant to this section shall include a provision that 2127
the court will automatically seal all of the records of the 2128
the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen years unless 2130

consent agreement shall specify the date when the respondent 2134

(F) (1) A copy of any protection order, or consent 2136
agreement, that is issued, approved, modified, or terminated 2137
under this section shall be issued by the court to the 2138
petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement 2139
agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order or 2140
agreement. The court shall direct that a copy of an order be 2141
entered. 2143

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order or the 2144
approval of a consent agreement under this section, the court 2145
shall provide the parties to the order or agreement with the 2146

As a result of this order or consent agreement, it may be 2149
unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a 2150
rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal 2151
law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8) for the duration of this order or 2152
ammunition, you should consult an attorney." 2155

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 2156
consent agreements delivered to the agencies pursuant to 2158
division (F) (1) of this section. With respect to each order and 2159
consent agreement delivered, each agency shall note on the index 2160

agreement. 2162

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 2163
agency has jurisdiction pursuant to division (L) of this 2165
protection order issued or consent agreement approved by any 2167
court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the 2168
premises, if appropriate. 2170

(G) Any proceeding under this section shall be conducted 2171
in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that an 2172
order under this section may be obtained with or without bond. 2173
An order issued under this section, other than an ex parte 2174
consent agreement that modifies or terminates a protection order 2177
protection order or consent agreement, is a final, appealable 2179
order. The remedies and procedures provided in this section are 2180 in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other available civil or 2181
criminal remedies. 2182

(H) Any law enforcement agency that investigates a dispute 2183 involving persons in a dating relationship shall provide 2184 information to the potential petitioner alleging dating violence 2185 involved regarding the relief available under this section. 2186

(I) (1) Subject to divisions (E) (6) (e) and (I) (2) of this 2187
section and regardless of whether a protection order is issued 2188
or a consent agreement is approved by a court of another county 2189
government shall charge the petitioner any fee, cost, deposit, 2191

or money in connection with the filing of a petition pursuant to 2192
this section or in connection with the filing, issuance, 2193
registration, modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, 2194
or service of a protection order, consent agreement, or witness 2195
subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order 2196
or consent agreement. 2197

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 2198
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 2199
court may assess costs against the respondent in connection with 2200
the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 2201
dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 2202
agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 2203
of a protection order or consent agreement. 2204

(J) A person who violates a protection order issued or a 2205 consent agreement approved under this section is guilty of a 2206 violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. 2207

(K) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 2208 petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 2209

(L) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order or 2210 consent agreement under this section may provide notice of the 2211 issuance or approval of the order or agreement to the judicial 2212 and law enforcement officials in any county other than the 2213 county in which the order is issued or the agreement is approved 2214 by registering that order or agreement in the other county 2215 pursuant to division (L) (2) of this section and filing a copy of 2216 the registered order or registered agreement with a law 2217 enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that 2218
division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a 2219

pursuant to section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a 2223
copy of the registered order with a law enforcement agency in 2224
that county. 2225

(2) A petitioner may register a temporary protection 2226
order, protection order, or consent agreement in a county other 2227
approved the agreement is located in the following manner: 2229

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 2230
order or agreement from the clerk of the court that issued the 2231
order or approved the agreement and present that certified copy 2232
to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the clerk of a 2233
municipal court or county court in the county in which the order 2234
or agreement is to be registered. 2235

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order or 2236
agreement for registration, the clerk of the court of common 2237
proof of registration. 2241

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, the clerk of 2242 each municipal court, and the clerk of each county court shall 2243 maintain a registry of certified copies of temporary protection 2244 orders, protection orders, or consent agreements that have been 2245 issued or approved by courts in other counties and that have 2246 been registered with the clerk. 2247
