relying upon additional reasons or legal authority in defending 383 an action commenced under division (C) of this section. 384

(4) Unless specifically required or authorized by state or 385 federal law or in accordance with division (B) of this section, 386 no public office or person responsible for public records may 387 limit or condition the availability of public records by 388 requiring disclosure of the requester's identity or the intended 389 use of the requested public record. Any requirement that the 390 requester disclose the requester's identity or the intended use 391 request. 393

(5) A public office or person responsible for public records may ask a requester to make the request in writing, may ask for the requester's identity, and may inquire about the intended use of the information requested, but may do so only after disclosing to the requester that a written request is not mandatory and that the requester may decline to reveal the requester's identity or the intended use and when a written request or disclosure of the identity or intended use would benefit the requester by enhancing the ability of the public office or person responsible for public records to identify, locate, or deliver the public records sought by the requester.

record to make the copies of the public record. 425 of this section and subject to division (B) (6) of this section, 427 a public office or person responsible for public records shall 428

States mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission 430 within a reasonable period of time after receiving the request 431 for the copy. The public office or person responsible for the 432 public record may require the person making the request to pay 433 in advance the cost of postage if the copy is transmitted by 434 United States mail or the cost of delivery if the copy is 435 transmitted other than by United States mail, and to pay in 436 advance the costs incurred for other supplies used in the 437 mailing, delivery, or transmission. 438

(b) Any public office may adopt a policy and procedures 439 that it will follow in transmitting, within a reasonable period 440 of time after receiving a request, copies of public records by 441 the person does not intend to use or forward the requested 453 records, or the information contained in them, for commercial 454

purposes; 455

(ii) A public office that chooses to provide some or all 456 of its public records on a web site that is fully accessible to 457 and searchable by members of the public at all times, other than 458 during acts of God outside the public office's control or 459 maintenance, and that charges no fee to search, access, 460 download, or otherwise receive records provided on the web site, 461 person does not intend to use or forward the requested records, 466 or the information contained in them, for commercial purposes. 467 be a criminal investigation or prosecution if the subject of the 478 investigation or prosecution were an adult, unless the request 479 to inspect or to obtain a copy of the record is for the purpose 480 of acquiring information that is subject to release as a public 481 record under this section and the judge who imposed the sentence 482 or made the adjudication with respect to the person, or the 483 judge's successor in office, finds that the information sought 484 in the public record is necessary to support what appears to be 485 a justiciable claim of the person. 486

(9) (a) Upon written request made and signed by a 487 officer's spouse, former spouse, or child. The request shall 517 include the journalist's name and title and the name and address 518 of the journalist's employer and shall state that disclosure of 519 the information sought would be in the public interest. 520

(b) Division (B) (9) (a) of this section also applies to 521 journalist requests for customer information maintained by a 522 municipally owned or operated public utility, other than social 523 security numbers and any private financial information such as 524 credit reports, payment methods, credit card numbers, and bank 525 account information. 526

(c) As used in division (B) (9) of this section, 527
"journalist" means a person engaged in, connected with, or 528 employed by any news medium, including a newspaper, magazine, 529 press association, news agency, or wire service, a radio or 530 television station, or a similar medium, for the purpose of 531 gathering, processing, transmitting, compiling, editing, or 532 disseminating information for the general public. 533

(10) Upon a request made by a victim, victim's attorney, 534 or victim's representative, as that term is used in section 535 2930.02 of the Revised Code, a public office or person 536 responsible for public records shall transmit a copy of a 537 depiction of the victim as described in division (A) (1) (gg) of 538 this section to the victim, victim's attorney, or victim's 539 representative. 540

(C) (1) If a person allegedly is aggrieved by the failure 541 of a public office or the person responsible for public records 542 to promptly prepare a public record and to make it available to 543 the person for inspection in accordance with division (B) of 544 this section or by any other failure of a public office or the 545 person responsible for public records to comply with an 546 obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section, the 547 person allegedly aggrieved may do only one of the following, and 548 not both: 549

(a) File a complaint with the clerk of the court of claims 550 or the clerk of the court of common pleas under section 2743.75 551 of the Revised Code; 552

(b) Commence a mandamus action to obtain a judgment that 553 orders the public office or the person responsible for the 554 public record to comply with division (B) of this section, that 555 awards court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person 556 that instituted the mandamus action, and, if applicable, that 557 includes an order fixing statutory damages under division (C) (2) 558 of this section. The mandamus action may be commenced in the 559 court of common pleas of the county in which division (B) of 560 this section allegedly was not complied with, in the supreme 561 court pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 2 of 562 Article IV, Ohio Constitution, or in the court of appeals for 563 the appellate district in which division (B) of this section 564 allegedly was not complied with pursuant to its original 565 jurisdiction under Section 3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 566

(2) If a requester transmits a written request by hand 567 delivery or certified mail to inspect or receive copies of any 568 public record in a manner that fairly describes the public 569 record or class of public records to the public office or person 570 responsible for the requested public records, except as 571 otherwise provided in this section, the requester shall be 572 entitled to recover the amount of statutory damages set forth in 573 this division if a court determines that the public office or 574 the person responsible for public records failed to comply with 575 an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section. 576

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one 577 hundred dollars for each business day during which the public 578 office or person responsible for the requested public records 579 failed to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 580
(B) of this section, beginning with the day on which the 581 requester files a mandamus action to recover statutory damages, 582 up to a maximum of one thousand dollars. The award of statutory 583 damages shall not be construed as a penalty, but as compensation 584 for injury arising from lost use of the requested information. 585
The existence of this injury shall be conclusively presumed. The 586 award of statutory damages shall be in addition to all other 587 remedies authorized by this section. 588

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 589 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 590 following: 591

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory 592 law and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 593 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 594
for the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a 595 failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 596
(B) of this section and that was the basis of the mandamus 597 action, a well-informed public office or person responsible for 598
the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 599 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 600 responsible for the requested public records did not constitute 601 a failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with 602
division (B) of this section; 603

(b) That a well-informed public office or person 604 responsible for the requested public records reasonably would 605 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for the requested public records would serve the public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as permitting that conduct or threatened conduct.

(3) In a mandamus action filed under division (C) (1) of this section, the following apply:

(a) (i) If the court orders the public office or the person responsible for the public record to comply with division (B) of this section, the court shall determine and award to the relator all court costs, which shall be construed as remedial and not punitive.

(ii) If the court makes a determination described in division (C) (3) (b) (iii) of this section, the court shall determine and award to the relator all court costs, which shall be construed as remedial and not punitive.

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public office or the person responsible for the public record to comply with division (B) of this section or if the court determines any of the following, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the relator, subject to the provisions of division (C) (4) of this section:

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to the public records request in accordance with the time allowed under division (B) of this section.

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or receive copies of the public records requested within a specified period of time but failed to fulfill that promise within that specified period of time. 635

(iii) The public office or the person responsible for the 636 public records acted in bad faith when the office or person 637 voluntarily made the public records available to the relator for 638 the first time after the relator commenced the mandamus action, 639 but before the court issued any order concluding whether or not 640 the public office or person was required to comply with division 641
(B) of this section. No discovery may be conducted on the issue 642 of the alleged bad faith of the public office or person 643 responsible for the public records. This division shall not be 644 construed as creating a presumption that the public office or 645 the person responsible for the public records acted in bad faith 646 when the office or person voluntarily made the public records 647 available to the relator for the first time after the relator 648 commenced the mandamus action, but before the court issued any 649 order described in this division. 650

(c) The court shall not award attorney's fees to the 651 relator if the court determines both of the following: 652

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory 653
law and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 654
threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 655
for the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a 656
failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 657
(B) of this section and that was the basis of the mandamus 658
action, a well-informed public office or person responsible for 659
the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 660
conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 661
responsible for the requested public records did not constitute 662
a failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with 663
division (B) of this section; 664

(ii) That a well-informed public office or person 665
responsible for the requested public records reasonably would 666 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct of the public 667
office or person responsible for the requested public records 668 would serve the public policy that underlies the authority that 669 is asserted as permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 670

(4) All of the following apply to any award of reasonable 671 attorney's fees awarded under division (C) (3) (b) of this 672 section: 673

(a) The fees shall be construed as remedial and not 674 punitive. 675

(b) The fees awarded shall not exceed the total of the 676 reasonable attorney's fees incurred before the public record was 677 made available to the relator and the fees described in division 678
(C) (4) (c) of this section. 679

(c) Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable 680 fees incurred to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount 681 of the fees and to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. 682

(d) The court may reduce the amount of fees awarded if the 683 court determines that, given the factual circumstances involved 684 with the specific public records request, an alternative means 685 should have been pursued to more effectively and efficiently 686 resolve the dispute that was subject to the mandamus action 687 filed under division (C) (1) of this section. 688

(5) If the court does not issue a writ of mandamus under 689 division (C) of this section and the court determines at that 690 time that the bringing of the mandamus action was frivolous 691 conduct as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 of the 692 Revised Code, the court may award to the public office all court 693 costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined 694 by the court. 695

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the 696 provisions of this section. 697

(E) (1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are 698 appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under 699 division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their 700 appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the 701 attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised 702 Code. In addition, all public offices shall adopt a public 703 records policy in compliance with this section for responding to 704 public records requests. In adopting a public records policy 705 under this division, a public office may obtain guidance from 706 the model public records policy developed and provided to the 707 public office by the attorney general under section 109.43 of 708 the Revised Code. Except as otherwise provided in this section, 709 the policy may not limit the number of public records that the 710 public office will make available to a single person, may not 711 limit the number of public records that it will make available 712 during a fixed period of time, and may not establish a fixed 713 period of time before it will respond to a request for 714 inspection or copying of public records, unless that period is 715 less than eight hours. 716

(2) The public office shall distribute the public records 717 policy adopted by the public office under division (E) (1) of 718 this section to the employee of the public office who is the 719 records custodian or records manager or otherwise has custody of 720 the records of that office. The public office shall require that 721 employee to acknowledge receipt of the copy of the public 722 records policy. The public office shall create a poster that 723 describes its public records policy and shall post the poster in 724 a conspicuous place in the public office and in all locations 725 where the public office has branch offices. The public office 726 may post its public records policy on the internet web site of 727 the public office if the public office maintains an internet web 728 site. A public office that has established a manual or handbook 729 of its general policies and procedures for all employees of the 730 public office shall include the public records policy of the 731 public office in the manual or handbook. 732

(F) (1) The bureau of motor vehicles may adopt rules 733 pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit 734 the number of bulk commercial special extraction requests made 735 by a person for the same records or for updated records during a 736 calendar year. The rules may include provisions for charges to 737 be made for bulk commercial special extraction requests for the 738 actual cost of the bureau, plus special extraction costs, plus 739 ten per cent. The bureau may charge for expenses for redacting 740 information, the release of which is prohibited by law. 741

(2) As used in division (F) (1) of this section: 742

(a) "Actual cost" means the cost of depleted supplies, 743 extracted without examination of all items in a records series, 751 class of records, or database by a person who intends to use or 752 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or 753 resale for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special 754 extraction request" does not include a request by a person who 755 gives assurance to the bureau that the person making the request 756 does not intend to use or forward the requested copies for 757 surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial 758

purposes. 759

(c) "Commercial" means profit-seeking production, buying, 760 or selling of any good, service, or other product. 761

(d) "Special extraction costs" means the cost of the time 762 spent by the lowest paid employee competent to perform the task, 763 the actual amount paid to outside private contractors employed 764 programs to make the special extraction. "Special extraction 766 costs" include any charges paid to a public agency for computer 767 or records services. 768

(3) For purposes of divisions (F) (1) and (2) of this 769 section, "surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for 770 commercial purposes" shall be narrowly construed and does not 771 include reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering 772 information to assist citizen oversight or understanding of the 773 operation or activities of government, or nonprofit educational 774 research. 775

(G) A request by a defendant, counsel of a defendant, or 776 any agent of a defendant in a criminal action that public 777 records related to that action be made available under this 778 section shall be considered a demand for discovery pursuant to 779 the Criminal Rules, except to the extent that the Criminal Rules 780 plainly indicate a contrary intent. The defendant, counsel of 781 the defendant, or agent of the defendant making a request under 782 this division shall serve a copy of the request on the 783

and Protection Act."	789
