(B) The appropriate ethics commission shall investigate 2033 complaints, may investigate charges presented to it, and may 2034 request further information, including the specific amount of 2035 income from a source, from any person filing with the commission a 2036 statement required by section 102.02 ~~or~~, 102.021, or 102.023 of 2037 the Revised Code, if the information sought is directly relevant 2038 to a complaint or charges received by the commission pursuant to 2039 this section. This information is confidential, except that the 2040 commission, in its discretion, may share information gathered in 2041 the course of any investigation with, or disclose the information 2042 to, the inspector general, any appropriate prosecuting authority, 2043 any law enforcement agency, or any other appropriate ethics 2044 commission. If the accused person is a member of the public 2045 employees retirement board, state teachers retirement board, 2046 school employees retirement board, board of trustees of the Ohio 2047 police and fire pension fund, or state highway patrol retirement 2048 board, or is a member of the bureau of workers' compensation board 2049 of directors, the appropriate ethics commission, in its 2050 discretion, also may share information gathered in the course of 2051 an investigation with, or disclose the information to, the 2052 attorney general and the auditor of state. The person so requested 2053 shall furnish the information to the commission, unless within 2054 fifteen days from the date of the request the person files an 2055 action for declaratory judgment challenging the legitimacy of the 2056 request in the court of common pleas of the county of the person's 2057 residence, the person's place of employment, or Franklin county. 2058
The requested information need not be furnished to the commission 2059 during the pendency of the judicial proceedings. Proceedings of 2060 the commission in connection with the declaratory judgment action 2061 shall be kept confidential except as otherwise provided by this 2062 section. Before the commission proceeds to take any formal action 2063 against a person who is the subject of an investigation based on 2064 charges presented to the commission, a complaint shall be filed 2065 against the person. If the commission finds that a complaint is 2066 not frivolous, and there is reasonable cause to believe that the 2067 facts alleged in a complaint constitute a violation of section 2068 102.02, 102.021, 102.023, 102.03, 102.04, 102.07, 2921.42, or 2069

2921.43 of the Revised Code, it shall hold a hearing. If the 2070 commission does not so find, it shall dismiss the complaint and 2071 notify the accused person in writing of the dismissal of the 2072 complaint. The commission shall not make a report of its finding 2073 unless the accused person requests a report. Upon the request of 2074 the accused person, the commission shall make a public report of 2075 its finding. The person against whom the complaint is directed 2076 shall be given reasonable notice by certified mail of the date, 2077 time, and place of the hearing and a statement of the charges and 2078 the law directly involved and shall be given the opportunity to be 2079 represented by counsel, to have counsel appointed for the person 2080 if the person is unable to afford counsel without undue hardship, 2081 to examine the evidence against the person, to produce evidence 2082 and to call and subpoena witnesses in the person's defense, to 2083 confront the person's accusers, and to cross-examine witnesses. 2084
The commission shall have a stenographic record made of the 2085 hearing. The hearing shall be closed to the public. 2086

(C)(1)(a) If, upon the basis of the hearing, the appropriate 2087 ethics commission finds by a preponderance of the evidence that 2088 the facts alleged in the complaint are true and constitute a 2089 violation of section 102.02, 102.021, 102.023, 102.03, 102.04, 2090 102.07, 2921.42, or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, it shall report 2091 its findings to the appropriate prosecuting authority for 2092 proceedings in prosecution of the violation and to the appointing 2093 or employing authority of the accused. If the accused person is a 2094 member of the public employees retirement board, state teachers 2095 retirement board, school employees retirement board, board of 2096 trustees of the Ohio police and fire pension fund, or state 2097 highway patrol retirement board, the commission also shall report 2098 its findings to the Ohio retirement study council. 2099

(b) If the Ohio ethics commission reports its findings to the 2100 appropriate prosecuting authority under division (C)(1)(a) of this 2101 section and the prosecuting authority has not initiated any 2102 official action on those findings within ninety days after 2103 receiving the commission's report of them, the commission may 2104 publicly comment that no official action has been taken on its 2105 findings, except that the commission shall make no comment in 2106 violation of the Rules of Criminal Procedure or about any 2107 indictment that has been sealed pursuant to any law or those 2108 rules. The commission shall make no comment regarding the merits 2109 of its findings. As used in division (C)(1)(b) of this section, 2110
"official action" means prosecution, closure after investigation, 2111 or grand jury action resulting in a true bill of indictment or no 2112 true bill of indictment. 2113

(2) If the appropriate ethics commission does not find by a 2114 preponderance of the evidence that the facts alleged in the 2115 complaint are true and constitute a violation of section 102.02, 2116 102.021, 102.023, 102.03, 102.04, 102.07, 2921.42, or 2921.43 of 2117 the Revised Code or if the commission has not scheduled a hearing 2118 within ninety days after the complaint is filed or has not finally 2119 disposed of the complaint within six months after it has been 2120 heard, it shall dismiss the complaint and notify the accused 2121 person in writing of the dismissal of the complaint. The 2122 commission shall not make a report of its finding unless the 2123 accused person requests a report. Upon the request of the accused 2124 person, the commission shall make a public report of the finding, 2125 but in this case all evidence and the record of the hearing shall 2126 remain confidential unless the accused person also requests that 2127 the evidence and record be made public. Upon request by the 2128 accused person, the commission shall make the evidence and the 2129 record available for public inspection. 2130

(D) The appropriate ethics commission, or a member of the 2131 commission, may administer oaths, and the commission may issue 2132 subpoenas to any person in the state compelling the attendance of 2133 witnesses and the production of relevant papers, books, accounts, 2134 and records. The commission shall issue subpoenas to compel the 2135 attendance of witnesses and the production of documents upon the 2136 request of an accused person. Section 101.42 of the Revised Code 2137 shall govern the issuance of these subpoenas insofar as 2138 applicable. Upon the refusal of any person to obey a subpoena or 2139 to be sworn or to answer as a witness, the commission may apply to 2140 the court of common pleas of Franklin county under section 2705.03 2141 of the Revised Code. The court shall hold proceedings in 2142 accordance with Chapter 2705. of the Revised Code. The commission 2143 or the accused person may take the depositions of witnesses 2144 residing within or without the state in the same manner as 2145 prescribed by law for the taking of depositions in civil actions 2146 in the court of common pleas. 2147

(E) At least once each year, the Ohio ethics commission shall 2148 report on its activities of the immediately preceding year to the 2149 majority and minority leaders of the senate and house of 2150 representatives of the general assembly. The report shall indicate 2151 the total number of complaints received, initiated, and 2152 investigated by the commission, the total number of complaints for 2153 which formal hearings were held, and the total number of 2154 complaints for which formal prosecution was recommended or 2155 requested by the commission. The report also shall indicate the 2156 nature of the inappropriate conduct alleged in each complaint and 2157 the governmental entity with which any employee or official that 2158 is the subject of a complaint was employed at the time of the 2159 alleged inappropriate conduct. 2160

(F) All papers, records, affidavits, and documents upon any 2161 complaint, inquiry, or investigation relating to the proceedings 2162 of the appropriate ethics commission shall be sealed and are 2163 private and confidential, except as otherwise provided in this 2164 section and section 102.07 of the Revised Code. 2165

(G)(1) When a complaint or charge is before it, the Ohio 2166 ethics commission or the appropriate prosecuting authority, in 2167 consultation with the person filing the complaint or charge, the 2168 accused, and any other person the commission or prosecuting 2169 authority considers necessary, may compromise or settle the 2170 complaint or charge with the agreement of the accused. The 2171 compromise or settlement may include mediation, restitution, 2172 rescission of affected contracts, forfeiture of any benefits 2173 resulting from a violation or potential violation of law, 2174 resignation of a public official or employee, or any other relief 2175 that is agreed upon between the commission or prosecuting 2176 authority and the accused. 2177

(2) Any settlement agreement entered into under division 2178
(G)(1) of this section shall be in writing and be accompanied by a 2179 statement of the findings of the commission or prosecuting 2180 authority and the reasons for entering into the agreement. The 2181 commission or prosecuting authority shall retain the agreement and 2182 statement in the commission's or prosecuting authority's office 2183 and, in the commission's or prosecuting authority's discretion, 2184 may make the agreement, the statement, and any supporting 2185 information public, unless the agreement provides otherwise. 2186

(3) If a settlement agreement is breached by the accused, the 2187 commission or prosecuting authority, in the commission's or 2188 prosecuting authority's discretion, may rescind the agreement and 2189 reinstitute any investigation, hearing, or prosecution of the 2190 accused. No information obtained from the accused in reaching the 2191 settlement that is not otherwise discoverable from the accused 2192 shall be used in any proceeding before the commission or by the 2193 appropriate prosecuting authority in prosecuting the violation. 2194 Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code, if a 2195 settlement agreement is breached, any statute of limitations for a 2196 violation of this chapter or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the 2197 Revised Code is tolled from the date the complaint or charge is 2198 filed until the date the settlement agreement is breached. 2199 exist in other districts, schools, or institutions of higher 2417 education, or to create opportunities for success, and to assess 2418 vote to determine whether districts and schools can reasonably 2440 comply with the proposed standards, procedures, timelines, and 2441 other requirements related to review or audit of full-time 2442 equivalency student enrollment reporting. If the committee 2443

(D) The office shall determine whether an action referred to 2893 statutes creating the board or commission or the statutes and 2896 rules setting forth the board's or commission's powers, authority, 2897 and duties. If the office finds this to be the case, the office 2898 shall determine whether the clearly articulated state policy is 2899 merely a pretext by which the board or commission enables the 2900 members of an occupation or industry the board or commission 2901 regulates to engage in anticompetitive conduct that could be 2902 subject to state or federal antitrust law if the action were taken 2903 or commission's action, the board or commission may proceed to 2912 take or may continue the action. 2913 articulated state policy or that if it is pursuant to a clearly 2916 articulated state policy, that policy is a pretext as described in 2917 division (D) of this section. If the office disapproves the 2918 board's or commission's action, the action is void. 2919 office's approval or disapproval. The office shall transmit a copy 2921 involved. The office shall post the memorandum on the web site 2924 commencing such an action. This division shall not apply to the 2929 attorney general, a county prosecuting attorney, or any assistant 2930 prosecutor designated to assist a county prosecuting attorney. 2931

(2) The state, a board or commission, or a member of a board 2932 anticompetitive conduct by taking an action described in division 2935 (B)(1) or (2) of this section that has not been previously 2936 reviewed by the office under this section. If the lawsuit was 2937 initiated by a person other than the attorney general, a county 2938 assist a county prosecuting attorney, the court shall grant the 2940 request. If the lawsuit was initiated by the attorney general, a 2941 county prosecuting attorney, or any assistant prosecutor 2942 designated to assist a county prosecuting attorney, the court 2943 shall deny the request. Any stay granted under this division will 2944 continue in effect until the office has prepared and transmitted 2945 the memorandum required under division (F) of this section. 2946

(H) The office shall review any action referred to the office 2947 by a party who has been granted a stay pursuant to division (G) of 2948
this section. 2949

(I) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the 2950 appointing authorities are encouraged to exceed the number of 3872 hours the commission directs as the minimum. The commission shall 3873 set the required minimum number of hours based upon available 3874 funding for reimbursement as described in this division. If no 3875 funding for the reimbursement is available, no continuing 3876 professional training will be required. 3877

(2) An appointing authority may submit a written request to 3878 troopers must complete the required minimum number of hours of 3882

the executive director of the commission shall review the request 3894 and the submitted documentation. If the executive director of the 3895 commission is satisfied that emergency circumstances exist for any 3896 peace officer or trooper for whom a request was made under this 3897 division, the executive director may approve the request for that 3898 peace officer or trooper and grant an extension of the time within 3899 which that peace officer or trooper must complete the required 3900 minimum number of hours of continuing professional training set by 3901 the commission. An extension granted under this division may be 3902 for any period of time the executive director believes to be 3903 appropriate, and the executive director shall specify in the 3904 notice granting the extension the date on which the extension 3905 ends. Not later than thirty days after the date on which a request 3906 is submitted to the commission, for each peace officer and trooper 3907 within which a particular appointed peace officer or trooper of an 3914 appointing authority must complete the required minimum number of 3915 hours of continuing professional training set by the commission, 3916 the appointing authority shall require that peace officer or 3917 trooper to complete the required minimum number of hours of 3918 training not later than the date on which the extension ends. 3919

(B) With the advice of the Ohio peace officer training 3920 and division (B) of section 120.33 of the Revised Code. 4015 Disbursements from the fund to county governments shall be made at 4016 each county receives an equal percentage of its total cost for 4018 operating its county public defender system, its joint county 4019 public defender system, its county appointed counsel system, or 4020 its system operated under division (C)(7) of section 120.04 of the 4021

the county auditor. The board of county commissioners, after 4033 review and approval of the audited report, may then certify it to 4034 the state public defender for reimbursement. If a request for the 4035 reimbursement of any operating expenditure incurred by a county 4036 public defender office is not received by the state public 4037 defender within sixty days after the end of the calendar month in 4038 which the expenditure is incurred, the state public defender shall 4039 not pay the requested reimbursement, unless the county has 4040 requested, and the state public defender has granted, an extension 4041
of the sixty-day time limit. Each request for reimbursement shall 4042 include a certification by the county public defender that the 4043 persons provided representation by the county public defender's 4044 office during the period covered by the report were indigent and, 4045 corporation pursuant to division (E) of section 120.14 of the 4067 Revised Code, gift, or grant. 4068

(B) If the county public defender fails to maintain the 4069

the county public defender commission and the board of county 4075 commissioners of the county that the county public defender has 4076 failed to comply with its rules or the standards of the state 4077 public defender. Unless the county public defender commission or 4078 the county public defender corrects the conduct of the county 4079 public defender's office to comply with the rules and standards 4080 within ninety days after the date of the notice, the state public 4081 defender may deny payment of all or part of the county's 4082 reimbursement from the state provided for in division (A) of this 4083

Sec. 120.28. (A) The joint county public defender 4085 for reimbursement. If a request for the reimbursement of any 4090 operating expenditure incurred by a joint county public defender 4091 office is not received by the state public defender within sixty 4092 days after the end of the calendar month in which the expenditure 4093 is incurred, the state public defender shall not pay the requested 4094 reimbursement, unless the joint board of county commissioners has 4095 requested, and the state public defender has granted, an extension 4096

include a certification by the joint county public defender that 4098 period, a financial disclosure form completed by the person on a 4102 form prescribed by the state public defender. The state public 4103 defender shall also review the report and, in accordance with the 4104 standards, guidelines, and maximums established pursuant to 4105 divisions (B)(7) and (8) of section 120.04 of the Revised Code, 4106 section, "total cost" means total expenses minus costs and 4118 expenses reimbursable under section 120.35 of the Revised Code and 4119 any funds received by the joint county public defender commission 4120 pursuant to a contract, except a contract entered into with a 4121 municipal corporation pursuant to division (E) of section 120.24 4122 of the Revised Code, gift, or grant. Each county in the district 4123 shall be entitled to a share of such state reimbursement in 4124 proportion to the percentage of the total cost it has agreed to 4125 pay. 4126

(B) If the joint county public defender fails to maintain the 4127 standards for the conduct of the office established by the rules 4128 of the Ohio public defender commission pursuant to divisions (B) 4129 and (C) of section 120.03 or the standards established by the 4130 board of county commissioners of each county in the district that 4134 the joint county public defender has failed to comply with its 4135 joint public defender commission or the joint county public 4137 defender corrects the conduct of the joint county public 4138 defender's office to comply with the rules and standards within 4139 ninety days after the date of the notice, the state public 4140 defender may deny all or part of the counties' reimbursement from 4141 the state provided for in division (A) of this section. 4142 attorney fee council pursuant to division (D) of this section, and 4188 the board of county commissioners shall approve that amount or 4189

The court shall direct the person to pay the application fee 4405 to the clerk of court. The person shall pay the application fee to 4406 the clerk of court at the time the person files ~~an affidavit of~~ 4407 ~~indigency or~~ a financial disclosure form with the court, a state 4408 public defender, a county or joint county public defender, or any 4409 date. If the person does not pay the application fee within that 4411 seven-day period, the court shall assess the application fee at 4412 sentencing or at the final disposition of the case. 4413

(2) For purposes of this section, a criminal case includes 4414 assess the application fee against a child if the court appoints a 4421 guardian ad litem for the child or the court appoints an attorney 4422

(4) The court shall not assess an application fee for a 4424 post-release control sanction. 4430

(b) If a charge of violating a community control sanction or 4431 post-release control sanction described in division (A)(5)(a) of 4432 this section results in a person also being charged with violating 4433 any provision of the Revised Code or an ordinance of a municipal 4434

the case that results from the additional charge. 4436 result in an undue hardship. 4453

(B) No court, state public defender, county or joint county 4454 public defender, or other counsel appointed by the court shall 4455 deny a person the assistance of counsel solely due to the person's 4456

(F) Every public body, by rule, shall establish a reasonable 4626 method whereby any person may determine the time and place of all 4627 regularly scheduled meetings and the time, place, and purpose of 4628 all special meetings. A public body shall not hold a special 4629 meeting unless it gives at least twenty-four hours' advance notice 4630 to the news media that have requested notification, except in the 4631 event of an emergency requiring immediate official action. In the 4632 event of an emergency, the member or members calling the meeting 4633 shall notify the news media that have requested notification 4634 immediately of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting. 4635

The rule shall provide that any person, upon request and 4636 payment of a reasonable fee, may obtain reasonable advance 4637 notification of all meetings at which any specific type of public 4638 business is to be discussed. Provisions for advance notification 4639 may include, but are not limited to, mailing the agenda of 4640 meetings to all subscribers on a mailing list or mailing notices 4641 in self-addressed, stamped envelopes provided by the person. 4642

(G) Except as provided in divisions (G)(8) and (J) of this 4643 section, the members of a public body may hold an executive 4644 session only after a majority of a quorum of the public body 4645 determines, by a roll call vote, to hold an executive session and 4646 only at a regular or special meeting for the sole purpose of the 4647 consideration of any of the following matters: 4648

(1) To consider the appointment, employment, dismissal, 4649 discipline, promotion, demotion, or compensation of a public 4650 employee or official, or the investigation of charges or 4651 complaints against a public employee, official, licensee, or 4652 regulated individual, unless the public employee, official, 4653 licensee, or regulated individual requests a public hearing. 4654 Except as otherwise provided by law, no public body shall hold an 4655 executive session for the discipline of an elected official for 4656 conduct related to the performance of the elected official's 4657 official duties or for the elected official's removal from office. 4658
If a public body holds an executive session pursuant to division 4659 (G)(1) of this section, the motion and vote to hold that executive 4660 session shall state which one or more of the approved purposes 4661 listed in division (G)(1) of this section are the purposes for 4662 which the executive session is to be held, but need not include 4663 the name of any person to be considered at the meeting. 4664

(2) To consider the purchase of property for public purposes, 4665 the sale of property at competitive bidding, or the sale or other 4666 disposition of unneeded, obsolete, or unfit-for-use property in 4667 accordance with section 505.10 of the Revised Code, if premature 4668 disclosure of information would give an unfair competitive or 4669 bargaining advantage to a person whose personal, private interest 4670 is adverse to the general public interest. No member of a public 4671 body shall use division (G)(2) of this section as a subterfuge for 4672 providing covert information to prospective buyers or sellers. A 4673 purchase or sale of public property is void if the seller or buyer 4674 of the public property has received covert information from a 4675 member of a public body that has not been disclosed to the general 4676 public in sufficient time for other prospective buyers and sellers 4677 to prepare and submit offers. 4678

If the minutes of the public body show that all meetings and 4679 deliberations of the public body have been conducted in compliance 4680 with this section, any instrument executed by the public body 4681 purporting to convey, lease, or otherwise dispose of any right, 4682 title, or interest in any public property shall be conclusively 4683 presumed to have been executed in compliance with this section 4684 insofar as title or other interest of any bona fide purchasers, 4685 lessees, or transferees of the property is concerned. 4686

(3) Conferences with an attorney for the public body 4687 concerning disputes involving the public body that are the subject 4688 of pending or imminent court action; 4689

(4) Preparing for, conducting, or reviewing negotiations or 4690 bargaining sessions with public employees concerning their 4691 compensation or other terms and conditions of their employment; 4692

(5) Matters required to be kept confidential by federal law 4693 or regulations or state statutes; 4694

(6) Details relative to the security arrangements and 4695 emergency response protocols for a public body or a public office, 4696 if disclosure of the matters discussed could reasonably be 4697 expected to jeopardize the security of the public body or public 4698 office; 4699

(7) In the case of a county hospital operated pursuant to 4700
Chapter 339. of the Revised Code, a joint township hospital 4701 operated pursuant to Chapter 513. of the Revised Code, or a 4702 municipal hospital operated pursuant to Chapter 749. of the 4703 Revised Code, to consider trade secrets, as defined in section 4704

1333.61 of the Revised Code; 4705

(8) To consider confidential information related to the 4706 marketing plans, specific business strategy, production 4707 techniques, trade secrets, or personal financial statements of an 4708 applicant for economic development assistance, or to negotiations 4709 with other political subdivisions respecting requests for economic 4710 development assistance, provided that both of the following 4711 conditions apply: 4712

(a) The information is directly related to a request for 4713 economic development assistance that is to be provided or 4714 administered under any provision of Chapter 715., 725., 1724., or 4715 1728. or sections 701.07, 3735.67 to 3735.70, 5709.40 to 5709.43, 4716 5709.61 to 5709.69, 5709.73 to 5709.75, or 5709.77 to 5709.81 of 4717 the Revised Code, or that involves public infrastructure 4718 improvements or the extension of utility services that are 4719 directly related to an economic development project. 4720

(b) A unanimous quorum of the public body determines, by a 4721 roll call vote, that the executive session is necessary to protect 4722 the interests of the applicant or the possible investment or 4723 expenditure of public funds to be made in connection with the 4724 economic development project. 4725

If a public body holds an executive session to consider any 4726 of the matters listed in divisions (G)(2) to (8) of this section, 4727 the motion and vote to hold that executive session shall state 4728 which one or more of the approved matters listed in those 4729 divisions are to be considered at the executive session. 4730

A public body specified in division (B)(1)(c) of this section 4731 shall not hold an executive session when meeting for the purposes 4732 specified in that division. 4733

(H) A resolution, rule, or formal action of any kind is 4734 invalid unless adopted in an open meeting of the public body. A 4735 resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an open meeting that 4736 results from deliberations in a meeting not open to the public is 4737 invalid unless the deliberations were for a purpose specifically 4738 authorized in division (G) or (J) of this section and conducted at 4739 an executive session held in compliance with this section. A 4740 resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an open meeting is 4741 invalid if the public body that adopted the resolution, rule, or 4742 formal action violated division (F) of this section. 4743

(I)(1) Any person may bring an action to enforce this 4744
section. An action under division (I)(1) of this section shall be 4745 brought within two years after the date of the alleged violation 4746 or threatened violation. Upon proof of a violation or threatened 4747 violation of this section in an action brought by any person, the 4748 court of common pleas shall issue an injunction to compel the 4749 members of the public body to comply with its provisions. 4750

(2)(a) If the court of common pleas issues an injunction 4751 pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section, the court shall order 4752 the public body that it enjoins to pay a civil forfeiture of five 4753 hundred dollars to the party that sought the injunction and shall 4754 award to that party all court costs and, subject to reduction as 4755 described in division (I)(2) of this section, reasonable 4756 attorney's fees. The court, in its discretion, may reduce an award 4757 of attorney's fees to the party that sought the injunction or not 4758 award attorney's fees to that party if the court determines both 4759 of the following: 4760

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 4761 and case law as it existed at the time of violation or threatened 4762 violation that was the basis of the injunction, a well-informed 4763 public body reasonably would believe that the public body was not 4764 violating or threatening to violate this section; 4765

(b) If the court of common pleas does not issue an injunction pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section and the court determines at that time that the bringing of the action was frivolous conduct, as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 of the Revised Code, the court shall award to the public body all court costs and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the court.

(3) Irreparable harm and prejudice to the party that sought the injunction shall be conclusively and irrebuttably presumed upon proof of a violation or threatened violation of this section.

(4) A member of a public body who knowingly violates an injunction issued pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section may be removed from office by an action brought in the court of common pleas for that purpose by the prosecuting attorney or the attorney general.

(J)(1) Pursuant to division (C) of section 5901.09 of the Revised Code, a veterans service commission shall hold an executive session for one or more of the following purposes unless an applicant requests a public hearing:

recipient's, or former recipient's application for financial 4803 assistance. 4804

(3) A veterans service commission shall vote on the grant or 4805 denial of financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 4806 of the Revised Code only in an open meeting of the commission. The 4807 minutes of the meeting shall indicate the name, address, and 4808 occupation of the applicant, whether the assistance was granted or 4809 denied, the amount of the assistance if assistance is granted, and 4810 the votes for and against the granting of assistance. 4811 section to foster job creation in this state. Such a grant shall 5122 take the form of a refundable credit allowed against the tax 5123 imposed by section 5725.18, 5726.02, 5729.03, 5733.06, 5736.02, or 5124 5747.02 or levied under Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code. The 5125 credit shall be claimed for the taxable years or tax periods 5126 specified in the taxpayer's agreement with the tax credit 5127 authority under division (D) of this section. With respect to 5128 taxes imposed under section 5726.02, 5733.06, or 5747.02 or 5129 Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code, the credit shall be claimed in 5130 period equals the excess payroll for that year multiplied by the 5134 percentage specified in the agreement with the tax credit 5135

(C)(1) A taxpayer or potential taxpayer who proposes a 5137 project to create new jobs in this state may apply to the tax 5138 credit authority to enter into an agreement for a tax credit under 5139
this section. 5140

An application shall not propose to include both home-based 5141 employees and employees who are not home-based employees in the 5142 computation of Ohio employee payroll for the purposes of the same 5143 tax credit agreement, except that a qualifying work-from-home 5144 employee shall not be considered to be a home-based employee 5145 unless so designated by the applicant. If a taxpayer or potential 5146 taxpayer employs both home-based employees and employees who are 5147 not home-based employees in a project, the taxpayer shall submit 5148 separate applications for separate tax credit agreements for the 5149 project, one of which shall include home-based employees in the 5150 computation of Ohio employee payroll and one of which shall 5151 include all other employees in the computation of Ohio employee 5152
payroll. 5153

The director of development services shall prescribe the form 5154 of the application. After receipt of an application, the authority 5155 may enter into an agreement with the taxpayer for a credit under 5156 this section if it determines all of the following: 5157

(a) The taxpayer's project will increase payroll; 5158

(b) The taxpayer's project is economically sound and will 5159 benefit the people of this state by increasing opportunities for 5160 employment and strengthening the economy of this state; 5161

(c) Receiving the tax credit is a major factor in the 5162 taxpayer's decision to go forward with the project. 5163

(2)(a) A taxpayer that chooses to begin the project prior to 5164 receiving the determination of the authority may, upon submitting 5165 the taxpayer's application to the authority, request that the 5166 chief investment officer of the nonprofit corporation formed under 5167 section 187.01 of the Revised Code and the director review the 5168 taxpayer's application and recommend to the authority that the 5169 taxpayer's application be considered. As soon as possible after 5170 receiving such a request, the chief investment officer and the 5171 director shall review the taxpayer's application and, if they 5172 determine that the application warrants consideration by the 5173 authority, make that recommendation to the authority not later 5174 than six months after the application is received by the 5175

(b) The authority shall consider any taxpayer's application 5177 for which it receives a recommendation under division (C)(2)(a) of 5178 this section. If the authority determines that the taxpayer does 5179 not meet all of the criteria set forth in division (C)(1) of this 5180 section, the authority and the development services agency shall 5181 proceed in accordance with rules adopted by the director pursuant 5182 to division (I) of this section. 5183

(D) An agreement under this section shall include all of the 5184
following: 5185

(1) A detailed description of the project that is the subject 5186
of the agreement; 5187

(2)(a) The term of the tax credit, which, except as provided 5188 in division (D)(2)(b) of this section, shall not exceed fifteen 5189 years, and the first taxable year, or first calendar year that 5190 includes a tax period, for which the credit may be claimed; 5191

(b) If the tax credit is computed on the basis of home-based 5192 employees, the term of the credit shall expire on or before the 5193 last day of the taxable or calendar year ending before the 5194 beginning of the seventh year after September 6, 2012, the 5195 effective date of H.B. 327 of the 129th general assembly. 5196

(3) A requirement that the taxpayer shall maintain operations 5197 at the project location for at least the greater of seven years or 5198 the term of the credit plus three years; 5199

(4) The percentage, as determined by the tax credit 5200 authority, of excess payroll that will be allowed as the amount of 5201 the credit for each taxable year or for each calendar year that 5202 includes a tax period; 5203

(5) The pay increase factor to be applied to the taxpayer's 5204 baseline payroll; 5205

(6) A requirement that the taxpayer annually shall report to 5206 the director of development services full-time equivalent 5207 employees, payroll, Ohio employee payroll, investment, the 5208 provision of health care benefits and tuition reimbursement if 5209 required in the agreement, and other information the director 5210 needs to perform the director's duties under this section; 5211

(7) A requirement that the director of development services 5212 annually review the information reported under division (D)(6) of 5213 this section and verify compliance with the agreement; if the 5214 taxpayer is in compliance, a requirement that the director issue a 5215 certificate to the taxpayer stating that the information has been 5216 verified and identifying the amount of the credit that may be 5217 claimed for the taxable or calendar year; 5218

(8) A provision providing that the taxpayer may not relocate 5219
a substantial number of employment positions from elsewhere in 5220 this state to the project location unless the director of 5221 development services determines that the legislative authority of 5222 the county, township, or municipal corporation from which the 5223 employment positions would be relocated has been notified by the 5224 taxpayer of the relocation. 5225

For purposes of this section, the movement of an employment 5226
position from one political subdivision to another political 5227

position unless the employment position in the first political 5229 subdivision is replaced. The movement of a qualifying 5230 work-from-home employee to a different residence located in this 5231 state or to the project location shall not be considered a 5232 relocation of an employment position. 5233

(9) If the tax credit is computed on the basis of home-based 5234 employees, that the tax credit may not be claimed by the taxpayer 5235 until the taxable year or tax period in which the taxpayer employs 5236 at least two hundred employees more than the number of employees 5237 the taxpayer employed on June 30, 2011. 5238

(E) If a taxpayer fails to meet or comply with any condition 5239 or requirement set forth in a tax credit agreement, the tax credit 5240 authority may amend the agreement to reduce the percentage or term 5241 of the tax credit. The reduction of the percentage or term may 5242 take effect in the current taxable or calendar year. 5243

(F) Projects that consist solely of point-of-final-purchase 5244 retail facilities are not eligible for a tax credit under this 5245 section. If a project consists of both point-of-final-purchase 5246 retail facilities and nonretail facilities, only the portion of 5247 the project consisting of the nonretail facilities is eligible for 5248 a tax credit and only the excess payroll from the nonretail 5249 facilities shall be considered when computing the amount of the 5250 tax credit. If a warehouse facility is part of a 5251 point-of-final-purchase retail facility and supplies only that 5252 facility, the warehouse facility is not eligible for a tax credit. 5253 Catalog distribution centers are not considered 5254 point-of-final-purchase retail facilities for the purposes of this 5255 division, and are eligible for tax credits under this section. 5256

(G) Financial statements and other information submitted to 5257
the development services agency or the tax credit authority by an 5258 applicant or recipient of a tax credit under this section, and any 5259 information taken for any purpose from such statements or 5260 information, are not public records subject to section 149.43 of 5261 the Revised Code. However, the chairperson of the authority may 5262 make use of the statements and other information for purposes of 5263 issuing public reports or in connection with court proceedings 5264 concerning tax credit agreements under this section. Upon the 5265 request of the tax commissioner or, if the applicant or recipient 5266 is an insurance company, upon the request of the superintendent of 5267 insurance, the chairperson of the authority shall provide to the 5268 commissioner or superintendent any statement or information 5269 submitted by an applicant or recipient of a tax credit in 5270 connection with the credit. The commissioner or superintendent 5271 shall preserve the confidentiality of the statement or 5272

information. 5273

(H) A taxpayer claiming a credit under this section shall 5274 submit to the tax commissioner or, if the taxpayer is an insurance 5275 company, to the superintendent of insurance, a copy of the 5276
director of development services' certificate of verification 5277
under division (D)(7) of this section with the taxpayer's tax 5278 report or return for the taxable year or for the calendar year 5279 that includes the tax period. Failure to submit a copy of the 5280 certificate with the report or return does not invalidate a claim 5281
for a credit if the taxpayer submits a copy of the certificate to 5282
the commissioner or superintendent within the time prescribed by 5283
section 5703.0510 of the Revised Code or within thirty days after 5284
the commissioner or superintendent requests it. 5285

(I) The director of development services, after consultation 5286 with the tax commissioner and the superintendent of insurance and 5287
in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 5288 rules necessary to implement this section, including rules that 5289 establish a procedure to be followed by the tax credit authority 5290 and the development services agency in the event the authority 5291 considers a taxpayer's application for which it receives a 5292 recommendation under division (C)(2)(a) of this section but does 5293 not approve it. The rules may provide for recipients of tax 5294 credits under this section to be charged fees to cover 5295 administrative costs of the tax credit program. For the purposes 5296 of these rules, a qualifying work-from-home employee shall be 5297 considered to be an employee employed at the applicant's project 5298 location. The fees collected shall be credited to the ~~business~~ 5299 ~~assistance~~ tax incentives operating fund created in section 5300 122.174 of the Revised Code. At the time the director gives public 5301 notice under division (A) of section 119.03 of the Revised Code of 5302 the adoption of the rules, the director shall submit copies of the 5303 proposed rules to the chairpersons of the standing committees on 5304 economic development in the senate and the house of 5305 representatives. 5306

(J) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer may include 5307
a partnership, a corporation that has made an election under 5308
subchapter S of chapter one of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue 5309 Code, or any other business entity through which income flows as a 5310 distributive share to its owners. A partnership, S-corporation, or 5311
under this section through to the persons to whom the income or 5313 profit of the partnership, S-corporation, or other entity is 5314 distributed. The election shall be made on the annual report 5315 required under division (D)(6) of this section. The election 5316 applies to and is irrevocable for the credit for which the report 5317 is submitted. If the election is made, the credit shall be 5318 apportioned among those persons in the same proportions as those 5319
in which the income or profit is distributed. 5320

(K)(1) If the director of development services determines 5321 that a taxpayer who has received a credit under this section is 5322 not complying with the requirements of the agreement, the director 5323 shall notify the tax credit authority of the noncompliance. After 5324 receiving such a notice, and after giving the taxpayer an 5325 opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the tax credit authority 5326 may require the taxpayer to refund to this state a portion of the 5327 credit in accordance with the following: 5328

(a) If the taxpayer fails to comply with the requirement 5329 under division (D)(3) of this section, an amount determined in 5330
accordance with the following: 5331

(i) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project 5332 location for a period less than or equal to the term of the 5333 credit, an amount not exceeding one hundred per cent of the sum of 5334 any credits allowed and received under this section; 5335

(ii) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project 5336 location for a period longer than the term of the credit, but less 5337 than the greater of seven years or the term of the credit plus 5338 three years, an amount not exceeding seventy-five per cent of the 5339 sum of any credits allowed and received under this section. 5340

(b) If, on the metric evaluation date, the taxpayer fails to 5341 substantially meet the job creation, payroll, or investment 5342 requirements included in the agreement, an amount determined at 5343 the discretion of the authority; 5344

(c) If the taxpayer fails to substantially maintain the 5345 number of new full-time equivalent employees or amount of payroll 5346 required under the agreement at any time during the term of the 5347 agreement after the metric evaluation date, an amount determined 5348 at the discretion of the authority. 5349

(2) If a taxpayer files for bankruptcy and fails as described 5350 in division (K)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section, the director 5351 may immediately commence an action to recoup an amount not 5352 exceeding one hundred per cent of the sum of any credits received 5353 by the taxpayer under this section. 5354

(3) In determining the portion of the tax credit to be 5355 refunded to this state, the tax credit authority shall consider 5356 the effect of market conditions on the taxpayer's project and 5357 whether the taxpayer continues to maintain other operations in 5358 this state. After making the determination, the authority shall 5359 certify the amount to be refunded to the tax commissioner or 5360 superintendent of insurance, as appropriate. If the amount is 5361 certified to the commissioner, the commissioner shall make an 5362 assessment for that amount against the taxpayer under Chapter 5363 5726., 5733., 5736., 5747., or 5751. of the Revised Code. If the 5364 amount is certified to the superintendent, the superintendent 5365 shall make an assessment for that amount against the taxpayer 5366 under Chapter 5725. or 5729. of the Revised Code. The time 5367 limitations on assessments under those chapters do not apply to an 5368 assessment under this division, but the commissioner or 5369 superintendent, as appropriate, shall make the assessment within 5370 one year after the date the authority certifies to the 5371 commissioner or superintendent the amount to be refunded. 5372

(L) On or before the first day of August each year, the 5373
governor, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the 5375
house of representatives on the tax credit program under this 5376
section. The report shall include information on the number of 5377 agreements that were entered into under this section during the 5378
preceding calendar year, a description of the project that is the 5379 subject of each such agreement, and an update on the status of 5380 projects under agreements entered into before the preceding 5381
calendar year. 5382

(M) There is hereby created the tax credit authority, which 5383 consists of the director of development services and four other 5384 members appointed as follows: the governor, the president of the 5385 senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives each shall 5386 appoint one member who shall be a specialist in economic 5387 development; the governor also shall appoint a member who is a 5388 specialist in taxation. Terms of office shall be for four years. 5389 Each member shall serve on the authority until the end of the term 5390 for which the member was appointed. Vacancies shall be filled in 5391 the same manner provided for original appointments. Any member 5392 appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of 5393 the term for which the member's predecessor was appointed shall 5394 hold office for the remainder of that term. Members may be 5395 reappointed to the authority. Members of the authority shall 5396 receive their necessary and actual expenses while engaged in the 5397 business of the authority. The director of development services 5398 shall serve as chairperson of the authority, and the members 5399 annually shall elect a vice-chairperson from among themselves. 5400 Three members of the authority constitute a quorum to transact and 5401 vote on the business of the authority. The majority vote of the 5402 membership of the authority is necessary to approve any such 5403 business, including the election of the vice-chairperson. 5404

The director of development services may appoint a 5405 professional employee of the development services agency to serve 5406 as the director's substitute at a meeting of the authority. The 5407 director shall make the appointment in writing. In the absence of 5408 the director from a meeting of the authority, the appointed 5409 substitute shall serve as chairperson. In the absence of both the 5410 director and the director's substitute from a meeting, the 5411 vice-chairperson shall serve as chairperson. 5412

(N) For purposes of the credits granted by this section 5413 against the taxes imposed under sections 5725.18 and 5729.03 of 5414 the Revised Code, "taxable year" means the period covered by the 5415 taxpayer's annual statement to the superintendent of insurance. 5416

(O) On or before the first day of March of each of the five 5417 calendar years beginning with 2014, each taxpayer subject to an 5418 agreement with the tax credit authority under this section on the 5419 basis of home-based employees shall report the number of 5420 home-based employees and other employees employed by the taxpayer 5421 in this state to the development services agency. 5422

(P) On or before the first day of January of 2019, the 5423
governor, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the 5425
house of representatives on the effect of agreements entered into 5426 under this section in which the taxpayer included home-based 5427 employees in the computation of income tax revenue, as that term 5428 was defined in this section prior to the amendment of this section 5429 by H.B. 64 of the 131st general assembly. The report shall include 5430 information on the number of such agreements that were entered 5431 into in the preceding six years, a description of the projects 5432 that were the subjects of such agreements, and an analysis of 5433 nationwide home-based employment trends, including the number of 5434 home-based jobs created from July 1, 2011, through June 30, 2017, 5435 and a description of any home-based employment tax incentives 5436 provided by other states during that time. 5437

(Q) The director of development services may require any 5438 agreement entered into under this section for a tax credit 5439 computed on the basis of home-based employees to contain a 5440 provision that the taxpayer makes available health care benefits 5441 and tuition reimbursement to all employees. 5442

(R) Original agreements approved by the tax credit authority 5443 under this section in 2014 or 2015 before ~~the effective date of~~ 5444
~~this division~~ September 29, 2015, may be revised at the request of 5445 the taxpayer to conform with the amendments to this section and 5446

Code by H.B. 64 of the 131st general assembly, upon mutual 5448 agreement of the taxpayer and the development services agency, and 5449 approval by the tax credit authority. 5450

(S)(1) As used in division (S) of this section: 5451

(2) In calendar year 2016 and thereafter, the tax credit authority shall annually determine a withholding adjustment factor to be used in the computation of income tax revenue for eligible agreements. The withholding adjustment factor shall be a numerical percentage that equals the percentage that employer income tax withholding rates have been increased or decreased as a result of changes in the income tax rates prescribed by section 5747.02 of the Revised Code by amendment of that section taking effect on or after June 29, 2013.

(3) Except as provided in division (S)(4) of this section, for reporting periods ending in 2015 and thereafter for taxpayers subject to eligible agreements, the tax credit authority shall adjust the income tax revenue reported on the taxpayer's annual report by multiplying the withholding adjustment factor by the taxpayer's income tax revenue and doing one of the following:

(a) If the income tax rates prescribed by section 5747.02 of the Revised Code have decreased by amendment of that section taking effect on or after June 29, 2013, add the product to the taxpayer's income tax revenue.

(b) If the income tax rates prescribed by section 5747.02 of the Revised Code have increased by amendment of that section taking effect on or after June 29, 2013, subtract the product from the taxpayer's income tax revenue. 5483

(4) Division (S)(3) of this section shall not apply unless 5484 all of the following apply for the reporting period with respect 5485 employment commitment identified in the agreement. 5488

(5) Failure by a taxpayer to have achieved any of the 5493

this section in a reporting period does not disqualify the 5495 taxpayer for the adjustment under division (S) of this section for 5496 an ensuing reporting period. 5497

5558

(B) The tax credit authority created under section 122.17 of the Revised Code may grant a nonrefundable tax credit to an eligible business under this section for the purpose of fostering job retention in this state. Upon application by an eligible business and upon consideration of the determination of the director of budget and management, tax commissioner, and the superintendent of insurance in the case of an insurance company, and the recommendation and determination of the director of development services under division (C) of this section, the tax credit authority may grant the credit against the tax imposed by section 5725.18, 5726.02, 5729.03, 5733.06, 5736.02, 5747.02, or 5751.02 of the Revised Code. 5559

5568
5570

The credit authorized in this section may be granted for a period up to fifteen taxable years or, in the case of the tax levied by section 5736.02 or 5751.02 of the Revised Code, for a 5571

period of up to fifteen calendar years. The credit amount for a 5574 taxable year or a calendar year that includes the tax period for 5575 which a credit may be claimed equals the Ohio employee payroll for 5576 that year multiplied by the percentage specified in the agreement 5577 with the tax credit authority. The credit shall be claimed in the 5578 order required under section 5725.98, 5726.98, 5729.98, 5733.98, 5579 5747.98, or 5751.98 of the Revised Code. In determining the 5580 percentage and term of the credit, the tax credit authority shall 5581 consider both the number of full-time equivalent employees and the 5582 value of the capital investment project. The credit amount may not 5583 be based on the Ohio employee payroll for a calendar year before 5584 the calendar year in which the tax credit authority specifies the 5585 tax credit is to begin, and the credit shall be claimed only for 5586 the taxable years or tax periods specified in the eligible 5587 business' agreement with the tax credit authority. In no event 5588 shall the credit be claimed for a taxable year or tax period 5589 terminating before the date specified in the agreement. 5590

If a credit allowed under this section for a taxable year or 5591 tax period exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability for that year or 5592 period, the excess may be carried forward for the three succeeding 5593 taxable or calendar years, but the amount of any excess credit 5594 allowed in any taxable year or tax period shall be deducted from 5595 the balance carried forward to the succeeding year or period. 5596

(C) A taxpayer that proposes a capital investment project to 5597 retain jobs in this state may apply to the tax credit authority to 5598 enter into an agreement for a tax credit under this section. The 5599 director of development services shall prescribe the form of the 5600 application. After receipt of an application, the authority shall 5601 forward copies of the application to the director of budget and 5602 management, the tax commissioner, and the superintendent of 5603 insurance in the case of an insurance company, each of whom shall 5604 review the application to determine the economic impact the 5605 proposed project would have on the state and the affected 5606 political subdivisions and shall submit a summary of their 5607 determinations to the authority. The authority shall also forward 5608 a copy of the application to the director of development services, 5609 who shall review the application to determine the economic impact 5610 the proposed project would have on the state and the affected 5611 political subdivisions and shall submit a summary of the 5612 director's determinations and recommendations to the authority. 5613

(D) Upon review and consideration of the determinations and 5614 recommendations described in division (C) of this section, the tax 5615 credit authority may enter into an agreement with the taxpayer for 5616 a credit under this section if the authority determines all of the 5617
following: 5618

(1) The taxpayer's capital investment project will result in 5619
the retention of employment in this state. 5620

(2) The taxpayer is economically sound and has the ability to 5621 complete the proposed capital investment project. 5622

operations at the project site for at least the greater of (a) the 5624 term of the credit plus three years, or (b) seven years. 5625

(4) Receiving the credit is a major factor in the taxpayer's 5626 decision to begin, continue with, or complete the project. 5627

(E) An agreement under this section shall include all of the 5628
following: 5629

(1) A detailed description of the project that is the subject 5630 of the agreement, including the amount of the investment, the 5631 period over which the investment has been or is being made, the 5632 number of full-time equivalent employees at the project site, and 5633 the anticipated Ohio employee payroll to be generated. 5634

(2) The term of the credit, the percentage of the tax credit, 5635 the maximum annual value of tax credits that may be allowed each 5636 year, and the first year for which the credit may be claimed. 5637

(3) A requirement that the taxpayer maintain operations at 5638
the project site for at least the greater of (a) the term of the 5639 credit plus three years, or (b) seven years. 5640

(4) A requirement that the taxpayer retain at least five 5641 hundred full-time equivalent employees at the project site and 5642 within this state for the entire term of the credit, or a 5643 requirement that the taxpayer maintain an annual Ohio employee 5644 payroll of at least thirty-five million dollars for the entire 5645 term of the credit. 5646

(5) A requirement that the taxpayer annually report to the 5647 director of development services full-time equivalent employees, 5648 Ohio employee payroll, capital investment, and other information 5649 the director needs to perform the director's duties under this 5650
section. 5651

annually review the annual reports of the taxpayer to verify the 5653 information reported under division (E)(5) of this section and 5654 compliance with the agreement. Upon verification, the director 5655 shall issue a certificate to the taxpayer stating that the 5656 information has been verified and identifying the amount of the 5657 credit for the taxable year or calendar year that includes the tax 5658 period. In determining the number of full-time equivalent 5659 employees, no position shall be counted that is filled by an 5660 employee who is included in the calculation of a tax credit under 5661
section 122.17 of the Revised Code. 5662

(7) A provision providing that the taxpayer may not relocate 5663
this state to the project site unless the director of development 5665 services determines that the taxpayer notified the legislative 5666 authority of the county, township, or municipal corporation from 5667 which the employment positions would be relocated. 5668

position unless the movement is confined to the project site. The 5672 transfer of an employment position from one political subdivision 5673 to another political subdivision shall not be considered a 5674 relocation of an employment position if the employment position in 5675
the first political subdivision is replaced by another employment 5676 position. 5677

(8) A waiver by the taxpayer of any limitations periods 5678 relating to assessments or adjustments resulting from the 5679 taxpayer's failure to comply with the agreement. 5680

(F) If a taxpayer fails to meet or comply with any condition 5681
authority may amend the agreement to reduce the percentage or term 5683 of the credit. The reduction of the percentage or term may take 5684 effect in the current taxable or calendar year. 5685

(G) Financial statements and other information submitted to 5686
the department of development services or the tax credit authority 5687 by an applicant for or recipient of a tax credit under this 5688 section, and any information taken for any purpose from such 5689
section 149.43 of the Revised Code. However, the chairperson of 5691
the authority may make use of the statements and other information 5692
for purposes of issuing public reports or in connection with court 5693 proceedings concerning tax credit agreements under this section. 5694 Upon the request of the tax commissioner, or the superintendent of 5695 insurance in the case of an insurance company, the chairperson of 5696 the authority shall provide to the commissioner or superintendent 5697 any statement or other information submitted by an applicant for 5698 or recipient of a tax credit in connection with the credit. The 5699 commissioner or superintendent shall preserve the confidentiality 5700 of the statement or other information. 5701

(H) A taxpayer claiming a tax credit under this section shall 5702 submit to the tax commissioner or, in the case of an insurance 5703 company, to the superintendent of insurance, a copy of the 5704
director of development services' certificate of verification 5705 under division (E)(6) of this section with the taxpayer's tax 5706 report or return for the taxable year or for the calendar year 5707
for a credit if the taxpayer submits a copy of the certificate to 5710

(I) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer may include 5714
a partnership, a corporation that has made an election under 5715
subchapter S of chapter one of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue 5716 Code, or any other business entity through which income flows as a 5717
distributive share to its owners. A partnership, S-corporation, or 5718
required under division (E)(5) of this section. The election 5723

(J)(1) If the director of development services determines 5728 that a taxpayer that received a certificate under division (E)(6) 5729 of this section is not complying with the requirements of the 5730 agreement, the director shall notify the tax credit authority of 5731

the noncompliance. After receiving such a notice, and after giving 5732 the taxpayer an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the 5733 authority may terminate the agreement and require the taxpayer, or 5734 any related member or members that claimed the tax credit under 5735 division (N) of this section, to refund to the state all or a 5736 portion of the credit claimed in previous years, as follows: 5737

under division (E)(3) of this section, an amount determined in 5739 accordance with the following: 5740

(i) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 5741 for less than or equal to the term of the credit, an amount not to 5742 exceed one hundred per cent of the sum of any tax credits allowed 5743 and received under this section. 5744

(ii) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project 5745 site longer than the term of the credit, but less than the greater 5746 of seven years or the term of the credit plus three years, the 5747 amount required to be refunded shall not exceed seventy-five per 5748 cent of the sum of any tax credits allowed and received under this 5749
section. 5750

(b) If the taxpayer fails to substantially maintain both the 5751 number of full-time equivalent employees and the amount of Ohio 5752 employee payroll required under the agreement at any time during 5753 the term of the agreement or during the post-term reporting 5754 period, an amount determined at the discretion of the authority. 5755

(2) If a taxpayer files for bankruptcy and fails as described 5756 in division (J)(1)(a) or (b) of this section, the director may 5757 immediately commence an action to recoup an amount not exceeding 5758 one hundred per cent of the sum of any credits received by the 5759 taxpayer under this section. 5760

(3) In determining the portion of the credit to be refunded 5761 to this state, the authority shall consider the effect of market 5762 conditions on the taxpayer's project and whether the taxpayer 5763 continues to maintain other operations in this state. After making 5764 the determination, the authority shall certify the amount to be 5765 refunded to the tax commissioner or the superintendent of 5766 insurance. If the taxpayer, or any related member or members who 5767 claimed the tax credit under division (N) of this section, is not 5768 an insurance company, the commissioner shall make an assessment 5769 for that amount against the taxpayer under Chapter 5726., 5733., 5770 5736., 5747., or 5751. of the Revised Code. If the taxpayer, or 5771

division (N) of this section, is an insurance company, the 5773 superintendent of insurance shall make an assessment under section 5774 5725.222 or 5729.102 of the Revised Code. The time limitations on 5775 assessments under those chapters and sections do not apply to an 5776 assessment under this division, but the commissioner or 5777 superintendent shall make the assessment within one year after the 5778 date the authority certifies to the commissioner or superintendent 5779 the amount to be refunded. 5780

(K) The director of development services, after consultation 5781
with the tax commissioner and the superintendent of insurance and 5782
in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 5783
rules necessary to implement this section. The rules may provide 5784 for recipients of tax credits under this section to be charged 5785 fees to cover administrative costs of the tax credit program. The 5786 fees collected shall be credited to the ~~business assistance tax~~ 5787 incentives operating fund created in section 122.174 of the 5788
Revised Code. At the time the director gives public notice under 5789 division (A) of section 119.03 of the Revised Code of the adoption 5790
of the rules, the director shall submit copies of the proposed 5791 rules to the chairpersons of the standing committees on economic 5792 development in the senate and the house of representatives. 5793

(L) On or before the first day of August of each year, the 5794
governor, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the 5796
preceding calendar year, a description of the project that is the 5800
calendar year. 5803

(M) The aggregate amount of nonrefundable tax credits issued 5804 under this section during any calendar year for capital investment 5805 projects reviewed and approved by the tax credit authority may not 5806 exceed the following amounts: 5807

(1) For 2010, thirteen million dollars; 5808

(2) For 2011 through 2023, the amount of the limit for the 5809 preceding calendar year plus thirteen million dollars; 5810

(3) For 2024 and each year thereafter, one hundred 5811 ninety-five million dollars. 5812

The limitations in division (M) of this section do not apply 5813 to credits for capital investment projects approved by the tax 5814 credit authority before July 1, 2009. 5815

(N) This division applies only to an eligible business that 5816 is part of an affiliated group that includes a diversified savings 5817 and loan holding company or a grandfathered unitary savings and 5818 loan holding company, as those terms are defined in section 5819 5726.01 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding any contrary 5820 provision of the agreement between such an eligible business and 5821 the tax credit authority, any credit granted under this section 5822 against the tax imposed by section 5725.18, 5729.03, 5733.06, 5823 5747.02, or 5751.02 of the Revised Code to the eligible business, 5824 at the election of the eligible business and without any action by 5825 the tax credit authority, may be shared with any member or members 5826 of the affiliated group that includes the eligible business, which 5827 member or members may claim the credit against the taxes imposed 5828 by section 5725.18, 5726.02, 5729.03, 5733.06, 5747.02, or 5751.02 5829 of the Revised Code. Credits shall be claimed by the eligible 5830 business in sequential order, as applicable, first claiming the 5831 credits to the fullest extent possible against the tax that the 5832 certificate holder is subject to, then against the tax imposed by, 5833 sequentially, section 5729.03, 5725.18, 5747.02, 5751.02, and 5834 lastly 5726.02 of the Revised Code. The credits may be allocated 5835 among the members of the affiliated group in such manner as the 5836 eligible business elects, but subject to the sequential order 5837 required under this division. This division applies to credits 5838 granted before, on, or after March 27, 2013, the effective date of 5839 H.B. 510 of the 129th general assembly. Credits granted before 5840 that effective date that are shared and allocated under this 5841 division may be claimed in those calendar years in which the 5842 remaining taxable years specified in the agreement end. 5843

As used in this division, "affiliated group" means a group of 5844 two or more persons with fifty per cent or greater of the value of 5845 each person's ownership interests owned or controlled directly, 5846 indirectly, or constructively through related interests by common 5847 owners during all or any portion of the taxable year, and the 5848 common owners. "Affiliated group" includes, but is not limited to, 5849 any person eligible to be included in a consolidated elected 5850 taxpayer group under section 5751.011 of the Revised Code or a 5851 combined taxpayer group under section 5751.012 of the Revised 5852
Code. 5853

(2) The applicant is economically sound and has the ability to complete or effect the completion of the proposed capital investment project.

(3) The applicant intends to and has the ability to maintain operations at the project site for the term of the agreement.

(4) Receiving the exemption is a major factor in the applicant's decision to begin, continue with, or complete the capital investment project.

(E) An agreement entered into under this section shall include all of the following:

applicant ceases operations at the eligible computer data center 6042 during the term of the agreement but resumes those operations 6043 within eighteen months after the date of cessation. The agreement 6044 shall provide that, in such a case, the applicant and any other 6045 taxpayer that operates a computer data center business at the 6046 project site shall not claim the tax exemption authorized in the 6047 operations at the eligible computer data center. 6050

(4) A requirement that, for each year of the term of the 6051 agreement beginning on or after the first day of the twenty-fifth 6052 thousand dollars to employees at the eligible computer data 6058 annually report to the director of development services 6061 employment, tax withholding, capital investment, and other 6062 information required by the director to perform the director's 6063 duties under this section. 6064

annually review the annual reports of each taxpayer subject to the 6066 agreement to verify the information reported under division (E)(5) 6067 of this section and compliance with the agreement. Upon 6068 verification, the director shall issue a certificate to each such 6069 taxpayer stating that the information has been verified and that 6070 the taxpayer remains eligible for the exemption specified in the 6071

agreement. 6072

(7) A provision providing that the taxpayers subject to the 6073 agreement may not relocate a substantial number of employment 6074 positions from elsewhere in this state to the project site unless 6075 the director of development services determines that the 6076 appropriate taxpayer notified the legislative authority of the 6077 county, township, or municipal corporation from which the 6078 employment positions would be relocated. For purposes of this 6079 paragraph, the movement of an employment position from one 6080 political subdivision to another political subdivision shall be 6081 considered a relocation of an employment position unless the 6082 movement is confined to the project site. The transfer of an 6083 employment position from one political subdivision to another 6084 political subdivision shall not be considered a relocation of an 6085 employment position if the employment position in the first 6086 political subdivision is replaced by another employment position. 6087

(8) A waiver by each taxpayer subject to the agreement of any 6088 limitations periods relating to assessments or adjustments 6089 resulting from the taxpayer's failure to comply with the 6090
agreement. 6091

(F) The term of an agreement under this section shall be 6092 determined by the tax credit authority, and the amount of the 6093 exemption shall not exceed one hundred per cent of such taxes that 6094 would otherwise be owed in respect to the exempted computer data 6095 center equipment. 6096

(G) If any taxpayer subject to an agreement under this 6097 section fails to meet or comply with any condition or requirement 6098 set forth in the agreement, the tax credit authority may amend the 6099 agreement to reduce the percentage of the exemption or term during 6100 which the exemption applies to the computer data center equipment 6101 used or to be used by the noncompliant taxpayer at an eligible 6102 computer data center. The reduction of the percentage or term may 6103 take effect in the current calendar year. 6104

(H) Financial statements and other information submitted to 6105
the department of development services or the tax credit authority 6106
by an applicant for or recipient of an exemption under this 6107 section, and any information taken for any purpose from such 6108
section 149.43 of the Revised Code. However, the chairperson of 6110
for purposes of issuing public reports or in connection with court 6112 proceedings concerning tax exemption agreements under this 6113 section. Upon the request of the tax commissioner, the chairperson 6114 of the authority shall provide to the tax commissioner any 6115 statement or other information submitted by an applicant for or 6116 recipient of an exemption under this section. The tax commissioner 6117 shall preserve the confidentiality of the statement or other 6118
information. 6119

(I) The tax commissioner shall issue a direct payment permit 6120 under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code to each taxpayer 6121 subject to an agreement under this section. Such direct payment 6122 permit shall authorize the taxpayer to pay any sales and use taxes 6123 due on purchases of computer data center equipment used or to be 6124 used in an eligible computer data center and to pay any sales and 6125 use taxes due on purchases of tangible personal property or 6126 taxable services other than computer data center equipment used or 6127 to be used in an eligible computer data center directly to the tax 6128 commissioner. Each such taxpayer shall pay pursuant to such direct 6129 payment permit all sales tax levied on such purchases under 6130 sections 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, and 5739.026 of the Revised 6131 Code and all use tax levied on such purchases under sections 6132
5741.02, 5741.021, 5741.022, and 5741.023 of the Revised Code, 6133 consistent with the terms of the agreement entered into under this 6134
section. 6135

During the term of an agreement under this section each 6136 taxpayer subject to the agreement shall submit to the tax 6137 commissioner a return that shows the amount of computer data 6138 center equipment purchased for use at the eligible computer data 6139 center, the amount of tangible personal property and taxable 6140 services other than computer data center equipment purchased for 6141 use at the eligible computer data center, the amount of tax under 6142 Chapter 5739. or 5741. of the Revised Code that would be due in 6143 the absence of the agreement under this section, the exemption 6144 percentage for computer data center equipment specified in the 6145 agreement, and the amount of tax due under Chapter 5739. or 5741. 6146 of the Revised Code as a result of the agreement under this 6147 section. Each such taxpayer shall pay the tax shown on the return 6148 to be due in the manner and at the times as may be further 6149 prescribed by the tax commissioner. Each such taxpayer shall 6150 include a copy of the director of development services' 6151 certificate of verification issued under division (E)(6) of this 6152 section. Failure to submit a copy of the certificate with the 6153 return does not invalidate the claim for exemption if the taxpayer 6154 submits a copy of the certificate to the tax commissioner within 6155 ~~sixty days after the tax commissioner requests it~~ the time 6156 prescribed by section 5703.0510 of the Revised Code. 6157

(J) If the director of development services determines that 6158 one or more taxpayers received an exemption from taxes due on the 6159 purchase of computer data center equipment purchased for use at a 6160 computer data center that no longer complies with the requirement 6161 under division (E)(3) of this section, the director shall notify 6162 the tax credit authority and, if applicable, the taxpayer that 6163 applied to enter the agreement for the exemption under division 6164 (C) of this section of the noncompliance. After receiving such a 6165 notice, and after giving each taxpayer subject to the agreement an 6166 opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the authority may 6167 terminate the agreement and require each such taxpayer to pay to 6168 the state all or a portion of the taxes that would have been owed 6169 in regards to the exempt equipment in previous years, all as 6170 determined under rules adopted pursuant to division (K) of this 6171 section. In determining the portion of the taxes that would have 6172 been owed on the previously exempted equipment to be paid to this 6173 state by a taxpayer, the authority shall consider the effect of 6174 market conditions on the eligible computer data center, whether 6175 the taxpayer continues to maintain other operations in this state, 6176 and, with respect to agreements involving multiple taxpayers, the 6177 taxpayer's level of responsibility for the noncompliance. After 6178 making the determination, the authority shall certify to the tax 6179 commissioner the amount to be paid by each taxpayer subject to the 6180 agreement. The tax commissioner shall make an assessment for that 6181 amount against each such taxpayer under Chapter 5739. or 5741. of 6182 the Revised Code. The time limitations on assessments under those 6183 chapters do not apply to an assessment under this division, but 6184 the tax commissioner shall make the assessment within one year 6185 after the date the authority certifies to the tax commissioner the 6186 amount to be paid by the taxpayer. 6187

with the tax commissioner and in accordance with Chapter 119. of 6189 the Revised Code, shall adopt rules necessary to implement this 6190 section. The rules may provide for recipients of tax exemptions 6191 under this section to be charged fees to cover administrative 6192 costs incurred in the administration of this section. The fees 6193 collected shall be credited to the ~~business assistance tax~~ 6194 incentives operating fund created in section 122.174 of the 6195
division (A) of section 119.03 of the Revised Code of the adoption 6197
of the rules, the director shall submit copies of the proposed 6198
rules to the chairpersons of the standing committees on economic 6199

(L) On or before the first day of August of each year, the 6201
governor, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the 6203 house of representatives on the tax exemption authorized under 6204 this section. The report shall include information on the number 6205 of agreements that were entered into under this section during the 6206 preceding calendar year, a description of the eligible computer 6207 data center that is the subject of each such agreement, and an 6208 update on the status of eligible computer data centers under 6209 agreements entered into before the preceding calendar year. 6210

(M) A taxpayer may be made a party to an existing agreement 6211 entered into under this section by the tax credit authority and 6212 another taxpayer or group of taxpayers. In such a case, the 6213 taxpayer shall be entitled to all benefits and bound by all 6214 obligations contained in the agreement and all requirements 6215 described in this section. When an agreement includes multiple 6216 taxpayers, each taxpayer shall be entitled to a direct payment 6217 permit as authorized in division (I) of this section. 6218

Sec. 122.33. The director of development services shall 6219 administer the following programs: 6220 creating or preserving jobs and employment opportunities or 6230 improving the economic welfare of the people of the state, and 6231 promoting the development of new technology. 6232

(2) There is reasonable assurance that the potential 6233 royalties to be derived from the sale of the product or process 6234 described in the proposal will be sufficient to repay the funding 6235 pursuant to sections 122.28 and 122.30 to 122.36 of the Revised 6236 Code and that, in making the agreement, as it relates to patents, 6237 copyrights, and other ownership rights, there is reasonable 6238 assurance that the resulting new technology will be utilized to 6239 the maximum extent possible in facilities located in Ohio. 6240

(3) The technology and research to be undertaken will allow 6241 enterprises to compete more effectively in the marketplace. Grants 6242 of capital may be in such form and conditioned upon such terms as 6243 the director deems appropriate. 6244

(B) The industrial technology and enterprise resources 6245 program to provide for the collection, dissemination, and exchange 6246 of information regarding equipment, facilities, and business 6247 small businesses may use available facilities and resources. The 6250 methods may include, but need not be limited to, leases 6251 reimbursing the educational institutions for their actual costs 6252 incurred in maintaining the facilities and agreements assigning 6253 royalties from development of successful products or processes 6254 through the use of the facilities and resources. The director 6255 shall operate this program in conjunction with the board of 6256 regents. 6257

(C) The Thomas Alva Edison grant program to provide grants to 6258 foster research, development, or technology transfer efforts 6259 involving enterprises and educational institutions that will lead 6260 to the creation of jobs. 6261

(1) Grants may be made to a nonprofit organization or a 6262 public or private educational institution, department, college, 6263 institute, faculty member, or other administrative subdivision or 6264 related entity of an educational institution when the director 6265 finds that the undertaking will benefit the people of the state by 6266 supporting research in advanced technology areas likely to improve 6267 the economic welfare of the people of the state through promoting 6268 the development of new commercial technology. 6269

(4) At the director's sole discretion, the requirement for a 6289 applicant that the certification has been rescinded. Nothing in 6448

(C)(1) A motion picture company whose motion picture has been 6452

section or the actual eligible production expenditures as finally 6469 thirty per cent of the least of such budgeted or actual eligible 6472 expenditure amounts. 6473

(2) Except as provided in division (C)(4) of this section, if 6474 the director of development services approves a motion picture 6475 company's application for a credit, the director shall issue a tax 6476 credit certificate to the company. The director in consultation 6477 with the tax commissioner shall prescribe the form and manner of 6478 issuing certificates. The director shall assign a unique 6479 identifying number to each tax credit certificate and shall record 6480 the certificate in a register devised and maintained by the 6481 director for that purpose. The certificate shall state the amount 6482 of the eligible production expenditures on which the credit is 6483 based and the amount of the credit. Upon the issuance of a 6484 certificate, the director shall certify to the tax commissioner 6485 expenditures shown on the certificate, and any other information 6487 required by the rules adopted to administer this section. 6488

(3) The amount of eligible production expenditures for which 6489 a tax credit may be claimed is subject to inspection and 6490 examination by the tax commissioner or employees of the 6491 commissioner under section 5703.19 of the Revised Code and any 6492 other applicable law. Once the eligible production expenditures 6493 are finally determined under section 5703.19 of the Revised Code 6494 and division (D) of this section, the credit amount is not subject 6495 to adjustment unless the director determines an error was 6496 committed in the computation of the credit amount. 6497

(4) No tax credit certificate may be issued before the 6498 completion of the tax credit-eligible production. Not more than 6499 forty million dollars of tax credit may be allowed per fiscal year 6500 beginning July 1, 2016, provided that, for any fiscal year in 6501 which the amount of tax credits allowed under this section is less 6502 than that maximum annual amount, the amount not allowed for that 6503 fiscal year shall be added to the maximum annual amount that may 6504 be allowed for the following fiscal year. 6505

(5) In approving applications for tax credits under this 6506 section, the director shall give priority to tax-credit eligible 6507 productions that are television series or miniseries. 6508

(D) A motion picture company whose motion picture has been certified as a tax credit-eligible production shall engage, at the company's expense, an independent certified public accountant to examine the company's production expenditures to identify the expenditures that qualify as eligible production expenditures. The certified public accountant shall issue a report to the company and to the director of development services certifying the company's eligible production expenditures and any other information required by the director. Upon receiving and examining the report, the director may disallow any expenditure the director determines is not an eligible production expenditure. If the director disallows an expenditure, the director shall issue a written notice to the motion picture production company stating that the expenditure is disallowed and the reason for the disallowance. Upon examination of the report and disallowance of any expenditures, the director shall determine finally the lesser of the total budgeted eligible production expenditures stated in the application submitted under division (B) of this section or the actual eligible production expenditures for the purpose of computing the amount of the credit.

(E) No credit shall be allowed under section 5726.55, 5733.59, 5747.66, or 5751.54 of the Revised Code unless the director has reviewed the report and made the determination prescribed by division (D) of this section.

(F) This state reserves the right to refuse the use of this state's name in the credits of any tax credit-eligible motion picture production.

(G)(1) The director of development services in consultation with the tax commissioner shall adopt rules for the administration of this section, including rules setting forth and governing the criteria for determining whether a motion picture production is a tax credit-eligible production; activities that constitute the production of a motion picture; reporting sufficient evidence of 6541 reviewable progress; expenditures that qualify as eligible 6542 production expenditures; a competitive process for approving 6543 credits; consideration of geographic distribution of credits; and 6544 implementation of the program described in division (I) of this 6545 section. The rules shall be adopted under Chapter 119. of the 6546 the motion picture industry within this state shall also be 6557 credited to the fund. ~~The director shall use money in the fund to~~ 6558 ~~pay expenses related to the administration of the Ohio film office~~ 6559

(H)(1) After the director of development services makes the 6562 determination required under division (D) of this section, a 6563 motion picture company to which a tax credit certificate is issued 6564 may transfer the authority to claim all or a portion of the amount 6565 of the tax credit the motion picture company is authorized to 6566 claim pursuant to that certificate under section 5726.55, 5733.59, 6567 5747.66, or 5751.54 of the Revised Code to one or more other 6568 persons. Within thirty days after a transfer under this division, 6569 the motion picture company shall submit the following information 6570 to the director, on a form prescribed by the director: 6571 certificate that is the basis for the transfer; 6573

(b) The portion or amount of the tax credit transferred to 6574
each transferee; 6575

(c) The portion or amount of the tax credit that the motion 6576 picture company retains the authority to claim; 6577

(d) The tax identification number of each transferee; 6578

(e) The date of the transfer; 6579 under division (H)(1) of this section to the tax commissioner. 6583

(2) A transferee may not claim a credit under section 6584 5726.55, 5733.59, 5747.66, or 5751.54 of the Revised Code unless 6585 and until the transferring motion picture company complies with 6586 division (H)(1) of this section. A transferee may claim the 6587 transferred amount of any credit or portion of a credit for the 6588 same taxable year or tax period for which the transferring motion 6589 picture company was authorized to claim the credit or portion of a 6590 credit pursuant to the certificate. A motion picture company shall 6591 make no transfer under division (H)(1) of this section after the 6592 last day of the tax period or taxable year for which the motion 6593 picture company is required to claim the credit pursuant to the 6594 certificate. 6595

A motion picture company may make not more than one transfer 6596 under division (H)(1) of this section for each tax credit 6597 certificate, but pursuant to that transaction, may allocate the 6598 authority to claim a portion of the credit to more than one 6599 transferee. A motion picture company may not authorize more than 6600 one transferee to claim the same portion of a credit. 6601

(I) The director of development services shall establish a 6602

The payment shall equal fifty per cent of the salaries paid to film and multimedia trainees employed in the production.

the school district may submit the same question to the electors 8917 on the date that the next special election may be held under 8918 average growth of tax valuation of the district during the next 8973 five years of an average of not less than one and one-half per 8974 cent per year. The findings and certification of the 8975

(b) Twelve per cent of the sum of its tax valuation plus an amount that is the product of multiplying that tax valuation by the percentage, determined by the superintendent of public instruction, by which that tax valuation is projected to increase during the next ten years.

(F) A school district may issue securities for emergency purposes, in a principal amount that does not exceed an amount equal to three per cent of its tax valuation, as provided in this division.

(b) Existing fiscal and net indebtedness limitations make adequate replacement, additions, or improvements impossible.

(2) Upon the declaration of an emergency, the board of education may, by resolution, submit to the electors of the district pursuant to section 133.18 of the Revised Code the question of issuing securities for the purpose of paying the cost, in excess of any insurance or condemnation proceeds received by the district, of permanent improvements to respond to the emergency need.

(3) The procedures for the election shall be as provided in section 133.18 of the Revised Code, except that:

(G)(1) The board of education may contract with an architect, 9039 professional engineer, or other person experienced in the design 9040 and implementation of energy conservation measures for an analysis 9041 and recommendations pertaining to installations, modifications of 9042 installations, or remodeling that would significantly reduce 9043 energy consumption in buildings owned by the district. The report 9044 shall include estimates of all costs of such installations, 9045 modifications, or remodeling, including costs of design, 9046 engineering, installation, maintenance, repairs, measurement and 9047 verification of energy savings, and debt service, forgone residual 9048 preceding twelve months, and estimates of the amounts by which 9054 energy consumption and resultant operational and maintenance 9055 costs, as defined by the commission, would be reduced. 9056

If the board finds after receiving the report that the amount 9057 of money the district would spend on such installations, 9058 modifications, or remodeling is not likely to exceed the amount of 9059 money it would save in energy and resultant operational and 9060 maintenance costs over the ensuing fifteen years, the board may 9061 submit to the commission a copy of its findings and a request for 9062 approval to incur indebtedness to finance the making or 9063 modification of installations or the remodeling of buildings for 9064 the purpose of significantly reducing energy consumption. 9065 consultation with the auditor of state, may deny a request under 9067 this division by the board of education of any school district 9068 that is in a state of fiscal watch pursuant to division (A) of 9069 section 3316.03 of the Revised Code, if it determines that the 9070 expenditure of funds is not in the best interest of the school 9071

district. 9072

No district board of education of a school district that is 9073 in a state of fiscal emergency pursuant to division (B) of section 9074 3316.03 of the Revised Code shall submit a request without 9075 submitting evidence that the installations, modifications, or 9076 remodeling have been approved by the district's financial planning 9077 and supervision commission established under section 3316.05 of 9078
the Revised Code. 9079

No board of education of a school district that, for three or 9080 that section existed prior to March 22, 2013, and has failed to 9083 meet adequate yearly progress, or has met any condition set forth 9084 in division (A) of section 3302.10 of the Revised Code shall 9085 submit a request without first receiving approval to incur 9086 indebtedness from the district's academic distress commission 9087 established under that section, for so long as such commission 9088 continues to be required for the district. 9089

(2) The ~~school~~ facilities construction commission shall 9090 approve the board's request provided that the following conditions 9091 are satisfied: 9092

(a) The commission determines that the board's findings are 9093 reasonable. 9094

(b) The request for approval is complete. 9095

(c) The installations, modifications, or remodeling are 9096 consistent with any project to construct or acquire classroom 9097 classroom facilities under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 or sections 9099

Upon receipt of the commission's approval, the district may 9101 issue securities without a vote of the electors in a principal 9102 amount not to exceed nine-tenths of one per cent of its tax 9103 valuation for the purpose of making such installations, 9104 modifications, or remodeling, but the total net indebtedness of 9105 the district without a vote of the electors incurred under this 9106 and all other sections of the Revised Code, except section 9107 3318.052 of the Revised Code, shall not exceed one per cent of the 9108 district's tax valuation. 9109

(3) So long as any securities issued under this division 9110 remain outstanding, the board of education shall monitor the 9111 energy consumption and resultant operational and maintenance costs 9112 of buildings in which installations or modifications have been 9113 made or remodeling has been done pursuant to this division. Except 9114 as provided in division (G)(4) of this section, the board shall 9115 maintain and annually update a report in a form and manner 9116 prescribed by the ~~school~~ facilities construction commission 9117 documenting the reductions in energy consumption and resultant 9118 operational and maintenance cost savings attributable to such 9119 installations, modifications, or remodeling. The resultant 9120 operational and maintenance cost savings shall be certified by the 9121 school district treasurer. The report shall be submitted annually 9122 to the commission. 9123

(4) If the ~~school~~ facilities construction commission verifies 9124 that the certified annual reports submitted to the commission by a 9125 board of education under division (G)(3) of this section fulfill 9126 the guarantee required under division (B) of section 3313.372 of 9127 the Revised Code for three consecutive years, the board of 9128 education shall no longer be subject to the annual reporting 9129 requirements of division (G)(3) of this section. 9130

(H) With the consent of the superintendent of public 9131 instruction, a school district may incur without a vote of the 9132 electors net indebtedness that exceeds the amounts stated in 9133

Revised Code, or distributions under division (C) of section 9142 5709.43 or division (B) of section 5709.47 of the Revised Code, or 9143 those receipts, and the taxing authority of the district confirms 9148 the fiscal officer's estimate, which confirmation is approved by 9149 the superintendent of public instruction; 9150

(2) The fiscal officer of the school district certifies, and 9151 the taxing authority of the district confirms, that the district, 9152 at the time of the certification and confirmation, reasonably 9153 expects to have sufficient revenue available for the purpose of 9154 order to generate all or part of the amount of its portion of the 9181 basic project cost if the controlling board has approved the 9182 ~~school~~ facilities construction commission's conditional approval 9183

(B)(1) Not later than July 1, 2017, the treasurer of state 9438 shall create the Ohio pooled collateral program. Under this 9439 program, each institution designated as a public depository that 9440 and liquidity management by the public depository and the safety 9456 and soundness of the public depository as determined by a 9457 third-party rating organization. 9458

(2) The treasurer of state shall monitor the eligibility, 9459 state shall give written notice of the trustee to all public 9480 depositors for which such securities are pledged. The trustee 9481 shall report to the treasurer of state information relating to the 9482 securities pledged to secure such public deposits in a manner and 9483 frequency as determined by the treasurer of state. 9484 arrangement among the parties and that meets the requirements 9488 described in 12 U.S.C. 1823(e). In addition, the agreement shall 9489

(E) The securities or other obligations described in division 9493
(D) of section 135.18 of the Revised Code shall be eligible as 9494 collateral for the purposes of division (B) of this section, 9495 provided no such securities or obligations pledged as collateral 9496 are at any time in default as to either principal or interest. 9497

(F) Any federal reserve bank or branch thereof located in 9498 this state or federal home loan bank, without compliance with 9499 any other law of this state relative to the exercise by 9501 corporations of trust powers generally, is qualified to act as 9502 trustee for the safekeeping of securities, under this section. Any 9503 institution mentioned in section 135.03 or 135.32 of the Revised 9504 Code that holds a certificate of qualification issued by the 9505 superintendent of financial institutions or any institution 9506

(G) The public depository may substitute, exchange, or release eligible securities deposited with the qualified trustee pursuant to this section, provided that such substitution, exchange, or release is effectuated pursuant to written authorization from the treasurer of state, and such action does not reduce the total market value of the securities to an amount that is less than the amount established pursuant to division (B) of this section.

section, the treasurer of state shall give written notice of this 9541 failure to the qualified trustee holding the pool of securities 9542 pledged against the public deposits, and at the same time shall 9543 send a copy of this notice to the public depository. Upon receipt 9544 of this notice, the trustee shall transfer to the treasurer of 9545 state for sale, the pooled securities that are necessary to 9546 produce an amount equal to the public deposits made by the public 9547 depositor and not paid over, less the portion of the deposits 9548 covered by any federal deposit insurance, plus any accrued 9549 interest due on the deposits. The treasurer of state shall sell 9550 any of the bonds or other securities so transferred. When a sale 9551
the public depositor of the purchase money, the treasurer of state 9553 shall transfer such bonds or securities whereupon the absolute 9554 ownership of such bonds or securities shall pass to the 9555 purchasers. Any surplus after deducting the amount due to the 9556 public depositor and expenses of sale shall be paid to the public 9557 depository. 9558

(J) Any charges or compensation of a qualified trustee for 9559 acting as such under this section shall be paid by the public 9560 depository and in no event shall be chargeable to the public 9561 depositor or to any officer of the public depositor. The charges 9562 or compensation shall not be a lien or charge upon the securities 9563 deposited for safekeeping prior or superior to the rights to and 9564 interests in the securities of the public depositor. The treasurer 9565 and the treasurer's bonders or surety shall be relieved from any 9566 liability to the public depositor or to the public depository for 9567 the loss or destruction of any securities deposited with a 9568 qualified trustee pursuant to this section. 9569 public record under section 149.43 of the Revised Code: 9571 from releasing or exchanging such confidential information as 9578 required by law or for the operation of the pooled collateral 9579 program. 9580

(L) The treasurer of state may impose reasonable fees, 9581 including late fees, upon public depositories participating in the 9582 pooled collateral program to defray the actual and necessary 9583 expenses incurred by the treasurer in connection with the program. 9584
All such fees collected by the treasurer shall be deposited into 9585 the state treasury to the credit of the administrative fund 9586 created in section 113.20 of the Revised Code. 9587

(M) The treasurer of state may adopt rules necessary for the 9588 implementation of this section and sections 135.18 and 135.181 of 9589 the Revised Code. Such rules shall be adopted in accordance with 9590 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 9591

under division (B)(6) of section 135.14 of the Revised Code or 9609 division (A)(6) of section 135.35 of the Revised Code if the ~~fund~~ 9610 pool does not maintain the highest letter or numerical rating 9611 provided by at least one nationally recognized standard rating 9612 service. 9613

(2) Upon receipt of notice that the ~~fund~~ pool does not 9614 maintain the highest letter or numerical rating required under 9615 division (B)(1) of this section, the treasurer of state shall have 9616 dissolve the ~~fund~~ pool. The plan shall include reasonable 9621 standards for the equitable return of public moneys in the ~~fund~~ 9622 pool to those subdivisions participating in the ~~fund~~ pool. 9623

(3) Treasurers, governing boards, or investing authorities of 9624 subdivisions participating in the ~~fund~~ pool shall not be required 9625 to divest in the ~~fund~~ pool during the initial one hundred eighty 9626 of the information requested, but may do so only after disclosing 10335 to the requester that a written request is not mandatory and that 10336 the requester may decline to reveal the requester's identity or 10337 the intended use and when a written request or disclosure of the 10338 identity or intended use would benefit the requester by enhancing 10339 records to identify, locate, or deliver the public records sought 10341 by the requester. 10342

public record determines that it reasonably can be duplicated as 10354 an integral part of the normal operations of the public office or 10355 the copy makes a choice under this division, the public office or 10357 person responsible for the public record shall provide a copy of 10358 it in accordance with the choice made by the person seeking the 10359 copy. Nothing in this section requires a public office or person 10360 responsible for the public record to allow the person seeking a 10361 copy of the public record to make the copies of the public record. 10362 criminal investigation or prosecution if the subject of the 10413 investigation or prosecution were an adult, unless the request to 10414 inspect or to obtain a copy of the record is for the purpose of 10415 acquiring information that is subject to release as a public 10416 record under this section and the judge who imposed the sentence 10417 or made the adjudication with respect to the person, or the 10418 judge's successor in office, finds that the information sought in 10419 the public record is necessary to support what appears to be a 10420 justiciable claim of the person. 10421

(9)(a) Upon written request made and signed by a journalist 10422 on or after December 16, 1999, a public office, or person 10423 responsible for public records, having custody of the records of 10424 the agency employing a specified peace officer, parole officer, 10425 probation officer, bailiff, prosecuting attorney, assistant 10426 prosecuting attorney, correctional employee, community-based 10427 correctional facility employee, youth services employee, 10428 firefighter, EMT, investigator of the bureau of criminal 10429 identification and investigation, or federal law enforcement 10430 personal residence of the peace officer, parole officer, probation officer, bailiff, prosecuting attorney, assistant prosecuting attorney, correctional employee, community-based correctional facility employee, youth services employee, firefighter, EMT, investigator of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation, or federal law enforcement officer and, if the peace officer's, parole officer's, probation officer's, bailiff's, prosecuting attorney's, assistant prosecuting attorney's, correctional employee's, community-based correctional facility employee's, youth services employee's, firefighter's, EMT's, investigator of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation's, or federal law enforcement officer's spouse, former spouse, or child is employed by a public office, the name and address of the employer of the peace officer's, parole officer's, probation officer's, bailiff's, prosecuting attorney's, assistant prosecuting attorney's, correctional employee's, community-based correctional facility employee's, youth services employee's, firefighter's, EMT's, investigator of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation's, or federal law enforcement officer's spouse, former spouse, or child. The request shall include the journalist's name and title and the name and address of the journalist's employer and shall state that disclosure of the information sought would be in the public interest.

(c) As used in division (B)(9) of this section, "journalist" means a person engaged in, connected with, or employed by any news medium, including a newspaper, magazine, press association, news 10464 agency, or wire service, a radio or television station, or a 10465 similar medium, for the purpose of gathering, processing, 10466 transmitting, compiling, editing, or disseminating information for 10467 the general public. 10468

(C)(1) If a person allegedly is aggrieved by the failure of a 10469 public office or the person responsible for public records to 10470 promptly prepare a public record and to make it available to the 10471 person for inspection in accordance with division (B) of this 10472 section or by any other failure of a public office or the person 10473 responsible for public records to comply with an obligation in 10474 accordance with division (B) of this section, the person allegedly 10475 aggrieved may do only one of the following, and not both: 10476

(a) File a complaint with the clerk of the court of claims or 10477 the clerk of the court of common pleas under section 2743.75 of 10478
the Revised Code; 10479

(b) Commence a mandamus action to obtain a judgment that 10480 orders the public office or the person responsible for the public 10481 record to comply with division (B) of this section, that awards 10482 court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person that 10483 instituted the mandamus action, and, if applicable, that includes 10484 an order fixing statutory damages under division (C)(2) of this 10485 section. The mandamus action may be commenced in the court of 10486 common pleas of the county in which division (B) of this section 10487 allegedly was not complied with, in the supreme court pursuant to 10488 its original jurisdiction under Section 2 of Article IV, Ohio 10489 Constitution, or in the court of appeals for the appellate 10490 district in which division (B) of this section allegedly was not 10491 complied with pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 10492
3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 10493

(2) If a requester transmits a written request by hand 10494 delivery or certified mail to inspect or receive copies of any 10495 public record in a manner that fairly describes the public record 10496 or class of public records to the public office or person 10497 responsible for the requested public records, except as otherwise 10498 provided in this section, the requester shall be entitled to 10499 recover the amount of statutory damages set forth in this division 10500 if a court determines that the public office or the person 10501 responsible for public records failed to comply with an obligation 10502 in accordance with division (B) of this section. 10503

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one hundred 10504 dollars for each business day during which the public office or 10505 person responsible for the requested public records failed to 10506 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 10507 section, beginning with the day on which the requester files a 10508 mandamus action to recover statutory damages, up to a maximum of 10509 one thousand dollars. The award of statutory damages shall not be 10510 construed as a penalty, but as compensation for injury arising 10511 from lost use of the requested information. The existence of this 10512 injury shall be conclusively presumed. The award of statutory 10513 damages shall be in addition to all other remedies authorized by 10514
this section. 10515

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 10516 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 10517
following: 10518

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 10519 and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 10520 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for 10521
the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 10522 to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 10523
this section and that was the basis of the mandamus action, a 10524
well-informed public office or person responsible for the 10525
requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct 10526 or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 10527

for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 10528 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 10529
section; 10530

(b) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 10531 for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 10532 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 10533 responsible for the requested public records would serve the 10534 public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as 10535 permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 10536

section, the following apply: 10538

(a)(i) If the court orders the public office or the person 10539 responsible for the public record to comply with division (B) of 10540 this section, the court shall determine and award to the relator 10541 all court costs, which shall be construed as remedial and not 10542 punitive. 10543

(ii) If the court makes a determination described in division 10544 (C)(3)(b)(iii) of this section, the court shall determine and 10545 award to the relator all court costs, which shall be construed as 10546 remedial and not punitive. 10547

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public 10548 office or the person responsible for the public record to comply 10549 with division (B) of this section or if the court determines any 10550 of the following, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees 10551 to the relator, subject to the provisions of division (C)(4) of 10552
this section: 10553

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the 10554 public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to 10555 the public records request in accordance with the time allowed 10556
under division (B) of this section. 10557

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the 10558 public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or 10559 receive copies of the public records requested within a specified 10560 period of time but failed to fulfill that promise within that 10561 specified period of time. 10562

(iii) The public office or the person responsible for the 10563 public records acted in bad faith when the office or person 10564 voluntarily made the public records available to the relator for 10565 the first time after the relator commenced the mandamus action, 10566 but before the court issued any order concluding whether or not 10567 the public office or person was required to comply with division 10568
(B) of this section. No discovery may be conducted on the issue of 10569 the alleged bad faith of the public office or person responsible 10570 for the public records. This division shall not be construed as 10571 creating a presumption that the public office or the person 10572 responsible for the public records acted in bad faith when the 10573 office or person voluntarily made the public records available to 10574 the relator for the first time after the relator commenced the 10575 mandamus action, but before the court issued any order described 10576 in this division. 10577

(c) The court shall not award attorney's fees to the relator 10578 if the court determines both of the following: 10579

and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 10581
the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 10583
to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 10584
for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 10589

section; 10591

(ii) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 10592 for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 10593
conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 10594
public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as 10596

(4) All of the following apply to any award of reasonable 10598 attorney's fees awarded under division (C)(3)(b) of this section: 10599

(a) The fees shall be construed as remedial and not punitive. 10600

(b) The fees awarded shall not exceed the total of the 10601 reasonable attorney's fees incurred before the public record was 10602 made available to the relator and the fees described in division 10603 (C)(4)(c) of this section. 10604

(c) Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable fees 10605 incurred to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount of the 10606 fees and to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. 10607

(d) The court may reduce the amount of fees awarded if the 10608 court determines that, given the factual circumstances involved 10609 with the specific public records request, an alternative means 10610 should have been pursued to more effectively and efficiently 10611 resolve the dispute that was subject to the mandamus action filed 10612 under division (C)(1) of this section. 10613

(5) If the court does not issue a writ of mandamus under 10614 division (C) of this section and the court determines at that time 10615 that the bringing of the mandamus action was frivolous conduct as 10616 defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 of the Revised Code, 10617 the court may award to the public office all court costs, 10618 expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the 10619
court. 10620

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the 10621 provisions of this section. 10622

(E)(1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are 10623 appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under 10624 division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their 10625 appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the 10626 attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised 10627 Code. In addition, all public offices shall adopt a public records 10628 policy in compliance with this section for responding to public 10629 records requests. In adopting a public records policy under this 10630 division, a public office may obtain guidance from the model 10631 public records policy developed and provided to the public office 10632 by the attorney general under section 109.43 of the Revised Code. 10633 Except as otherwise provided in this section, the policy may not 10634 limit the number of public records that the public office will 10635 make available to a single person, may not limit the number of 10636 public records that it will make available during a fixed period 10637 of time, and may not establish a fixed period of time before it 10638 will respond to a request for inspection or copying of public 10639 records, unless that period is less than eight hours. 10640

(2) The public office shall distribute the public records 10641 policy adopted by the public office under division (E)(1) of this 10642 section to the employee of the public office who is the records 10643 custodian or records manager or otherwise has custody of the 10644 records of that office. The public office shall require that 10645 employee to acknowledge receipt of the copy of the public records 10646 policy. The public office shall create a poster that describes its 10647 public records policy and shall post the poster in a conspicuous 10648 place in the public office and in all locations where the public 10649 office has branch offices. The public office may post its public 10650 records policy on the internet web site of the public office if 10651 the public office maintains an internet web site. A public office 10652 that has established a manual or handbook of its general policies 10653 and procedures for all employees of the public office shall 10654 include the public records policy of the public office in the 10655 manual or handbook. 10656

(F)(1) The bureau of motor vehicles may adopt rules pursuant 10657 to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit the number 10658 of bulk commercial special extraction requests made by a person 10659 for the same records or for updated records during a calendar 10660 year. The rules may include provisions for charges to be made for 10661 bulk commercial special extraction requests for the actual cost of 10662 the bureau, plus special extraction costs, plus ten per cent. The 10663 bureau may charge for expenses for redacting information, the 10664 release of which is prohibited by law. 10665

(2) As used in division (F)(1) of this section: 10666

(a) "Actual cost" means the cost of depleted supplies, 10667 records storage media costs, actual mailing and alternative 10668 delivery costs, or other transmitting costs, and any direct 10669 equipment operating and maintenance costs, including actual costs 10670 paid to private contractors for copying services. 10671

(b) "Bulk commercial special extraction request" means a 10672 request for copies of a record for information in a format other 10673 than the format already available, or information that cannot be 10674 extracted without examination of all items in a records series, 10675 class of records, or database by a person who intends to use or 10676 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale 10677 for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special extraction 10678 request" does not include a request by a person who gives 10679 assurance to the bureau that the person making the request does 10680 not intend to use or forward the requested copies for surveys, 10681 marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial purposes. 10682

(c) "Commercial" means profit-seeking production, buying, or 10683 selling of any good, service, or other product. 10684

(d) "Special extraction costs" means the cost of the time 10685 spent by the lowest paid employee competent to perform the task, 10686 the actual amount paid to outside private contractors employed by 10687 the bureau, or the actual cost incurred to create computer 10688 programs to make the special extraction. "Special extraction 10689 costs" include any charges paid to a public agency for computer or 10690 records services. 10691

(3) For purposes of divisions (F)(1) and (2) of this section, 10692 "surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial 10693 purposes" shall be narrowly construed and does not include 10694 reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering information to 10695 assist citizen oversight or understanding of the operation or 10696 activities of government, or nonprofit educational research. 10697

(G) A request by a defendant, counsel of a defendant, or any 10698 agent of a defendant in a criminal action that public records 10699 related to that action be made available under this section shall 10700 be considered a demand for discovery pursuant to the Criminal 10701 Rules, except to the extent that the Criminal Rules plainly 10702 indicate a contrary intent. The defendant, counsel of the 10703 defendant, or agent of the defendant making a request under this 10704 division shall serve a copy of the request on the prosecuting 10705 attorney, director of law, or other chief legal officer 10706 responsible for prosecuting the action. 10707

Sec. 149.60. (A) As used in this section: 10708

(1) "Local government" means bodies corporate and politic 10709 responsible for governmental activities only in geographical areas 10710

of the Revised Code. 10713

(B)(1) The general assembly recognizes that public-use data 10716 from public offices offers an avenue toward open and transparent 10717 government, stimulates business innovation, and can help public 10718 offices become more effective. It is the intent of the general 10719 assembly to facilitate the ability of the public easily to find, 10720 download, and use public records and data sets of public records 10721 that are generated and held by public offices. With these goals in 10722 mind, the general assembly creates the DataOhio board, which shall 10723 do all of the following: 10724

(a) Recommend categories of public records that public 10725 offices should make available to the public online in an open 10726 format; 10727

(b) Recommend technology standards for open data use in the 10728 state that reflect the most current standards used nationally and 10729 in other states; 10730

(c) Recommend accounting standards for financial data of 10731 public offices to facilitate comparison across public offices and 10732 services; 10733

(d) Recommend metadata definitional standards for 10734 nonfinancial data of public offices to facilitate comparison and 10735 use of this data across public offices; and 10736

(e) Consider the participation and affiliation of 10737 data.Ohio.gov with data.gov, the official online data catalog of 10738 the United States government, and make a recommendation regarding 10739 this consideration. 10740

(2) The DataOhio board shall deliver a report of its findings 10741 and recommendations to the general assembly and to the auditor of 10742 state not later than one year after the effective date of this 10743 section, and thereafter shall deliver to them a report of its 10744 members. The chairperson shall select a member of the board to 10785 serve as the board's secretary. 10786

(E) The board shall meet at least ten times per year at the 10787 regarding the provision of data sets of public records by state 10791 agencies and local governments. 10792

(F) The presence of a majority of the members of the board 10793 incur in the performance of their duties. 10799

(1) "Open format" means that a public record, or the data 10801 contained in the public record, is capable of being searched, 10802 viewed, and downloaded by the public, in an open, nonproprietary 10803 format that is machine readable. 10804

(3) "Public records policy" means the policy required by 10807 division (E) of section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 10808

(B) A public office that posts a public record on its web 10809 purposes to be served. The bond proceedings also shall provide, 11195 subject to the provisions of any other applicable bond 11196 proceedings, for the pledge of all, or such part as the issuing 11197 authority may determine, of the pledged receipts and the 11198 applicable special fund or funds to the payment of bond service 11199 charges, which pledges may be made either prior or subordinate to 11200 other expenses, claims, or payments, and may be made to secure the 11201 obligations on a parity with obligations theretofore or thereafter 11202 issued, if and to the extent provided in the bond proceedings. The 11203 pledged receipts and special funds so pledged and thereafter 11204 received by the state are immediately subject to the lien of such 11205 pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and 11206 the lien of any such pledges is valid and binding against all 11207 parties having claims of any kind against the state or any 11208 governmental agency of the state, irrespective of whether such 11209 parties have notice thereof, and shall create a perfected security 11210 interest for all purposes of Chapter 1309. of the Revised Code, 11211 without the necessity for separation or delivery of funds or for 11212 the filing or recording of the bond proceedings by which such 11213 pledge is created or any certificate, statement or other document 11214 with respect thereto; and the pledge of such pledged receipts and 11215 special funds is effective and the money therefrom and thereof may 11216 be applied to the purposes for which pledged without necessity for 11217 any act of appropriation. Every pledge, and every covenant and 11218 agreement made with respect thereto, made in the bond proceedings 11219 may therein be extended to the benefit of the owners and holders 11220 of obligations authorized by this section, and to any trustee 11221 therefor, for the further security of the payment of the bond 11222 service charges. 11223

(E) The bond proceedings may contain additional provisions as 11224
to: 11225

(1) The redemption of obligations prior to maturity at the 11226 option of the issuing authority at such price or prices and under 11227 such terms and conditions as are provided in the bond proceedings; 11228

(2) Other terms of the obligations; 11229

(3) Limitations on the issuance of additional obligations; 11230

(4) The terms of any trust agreement or indenture securing 11231 the obligations or under which the same may be issued; 11232

(5) The deposit, investment and application of special funds, 11233 and the safeguarding of moneys on hand or on deposit, without 11234 regard to Chapter 131. or 135. of the Revised Code, but subject to 11235 any special provisions of this chapter, with respect to particular 11236 funds or moneys, provided that any bank or trust company which 11237 acts as depository of any moneys in the special funds may furnish 11238 such indemnifying bonds or may pledge such securities as required 11239 by the issuing authority; 11240

(6) Any or every provision of the bond proceedings being 11241 binding upon such officer, board, commission, authority, agency, 11242 department, or other person or body as may from time to time have 11243 the authority under law to take such actions as may be necessary 11244 to perform all or any part of the duty required by such provision; 11245

(7) Any provision that may be made in a trust agreement or 11246 indenture; 11247

(8) Any other or additional agreements with the holders of 11248 the obligations, or the trustee therefor, relating to the 11249 obligations or the security therefor, including the assignment of 11250 mortgages or other security obtained or to be obtained for loans 11251 under section 122.43, 166.07, or 166.16 of the Revised Code. 11252

(F) The obligations may have the great seal of the state or a 11253 facsimile thereof affixed thereto or printed thereon. The 11254 obligations and any coupons pertaining to obligations shall be 11255 signed or bear the facsimile signature of the issuing authority. 11256 Any obligations or coupons may be executed by the person who, on 11257 the date of execution, is the proper issuing authority although on 11258 the date of such bonds or coupons such person was not the issuing 11259 authority. If the issuing authority whose signature or a facsimile 11260 of whose signature appears on any such obligation or coupon ceases 11261 to be the issuing authority before delivery thereof, such 11262 signature or facsimile is nevertheless valid and sufficient for 11263 all purposes as if the former issuing authority had remained the 11264 issuing authority until such delivery; and if the seal to be 11265 affixed to obligations has been changed after a facsimile of the 11266 seal has been imprinted on such obligations, such facsimile seal 11267 shall continue to be sufficient as to such obligations and 11268 obligations issued in substitution or exchange therefor. 11269

(G) All obligations are negotiable instruments and securities 11270 under Chapter 1308. of the Revised Code, subject to the provisions 11271 of the bond proceedings as to registration. The obligations may be 11272 issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the issuing 11273 authority determines. Provision may be made for the registration 11274 of any obligations with coupons attached thereto as to principal 11275 alone or as to both principal and interest, their exchange for 11276 obligations so registered, and for the conversion or reconversion 11277 into obligations with coupons attached thereto of any obligations 11278 registered as to both principal and interest, and for reasonable 11279 charges for such registration, exchange, conversion, and 11280 reconversion. 11281

(H) Obligations may be sold at public sale or at private 11282 sale, as determined in the bond proceedings. 11283

Obligations issued to provide moneys for the loan guarantee 11284 fund or the innovation Ohio loan guarantee fund may, as determined 11285 by the issuing authority, be sold at private sale, and without 11286 publication of a notice of sale. 11287

(I) Pending preparation of definitive obligations, the 11288 issuing authority may issue interim receipts or certificates which 11289 shall be exchanged for such definitive obligations. 11290

(J) In the discretion of the issuing authority, obligations 11291 may be secured additionally by a trust agreement or indenture 11292 between the issuing authority and a corporate trustee which may be 11293 any trust company or bank having a place of business within the 11294 state. Any such agreement or indenture may contain the resolution 11295 or order authorizing the issuance of the obligations, any 11296 provisions that may be contained in any bond proceedings, and 11297 other provisions which are customary or appropriate in an 11298 agreement or indenture of such type, including, but not limited 11299
to: 11300

(1) Maintenance of each pledge, trust agreement, indenture, 11301 or other instrument comprising part of the bond proceedings until 11302 the state has fully paid the bond service charges on the 11303 obligations secured thereby, or provision therefor has been made; 11304

(2) In the event of default in any payments required to be 11305 made by the bond proceedings, or any other agreement of the 11306 issuing authority made as a part of the contract under which the 11307 obligations were issued, enforcement of such payments or agreement 11308 by mandamus, the appointment of a receiver, suit in equity, action 11309 at law, or any combination of the foregoing; 11310

(3) The rights and remedies of the holders of obligations and 11311 of the trustee, and provisions for protecting and enforcing them, 11312 including limitations on rights of individual holders of 11313 obligations; 11314

(4) The replacement of any obligations that become mutilated 11315 or are destroyed, lost, or stolen; 11316

(5) Such other provisions as the trustee and the issuing 11317 authority agree upon, including limitations, conditions, or 11318 qualifications relating to any of the foregoing. 11319

(K) Any holders of obligations or trustees under the bond 11320 proceedings, except to the extent that their rights are restricted 11321 by the bond proceedings, may by any suitable form of legal 11322 proceedings, protect and enforce any rights under the laws of this 11323 state or granted by such bond proceedings. Such rights include the 11324 right to compel the performance of all duties of the issuing 11325 authority, the director of development, the Ohio air quality 11326 development authority, or the division of liquor control required 11327 by this chapter or the bond proceedings; to enjoin unlawful 11328 activities; and in the event of default with respect to the 11329 payment of any bond service charges on any obligations or in the 11330 performance of any covenant or agreement on the part of the 11331 issuing authority, the director of development, the Ohio air 11332 quality development authority, or the division of liquor control 11333 in the bond proceedings, to apply to a court having jurisdiction 11334 of the cause to appoint a receiver to receive and administer the 11335 pledged receipts and special funds, other than those in the 11336 custody of the treasurer of state, which are pledged to the 11337 payment of the bond service charges on such obligations or which 11338 are the subject of the covenant or agreement, with full power to 11339 pay, and to provide for payment of bond service charges on, such 11340 obligations, and with such powers, subject to the direction of the 11341 court, as are accorded receivers in general equity cases, 11342 excluding any power to pledge additional revenues or receipts or 11343 other income or moneys of the issuing authority or the state or 11344 governmental agencies of the state to the payment of such 11345 principal and interest and excluding the power to take possession 11346 of, mortgage, or cause the sale or otherwise dispose of any 11347 project facilities. 11348

Each duty of the issuing authority and the issuing 11349 authority's officers and employees, and of each governmental 11350 agency and its officers, members, or employees, undertaken 11351 pursuant to the bond proceedings or any agreement or lease, 11352 lease-purchase agreement, or loan made under authority of this 11353 chapter, and in every agreement by or with the issuing authority, 11354 is hereby established as a duty of the issuing authority, and of 11355 each such officer, member, or employee having authority to perform 11356 such duty, specifically enjoined by the law resulting from an 11357 office, trust, or station within the meaning of section 2731.01 of 11358

The person who is at the time the issuing authority, or the 11360 issuing authority's officers or employees, are not liable in their 11361 personal capacities on any obligations issued by the issuing 11362 authority or any agreements of or with the issuing authority. 11363

(L) The issuing authority may authorize and issue obligations 11364 for the refunding, including funding and retirement, and advance 11365 refunding with or without payment or redemption prior to maturity, 11366 of any obligations previously issued by the issuing authority. 11367 Such obligations may be issued in amounts sufficient for payment 11368 of the principal amount of the prior obligations, any redemption 11369 premiums thereon, principal maturities of any such obligations 11370 maturing prior to the redemption of the remaining obligations on a 11371 parity therewith, interest accrued or to accrue to the maturity 11372 dates or dates of redemption of such obligations, and any 11373 allowable costs including expenses incurred or to be incurred in 11374 connection with such issuance and such refunding, funding, and 11375 retirement. Subject to the bond proceedings therefor, the portion 11376 of proceeds of the sale of obligations issued under this division 11377 to be applied to bond service charges on the prior obligations 11378 shall be credited to an appropriate account held by the trustee 11379 for such prior or new obligations or to the appropriate account in 11380 the bond service fund for such obligations. Obligations authorized 11381 under this division shall be deemed to be issued for those 11382 purposes for which such prior obligations were issued and are 11383 subject to the provisions of this section pertaining to other 11384 obligations, except as otherwise provided in this section; 11385 provided that, unless otherwise authorized by the general 11386 assembly, any limitations imposed by the general assembly pursuant 11387 to this section with respect to bond service charges applicable to 11388 the prior obligations shall be applicable to the obligations 11389 issued under this division to refund, fund, advance refund or 11390 retire such prior obligations. 11391

(M) The authority to issue obligations under this section 11392 includes authority to issue obligations in the form of bond 11393 anticipation notes and to renew the same from time to time by the 11394 issuance of new notes. The holders of such notes or interest 11395 coupons pertaining thereto shall have a right to be paid solely 11396 from the pledged receipts and special funds that may be pledged to 11397 the payment of the bonds anticipated, or from the proceeds of such 11398 bonds or renewal notes, or both, as the issuing authority provides 11399 in the resolution or order authorizing such notes. Such notes may 11400 be additionally secured by covenants of the issuing authority to 11401 the effect that the issuing authority and the state will do such 11402 or all things necessary for the issuance of such bonds or renewal 11403 notes in appropriate amount, and apply the proceeds thereof to the 11404 extent necessary, to make full payment of the principal of and 11405 interest on such notes at the time or times contemplated, as 11406 provided in such resolution or order. For such purpose, the 11407 issuing authority may issue bonds or renewal notes in such 11408 principal amount and upon such terms as may be necessary to 11409 provide funds to pay when required the principal of and interest 11410 on such notes, notwithstanding any limitations prescribed by or 11411 for purposes of this section. Subject to this division, all 11412 provisions for and references to obligations in this section are 11413 applicable to notes authorized under this division. 11414

The issuing authority in the bond proceedings authorizing the 11415 issuance of bond anticipation notes shall set forth for such bonds 11416 an estimated interest rate and a schedule of principal payments 11417 for such bonds and the annual maturity dates thereof, and for 11418 purposes of any limitation on bond service charges prescribed 11419 under division (A) of section 166.11 of the Revised Code, the 11420 amount of bond service charges on such bond anticipation notes is 11421 deemed to be the bond service charges for the bonds anticipated 11422 thereby as set forth in the bond proceedings applicable to such 11423 notes, but this provision does not modify any authority in this 11424 section to pledge receipts and special funds to, and covenant to 11425 issue bonds to fund, the payment of principal of and interest and 11426 any premium on such notes. 11427

(N) Obligations issued under this section are lawful 11428 investments for banks, societies for savings, savings and loan 11429 associations, deposit guarantee associations, trust companies, 11430 trustees, fiduciaries, insurance companies, including domestic for 11431 life and domestic not for life, trustees or other officers having 11432 charge of sinking and bond retirement or other special funds of 11433 political subdivisions and taxing districts of this state, the 11434 commissioners of the sinking fund of the state, the administrator 11435 of workers' compensation, the state teachers retirement system, 11436 the public employees retirement system, the school employees 11437 retirement system, and the Ohio police and fire pension fund, 11438 notwithstanding any other provisions of the Revised Code or rules 11439 adopted pursuant thereto by any governmental agency of the state 11440 with respect to investments by them, and are also acceptable as 11441 security for the deposit of public moneys. 11442

(O) Unless otherwise provided in any applicable bond 11443 proceedings, moneys to the credit of or in the special funds 11444 established by or pursuant to this section may be invested by or 11445 on behalf of the issuing authority only in notes, bonds, or other 11446 obligations of the United States, or of any agency or 11447 instrumentality of the United States, obligations guaranteed as to 11448 principal and interest by the United States, obligations of this 11449 state or any political subdivision of this state, and certificates 11450 of deposit of any national bank located in this state and any 11451 bank, as defined in section 1101.01 of the Revised Code, subject 11452 to inspection by the superintendent of banks. If the law or the 11453 instrument creating a trust pursuant to division (J) of this 11454 section expressly permits investment in direct obligations of the 11455 United States or an agency of the United States, unless expressly 11456 prohibited by the instrument, such moneys also may be invested in 11457 no-front-end-load money market mutual funds consisting exclusively 11458 of obligations of the United States or an agency of the United 11459 States and in repurchase agreements, including those issued by the 11460 fiduciary itself, secured by obligations of the United States or 11461 an agency of the United States; and in common trust funds 11462 established in accordance with section 1111.20 of the Revised Code 11463 and consisting exclusively of any such securities, notwithstanding 11464 division (A)(4) of that section. The income from such investments 11465 shall be credited to such funds as the issuing authority 11466 determines, and such investments may be sold at such times as the 11467 issuing authority determines or authorizes. 11468

(P) Provision may be made in the applicable bond proceedings 11469 for the establishment of separate accounts in the bond service 11470 fund and for the application of such accounts only to the 11471 specified bond service charges on obligations pertinent to such 11472 accounts and bond service fund and for other accounts therein 11473 within the general purposes of such fund. Unless otherwise 11474 provided in any applicable bond proceedings, moneys to the credit 11475 of or in the several special funds established pursuant to this 11476 section shall be disbursed on the order of the treasurer of state, 11477 provided that no such order is required for the payment from the 11478 bond service fund when due of bond service charges on obligations. 11479

(Q) The issuing authority may pledge all, or such portion as 11480 the issuing authority determines, of the pledged receipts to the 11481 payment of bond service charges on obligations issued under this 11482 section, and for the establishment and maintenance of any 11483 reserves, as provided in the bond proceedings, and make other 11484 provisions therein with respect to pledged receipts as authorized 11485 by this chapter, which provisions are controlling notwithstanding 11486 any other provisions of law pertaining thereto. 11487

(R) The issuing authority may covenant in the bond 11488 proceedings, and any such covenants are controlling 11489 notwithstanding any other provision of law, that the state and 11490 applicable officers and governmental agencies of the state, 11491 including the general assembly, so long as any obligations are 11492 outstanding, shall: 11493

(1) Maintain statutory authority for and cause to be charged 11494 and collected wholesale and retail prices for spirituous liquor 11495 sold by the state or its agents so that the pledged receipts are 11496 sufficient in amount to meet bond service charges, and the 11497 establishment and maintenance of any reserves and other 11498 requirements provided for in the bond proceedings, and, as 11499 necessary, to meet covenants contained in contracts of guarantee 11500 made under section 166.06 of the Revised Code; 11501

(2) Take or permit no action, by statute or otherwise, that 11502 would impair the exemption from federal income taxation of the 11503 interest on the obligations. 11504

(S) There is hereby created the economic development bond 11505 service fund, which shall be in the custody of the treasurer of 11506 state but shall be separate and apart from and not a part of the 11507 state treasury. All moneys received by or on account of the 11508 issuing authority or state agencies and required by the applicable 11509 bond proceedings, consistent with this section, to be deposited, 11510 transferred, or credited to a bond service fund or the economic 11511 development bond service fund, and all other moneys transferred or 11512 allocated to or received for the purposes of the fund, shall be 11513 deposited and credited to such fund and to any separate accounts 11514 therein, subject to applicable provisions of the bond proceedings, 11515 but without necessity for any act of appropriation. During the 11516 period beginning with the date of the first issuance of 11517 obligations and continuing during such time as any such 11518 obligations are outstanding, and so long as moneys in the 11519 pertinent bond service funds are insufficient to pay all bond 11520 services charges on such obligations becoming due in each year, a 11521 sufficient amount of the gross profit on the sale of spirituous 11522 liquor included in pledged receipts are committed and shall be 11523 paid to the bond service fund or economic development bond service 11524 fund in each year for the purpose of paying the bond service 11525 charges becoming due in that year without necessity for further 11526 act of appropriation for such purpose and notwithstanding anything 11527 to the contrary in Chapter 4301. of the Revised Code. The economic 11528 development bond service fund is a trust fund and is hereby 11529 pledged to the payment of bond service charges to the extent 11530 provided in the applicable bond proceedings, and payment thereof 11531 from such fund shall be made or provided for by the treasurer of 11532 state in accordance with such bond proceedings without necessity 11533 for any act of appropriation. 11534

(T) The obligations, the transfer thereof, and the income 11535 therefrom, including any profit made on the sale thereof, shall at 11536 all times be free from taxation within the state. 11537

Sec. 166.11. (A) The aggregate amount of debt service payable 11538 in any calendar year on project financing obligations issued under 11539 section 166.08 of the Revised Code, exclusive of make-whole call 11540 redemptions or other optional prepayments, shall not exceed fifty 11541 million dollars. The aggregate principal amount of obligations, 11542 exclusive of project financing obligations, that may be issued 11543 under section 166.08 of the Revised Code is six hundred thirty 11544 million dollars, plus the principal amount of any such obligations 11545 retired by payment, the amounts held or obligations pledged for 11546 the payment of the principal amount of any such obligations 11547 outstanding, amounts in special funds held as reserves to meet 11548 bond service charges, and amounts of obligations issued to provide 11549 moneys required to meet payments from the loan guarantee fund 11550 created in section 166.06 of the Revised Code and the innovation 11551 Ohio loan guarantee fund created in section 166.15 of the Revised 11552
Code. Of that six hundred thirty million dollars, not more than 11553 eighty-four million principal amount of obligations may be issued 11554 for eligible advanced energy projects and not more than one 11555 hundred million principal amount of obligations may be issued for 11556 eligible logistics and distribution projects. No portion of the 11557 eighty-four million principal amount for eligible advanced energy 11558 projects may be issued after the effective date of this amendment. 11559
The terms of the obligations issued under section 166.08 of the 11560 Revised Code, other than obligations issued to meet guarantees 11561 that cannot be satisfied from amounts then held in the loan 11562 guarantee fund or the innovation Ohio loan guarantee fund, shall 11563 be such that the aggregate amount of moneys used from profit from 11564 the sale of spirituous liquor, and not from other sources, in any 11565 fiscal year shall not exceed sixty-three million dollars. For 11566 purposes of the preceding sentence, "other sources" include the 11567 annual investment income on special funds to the extent it will be 11568 available for payment of any bond service charges in lieu of use 11569 of profit from the sale of spirituous liquor, and shall be 11570 estimated on the basis of the expected funding of those special 11571 funds and assumed investment earnings thereon at a rate equal to 11572 the weighted average yield on investments of those special funds 11573 determined as of any date within sixty days immediately preceding 11574 the date of issuance of the bonds in respect of which the 11575 determination is being made. Amounts received in any fiscal year 11576 under section 6341 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 6341, 11577 shall not be included when determining the sixty-three million 11578 dollar limit. The determinations required by this division shall 11579 be made by the treasurer of state at the time of issuance of an 11580 issue of obligations and shall be conclusive for purposes of such 11581 issue of obligations from and after their issuance and delivery. 11582

(B) The aggregate amount of the guaranteed portion of the 11583 unless the applicant meets standards specified in rules adopted 12936

(6) The state nurse aide registry established under section 3721.32 of the Revised Code;

community-based long-term care services certificate or 13157 community-based long-term care services contract or grant to a 13158 self-employed provider, the department of aging or its designee 13159 shall request that the superintendent of the bureau of criminal 13160 revoking or terminating the self-employed provider's 13166 community-based long-term care services certificate or 13167 community-based long-term care services contract or grant. 13168 However, the department or its designee is not required to request 13169 the criminal records check of the self-employed provider if the 13170 department or its designee, because of circumstances specified in 13171 division (C)(2)(a) of this section, is required to refuse to issue 13172 or award a community-based long-term care services certificate or 13173 self-employed provider or to revoke or terminate the self-employed 13175 provider's certificate or contract or grant. 13176

If a self-employed provider for whom a criminal records check 13177 request is required by this section does not present proof of 13178 having been a resident of this state for the five-year period 13179 immediately prior to the date the criminal records check is 13180 requested or provide evidence that within that five-year period 13181 the superintendent has requested information about the 13182 self-employed provider from the federal bureau of investigation in 13183 a criminal records check, the department or its designee shall 13184 request that the superintendent obtain information from the 13185 federal bureau of investigation as part of the criminal records 13186 check. Even if a self-employed provider for whom a criminal 13187 records check request is required by this section presents proof 13188 of having been a resident of this state for the five-year period, 13189 the department or its designee may request that the superintendent 13190 include information from the federal bureau of investigation in 13191 the criminal records check. 13192

following: 13194

(a) Provide to each self-employed provider for whom a 13195 criminal records check request is required by this section a copy 13196

(b) Obtain the completed form and standard impression sheet 13200 from the self-employed provider; 13201

(c) Forward the completed form and standard impression sheet 13202 to the superintendent. 13203

(3) The department or its designee shall pay to the bureau of 13204 criminal identification and investigation the fee prescribed 13205 pursuant to division (C)(3) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code 13206 for each criminal records check of a self-employed provider the 13207 department or its designee requests under this section. The 13208 department or its designee may charge the self-employed provider a 13209 fee that does not exceed the amount the department or its designee 13210 pays to the bureau. 13211

(G) The report of any criminal records check of a 13212 self-employed provider conducted pursuant to a request made under 13213 this section is not a public record for the purposes of section 13214 149.43 of the Revised Code and shall not be made available to any 13215 person other than the following: 13216

(1) The self-employed provider or the self-employed 13217

provider's representative;	13218
(2) The department of aging, the department's designee, or a representative of the department or its designee;	13219 13220
(4) A court, hearing officer, or other necessary individual involved in a case dealing with any of the following:	13226 13227
(c) A civil or criminal action regarding a program the department of aging administers.	13234 13235
(H) In a tort or other civil action for damages that is brought as the result of an injury, death, or loss to person or property caused by a self-employed provider, both of the following shall apply:	13236 13237 13238 13239

to have been incomplete or inaccurate. 13249

(2) If the department or its designee in good faith issued or 13250 awarded a community-based long-term care services certificate or 13251 community-based long-term care services contract or grant to the 13252 self-employed provider or did not revoke or terminate the 13253 self-employed provider's certificate or contract or grant because 13254 the self-employed provider meets standards specified in rules 13255 adopted under this section, the department and its designee shall 13256 not be found negligent solely because the self-employed provider 13257 has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been found eligible 13258 for intervention in lieu of conviction for a disqualifying 13259

funds. 13889

(B) The state may assign and sell to the issuing authority, 13890 and the issuing authority may accept and purchase, all or a 13891 portion of the amounts to be received by the state under the 13892 tobacco master settlement agreement for a purchase price payable 13893 by the issuing authority to the state consisting of the net 13894 proceeds of obligations and any residual interest, if any. Any 13895 such assignment and sale shall be irrevocable in accordance with 13896 its terms during the period any obligations secured by amounts so 13897 assigned and sold are outstanding under the applicable bond 13898 proceedings, and shall constitute a contractual obligation to the 13899 holders or owners of those obligations. Any such assignment and 13900 sale shall also be treated as an absolute transfer and true sale 13901 for all purposes, and not as a pledge or other security interest. 13902
The characterization of any such assignment and sale as a true 13903 sale and absolute transfer shall not be negated or adversely 13904 settlement agreement or otherwise enforcing that agreement or 13912 retaining any legal title to or interest in any portion of the 13913 amounts to be received under that agreement for the purpose of 13914 these collection activities, any characterization of the issuing 13915 authority or its obligations for purposes of accounting, taxation, 13916 or securities regulation, or by any other factors whatsoever. A 13917 true sale shall exist under this section regardless of whether the 13918 issuing authority has any recourse against the state or any other 13919 term of the bond proceedings or the treatment or characterization 13920 of the transfer as a financing for any purpose. Upon and following 13921 the assignment and sale, the state shall not have any right, 13922 title, or interest in the portion of the receipts under the 13923 tobacco master settlement agreement so assigned and sold, other 13924 than any residual interest that may be described in the applicable 13925 bond proceedings for those obligations, and that portion, if any, 13926 shall be the property of the issuing authority and not of the 13927 state, and shall be paid directly to the issuing authority, and 13928 shall be owned, received, held, and disbursed by the issuing 13929 authority and not by the state. 13930

The state may covenant, pledge, and agree in the bond 13931 proceedings, with and for the benefit of the issuing authority, 13932 the holders and owners of obligations, and providers of any credit 13933 enhancement facilities, that it shall: (1) maintain statutory 13934 authority for, and cause to be collected and paid directly to the 13935 issuing authority or its assignee, the pledged receipts, (2) 13936 enforce the rights of the issuing authority to receive the 13937 receipts under the tobacco master settlement agreement assigned 13938 and sold to the issuing authority, (3) not materially impair the 13939 rights of the issuing authority to fulfill the terms of its 13940 agreements with the holders or owners of outstanding obligations 13941 under the bond proceedings, (4) not materially impair the rights 13942 and remedies of the holders or owners of outstanding obligations 13943 or materially impair the security for those outstanding 13944 obligations, and (5) enforce Chapter 1346. of the Revised Code, 13945 the tobacco master settlement agreement, and the consent decree to 13946 effectuate the collection of the pledged tobacco settlement 13947 receipts. The bond proceedings may provide or authorize the manner 13948 for determining material impairment of the security for any 13949 outstanding obligations, including by assessing and evaluating the 13950 pledged receipts in the aggregate. 13951

As further provided for in division (H) of this section, the bond proceedings may also include such other covenants, pledges, and agreements by the state to protect and safeguard the security and rights of the holders and owners of the obligations, and of the providers of any credit enhancement facilities, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any covenant, pledge, or agreement customary in transactions involving the issuance of securities the debt service on which is payable from or secured by amounts received under the tobacco master settlement agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any covenant, pledge, and agreement of the state, if and when made in the bond proceedings, shall be controlling and binding upon, and enforceable against the state in accordance with its terms for so long as any obligations are outstanding under the applicable bond proceedings. The bond proceedings may also include limitations on the remedies available to the issuing authority, the holders and owners of the obligations, and the providers of any credit enhancement facilities, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a provision that those remedies may be limited to injunctive relief in circumstances where there has been no prior determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that the state has not enforced Chapter 1346. of the Revised Code, the tobacco master settlement agreement, or the consent decree as may have been covenanted or agreed in the bond proceedings under division (B)(5) of this section.

Nothing in this section or the bond proceedings shall preclude or limit, or be construed to preclude or limit, the state from regulating or authorizing or permitting the regulation of smoking or from taxing and regulating the sale of cigarettes or other tobacco products, or from defending or prosecuting cases or other actions relating to the sale or use of cigarettes or other tobacco products. Except as otherwise may be agreed in writing by the attorney general, nothing in this section or the bond proceedings shall modify or limit, or be construed to modify or 13985 limit, the responsibility, power, judgment, and discretion of the 13986 attorney general to protect and discharge the duties, rights, and 13987 obligations of the state under the tobacco master settlement 13988 agreement, the consent decree, or Chapter 1346. of the Revised 13989

Code. 13990

The governor and the director of budget and management, in 13991 consultation with the attorney general, on behalf of the state, 13992 and any member or officer of the issuing authority as authorized 13993 by that issuing authority, on behalf of the issuing authority, may 13994 take any action and execute any documents, including any purchase 13995 and sale agreements, necessary to effect the assignment and sale 13996 and the acceptance of the assignment and title to the receipts 13997 including, providing irrevocable direction to the escrow agent 13998 acting under the tobacco master settlement agreement to transfer 13999 directly to the issuing authority the amounts to be received under 14000 that agreement that are subject to such assignment and sale. Any 14001 purchase and sale agreement or other bond proceedings may contain 14002 the terms and conditions established by the state and the issuing 14003 authority to carry out and effectuate the purposes of this 14004 section, including, without limitation, covenants binding the 14005 state in favor of the issuing authority and its assignees and the 14006 owners of the obligations. Any such purchase and sale agreement 14007 shall be sufficient to effectuate such purchase and sale without 14008 regard to any other laws governing other property sales or 14009 financial transactions by the state. 14010

Not later than two years following the date on which there 14011 are no longer any obligations outstanding under the bond 14012 proceedings, all assets of the issuing authority shall vest in the 14013 state, the issuing authority shall execute any necessary 14014 assignments or instruments, including any assignment of any right, 14015 title, or ownership to the state for receipt of amounts under the 14016 tobacco master settlement agreement, and the issuing authority 14017 shall be dissolved. 14018

(C) The issuing authority is authorized to issue and to sell 14019 obligations as provided in this section. The aggregate principal 14020 amount of obligations issued under this section shall not exceed 14021 six billion dollars, exclusive of obligations issued under 14022 division (M)(1) of this section to refund, renew, or advance 14023 refund other obligations issued or incurred. At least seventy-five 14024 per cent of the aggregate net proceeds of the obligations issued 14025 under the authority of this section, exclusive of obligations 14026 issued to refund, renew, or advance refund other obligations, 14027 shall be paid to the state for deposit into the school building 14028 program assistance fund created in section 3318.25 of the Revised 14029

(D) Each issue of obligations shall be authorized by 14031 resolution or order of the issuing authority. The bond proceedings 14032 shall provide for or authorize the manner for determining the 14033 principal amount or maximum principal amount of obligations of an 14034 issue, the principal maturity or maturities, the interest rate or 14035 rates, the date of and the dates of payment of interest on the 14036 obligations, their denominations, and the place or places of 14037 payment of debt service which may be within or outside the state. 14038 Unless otherwise provided by law, the latest principal maturity 14039 may not be later than the earlier of the thirty-first day of 14040 December of the fiftieth calendar year after the year of issuance 14041 of the particular obligations or of the fiftieth calendar year 14042 after the year in which the original obligation to pay was issued 14043 or entered into. Sections 9.96, 9.98, 9.981, 9.982, and 9.983 of 14044 the Revised Code apply to the obligations. 14045

The purpose of the obligations may be stated in the bond 14046 proceedings in general terms, such as, as applicable, "paying 14047 costs of capital facilities for a system of common schools" and 14048

"paying costs of facilities for state-supported and state-assisted 14049 institutions of higher education." Unless otherwise provided in 14050 the bond proceedings or in division (C) of this section, the net 14051 proceeds from the issuance of the obligations shall be paid to the 14052 state for deposit into the applicable improvement fund. In 14053 addition to the investments authorized in Chapter 135. of the 14054 Revised Code, the net proceeds held in an improvement fund may be 14055 invested by the treasurer of state in guaranteed investment 14056 contracts with providers rated at the time of any investment in 14057 the three highest rating categories by two nationally recognized 14058 rating agencies, all subject to the terms and conditions set forth 14059 in those agreements or the bond proceedings. Notwithstanding 14060 anything to the contrary in Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, net 14061 proceeds of obligations deposited into the school building program 14062 assistance fund created in section 3318.25 of the Revised Code may 14063 be used to pay basic project costs under that chapter at the times 14064 determined by the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission 14065 without regard to whether those expenditures are in proportion to 14066 the state's and the school district's respective shares of that 14067 basic project cost; provided that this shall not result in any 14068 change in the state or school district shares of the basic project 14069 costs as determined under that chapter. As used in the preceding 14070 sentence, "Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission" and 14071 "basic project costs" have the same meanings as in section 3318.01 14072

(E) The issuing authority may, without need for any other 14074 approval, appoint or provide for the appointment of paying agents, 14075 bond registrars, securities depositories, credit enhancement 14076 providers or counterparties, clearing corporations, and transfer 14077 agents, and retain or contract for the services of underwriters, 14078 investment bankers, financial advisers, accounting experts, 14079 marketing, remarketing, indexing, and administrative agents, other 14080 consultants, and independent contractors, including printing 14081 services, as are necessary in the judgment of the issuing 14082 authority to carry out the issuing authority's functions under 14083 this section and section 183.52 of the Revised Code. The attorney 14084 general as counsel to the issuing authority shall represent the 14085 authority in the execution of its powers and duties, and shall 14086 institute and prosecute all actions on its behalf. The issuing 14087 authority, in consultation with the attorney general, shall select 14088 counsel, and the attorney general shall appoint the counsel 14089 selected, for the purposes of carrying out the functions under 14090 this section and related sections of the Revised Code. Financing 14091 costs are payable, as may be provided in the bond proceedings, 14092 from the proceeds of the obligations, from special funds, or from 14093 other moneys available for the purpose, including as to future 14094 financing costs, from the pledged receipts. 14095

(F) The issuing authority may irrevocably pledge and assign 14096 all, or such portion as the issuing authority determines, of the 14097 pledged receipts to the payment of the debt service charges on 14098 obligations issued under this section, and for the establishment 14099 and maintenance of any reserves, as provided in the bond 14100 proceedings, and make other provisions in the bond proceedings 14101 with respect to pledged receipts as authorized by this section, 14102 which provisions are controlling notwithstanding any other 14103 provisions of law pertaining to them. Any and all pledged receipts 14104 received by the issuing authority and required by the bond 14105 proceedings, consistent with this section, to be deposited, 14106 transferred, or credited to the bond service fund, and all other 14107 money transferred or allocated to or received for the purposes of 14108 that fund, shall be deposited and credited to the bond service 14109 fund created in the bond proceedings for the obligations, subject 14110 to any applicable provisions of those bond proceedings, but 14111 without necessity for any act of appropriation. Those pledged 14112 receipts shall immediately be subject to the lien of that pledge 14113 without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and shall 14114 not be subject to other court judgments. The lien of the pledge of 14115 those pledged receipts shall be valid and binding against all 14116 parties having claims of any kind against the issuing authority, 14117 irrespective of whether those parties have notice thereof. The 14118 pledge shall create a perfected security interest for all purposes 14119 of Chapter 1309. of the Revised Code and a perfected lien for 14120 purposes of any other interest, all without the necessity for 14121 separation or delivery of funds or for the filing or recording of 14122 the applicable bond proceedings by which that pledge is created or 14123 any certificate, statement, or other document with respect 14124 thereto. The pledge of the pledged receipts shall be effective and 14125 the money therefrom and thereof may be applied to the purposes for 14126 which pledged. 14127

(G) Obligations may be further secured, as determined by the 14128 issuing authority, by an indenture or a trust agreement between 14129 the issuing authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any 14130 trust company or bank having a place of business within the state. 14131 Any indenture or trust agreement may contain the resolution or 14132 order authorizing the issuance of the obligations, any provisions 14133 that may be contained in any bond proceedings, and other 14134 provisions that are customary or appropriate in an agreement of 14135 that type, including, but not limited to: 14136

(1) Maintenance of each pledge, indenture, trust agreement, 14137
or other instrument comprising part of the bond proceedings until 14138
the issuing authority has fully paid or provided for the payment 14139 of debt service on the obligations secured by it; 14140

made by the bond proceedings, enforcement of those payments or 14142 agreements by mandamus, the appointment of a receiver, suit in 14143 equity, action at law, or any combination of them; 14144

(3) The rights and remedies of the holders or owners of 14145 obligations and of the trustee and provisions for protecting and 14146 enforcing them, including limitations on rights of individual holders and owners. 14147

14152

(1) The redemption of obligations prior to maturity at the option of the issuing authority or of the holder or upon the occurrence of certain conditions, and at a particular price or prices and under particular terms and conditions; 14153

(2) The form of and other terms of the obligations; 14157

14163
14166

14172

(5) The maintenance of each pledge or instrument comprising part of the bond proceedings until the issuing authority has fully paid or provided for the payment of the debt service on the obligations or met other stated conditions; 14173
14174
14176

made by the bond proceedings, or by any other agreement of the 14178 issuing authority made as part of a contract under which the 14179 obligations were issued or secured, including a credit enhancement 14180 facility, the enforcement of those payments by mandamus, a suit in 14181 equity, an action at law, or any combination of those remedial 14182 actions; 14183

obligations or of book-entry interests in them, and of third 14185 parties under any credit enhancement facility, and provisions for 14186 protecting and enforcing those rights and remedies, including 14187 limitations on rights of individual holders or owners; 14188

(8) The replacement of mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen 14189
obligations; 14190

(9) The funding, refunding, or advance refunding, or other 14191 provision for payment, of obligations that will then no longer be 14192 outstanding for purposes of this section or of the applicable bond 14193 proceedings; 14194

(10) Amendment of the bond proceedings; 14195

(11) Any other or additional agreements with the owners of 14196 obligations, and such other provisions as the issuing authority 14197 determines, including limitations, conditions, or qualifications, 14198 relating to any of the foregoing or the activities of the issuing 14199 authority in connection therewith. 14200

The bond proceedings shall make provision for the payment of 14201 the expenses of the enforcement activity of the attorney general 14202 referred to in division (B) of this section from the amounts from 14203 the tobacco master settlement agreement assigned and sold to the 14204 issuing authority under that division or from the proceeds of 14205 obligations, or a combination thereof, which may include provision 14206 for both annual payments and a special fund providing reserve 14207 amounts for the payment of those expenses. 14208

The issuing authority shall not, and shall covenant in the 14209 bond proceedings that it shall not, be authorized to and shall not 14210 file a voluntary petition under the United States Bankruptcy Code, 14211 11 U.S.C. 101 et seq., as amended, or voluntarily commence any 14212 similar bankruptcy proceeding under state law including, without 14213 limitation, consenting to the appointment of a receiver or trustee 14214 or making a general or specific assignment for the benefit of 14215 creditors, and neither any public officer or any organization, 14216 entity, or other person shall authorize the issuing authority to 14217 be or become a debtor under the United States Bankruptcy Code or 14218 take any of those actions under the United States Bankruptcy Code 14219 or state law. The state hereby covenants, and the issuing 14220 authority shall covenant, with the holders or owners of the 14221 obligations, that the state shall not permit the issuing authority 14222 to file a voluntary petition under the United States Bankruptcy 14223 Code or take any of those actions under the United States 14224 Bankruptcy Code or state law during the period obligations are 14225 outstanding and for any additional period for which the issuing 14226 authority covenants in the bond proceedings, which additional 14227 period may, but need not, be a period of three hundred sixty-seven 14228 days or more. 14229

(I) The obligations requiring execution by or for the issuing 14230 authority shall be signed as provided in the bond proceedings, and 14231 may bear the official seal of the issuing authority or a facsimile 14232 thereof. Any obligation may be signed by the individual who, on 14233 the date of execution, is the authorized signer even though, on 14234 the date of the obligations, that individual is not an authorized 14235 signer. In case the individual whose signature or facsimile 14236 signature appears on any obligation ceases to be an authorized 14237 signer before delivery of the obligation, that signature or 14238 facsimile is nevertheless valid and sufficient for all purposes as 14239 if that individual had remained the authorized signer until 14240 delivery. 14241

(J) Obligations are investment securities under Chapter 1308. 14242 of the Revised Code. Obligations may be issued in bearer or in 14243 registered form, registrable as to principal alone or as to both 14244 principal and interest, or both, or in certificated or 14245 uncertificated form, as the issuing authority determines. 14246 Provision may be made for the exchange, conversion, or transfer of 14247 obligations and for reasonable charges for registration, exchange, 14248 conversion, and transfer. Pending preparation of final 14249 obligations, the issuing authority may provide for the issuance of 14250 interim instruments to be exchanged for the final obligations. 14251

(K) Obligations may be sold at public sale or at private 14252 sale, in such manner, and at such price at, above, or below par, 14253 all as determined by and provided by the issuing authority in the 14254 bond proceedings. 14255

(L) Except to the extent that rights are restricted by the 14256 bond proceedings, any owner of obligations or provider of or 14257 counterparty to a credit enhancement facility may by any suitable 14258 form of legal proceedings protect and enforce any rights relating 14259 to obligations or that facility under the laws of this state or 14260 granted by the bond proceedings. Those rights include the right to 14261 compel the performance of all applicable duties of the issuing 14262 authority and the state. Each duty of the issuing authority and 14263 that issuing authority's officers, staff, and employees, and of 14264 each state entity or agency, or using district or using 14265 institution, and its officers, members, staff, or employees, 14266 undertaken pursuant to the bond proceedings, is hereby established 14267 as a duty of the entity or individual having authority to perform 14268 that duty, specifically enjoined by law and resulting from an 14269 office, trust, or station within the meaning of section 2731.01 of 14270 the Revised Code. The individuals who are from time to time 14271 members of the issuing authority, or their designees acting 14272 pursuant to section 183.52 of the Revised Code, or the issuing 14273 authority's officers, staff, agents, or employees, when acting 14274 within the scope of their employment or agency, shall not be 14275 liable in their personal capacities on any obligations or 14276 otherwise under the bond proceedings, or for otherwise exercising 14277 or carrying out any purposes or powers of the issuing authority. 14278

(M)(1) Subject to any applicable limitations in division (C) 14279 of this section, the issuing authority may also authorize and 14280 provide for the issuance of: 14281

(a) Obligations in the form of bond anticipation notes, and 14282 may authorize and provide for the renewal of those notes from time 14283 to time by the issuance of new notes. The holders of notes or 14284 appertaining interest coupons have the right to have debt service 14285 on those notes paid solely from the moneys and special funds, and 14286 all or any portion of the pledged receipts, that are or may be 14287 pledged to that payment, including the proceeds of bonds or 14288 renewal notes or both, as the issuing authority provides in the 14289 bond proceedings authorizing the notes. Notes may be additionally 14290 secured by covenants of the issuing authority to the effect that 14291 the issuing authority will do all things necessary for the 14292 issuance of bonds or renewal notes in such principal amount and 14293 upon such terms as may be necessary to provide moneys to pay when 14294 due the debt service on the notes, and apply their proceeds to the 14295 extent necessary, to make full and timely payment of debt service 14296 on the notes as provided in the applicable bond proceedings. In 14297 the bond proceedings authorizing the issuance of bond anticipation 14298 notes the issuing authority shall set forth for the bonds 14299 anticipated an estimated schedule of annual principal payments the 14300 latest of which shall be no later than provided in division (D) of 14301 this section. While the notes are outstanding there shall be 14302 deposited, as shall be provided in the bond proceedings for those 14303 notes, from the sources authorized for payment of debt service on 14304 the bonds, amounts sufficient to pay the principal of the bonds 14305 anticipated as set forth in that estimated schedule during the 14306 time the notes are outstanding, which amounts shall be used solely 14307 to pay the principal of those notes or of the bonds anticipated. 14308

(b) Obligations for the refunding, including funding and 14309 retirement, and advance refunding, with or without payment or 14310 redemption prior to maturity, of any obligations previously issued 14311 under this section and any bonds or notes previously issued for 14312 the purpose of paying costs of capital facilities for: (i) 14313 state-supported or state-assisted institutions of higher education 14314 as authorized by sections 151.01 and 151.04 of the Revised Code, 14315 pursuant to Sections 2i and 2n of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, 14316 and (ii) housing branches and agencies of state government limited 14317 to facilities for a system of common schools throughout the state 14318
as authorized by sections 151.01 and 151.03 of the Revised Code, 14319
Refunding obligations may be issued in amounts sufficient to pay 14321 or to provide for repayment of the principal amount, including 14322 principal amounts maturing prior to the redemption of the 14323 remaining prior obligations or bonds or notes, any redemption 14324 premium, and interest accrued or to accrue to the maturity or 14325 redemption date or dates, payable on the prior obligations or 14326 bonds or notes, and related financing costs and any expenses 14327 incurred or to be incurred in connection with that issuance and 14328 refunding. Subject to the applicable bond proceedings, the portion 14329 of the proceeds of the sale of refunding obligations issued under 14330 division (M)(1)(b) of this section to be applied to debt service 14331 on the prior obligations or bonds or notes shall be credited to an 14332 appropriate separate account in the bond service fund and held in 14333 trust for the purpose by the issuing authority or by a corporate 14334 trustee, and may be invested as provided in the bond proceedings. 14335 Obligations authorized under this division shall be considered to 14336 be issued for those purposes for which the prior obligations or 14337 bonds or notes were issued. 14338

(2) The principal amount of refunding, advance refunding, or 14339 renewal obligations issued pursuant to division (M) of this 14340 section shall be in addition to the amount authorized in division 14341
(C) of this section. 14342

(N) Obligations are lawful investments for banks, savings and 14343 loan associations, credit union share guaranty corporations, trust 14344 companies, trustees, fiduciaries, insurance companies, including 14345 domestic for life and domestic not for life, trustees or other 14346 officers having charge of sinking and bond retirement or other 14347 special funds of the state and political subdivisions and taxing 14348 districts of this state, notwithstanding any other provisions of 14349 the Revised Code or rules adopted pursuant to those provisions by 14350 any state agency with respect to investments by them, and are also 14351 acceptable as security for the repayment of the deposit of public 14352 moneys. The exemptions from taxation in Ohio as provided for in 14353 particular sections of the Ohio Constitution and section 5709.76 14354 of the Revised Code apply to the obligations. 14355

(O)(1) Unless otherwise provided or provided for in any 14356 applicable bond proceedings, moneys to the credit of or in a 14357 special fund shall be disbursed on the order of the issuing 14358 authority. No such order is required for the payment, from the 14359 bond service fund or other special fund, when due of debt service 14360 or required payments under credit enhancement facilities. 14361

(2) Payments received by the issuing authority under interest 14362 rate hedges entered into as credit enhancement facilities under 14363 this section shall be deposited as provided in the applicable bond 14364
proceedings. 14365

(P) The obligations shall not be general obligations of the 14366 state and the full faith and credit, revenue, and taxing power of 14367 the state shall not be pledged to the payment of debt service on 14368 them or to any guarantee of the payment of that debt service. The 14369 holders or owners of the obligations shall have no right to have 14370 any moneys obligated or pledged for the payment of debt service 14371 except as provided in this section and in the applicable bond 14372 proceedings. The rights of the holders and owners to payment of 14373 debt service are limited to all or that portion of the pledged 14374 receipts, and those special funds, pledged to the payment of debt 14375 service pursuant to the bond proceedings in accordance with this 14376 section, and each obligation shall bear on its face a statement to 14377 that effect. 14378

(Q) Each bond service fund is a trust fund and is hereby 14379 pledged to the payment of debt service on the applicable 14380 obligations. Payment of that debt service shall be made or 14381 provided for by the issuing authority in accordance with the bond 14382 proceedings without necessity for any act of appropriation. The 14383 bond proceedings may provide for the establishment of separate 14384 accounts in the bond service fund and for the application of those 14385 accounts only to debt service on specific obligations, and for 14386 other accounts in the bond service fund within the general 14387 purposes of that fund. 14388

(R) Subject to the bond proceedings pertaining to any 14389 obligations then outstanding in accordance with their terms, the 14390 issuing authority may in the bond proceedings pledge all, or such 14391 portion as the issuing authority determines, of the moneys in the 14392 bond service fund to the payment of debt service on particular 14393 obligations, and for the establishment and maintenance of any 14394 reserves for payment of particular debt service. 14395

(S)(1) Unless otherwise provided in any applicable bond 14396 proceedings, moneys to the credit of special funds may be invested 14397 by or on behalf of the issuing authority only in one or more of 14398
the following: 14399

(a) Notes, bonds, or other direct obligations of the United 14400 States or of any agency or instrumentality of the United States, 14401 or in no-front-end-load money market mutual funds consisting 14402 exclusively of those obligations, or in repurchase agreements, 14403 including those issued by any fiduciary, secured by those 14404 obligations, or in collective investment funds consisting 14405 exclusively of those obligations; 14406

(b) Obligations of this state or any political subdivision of 14407
this state; 14408

(c) Certificates of deposit of any national bank located in 14409 this state and any bank, as defined in section 1101.01 of the 14410 Revised Code, subject to inspection by the superintendent of 14411 financial institutions; 14412

(d) The treasurer of state's pooled investment program under 14413
section 135.45 of the Revised Code; 14414

(e) Other investment agreements or repurchase agreements that 14415 are consistent with the ratings on the obligations. 14416

(2) The income from investments referred to in division 14417
(S)(1) of this section shall be credited to special funds or 14418 otherwise as the issuing authority determines in the bond 14419 proceedings. Those investments may be sold or exchanged at times 14420 as the issuing authority determines, provides for, or authorizes. 14421

(T) The treasurer of state shall have responsibility for 14422 keeping records, making reports, and making payments, relating to 14423 any arbitrage rebate requirements under the applicable bond 14424
proceedings. 14425

(U) The issuing authority shall make quarterly reports to the 14426 general assembly of the amounts in, and activities of, each 14427 improvement fund, including amounts and activities on the subfund 14428 level. Each report shall include a detailed description and 14429 analysis of the amount of proceeds remaining in each fund from the 14430 sale of obligations pursuant to this section, and any other 14431 deposits, credits, interest earnings, disbursements, expenses, 14432 transfers, or activities of each fund. 14433

(V) The costs of the annual audit of the authority conducted 14434 pursuant to section 117.112 of the Revised Code are payable, as 14435 may be provided in the bond proceedings, from the proceeds of the 14436 obligations, from special funds, or from other moneys available 14437 for the purpose, including as to future financing costs, from the 14438 pledged receipts. 14439

Sec. 190.01. "The Health Care Compact" is hereby ratified, 14440 enacted into law, and entered into by the state of Ohio as a party 14441 to the compact with any other state that has legally joined in the 14442 compact as follows: 14443

Whereas, the separation of powers, both between the branches 14444 of the Federal government and between Federal and State authority, 14445 is essential to the preservation of individual liberty; 14446

Whereas, the Constitution creates a Federal government of 14447 limited and enumerated powers, and reserves to the States or to 14448 the people those powers not granted to the Federal government; 14449

Whereas, the Federal government has enacted many laws that 14450 have preempted State laws with respect to Health Care, and placed 14451 increasing strain on State budgets, impairing other 14452 responsibilities such as education, infrastructure, and public 14453 safety; 14454

Whereas, the Member States seek to protect individual liberty 14455 and personal control over Health Care decisions, and believe the 14456 best method to achieve these ends is by vesting regulatory 14457 authority over Health Care in the States; 14458

Whereas, by acting in concert, the Member States may express 14459 and inspire confidence in the ability of each Member State to 14460 govern Health Care effectively; and 14461

Whereas, the Member States recognize that consent of Congress 14462 may be more easily secured if the Member States collectively seek 14463 consent through an interstate compact; 14464

NOW THEREFORE, the Member States hereto resolve, and by the 14465 adoption into law under their respective State Constitutions of 14466 this Health Care Compact, agree, as follows: 14467

Sec. 1. Definitions. As used in this Compact, unless the 14468 entered into under this division shall be subject to supervision 15831 and control in the manner described in section 5120.161 of the 15832 correctional facility, and who is confined in the multicounty, 15845 municipal-county, or multicounty-municipal correctional center as 15846 provided in that division, to reimburse the applicable county or 15847 municipal corporation for its expenses incurred by reason of the 15848

(E) Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this section or 15850 section 2929.18, 2929.28, or 2929.37 of the Revised Code, the 15851 corrections commission of a center may establish a policy that 15852 complies with section 2929.38 of the Revised Code and that 15853 of state. The sworn affidavit and evidence shall be submitted in 16210 the format prescribed by rule of the auditor of state under 16211 guilty of falsification under section 2921.13 of the Revised Code. 16214

(2) The auditor of state shall review the sworn affidavit and 16215 the evidence. Within ~~ten business~~ thirty calendar days after 16216 receiving the sworn affidavit, unless, for good cause, additional 16217 auditor of state finds that no allegation is supported by clear 16220

and convincing evidence, the auditor of state shall submit those 16221 findings in writing to the county auditor and the person 16222 the evidence, the auditor of state shall submit those findings in 16225 writing to the attorney general, the county auditor, and the 16226 person who initiated the sworn affidavit. The findings shall 16227 under division (A)(1) of this section. 16229

(3)(a) The attorney general shall review the auditor of 16230 state's findings and the sworn affidavit and evidence. Within ten 16231 general shall determine whether clear and convincing evidence 16234 supports the allegations. If the attorney general finds that no 16235 allegation is supported by clear and convincing evidence, the 16236 attorney general, by certified mail, shall notify the auditor of 16237 state, the county auditor, and the person who initiated the sworn 16238 affidavit, that no complaint for the removal of the county auditor 16239 from public office will be filed. 16240

state, the county auditor, and the person who initiated the sworn affidavit of that fact, and shall commence an action for the removal of the county auditor from public office under division (B) of this section.

Not later than forty-five days after sending a notice under division (A)(3)(b) of this section, the attorney general shall cause an action to be commenced against the county auditor by filing a complaint for the removal of the county auditor from public office. If any money is due, the attorney general shall join the sureties on the county auditor's bond as parties. The court of common pleas of the county in which the county auditor holds office has exclusive original jurisdiction of the action. The action shall proceed de novo as in the trial of a civil action. The court is not restricted to the evidence that was presented to the auditor of state and the attorney general before the action was filed. The action is governed by the Rules of Civil Procedure.

shall issue an order removing the county auditor from office and 16277
funds. 16279

conduct constituting the violation was related to the duties of 16288
the office of county auditor or to the person's actions as the 16289 county auditor. The stay may be lifted upon motion of the 16290 prosecuting attorney in the related criminal action. 16291

(3) Prior to or at the hearing, upon a showing of good cause, 16292 the court may issue an order restraining the county auditor from 16293 entering the county auditor's office and from conducting the 16294 affairs of the office pending the hearing on the complaint. If 16295 such an order is issued, the court may continue the order until 16296
the conclusion of the hearing and any appeals under this section. 16297

(4) The board of county commissioners shall be responsible 16298 for the payment of reasonable attorney's fees for counsel for the 16299 county auditor. If judgment is entered against the county auditor, 16300 the court shall order the county auditor to reimburse the board 16301 for attorney's fees and costs up to a reasonable amount, as 16302 determined by the court. Expenses incurred by the board in a 16303 removal action shall be paid out of the county general fund. 16304

(C) The judgment of the court is final and conclusive unless 16305 reversed, vacated, or modified on appeal. An appeal may be taken 16306
by any party, and shall proceed as in the case of appeals in civil 16307

actions and in accordance with the Rules of Appellate Procedure. 16308
Upon the filing of a notice of appeal by any party to the 16309 proceedings, the court of appeals shall hear the case as an 16310 expedited appeal under Rule 11.2 of the Rules of Appellate 16311 Procedure. The county auditor has the right of review or appeal to 16312
the supreme court. 16313

(D) If a final judgment for removal from public office is 16314 entered against the county auditor, the office shall be deemed 16315 vacated, and the vacancy shall be filled as provided in section 16316 305.02 of the Revised Code. Except as otherwise provided by law, 16317 an individual removed from public office under this section is not 16318 entitled to hold any public office for four years following the 16319 date of the final judgment, and is not entitled to hold any public 16320 office until any repayment or restitution required by the court is 16321 satisfied. 16322

(E) For the purposes of this section: 16323 intention to cause a certain result, or, when the gist of the 16325 offense is a prohibition against conduct of a certain nature, 16326

nature. 16329

(2) A person acts knowingly, regardless of the person's 16330

nature. A person has knowledge of circumstances when the person is 16333 aware that such circumstances probably exist. 16334

(3) A person acts recklessly when, with heedless indifference 16335

that the person's conduct is likely to cause a certain result or 16337 is likely to be of a certain nature. A person is reckless with 16338 respect to circumstances when, with heedless indifference to the 16339 consequences, the person perversely disregards a known risk that 16340

such circumstances are likely to exist. 16341

(F) The proceedings provided for in this section may be used 16342
as an alternative to the removal proceedings prescribed under 16343

actions and in accordance with the Rules of Appellate Procedure. 16814
Upon the filing of a notice of appeal by any party to the 16815
expedited appeal under Rule 11.2 of the Rules of Appellate 16817 Procedure. The county treasurer has the right of review or appeal 16818 to the supreme court. 16819

Sec. 323.32. As used in this section, "railroad note" means a 17029 note issued pursuant to a court order in the reorganization of a 17030

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, 17032 with respect to all payments received in settlement of claims 17033 arising from delinquent property tax charges and ordered to be 17034 paid by a railroad company under a plan of reorganization as 17035 ordered by a federal district court in accordance with provisions 17036 of Chapter VIII of the "Federal Bankruptcy Act," 11 U.S.C.A. 17037 201-208, the following provisions shall apply: 17038

(A) Except as provided in division (H) of this section, all 17039 of such payments shall be made payable, and delivered, to the 17040 county in which the taxing district sharing in a claim for 17041 delinquent taxes is located. Any notes included in such payment 17042 shall be issued to such county treasurer, who shall be the 17043 custodian of all of said notes, and who shall be liable therefor 17044 upon ~~his~~ the treasurer's bond until such time as said notes 17045 mature, are sold, or otherwise lawfully pass from ~~his~~ the 17046 treasurer's custody. 17047

(B) Upon receipt of a payment by cash or check, the county 17048 treasurer shall immediately cause such funds to be paid into the 17049 county treasury and credited to a special fund established for 17050 this purpose, which shall be known as the "undivided bankruptcy 17051 claims fund." All of such moneys so received, including any earned 17052 interest, shall be credited to said fund. 17053

(C) When the total claim for each county has been satisfied 17054 by the receipt of cash or notes, or both, the county auditor shall 17055 remit from the tax list and duplicate of real and public utility 17056 property in each county, all charges appearing thereon in the name 17057 of the railroad company for which such payment has been made, 17058 which are delinquent and unpaid from any year previous to the tax 17059 year 1977. 17060

(D) At any time that funds are present in the undivided 17061 bankruptcy claims fund, either upon initial settlement or at any 17062 later time, the county auditor shall, forthwith, distribute by 17063 auditors' warrant, such funds to the various taxing districts of 17064 the county, in which the property taxes, from which the claim in 17065 bankruptcy has derived, were originally charged. The funds so 17066 distributed shall be apportioned among the various taxing 17067 authorities within each taxing district in the same proportions as 17068 the said taxes were originally levied, taking into account the 17069 various rates of taxation levied for different purposes for each 17070 year in which such taxes were charged and remained unpaid, and any 17071 unpaid special assessments, including compound interest thereon at 17072 the rate of six per cent per annum to January 1, 1978. 17073

In making such distribution, the auditor shall, first, deduct 17074 an amount equal to one per cent of the total amount to be 17075 distributed, as fees for services of the county auditor and 17076 treasurer in making collection and distribution of the claim in 17077 bankruptcy. Such deduction shall be in lieu of all fees provided 17078 for in sections 319.54 and 321.26 of the Revised Code. The amount 17079 so deducted shall be credited to the general fund of the county. 17080

If any funds received pursuant to this section represent 17081 taxes which, if collected, would have resulted from any general or 17082 emergency levy which has since expired, such funds may be credited 17083 to the general operating fund and expended as though they are 17084 proceeds from a current levy, and if any of such funds represent 17085 taxes from any current general bond retirement levy or one which 17086 has since expired, said funds may be credited to the current bond 17087 retirement fund and used to service any current bond indebtedness, 17088 or may be credited to the general operating fund of the district, 17089 if so designated by a majority of the members of the taxing 17090 authority of the taxing district. 17091

(E) Except as provided in division (H) of this section, when, 17092 as a part of the settlement of a claim in bankruptcy of a 17093 reorganized railroad company a county receives notes on behalf of 17094 a taxing authority in partial payment of said claim, the county 17095 treasurer shall, within a reasonable length of time, notify the 17096 taxing authority of each taxing district sharing in the claim that 17097 such notes are in ~~his~~ the treasurer's custody. Within sixty days 17098 of receipt of such notice, each taxing authority shall decide by a 17099 resolution approved by a majority of its members whether: 17100

(1) The notes shall remain in custody of the county 17101 treasurer, as issued, and allowed to mature according to the terms 17102 presented on their face with the proceeds to be distributed upon 17103 maturity pursuant to division (D) of this section; or 17104

(2) The railroad notes shall be exchanged for several new 17105 notes in denominations equal to the proportionate share, or 17106 portion thereof, of the taxing district having a share in the 17107 claim in bankruptcy as determined in division (D) of this section. 17108
The new notes shall be distributed, upon receipt, to each taxing 17109 authority in full satisfaction of its claim or in full 17110 satisfaction of the portion of its claim represented by the notes 17111 so received. If notes cannot be issued in denominations equal to 17112 the taxing district's proportionate share, the treasurer shall 17113 certify to the taxing authority of the district the amount of 17114 notes held by the treasurer on behalf of the district and for 17115 which notes cannot be issued pursuant to the taxing authority's 17116 decision under this subdivision. Upon receipt of such 17117 certification, the taxing authority may borrow money and issue 17118 notes against such certification in the same manner as is provided 17119 by division (F) of this section. 17120

If a taxing authority elects the option provided under 17121 division (E)(1) of this section, it may at any subsequent time 17122 elect instead the option provided under division (E)(2) of this 17123 section by resolution approved by a majority of its members. The 17124 election of the option provided under division (E)(2) of this 17125 section becomes final upon receipt by the taxing authority of the 17126 new notes or certification distributed by the county treasurer 17127 under such division. 17128

Each taxing authority shall certify a copy of any resolution 17129 adopted under this division to the county treasurer who shall take 17130 appropriate action as directed by each taxing authority. 17131

(F) A taxing authority having possession of any railroad note 17132 or a treasurer's certification issued under division (E)(2) of 17133 this section may, by approval of a majority of its members, borrow 17134 money and issue its note in anticipation of the revenue payable on 17135 maturity of the railroad note and pledge the railroad note or the 17136 proceeds thereof. Such anticipation note shall mature no later 17137 than the railroad note and shall be in an amount no greater than 17138 seventy per cent of the face amount of said railroad note. By like 17139 action a taxing authority may sell any railroad note in its 17140 possession at public or private offering for not less than the 17141 prevailing market price. Such a sale or borrowing shall be exempt 17142 from all other requirements and limitations of the Revised Code, 17143 including the requirements of the Uniform Bond Law. 17144

(1) If a taxing authority desires to issue delinquent tax 17145 bonds pursuant to section 131.23 of the Revised Code prior to 17146 either receipt of any payment from a railroad in bankruptcy or 17147 utilization of the authority granted in this section, the taxing 17148 authority may determine whether or not the net amount of 17149 delinquent taxes unpledged for purposes of division (B)~~(6)~~(5) of 17150 section 131.23 of the Revised Code shall include all or part of 17151 the delinquent taxes owed by a railroad, or, if notes have been 17152 received pursuant to this section, the unpaid principal amount of 17153 such notes. If the taxing authority determines that any such 17154 railroad delinquencies or note amount shall be included under 17155 section 131.23 of the Revised Code, the amount which may be 17156 borrowed pursuant to this section may not exceed seventy per cent 17157 of the total face amount of railroad notes remaining after 17158 deducting the amount so included. 17159

(2) If a taxing authority desires to issue delinquent tax 17160
bonds pursuant to section 131.23 of the Revised Code after 17161 utilization of the authority granted in this section, the net 17162 amount of delinquent taxes unpledged for purposes of division 17163 (B)~~(6)~~(5) of section 131.23 of the Revised Code may not include 17164 the principal amount of railroad notes which have been borrowed 17165 against or sold pursuant to this section. 17166

(G) When a taxing authority receives a railroad note, the 17167 face amount of such note shall not be considered as revenue for 17168 any purpose in the year in which the note is received. Upon sale 17169 or maturity of the note, any proceeds not pledged pursuant to 17170 division (F) of this section shall be considered as unanticipated 17171 revenue from a new source and all of the provisions of law 17172 pertaining to such revenue, including section 5705.36 of the 17173 Revised Code, shall apply. 17174

(H) When there are present in a county nonrepresented taxing 17175 districts as provided in amended substitute house bill 336~~7~~ of the 17176 112th general assembly, all of the provisions of this section 17177 shall apply to such districts, except as follows: 17178

(1) Payments by cash or check may be made payable, and 17179 delivered, directly to the treasurer of the taxing district. Any 17180 notes included in the settlement of the district's claim may be 17181 issued, and delivered, directly to said treasurer. 17182

Upon receipt of any of such payments, the treasurer of the 17183 taxing district shall certify, to the county treasurer of the 17184 county in which the district is located, the fact of such receipt 17185 and the amounts so received. 17186

(2) If the claim of a nonrepresented taxing district is not 17187 paid directly to the treasurer of the district but is included 17188 with payments for the remainder of the county, cash payments 17189 included in the initial settlement shall be distributed as 17190 provided in divisions (B) and (D) of this section. Any notes 17191 received as payment shall be exchanged and distributed to 17192 nonrepresented taxing districts upon receipt. 17193 in the county or staff based upon the minimum standards for jails 17686 petition thereby terminating the proceedings for the establishment 17947 of the new community authority. 17948

courses required under this section. The auditor of state shall 18204 issue a certificate of completion to each township fiscal officer 18205 who completes the initial education programs and continuing 18206 education courses. The auditor of state shall issue a "failure to 18207 complete" notice to any township fiscal officer who is required to 18208 complete initial education programs and continuing education 18209 fiscal duties of that office, four residents of the township may 18224 falsification under section 2921.13 of the Revised Code. 18231

(2) The auditor of state shall review the sworn affidavits 18232 and the evidence. Within ~~ten business~~ thirty calendar days after 18233 receiving the sworn affidavits, unless, for good cause, additional 18234 time is required, the auditor of state shall determine whether 18235 clear and convincing evidence supports the allegations. If the 18236 auditor of state finds that no allegation is supported by clear 18237
and convincing evidence, the auditor of state shall submit those 18238 findings in writing to the township fiscal officer and the persons 18239 who initiated the sworn affidavits. If the auditor of state finds 18240 by clear and convincing evidence that an allegation is supported 18241 by the evidence, the auditor of state shall submit those findings 18242 in writing to the attorney general, the township fiscal officer, 18243 and the persons who initiated the sworn affidavits. The findings 18244 shall include a copy of the sworn affidavits and the evidence 18245 submitted under division (A)(1) of this section. 18246

state's findings and the sworn affidavits and evidence. Within ten 18248 business days after receiving the sworn affidavits and evidence, 18249 unless, for good cause, additional time is required, the attorney 18250
general shall determine whether clear and convincing evidence 18251 supports the allegations. If the attorney general finds that no 18252
allegation is supported by clear and convincing evidence, the 18253
attorney general, by certified mail, shall notify the auditor of 18254
state, the township fiscal officer, and the persons who initiated 18255 the sworn affidavits, that no complaint for the removal of the 18256 township fiscal officer from public office will be filed. 18257

(b) If the attorney general finds by clear and convincing 18258 evidence that an allegation is supported by the evidence, the 18259

attorney general, by certified mail, shall notify the auditor of 18260
state, the township fiscal officer, and the persons who initiated 18261 the sworn affidavits of that fact, and shall commence an action 18262 for the removal of the township fiscal officer from public office 18263
under division (B) of this section. 18264

(c) Nothing in this section is intended to limit the 18265 authority of the attorney general to enter into mediation, 18266 settlement, or resolution of any alleged violation before or 18267 following the commencement of an action under this section. 18268

(B)(1)(a) The attorney general has a cause of action for 18269 removal of a township fiscal officer who purposely, knowingly, or 18270 recklessly fails to perform a fiscal duty expressly imposed by law 18271 with respect to the office of township fiscal officer or 18272 purposely, knowingly, or recklessly commits any act expressly 18273 prohibited by law with respect to the fiscal duties of the office 18274 of township fiscal officer. Not later than forty-five days after 18275 sending a notice under division (A)(3)(b) of this section, the 18276 attorney general shall cause an action to be commenced against the 18277 township fiscal officer by filing a complaint for the removal of 18278 the township fiscal officer from public office. If any money is 18279 due, the attorney general shall join the sureties on the township 18280 fiscal officer's bond as parties. The court of common pleas of the 18281 county in which the township fiscal officer holds office has 18282 exclusive original jurisdiction of the action. The action shall 18283 proceed de novo as in the trial of a civil action. The court is 18284 not restricted to the evidence that was presented to the auditor 18285 of state and the attorney general before the action was filed. The 18286 action is governed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. 18287

(b) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that 18288 the township fiscal officer purposely, knowingly, or recklessly 18289 failed to perform a fiscal duty expressly imposed by law with 18290 respect to the fiscal duties of the office of township fiscal 18291 officer or purposely, knowingly, or recklessly committed any act 18292 expressly prohibited by law with respect to the fiscal duties of 18293 that office, the court shall issue an order removing the township 18294 fiscal officer from office and any order necessary for the 18295 preservation or restitution of public funds. 18296

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this division, an action 18297 for removal from office under this section is stayed during the 18298 pendency of any criminal action concerning a violation of an 18299 existing or former municipal ordinance or law of this or any other 18300 state or the United States that is substantially equivalent to any 18301 criminal violation in Title ~~29~~ XXIX of the Revised Code related to 18302 conduct in office, if the person charged in the criminal action 18303 committed the violation while serving as a township fiscal officer 18304 and the conduct constituting the violation was related to the 18305 duties of the office of fiscal officer or to the person's actions 18306 as the township fiscal officer. The stay may be lifted upon motion 18307 of the prosecuting attorney in the related criminal action. 18308

(3) Prior to or at the hearing, upon a showing of good cause, 18309
the court may issue an order restraining the township fiscal 18310 officer from entering the township fiscal officer's office and 18311 from conducting the affairs of the office pending the hearing on 18312 the complaint. If such an order is issued, the court may continue 18313 the order until the conclusion of the hearing and any appeals 18314
under this section. 18315

(4) The board of township trustees shall be responsible for 18316 the payment of reasonable attorney's fees for counsel for the 18317 township fiscal officer. If judgment is entered against the 18318 township fiscal officer, the court shall order the township fiscal 18319 officer to reimburse the board for attorney's fees and costs up to 18320 a reasonable amount, as determined by the court. Expenses incurred 18321 by the board in a removal action shall be paid out of the township 18322 general fund. 18323

(C) The judgment of the court is final and conclusive unless 18324
by any party, and shall proceed as in the case of appeals in civil 18326
actions and in accordance with the Rules of Appellate Procedure. 18327
Upon the filing of a notice of appeal by any party to the 18328 proceedings, the court of appeals shall hear the case as an 18329 expedited appeal under Rule 11.2 of the Rules of Appellate 18330 Procedure. The township fiscal officer has the right of review or 18331 appeal to the supreme court. 18332

(D) If a final judgment for removal from public office is 18333 entered against the township fiscal officer, the office shall be 18334 deemed vacated, and the vacancy shall be filled as provided in 18335 section 503.24 of the Revised Code. Except as otherwise provided 18336 by law, an individual removed from public office under this 18337 section is not entitled to hold any public office for four years 18338 following the date of the final judgment, and is not entitled to 18339 hold any public office until any repayment or restitution required 18340 by the court is satisfied. 18341

(E) For the purposes of this section: 18342

(1) A person acts purposely when it is the person's specific 18343
offense is a prohibition against conduct of a certain nature, 18345 regardless of what the person intends to accomplish thereby, it is 18346
nature. 18348

(2) A person acts knowingly, regardless of the person's 18349 purpose, when the person is aware that the person's conduct will 18350 nature. A person has knowledge of circumstances when the person is 18352

aware that such circumstances probably exist. 18353

(3) A person acts recklessly when, with heedless indifference 18354

to the consequences, the person perversely disregards a known risk 18355 that the person's conduct is likely to cause a certain result or 18356 is likely to be of a certain nature. A person is reckless with 18357
consequences, the person perversely disregards a known risk that 18359
such circumstances are likely to exist. 18360

(F) The proceedings provided for in this section may be used 18361
sections 3.07 to 3.10 of the Revised Code or other methods of 18363 removal authorized by law. 18364

(B)(1) If the legislative authority of a village fails to act 18385 upon the petition within thirty days after receipt of the 18386 signatures. The petition shall be governed by the rules of section 18389 3501.38 of the Revised Code. The petition shall be filed with the 18390 board of elections of the county in which the largest portion of 18391 the population of the village resides. If the petition is 18392 sufficient, the board of elections shall submit the question 18393

"Shall the village of ..... surrender its corporate powers?" 18394 for the approval or rejection of the electors of the village at 18395 the next general or special election, in any year, occurring after 18396 the period ending ninety days after the filing of the petition 18397 with the board. If the result of the election is in favor of the 18398 surrender, the board of elections shall certify the results to the 18399 secretary of state, the auditor of state, and the county recorder, 18400 who shall record it in their respective offices. The corporate 18401 powers of the village shall cease upon the recording of the 18402 certified election results in the county recorder's office. 18403

(2) In addition to filing the petition with the board of 18404 elections as provided in division (B)(1) of this section, a copy 18405

Sec. 703.21. (A) The surrender of corporate powers by a 18411 village under section 703.20 or 703.201 of the Revised Code does 18412 not affect vested rights or accrued liabilities of the village, or 18413 the power to settle claims, dispose of property, or levy and 18414 collect taxes to pay existing obligations. But, after the 18415 presentation of the petition mentioned in section 703.20 of the 18416

Revised Code or receipt of the audit report and notice mentioned 18417 in section 703.201 of the Revised Code, the legislative authority 18418 declared or the decision of the court of common pleas under 18421 division (C) of section 703.201 of the Revised Code is declared, 18422 or thereafter, if the result, in either case, is for the surrender 18423 of the village's corporate powers. If the auditor of state 18424 notifies the village that the attorney general may file a legal 18425 action under section 703.201 of the Revised Code, but the attorney 18426 general does not file such an action, the village shall not create 18427 any new liability for thirty days after receipt of the auditor of 18428 state's notice. 18429

(B) Due and unpaid taxes may be collected after the surrender 18430 of corporate powers, and all moneys or property remaining after 18431 the surrender belongs to the township or townships located wholly 18432 or partly within the village, subject to the agreements entered 18433 into as provided for in this section for the timely transfer of 18434 real and personal property and subject to the report of an audit 18435 or, at the discretion of the auditor of state, an agreed-upon 18436 procedure audit performed by the auditor of state under section 18437 117.11 or 117.114 of the Revised Code. The auditor of state shall 18438 commence the audit or agreed-upon procedure audit within thirty 18439 days after receipt of the notice of dissolution as provided in 18440 division (E) of section 117.10 of the Revised Code. Cash balances 18441 shall be transferred at the completion of the audit or agreed-upon 18442 procedure audit performed by the auditor of state. ~~If~~ Except as 18443 otherwise provided by agreement of the affected village and 18444 townships, if more than one township is to receive the remaining 18445 money or property, the money and property shall be divided among 18446 the townships in proportion to the amount of territory that each 18447 township has within the village boundaries as compared to the 18448 total territory within the village. 18449

(C)(1) Village real and personal property, other than 18450 electric and water and sewer utility property, shall be 18451 transferred in a timely manner in accordance with agreements 18452 between or among the affected village and township or townships. 18453
If no such agreements have been reached within sixty days after 18454 the certificate of dissolution is filed with the county recorder, 18455 title to real and personal property other than any electric and 18456 water and sewer utility property vests by operation of law in the 18457 affected township or townships. If more than one township is 18458 affected, and agreements have not been reached within sixty days 18459 after the certificate of dissolution is filed, title vests by 18460 operation of law in proportion to the amount of territory that 18461 each township has within the village boundaries as compared to the 18462
total territory within the village. 18463

(2) Any agreements entered into under this section regarding 18464 the transfer of real property shall be recorded with the county 18465 recorder of the county in which the affected real property is 18466 situated, along with affidavits stating facts relating to title as 18467 provided for in section 5301.252 of the Revised Code. The county 18468 recorder shall make appropriate notations in the county records to 18469 reflect the conveyance of the village's interest in real property 18470 in accordance with the recorded agreements resulting from the 18471 surrender of corporate powers. The notations shall include a 18472 reference to the county's recorded certificate of dissolution. 18473

In the absence of any agreements and upon the recording of 18474 affidavits relating to title, the county recorder shall make 18475 appropriate notations in the county records to reflect the 18476 conveyance of the village's interest in real property and to 18477 evidence that title vested by operation of law in the township or 18478 townships as otherwise provided for in this section and as a 18479 result of the surrender of corporate powers. The recording of a 18480 certificate of dissolution or a certified copy of it, any 18481 agreements regarding the transfer of real property, and supporting 18482 affidavits serve as sufficient evidence of a transfer of title 18483 from the former village to a township or townships. These 18484 documents shall be recorded in the same manner as a deed of 18485 conveyance, except that the affected township or townships are 18486 exempt from any fees specified under section 317.32 of the Revised 18487

Code. 18488

(3) Cash balances shall be transferred at the completion of 18489 the audit, or, at the discretion of the auditor of state, the 18490 agreed-upon procedure audit performed by the auditor of state. 18491

(D)(1) Electric and water and sewer utility property shall be 18492 transferred by agreement entered into by the village and the 18493 entity that will be taking over the electric and water and sewer 18494 utility property and assets. Cash balances shall be transferred at 18495 the completion of the audit, or, at the discretion of the auditor 18496 of state, the agreed-upon procedure audit performed by the auditor 18497 of state. The provision of utility and other services shall be 18498 uninterrupted during the transition period following the surrender 18499 of corporate powers. 18500

(2) Following the filing of the certificate of dissolution, 18501 if it is determined that a county, or a regional water and sewer 18502 district organized under Chapter 6119. of the Revised Code, is 18503 obligated to assume utility property and assets by default, the 18504 board of county commissioners or board of trustees of the 18505 district, as appropriate, may petition the court of common pleas 18506 of the county in which the village was located, for an order to 18507 revise the current user fees, rates, and charges charged, or 18508 assessments levied, by the utility. The board of county 18509 commissioners or board of trustees of the district shall file with 18510 the petition a systems audit of the utility. The systems audit 18511 shall address the financial solvency of the utility; the utility's 18512 debt service obligations and operating revenue stream, including 18513 user fees, rates, charges, and assessments; the utility's 18514 compliance with operating permit requirements; the necessary 18515 system maintenance, upgrades, and operational modifications and 18516 their associated costs for the utility; outstanding, pending, or 18517 potential enforcement actions against the utility; and any other 18518 relevant matters impacting the operational viability and financial 18519 solvency of the utility. 18520

(3) When considering whether to grant the order, the court 18521 shall review the systems audit and any other relevant evidence. 18522
The order of the court shall assure that the operational viability 18523 and financial solvency of the utility is maintained, and that an 18524 unreasonable financial burden is not placed upon the county or 18525 district due to the acquisition of the utility property and 18526 assets. 18527

(4) The systems audit required by this section shall not 18528 prevent the auditor of state from conducting the audit, or, at the 18529 discretion of the auditor of state, the agreed-upon procedure 18530 audit, required by this section. 18531

(E) As used in divisions (C) and (D) of this section, 18532
"certificate of dissolution" means the certified election results 18533 approving the surrender of corporate powers as recorded by the 18534 county recorder under section 703.20 of the Revised Code. 18535

After the surrender of corporate powers, all resolutions of 18536 the township or townships into which the village's territory was 18537 dissolved shall apply throughout the township's newly included 18538 territory. 18539

Sec. 705.22. At the end of each year the legislative 18540 authority of a municipal corporation shall have an annual report 18541 and a summary of the operations of the administrative departments 18548 for the previous twelve months. 18549

A copy of this report shall be furnished to ~~the auditor of~~ 18550 ~~state,~~ the municipal library, and any citizen of the municipal 18551 corporation who applies ~~therefor~~ for the report at the office of 18552 the clerk. Similar reports may be printed quarterly. All meetings 18553 of the legislative authority or committees thereof shall be 18554 public, and any citizen of the municipal corporation shall have 18555 access to the minutes and records thereof at all reasonable times. 18556

(5) "Fiscal officer" means the city auditor, village clerk, 18572 or other municipal officer having the duties and functions of a 18573 city auditor or village clerk. 18574

(B)(1) The legislative authority of an eligible municipal 18575 corporation, by resolution or ordinance, may declare an area of 18576 the municipal corporation to be a tourism development district for 18577 the purpose of fostering and developing tourism in the district if 18578 all of the following criteria are met: 18579

(a) The district's area does not exceed ~~two~~ six hundred 18580

(d) Before adopting the resolution or ordinance, the 18586 legislative authority receives a petition signed by every record 18587 owner of a parcel of real property located in the proposed 18588 district and the owner of every business that operates in the 18589 proposed district. 18590

(4) Subject to the limitations of divisions (B)(1)(a) and (b) 18603

(C) For the purpose of fostering and developing tourism in a 18613 tourism development district, a lessor leasing real property in a 18614 tourism development district may impose and collect a uniform fee 18615 on each parcel of real property leased by the lessor, to be paid 18616 by each of the person's lessees. A lessee is subject to such a fee 18617 only if the lease separately states the amount of the fee. Before 18618 a lessor may impose and collect such a fee, the lessor shall file 18619 a copy of such lease with the fiscal officer. A lessor that 18620 imposes such a fee shall remit all collections of the fee to the 18621 municipal corporation in which the real property is located. 18622

The legislative authority of that municipal corporation shall 18623 establish all regulations necessary to provide for the 18624 administration and remittance of such fees. The regulations may 18625 prescribe the time for payment of the fee, and may provide for the 18626 imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late 18627

(A) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, net profit from a business or profession conducted both within and without the boundaries of a municipal corporation shall be considered as having a taxable situs in the municipal corporation for purposes of municipal income taxation in the same proportion as the average ratio of the following:

(1) The average original cost of the real property and tangible personal property owned or used by the taxpayer in the business or profession in the municipal corporation during the taxable period to the average original cost of all of the real and tangible personal property owned or used by the taxpayer in the 18667 business or profession during the same period, wherever situated. 18668

As used in the preceding paragraph, tangible personal or real 18669 property shall include property rented or leased by the taxpayer 18670 and the value of such property shall be determined by multiplying 18671

(2) Wages, salaries, and other compensation paid during the 18673 taxable period to individuals employed in the business or 18674 profession for services performed in the municipal corporation to 18675 period to individuals employed in the business or profession, 18677 wherever the individual's services are performed, excluding 18678 compensation from which taxes are not required to be withheld 18679 under section 718.011 of the Revised Code; 18680

(3) Total gross receipts of the business or profession from 18681 period in the municipal corporation to total gross receipts of the 18683 business or profession during the same period from sales, rentals, 18684 and services, wherever made or performed. 18685

(B)(1) If the apportionment factors described in division (A) 18686 of this section do not fairly represent the extent of a taxpayer's 18687 business activity in a municipal corporation, the taxpayer may 18688 request, or the tax administrator of the municipal corporation may 18689 require, that the taxpayer use, with respect to all or any portion 18690 of the income of the taxpayer, an alternative apportionment method 18691 involving one or more of the following: 18692

(a) Separate accounting; 18693

(b) The exclusion of one or more of the factors; 18694

(c) The inclusion of one or more additional factors that 18695 would provide for a more fair apportionment of the income of the 18696 taxpayer to the municipal corporation; 18697

(d) A modification of one or more of the factors.	18698
(2) A taxpayer request to use an alternative apportionment method shall be in writing and shall accompany a tax return, timely filed appeal of an assessment, or timely filed amended tax return. The taxpayer may use the requested alternative method unless the tax administrator denies the request in an assessment issued within the period prescribed by division (A) of section 718.12 of the Revised Code.	18699 18700 18701 18702 18703 18704 18705
(3) A tax administrator may require a taxpayer to use an alternative apportionment method as described in division (B)(1) of this section only by issuing an assessment to the taxpayer within the period prescribed by division (A) of section 718.12 of the Revised Code.	18706 18707 18708 18709 18710
(4) Nothing in division (B) of this section nullifies or otherwise affects any alternative apportionment arrangement approved by a tax administrator or otherwise agreed upon by both the tax administrator and taxpayer before January 1, 2016.	18711 18712 18713 18714
(C) As used in division (A)(2) of this section, "wages, salaries, and other compensation" includes only wages, salaries, or other compensation paid to an employee for services performed at any of the following locations:	18715 18716 18717 18718

(2) Any location at which a trial, appeal, hearing, 18728 investigation, inquiry, review, court-martial, or similar 18729 administrative, judicial, or legislative matter or proceeding is 18730 being conducted, provided that the compensation is paid for 18731 services performed for, or on behalf of, the employer or that the 18732 employee's presence at the location directly or indirectly 18733 benefits the employer; 18734

(3) Any other location, if the tax administrator determines 18735 that the employer directed the employee to perform the services at 18736 the other location in lieu of a location described in division 18737 (C)(1) or (2) of this section solely in order to avoid or reduce 18738 the employer's municipal income tax liability. If a tax 18739 administrator makes such a determination, the employer may dispute 18740 the determination by establishing, by a preponderance of the 18741 evidence, that the tax administrator's determination was 18742 unreasonable. 18743

(D) For the purposes of division (A)(3) of this section, 18744 receipts from sales and rentals made and services performed shall 18745 be situated to a municipal corporation as follows: 18746

(1) Gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal 18747

~~the sale originated. For the purposes of this division, a sale of~~ 18749 of where title passes, the property meets ~~any~~ either of the 18751 following criteria: 18752

municipal corporation from a stock of goods located within the 18754 municipal corporation. 18755

(b) The property is delivered within the municipal 18756 corporation from a location outside the municipal corporation, 18757 provided the taxpayer is regularly engaged through its own 18758 employees in the solicitation or promotion of sales within such 18759 municipal corporation and the sales result from such solicitation 18760 or promotion. 18761

~~(c) The property is shipped from a place within the municipal 18762 corporation to purchasers outside the municipal corporation, 18763 provided that the taxpayer is not, through its own employees, 18764 regularly engaged in the solicitation or promotion of sales at the 18765 place where delivery is made. 18766~~

(2) Gross receipts from the sale of services shall be sitused 18767 to the municipal corporation to the extent that such services are 18768 performed in the municipal corporation. 18769

(3) To the extent included in income, gross receipts from the 18770 sale of real property located in the municipal corporation shall 18771 be sitused to the municipal corporation. 18772

(4) To the extent included in income, gross receipts from 18773 rents and royalties from real property located in the municipal 18774 corporation shall be sitused to the municipal corporation. 18775

(5) Gross receipts from rents and royalties from tangible 18776 personal property shall be sitused to the municipal corporation 18777 based upon the extent to which the tangible personal property is 18778 used in the municipal corporation. 18779

(E) The net profit received by an individual taxpayer from 18780 the rental of real estate owned directly by the individual or by a 18781 disregarded entity owned by the individual shall be subject to tax 18782 only by the municipal corporation in which the property generating 18783 the net profit is located and the municipal corporation in which 18784 the individual taxpayer that receives the net profit resides. 18785

A municipal corporation shall allow such taxpayers to elect 18786 to use separate accounting for the purpose of calculating net 18787 profit sitused under this division to the municipal corporation in 18788 which the property is located. 18789

(F)(1) Except as provided in division (F)(2) of this section, 18790 commissions received by a real estate agent or broker relating to 18791 the sale, purchase, or lease of real estate shall be sitused to 18792 the municipal corporation in which the real estate is located. Net 18793 profit reported by the real estate agent or broker shall be 18794 allocated to a municipal corporation based upon the ratio of the 18795 commissions the agent or broker received from the sale, purchase, 18796 or lease of real estate located in the municipal corporation to 18797 the commissions received from the sale, purchase, or lease of real 18798 estate everywhere in the taxable year. 18799

(2) An individual who is a resident of a municipal 18800 corporation that imposes a municipal income tax shall report the 18801 individual's net profit from all real estate activity on the 18802 individual's annual tax return for that municipal corporation. The 18803 individual may claim a credit for taxes the individual paid on 18804 such net profit to another municipal corporation to the extent 18805 that such a credit is allowed under the municipal income tax 18806 ordinance, or rules of the municipal corporation of residence. 18807

(G) If, in computing a taxpayer's adjusted federal taxable 18808 income, the taxpayer deducted any amount with respect to a stock 18809 option granted to an employee, and if the employee is not required 18810 to include in the employee's income any such amount or a portion 18811 thereof because it is exempted from taxation under divisions 18812 (C)(12) and (R)(1)(d) of section 718.01 of the Revised Code by a 18813 municipal corporation to which the taxpayer has apportioned a 18814 apportioned to that municipal corporation. In no case shall a 18817 taxpayer be required to add to its net profit that was apportioned 18818 to that municipal corporation any amount other than the amount 18819 upon which the employee would be required to pay tax were the 18820 amount related to the stock option not exempted from taxation. 18821

This division applies solely for the purpose of making an adjustment to the amount of a taxpayer's net profit that was apportioned to a municipal corporation under this section.

(H) When calculating the ratios described in division (A) of this section for the purposes of that division or division (B) of this section, the owner of a disregarded entity shall include in the owner's ratios the property, payroll, and gross receipts of such disregarded entity.

(2) Taxpayers utilizing the Ohio business gateway may file separate returns for each municipal corporation to which the taxpayer's net profit is apportioned or may file a single return that reflects the total tax due to all of the municipal corporations to which the taxpayer's net profit is apportioned.

(B) Any employer, agent of an employer, or other payer may report the amount of municipal income tax withheld from qualifying wages, and may make remittance of such amounts, by using the Ohio business gateway.

(C) Nothing in this section affects the due dates for filing employer withholding tax returns.

supported by clear and convincing evidence, the auditor of state 19009 shall submit those findings in writing to the fiscal officer and 19010 the person who initiated the sworn affidavit. If the auditor of 19011 state finds by clear and convincing evidence that an allegation is 19012 supported by the evidence, the auditor of state shall submit those 19013 findings in writing to the attorney general, the fiscal officer, 19014 and the person who initiated the sworn affidavit. The findings 19015 affidavit of that fact, and shall commence an action for the 19033 removal of the fiscal officer from public office under division 19034 fiscal officer holds office has exclusive original jurisdiction of 19053 the action. The action shall proceed de novo as in the trial of a 19054 civil action. The court is not restricted to the evidence that was 19055 presented to the auditor of state and the attorney general before 19056 the action was filed. The action is governed by the Rules of Civil 19057 Procedure. 19058

fiscal duties of the office of fiscal officer or purposely, 19062 knowingly, or recklessly committed any act expressly prohibited by 19063 law with respect to the fiscal duties of that office, the court 19064 shall issue an order removing the fiscal officer from office and 19065
funds. 19067

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this division, an action 19068
for removal from office under this section is stayed during the 19069

pendency of any criminal action concerning a violation of an 19070
existing or former municipal ordinance or law of this or any other 19071
state or the United States that is substantially equivalent to any 19072

committed the violation while serving as a fiscal officer and the 19075 conduct constituting the violation was related to the duties of 19076
the office of fiscal officer or to the person's actions as the 19077 fiscal officer. The stay may be lifted upon motion of the 19078 prosecuting attorney in the related criminal action. 19079

(3) Prior to or at the hearing, upon a showing of good cause, 19080
the court may issue an order restraining the fiscal officer from 19081 entering the fiscal officer's office and from conducting the 19082 affairs of the office pending the hearing on the complaint. If 19083 such an order is issued, the court may continue the order until 19084
the conclusion of the hearing and any appeals under this section. 19085

(4) The legislative authority of the municipal corporation 19086 shall be responsible for the payment of reasonable attorney's fees 19087 for counsel for the fiscal officer. If judgment is entered against 19088 the fiscal officer, the court shall order the fiscal officer to 19089 reimburse the legislative authority for attorney's fees and costs 19090 up to a reasonable amount, as determined by the court. 19091

(D) The judgment of the court is final and conclusive unless 19092 reversed, vacated, or modified on appeal. An appeal may be taken 19093
by any party, and shall proceed as in the case of appeals in civil 19094 actions and in accordance with the Rules of Appellate Procedure. 19095
Upon the filing of a notice of appeal by any party to the 19096
expedited appeal under Rule 11.2 of the Rules of Appellate 19098 Procedure. The fiscal officer has the right of review or appeal to 19099
the supreme court. 19100

(E) If a final judgment for removal from public office is 19101 entered against the fiscal officer, the office shall be deemed 19102 vacated, and the vacancy shall be filled as provided in section 19103

733.31 of the Revised Code. Except as otherwise provided by law, 19104
an individual removed from public office under this section is not 19105
date of the final judgment, and is not entitled to hold any public 19107
office until any repayment or restitution required by the court is 19108
satisfied. 19109

(F) If a municipal corporation's charter establishes a 19110 procedure for the removal of officers from office that conflicts 19111 with the removal procedure established by this section, the 19112 procedure for the removal of officers in the charter prevails. 19113

(G) For the purposes of this section: 19114

(1) A person acts purposely when it is the person's specific 19115
intention to cause a certain result, or, when the gist of the 19116
offense is a prohibition against conduct of a certain nature, 19117
regardless of what the person intends to accomplish thereby, it is 19118
nature. 19120

(2) A person acts knowingly, regardless of the person's 19121

respect to circumstances when, with heedless indifference to the 19130

(H) The proceedings provided for in this section may be used 19133

by the auditor of state, the auditor of state shall conduct 19147

following: 19535

(1) Establish technically feasible and economically 19536 reasonable standards to achieve a level of management and 19537 conservation practices in farming operations that will abate wind 19538 or water erosion of the soil or abate the degradation of the 19539 waters of the state by residual farm products, manure, or soil 19540 for determination of the acceptability of such management and 19542 liability for noncompliance with air or water quality standards 19579 adopted pursuant to section 3704.03 or 6111.041 of the Revised 19580 compensation in accordance with schedules that are provided by law 19599 for the compensation of state employees. All such employees of the 19600 department, unless specifically exempted by law, shall be employed 19601 and subsurface drainage: 19607

(1) Provide engineering service that is mutually agreeable to 19608 the Ohio soil and water conservation commission and the director 19609

All moneys received from the sale of standing timber taken 20518 from state forest lands and state forest nurseries shall be 20519 deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the forestry 20520 holding account redistribution fund, which is hereby created. The 20521 the amount of the total sale proceeds and shall be transferred 20533 from the forestry holding account redistribution fund to the state 20534 forest fund. 20535

The remaining amount of the total sale proceeds equals the 20536 net value of the standing timber that was sold. The chief shall 20537 determine the net value of standing timber sold from state forest 20538 lands and state forest nurseries in each county, in each township 20539 within the county, and in each school district within the county 20540 and shall send to each county treasurer a copy of the 20541 determination at the time that moneys are paid to the county 20542 treasurer under this division. 20543

Thirty-five per cent of the net value of standing timber sold 20544 from state forest lands and state forest nurseries located in a 20545 county shall be transferred from the forestry holding account 20546 redistribution fund to the state forest fund. The remaining 20547 sixty-five per cent of the net value shall be transferred from the 20548 forestry holding account redistribution fund and paid to the 20549 county treasurer for the use of the general fund of that county. 20550

The county auditor shall do all of the following: 20551 lands and nurseries located in the township; 20558

(3) Request the board of education of any school district 20559 located within the county and containing such lands and nurseries 20560 to identify which fund or funds of the district should receive the 20561 moneys available to the school district under division (D)(3) of 20562 this section. After receiving notice from the board, the county 20563 auditor shall pay into the fund or funds so identified one-half of 20564 the amount received by the county from standing timber sold from 20565 lands and nurseries located in the school district, distributed 20566 proportionately as identified by the board. 20567

The division of forestry shall not supply logs, lumber, or 20568 other forest products or minerals, taken from the state forest 20569 lands or state forest nurseries, to any other agency or 20570 subdivision of the state unless payment is made therefor in the 20571 amount of the actual prevailing value thereof. This section is 20572 applicable to the moneys so received. 20573

(E) The chief may enter into a personal service contract for 20574 consulting services to assist the chief with the sale of timber or 20575 other forest products and related inventory. Compensation for 20576 consulting services shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of 20577 initiate a corrective action within a reasonable period of time as determined by the chief.

Expenditures from the fund shall be made only for lawful purposes. In addition, expenditures from the fund shall not be made to purchase real property or to remove a dwelling in order to access a well.

The director of budget and management, in consultation with the chief, shall establish an accounting code for purposes of this chapter, the chief shall do all of the following: 20831

(a) Determine from the records in the office of the county 20832 recorder of the county in which the well is located the identity 20833 of the lease or to each person owning an interest in the lease, as 20845 lien upon, any equipment appurtenant to the well, informing the 20848 person that the well is to be plugged and offering the person the 20849 opportunity to plug the well and restore the land surface at the 20850 well site at the person's own expense in order to avoid forfeiture 20851 of the equipment to this state. 20852

(2) If none of the persons described in division (C)(1)(c) of 20853 this section plugs the well within sixty days after the mailing of 20854 for use to defray the cost of plugging and abandoning the well and 20858 restoring the land surface at the well site. 20859

(D) Expenditures from the fund for the purpose of division 20860
(B)(1) of this section shall be made in accordance with either of 20861
the following: 20862

(1) The expenditures may be made pursuant to contracts 20863 entered into by the chief with persons who agree to furnish all of 20864 the materials, equipment, work, and labor as specified and 20865 provided in such a contract for activities associated with the 20866 restoration or plugging of a well as determined by the chief. The 20867 activities may include excavation to uncover a well, geophysical 20868 methods to locate a buried well when clear evidence of leakage 20869 from the well exists, cleanout of wellbores to remove material 20870 from a failed plugging of a well, plugging operations, 20871 installation of vault and vent systems, including associated 20872 engineering certifications and permits, restoration of property, 20873 and repair of damage to property that is caused by such 20874 activities. Expenditures shall not be used for salaries, 20875 maintenance, equipment, or other administrative purposes, except 20876 for costs directly attributed to the plugging of an idle and 20877 orphaned well. Agents or employees of persons contracting with the 20878 chief for a restoration or plugging project may enter upon any 20879 land, public or private, on which the well is located for the 20880 purpose of performing the work. Prior to such entry, the chief 20881 shall give to the following persons written notice of the 20882 existence of a contract for a project to restore or plug a well, 20883 the names of the persons with whom the contract is made, and the 20884 date that the project will commence: the owner of the well, the 20885 owner of the land upon which the well is located, the owner or 20886 agents of adjoining land, and, if the well is located in the same 20887 township as or in a township adjacent to the excavations and 20888 workings of a mine and the owner or lessee of that mine has 20889 provided written notice identifying those townships to the chief 20890 at any time during the immediately preceding three years, the 20891 owner or lessee of the mine. 20892

(2)(a) The owner of the land on which a well is located who 20893 has received notice under division (C)(1)(b) of this section may 20894 plug the well and be reimbursed by the division of oil and gas 20895 resources management for the reasonable cost of plugging the well. 20896
In order to plug the well, the landowner shall submit an 20897 application to the chief on a form prescribed by the chief and 20898 approved by the technical advisory council on oil and gas created 20899 in section 1509.38 of the Revised Code. The application, at a 20900 minimum, shall require the landowner to provide the same 20901 information as is required to be included in the application for a 20902 permit to plug and abandon under section 1509.13 of the Revised 20903 Code. The application shall be accompanied by a copy of a proposed 20904 contract to plug the well prepared by a contractor regularly 20905 engaged in the business of plugging oil and gas wells. The 20906 proposed contract shall require the contractor to furnish all of 20907 the materials, equipment, work, and labor necessary to plug the 20908 well properly and shall specify the price for doing the work, 20909 including a credit for the equipment appurtenant to the well that 20910 was forfeited to the state through the operation of division 20911 (C)(2) of this section. Expenditures under division (D)(2)(a) of 20912 this section shall be consistent with the expenditures for 20913 activities described in division (D)(1) of this section. The 20914 application also shall be accompanied by the permit fee required 20915 by section 1509.13 of the Revised Code unless the chief, in the 20916 chief's discretion, waives payment of the permit fee. The 20917 application constitutes an application for a permit to plug and 20918 abandon the well for the purposes of section 1509.13 of the 20919
Revised Code. 20920

(b) Within thirty days after receiving an application and 20921 accompanying proposed contract under division (D)(2)(a) of this 20922 section, the chief shall determine whether the plugging would 20923 comply with the applicable requirements of this chapter and 20924 applicable rules adopted and orders issued under it and whether 20925 the cost of the plugging under the proposed contract is 20926 reasonable. If the chief determines that the proposed plugging 20927 would comply with those requirements and that the proposed cost of 20928 the plugging is reasonable, the chief shall notify the landowner 20929 of that determination and issue to the landowner a permit to plug 20930 and abandon the well under section 1509.13 of the Revised Code. 20931 Upon approval of the application and proposed contract, the chief 20932 shall transfer ownership of the equipment appurtenant to the well 20933 to the landowner. The chief may disapprove an application 20934 submitted under division (D)(2)(a) of this section if the chief 20935 determines that the proposed plugging would not comply with the 20936 applicable requirements of this chapter and applicable rules 20937 adopted and orders issued under it, that the cost of the plugging 20938 under the proposed contract is unreasonable, or that the proposed 20939 contract is not a bona fide, arm's length contract. 20940

(c) After receiving the chief's notice of the approval of the 20941 application and permit to plug and abandon a well under division 20942 (D)(2)(b) of this section, the landowner shall enter into the 20943 proposed contract to plug the well. 20944

(d) Upon determining that the plugging has been completed in 20945 compliance with the applicable requirements of this chapter and 20946 applicable rules adopted and orders issued under it, the chief 20947 shall reimburse the landowner for the cost of the plugging as set 20948 forth in the proposed contract approved by the chief. The 20949 reimbursement shall be paid from the oil and gas well fund. If the 20950 chief determines that the plugging was not completed in accordance 20951 with the applicable requirements, the chief shall not reimburse 20952 the landowner for the cost of the plugging, and the landowner or 20953 the contractor, as applicable, promptly shall transfer back to 20954 this state title to and possession of the equipment appurtenant to 20955 the well that previously was transferred to the landowner under 20956 division (D)(2)(b) of this section. If any such equipment was 20957 removed from the well during the plugging and sold, the landowner 20958 shall pay to the chief the proceeds from the sale of the 20959 equipment, and the chief promptly shall pay the moneys so received 20960 to the treasurer of state for deposit into the oil and gas well 20961 fund. 20962

The chief may establish an annual limit on the number of 20963 wells that may be plugged under division (D)(2) of this section or 20964 an annual limit on the expenditures to be made under that 20965 division. 20966

As used in division (D)(2) of this section, "plug" and 20967
"plugging" include the plugging of the well and the restoration of 20968 the land surface disturbed by the plugging. 20969

(E) Expenditures from the oil and gas well fund for the 20970 purpose of division (B)(2) of this section may be made pursuant to 20971 contracts entered into by the chief with persons who agree to 20972 furnish all of the materials, equipment, work, and labor as 20973 specified and provided in such a contract. The competitive bidding 20974 requirements of Chapter 153. of the Revised Code do not apply if 20975 the chief reasonably determines that an emergency situation exists 20976 requiring immediate action for the correction of the applicable 20977 health or safety risk. A contract or purchase of materials for 20978 purposes of addressing the emergency situation is not subject to 20979 division (B) of section 127.16 of the Revised Code. The chief, 20980 designated representatives of the chief, and agents or employees 20981 of persons contracting with the chief under this division may 20982 enter upon any land, public or private, for the purpose of 20983 performing the work. 20984

(F) Contracts entered into by the chief under this section 20985 are not subject to any of the following: 20986

(1) Chapter 4115. of the Revised Code; 20987

(2) Section 153.54 of the Revised Code, except that the 20988 contractor shall obtain and provide to the chief as a bid guaranty 20989 a surety bond or letter of credit in an amount equal to ten per 20990 cent of the amount of the contract; 20991

(3) Section 4733.17 of the Revised Code. 20992

(G) The owner of land on which a well is located who has 20993 received notice under division (C)(1)(b) of this section, in lieu 20994 of plugging the well in accordance with division (D)(2) of this 20995 section, may cause ownership of the well to be transferred to an 20996 owner who is lawfully doing business in this state and who has met 20997 the financial responsibility requirements established under 20998 section 1509.07 of the Revised Code, subject to the approval of 20999 the chief. The transfer of ownership also shall be subject to the 21000 landowner's filing the appropriate forms required under section 21001 1509.31 of the Revised Code and providing to the chief sufficient 21002 information to demonstrate the landowner's or owner's right to 21003 produce a formation or formations. That information may include a 21004 deed, a lease, or other documentation of ownership or property 21005 rights. 21006

The chief shall approve or disapprove the transfer of 21007 ownership of the well. If the chief approves the transfer, the 21008 owner is responsible for operating the well in accordance with 21009 this chapter and rules adopted under it, including, without 21010 limitation, all of the following: 21011

(1) Filing an application with the chief under section 21012 1509.06 of the Revised Code if the owner intends to drill deeper 21013 or produce a formation that is not listed in the records of the 21014 division for that well; 21015

(2) Taking title to and possession of the equipment 21016 appurtenant to the well that has been identified by the chief as 21017 having been abandoned by the former owner; 21018

(3) Complying with all applicable requirements that are 21019 necessary to drill deeper, plug the well, or plug back the well. 21020

(H) The chief shall issue an order that requires the owner of 21021 a well to pay the actual documented costs of a corrective action 21022 that is described in division (B)(2) of this section concerning 21023 the well. The chief shall transmit the money so recovered to the 21024 treasurer of state who shall deposit the money in the state 21025 treasury to the credit of the oil and gas well fund. 21026

(I) The chief may engage in cooperative projects under this 21027 section with any agency of this state, another state, or the 21028 United States; any other governmental agencies; or any state 21029 university or college as defined in section 3345.27 of the Revised 21030 Code. A contract entered into for purposes of a cooperative 21031 project is not subject to division (B) of section 127.16 of the 21032

If the application is determined to be incomplete, the chief or the chief's designee shall provide to the applicant a notice explaining the deficiency and the additional information needed to eliminate the deficiency. The applicant may submit such additional information needed to eliminate the deficiency. Not later than five business days after additional information is received from an applicant for purposes of remedying a deficiency, the chief shall review the additional information, determine if the additional information eliminates the deficiency in the application, and provide notice to the applicant if any deficiency remains. 21058

If notice is not provided by the chief or chief's designee to the applicant within five business days after receipt of the application or, if applicable, within five business days after the chief receives additional information for purposes of remedying a deficiency, the application shall be determined to be complete. Notwithstanding anything in this section to the contrary, the chief shall hold a hearing on an application not later than forty-five days after the application was submitted. The applicant shall attempt to notify all unleased mineral 21084 rights owners, all nonconsenting owners, and all working interest 21085 owners proposed to be included in the unit of the hearing by 21086 certified mail at least fourteen calendar days prior to the 21087 scheduled hearing date. At the scheduled hearing, the applicant 21088 shall provide to the chief proof of certified mailing to such 21089 owners. The applicant also shall publish notice of the hearing in 21090 a newspaper of general circulation in the county or counties, as 21091 applicable, in which the proposed unit is to be located. If such a 21092 newspaper is not available in the applicable county or counties, 21093 the applicant shall publish the notice in the newspaper of general 21094 circulation that is nearest to the proposed unit. At the hearing, 21095 the chief shall consider the need for the operation as a unit of 21096 an entire pool or part of a pool. 21097

(B) The chief shall ~~make~~ issue an order providing for the 21098 unit operation of a pool or part thereof not later than thirty 21099 days after the date of the hearing if the chief finds that such 21100 operation is reasonably necessary to increase substantially the 21101 ultimate recovery of oil and gas, and the value of the estimated 21102 additional recovery of oil or gas exceeds the estimated additional 21103 cost incident to conducting the operation. ~~The~~ However, if the 21104 chief does not receive either a transcript of the hearing or 21105 substantive information regarding an application that was 21106 requested by the chief from the applicant at the hearing within 21107 thirty days of the date of the hearing, the chief may delay 21108 issuing the order. However, the chief shall issue the order not 21109 later than five business days after receiving either the 21110 transcript or the substantive information. 21111

Notwithstanding anything in this section to the contrary, the 21112 chief shall issue an order under this section not later than 21113 forty-five days after the date of the hearing, unless the 21114 forty-five-day period is waived by the applicant in writing and 21115 submitted to the chief. 21116

(C) An order providing for the unit operation of a pool or 21117 part thereof shall be upon terms and conditions that are just and 21118 reasonable and shall prescribe a plan for unit operations that 21119 shall include: 21120

(1) A description of the unitized area, termed the unit area; 21121

(2) A statement of the nature of the operations contemplated; 21122

(3) An allocation to the separately owned tracts in the unit 21123 area of all the oil and gas that is produced from the unit area 21124 and is saved, being the production that is not used in the conduct 21125 of operations on the unit area or not unavoidably lost. The 21126 allocation shall be in accord with the agreement, if any, of the 21127 interested parties. If there is no such agreement, the chief shall 21128 determine the value, from the evidence introduced at the hearing, 21129 of each separately owned tract in the unit area, exclusive of 21130 physical equipment, for development of oil and gas by unit 21131 operations, and the production allocated to each tract shall be 21132 the proportion that the value of each tract so determined bears to 21133 the value of all tracts in the unit area. 21134

(4) A provision for the credits and charges to be made in the 21135 adjustment among the owners in the unit area for their respective 21136 investments in wells, tanks, pumps, machinery, materials, and 21137 equipment contributed to the unit operations; 21138

(5) A provision providing how the expenses of unit 21139 operations, including capital investment, shall be determined and 21140 charged to the separately owned tracts and how the expenses shall 21141 be paid; 21142

(6) A provision, if necessary, for carrying or otherwise 21143 financing any person who is unable to meet the person's financial 21144 obligations in connection with the unit, allowing a reasonable 21145 interest charge for such service that, for an unleased mineral 21146 rights owner, is two hundred per cent; 21147

(7) A provision for the supervision and conduct of the unit 21148 operations, in respect to which each person shall have a vote with 21149 a value corresponding to the percentage of the expenses of unit 21150 operations chargeable against the interest of that person; 21151

(8) The time when the unit operations shall commence, and the 21152 manner in which, and the circumstances under which, the unit 21153 operations shall terminate; 21154

(9) A provision that if the plan for unit operation includes 21155 unleased mineral rights, each unleased mineral rights owner shall 21156 receive a one-eighth royalty on production that is allocated to 21157 each tract, or portions of each tract, included in the unit area 21158 in which the unleased mineral rights owner has an interest. 21159 However, nothing in a provision included under division (C)(9) of 21160 this section precludes the chief from including in the plan for 21161 unit operation another provision allocating to an unleased mineral 21162 rights owner its proportionate share of working interest net 21163 revenues on production allocated to the tract or portions of the 21164 tract, after accounting for the royalty and the recovery of the 21165 reasonable interest charge under division (C)(6) of this section. 21166
If an unleased mineral rights owner owns less than the entire 21167 undivided mineral interest in a tract, the royalty and working 21168 interest net revenues on production allocated to the tract, or 21169 portions thereof, shall be paid only in the proportion that the 21170 unleased mineral rights owner's interest bears to the entire 21171 undivided mineral interest in the tract; 21172

(10) Such additional provisions as are found to be 21173 appropriate for carrying on the unit operations, and for the 21174 protection or adjustment of correlative rights. 21175

~~(B)~~(D) No order of the chief providing for unit operations 21176 shall become effective unless and until the plan for unit 21177 operations prescribed by the chief has been approved in writing by 21178 those owners who, under the chief's order, will be required to pay 21179 at least sixty-five per cent of the costs of the unit operation, 21180 and also by the royalty or, with respect to unleased acreage, fee 21181 owners of sixty-five per cent of the acreage to be included in the 21182 unit. If the plan for unit operations has not been so approved by 21183 owners and royalty owners at the time the order providing for unit 21184 operations is made, the chief shall upon application and notice 21185 hold such supplemental hearings as may be required to determine if 21186 and when the plan for unit operations has been so approved. If the 21187 owners and royalty owners, or either, owning the required 21188 percentage of interest in the unit area do not approve the plan 21189 for unit operations within a period of six months from the date on 21190 which the order providing for unit operations is made, the order 21191 shall cease to be of force and shall be revoked by the chief. 21192

An order providing for unit operations may be amended by an 21193 order made by the chief, in the same manner and subject to the 21194 same conditions as an original order providing for unit 21195 operations, provided that: 21196

(1) If such an amendment affects only the rights and 21197 interests of the owners, the approval of the amendment by the 21198 royalty owners shall not be required. 21199

(2) No such order of amendment shall change the percentage 21200 for allocation of oil and gas as established for any separately 21201 owned tract by the original order, except with the consent of all 21202 persons owning interest in the tract. 21203

The chief, by an order, may provide for the unit operation of 21204 a pool or a part thereof that embraces a unit area established by 21205 a previous order of the chief. Such an order, in providing for the 21206 allocation of unit production, shall first treat the unit area 21207 previously established as a single tract, and the portion of the 21208 unit production so allocated thereto shall then be allocated among 21209 the separately owned tracts included in the previously established 21210 unit area in the same proportions as those specified in the 21211 previous order. 21212

Oil and gas allocated to a separately owned tract shall be 21213 deemed, for all purposes, to have been actually produced from the 21214 tract, and all operations, including, but not limited to, the 21215 commencement, drilling, operation of, or production from a well 21216 upon any portion of the unit area shall be deemed for all purposes 21217 the conduct of such operations and production from any lease or 21218 contract for lands any portion of which is included in the unit 21219 area. The operations conducted pursuant to the order of the chief 21220 shall constitute a fulfillment of all the express or implied 21221 obligations of each lease or contract covering lands in the unit 21222 area to the extent that compliance with such obligations cannot be 21223 had because of the order of the chief. 21224

Oil and gas allocated to any tract, and the proceeds from the 21225 sale thereof, shall be the property and income of the several 21226 persons to whom, or to whose credit, the same are allocated or 21227 payable under the order providing for unit operations. 21228

No order of the chief or other contract relating to the sale 21229 or purchase of production from a separately owned tract shall be 21230 terminated by the order providing for unit operations, but shall 21231 remain in force and apply to oil and gas allocated to the tract 21232 until terminated in accordance with the provisions thereof. 21233

Notwithstanding ~~divisions (A) to (H)~~ of section 1509.73 of 21234 the Revised Code and rules adopted under it, the chief shall issue 21235 an order for the unit operation of a pool or a part of a pool that 21236 encompasses a unit area for which all or a portion of the mineral 21237 rights are owned by the ~~department of transportation~~ state or a 21238 political subdivision of the state. However, the chief shall not 21239 issue such an order with regard to a state park operated under 21240 Chapter 1541. of the Revised Code as of January 1, 2017, or a 21241 nature preserve as defined in section 1517.01 of the Revised Code. 21242 Further, the chief shall not authorize the disruption of surface 21243 land in a state forest operated under Chapter 1503. of the Revised 21244 Code by an order issued under this section. 21245

Except to the extent that the parties affected so agree, no 21246 order providing for unit operations shall be construed to result 21247 in a transfer of all or any part of the title of any person to the 21248 oil and gas rights in any tract in the unit area. All property, 21249 whether real or personal, that may be acquired for the account of 21250 the owners within the unit area shall be the property of such 21251 owners in the proportion that the expenses of unit operations are 21252 charged. 21253

(E) An order of the chief providing for unit operation under 21254 this section does not authorize an owner to use the surface of 21255 unleased land unless that use is consistent with a separate 21256 agreement between the surface rights owner of that land and the 21257 owner. 21258

(F) An unleased mineral rights owner of any tract included in 21259 a unit by an order of the chief issued under this section shall 21260 not incur liability for any personal or property damage associated 21261 with any drilling, testing, completing, producing, operating, or 21262 plugging activities related to a well within the unit unless the 21263 damage arises from a purposeful or grossly negligent act of the 21264 unleased mineral rights owner. 21265

(G) As used in this section, "unleased mineral rights owner" 21266 means an owner that has not leased the owner's mineral rights for 21267 oil or gas, unless the chief separately defines that class of 21268 owner in an order for unit operation. 21269

Sec. 1509.71. (A) It is the policy of the state to provide 21270 access to and support the exploration for, development of, and 21271 production of oil and natural gas resources owned or controlled by 21272 the state in an effort to use the state's natural resources 21273 responsibly. 21274

(B) There is hereby created the oil and gas leasing 21275 commission consisting of the chief of the division of geological 21276 survey and the following four members ~~appointed by the governor~~: 21277

(1) Two members, appointed by the speaker of the house of 21278 representatives, from a list of not less than four persons 21279 recommended by a statewide organization representing the oil and 21280 gas industry; 21281

(2) One member, appointed by the president of the senate, of 21282 the public with expertise in finance or real estate; 21283

(3) One member, appointed by the president of the senate, 21284 representing a statewide environmental or conservation 21285 organization. 21286

(C) Initial appointments shall be made to the commission not 21287 later than thirty days after the effective date of this ~~section~~ 21288 amendment. Of the initial members appointed to the commission by 21289 the speaker of the house of representatives, one shall serve a 21290 term of two years, and one shall serve a term of three years. Of 21291 the initial members appointed by the president of the senate, one 21292 shall serve a term of four years, and one shall serve a term of 21293 five years. Thereafter, terms of office of members shall be for 21294 five years from the date of appointment. Each member appointed by 21295 the ~~governor~~ speaker or president shall hold office from the date 21296 of appointment until the end of the term for which the member was 21297 appointed. ~~The governor shall fill a vacancy occurring on the~~ 21298 ~~commission by appointing a member within sixty days after the~~ 21299 ~~vacancy occurs~~ A vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the 21300 original appointment. A member appointed to fill a vacancy 21301 occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which the 21302 member's predecessor was appointed shall hold office for the 21303 remainder of that term. A member shall continue in office 21304 subsequent to the expiration date of the member's term until the 21305 member's successor takes office, or until a period of sixty days 21306 has elapsed, whichever occurs first. 21307

(D) Three members constitute a quorum of the commission, and 21308 no action of the commission is valid unless it has the concurrence 21309 of at least three members. The commission shall keep a record of 21310 its proceedings. The chief of the division of geological survey 21311 shall serve as the chairperson of the commission. 21312

(E) The ~~governor~~ speaker or president may remove an appointed 21313 member from the commission for inefficiency, malfeasance, 21314 misfeasance, or nonfeasance. 21315

(F) Members of the commission shall receive no compensation, 21316 but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses 21317 incurred in the course of the performance of their duties as 21318 members of the commission. 21319

(G) The department of natural resources shall furnish 21320 clerical, technical, legal, and other services required by the 21321 commission in the performance of its duties. 21322

Sec. 1513.18. (A) All money that becomes the property of the 21323 state under division (G) of section 1513.16 of the Revised Code 21324 shall be deposited in the reclamation forfeiture fund, which is 21325 hereby created in the state treasury. Disbursements from the fund 21326 shall be made by the chief of the division of mineral resources 21327 management for the purpose of reclaiming areas of land affected by 21328 coal mining under a coal mining and reclamation permit issued on 21329 or after September 1, 1981, on which an operator has defaulted. 21330

(B) The fund also shall consist of all money from the 21331 collection of liens under section 1513.081 of the Revised Code, 21332 ~~any moneys transferred to it under section 1513.181 of the Revised~~ 21333

~~Code from the coal mining and reclamation reserve fund created in~~ 21334 ~~that section,~~ all money credited to the fund from the fee levied 21335 by division (F)(8)(c) of section 1513.16 of the Revised Code, 21336 fines collected under division (E) of section 1513.02 and section 21337 1513.99 of the Revised Code, fines collected for a violation of 21338 section 2921.31 of the Revised Code that, prior to July 1, 1996, 21339 would have been a violation of division (G) of section 1513.17 of 21340 the Revised Code as it existed prior to that date, and ~~moneys~~ 21341 money collected and credited to it pursuant to section 5749.02 of 21342 the Revised Code. Disbursements from the fund shall be made by the 21343 chief in accordance with division (D) of this section for the 21344 purpose of reclaiming areas that an operator has affected by 21345 mining and failed to reclaim under a coal mining and reclamation 21346 permit issued under this chapter. 21347

The chief may expend ~~moneys~~ money from the fund to pay 21348 necessary administrative costs, including engineering and design 21349 services, incurred by the division of mineral resources management 21350 in reclaiming these areas. The chief also may expend ~~moneys~~ money 21351 from the fund to pay necessary administrative costs of the 21352 reclamation forfeiture fund advisory board created in section 21353 1513.182 of the Revised Code as authorized by the board under that 21354 section. Expenditures from the fund to pay such administrative 21355 costs need not be made under contract. 21356

(C) Except when paying necessary administrative costs 21357 authorized by division (B) of this section, expenditures from the 21358 fund shall be made under contracts entered into by the chief, with 21359 the approval of the director of natural resources, in accordance 21360 with procedures established by the chief, by rules adopted in 21361 accordance with section 1513.02 of the Revised Code. The chief may 21362 reclaim the land in the same manner as set forth in sections 21363

1513.21 to 1513.24 of the Revised Code. Each contract awarded by the chief shall be awarded to the lowest responsive and responsible bidder, in accordance with section 9.312 of the Revised Code, after sealed bids are received, opened, and published at the time and place fixed by the chief. The chief shall publish notice of the time and place at which bids will be received, opened, and published, at least once and at least ten days before the date of the opening of the bids, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the area of land to be reclaimed under the contract is located. If, after advertising, no bids are received at the time and place fixed for receiving them, the chief may advertise again for bids, or, if the chief considers the public interest will best be served, the chief may enter into a contract for the reclamation of the area of land without further advertisement for bids. The chief may reject any or all bids received and again publish notice of the time and place at which bids for contracts will be received, opened, and published. The chief, with the approval of the director, may enter into a contract with the landowner, a coal mine operator or surface mine operator mining under a current, valid permit issued under this chapter or Chapter 1514. of the Revised Code, or a contractor hired by the surety or trustee, if the performance security is held in trust, to complete reclamation on land affected by coal mining on which an operator has defaulted, or with a contractor hired by the trust administrator of an alternative financial security that is provided in accordance with division (F)(8) of section 1513.16 of the Revised Code to provide long-term water treatment or a long-term alternative water supply on areas affected by coal mining on which a permittee has defaulted or not fully funded an alternative financial security, without advertising for bids.

(D)(1) The chief shall expend money credited to the reclamation forfeiture fund from the forfeiture of the performance security applicable to an area of land to pay for the cost of 21397 completing reclamation to the standards established by this 21398 chapter and rules adopted under it. 21399

(2) If the performance security for the area of land was 21400 provided under division (C)(1) of section 1513.08 of the Revised 21401
Code, the chief shall use the money from the forfeited performance 21402 security and any alternative financial security provided under 21403 division (F)(8) of section 1513.16 of the Revised Code to complete 21404
the reclamation that the operator failed to do under the 21405 operator's applicable coal mining and reclamation permit issued 21406 under this chapter. 21407

(3) If the performance security for the area of land was 21408 provided under division (C)(2) of section 1513.08 of the Revised 21409
Code, the chief shall use the money from the forfeited performance 21410 security and any alternative financial security provided under 21411
the reclamation that the operator failed to do under the 21413
operator's applicable coal mining and reclamation permit issued 21414 under this chapter. If the money credited to the reclamation 21415 forfeiture fund from the forfeiture of the performance security 21416 provided under division (C)(2) of section 1513.08 of the Revised 21417 Code and any alternative financial security provided under 21418 division (F)(8) of section 1513.16 of the Revised Code is not 21419 sufficient to complete the reclamation to the standards 21420 established by this chapter and rules adopted under it, the chief 21421 shall notify the reclamation forfeiture fund advisory board of the 21422 amount of the insufficiency. The chief may expend money credited 21423 to the reclamation forfeiture fund under section 5749.02 of the 21424 Revised Code, or credited to the reclamation forfeiture fund from 21425 the fee levied by division (F)(8)(c) of section 1513.16 of the 21426 Revised Code, ~~or transferred to the fund under section 1513.181 of~~ 21427
~~the Revised Code~~ to complete the reclamation to the standards 21428 established by this chapter and rules adopted under it. Except as 21429 provided in division (D)(5) of this section, the chief shall not 21430 expend money from the fund in an amount that exceeds the 21431 difference between the amount of the performance security provided 21432 under division (C)(2) of section 1513.08 of the Revised Code and 21433 the estimated cost of reclamation as determined by the chief under 21434 divisions (B) and (E) of that section. 21435

(4) Except as provided in division (D)(5) of this section, 21436 money from the reclamation forfeiture fund shall not be used for 21437 reclamation of land or water resources affected by mine drainage 21438 that requires extended water treatment after reclamation is 21439 completed under the terms of the permit. In addition, money from 21440 the reclamation forfeiture fund shall not be used to supplement 21441 the performance security of an applicant or permittee that has 21442 provided performance security in accordance with division (C)(1) 21443 of section 1513.08 of the Revised Code. 21444

(5) If a permittee relies in part on the reclamation 21445 forfeiture fund for alternative financial security under division 21446 (F)(8)(c) of section 1513.16 of the Revised Code, money from the 21447 reclamation forfeiture fund may be used for reclamation of the 21448 land or water resources affected by mine drainage that requires 21449 water treatment after reclamation is completed under the terms of 21450 the permit or an alternative water supply after reclamation is 21451 completed under the terms of the permit in an amount not to exceed 21452 the balance of the alternative financial security provided by the 21453 reclamation forfeiture fund under that division. 21454

(E) The chief shall keep a detailed accounting of the 21455 expenditures from the reclamation forfeiture fund to complete 21456 reclamation of the land or water resources, as applicable, and, 21457 upon completion of the reclamation, shall certify the expenditures 21458 to the attorney general. Upon the chief's certification of the 21459 expenditures from the reclamation forfeiture fund, the attorney 21460 general shall bring an action for that amount of money. The 21461 operator is liable for that expense in addition to any other 21462 liabilities imposed by law. ~~Moneys~~ Money so recovered shall be 21463 credited to the reclamation forfeiture fund. The chief shall not 21464 postpone the reclamation because of any action brought by the 21465 attorney general under this division. Prior to completing 21466 reclamation, the chief may collect through the attorney general 21467 any additional amount that the chief believes will be necessary 21468 for reclamation in excess of the forfeited performance security 21469 and any alternative financial security amount applicable to the 21470 land or water resources that the operator should have, but failed 21471 to, reclaim. 21472

(F) Except as otherwise provided in division (H) of this 21473 section, if any part of the ~~moneys~~ money in the reclamation 21474 forfeiture fund remains in the fund after the chief has caused the 21475 area of land to be reclaimed and has paid all the reclamation 21476 costs and expenses, the chief may expend those ~~moneys~~ money to 21477 complete other reclamation work performed under this section on 21478 forfeiture areas affected under a coal mining and reclamation 21479 permit issued on or after September 1, 1981. 21480

(G) The chief shall require every contractor performing 21481 reclamation work pursuant to this section to pay workers at the 21482 greater of their regular rate of pay, as established by contract, 21483 agreement, or prior custom or practice, or the average wage rate 21484 paid in this state for the same or similar work as determined by 21485
the chief under section 1513.02 of the Revised Code. 21486

(H) All investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to 21487 the fund and shall be used only for the reclamation of land for 21488 which performance security was provided under division (C)(2) of 21489
section 1513.08 of the Revised Code. 21490

Sec. 1513.20. The chief of the division of mineral resources 21491

management, with the approval of the director of natural 21492 resources, may purchase or acquire by gift, donation, or 21493 contribution any eroded land, including land affected by strip 21494 mining, for which no cash is held in the reclamation forfeiture 21495 fund created by section 1513.18 of the Revised Code. For this 21496 purpose the chief may expend ~~moneys~~ money deposited in the 21497 ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and safety fund created by 21498 section 1513.30 of the Revised Code. All lands purchased or 21499 acquired shall be deeded to the state, but no deed shall be 21500 accepted or the purchase price paid until the title has been 21501 approved by the attorney general. 21502

Sec. 1513.25. After completion of the reclamation of a tract 21503 of land acquired pursuant to section 1513.20 of the Revised Code, 21504 the chief of the division of mineral resources management may, if 21505 the land is suitable to the uses of any other department, 21506 division, office, or institution of the state, transfer the land 21507 or tract to that department, division, office, or institution, 21508 subject to the approval of the director of natural resources. 21509

With the approval of the attorney general and the director, 21510 the chief may sell any such land or tract, after completion of the 21511 plan of reclamation, when the sale is advantageous to the state. 21512

With the approval of the attorney general and the director, 21513 the chief may grant easements and leases on the land or tract 21514 under terms advantageous to the state, and may grant mineral 21515 rights on a royalty basis. 21516

All ~~moneys~~ money received from the sale of reclaimed lands, 21517 or in payment for easements, leases, or royalties, shall be paid 21518 to the ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and safety fund created 21519 in section 1513.30 of the Revised Code. 21520

Sec. 1513.27. As used in this section and sections 1513.28, 21521

1513.30, 1513.31, and 1513.32 of the Revised Code, "damage to 21522 adjacent property" means physical injury or harm to nearby 21523 property caused by the unreclaimed condition of lands mined prior 21524 to April 10, 1972, or pursuant to a license issued prior to April 21525 10, 1972, including, without limitation, injury or harm to 21526 vegetation on adjacent property, pollution of surface or 21527 underground waters on adjacent property, loss or interruption of 21528 water supply on adjacent property, flow of acid water onto or 21529 across adjacent property, flooding of adjacent property, 21530 landslides onto or across adjacent property, erosion of adjacent 21531 property, or deposition of sediment upon adjacent property. Damage 21532 to adjacent property does not include any diminution of the market 21533 value of adjacent property caused exclusively by the visual or 21534 aesthetic appearance of such unreclaimed lands. 21535

The chief of the division of mineral resources management, 21536 with the approval of the director of natural resources, may enter 21537 into a written agreement, which may be in the form of a contract, 21538 with the owner of any unreclaimed land affected by mining before 21539 April 10, 1972, or pursuant to a license issued before April 10, 21540 1972, that causes or may cause pollution of the waters of the 21541 state or damage to adjacent property, is not likely to be mined in 21542 the foreseeable future, and lies within the boundaries of a 21543 project area approved by the chief under section 1513.30 of the 21544 Revised Code, under which the state or its agents may enter the 21545 land to reclaim it at state expense with ~~moneys~~ money from the 21546 ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and safety fund by 21547 establishing vegetative cover and substantially reducing or 21548 eliminating erosion, sedimentation, landslides, pollution, 21549 accumulation or discharge of acid water, flooding, and damage to 21550 adjacent property. The agreement may include provisions pertaining 21551 to liability for damages and any other provisions necessary or 21552 desirable to achieve the purposes of this section. 21553

If the chief makes a finding of fact that land or water resources have been adversely affected by past coal mining practices; if the adverse effects are at a stage where, in the public interest, action to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent the adverse effects should be taken; and if the owners of the affected land or water resources either are not known or readily available or will not give permission for the state, political subdivisions, or their agents, employees, or contractors to enter on the property to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent the adverse effects, the chief or the chief's agents, employees, or contractors may enter on the affected property in order to do all things necessary or expedient to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent the adverse effects. Prior to entering on the property, the chief or the chief's agents, employees, or contractors shall give notice by mail to the owners, if known, or, if not known, by posting notice on the premises and advertising once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or municipal corporation in which the land lies. Such an entry shall be construed as an exercise of the police power for the protection of public health, safety, and welfare and shall not be construed as an act of condemnation of property or of trespass. The ~~moneys~~ money expended for the work and the benefits accruing to any premises so entered upon shall be chargeable against land and shall mitigate or offset any claim in or any action brought by any owner of any interest in the premises for any alleged damages by virtue of the entry. This provision is not intended to create new rights of action or eliminate existing immunities.

Each agreement entered into pursuant to this section shall contain provisions for the reimbursement of a portion of the costs of the reclamation that is commensurate with the increase in the fair market value of the property attributable to the reclamation work thereon, as determined by appraisals made before and after reclamation in the manner stated in the agreement, unless the determination discloses an increase in value that is 21587 insubstantial. For reimbursement of the portion, the agreement may 21588 include provisions for any of the following: 21589

(A) Public use for soil, water, forest, or wildlife 21590
conservation or public recreation purposes; 21591

(B) Payment to the state of the share of the income from the 21592 crops or timber produced on the land that is stated in the 21593
agreement; 21594

(C) Imposition of a lien in the amount of the increase in 21595 fair market value payable upon transfer or conveyance of the 21596 property to a new owner. All such reimbursements and payments 21597 shall be credited to the ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and 21598 safety fund. 21599

(D) Payment to the state in cash of the amount of the 21600 increase in fair market value, payable upon completion of the 21601
reclamation. 21602

For the purpose of selecting lands to be reclaimed within the 21603 boundaries of approved project areas, the chief shall consult the 21604 owners of unreclaimed lands, may consult with local officials, 21605 civic and professional organizations, and interested individuals, 21606 and shall consider the feasibility, cost, and public benefits of 21607 reclaiming particular lands, their potential for being mined, and 21608 the availability of federal or other assistance for reclamation. 21609 Before entering into the agreement, the chief shall prepare or 21610 approve a detailed plan with topographic maps indicating the 21611 reclamation improvements to be made. The plan may include 21612 improvements recommended by the owner, but may not include 21613 improvements that the chief finds are not necessary to establish 21614 vegetative cover or substantially reduce or eliminate erosion, 21615 sedimentation, landslides, pollution, accumulation or discharge of 21616 acid water, flooding, or damage to adjacent property. 21617

With the approval of the director and upon entering into the 21618 agreement with the owner, the chief may carry out the plan of 21619 reclamation or any part thereof with the employees and equipment 21620 of any division of the department of natural resources, or the 21621 chief may carry out the plan or any part thereof by contracting 21622 therefor. 21623

The chief, with the approval of the director and written 21624 consent of the owner, may enter into a contract with an operator 21625 mining adjacent land under a current, valid permit to carry out 21626 the plan of reclamation on the unreclaimed land or any part of the 21627 plan without advertising for bids. Contracts entered into with 21628 operators mining adjacent land are not subject to division (B) of 21629
section 127.16 of the Revised Code. 21630

The chief shall require every operator mining adjacent land 21631 who performs reclamation work pursuant to this section to pay 21632 workers at the greater of their regular rate of pay, as 21633 established by contract, agreement, or prior custom or practice, 21634 or the average wage rate paid in this state for the same or 21635 similar work performed in the same or similar locality by private 21636 companies doing their own reclamation work. Each contract awarded 21637 by the chief to other than an operator mining adjacent land shall 21638 be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder after sealed bids are 21639 received, opened, and published at the time and place fixed by the 21640 chief. The chief shall publish notice of the time and place at 21641 which bids will be received, opened, and published, at least once 21642 at least ten days before the date of the opening of the bids, in a 21643 newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the area 21644 of land to be reclaimed under the contract is located. If, after 21645 so advertising for bids, no bids are received by the chief at the 21646 time and place fixed for receiving them, the chief may advertise 21647 again for bids, or, if the chief considers the public interest 21648 will be best served, the chief may enter into a contract for the 21649 reclamation of the area of land without further advertisement for 21650 bids. The chief may reject all bids received and again publish 21651 notice of the time and place at which bids for contracts will be 21652 received, opened, and published. The chief, with the approval of 21653 the director and written consent of the owner, may enter into a 21654 contract with a licensed mine operator mining adjacent land under 21655 a valid permit to carry out the plan of reclamation on the 21656 unreclaimed land or any part of the plan without advertising for 21657 bids. 21658

Sec. 1513.28. The chief of the division of mineral resources 21659 management, with the approval of the director of natural 21660 resources, may make grants of ~~moneys~~ money from the ~~unreclaimed~~ 21661 ~~lands~~ mining regulation and safety fund created by section 1513.30 21662 of the Revised Code for the payment by the state of up to 21663 seventy-five per cent of the reasonable and necessary reclamation 21664 expenses incurred by the owner of any unreclaimed land affected by 21665 mining before April 10, 1972, or pursuant to a license issued 21666 before April 10, 1972, that causes or may cause pollution of the 21667 waters of the state or damage to adjacent property, is not likely 21668 to be mined in the foreseeable future, and lies within the 21669 boundaries of a project area approved by the chief under section 21670
1513.30 of the Revised Code. 21671

The owner shall submit application for a grant on forms 21672 furnished by the division, together with detailed plans and 21673 topographic maps indicating the reclamation improvements to be 21674 made, an itemized estimate of the project's cost, a description of 21675 the project's benefits, and such other information as the chief 21676 prescribes. The plan of reclamation may be prepared in 21677 consultation with a local soil and water conservation district. 21678

The chief may award the applicant a grant only after finding 21679 that the proposed reclamation work will establish vegetative cover 21680 and substantially reduce or eliminate erosion, sedimentation, 21681 landslides, pollution, accumulation or discharge of acid water, 21682 flooding, and damage to adjacent property. 21683

For the purpose of establishing priorities for awarding 21684 grants under this section and section 1513.31 of the Revised Code, 21685 the chief shall consider each project's feasibility, cost, and 21686 public benefits of reclaiming the particular land, its potential 21687 for being mined, and the availability of federal or other 21688 financial assistance for reclamation. 21689

The chief shall determine the amount of a grant under this 21690 section based upon the chief's determination of what constitutes 21691 reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred for 21692 establishing vegetative cover, substantially reducing or 21693 eliminating erosion, sedimentation, landslides, pollution, 21694 accumulation or discharge of acid water, flooding, or damage to 21695 adjacent property, and preparing the plan of reclamation. The 21696 owner may elect to have other improvements made concurrently, but 21697 in no event shall any part of the grant be made for such other 21698 improvements, and in no event shall the amount of the grant exceed 21699 seventy-five per cent of the total amount, determined by the 21700 chief, of what constitutes reasonable and necessary expenses 21701 actually incurred for the reclamation measures listed in this 21702
section. 21703

The chief shall enter into a contract for funding with each 21704 applicant awarded a grant to ensure that the ~~moneys~~ money granted 21705 are used for the purposes of this section and that the reclamation 21706 work is properly done. The final payment may not be made until the 21707 chief inspects and approves the completed reclamation work. 21708

Each such contract shall contain provisions for the 21709 reimbursement of a portion of the costs of the reclamation that is 21710 commensurate with the increase in the fair market value of the 21711 property attributable to the reclamation work thereon, as 21712 determined by appraisals made before and after reclamation in the 21713 manner stated in the agreement, unless such determination 21714 discloses an increase in value that is insubstantial in comparison 21715 to the benefits to the public from the abatement of pollution or 21716 prevention of damage to adjacent property, considering the 21717 applicant's share of the reclamation cost. For reimbursement of 21718 such portion, the contract may include provisions for: 21719

(A) Public use for soil, water, forest, or wildlife 21720
conservation or public recreation purposes; 21721

(B) Payment to the state of the share of the income from the 21722 crops or timber produced on the land that is stated in the 21723
agreement; 21724

(C) Imposition of a lien in the amount of the increase in 21725 fair market value payable upon transfer or conveyance of the 21726 property to a new owner; 21727

(D) Payment to the state in cash in the amount of the 21728 increase in fair market value, payable upon completion of the 21729
reclamation. 21730

All such reimbursements and payments shall be credited to the 21731 ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and safety fund. 21732

Not more than forty per cent of the money credited to the 21733 fund during the preceding calendar year may be expended during a 21734 calendar year for grants under this section. 21735

The chief shall require every landowner performing 21736 reclamation work pursuant to this section to pay workers at the 21737 greater of their regular rate of pay, as established by contract, 21738 agreement, or prior custom or practice, or the average wage rate 21739 in this state for the same or similar work performed in the same 21740 or similar locality by private companies doing their own 21741 reclamation work. 21742

Sec. 1513.30. (A) There is hereby created in the state 21743 treasury the ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and safety fund, 21744 to be administered by the chief of the division of mineral 21745 resources management ~~and~~. The fund shall be used for the purpose 21746 of reclaiming following purposes: 21747

(1) Reclaiming land, public or private, affected by mining, 21748 or controlling mine drainage, for which no cash is held in the 21749 reclamation forfeiture fund created in section 1513.18 of the 21750 Revised Code ~~or the surface mining fund created in section;~~ 21751

(2) Specified purposes in sections 1514.06, 1514.11, and 21752
1561.48 of the Revised Code; 21753

(3) Administration and enforcement of Chapter 1513. of the 21754
Revised Code. 21755

All investment earnings of the fund shall be deposited into 21756
the fund. 21757

(B) In order to direct expenditures from the ~~unreclaimed~~ 21758 ~~lands~~ mining regulation and safety fund toward reclamation 21759 projects that fulfill priority needs and provide the greatest 21760 public benefits, the chief periodically shall consider projects to 21761 be financed from the ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and 21762 safety fund. For the purpose of selecting project areas and 21763 determining the boundaries of project areas, the chief shall 21764 consider the feasibility, cost, and public benefits of reclaiming 21765 the areas, their potential for being mined, the availability of 21766 federal or other financial assistance for reclamation, and the 21767 geographic distribution of project areas to ensure fair 21768 distribution among affected areas. 21769

(C) The chief shall give priority to areas where there is 21770 little or no likelihood of mining within the foreseeable future, 21771 reclamation is feasible at reasonable cost with available funds, 21772 and either of the following applies: 21773

~~(A)(1)~~ The pollution of the waters of the state and damage to 21774 adjacent property are most severe and widespread. 21775

~~(B)(2)~~ Reclamation will make possible public uses for soil, 21776 water, forest, or wildlife conservation or public recreation 21777 purposes, will facilitate orderly commercial or industrial site 21778 development, or will facilitate the use or improve the enjoyment 21779 of nearby public conservation or recreation lands. 21780

(D) Expenditures from the ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation 21781 and safety fund for reclamation projects may be made only for 21782 projects that are within the boundaries of project areas approved 21783 by the chief. Expenditures from the ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining 21784 regulation and safety fund shall be made by the chief, with the 21785 approval of the director of natural resources. 21786

~~The chief may expend an amount not to exceed twenty per cent 21787 of the moneys credited annually by the treasurer of state to the 21788 unreclaimed lands fund for the purpose of administering the fund. 21789~~

(E) The chief may engage in cooperative projects under this 21790 section with any agency of the United States, appropriate state 21791 agencies, or state universities or colleges as defined in section 21792 3345.27 of the Revised Code and may transfer money from the fund 21793 to other appropriate state agencies or to state universities or 21794 colleges in order to carry out the reclamation activities 21795 authorized by this section. 21796

~~If the director of natural resources determines it to be 21797 necessary, the director may request the controlling board to 21798 transfer an amount of money from the fund to the coal mining 21799 administration and reclamation reserve fund created in section 21800
1513.181 of the Revised Code. 21801~~

(F) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the 21802 contrary, money credited to the mining regulation and safety fund 21803 that is derived from taxes levied in division (A)(3) or (4) of 21804 section 5749.02 of the Revised Code shall not be used for any 21805 purposes authorized under this chapter. 21806

Sec. 1513.31. For the purpose of promoting local or regional 21807 economic or community development, the chief of the division of 21808 mineral resources management, with the approval of the director of 21809 natural resources, may make grants of money from the ~~unreclaimed~~ 21810 ~~lands~~ mining regulation and safety fund created by section 1513.30 21811
of the Revised Code for the payment by the state of up to 21812 seventy-five per cent of the reasonable and necessary expenses 21813 incurred by a political subdivision, community improvement 21814 corporation incorporated under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code, 21815 or other nonprofit corporation incorporated under Chapter 1702. of 21816 the Revised Code for the reclamation of any unreclaimed land 21817 affected by mining before April 10, 1972, or pursuant to a license 21818 issued before April 10, 1972, that is owned by the political 21819 subdivision or corporation, is to be reclaimed for the purpose of 21820 commercial or industrial site development by the political 21821 subdivision or corporation or the development of recreational 21822 facilities by the political subdivision, and lies within the 21823 boundaries of a project area approved by the chief. 21824

The owner shall submit an application for a grant on forms 21825 furnished by the division of mineral resources management together 21826 with detailed plans and topographic maps indicating the 21827 reclamation improvements to be made, an itemized estimate of the 21828 project's cost, a description of the project's benefits, and such 21829 other information as the chief prescribes. The chief may award the 21830 applicant a grant only after finding that the proposed reclamation 21831 work will render the unreclaimed land suitable for commercial, 21832 industrial, or, if the land is owned by a political subdivision, 21833 recreational site development and will substantially reduce or 21834 eliminate the damage, if any, to adjacent property that is or may 21835 be caused by the condition of the unreclaimed land. 21836

The chief shall determine the amount of the grant based upon 21837 the chief's determination of what constitutes reasonable and 21838 necessary expenses actually incurred for preparing the plan of 21839 reclamation; preparing the unreclaimed land for commercial, 21840 industrial, or, in the case of land owned by a political 21841 subdivision, recreational site development, including backfilling, 21842 grading, resoiling, planting, or other work to restore the land to 21843 a condition suitable for such development; and, if the condition 21844 of the unreclaimed land so requires, establishing vegetative cover 21845 or substantially reducing or eliminating erosion, sedimentation, 21846 landslides, pollution, accumulation or discharge of acid water, 21847 flooding, or damage to adjacent property. The owner may have other 21848 improvements made concurrently with the reclamation work, but 21849 shall not spend any part of the grant for such other improvements. 21850
No grant shall exceed seventy-five per cent of the total amount, 21851 as determined by the chief, of what constitutes reasonable and 21852 necessary expenses actually incurred for the reclamation measures 21853 listed in this section. 21854

The chief shall enter into a contract for funding with each 21855 applicant awarded a grant in order to ensure that the ~~moneys~~ money 21856 granted are used for the purposes of this section and that the 21857 reclamation work is properly done. The final payment under a grant 21858 may not be made until the chief inspects and approves the 21859 completed reclamation work. 21860

Sec. 1513.32. For the purpose of promoting local or regional 21861
economic or community development, the chief of the division of 21862
mineral resources management, with the approval of the director of 21863 natural resources, may enter into a written agreement, which may 21864 be in the form of a contract, with a political subdivision, 21865 community improvement corporation incorporated under Chapter 1724. 21866 of the Revised Code, or other nonprofit corporation incorporated 21867 under Chapter 1702. of the Revised Code that owns any unreclaimed 21868 land affected by mining before April 10, 1972, or pursuant to a 21869 license issued before April 10, 1972, under which the state or its 21870 agents may enter upon the land to reclaim it at state expense with 21871 ~~moneys~~ money from the ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and 21872 safety fund created by section 1513.30 of the Revised Code for the 21873 purpose of commercial or industrial site development if the land 21874 is owned by a political subdivision or corporation or the 21875 development of recreational facilities if the land is owned by a 21876 political subdivision. The agreement may include provisions 21877 pertaining to liability for damages and any other provisions 21878 necessary or desirable to achieve the purposes of this section. 21879

For the purpose of selecting lands to be reclaimed for 21880 commercial, industrial, or, if the lands are owned by a political 21881 subdivision, recreational site development, the chief shall 21882 consult with the owners of unreclaimed lands and with local 21883 officials, civic and professional organizations, and interested 21884 individuals and shall consider the feasibility, cost, and public 21885 benefits of reclaiming particular lands and the availability of 21886 federal or other assistance for the reclamation. The chief shall 21887 select for reclamation under this section only lands that lie 21888 within the boundaries of a project area approved by the chief. 21889

Before entering into the agreement, the chief shall prepare 21890 or approve a detailed plan with topographic maps indicating the 21891
project's cost, a description of the project's benefits, and such 21893 other information as the chief considers appropriate. The plan 21894 shall include only reclamation work that is necessary to render 21895 the unreclaimed land suitable for commercial, industrial, or, if 21896 the land is owned by a political subdivision, recreational site 21897 development and will substantially reduce or eliminate the damage, 21898 if any, to adjacent property that is or may be caused by the 21899 condition of the unreclaimed land. The plan may include 21900 improvements recommended by the owner, but may not include any 21901 improvements that the chief finds are not necessary to prepare the 21902 unreclaimed land for commercial, industrial, or, if the land is 21903 owned by a political subdivision, recreational site development, 21904 or if the condition of the unreclaimed land so requires, are not 21905 necessary to establish vegetative cover or substantially reduce or 21906 eliminate erosion, sedimentation, landslides, pollution, 21907

adjacent property. 21909

With the approval of the director and upon entering into an 21910 agreement with the owner, the chief may carry out the plan of 21911 reclamation or any part thereof with the employees or equipment of 21912 the department, or the chief may carry out the plan or any part 21913 thereof by contracting therefor in accordance with the procedures 21914 prescribed in section 1513.27 of the Revised Code. The chief shall 21915 keep an itemized record of the state's expense in carrying out the 21916 plan. 21917

Expenditure of not more than twenty per cent of the ~~moneys~~ 21918 money credited to the ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and 21919 safety fund during the preceding fiscal year may be approved by 21920 the chief during a fiscal year for conducting reclamation projects 21921 under this section and for making grants under section 1513.31 of 21922 the Revised Code, provided that such expenditures are primarily 21923 for the pollution abatement purposes of section 1513.30 of the 21924
Revised Code. 21925

Sec. 1513.33. The amount of any grant to a community 21926 improvement corporation or nonprofit corporation made under 21927 section 1513.31 of the Revised Code or the state's expenses 21928 incurred in reclaiming unreclaimed land owned by a community 21929 improvement corporation or nonprofit corporation under section 21930 1513.32 of the Revised Code shall constitute a loan by the state 21931 to the corporation. Entry into a grant contract under section 21932 1513.31 of the Revised Code or into a reclamation agreement under 21933 section 1513.32 of the Revised Code by the chief of the division 21934 of mineral resources management constitutes the designation of the 21935 community improvement corporation or nonprofit corporation as the 21936 state's agent for the commercial or industrial development of the 21937 land named in the contract or agreement. 21938

Each grant contract under section 1513.31 of the Revised Code 21939 or reclamation agreement under section 1513.32 of the Revised Code 21940 shall include terms for repayment of the grant or reimbursement of 21941 the state for its reclamation expenses, which shall require 21942 repayment of the loan in full upon the first sale, lease, or 21943 rental of the land reclaimed under the contract or agreement if 21944 the entire parcel of reclaimed land is sold, leased, or rented. If 21945 the corporation establishes a business enterprise on the entire 21946 parcel of reclaimed land, the contract shall require repayment of 21947 the loan in full upon the commencement of operation of the 21948 business enterprise. If the reclaimed land is sold, leased, or 21949 rented in portions or the corporation establishes a business 21950 enterprise on any portion of the reclaimed land, the contract or 21951 agreement shall require repayment of that portion of the loan that 21952 corresponds to the portion of the reclaimed land sold, leased, or 21953 rented upon the first sale, lease, or rental of that portion, or 21954 upon commencement of operation of the business enterprise on that 21955 portion, by the corporation in the proportion that the acreage of 21956 the reclaimed land sold, leased, rented, or used in business by 21957 the corporation bears to the total acreage of land reclaimed under 21958 the contract or agreement. 21959

To secure repayment of the ~~moneys~~ money granted under section 21960 1513.31 of the Revised Code or of the state's reclamation expenses 21961 under section 1513.32 of the Revised Code to or on behalf of a 21962 community improvement corporation or nonprofit corporation, the 21963 state shall have a lien on the land owned by the corporation that 21964 is land reclaimed under section 1513.31 or 1513.32 of the Revised 21965 Code equal to the amount of the grant made under section 1513.31 21966 of the Revised Code or to the state's expenses incurred in 21967 reclaiming the land under section 1513.32 of the Revised Code. 21968 Within thirty days after the final grant payment is made under 21969 section 1513.31 of the Revised Code or after the completion of the 21970 reclamation work under section 1513.32 of the Revised Code, the 21971 chief shall cause to be recorded in the office of the county 21972 recorder of the county in which the reclaimed land is located a 21973 statement that shall contain an itemized accounting of the grant 21974 paid under section 1513.31 of the Revised Code or an itemized 21975 record of the state's expenses incurred in reclaiming the land 21976 under section 1513.32 of the Revised Code. The statement shall 21977 constitute a notice of lien and operate as of the date of delivery 21978 as a lien on the land reclaimed in the amount of the grant ~~moneys~~ 21979 money paid out or the reclamation expenses incurred by the state 21980 and shall have priority as a lien second only to the lien of real 21981 property taxes imposed upon the land. The notice of lien and the 21982 lien shall not be valid as against any mortgagee, pledgee, 21983 purchaser, or judgment creditor whose rights have attached prior 21984 to the date of filing of the statement by the chief or to any 21985 prior or subsequent lien for real property taxes imposed pursuant 21986 to section 5719.04 of the Revised Code. 21987

The county recorder shall record and index the chief's 21988 statement, under the name of the state and the corporation, in the 21989 official records maintained by the county recorder's office. The 21990 county recorder shall impose no charge for the recording or 21991 indexing of the statement. If the land is registered, the county 21992 recorder shall make a notation and enter a memorial of the lien 21993 upon the page of the register in which the last certificate of 21994 title to the land is registered, stating the name of the claimant, 21995 amount claimed, volume and page of the record where recorded, and 21996 exact time the memorial was entered. 21997

The lien shall continue in force so long as any portion of 21998
the amount granted under section 1513.31 of the Revised Code or 21999
the state's reclamation expenses incurred under section 1513.32 of 22000 the Revised Code remains unpaid. Upon repayment in full of those 22001 ~~moneys~~ money or expenses, the chief promptly shall issue a 22002 certificate of release of the lien. Upon presentation of the 22003 certificate of release, the county recorder of the county where 22004 the lien is recorded shall record the lien as having been 22005 discharged. 22006

A lien imposed under this section shall be foreclosed upon 22007 the substantial failure of a corporation to repay any portion of 22008
the amount granted under section 1513.31 of the Revised Code or 22009
the state's reclamation expenses incurred under section 1513.32 of 22010 the Revised Code in accordance with the terms of the grant 22011 contract or reclamation agreement. Before foreclosing any lien 22012 under this section, the chief shall make a written demand upon the 22013 corporation to comply with the repayment terms of the contract or 22014 agreement. If the corporation does not pay the amount due within 22015 sixty days, the chief shall refer the matter to the attorney 22016 general, who shall institute a civil action to foreclose the lien 22017 of the state. 22018

All ~~moneys~~ money collected from loan repayments and lien 22019 foreclosures under this section shall be credited to the 22020 ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and safety fund created by 22021

Sec. 1513.37. (A) There is hereby created in the state 22023 treasury the abandoned mine reclamation fund, which shall be 22024 administered by the chief of the division of mineral resources 22025 management. The fund shall consist of grants from the secretary of 22026 the interior from the federal abandoned mine reclamation fund 22027 established by Title IV of the "Surface Mining Control and 22028 Reclamation Act of 1977," 91 Stat. 445, 30 U.S.C.A. 1201, 22029 regulations adopted under it, and amendments to the act and 22030 regulations. Expenditures from the abandoned mine reclamation fund 22031 shall be made by the chief for the following purposes: 22032

(1) Reclamation and restoration of land and water resources 22033 adversely affected by past coal mining, including, but not limited 22034 to, reclamation and restoration of abandoned strip mine areas, 22035 abandoned coal processing areas, and abandoned coal refuse 22036 disposal areas; sealing and filling of abandoned deep mine entries 22037 and voids; planting of land adversely affected by past coal 22038 mining; prevention of erosion and sedimentation; prevention, 22039 abatement, treatment, and control of water pollution created by 22040 coal mine drainage, including restoration of streambeds and 22041 construction and operation of water treatment plants; prevention, 22042 abatement, and control of burning coal refuse disposal areas and 22043 burning coal in situ; and prevention, abatement, and control of 22044 coal mine subsidence; 22045

(2) Acquisition and filling of voids and sealing of tunnels, 22046 shafts, and entryways of noncoal lands; 22047

(3) Acquisition of land as provided for in this section; 22048

(4) Administrative expenses incurred in accomplishing the 22049 purposes of this section; 22050

(5) All other necessary expenses to accomplish the purposes 22051
of this section. 22052

(B) Expenditures of ~~moneys~~ money from the fund on land and 22053 water eligible pursuant to division (C) of this section shall 22054 reflect the following priorities in the order stated: 22055

(1) The protection of public health, safety, general welfare, and property from extreme danger of adverse effects of coal mining practices;	22056 22057 22058
(2) The protection of public health, safety, and general welfare from adverse effects of coal mining practices;	22059 22060
(3) The restoration of land and water resources and the environment previously degraded by adverse effects of coal mining practices, including measures for the conservation and development of soil and water (excluding channelization), woodland, fish and wildlife, recreation resources, and agricultural productivity;	22061 22062 22063 22064 22065
(4) Research and demonstration projects relating to the development of coal mining reclamation and water quality control program methods and techniques;	22066 22067 22068
(5) The protection, repair, replacement, construction, or enhancement of public facilities such as utilities, roads, recreation facilities, and conservation facilities adversely affected by coal mining practices;	22069 22070 22071 22072
(6) The development of publicly owned land adversely affected by coal mining practices, including land acquired as provided in this section for recreation and historic purposes, conservation and reclamation purposes, and open space benefits.	22073 22074 22075 22076
(C)(1) Lands and water eligible for reclamation or drainage abatement expenditures under this section are those that were mined for coal or were affected by such mining, wastebanks, coal processing, or other coal mining processes and that meet one of the following criteria:	22077 22078 22079 22080 22081
(a) Are lands that were abandoned or left in an inadequate reclamation status prior to August 3, 1977, and for which there is no continuing reclamation responsibility under state or federal laws;	22082 22083 22084 22085

(b) Are lands for which the chief finds that surface coal mining operations occurred at any time between August 4, 1977, and August 16, 1982, and that any ~~moneys~~ money for reclamation or abatement that are available pursuant to a bond, performance security, or other form of financial guarantee or from any other source are not sufficient to provide for adequate reclamation or abatement at the site;

(c) Are lands for which the chief finds that surface coal mining operations occurred at any time between August 4, 1977, and November 5, 1990, that the surety of the mining operator became insolvent during that time, and that, as of November 5, 1990, any ~~moneys~~ money immediately available from proceedings relating to that insolvency or from any financial guarantee or other source are not sufficient to provide for adequate reclamation or abatement at the site.

(2) In determining which sites to reclaim pursuant to divisions (C)(1)(b) and (c) of this section, the chief shall follow the priorities stated in divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section and shall ensure that priority is given to those sites that are in the immediate vicinity of a residential area or that have an adverse economic impact on a local community.

(3) Surface coal mining operations on lands eligible for remining shall not affect the eligibility of those lands for reclamation and restoration under this section after the release of the bond, performance security, or other form of financial guarantee for any such operation as provided under division (F) of section 1513.16 of the Revised Code. If the bond, performance security, or other form of financial guarantee for a surface coal mining operation on lands eligible for remining is forfeited, ~~moneys~~ money available under this section may be used if the amount of the bond, performance security, or other form of financial guarantee is not sufficient to provide for adequate reclamation or abatement, except that if conditions warrant, the 22118 chief immediately shall exercise the authority granted under 22119 division (L) of this section. 22120

(D) The chief may submit to the secretary of the interior a 22121 state reclamation plan and annual projects to carry out the 22122 purposes of this section. 22123

(1) The reclamation plan generally shall identify the areas 22124 to be reclaimed, the purposes for which the reclamation is 22125 proposed, the relationship of the lands to be reclaimed and the 22126 proposed reclamation to surrounding areas, the specific criteria 22127 for ranking and identifying projects to be funded, and the legal 22128 authority and programmatic capability to perform the work in 22129 accordance with this section. 22130

(2) On an annual basis, the chief may submit to the secretary 22131 an application for support of the abandoned mine reclamation fund 22132 and implementation of specific reclamation projects. The annual 22133 requests shall include such information as may be requested by the 22134 secretary. 22135

(3) The costs for each proposed project under this section 22136 shall include actual construction costs, actual operation and 22137 maintenance costs of permanent facilities, planning and 22138 engineering costs, construction inspection costs, and other 22139 necessary administrative expenses. 22140

(4) The chief may submit annual and other reports required by 22141 the secretary when funds are provided by the secretary under Title 22142
IV of the "Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977," 91 22143 Stat. 445, 30 U.S.C.A. 1201, regulations adopted under it, and 22144 amendments to the act and regulations. 22145

(E)(1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the acid 22146 mine drainage abatement and treatment fund, which shall be 22147 administered by the chief. The fund shall consist of grants from 22148 the secretary of the interior from the federal abandoned mine 22149 reclamation fund pursuant to section 402(g)(6) of Title IV of the 22150 "Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977," 91 Stat. 22151 445, 30 U.S.C.A. 1201. All investment earnings of the fund shall 22152 be credited to the fund. 22153

(2) The chief shall make expenditures from the fund, in 22154 consultation with the United States department of agriculture, 22155 soil conservation service, to implement acid mine drainage 22156 abatement and treatment plans approved by the secretary. The plans 22157 shall provide for the comprehensive abatement of the causes and 22158 treatment of the effects of acid mine drainage within qualified 22159 hydrologic units affected by coal mining practices and shall 22160 include at least all of the following: 22161

(a) An identification of the qualified hydrologic unit. As 22162 used in division (E) of this section, "qualified hydrologic unit" 22163 means a hydrologic unit that meets all of the following criteria: 22164

(i) The water quality in the unit has been significantly 22165 affected by acid mine drainage from coal mining practices in a 22166 manner that has an adverse impact on biological resources. 22167

(ii) The unit contains lands and waters that meet the 22168 eligibility requirements established under division (C) of this 22169 section and any of the priorities established in divisions (B)(1) 22170 to (3) of this section. 22171

(iii) The unit contains lands and waters that are proposed to 22172 be the subject of expenditures from the reclamation forfeiture 22173 fund created in section 1513.18 of the Revised Code or the 22174 ~~unreclaimed lands~~ mining regulation and safety fund created in 22175
section 1513.30 of the Revised Code. 22176

(b) The extent to which acid mine drainage is affecting the 22177 water quality and biological resources within the hydrologic unit; 22178

(c) An identification of the sources of acid mine drainage 22179

within the hydrologic unit;	22180
(d) An identification of individual projects and the measures proposed to be undertaken to abate and treat the causes or effects of acid mine drainage within the hydrologic unit;	22181 22182 22183
(e) The cost of undertaking the proposed abatement and treatment measures;	22184 22185
(f) An identification of existing and proposed sources of funding for those measures;	22186 22187
(g) An analysis of the cost-effectiveness and environmental benefits of abatement and treatment measures.	22188 22189
(a) Reasonable and necessary expenses for the collection and analysis of data sufficient to do either or both of the following:	22195 22196
(i) Identify a watershed as a qualified hydrologic unit;	22197
(ii) Monitor the quality of water in a qualified hydrologic unit before, during, and at any time after completion of the project by the watershed group.	22198 22199 22200
(b) Engineering design costs and construction costs involved in the project, provided that the project is conducted in a qualified hydrologic unit and the chief considers the project to be a priority.	22201 22202 22203 22204
A watershed group that wishes to obtain a grant under division (E)(3) of this section shall submit an application to the chief on forms provided by the division of mineral resources management, together with detailed estimates and timetables for accomplishing the stated goals of the project and any other	22205 22206 22207 22208 22209

information that the chief requires. 22210

For the purposes of establishing priorities for awarding 22211 grants under division (E)(3) of this section, the chief shall 22212 consider each project's feasibility, cost-effectiveness, and 22213 environmental benefit, together with the availability of matching 22214 funding, including in-kind services, for the project. 22215

The chief shall enter into a contract for funding with each 22216
applicant awarded a grant to ensure that the ~~moneys~~ money granted 22217 are used for the purposes of this section and that the work that 22218 the project involves is done properly. The contract is not subject 22219 to division (B) of section 127.16 of the Revised Code. The final 22220 payment of grant ~~moneys~~ money shall not be made until the chief 22221 inspects and approves the completed project. 22222

The chief shall require each applicant awarded a grant under 22223 this section who conducts a project involving construction work to 22224 pay workers at the greater of their regular rate of pay, as 22225 established by contract, agreement, or prior custom or practice, 22226
or the average wage rate paid in this state for the same or 22227 similar work performed in the same or a similar locality by 22228 private companies doing similar work on similar projects. 22229

As used in division (E)(3) of this section, "watershed group" 22230 means a charitable organization as defined in section 1716.01 of 22231 the Revised Code that has been established for the purpose of 22232 conducting reclamation of land and waters adversely affected by 22233 coal mining practices and specifically for conducting acid mine 22234 drainage abatement. 22235

(F)(1) If the chief makes a finding of fact that land or 22236 water resources have been adversely affected by past coal mining 22237 practices; the adverse effects are at a stage where, in the public 22238 interest, action to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent 22239 the adverse effects should be taken; the owners of the land or 22240 water resources where entry must be made to restore, reclaim, 22241 abate, control, or prevent the adverse effects of past coal mining 22242 practices are not known or are not readily available; or the 22243 owners will not give permission for the state, political 22244 subdivisions, or their agents, employees, or contractors to enter 22245 upon the property to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent 22246 the adverse effects of past coal mining practices; then, upon 22247 giving notice by mail to the owners, if known, or, if not known, 22248 by posting notice upon the premises and advertising once in a 22249 newspaper of general circulation in the municipal corporation or 22250 county in which the land lies, the chief or the chief's agents, 22251 employees, or contractors may enter upon the property adversely 22252 affected by past coal mining practices and any other property to 22253 have access to the property to do all things necessary or 22254 expedient to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent the 22255 adverse effects. The entry shall be construed as an exercise of 22256 the police power for the protection of the public health, safety, 22257 and general welfare and shall not be construed as an act of 22258 condemnation of property nor of trespass on it. The ~~moneys~~ money 22259 expended for the work and the benefits accruing to any such 22260 premises so entered upon shall be chargeable against the land and 22261 shall mitigate or offset any claim in or any action brought by any 22262 owner of any interest in the premises for any alleged damages by 22263 virtue of the entry, but this provision is not intended to create 22264 new rights of action or eliminate existing immunities. 22265

(2) The chief or the chief's authorized representatives may 22266 enter upon any property for the purpose of conducting studies or 22267 exploratory work to determine the existence of adverse effects of 22268 past coal mining practices and to determine the feasibility of 22269 restoration, reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of 22270 such adverse effects. The entry shall be construed as an exercise 22271 of the police power for the protection of the public health, 22272 safety, and general welfare and shall not be construed as an act 22273 of condemnation of property nor trespass on it. 22274

(3) The chief may acquire any land by purchase, donation, or 22275 condemnation that is adversely affected by past coal mining 22276 practices if the chief determines that acquisition of the land is 22277 necessary to successful reclamation and that all of the following 22278
apply: 22279

(a) The acquired land, after restoration, reclamation, 22280 abatement, control, or prevention of the adverse effects of past 22281 coal mining practices, will serve recreation and historic 22282 purposes, serve conservation and reclamation purposes, or provide 22283 open space benefits. 22284

(b) Permanent facilities such as a treatment plant or a 22285 relocated stream channel will be constructed on the land for the 22286 restoration, reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of the 22287 adverse effects of past coal mining practices. 22288

(c) Acquisition of coal refuse disposal sites and all coal 22289 refuse thereon will serve the purposes of this section or public 22290 ownership is desirable to meet emergency situations and prevent 22291 recurrences of the adverse effects of past coal mining practices. 22292

(4)(a) Title to all lands acquired pursuant to this section 22293 shall be in the name of the state. The price paid for land 22294 acquired under this section shall reflect the market value of the 22295 land as adversely affected by past coal mining practices. 22296

(b) The chief may receive grants on a matching basis from the 22297 secretary of the interior for the purpose of carrying out this 22298
section. 22299

(5)(a) Where land acquired pursuant to this section is 22300 considered to be suitable for industrial, commercial, residential, 22301 or recreational development, the chief may sell the land by public 22302 sale under a system of competitive bidding at not less than fair 22303 market value and under other requirements imposed by rule to 22304 ensure that the lands are put to proper use consistent with local 22305 and state land use plans, if any, as determined by the chief. 22306

(b) The chief, when requested, and after appropriate public 22307 notice, shall hold a public meeting in the county, counties, or 22308 other appropriate political subdivisions of the state in which 22309 lands acquired pursuant to this section are located. The meetings 22310 shall be held at a time that shall afford local citizens and 22311 governments the maximum opportunity to participate in the decision 22312 concerning the use or disposition of the lands after restoration, 22313 reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of the adverse 22314 effects of past coal mining practices. 22315

(6) In addition to the authority to acquire land under 22316 division (F)(3) of this section, the chief may use money in the 22317 fund to acquire land by purchase, donation, or condemnation, and 22318 to reclaim and transfer acquired land to a political subdivision, 22319 or to any person, if the chief determines that it is an integral 22320 and necessary element of an economically feasible plan for the 22321 construction or rehabilitation of housing for persons disabled as 22322 the result of employment in the mines or work incidental to that 22323 employment, persons displaced by acquisition of land pursuant to 22324 this section, persons dislocated as the result of adverse effects 22325 of coal mining practices that constitute an emergency as provided 22326 in the "Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977," 91 22327 Stat. 466, 30 U.S.C.A. 1240, or amendments to it, or persons 22328 dislocated as the result of natural disasters or catastrophic 22329 failures from any cause. Such activities shall be accomplished 22330 under such terms and conditions as the chief requires, which may 22331 include transfers of land with or without monetary consideration, 22332 except that to the extent that the consideration is below the fair 22333 market value of the land transferred, no portion of the difference 22334 between the fair market value and the consideration shall accrue 22335 as a profit to those persons. No part of the funds provided under 22336 this section may be used to pay the actual construction costs of 22337 housing. The chief may carry out the purposes of division (F)(6) 22338 of this section directly or by making grants and commitments for 22339 grants and may advance money under such terms and conditions as 22340 the chief may require to any agency or instrumentality of the 22341 state or any public body or nonprofit organization designated by 22342

the chief. 22343

(G)(1) Within six months after the completion of projects to 22344 restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent adverse effects of 22345 past coal mining practices on privately owned land, the chief 22346 shall itemize the ~~moneys~~ money so expended and may file a 22347 statement of the expenditures in the office of the county recorder 22348 of the county in which the land lies, together with a notarized 22349 appraisal by an independent appraiser of the value of the land 22350 before the restoration, reclamation, abatement, control, or 22351 prevention of adverse effects of past coal mining practices if the 22352 ~~moneys~~ money so expended result in a significant increase in 22353 property value. The statement shall constitute a lien upon the 22354 land as of the date of the expenditures of the ~~moneys~~ money and 22355 shall have priority as a lien second only to the lien of real 22356 property taxes imposed upon the land. The lien shall not exceed 22357 the amount determined by the appraisal to be the increase in the 22358 fair market value of the land as a result of the restoration, 22359 reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of the adverse 22360 effects of past coal mining practices. No lien shall be filed 22361 under division (G) of this section against the property of any 22362 person who owned the surface prior to May 2, 1977, and did not 22363 consent to, participate in, or exercise control over the mining 22364 operation that necessitated the reclamation performed. 22365

(2) The landowner may petition, within sixty days after the 22366 filing of the lien, to determine the increase in the fair market 22367 value of the land as a result of the restoration, reclamation, 22368

abatement, control, or prevention of the adverse effects of past 22369 coal mining practices. The amount reported to be the increase in 22370 value of the premises shall constitute the amount of the lien and 22371 shall be recorded with the statement provided in this section. Any 22372 party aggrieved by the decision may appeal as provided by state 22373
law. 22374

(3) The lien provided in division (G) of this section shall 22375 be recorded and indexed, under the name of the state and the 22376 landowner, in the official records in the office of the county 22377 recorder of the county in which the land lies. The county recorder 22378 shall impose no charge for the recording or indexing of the lien. 22379
If the land is registered, the county recorder shall make a 22380 notation and enter a memorial of the lien upon the page of the 22381 register in which the last certificate of title to the land is 22382 registered, stating the name of the claimant, amount claimed, 22383 volume and page of the record where recorded, and exact time the 22384 memorial was entered. 22385

(4) The lien shall continue in force so long as any portion 22386 of the amount of the lien remains unpaid. If the lien remains 22387 unpaid at the time of conveyance of the land on which the lien was 22388 placed, the conveyance may be set aside. Upon repayment in full of 22389 the ~~moneys~~ money expended under this section, the chief promptly 22390 shall issue a certificate of release of the lien. Upon 22391 presentation of the certificate of release, the county recorder of 22392 the county in which the lien is recorded shall record the lien as 22393 having been discharged. 22394

(5) A lien imposed under this section shall be foreclosed 22395 upon the substantial failure of a landowner to pay any portion of 22396 the amount of the lien. Before foreclosing any lien under this 22397 section, the chief shall make a written demand upon the landowner 22398 for payment. If the landowner does not pay the amount due within 22399 sixty days, the chief shall refer the matter to the attorney 22400

general, who shall institute a civil action to foreclose the lien. 22401

(H)(1) The chief may fill voids, seal abandoned tunnels, 22402 shafts, and entryways, and reclaim surface impacts of underground 22403 or strip mines that the chief determines could endanger life and 22404 property, constitute a hazard to the public health and safety, or 22405 degrade the environment. 22406

(2) In those instances where mine waste piles are being 22407 reworked for conservation purposes, the incremental costs of 22408 disposing of the wastes from those operations by filling voids and 22409 sealing tunnels may be eligible for funding, provided that the 22410 disposal of these wastes meets the purposes of this section. 22411

(3) The chief may acquire by purchase, donation, easement, or 22412 otherwise such interest in land as the chief determines necessary 22413 to carry out division (H) of this section. 22414

(I) The chief shall report annually to the secretary of the 22415 interior on operations under the fund and include recommendations 22416 as to its future uses. 22417

(J)(1) The chief may engage in any work and do all things 22418 necessary or expedient, including the adoption of rules, to 22419 implement and administer this section. 22420

(2) The chief may engage in cooperative projects under this 22421 section with any agency of the United States, any other state, or 22422 their governmental agencies or with any state university or 22423 college as defined in section 3345.27 of the Revised Code. The 22424 cooperative projects are not subject to division (B) of section 22425
127.16 of the Revised Code. 22426

(3) The chief may request the attorney general to initiate in 22427 any court of competent jurisdiction an action in equity for an 22428 injunction to restrain any interference with the exercise of the 22429 right to enter or to conduct any work provided in this section, 22430 which remedy is in addition to any other remedy available under 22431

this section. 22432

(4) The chief may construct or operate a plant or plants for 22433 the control and treatment of water pollution resulting from mine 22434 drainage. The extent of this control and treatment may be 22435 dependent upon the ultimate use of the water. Division (J)(4) of 22436 this section does not repeal or supersede any portion of the 22437
"Federal Water Pollution Control Act," 70 Stat. 498 (1965), 33 22438 U.S.C.A. 1151, as amended, and no control or treatment under 22439 division (J)(4) of this section, in any way, shall be less than 22440 that required by that act. The construction of a plant or plants 22441 may include major interceptors and other facilities appurtenant to 22442
the plant. 22443

(5) The chief may transfer money from the abandoned mine 22444 reclamation fund and the acid mine drainage abatement and 22445 treatment fund to other appropriate state agencies or to state 22446 universities or colleges in order to carry out the reclamation 22447 activities authorized by this section. 22448

(K) The chief may contract for any part of work to be 22449 performed under this section, with or without advertising for 22450 bids, if the chief determines that a condition exists that could 22451 reasonably be expected to cause substantial physical harm to 22452 persons, property, or the environment and to which persons or 22453 improvements on real property are currently exposed. 22454

The chief shall require every contractor performing 22455 reclamation work under this section to pay its workers at the 22456 greater of their regular rate of pay, as established by contract, 22457
agreement, or prior custom or practice, or the average wage rate 22458
the chief under section 1513.02 of the Revised Code. 22460

(L)(1) The chief may contract for the emergency restoration, 22461 reclamation, abatement, control, or prevention of adverse effects 22462 of mining practices on eligible lands if the chief determines that 22463 an emergency exists constituting a danger to the public health, 22464 safety, or welfare and that no other person or agency will act 22465 expeditiously to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent 22466 those adverse effects. The chief may enter into a contract for 22467 emergency work under division (L) of this section without 22468 advertising for bids. Any such contract or any purchase of 22469 materials for emergency work under division (L) of this section is 22470 not subject to division (B) of section 127.16 of the Revised Code. 22471

(2) The chief or the chief's agents, employees, or 22472 contractors may enter on any land where such an emergency exists, 22473 and on other land in order to have access to that land, in order 22474 to restore, reclaim, abate, control, or prevent the adverse 22475 effects of mining practices and to do all things necessary or 22476 expedient to protect the public health, safety, or welfare. Such 22477 an entry shall be construed as an exercise of the police power and 22478 shall not be construed as an act of condemnation of property or of 22479 trespass. The ~~moneys~~ money expended for the work and the benefits 22480 accruing to any premises so entered upon shall be chargeable 22481 against the land and shall mitigate or offset any claim in or any 22482 action brought by any owner of any interest in the premises for 22483 any alleged damages by virtue of the entry. This provision is not 22484 intended to create new rights of action or eliminate existing 22485 immunities. 22486

Sec. 1514.03. Within thirty days after each anniversary date 22487 of issuance of a surface or in-stream mining permit, the operator 22488 shall file with the chief of the division of mineral resources 22489 management an annual report, on a form prescribed and furnished by 22490 the chief, that, for the period covered by the report, shall state 22491 the amount of and identify the types of minerals and coal, if any 22492 coal, produced and shall state the number of acres affected and 22493 the number of acres estimated to be affected during the next year 22494 of operation. An annual report is not required to be filed if a final report is filed in lieu thereof.

Each annual report for a surface mining operation shall include a progress map indicating the location of areas of land affected during the period of the report and the location of the area of land estimated to be affected during the next year. The map shall be prepared in accordance with division (A)(11) or (12) of section 1514.02 of the Revised Code, as appropriate, except that a map prepared in accordance with division (A)(12) of that section may be certified by the operator or authorized agent of the operator in lieu of certification by a professional engineer or surveyor registered under Chapter 4733. of the Revised Code. However, the chief may require that an annual progress map or a final map be prepared by a registered professional engineer or registered surveyor if the chief has reason to believe that the operator exceeded the boundaries of the permit area or, if the operator filed the map required under division (A)(11) of section 1514.02 of the Revised Code, that the operator extracted ten thousand tons or more of minerals during the period covered by the report.

Each annual report for an in-stream mining operation shall include a statement of the total tonnage removed by in-stream mining for each month and of the surface acreage and depth of material removed by in-stream mining and shall include a map that identifies the area affected by the in-stream mining if the in-stream mining for the year addressed by the report occurred beyond the area identified in the most recent approved map, soundings that depict the cross-sectional views of the channel bottom of the watercourse if the soundings depict a cross-sectional view of the channel bottom that is different from the most recent approved map, and water elevations for the watercourse if water elevations are different from those indicated on the most recent approved map. 22527

Each annual report shall be accompanied by a filing fee in 22528 the amount of five hundred dollars, except in the case of an 22529 annual report filed by a small operator or an in-stream mining 22530 operator. A small operator, which is a surface mine operator who 22531 intends to extract fewer than ten thousand tons of minerals and no 22532 coal during the next year of operation under the permit, or an 22533 in-stream mining operator shall include a filing fee in the amount 22534 of two hundred fifty dollars with each annual report. The annual 22535 report of any operator also shall be accompanied by an acreage fee 22536 in the amount of seventy-five dollars multiplied by the number of 22537 acres estimated in the report to be affected during the next year 22538 of operation under the permit. The acreage fee shall be adjusted 22539 by subtracting a credit of seventy-five dollars per excess acre 22540 paid for the preceding year if the acreage paid for the preceding 22541 year exceeds the acreage actually affected or by adding an 22542 additional amount of seventy-five dollars per excess acre affected 22543 if the acreage actually affected exceeds the acreage paid for the 22544 preceding year. 22545

With each annual report the operator shall file a performance 22546 bond in the amount, unless otherwise provided by rule, of five 22547 hundred dollars multiplied by the number of acres estimated to be 22548 affected during the next year of operation under the permit for 22549 which no performance bond previously was filed. Unless otherwise 22550 provided by rule, the bond shall be adjusted by subtracting a 22551 credit of five hundred dollars per excess acre for which bond was 22552 filed for the preceding year if the acreage for which the bond was 22553 filed for the preceding year exceeds the acreage actually 22554 affected, or by adding an amount of five hundred dollars per 22555 excess acre affected if the acreage actually affected exceeds the 22556 acreage for which bond was filed for the preceding year. 22557

Within thirty days after the expiration of the surface or 22558 in-stream mining permit, or completion or abandonment of the 22559 operation, whichever occurs earlier, the operator shall submit a 22560 final report containing the same information required in an annual 22561 report, but covering the time from the last annual report to the 22562 expiration of the permit, or completion or abandonment of the 22563 operation, whichever occurs earlier. 22564

Each final report shall include a map indicating the location 22565 of the area of land affected during the period of the report and 22566 the location of the total area of land affected under the permit. 22567
The map shall be prepared in accordance with division (A)(11) or 22568
(12) of section 1514.02 of the Revised Code, as appropriate. 22569

In the case of a final report for an in-stream mining 22570 operation, the map also shall include the information required 22571 under division (A)(18) of section 1514.02 of the Revised Code, as 22572
applicable. 22573

If the final report and certified map, as verified by the 22574
chief, show that the number of acres affected under the permit is 22575 larger than the number of acres for which the operator has paid an 22576 acreage fee or filed a performance bond, upon notification by the 22577 chief, the operator shall pay an additional acreage fee in the 22578 amount of seventy-five dollars multiplied by the difference 22579 between the number of acres affected under the permit and the 22580 number of acres for which the operator has paid an acreage fee and 22581 shall file an additional performance bond in the amount, unless 22582 otherwise provided by rule, of five hundred dollars multiplied by 22583 the difference between the number of acres affected under the 22584 permit and the number of acres for which the operator has filed 22585 bond. 22586

chief, show that the number of acres affected under the permit is 22588 smaller than the number of acres for which the operator has filed 22589 a performance bond, the chief shall order release of the excess 22590 bond. However, the chief shall retain a performance bond in a 22591 minimum amount of ten thousand dollars irrespective of the number 22592 of acres affected under the permit. The release of the excess bond 22593 shall be in an amount, unless otherwise provided by rule, equal to 22594 five hundred dollars multiplied by the difference between the 22595 number of acres affected under the permit and the number of acres 22596 for which the operator has filed bond. 22597

The fees collected pursuant to this section and section 22598 1514.02 of the Revised Code shall be deposited with the treasurer 22599 of state to the credit of the ~~surface~~ mining regulation and safety 22600 fund created under section ~~1514.06~~ 1513.30 of the Revised Code. 22601

If upon inspection the chief finds that any filing fee, 22602 acreage fee, performance bond, or part thereof is not paid when 22603 due or is paid on the basis of false or substantially inaccurate 22604 reports, the chief may request the attorney general to recover the 22605 unpaid amounts that are due the state, and the attorney general 22606 shall commence appropriate legal proceedings to recover the unpaid 22607 amounts. 22608

Sec. 1514.051. (A) If an operator or a partner or officer of 22609 the operator forfeits a performance bond, the division of mineral 22610 resources management shall have a priority lien in front of all 22611 other interested creditors against the assets of that operator for 22612 the amount that is needed to perform any reclamation that is 22613 required as a result of the operator's mining activities. The 22614 chief of the division of mineral resources management shall file a 22615 statement in the office of the county recorder of each county in 22616 which the mined land lies of the estimated costs to reclaim the 22617 land. Estimated costs shall include direct and indirect costs of 22618 the development, design, construction, management, and 22619 administration of the reclamation. The statement shall constitute 22620 a lien on the assets of the operator as of the date of the filing. 22621

The lien shall continue in force so long as any portion of the 22622 lien remains unpaid or until the chief issues a certificate of 22623 release of the lien. If the chief issues a certificate of release 22624 of the lien, the chief shall file a certificate of release in the 22625 office of each applicable county recorder. 22626

(B) The chief promptly shall issue a certificate of release 22627 under any of the following circumstances: 22628

(1) Upon the repayment in full of the money that is necessary 22629 to complete the reclamation; 22630

(2) Upon the transfer of an existing permit that includes the 22631 areas of the surface mine for which reclamation was not completed 22632 from the operator that forfeited the performance bond to a new 22633 operator; 22634

(3) Any other circumstance that the chief determines to be in 22635 the best interests of the state. 22636

(C) The chief may modify the amount of a lien under this 22637 section. If the chief modifies a lien, the chief shall file a 22638 statement in the office of the county recorder of each applicable 22639 county of the new amount of the lien. 22640

(D) The chief may authorize a closing agent to hold a 22641 certificate of release in escrow for a period not to exceed one 22642 hundred eighty days for the purpose of facilitating the transfer 22643 of unreclaimed mine land. 22644

(E) All money from the collection of liens under this section 22645 shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the 22646 ~~surface mining regulation and safety~~ fund created in section 22647

Sec. 1514.06. (A) ~~There is hereby created in the state~~ 22649 ~~treasury the surface mining fund consisting of all~~ All money that 22650 becomes the property of the state pursuant to sections 1514.05 and 22651 1514.051 of the Revised Code, money ~~credited to the fund collected~~ 22652 under divisions (C)(1) and (2) of section 1514.071, and other 22653 money specified in section 1514.11 of the Revised Code shall be 22654 credited to the mining regulation and safety fund created in 22655 section 1513.30 of the Revised Code. ~~All investment earnings of~~ 22656

~~the fund shall be credited to the fund. Expenditures from the fund~~ 22657 ~~shall be made by the~~ The chief of the division of mineral 22658 resources management may expend such money for the purpose of 22659 reclaiming areas of land affected by surface or in-stream mining 22660 under a permit issued under this chapter that the operator has 22661 failed to reclaim. ~~Provided that the chief maintains a balance in~~ 22662
~~the fund that is sufficient to achieve that purpose and, in doing~~ 22663
~~so, considers the timeliness of reclamation activity, the chief~~ 22664
~~may use the fund for other purposes specified in section 1514.11~~ 22665

(B) Expenditures of ~~moneys~~ money from the fund for the 22667 purposes specified in division (A) of this section, except as 22668 otherwise provided by this section, shall be made pursuant to 22669 contracts entered into by the chief with persons who agree to 22670
specified and provided in the contracts, for the prices stipulated 22672 therein. With the approval of the director of natural resources, 22673 the chief may reclaim the land in the same manner as the chief 22674 required of the operator who failed to reclaim the land. Each 22675 contract awarded by the chief shall be awarded to the lowest 22676 responsive and responsible bidder, in accordance with section 22677 9.312 of the Revised Code, after sealed bids are received, opened, 22678 and published at the time and place fixed by the chief. The chief 22679 shall publish notice of the time and place at which bids will be 22680 received, opened, and published, at least once at least ten days 22681 before the date of the opening of the bids, in a newspaper of 22682 general circulation in the county in which the area of land to be 22683 reclaimed under the contract is located. If, after so advertising 22684 for bids, no bids are received by the chief at the time and place 22685 fixed for receiving them, the chief may advertise again for bids, 22686 or, if the chief considers the public interest will be best 22687 served, the chief may enter into a contract for the reclamation of 22688 the area of land without further advertisement for bids. The chief 22689 may reject any or all bids received and again publish notice of 22690 the time and place at which bids for contracts will be received, 22691 opened, and published. 22692

(C) With the approval of the director, the chief, without 22693 advertising for bids, may enter into a contract with the 22694 landowner, a surface or in-stream mine operator or coal mine 22695 operator mining under a current, valid permit issued under this 22696 chapter or Chapter 1513. of the Revised Code, or a contractor 22697 hired by a surety to complete reclamation, to carry out 22698 reclamation on land affected by surface or in-stream mining 22699 operations that an operator has failed to reclaim. 22700

(D) With the approval of the director, the chief may carry 22701 out all or part of the reclamation work on land affected by 22702 surface or in-stream mining operations that the operator has 22703 failed to reclaim using the employees and equipment of any 22704 division of the department of natural resources. 22705

(E) The chief shall require every contractor performing 22706 reclamation work under this section to pay workers at the greater 22707 of their regular rate of pay, as established by contract, 22708
agreement, or prior custom or practice, or the average wage rate 22709
the chief under section 1513.02 of the Revised Code. 22711

(F) Each contract entered into by the chief under this 22712 section shall provide only for the reclamation of land affected by 22713 the surface or in-stream mining operation or operations of one 22714 operator and not reclaimed by the operator as required by this 22715 chapter. If there is money in the fund derived from the 22716 performance bond deposited with the chief by one operator to 22717 ensure the reclamation of two or more areas of land affected by 22718

the surface or in-stream mining operation or operations of one 22719 operator and not reclaimed by the operator as required by this 22720 chapter, the chief may award a single contract for the reclamation 22721 of all such areas of land. 22722

(G) The cost of the reclamation work done under this section 22723 on each area of land affected by surface or in-stream mining 22724 operations that an operator has failed to reclaim shall be paid 22725 out of the money in the fund derived from the performance bond 22726 that was deposited with the chief to ensure the reclamation of 22727 that area of land. ~~If the amount of money is not sufficient to pay~~ 22728
~~the cost of doing all of the reclamation work on the area of land~~ 22729
~~that the operator should have done, but failed to do, the chief~~ 22730
~~may expend from the reclamation forfeiture fund created in section~~ 22731
~~1513.18 of the Revised Code or the surface mining fund created in~~ 22732
~~this section the amount of money needed to complete reclamation to~~ 22733
~~the standards required by this chapter. The operator is liable for~~ 22734 that expense in addition to any other liabilities imposed by law. 22735
At the request of the chief, the attorney general shall bring an 22736 action against the operator for the amount of the expenditures 22737 from either the mining regulation and safety fund. Moneys Money so 22738 recovered shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit 22739 of the that fund ~~from which the expenditures were made.~~ 22740

~~(H) If any part of the money in the surface mining fund~~ 22741 ~~remains in the fund after the chief has caused the area of land to~~ 22742
~~be reclaimed and has paid all the reclamation costs and expenses,~~ 22743
~~or if any money remains because the area of land has been~~ 22744 ~~repermitted under this chapter or reclaimed by a person other than~~ 22745
~~the chief, the chief may expend the remaining money to complete~~ 22746
~~other reclamation work performed under this section. The chief~~ 22747

~~shall prepare an annual report that summarizes the money credited 22748~~
~~to the fund and expenditures made from the fund and post the 22749~~ ~~report on the division of mineral resources management's web site. 22750~~

Sec. 1514.071. (A) In addition to any other penalties 22751 established under this chapter, the chief of the division of 22752 mineral resources management may assess a civil penalty against 22753 any person who fails to comply with an order issued by the chief 22754 under section 1514.07 of the Revised Code by the date specified in 22755 the order or as subsequently extended by the chief. 22756

(B) Civil penalties assessed under this section shall not 22757 exceed one thousand dollars for each occurrence of noncompliance 22758 with an order. Each day of continuing noncompliance, up to a 22759 maximum of thirty days, may be deemed a separate occurrence for 22760 purposes of penalty assessments. In determining the amount of the 22761 assessment, the chief shall consider the seriousness of the 22762 noncompliance, the effect of the noncompliance, and the operator's 22763 history of noncompliance. 22764

(C) Upon issuance of a notice of noncompliance with an order, 22765 the chief shall inform the person to whom the notice of 22766 noncompliance is issued of the amount of any civil penalty to be 22767 assessed and provide an opportunity for an adjudicatory hearing 22768 with the reclamation commission pursuant to section 1514.09 of the 22769 Revised Code. The person charged with the penalty shall have 22770 thirty days from receipt of the assessment to pay the penalty in 22771 full or, if the person wishes to contest the amount of the 22772 penalty, file a petition for review of the assessment with the 22773 commission pursuant to section 1514.09 of the Revised Code and 22774 forward the amount of the penalty to the secretary of the 22775 commission as required by this division. Failure to forward the 22776 money to the secretary within thirty days after the chief informs 22777 the person of the amount of the penalty shall result in a waiver 22778 of all legal rights to contest the amount of the penalty. 22779

If, after a hearing, the commission affirms or modifies the 22780 amount of the penalty, the person charged with the penalty shall 22781 have thirty days after receipt of the written decision to file an 22782 appeal from the commission's order in accordance with section 22783
1514.09 of the Revised Code. 22784

At the time that the petition for review of the assessment is 22785 filed with the secretary, the person shall forward the amount of 22786 the penalty to the secretary for placement in the reclamation 22787 penalty fund created in division (F)(3) of section 1513.02 of the 22788 Revised Code. Pursuant to administrative or judicial review of the 22789 penalty, the secretary shall do either of the following: 22790

(1) If it is determined that the amount of the penalty should 22791 be reduced, within thirty days, remit the appropriate amount of 22792 the penalty to the person, with interest, and forward any balance 22793 of the penalty, with interest, to the chief for deposit in the 22794 ~~surface~~ mining regulation and safety fund created in section 22795 ~~1514.06~~ 1513.30 of the Revised Code for reclamation of abandoned 22796 surface or in-stream mining operations in the state; 22797

(2) If the penalty was not reduced, forward the entire 22798 penalty, with interest, to the chief for deposit in the ~~surface~~ 22799 mining regulation and safety fund for reclamation of abandoned 22800 surface or in-stream mining operations in the state. 22801

(D) Civil penalties owed under this section may be recovered 22802 in a civil action brought by the attorney general upon the request 22803 of the chief. 22804

Sec. 1514.11. In addition to the purposes otherwise 22805 authorized ~~in section 1514.06 of the Revised Code~~ by law, the 22806 chief of the division of mineral resources management may use 22807 ~~moneys~~ money in the ~~surface~~ mining regulation and safety fund 22808 created under ~~that~~ section 1513.30 of the Revised Code for the 22809 administration and enforcement of this chapter, for the 22810 reclamation of land affected by surface or in-stream mining under 22811 a permit issued under this chapter that the operator failed to 22812 reclaim and for which the performance bond filed by the operator 22813 is insufficient to complete the reclamation, and for the 22814 reclamation of land affected by surface or in-stream mining that 22815 was abandoned and left unreclaimed and for which no permit was 22816 issued or bond filed under this chapter. Also, the chief may use 22817 the portion of the ~~surface~~ mining regulation and safety fund that 22818 consists of ~~moneys~~ money collected from the severance taxes levied 22819 under section 5749.02 of the Revised Code for mine safety and 22820 first aid training. For purposes of reclamation under this 22821 section, the chief shall expend ~~moneys~~ money in the fund in 22822 accordance with the procedures and requirements established in 22823 section 1514.06 of the Revised Code and may enter into contracts 22824 and perform work in accordance with that section. 22825

Fees collected under sections 1514.02 and 1514.03 of the 22826 Revised Code, ~~one half of the moneys and money~~ collected from the 22827 severance taxes levied under ~~divisions (A)(3) and (4) of~~ section 22828 5749.02 of the Revised Code, ~~and all of the moneys collected from~~ 22829
~~the severance tax levied under division (A)(7) of section 5749.02~~ 22830
~~of the Revised Code~~ shall be credited to the fund in accordance 22831 with those sections. Notwithstanding any section of the Revised 22832 Code relating to the distribution or crediting of fines for 22833 violations of the Revised Code, all fines imposed under section 22834 1514.99 of the Revised Code shall be credited to the fund. 22835

Sec. 1514.41. (A) If a surface mining operation is not 22836 inspected by the mine safety and health administration in the 22837 United States department of labor, the chief of the division of 22838 mineral resources management annually shall conduct a minimum of 22839 two inspections of the operation. 22840

(B) If a surface mining operation is identified through a safety performance evaluation ~~conducted under section 1514.45 of the Revised Code and rules~~ as having ~~lost time accidents in an amount greater than the national average~~ three or more violations per day during an inspection conducted by the mine safety and health administration in the United States department of labor, the chief shall conduct a minimum of two inspections of the operation for one year following the identification. However, the chief, in consultation with a statewide organization representing the industrial minerals surface mining organization, may adopt rules, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, establishing exceptions to the safety inspection requirement under this division.

(C) If a fatality of a miner occurs at a surface mining operation as a result of an unsafe condition or a practice at the operation, the chief shall conduct a minimum of one inspection every three months at the operation for two years following the fatality.

(D) If a life-threatening injury of a miner occurs at a surface mining operation as a result of an unsafe condition or a practice at the operation, the chief shall conduct a minimum of one inspection every three months at the operation for one year following the injury.

Sec. 1514.46. If the operator of a surface mining operation requests the division of mineral resources management to conduct mine safety training, the chief of the division of mineral resources management shall conduct mine safety training for the employees of that operator. For persons who are not employed by a holder of a surface mining permit issued under this chapter and who seek the training, the chief may charge a fee in an amount established in rules for conducting it. The safety training shall be conducted in accordance with rules and shall emphasize the 22872 standards adopted in rules and include any other content that the 22873 chief determines is beneficial. Any fees collected under this 22874 section shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of 22875 the ~~surface~~ mining regulation and safety fund created in section 22876

Sec. 1521.06. (A) No dam may be constructed for the purpose 22878 of storing, conserving, or retarding water, or for any other 22879 purpose, nor shall any levee be constructed for the purpose of 22880 diverting or retaining flood water, unless the person or 22881 governmental agency desiring the construction has a construction 22882 permit for the dam or levee issued by the chief of the division of 22883 water resources. 22884

A construction permit is not required under this section for: 22885

(1) A dam that is or will be less than ten feet in height and 22886
acre-feet at the elevation of the top of the dam, as determined by 22888 the chief. For the purposes of this section, the height of a dam 22889 shall be measured from the natural stream bed or lowest ground 22890 elevation at the downstream or outside limit of the dam to the 22891 elevation of the top of the dam. 22892

(2) A dam, regardless of height, that has or will have a 22893 storage capacity of not more than fifteen acre-feet at the 22894 elevation of the top of the dam, as determined by the chief; 22895

(3) A dam, regardless of storage capacity, that is or will be 22896 six feet or less in height, as determined by the chief; 22897

(4) A dam or levee that belongs to a class exempted by the 22898 chief; 22899

(5) The repair, maintenance, improvement, alteration, or 22900 removal of a dam or levee that is subject to section 1521.062 of 22901

the Revised Code, unless the construction constitutes an 22902 enlargement or reconstruction of the structure as determined by 22903
the chief; 22904

(6) A dam or impoundment constructed under Chapter 1513. of 22905
the Revised Code. 22906

(B) Before a construction permit may be issued, three copies 22907 of the plans and specifications, including a detailed cost 22908 estimate, for the proposed construction, prepared by a registered 22909 professional engineer, together with ~~the~~ any filing fee specified 22910 by rules adopted by the chief in accordance with division (I) of 22911 this section and the bond or other security required by section 22912 1521.061 of the Revised Code, shall be filed with the chief. The 22913 detailed estimate of the cost shall include all costs associated 22914 with the construction of the dam or levee, including supervision 22915 and inspection of the construction by a registered professional 22916 engineer. ~~The filing fee shall be based on the detailed cost~~ 22917 ~~estimate for the proposed construction as filed with and approved~~ 22918
~~by the chief, and shall be determined by the following schedule~~ 22919
~~unless otherwise provided by rules adopted under this section:~~ 22920

~~(1) For the first one hundred thousand dollars of estimated~~ 22921
~~cost, a fee of four per cent;~~ 22922

~~(2) For the next four hundred thousand dollars of estimated~~ 22923 ~~cost, a fee of three per cent;~~ 22924

~~(3) For the next five hundred thousand dollars of estimated~~ 22925
~~cost, a fee of two per cent;~~ 22926

~~(4) For all costs in excess of one million dollars, a fee of~~ 22927
~~one half of one per cent.~~ 22928

~~In no case shall the filing fee be less than one thousand~~ 22929 ~~dollars or more than one hundred thousand dollars. If the actual~~ 22930 ~~cost exceeds the estimated cost by more than fifteen per cent, an~~ 22931 ~~additional filing fee shall be required equal to the fee~~ 22932

~~determined by the preceding schedule less the original filing fee.~~ 22933
All fees collected pursuant to this section, and all fines 22934 collected pursuant to section 1521.99 of the Revised Code, shall 22935 be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the dam safety 22936 fund, which is hereby created. Expenditures from the fund shall be 22937 made by the chief for the purpose of administering this section 22938 and sections 1521.061 and 1521.062 of the Revised Code. 22939

(C) The chief shall, within thirty days from the date of the 22940 receipt of the application, fee, and bond or other security, issue 22941 or deny a construction permit for the construction or may issue a 22942 construction permit conditioned upon the making of such changes in 22943 the plans and specifications for the construction as the chief 22944 considers advisable if the chief determines that the construction 22945 of the proposed dam or levee, in accordance with the plans and 22946 specifications filed, would endanger life, health, or property. 22947

(D) The chief may deny a construction permit after finding 22948 that a dam or levee built in accordance with the plans and 22949 specifications would endanger life, health, or property, because 22950 of improper or inadequate design, or for such other reasons as the 22951 chief may determine. 22952

In the event the chief denies a permit for the construction 22953 of the dam or levee, or issues a permit conditioned upon a making 22954 of changes in the plans or specifications for the construction, 22955 the chief shall state the reasons therefor and so notify, in 22956 writing, the person or governmental agency making the application 22957 for a permit. If the permit is denied, the chief shall return the 22958 bond or other security to the person or governmental agency making 22959 application for the permit. 22960

The decision of the chief conditioning or denying a 22961 construction permit is subject to appeal as provided in Chapter 22962 119. of the Revised Code. A dam or levee built substantially at 22963 variance from the plans and specifications upon which a 22964 construction permit was issued is in violation of this section. 22965

The chief may at any time inspect any dam or levee, or site upon 22966 which any dam or levee is to be constructed, in order to determine 22967 whether it complies with this section. 22968

(E) A registered professional engineer shall inspect the 22969 construction for which the permit was issued during all phases of 22970 construction and shall furnish to the chief such regular reports 22971 of the engineer's inspections as the chief may require. When the 22972 chief finds that construction has been fully completed in 22973 accordance with the terms of the permit and the plans and 22974 specifications approved by the chief, the chief shall approve the 22975 construction. When one year has elapsed after approval of the 22976 completed construction, and the chief finds that within this 22977 period no fact has become apparent to indicate that the 22978 construction was not performed in accordance with the terms of the 22979 permit and the plans and specifications approved by the chief, or 22980 that the construction as performed would endanger life, health, or 22981 property, the chief shall release the bond or other security. No 22982 bond or other security shall be released until one year after 22983 final approval by the chief, unless the dam or levee has been 22984 modified so that it will not retain water and has been approved as 22985 nonhazardous after determination by the chief that the dam or 22986 levee as modified will not endanger life, health, or property. 22987

(F) When inspections required by this section are not being 22988 performed, the chief shall notify the person or governmental 22989 agency to which the permit has been issued that inspections are 22990 not being performed by the registered professional engineer and 22991 that the chief will inspect the remainder of the construction. 22992 Thereafter, the chief shall inspect the construction and the cost 22993 of inspection shall be charged against the owner. Failure of the 22994 registered professional engineer to submit required inspection 22995 reports shall be deemed notice that the engineer's inspections are 22996 not being performed. 22997

(G) The chief may order construction to cease on any dam or 22998 levee that is being built in violation of this section, and may 22999 prohibit the retention of water behind any dam or levee that has 23000 been built in violation of this section. The attorney general, 23001 upon written request of the chief, may bring an action for an 23002 injunction against any person who violates this section or to 23003 enforce an order or prohibition of the chief made pursuant to this 23004
section. 23005

(H) The chief may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. 23006 of the Revised Code, for the design and construction of dams and 23007 levees for which a construction permit is required by this section 23008 or for which periodic inspection is required by section 1521.062 23009 of the Revised Code, ~~for establishing a filing fee schedule in~~ 23010 ~~lieu of the schedule established under division (B) of this~~ 23011 ~~section,~~ for deposit and forfeiture of bonds and other securities 23012 required by section 1521.061 of the Revised Code, for the periodic 23013 inspection, operation, repair, improvement, alteration, or removal 23014 of all dams and levees, as specified in section 1521.062 of the 23015 Revised Code, and for establishing classes of dams or levees that 23016 are exempt from the requirements of this section and section 23017 1521.062 of the Revised Code as being of a size, purpose, or 23018 situation that does not present a substantial hazard to life, 23019 health, or property. The chief may, by rule, limit the period 23020 during which a construction permit issued under this section is 23021 valid. The rules may allow for the extension of the period during 23022 which a permit is valid upon written request, provided that the 23023 written request includes a revised construction cost estimate, and 23024 may require the payment of an additional filing fee for the 23025 requested extension. If a construction permit expires without an 23026 extension before construction is completed, the person or agency 23027 shall apply for a new permit, and shall not continue construction 23028 until the new permit is issued. 23029

(I) The chief shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 23030
119. of the Revised Code establishing a filing fee schedule for 23031 purposes of division (B) of this section. 23032

Sec. 1521.063. (A) Except for the federal government, the 23033 owner of a dam, that is classified as a class I, class II, or 23034 class III dam under rules adopted under section 1521.06 of the 23035 Revised Code and subject to section 1521.062 of the Revised Code 23036 shall pay an annual fee, ~~based upon the height of the dam, the~~ 23037 ~~linear foot length of the dam, and the per acre foot of volume of~~ 23038 ~~water impounded by the dam~~ in accordance with the annual fee 23039 schedule established in rules adopted under division (B) of this 23040 section. The fee shall be paid to the division of water resources 23041 on or before the thirtieth day of June of each year. ~~The annual~~ 23042 ~~fee shall be as follows until otherwise provided by rules adopted~~ 23043
~~under this section:~~ 23044

~~adopted by the chief of the division of water resources under 23046~~
~~section 1521.06 of the Revised Code, three hundred dollars plus 23047~~
~~ten dollars per foot of height of dam, five cents per foot of 23048~~
~~length of the dam and five cents per acre foot of water impounded 23049~~
~~by the dam;~~ 23050

~~(2) For any dam classified as a class II dam under those 23051~~ ~~rules, ninety dollars plus six dollars per foot of height of dam, 23052~~ ~~five cents per foot of length of the dam and five cents per acre 23053~~ ~~foot of water impounded by the dam;~~ 23054

~~(3) For any dam classified as a class III dam under those 23055~~ ~~rules, ninety dollars plus four dollars per foot of height of the 23056~~ ~~dam, five cents per foot of length of the dam, and five cents 23057~~
~~per acre foot of volume of water impounded by the dam.~~ 23058

~~For purposes of this section, the height of a dam is the vertical height, to the nearest foot, as determined by the division under section 1521.062 of the Revised Code.~~

All fees collected under this section shall be deposited in the dam safety fund created in section 1521.06 of the Revised Code. Any owner who fails to pay any annual fee required by this section within sixty days after the due date shall be assessed a penalty of ten per cent of the annual fee plus interest at the rate of one-half per cent per month from the due date until the date of payment.

There is hereby created the compliant dam discount program to be administered by the chief of the division of water resources. Under the program, the chief may reduce the amount of the annual fee that an owner of a dam is required to pay in accordance with rules adopted by the chief under division ~~(A)(1), (2), or (3)~~ (B) of this section if the owner is in compliance with section 1521.062 of the Revised Code and has developed an emergency action plan pursuant to standards established in rules adopted under this section. The chief shall not discount an annual fee by more than twenty-five per cent of the total annual fee that is due. In addition, the chief shall not discount the annual fee that is due from the owner of a dam who has been assessed a penalty under this section.

(B)(1) The chief shall, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code and subject to the prior approval of the director of natural resources, adopt, and may amend or rescind, rules for the collection of fees and the administration, implementation, and enforcement of this section ~~and~~.

(2) The chief shall, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, adopt rules for the establishment of an annual fee schedule ~~in lieu of the schedule established in division (A) for purposes~~ of this section.

(3) The annual fee schedule must be based on the height of the dam, the linear foot length of the dam, and the per-acre foot of volume of water impounded by the dam. For purposes of this section, the height of a dam is the vertical height, to the nearest foot, as determined by the division under section 1521.062 of the Revised Code.

(C)(1) No person, political subdivision, or state governmental agency shall violate or fail to comply with this section or any rule or order adopted or issued under it.

Members of the council shall be residents of this state and 23958 shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in 23959 attending meetings of the council and in the performance of their 23960 official duties. 23961

Sec. 1711.53. (A)(1) No person shall operate an amusement 23962 ride within the state without a permit issued by the director of 23963 agriculture under division (A)(2) of this section. No person shall 23964 operate an aquatic amusement ride, as defined in section 3749.01 23965 of the Revised Code, without also complying with Chapter 3749. of 23966 the Revised Code. The owner of an amusement ride, whether the ride 23967 is a temporary amusement ride or a permanent amusement ride, who 23968 desires to operate the amusement ride within the state shall, 23969 prior to the operation of the amusement ride and annually 23970 thereafter, submit to the department of agriculture an application 23971 for a permit, together with the appropriate permit and inspection 23972 fee, on a form to be furnished by the department. Prior to issuing 23973 any permit the department shall, within thirty days after the date 23974 on which it receives the application, inspect each amusement ride 23975 described in the application. The owner of an amusement ride shall 23976 have the amusement ride ready for inspection not later than two 23977 hours after the time that is requested by the person for the 23978 inspection. 23979

(2) For each amusement ride found to comply with the rules 23980 adopted by the director under division (B) of this section and 23981 division (B) of section 1711.551 of the Revised Code, the director 23982 shall issue an annual permit, provided that evidence of liability 23983 insurance coverage for the amusement ride as required by section 23984 1711.54 of the Revised Code is on file with the department. 23985

(3) The director shall issue with each permit a decal 23986 indicating that the amusement ride has been issued the permit. The 23987 owner of the amusement ride shall affix the decal on the ride at a 23988 location where the decal is easily visible to the patrons of the 23989 ride. A copy of the permit shall be kept on file at the same 23990 address as the location of the amusement ride identified on the 23991 permit, and shall be made available for inspection, upon 23992 reasonable demand, by any person. An owner may operate an 23993 amusement ride prior to obtaining a permit, provided that the operation is for the purpose of testing the amusement ride or training amusement ride operators and other employees of the owner and the amusement ride is not open to the public.

(B) The director, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt rules providing for a schedule of fines, with no fine exceeding five thousand dollars, for violations of sections 1711.50 to 1711.57 of the Revised Code or any rules adopted under this division and for the classification of amusement rides and rules for the safe operation and inspection of all amusement rides as are necessary for amusement ride safety and for the protection of the general public. Rules adopted by the director for the safe operation and inspection of amusement rides shall be reasonable and based upon generally accepted engineering standards and practices. In adopting rules under this section, the director may adopt by reference, in whole or in part, the national fire code or the national electrical code (NEC) prepared by the national fire protection association, the standards of the American society for testing and materials (ASTM) or the American national standards institute (ANSI), or any other principles, tests, or standards of nationally recognized technical or scientific authorities. Insofar as is practicable and consistent with sections 1711.50 to 1711.57 of the Revised Code, rules adopted under this division shall be consistent with the rules of other states. The department shall cause sections 1711.50 to 1711.57 of the Revised Code and the rules adopted in accordance with this division and division (B) of section 1711.551 of the Revised Code to be published in pamphlet form and a copy to be furnished without charge to each owner of an amusement ride who holds a current permit or is an applicant therefor.

(C) With respect to an application for a permit for an amusement ride, an owner may apply to the director for a waiver or modification of any rule adopted under division (B) of this 24026 section if there are practical difficulties or unnecessary 24027 hardships for the amusement ride to comply with the rules. Any 24028 application shall set forth the reasons for the request. The 24029 director, with the approval of the advisory council on amusement 24030 ride safety, may waive or modify the application of a rule to any 24031 amusement ride if the public safety is secure. Any authorization 24032 by the director under this division shall be in writing and shall 24033 set forth the conditions under which the waiver or modification is 24034 authorized, and the department shall retain separate records of 24035 all proceedings under this division. 24036

(D)(1) The director shall employ and provide for training of 24037 a chief inspector and additional inspectors and employees as may 24038 be necessary to administer and enforce sections 1711.50 to 1711.57 24039 of the Revised Code. The director may appoint or contract with 24040 other persons to perform inspections of amusement rides, provided 24041 that the persons meet the qualifications for inspectors 24042 established by rules adopted under division (B) of this section 24043 and are not owners, or employees of owners, of any amusement ride 24044 subject to inspection under sections 1711.50 to 1711.57 of the 24045 Revised Code. No person shall inspect an amusement ride who, 24046 within six months prior to the date of inspection, was an employee 24047 of the owner of the ride. 24048

(2) Before the director contracts with other persons to 24049 inspect amusement rides, the director shall seek the advice of the 24050 advisory council on amusement ride safety on whether to contract 24051 with those persons. The advice shall not be binding upon the 24052 director. After having received the advice of the council, the 24053 director may proceed to contract with inspectors in accordance 24054 with the procedures specified in division (E)(2) of section 24055
1711.11 of the Revised Code. 24056

(3) With the advice and consent of the advisory council on 24057 amusement ride safety, the director may employ a special 24058 consultant to conduct an independent investigation of an amusement 24059 ride accident. This consultant need not be in the civil service of 24060 the state, but shall have qualifications to conduct the 24061 investigation acceptable to the council. 24062

(E)(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (E)(1) of 24063 this section, the department shall charge the following amusement 24064 ride fees: 24065

The director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 24081 119. of the Revised Code establishing the annual fee for an 24082 inspection and reinspection of an inflatable ride. If the director 24083 issues a permit for an inflatable ride for a time period of less 24084 than one year, the director shall charge a prorated fee for the 24085 permit equal to one-twelfth of the annual permit fee multiplied by 24086 the number of full months for which the permit is issued. 24087

The fees for an expedited inspection, failure to cancel a 24088 scheduled inspection, and failure to have an amusement ride ready 24089 for inspection do not apply to go karts. 24090

As used in division (E)(1) of this section, "expedited 24091 inspection" means an inspection of an amusement ride by the 24092 department not later than ten days after the owner of the 24093 amusement ride files an application for a permit under this 24094

(2) All fees and fines collected by the department under 24096 sections 1711.50 to 1711.57 of the Revised Code shall be deposited 24097 in the state treasury to the credit of the amusement ride 24098 inspection fund, which is hereby created, and shall be used only 24099 for the purpose of administering and enforcing sections 1711.11 24100 and 1711.50 to 1711.57 of the Revised Code. 24101

(3) The owner of an amusement ride shall be required to pay a 24102 reinspection fee only if the reinspection was conducted at the 24103 owner's request under division (F) of this section, if the 24104 reinspection is required by division (F) of this section because 24105 of an accident, or if the reinspection is required by division (F) 24106 of section 1711.55 of the Revised Code. If a reinspection is 24107 conducted at the request of the chief officer of a fair, festival, 24108 or event where the ride is operating, the reinspection fee shall 24109 be charged to the fair, festival, or event. 24110

(4) The rules adopted under division (B) of this section 24111 shall define "roller coaster," "aerial lifts," "go karts," and 24112

(F) A reinspection of an amusement ride shall take place if 24116 an accident occurs, if the owner of the ride or the chief officer 24117 of the fair, festival, or event where the ride is operating 24118 requests a reinspection, or if the reinspection is required by 24119 division (F) of section 1711.55 of the Revised Code. 24120

(G) As a supplement to its annual inspection of a temporary amusement ride, the department may inspect the ride during each scheduled event, as listed in the schedule of events provided to the department by the owner pursuant to division (C) of section 1711.55 of the Revised Code, at which the ride is operated in this state. These supplemental inspections are in addition to any other inspection or reinspection of the ride as may be required under sections 1711.50 to 1711.57 of the Revised Code, and the owner of the temporary amusement ride is not required to pay an inspection or reinspection fee for this supplemental inspection. Nothing in this division shall be construed to prohibit the owner of a temporary amusement ride having a valid permit to operate in this state from operating the ride at a scheduled event before the department conducts a supplemental inspection.

value per share as set by the board of directors. Redemptions and 24369 liquidating dividends shall be prorated to each member on the 24370 basis of the price paid the credit union for such share, 24371 irrespective of the class of such shares. 24372

third parties. 24392

(F) Unless otherwise provided by written agreement of the 24393 parties, the rights, responsibilities, and liabilities attaching 24394 discharges the liability of the credit union to the member and the 24409 beneficiary, and the credit union shall be under no obligation to 24410 see to the application of the payment. Unless prior to the death 24411 of a member, the member has notified the credit union in writing 24412 to receive the proceeds of such shares or share accounts, then the 24414 proceeds shall be paid to the beneficiary or to the beneficiary's 24415 parent or legal representative. Any payment made pursuant to 24416 written instructions of the member or pursuant to the provisions 24417 herein contained shall be a valid and sufficient release and 24418 interest releases the credit union from all obligation to the 24432 minor as to the shares reduced or funds withdrawn. 24433

(J) The regulations may require advance written notice of a 24434 section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 25507 parte hearing as soon as possible after the petition is filed, but 25508 not later than the next day after the court is in session after 25509 the petition is filed. The court, for good cause shown at the ex 25510 parte hearing, may enter any temporary orders, with or without 25511 bond, that the court finds necessary for the safety and protection 25512 of the person to be protected by the order. Immediate and present 25513 danger to the person to be protected by the protection order 25514 constitutes good cause for purposes of this section. Immediate and 25515 present danger includes, but is not limited to, situations in 25516 which the respondent has threatened the person to be protected by 25517

the protection order with bodily harm or in which the respondent 25518 previously has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been 25519 adjudicated a delinquent child for committing a violation of 25520 section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 2903.211, 2903.22, or 25521 2911.211 of the Revised Code, a sexually oriented offense, or a 25522 violation of any municipal ordinance that is substantially 25523 equivalent to any of those offenses against the person to be 25524 protected by the protection order. 25525

(2)(a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues a 25526
protection order described in division (E) of this section, the 25527 court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is within ten 25528 court days after the ex parte hearing. The court shall give the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be heard at, the full hearing. The court also shall give notice of the full hearing to the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the respondent. The court shall hold the full hearing on the date scheduled under this division unless the court grants a continuance of the hearing in accordance with this division. Under any of the following circumstances or for any of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance of the full hearing to a reasonable time determined by the court:

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under this division, the respondent has not been served with the petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full hearing.

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance.

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain counsel.

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause.

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not expire because of a failure to serve notice of the full hearing upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing under division (D)(2)(a) of this section or because the court grants a continuance under that division.

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this section does not request an ex parte order, or if a person requests an ex parte order but the court does not issue an ex parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed as in a normal civil action and grant a full hearing on the matter.

(E)(1)(a) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may issue any protection order, with or without bond, that contains terms designed to ensure the safety and protection of the person to be protected by the protection order. The court may include 25560 within a protection order issued under this section a term 25561 requiring that the respondent not remove, damage, hide, harm, or 25562 dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by the person 25563 to be protected by the order, and may include within the order a 25564 term authorizing the person to be protected by the order to remove 25565 a companion animal owned by the person to be protected by the 25566 order from the possession of the respondent. 25567

(b) After a full hearing, if the court considering a petition 25568 that includes an allegation of the type described in division 25569 (C)(2)(b) of this section or the court, upon its own motion, finds 25570 upon clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner reasonably 25571 believed that the respondent's conduct at any time preceding the 25572 filing of the petition endangered the health, welfare, or safety 25573
of the person to be protected and that the respondent presents a 25574 continuing danger to the person to be protected and if division 25575 (N) of this section does not prohibit the issuance of an order 25576 that the respondent be electronically monitored, the court may 25577 order that the respondent be electronically monitored for a period 25578 of time and under the terms and conditions that the court 25579 determines are appropriate. Electronic monitoring shall be in 25580 addition to any other relief granted to the petitioner. 25581

(2)(a) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 25582 shall be valid until a date certain but not later than the date 25583 the respondent attains nineteen years of age. 25584

(b) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section may 25585 be renewed in the same manner as the original order was issued. 25586

(3) A court may not issue a protection order that requires a 25587 petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the court 25588 may require a respondent to do or to refrain from doing under 25589 division (E)(1) of this section unless all of the following apply: 25590

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a protection order in accordance with this section. 25591
25592

(b) The petitioner is served with notice of the respondent's petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 25593
25594
25596

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time specified in that division in order to consolidate the hearing with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 25597
25598
25601

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents evidence in support of the request for a protection order and the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed a violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, a sexually oriented offense, or a violation of any municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to any of those offenses against the person to be protected by the protection order issued pursuant to division (E)(3) of this section, or has violated a protection order issued pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the Revised Code relative to the person to be protected by the protection order issued pursuant to division (E)(3) of this section. 25602
25603
25605
25606
25607
25608
25609
25610
25611
25612
25613
25614
25615

(4) No protection order issued pursuant to this section shall in any manner affect title to any real property. 25616
25617

(5)(a) A protection order issued under this section shall clearly state that the person to be protected by the order cannot waive or nullify by invitation or consent any requirement in the order. 25618
25619
25621

(b) Division (E)(5)(a) of this section does not limit any 25622 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent alleged to 25623 have violated section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, violated a 25624 municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to that section, or 25625 committed contempt of court, which allegation is based on an 25626 alleged violation of a protection order issued under this section, 25627 did not commit the violation or was not in contempt of court. 25628

(6) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 25629 shall include a provision that the court will automatically seal 25630 all of the records of the proceeding in which the order is issued 25631 on the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen years 25632 unless the petitioner provides the court with evidence that the 25633 respondent has not complied with all of the terms of the 25634 protection order. The protection order shall specify the date when 25635 the respondent attains the age of nineteen years. 25636

(F)(1) The court shall cause the delivery of a copy of any 25637 protection order that is issued under this section to the 25638 petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement agencies 25639 that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall 25640 direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the respondent and 25641 the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the respondent on the 25642 same day that the order is entered. 25643

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 25644 section, the court shall provide the parties to the order with the 25645
following notice orally or by form: 25646

"NOTICE 25647

As a result of this order, it may be unlawful for you to 25648 possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or 25649 revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 25650 922(g)(8). If you have any questions whether this law makes it 25651 illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, 25652
you should consult an attorney." 25653

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain an index for the protection orders delivered to the agencies pursuant to division (F)(1) of this section. With respect to each order delivered, each agency shall note on the index the date and time that it received the order.

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered the protection order in the county in which the officer's agency has jurisdiction pursuant to division (M) of this section, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a protection order issued pursuant to this section by any court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the order, including removing the respondent from the premises, if appropriate.

(G)(1) Any proceeding under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that a protection order may be obtained under this section with or without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, that grants a protection order, or that refuses to grant a protection order, is a final, appealable order. The remedies and procedures provided in this section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other available civil or criminal remedies or any other available remedies under Chapter 2151. or 2152. of the Revised Code.

(2) If as provided in division (G)(1) of this section an order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, refuses to grant a protection order, the court, on its own motion, shall order that the ex parte order issued under this section and all of the records pertaining to that ex parte order be expunged after either of the following occurs:

(a) The period of the notice of appeal from the order that refuses to grant a protection order has expired.

(b) The order that refuses to grant the protection order is appealed and an appellate court to which the last appeal of that 25685

order is taken affirms the order. 25686

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 25687 excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 25688 required by section 2151.421 of the Revised Code or by any other 25689
law. 25690

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates an alleged 25691
violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 2903.211, 25692 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, an alleged commission of 25693 a sexually oriented offense, or an alleged violation of a 25694 municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to any of 25695 those offenses shall provide information to the victim and the 25696 family or household members of the victim regarding the relief 25697 available under this section. 25698

(J)(1) Subject to division (J)(2) of this section and 25699
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 25700 agreement is approved by a court of another county or by a court 25701 of another state, no court or unit of state or local government 25702 shall charge the petitioner any fee, cost, deposit, or money in 25703 connection with the filing of a petition pursuant to this section, 25704 in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 25705 modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a 25706 protection order, consent agreement, or witness subpoena or for 25707 obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 25708
agreement. 25709

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a 25710 consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the court 25711 may assess costs against the respondent in connection with the 25712 filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 25713 dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 25714 agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 25715
of a protection order or consent agreement. 25716

(K)(1) A person who violates a protection order issued under 25717
this section is subject to the following sanctions: 25718

(a) A delinquent child proceeding or a criminal prosecution 25719 for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the 25720 violation of the protection order constitutes a violation of that 25721
section; 25722

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 25723

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 25724 violation of a protection order issued under this section does not 25725 bar criminal prosecution of the person or a delinquent child 25726 proceeding concerning the person for a violation of section 25727 2919.27 of the Revised Code. However, a person punished for 25728
contempt of court is entitled to credit for the punishment imposed 25729 upon conviction of or adjudication as a delinquent child for a 25730 violation of that section, and a person convicted of or 25731 adjudicated a delinquent child for a violation of that section 25732 shall not subsequently be punished for contempt of court arising 25733 out of the same activity. 25734

(L) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 25735
petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 25736

(M)(1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order under this 25737 section may provide notice of the issuance or approval of the 25738 order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county 25739
other than the county in which the order is issued by registering 25740 that order in the other county pursuant to division (M)(2) of this 25741 section and filing a copy of the registered order with a law 25742 enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that 25743 division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a 25744 court of another state may provide notice of the issuance of the 25745 order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county 25746
of this state by registering the order in that county pursuant to 25747

section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a copy of the 25748 registered order with a law enforcement agency in that county. 25749

(2) A petitioner may register a protection order issued 25750 pursuant to this section in a county other than the county in 25751 which the court that issued the order is located in the following 25752 manner: 25753

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the order 25754 from the clerk of the court that issued the order and present that 25755 certified copy to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the 25756 clerk of a municipal court or county court in the county in which 25757
the order is to be registered. 25758

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order for 25759 registration, the clerk of the court of common pleas, municipal 25760 court, or county court shall place an endorsement of registration 25761 on the order and give the petitioner a copy of the order that 25762
bears that proof of registration. 25763

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, municipal court, 25764 or county court shall maintain a registry of certified copies of 25765 protection orders that have been issued by courts in other 25766 counties pursuant to this section and that have been registered 25767 with the clerk. 25768

(N) If the court orders electronic monitoring of the 25769
respondent under this section, the court shall direct the 25770 sheriff's office or any other appropriate law enforcement agency 25771 to install the electronic monitoring device and to monitor the 25772 respondent. Unless the court determines that the respondent is 25773 indigent, the court shall order the respondent to pay the cost of 25774
the installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring 25775 device. If the court determines that the respondent is indigent 25776 and subject to the maximum amount allowable to be paid in any year 25777 from the fund and the rules promulgated by the attorney general 25778 under section 2903.214 of the Revised Code, the cost of the 25779 installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring device 25780 may be paid out of funds from the reparations fund created 25781 pursuant to section 2743.191 of the Revised Code. The total amount 25782 paid from the reparations fund created pursuant to section 25783 2743.191 of the Revised Code for electronic monitoring under this 25784 section and sections 2903.214 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code 25785 shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars per year. When the 25786 total amount paid from the reparations fund in any year for 25787 electronic monitoring under those sections equals or exceeds three 25788 hundred thousand dollars, the court shall not order pursuant to 25789 this section that an indigent respondent be electronically 25790 monitored. 25791

(O) The court, in its discretion, may determine if the 25792 respondent is entitled to court-appointed counsel in a proceeding 25793
under this section. 25794

Sec. 2151.353. (A) If a child is adjudicated an abused, 25795

A person identified in a complaint or motion filed by a party to the proceedings as a proposed legal custodian shall be awarded legal custody of the child only if the person identified signs a statement of understanding for legal custody that contains at least the following provisions:

(a) That it is the intent of the person to become the legal custodian of the child and the person is able to assume legal responsibility for the care and supervision of the child;

2151.414 of the Revised Code that the child cannot be placed with 25850 one of the child's parents within a reasonable time or should not 25851 be placed with either parent and determines in accordance with 25852 division (D)(1) of section 2151.414 of the Revised Code that the 25853 permanent commitment is in the best interest of the child. If the 25854 court grants permanent custody under this division, the court, 25855 upon the request of any party, shall file a written opinion 25856 setting forth its findings of fact and conclusions of law in 25857 relation to the proceeding. 25858 years of age or older, and that one of the following exists: 25866

(a) The child, because of physical, mental, or psychological 25867

(D)(1) of section 2151.414 of the Revised Code, and the child 25876 retains a significant and positive relationship with a parent or 25877 relative. 25878

section 2151.03 of the Revised Code, or who is the parent, 25886 guardian, or custodian of a child who is adjudicated a dependent 25887 child and order any person not to have contact with the child or 25888 the child's siblings. 25889 child in a planned permanent living arrangement pursuant to 25891 division (A)(5)(b) or (c) of this section, the court shall 25892 consider all relevant information that has been presented to the 25893 court, including information gathered from the child, the child's 25894 guardian ad litem, and the public children services agency or 25895 private child placing agency. 25896 arrangement pursuant to division (A)(5)(b) or (c) of this section 25898 shall be placed in an independent living setting or in a family 25899 setting in which the caregiver has been provided by the agency 25900 that has custody of the child with a notice that addresses the 25901

following: 25902

(C) No order for permanent custody or temporary custody of a child or the placement of a child in a planned permanent living arrangement shall be made pursuant to this section unless the complaint alleging the abuse, neglect, or dependency contains a prayer requesting permanent custody, temporary custody, or the placement of the child in a planned permanent living arrangement as desired, the summons served on the parents of the child contains as is appropriate a full explanation that the granting of an order for permanent custody permanently divests them of their parental rights, a full explanation that an adjudication that the child is an abused, neglected, or dependent child may result in an order of temporary custody that will cause the removal of the child from their legal custody until the court terminates the order of temporary custody or permanently divests the parents of their parental rights, or a full explanation that the granting of an order for a planned permanent living arrangement will result in the removal of the child from their legal custody if any of the 25935 conditions listed in divisions (A)(5)(a) to (c) of this section 25936 are found to exist, and the summons served on the parents contains 25937 a full explanation of their right to be represented by counsel and 25938 to have counsel appointed pursuant to Chapter 120. of the Revised 25939 Code if they are indigent. 25940

If after making disposition as authorized by division (A)(2) 25941 of this section, a motion is filed that requests permanent custody 25942 of the child, the court may grant permanent custody of the child 25943 to the movant in accordance with section 2151.414 of the Revised 25944
Code. 25945

(D) If the court issues an order for protective supervision 25946 pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section, the court may place 25947 any reasonable restrictions upon the child, the child's parents, 25948 guardian, or custodian, or any other person, including, but not 25949 limited to, any of the following: 25950

(1) Order a party, within forty-eight hours after the 25951 issuance of the order, to vacate the child's home indefinitely or 25952 for a specified period of time; 25953

(2) Order a party, a parent of the child, or a physical 25954 custodian of the child to prevent any particular person from 25955 having contact with the child; 25956

(3) Issue an order restraining or otherwise controlling the 25957 conduct of any person which conduct would not be in the best 25958 interest of the child. 25959

(E) As part of its dispositional order, the court shall 25960 journalize a case plan for the child. The journalized case plan 25961 shall not be changed except as provided in section 2151.412 of the 25962
Revised Code. 25963

(F)(1) The court shall retain jurisdiction over any child for 25964 whom the court issues an order of disposition pursuant to division 25965

(A) of this section or pursuant to section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the Revised Code until the child attains the age of eighteen years if the child is not mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, or physically impaired, the child attains the age of twenty-one years if the child is mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, or physically impaired, or the child is adopted and a final decree of adoption is issued, except that the court may retain jurisdiction over the child and continue any order of disposition under division (A) of this section or under section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the Revised Code for a specified period of time to enable the child to graduate from high school or vocational school. The court shall retain jurisdiction over a person who meets the requirements described in division (A)(1) of section 5101.1411 of the Revised Code and who is subject to a voluntary participation agreement that is in effect. The court shall make an entry continuing its jurisdiction under this division in the journal.

(G) Any temporary custody order issued pursuant to division (A) of this section shall terminate one year after the earlier of the date on which the complaint in the case was filed or the child 25998 was first placed into shelter care, except that, upon the filing 25999 of a motion pursuant to section 2151.415 of the Revised Code, the 26000 temporary custody order shall continue and not terminate until the 26001 court issues a dispositional order under that section. In 26002 resolving the motion, the court shall not order an existing 26003 temporary custody order to continue beyond two years after the 26004 date on which the complaint was filed or the child was first 26005 placed into shelter care, whichever date is earlier, regardless of 26006 whether any extensions have been previously ordered pursuant to 26007 division (D) of section 2151.415 of the Revised Code. 26008

(H)(1) No later than one year after the earlier of the date 26009 the complaint in the case was filed or the child was first placed 26010 in shelter care, a party may ask the court to extend an order for 26011 protective supervision for six months or to terminate the order. A 26012 party requesting extension or termination of the order shall file 26013 a written request for the extension or termination with the court 26014 and give notice of the proposed extension or termination in 26015 writing before the end of the day after the day of filing it to 26016 all parties and the child's guardian ad litem. If a public 26017 children services agency or private child placing agency requests 26018 termination of the order, the agency shall file a written status 26019 report setting out the facts supporting termination of the order 26020 at the time it files the request with the court. If no party 26021 requests extension or termination of the order, the court shall 26022 notify the parties that the court will extend the order for six 26023 months or terminate it and that it may do so without a hearing 26024 unless one of the parties requests a hearing. All parties and the 26025 guardian ad litem shall have seven days from the date a notice is 26026 sent pursuant to this division to object to and request a hearing 26027 on the proposed extension or termination. 26028

(a) If it receives a timely request for a hearing, the court 26029 shall schedule a hearing to be held no later than thirty days 26030 after the request is received by the court. The court shall give 26031 notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing to all 26032 parties and the guardian ad litem. At the hearing, the court shall 26033 determine whether extension or termination of the order is in the 26034 child's best interest. If termination is in the child's best 26035 interest, the court shall terminate the order. If extension is in 26036 the child's best interest, the court shall extend the order for 26037 six months. 26038

(b) If it does not receive a timely request for a hearing, 26039 the court may extend the order for six months or terminate it 26040 without a hearing and shall journalize the order of extension or 26041 termination not later than fourteen days after receiving the 26042 request for extension or termination or after the date the court 26043 notifies the parties that it will extend or terminate the order. 26044
If the court does not extend or terminate the order, it shall 26045 schedule a hearing to be held no later than thirty days after the 26046 expiration of the applicable fourteen-day time period and give 26047 notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing to all 26048 parties and the child's guardian ad litem. At the hearing, the 26049 court shall determine whether extension or termination of the 26050 order is in the child's best interest. If termination is in the 26051 child's best interest, the court shall terminate the order. If 26052 extension is in the child's best interest, the court shall issue 26053 an order extending the order for protective supervision six 26054 months. 26055

(2) If the court grants an extension of the order for 26056 protective supervision pursuant to division (H)(1) of this 26057 section, a party may, prior to termination of the extension, file 26058 with the court a request for an additional extension of six months 26059 or for termination of the order. The court and the parties shall 26060 comply with division (H)(1) of this section with respect to 26061 extending or terminating the order. 26062

(3) If a court grants an extension pursuant to division 26063
(H)(2) of this section, the court shall terminate the order for 26064 protective supervision at the end of the extension. 26065

(I) The court shall not issue a dispositional order pursuant 26066 to division (A) of this section that removes a child from the 26067 child's home unless the court complies with section 2151.419 of 26068 the Revised Code and includes in the dispositional order the 26069 findings of fact required by that section. 26070

(J) If a motion or application for an order described in 26071 division (A)(6) of this section is made, the court shall not issue 26072 the order unless, prior to the issuance of the order, it provides 26073 to the person all of the following: 26074

(1) Notice and a copy of the motion or application; 26075

(2) The grounds for the motion or application; 26076

(3) An opportunity to present evidence and witnesses at a 26077 hearing regarding the motion or application; 26078

(4) An opportunity to be represented by counsel at the 26079 hearing. 26080

(K) The jurisdiction of the court shall terminate one year 26081 after the date of the award or, if the court takes any further 26082 action in the matter subsequent to the award, the date of the 26083 latest further action subsequent to the award, if the court awards 26084 legal custody of a child to either of the following: 26085

(1) A legal custodian who, at the time of the award of legal 26086 custody, resides in a county of this state other than the county 26087 in which the court is located; 26088

(2) A legal custodian who resides in the county in which the 26089 court is located at the time of the award of legal custody, but 26090 moves to a different county of this state prior to one year after 26091 the date of the award or, if the court takes any further action in 26092 the matter subsequent to the award, one year after the date of the 26093 latest further action subsequent to the award. 26094

The court in the county in which the legal custodian resides 26095 then shall have jurisdiction in the matter. 26096

Sec. 2151.417. (A) Any court that issues a dispositional 26097 order pursuant to section 2151.353, 2151.414, or 2151.415 of the 26098 Revised Code may review at any time the child's placement or 26099 custody arrangement, the case plan prepared for the child pursuant 26100 to section 2151.412 of the Revised Code, the actions of the public 26101 children services agency or private child placing agency in 26102 implementing that case plan, the child's permanency plan if the 26103 child's permanency plan has been approved, and any other aspects 26104 of the child's placement or custody arrangement. In conducting the 26105 review, the court shall determine the appropriateness of any 26106 agency actions, the safety and appropriateness of continuing the 26107 child's placement or custody arrangement, and whether any changes 26108 should be made with respect to the child's permanency plan or 26109 placement or custody arrangement or with respect to the actions of 26110 the agency under the child's placement or custody arrangement. 26111 Based upon the evidence presented at a hearing held after notice 26112 to all parties and the guardian ad litem of the child, the court 26113 may require the agency, the parents, guardian, or custodian of the 26114 child, and the physical custodians of the child to take any 26115 reasonable action that the court determines is necessary and in 26116 the best interest of the child or to discontinue any action that 26117 it determines is not in the best interest of the child. 26118

(B) If a court issues a dispositional order pursuant to 26119 section 2151.353, 2151.414, or 2151.415 of the Revised Code, the 26120 court has continuing jurisdiction over the child as set forth in 26121 division (F)(1) of section 2151.353 of the Revised Code. The court 26122 may amend a dispositional order in accordance with division (F)(2) 26123 of section 2151.353 of the Revised Code at any time upon its own 26124 motion or upon the motion of any interested party. The court shall 26125 comply with section 2151.42 of the Revised Code in amending any 26126 dispositional order pursuant to this division. 26127

(C)(1) Any court that issues a dispositional order pursuant 26128 to section 2151.353, 2151.414, or 2151.415 of the Revised Code 26129 shall hold a review hearing one year after the earlier of the date 26130 on which the complaint in the case was filed or the child was 26131 first placed into shelter care to review the case plan prepared 26132 pursuant to section 2151.412 of the Revised Code and the child's 26133 placement or custody arrangement, to approve or review the 26134 permanency plan for the child, and to make changes to the case 26135 plan and placement or custody arrangement consistent with the 26136 permanency plan. The court shall schedule the review hearing at 26137 the time that it holds the dispositional hearing pursuant to 26138
section 2151.35 of the Revised Code. 26139

(2) The court shall hold a similar review hearing no later 26140 than every twelve months after the initial review hearing until 26141 the child is adopted, returned to the parents, or the court 26142 otherwise terminates the child's placement or custody arrangement, 26143 except that the dispositional hearing held pursuant to section 26144 2151.415 of the Revised Code shall take the place of the first 26145 review hearing to be held under this section. The court shall 26146 schedule each subsequent review hearing at the conclusion of the 26147 review hearing immediately preceding the review hearing to be 26148 scheduled. 26149

(3) The court is not required to continue holding review 26150 hearings under divisions (C)(1) and (2) of this section regarding 26151 a child subject to an order of legal custody under section 26152 2151.353 or 2151.415 of the Revised Code, if all of the following 26153
apply: 26154

(a) The child is not subject to an order of protective supervision under section 2151.353 or 2151.415 of the Revised Code. 26155
26157

(b) A public children services agency or private child placing agency is not providing services to the child. 26158
26159

(c) The court finds that further review under divisions (C)(1) and (2) of this section are no longer necessary to serve the child's best interests. 26160

(D) If, within fourteen days after a written summary of an administrative review is filed with the court pursuant to section 2151.416 of the Revised Code, the court does not approve the proposed change to the case plan filed pursuant to division (E) of section 2151.416 of the Revised Code or a party or the guardian ad litem requests a review hearing pursuant to division (E) of that section, the court shall hold a review hearing in the same manner that it holds review hearings pursuant to division (C) of this section, except that if a review hearing is required by this division and if a hearing is to be held pursuant to division (C) of this section or section 2151.415 of the Revised Code, the hearing held pursuant to division (C) of this section or section 2151.415 of the Revised Code shall take the place of the review hearing required by this division. 26163
26166
26167
26168
26169
26170
26171
26172
26173
26174
26176

(E) If a court determines pursuant to section 2151.419 of the Revised Code that a public children services agency or private child placing agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to prevent the removal of a child from the child's home, eliminate the continued removal of a child from the child's home, and return the child to the child's home, and the court does not return the child to the child's home pursuant to division (A)(3) of section 2151.419 of the Revised Code, the court shall hold a review hearing to approve the permanency plan for the child and, if appropriate, to make changes to the child's case plan and the 26177
26178
26180
26181
26182
26183
26184
26185
26186

child's placement or custody arrangement consistent with the 26187 permanency plan. The court may hold the hearing immediately 26188 following the determination under section 2151.419 of the Revised 26189 Code and shall hold it no later than thirty days after making that 26190 determination. 26191

(F) The court shall give notice of the review hearings held 26192 pursuant to this section to every interested party, including, but 26193 not limited to, the appropriate agency employees who are 26194 responsible for the child's care and planning, the child's 26195 parents, any person who had guardianship or legal custody of the 26196 child prior to the custody order, the child's guardian ad litem, 26197 and the child. The court shall summon every interested party to 26198 appear at the review hearing and give them an opportunity to 26199 testify and to present other evidence with respect to the child's 26200 custody arrangement, including, but not limited to, the following: 26201 the case plan for the child; the permanency plan, if one exists; 26202 the actions taken by the child's custodian; the need for a change 26203 in the child's custodian or caseworker; and the need for any 26204 specific action to be taken with respect to the child. The court 26205 shall require any interested party to testify or present other 26206 evidence when necessary to a proper determination of the issues 26207 presented at the review hearing. In any review hearing that 26208 pertains to a permanency plan for a child who will not be returned 26209 to the parent, the court shall consider in-state and out-of-state 26210 placement options and the court shall determine whether the 26211 in-state or the out-of-state placement continues to be appropriate 26212 and in the best interests of the child. In any review hearing that 26213 pertains to a permanency plan for a child, the court or a citizens 26214 board appointed by the court pursuant to division (H) of this 26215 section shall consult with the child, in an age-appropriate 26216 manner, regarding the proposed permanency plan for the child. 26217

(G) After the review hearing, the court shall take the 26218 following actions based upon the evidence presented: 26219

(1) If an administrative review has been conducted, determine 26220 whether the conclusions of the review are supported by a 26221 preponderance of the evidence and approve or modify the case plan 26222 based upon that evidence; 26223

(2) If the hearing was held under division (C) or (E) of this 26224 section, approve a permanency plan for the child that specifies 26225 whether and, if applicable, when the child will be safely returned 26226 home or placed for adoption, for legal custody, or in a planned 26227 permanent living arrangement. A permanency plan approved after a 26228 hearing under division (E) of this section shall not include any 26229 provision requiring the child to be returned to the child's home. 26230

(3) If the child is in temporary custody, do all of the 26231
following: 26232

(a) Determine whether the child can and should be returned 26233 home with or without an order for protective supervision; 26234

(b) If the child can and should be returned home with or 26235 without an order for protective supervision, terminate the order 26236 for temporary custody; 26237

(c) If the child cannot or should not be returned home with 26238 an order for protective supervision, determine whether the agency 26239 currently with custody of the child should retain custody or 26240 whether another public children services agency, private child 26241 placing agency, or an individual should be given custody of the 26242
child. 26243

The court shall comply with section 2151.42 of the Revised 26244
Code in taking any action under this division. 26245

(4) If the child is in permanent custody, determine what 26246 actions are required by the custodial agency and of any other 26247 organizations or persons in order to facilitate an adoption of the 26248 child and make any appropriate orders with respect to the custody 26249 arrangement or conditions of the child, including, but not limited 26250 to, a transfer of permanent custody to another public children 26251 services agency or private child placing agency; 26252

(5) Journalize the terms of the updated case plan for the 26253
child. 26254

(H) The court may appoint a referee or a citizens review 26255 board to conduct the review hearings that the court is required by 26256 this section to conduct, subject to the review and approval by the 26257 court of any determinations made by the referee or citizens review 26258 board. If the court appoints a citizens review board to conduct 26259 the review hearings, the board shall consist of one member 26260 representing the general public and four members who are trained 26261 or experienced in the care or placement of children and have 26262 training or experience in the fields of medicine, psychology, 26263 social work, education, or any related field. Of the initial 26264 appointments to the board, two shall be for a term of one year, 26265 two shall be for a term of two years, and one shall be for a term 26266 of three years, with all the terms ending one year after the date 26267 on which the appointment was made. Thereafter, all terms of the 26268 board members shall be for three years and shall end on the same 26269 day of the same month of the year as did the term that they 26270 succeed. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to 26271 the expiration of the term for which the member's predecessor was 26272 appointed shall hold office for the remainder of the term. 26273

(I) A copy of the court's determination following any review 26274 hearing held pursuant to this section shall be sent to the 26275 custodial agency, the guardian ad litem of the child who is the 26276 subject of the review hearing, and, if that child is not the 26277 subject of a permanent commitment hearing, the parents of the 26278 child. 26279

(J) If the hearing held under this section takes the place of 26280 an administrative review that otherwise would have been held under 26281 section 2151.416 of the Revised Code, the court at the hearing 26282 held under this section shall do all of the following in addition 26283 to any other requirements of this section: 26284

(1) Determine the continued necessity for and the safety and 26285 appropriateness of the child's placement; 26286

(2) Determine the extent of compliance with the child's case 26287
plan; 26288

(3) Determine the extent of progress that has been made 26289 toward alleviating or mitigating the causes necessitating the 26290 child's placement in foster care; 26291

(4) Project a likely date by which the child may be safely 26292 returned home or placed for adoption or legal custody. 26293

(K)(1) Whenever the court is required to approve a permanency 26294 plan under this section or section 2151.415 of the Revised Code, 26295 the public children services agency or private child placing 26296 agency that filed the complaint in the case, has custody of the 26297 child, or will be given custody of the child shall develop a 26298 permanency plan for the child. The agency must file the plan with 26299 the court prior to the hearing under this section or section 26300
2151.415 of the Revised Code. 26301

(2) The permanency plan developed by the agency must specify 26302 whether and, if applicable, when the child will be safely returned 26303 home or placed for adoption or legal custody. If the agency 26304 determines that there is a compelling reason why returning the 26305 child home or placing the child for adoption or legal custody is 26306 not in the best interest of the child, the plan shall provide that 26307 the child will be placed in a planned permanent living 26308 arrangement. A permanency plan developed as a result of a 26309 determination made under division (A)(2) of section 2151.419 of 26310 the Revised Code may not include any provision requiring the child 26311 to be returned home. 26312

(3)(a) Whenever a court is required under this section or 26313 section 2151.415 or 2151.419 of the Revised Code to conduct a 26314 review hearing to approve a permanency plan, the court shall 26315 determine whether the agency required to develop the plan has made 26316 effective date. 27099

wrongfully imprisoned individual. The board shall take all actions 27135 necessary to cause the payment of that amount out of the emergency 27136 purposes special purpose account of the board. 27137

(5) If an individual was serving at the time of the wrongful 27138 imprisonment concurrent sentences on other convictions that were 27139 not vacated, dismissed, or reversed on appeal, the individual is 27140 not eligible for compensation as described in this section for any 27141 portion of that wrongful imprisonment that occurred during a 27142 concurrent sentence of that nature. 27143

(C)(1) In a civil action under this section, a wrongfully 27144 imprisoned individual has the right to have counsel of the 27145

(2) If a wrongfully imprisoned individual who is the subject 27147 of a court determination as described in division (B)(2) of this 27148 imprisoned individual, that reminds the wrongfully imprisoned 27155 individual of the wrongfully imprisoned individual's rights under 27156 this section. Until the statute of limitations provided in 27157 division (H) of this section expires and unless the wrongfully 27158 imprisoned individual commences a civil action under this section, 27159 the clerk of the court of claims shall send a similar letter in a 27160 similar manner to the wrongfully imprisoned individual at least 27161 once each three months after the sending of the first reminder. 27162

(D) Notwithstanding any provisions of this chapter to the 27163 contrary, a wrongfully imprisoned individual has and may file a 27164 civil action against the state, in the court of claims, to recover 27165 a sum of money as described in this section, because of the 27166 individual's wrongful imprisonment. The court of claims shall have 27167 exclusive, original jurisdiction over such a civil action. The 27168 civil action shall proceed, be heard, and be determined as 27169 provided in sections 2743.01 to 2743.20 of the Revised Code, 27170 except that if a provision of this section conflicts with a 27171 provision in any of those sections, the provision in this section 27172 controls. 27173

(E)(1) In a civil action as described in division (D) of this 27174 section, the complainant may establish that the claimant is a 27175 wrongfully imprisoned individual by submitting to the court of 27176 claims a certified copy of the judgment entry of the court of 27177 common pleas associated with the claimant's conviction and 27178 sentencing, and a certified copy of the entry of the determination 27179 of the court of common pleas that the claimant is a wrongfully 27180 imprisoned individual under division (B)(2) of this section. No 27181 other evidence shall be required of the complainant to establish 27182 that the claimant is a wrongfully imprisoned individual, and the 27183 claimant shall be irrebuttably presumed to be a wrongfully 27184 imprisoned individual. 27185

(2) In a civil action as described in division (D) of this 27186 section, upon presentation of requisite proof to the court of 27187 claims, a wrongfully imprisoned individual is entitled to receive 27188 a sum of money that equals the total of each of the following 27189
amounts: 27190

(a) The amount of any fine or court costs imposed and paid, 27191 and the reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses incurred by 27192 the wrongfully imprisoned individual in connection with all 27193 associated criminal proceedings and appeals, and, if applicable, 27194 in connection with obtaining the wrongfully imprisoned 27195 individual's discharge from confinement in the state correctional 27196 institution; 27197

(b) For each full year of imprisonment in the state 27198 correctional institution for the offense of which the wrongfully 27199 imprisoned individual was found guilty, forty thousand three 27200 hundred thirty dollars or the adjusted amount determined by the 27201 auditor of state pursuant to section 2743.49 of the Revised Code, 27202 and for each part of a year of being so imprisoned, a pro-rated 27203 share of forty thousand three hundred thirty dollars or the 27204 adjusted amount determined by the auditor of state pursuant to 27205
section 2743.49 of the Revised Code; 27206

(c) Any loss of wages, salary, or other earned income that 27207 directly resulted from the wrongfully imprisoned individual's 27208 arrest, prosecution, conviction, and wrongful imprisonment; 27209

(d) The amount of the following cost debts the department of 27210 rehabilitation and correction recovered from the wrongfully 27211 imprisoned individual who was in custody of the department or 27212 under the department's supervision: 27213

(i) Any user fee or copayment for services at a detention 27214 facility, including, but not limited to, a fee or copayment for 27215 sick call visits; 27216

(ii) The cost of housing and feeding the wrongfully 27217 imprisoned individual in a detention facility; 27218

(iii) The cost of supervision of the wrongfully imprisoned 27219 individual; 27220

(iv) The cost of any ancillary services provided to the 27221 wrongfully imprisoned individual. 27222

(3) The court of claims shall deduct any known debts owed by 27223 the wrongfully imprisoned individual to the state, as defined in 27224 division (A) of section 2743.01 of the Revised Code, or a 27225 political subdivision, as defined in division (B) of section 27226 2743.01 of the Revised Code, from the sum of money described in 27227 division (E)(2) of this section, and those deducted amounts shall 27228 be paid to the state or political subdivision, whichever is 27229
applicable. 27230

(F)(1) If the court of claims determines in a civil action as 27231 described in division (D) of this section that the complainant is 27232 a wrongfully imprisoned individual, it shall enter judgment for 27233 the wrongfully imprisoned individual in the amount of the sum of 27234 money to which the wrongfully imprisoned individual is entitled 27235 under division (E)(2) of this section. In determining that sum, 27236 the court of claims shall not take into consideration any expenses 27237 incurred by the state or any of its political subdivisions in 27238 connection with the arrest, prosecution, and imprisonment of the 27239 wrongfully imprisoned individual, including, but not limited to, 27240 expenses for food, clothing, shelter, and medical services. The 27241 court shall reduce that sum by the amount of the payment to the 27242 wrongfully imprisoned individual described in division (B)(4) of 27243

this section. 27244

(2) If the wrongfully imprisoned individual was represented 27245 in the civil action under this section by counsel of the 27246 wrongfully imprisoned individual's own choice, the court of claims 27247 shall include in the judgment entry referred to in division (F)(1) 27248 of this section an award for the reasonable attorney's fees of 27249 that counsel. These fees shall be paid as provided in division (G) 27250
of this section. 27251

(3) The state consents to be sued by a wrongfully imprisoned 27252 individual because the imprisonment was wrongful, and to liability 27253 on its part because of that fact, only as provided in this 27254 section. However, this section does not affect any liability of 27255 the state or of its employees to a wrongfully imprisoned 27256 individual on a claim for relief that is not based on the fact of 27257 the wrongful imprisonment, including, but not limited to, a claim 27258 for relief that arises out of circumstances occurring during the 27259 wrongfully imprisoned individual's confinement in the state 27260 correctional institution. 27261

(G) The clerk of the court of claims shall forward a 27262 certified copy of a judgment under division (F) of this section to 27263 the president of the controlling board. The board shall take all 27264 actions necessary to cause the payment of the judgment out of the 27265 emergency purposes special purpose account of the board. 27266

(H) To be eligible to recover a sum of money as described in 27267 this section because of wrongful imprisonment, both of the 27268 following shall apply to a wrongfully imprisoned individual: 27269

(1) The wrongfully imprisoned individual shall not have been, 27270 prior to September 24, 1986, the subject of an act of the general 27271 assembly that authorized an award of compensation for the wrongful 27272 imprisonment or have been the subject of an action before the 27273 former sundry claims board that resulted in an award of 27274 compensation for the wrongful imprisonment. 27275

(2) The wrongfully imprisoned individual shall commence a 27276 civil action under this section in the court of claims no later 27277 than two years after the date of the entry of the determination of 27278 the court of common pleas that the individual is a wrongfully 27279 imprisoned individual under division (B)(2) of this section. 27280

Sec. 2743.75. (A) In order to provide for an expeditious and 27281 economical procedure that attempts to resolve disputes alleging a 27282 denial of access to public records in violation of division (B) of 27283 section 149.43 of the Revised Code, except for a court that hears 27284 a mandamus action pursuant to that section, the court of claims 27285 shall be the sole and exclusive authority in this state that 27286 adjudicates or resolves complaints based on alleged violations of 27287 that section. The clerk of the court of claims shall designate one 27288 or more current employees or hire one or more individuals to serve 27289 as special masters to hear complaints brought under this section. 27290
All special masters shall have been engaged in the practice of law 27291 in this state for at least four years and be in good standing with 27292 the supreme court at the time of designation or hiring. The clerk 27293 may assign administrative and clerical work associated with 27294 complaints brought under this section to current employees or may 27295 hire such additional employees as may be necessary to perform such 27296 work. 27297

(B) The clerk of the court of common pleas in each county 27298 shall act as the clerk of the court of claims for purposes of 27299 accepting those complaints filed with the clerk under division 27300 (D)(1) of this section, accepting filing fees for those 27301 complaints, and serving those complaints. 27302

(C)(1) Subject to division (C)(2) of this section, a person 27303 allegedly aggrieved by a denial of access to public records in 27304 violation of division (B) of section 149.43 of the Revised Code 27305 may seek relief under that section or under this section, 27306 provided, however, that if the allegedly aggrieved person files a 27307 complaint under either section, that person may not seek relief 27308 that pertains to the same request for records in a complaint filed 27309 under the other section. 27310

(2) If the allegedly aggrieved person files a complaint under 27311 this section and the court of claims determines that the complaint 27312 constitutes a case of first impression that involves an issue of 27313 substantial public interest, the court shall dismiss the complaint 27314 without prejudice and direct the allegedly aggrieved person to 27315 commence a mandamus action in the court of appeals with 27316 appropriate jurisdiction as provided in division (C)(1) of section 27317
149.43 of the Revised Code. 27318

(D)(1) An allegedly aggrieved person who proceeds under this 27319 section shall file a complaint, on a form prescribed by the clerk 27320 of the court of claims, with the clerk of the court of claims or 27321 with the clerk of the court of common pleas of the county in which 27322 the public office from which the records are requested is located. 27323
The person shall attach to the complaint copies of the original 27324 records request and any written responses or other communications 27325 relating to the request from the public office or person 27326 responsible for public records and shall pay a filing fee of 27327 twenty-five dollars made payable to the clerk of the court with 27328 whom the complaint is filed. The clerk shall serve a copy of the 27329 complaint on the public office or person responsible for public 27330 records for the particular public office in accordance with Civil 27331 Rule 4.1 and, if the complaint is filed with the clerk of the 27332 court of common pleas, shall forward the complaint to the clerk of 27333 the court of claims, and to no other court, within three business 27334 days after service is complete. 27335

(2) Upon receipt of a complaint filed under division (D)(1) 27336 of this section, the clerk of the court of claims shall assign a 27337 case number for the action and a special master to examine the 27338 complaint. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this 27339 section, upon the recommendation of the special master, the court 27340 of claims on its own motion may dismiss the complaint at any time. 27341
The allegedly aggrieved person may voluntarily dismiss the 27342 complaint filed by that person under division (D)(1) of this 27343
section. 27344

(E)(1) Upon service of a complaint under division (D)(1) of 27345 this section, except as otherwise provided in this division, the 27346 special master assigned by the clerk under division (D)(2) of this 27347 section immediately shall refer the case to mediation services 27348 that the court of claims makes available to persons. If, in the 27349 interest of justice considering the circumstances of the case or 27350 the parties, the special master determines that the case should 27351 not be referred to mediation, the special master shall notify the 27352 court that the case was not referred to mediation, and the case 27353 shall proceed in accordance with division (F) of this section. If 27354 the case is referred to mediation, any further proceedings under 27355 division (F) of this section shall be stayed until the conclusion 27356 of the mediation. Any mediation proceedings under this division 27357 may be conducted by teleconference, telephone, or other electronic 27358 means. If an agreement is reached during mediation, the court 27359 shall dismiss the complaint. If an agreement is not reached, the 27360 special master shall notify the court that the case was not 27361 resolved and that the mediation has been terminated. 27362

(2) Within ten business days after the termination of the 27363 mediation or the notification to the court that the case was not 27364 referred to mediation under division (E)(1) of this section, the 27365 public office or person responsible for public records shall file 27366 a response, and if applicable, a motion to dismiss the complaint, 27367 with the clerk of the court of claims and transmit copies of the 27368 pleadings to the allegedly aggrieved party. No further motions or 27369 pleadings shall be accepted by the clerk of the court of claims or 27370 by the special master assigned by the clerk under division (D)(2) 27371 of this section unless the special master directs in writing that 27372 a further motion or pleading be filed. 27373

(3) All of the following apply prior to the submission of the 27374 special master's report and recommendation to the court of claims 27375 under division (F)(1) of this section: 27376

(a) The special master shall not permit any discovery. 27377

(b) The parties may attach supporting affidavits to their 27378 respective pleadings. 27379

(c) The special master may require either or both of the 27380 parties to submit additional information or documentation 27381 supported by affidavits. 27382

(F)(1) Not later than seven business days after receiving the 27383 response, or motion to dismiss the complaint, if applicable, of 27384 the public office or person responsible for public records, the 27385 special master shall submit to the court of claims a report and 27386 recommendation based on the ordinary application of statutory law 27387 and case law as they existed at the time of the filing of the 27388 complaint. For good cause shown, the special master may extend the 27389 seven-day period for the submission of the report and 27390 recommendation to the court of claims under this division by an 27391 additional seven business days. 27392

(2) Upon submission of the special master's report and 27393 recommendation to the court of claims under division (F)(1) of 27394 this section, the clerk shall send copies of the report and 27395 recommendation to each party by certified mail, return receipt 27396 requested, not later than three business days after the report and 27397 recommendation is filed. Either party may object to the report and 27398 recommendation within seven business days after receiving the 27399 report and recommendation by filing a written objection with the 27400 clerk and sending a copy to the other party by certified mail, 27401 return receipt requested. Any objection to the report and 27402 recommendation shall be specific and state with particularity all 27403 grounds for the objection. If neither party timely objects, the 27404 court of claims shall promptly issue a final order adopting the 27405 report and recommendation, unless it determines that there is an 27406 error of law or other defect evident on the face of the report and 27407 recommendation. If either party timely objects, the other party 27408 may file with the clerk a response within seven business days 27409 after receiving the objection and send a copy of the response to 27410 the objecting party by certified mail, return receipt requested. 27411

The court, within seven business days after the response to the 27412 objection is filed, shall issue a final order that adopts, 27413 modifies, or rejects the report and recommendation. 27414

(3) If the court of claims determines that the public office 27415 or person responsible for the public records denied the aggrieved 27416 person access to the public records in violation of division (B) 27417 of section 149.43 of the Revised Code and if no appeal from the 27418 court's final order is taken under division (G) of this section, 27419 both of the following apply: 27420

(a) The public office or the person responsible for the 27421 public records shall permit the aggrieved person to inspect or 27422 receive copies of the public records that the court requires to be 27423 disclosed in its order. 27424

(b) The aggrieved person shall be entitled to recover from 27425 the public office or person responsible for the public records the 27426 amount of the filing fee of twenty-five dollars and any other 27427 costs associated with the action that are incurred by the 27428 aggrieved person, but shall not be entitled to recover attorney's 27429 fees, except that division (G)(2) of this section applies if an appeal is taken under division (G)(1) of this section.

(G)(1) Any appeal from a final order of the court of claims under this section or from an order of the court of claims dismissing the complaint as provided in division (D)(2) of this section shall be taken to the court of appeals of the appellate district where the principal place of business of the public office from which the public record is requested is located. However, no appeal may be taken from a final order of the court of claims that adopts the special master's report and recommendation unless a timely objection to that report and recommendation was filed under division (F)(2) of this section. If the court of claims materially modifies the special master's report and recommendation, either party may take an appeal to the court of appeals of the appellate district of the principal place of business where that public office is located but the appeal shall be limited to the issue in the report and recommendation that is materially modified by the court of claims. In order to facilitate the expeditious resolution of disputes over alleged denials of access to public records in violation of division (B) of section 149.43 of the Revised Code, the appeal shall be given such precedence over other pending matters as will ensure that the court will reach a decision promptly.

to the aggrieved person in accordance with division (C) of section 27462 149.43 of the Revised Code. No discovery may be conducted on the 27463 issue of the public office or person responsible for the public 27464 records filing the appeal with the alleged intent to either delay 27465 compliance with the court of claims' order for no reasonable cause 27466 or unduly harass the aggrieved person. This division shall not be 27467 construed as creating a presumption that the public office or the 27468 person responsible for the public records filed the appeal with 27469 the intent to either delay compliance with the court of claims' 27470 order for no reasonable cause or unduly harass the aggrieved 27471 person. 27472

(H) The powers of the court of claims prescribed in section 27473 2743.05 of the Revised Code apply to the proceedings in that court 27474
under this section. 27475

(I)(1) All filing fees collected by a clerk of the court of 27476 common pleas under division (D)(1) of this section shall be paid 27477 to the county treasurer for deposit into the county general 27478 revenue fund. All such money collected during a month shall be 27479 transmitted on or before the twentieth day of the following month 27480 by the clerk of the court of common pleas to the county treasurer. 27481

(2) All filing fees collected by the clerk of the court of 27482 claims under division (D)(1) of this section shall be ~~kept~~ 27483 deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the public 27484 records fund, which is hereby created. Money credited to the fund 27485 shall be used by the court of claims to assist in paying for its 27486 costs to implement this section. All investment earnings of the 27487 fund shall be credited to the fund. Not later than the first day 27488 of February of each year, the clerk of the court of claims shall 27489 prepare a report accessible to the public that details the fees 27490 collected during the preceding calendar year by the clerk of the 27491 court of claims and the clerks of the courts of common pleas under 27492
this section. 27493

The motion shall be filed with the clerk of the court that has jurisdiction of the case at any time after the filing of the complaint. If the complaint involves a person who is a family or household member, the complainant, the alleged victim, or the family or household member may file a motion for a temporary protection order pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code.

(C)(1) As soon as possible after the filing of a motion that 27552 requests the issuance of a protection order under this section, 27553 but not later than the next day that the court is in session after 27554 determine whether to issue the order. The person who requested the order shall appear before the court and provide the court with the information that it requests concerning the basis of the motion. If the court finds that the safety and protection of the complainant or the alleged victim may be impaired by the continued presence of the alleged offender, the court may issue a protection order under this section, as a pretrial condition of release, that contains terms designed to ensure the safety and protection of the complainant or the alleged victim, including a requirement that the alleged offender refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment of the complainant or the alleged victim. The court may include within a protection order issued under this section a term requiring that the alleged offender not remove, damage, hide, harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by the complainant or the alleged victim, and may include within the order a term authorizing the complainant or the alleged victim to remove a companion animal owned by the complainant or the alleged victim from the possession of the alleged offender.

(b) Division (C)(2)(a) of this section does not limit any discretion of a court to determine that an alleged offender charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 27588 with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent 27589 to that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 27590 on an alleged violation of a protection order issued under this 27591 section, did not commit the violation or was not in contempt of 27592

court. 27593

(D)(1) Except when the complaint involves a person who is a 27594 family or household member as defined in section 2919.25 of the 27595 Revised Code, upon the filing of a complaint that alleges a 27596 violation specified in division (A) of this section, the court, 27597 upon its own motion, may issue a protection order under this 27598 section as a pretrial condition of release of the alleged offender 27599 if it finds that the safety and protection of the complainant or 27600 the alleged victim may be impaired by the continued presence of 27601 the alleged offender. 27602

(2)(a) If the court issues a protection order under this 27603 section as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as soon as 27604 possible after the issuance of the order but not later than the 27605 next day that the court is in session after its issuance, a 27606 hearing to determine whether the order should remain in effect, be 27607 modified, or be revoked. The hearing shall be conducted under the 27608 standards set forth in division (C) of this section. 27609

(b) If at a hearing conducted under division (D)(2)(a) of 27610
this section the court determines that the ex parte order that the 27611 court issued should be revoked, the court, on its own motion, 27612 shall order that the ex parte order that is revoked and all of the 27613 records pertaining to that ex parte order be expunged. 27614

(3) If a municipal court or a county court issues a 27615 protection order under this section and if, subsequent to the 27616 issuance of the order, the alleged offender who is the subject of 27617
the order is bound over to the court of common pleas for 27618 prosecution of a felony arising out of the same activities as 27619

those that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order is based, notwithstanding the fact that the order was issued by a municipal court or county court, the order shall remain in effect, as though it were an order of the court of common pleas, while the charges against the alleged offender are pending in the court of common pleas, for the period of time described in division (E)(2) of this section, and the court of common pleas has exclusive jurisdiction to modify the order issued by the municipal court or county court. This division applies when the alleged offender is bound over to the court of common pleas as a result of the person waiving a preliminary hearing on the felony charge, as a result of the municipal court or county court having determined at a preliminary hearing that there is probable cause to believe that the felony has been committed and that the alleged offender committed it, as a result of the alleged offender having been indicted for the felony, or in any other manner.

(E) A protection order that is issued as a pretrial condition of release under this section:

(1) Is in addition to, but shall not be construed as a part of, any bail set under Criminal Rule 46;

(2) Is effective only until the disposition, by the court that issued the order or, in the circumstances described in division (D)(3) of this section, by the court of common pleas to which the alleged offender is bound over for prosecution, of the criminal proceeding arising out of the complaint upon which the order is based or until the issuance under section 2903.214 of the Revised Code of a protection order arising out of the same activities as those that were the basis of the complaint filed under this section;

(3) Shall not be construed as a finding that the alleged offender committed the alleged offense and shall not be introduced as evidence of the commission of the offense at the trial of the alleged offender on the complaint upon which the order is based. 27652

(F) A person who meets the criteria for bail under Criminal 27653
Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that rule, 27654 executes or posts bond or deposits cash or securities as bail, 27655 shall not be held in custody pending a hearing before the court on 27656 a motion requesting a protection order under this section. 27657

(G)(1) A copy of a protection order that is issued under this 27658 section shall be issued by the court to the complainant, to the 27659 alleged victim, to the person who requested the order, to the 27660 defendant, and to all law enforcement agencies that have 27661 jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall direct that a 27662 copy of the order be delivered to the defendant on the same day 27663 that the order is entered. If a municipal court or a county court 27664 issues a protection order under this section and if, subsequent to 27665 the issuance of the order, the defendant who is the subject of the 27666 order is bound over to the court of common pleas for prosecution 27667 as described in division (D)(3) of this section, the municipal 27668 court or county court shall direct that a copy of the order be 27669 delivered to the court of common pleas to which the defendant is 27670 bound over. 27671

(2) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain 27672 an index for the protection orders delivered to the agencies 27673 pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section. With respect to each 27674 order delivered, each agency shall note on the index the date and 27675 time of the agency's receipt of the order. 27676

(3) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered the 27677 protection order in the county in which the officer's agency has 27678 jurisdiction, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall 27679 enforce a protection order issued pursuant to this section in 27680 accordance with the provisions of the order. 27681

(H) Upon a violation of a protection order issued pursuant to 27682 this section, the court may issue another protection order under 27683 this section, as a pretrial condition of release, that modifies 27684 the terms of the order that was violated. 27685

(I)(1) Subject to division (I)(2) of this section and 27686 regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 27687 agreement is approved by a court of another county or by a court 27688
of another state, no court or unit of state or local government 27689 shall charge the movant any fee, cost, deposit, or money in 27690 connection with the filing of a motion pursuant to this section, 27691
in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 27692
modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a 27693
protection order, consent agreement, or witness subpoena or for 27694 obtaining certified copies of a protection order or consent 27695
agreement. 27696

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a 27697 consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, if the 27698 defendant is convicted the court may assess costs against the 27699 defendant in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 27700 modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a 27701
protection order, consent agreement, or witness subpoena or for 27702 obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 27703
agreement. 27704

(1) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in 27706
section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 27707

(2) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 27708
959.131 of the Revised Code. 27709

(3) "Expunge" means to destroy, delete, and erase a record, 27710 as appropriate for the record's physical or electronic form or 27711

(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under this section.	27730 27731
(C) A person may seek relief under this section for the person, or any parent or adult household member may seek relief under this section on behalf of any other family or household member, by filing a petition with the court. The petition shall contain or state all of the following:	27732 27733 27734 27735 27736

of the nature and extent of the violation; 27742

(2) If the petitioner seeks relief in the form of electronic 27743 monitoring of the respondent, an allegation that at any time 27744 preceding the filing of the petition the respondent engaged in 27745 health, welfare, or safety of the person to be protected was at 27747 risk, a description of the nature and extent of that conduct, and 27748 an allegation that the respondent presents a continuing danger to 27749 the person to be protected; 27750

(3) A request for relief under this section. 27751

(D)(1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 27752
section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 27753 parte hearing as soon as possible after the petition is filed, but 27754 not later than the next day that the court is in session after the 27755 petition is filed. The court, for good cause shown at the ex parte 27756 hearing, may enter any temporary orders, with or without bond, 27757 that the court finds necessary for the safety and protection of 27758 the person to be protected by the order. Immediate and present 27759 danger to the person to be protected by the protection order 27760
constitutes good cause for purposes of this section. Immediate and 27761 present danger includes, but is not limited to, situations in 27762
which the respondent has threatened the person to be protected by 27763
the protection order with bodily harm or in which the respondent 27764 previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation 27765 of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code or a sexually oriented 27766 offense against the person to be protected by the protection 27767 order. 27768

(2)(a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues a 27769 protection order described in division (E) of this section, the 27770 court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is within ten 27771 court days after the ex parte hearing. The court shall give the 27772 respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be heard at, the full 27773 hearing. The court shall hold the full hearing on the date 27774 scheduled under this division unless the court grants a 27775 continuance of the hearing in accordance with this division. Under 27776 any of the following circumstances or for any of the following 27777 reasons, the court may grant a continuance of the full hearing to 27778 a reasonable time determined by the court: 27779

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 27780 this division, the respondent has not been served with the 27781 petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full 27782
hearing. 27783

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 27784

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain 27785 counsel. 27786

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 27787

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 27788 expire because of a failure to serve notice of the full hearing 27789 upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing under 27790 division (D)(2)(a) of this section or because the court grants a 27791 continuance under that division. 27792

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this section 27793 does not request an ex parte order, or if a person requests an ex 27794 parte order but the court does not issue an ex parte order after 27795 an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed as in a normal civil 27796 action and grant a full hearing on the matter. 27797

(E)(1)(a) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 27798 issue any protection order, with or without bond, that contains 27799 terms designed to ensure the safety and protection of the person 27800 to be protected by the protection order, including, but not 27801 limited to, a requirement that the respondent refrain from 27802 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 27803 of the petitioner or family or household member. If the court 27804 includes a requirement that the respondent refrain from entering 27805 the residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 27806 petitioner or family or household member in the order, it also 27807 shall include in the order provisions of the type described in 27808 division (E)(5) of this section. The court may include within a 27809 protection order issued under this section a term requiring that 27810 the respondent not remove, damage, hide, harm, or dispose of any 27811 companion animal owned or possessed by the person to be protected 27812 by the order, and may include within the order a term authorizing 27813 the person to be protected by the order to remove a companion 27814 animal owned by the person to be protected by the order from the 27815 possession of the respondent. 27816

(b) After a full hearing, if the court considering a petition 27817
that includes an allegation of the type described in division 27818
(C)(2) of this section, or the court upon its own motion, finds 27819
upon clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner reasonably 27820
believed that the respondent's conduct at any time preceding the 27821
filing of the petition endangered the health, welfare, or safety 27822 of the person to be protected and that the respondent presents a 27823 continuing danger to the person to be protected, the court may 27824 order that the respondent be electronically monitored for a period 27825
of time and under the terms and conditions that the court 27826
determines are appropriate. Electronic monitoring shall be in 27827

(2)(a) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 27829 shall be valid until a date certain but not later than five years 27830 from the date of its issuance. 27831

(b) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section may 27832
be renewed in the same manner as the original order was issued. 27833

(3) A court may not issue a protection order that requires a 27834
petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the court 27835
may require a respondent to do or to refrain from doing under 27836

division (E)(1) of this section unless all of the following apply: 27837

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a protection 27838 order in accordance with this section. 27839

(b) The petitioner is served with notice of the respondent's 27840 petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a 27841 hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the 27842 petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 27843

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 27844 pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not delay 27845 any hearing required by that division beyond the time specified in 27846 that division in order to consolidate the hearing with a hearing 27847 on the petition filed by the respondent. 27848

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 27849 evidence in support of the request for a protection order and the 27850 petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 27851 evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed a 27852 violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code against the 27853 person to be protected by the protection order issued pursuant to 27854 division (E)(3) of this section, has committed a sexually oriented 27855 offense against the person to be protected by the protection order 27856 issued pursuant to division (E)(3) of this section, or has 27857 violated a protection order issued pursuant to section 2903.213 of 27858 the Revised Code relative to the person to be protected by the 27859 protection order issued pursuant to division (E)(3) of this 27860
section. 27861

(4) No protection order issued pursuant to this section shall 27862 in any manner affect title to any real property. 27863

(5)(a) If the court issues a protection order under this 27864 section that includes a requirement that the alleged offender 27865 refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or place of 27866 employment of the petitioner or a family or household member, the 27867 order shall clearly state that the order cannot be waived or 27868 nullified by an invitation to the alleged offender from the 27869 complainant to enter the residence, school, business, or place of 27870 employment or by the alleged offender's entry into one of those 27871 places otherwise upon the consent of the petitioner or family or 27872 household member. 27873

(b) Division (E)(5)(a) of this section does not limit any 27874 discretion of a court to determine that an alleged offender 27875 charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 27876
with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent 27877
to that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 27878
on an alleged violation of a protection order issued under this 27879
court. 27881

(F)(1) The court shall cause the delivery of a copy of any 27882 protection order that is issued under this section to the 27883
petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement agencies 27884
that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall 27885 direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the respondent on 27886 the same day that the order is entered. 27887

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 27888
section, the court shall provide the parties to the order with the 27889

"NOTICE 27891

As a result of this order, it may be unlawful for you to 27892 possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or 27893
revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 27894 922(g)(8). If you have any questions whether this law makes it 27895 illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, 27896
you should consult an attorney." 27897

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain 27898

an index for the protection orders delivered to the agencies 27899 pursuant to division (F)(1) of this section. With respect to each 27900 order delivered, each agency shall note on the index the date and 27901 time that it received the order. 27902

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered the 27903
protection order in the county in which the officer's agency has 27904 jurisdiction pursuant to division (M) of this section, any officer 27905 of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a protection order 27906 issued pursuant to this section by any court in this state in 27907 accordance with the provisions of the order, including removing 27908
the respondent from the premises, if appropriate. 27909

(G)(1) Any proceeding under this section shall be conducted 27910 in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that a 27911 protection order may be obtained under this section with or 27912 without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an ex 27913 parte order, that grants a protection order, or that refuses to 27914 grant a protection order, is a final, appealable order. The 27915 remedies and procedures provided in this section are in addition 27916 to, and not in lieu of, any other available civil or criminal 27917 remedies. 27918

(2) If as provided in division (G)(1) of this section an 27919 order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, 27920 refuses to grant a protection order, the court, on its own motion, 27921 shall order that the ex parte order issued under this section and 27922 all of the records pertaining to that ex parte order be expunged 27923 after either of the following occurs: 27924

(a) The period of the notice of appeal from the order that 27925 refuses to grant a protection order has expired. 27926

(b) The order that refuses to grant the protection order is 27927
appealed and an appellate court to which the last appeal of that 27928 order is taken affirms the order. 27929

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 27930 excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 27931
law. 27933

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates an alleged 27934 violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code or an alleged 27935 commission of a sexually oriented offense shall provide 27936 information to the victim and the family or household members of 27937 the victim regarding the relief available under this section and 27938
section 2903.213 of the Revised Code. 27939

(J)(1) Subject to division (J)(2) of this section and 27940
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 27941 agreement is approved by a court of another county or by a court 27942
of another state, no court or unit of state or local government 27943
shall charge the petitioner any fee, cost, deposit, or money in 27944
connection with the filing of a petition pursuant to this section, 27945
in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 27946
modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a 27947
protection order, consent agreement, or witness subpoena or for 27948 obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 27949
agreement. 27950

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a 27951 consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the court 27952
may assess costs against the respondent in connection with the 27953
filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 27954
dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 27955 agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 27956
of a protection order or consent agreement. 27957

this section is subject to the following sanctions: 27959

(a) Criminal prosecution for a violation of section 2919.27 27960 of the Revised Code, if the violation of the protection order 27961 constitutes a violation of that section; 27962

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 27963

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 27964
violation of a protection order issued under this section does not 27965 bar criminal prosecution of the person for a violation of section 27966 2919.27 of the Revised Code. However, a person punished for 27967
contempt of court is entitled to credit for the punishment imposed 27968 upon conviction of a violation of that section, and a person 27969 convicted of a violation of that section shall not subsequently be 27970 punished for contempt of court arising out of the same activity. 27971

(L) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 27972
petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 27973

section or a protection order under section 2903.213 of the 27975 Revised Code may provide notice of the issuance or approval of the 27976 order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county 27977
other than the county in which the order is issued by registering 27978
that order in the other county pursuant to division (M)(2) of this 27979 section and filing a copy of the registered order with a law 27980 enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that 27981 division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a 27982 court of another state may provide notice of the issuance of the 27983
order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county 27984
of this state by registering the order in that county pursuant to 27985
section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a copy of the 27986 registered order with a law enforcement agency in that county. 27987

(2) A petitioner may register a protection order issued 27988 pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the Revised Code 27989 in a county other than the county in which the court that issued 27990 the order is located in the following manner: 27991

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the order 27992
from the clerk of the court that issued the order and present that 27993
certified copy to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the 27994
clerk of a municipal court or county court in the county in which 27995
the order is to be registered. 27996

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order for 27997 registration, the clerk of the court of common pleas, municipal 27998
court, or county court shall place an endorsement of registration 27999
on the order and give the petitioner a copy of the order that 28000
bears that proof of registration. 28001

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, municipal court, 28002
or county court shall maintain a registry of certified copies of 28003 protection orders that have been issued by courts in other 28004 counties pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the 28005 Revised Code and that have been registered with the clerk. 28006

respondent under this section, the court shall direct the 28008
sheriff's office or any other appropriate law enforcement agency 28009
to install the electronic monitoring device and to monitor the 28010
respondent. Unless the court determines that the respondent is 28011 indigent, the court shall order the respondent to pay the cost of 28012
the installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring 28013 device. If the court determines that the respondent is indigent 28014
and subject to the maximum amount allowable to be paid in any year 28015
from the fund and the rules promulgated by the attorney general 28016
under division (N)(2) of this section, the cost of the 28017 installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring device 28018
may be paid out of funds from the reparations fund created 28019 pursuant to section 2743.191 of the Revised Code. The total amount 28020 of costs for the installation and monitoring of electronic 28021 monitoring devices paid pursuant to this division and sections 28022 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code from the reparations fund 28023 shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars per year. 28024

(2) The attorney general may promulgate rules pursuant to 28025 section 111.15 of the Revised Code to govern payments made from 28026 the reparations fund pursuant to this division and sections 28027 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code. The rules may include 28028 reasonable limits on the total cost paid pursuant to this division 28029 and sections 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code per 28030 respondent, the amount of the three hundred thousand dollars 28031 allocated to each county, and how invoices may be submitted by a 28032 county, court, or other entity. 28033

Sec. 2919.26. (A)(1) Upon the filing of a complaint that 28034 alleges a violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 28035 2911.211 of the Revised Code if the alleged victim of the 28036 violation was a family or household member at the time of the 28037 violation, a violation of a municipal ordinance that is 28038 substantially similar to any of those sections if the alleged 28039 victim of the violation was a family or household member at the 28040 time of the violation, any offense of violence if the alleged 28041 victim of the offense was a family or household member at the time 28042 of the commission of the offense, or any sexually oriented offense 28043 if the alleged victim of the offense was a family or household 28044 member at the time of the commission of the offense, the 28045 complainant, the alleged victim, or a family or household member 28046 of an alleged victim may file, or, if in an emergency the alleged 28047 victim is unable to file, a person who made an arrest for the 28048 alleged violation or offense under section 2935.03 of the Revised 28049 Code may file on behalf of the alleged victim, a motion that 28050 requests the issuance of a temporary protection order as a 28051 pretrial condition of release of the alleged offender, in addition 28052 to any bail set under Criminal Rule 46. The motion shall be filed 28053 with the clerk of the court that has jurisdiction of the case at 28054 any time after the filing of the complaint. 28055

(2) For purposes of section 2930.09 of the Revised Code, all stages of a proceeding arising out of a complaint alleging the commission of a violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented offense described in division (A)(1) of this section, including all proceedings on a motion for a temporary protection order, are critical stages of the case, and a victim may be accompanied by a victim advocate or another person to provide support to the victim as provided in that section.

(B) The motion shall be prepared on a form that is provided by the clerk of the court, which form shall be substantially as follows:

A complaint, a copy of which has been attached to this motion, has been filed in this court charging the named defendant with ..... (name of the specified violation, the offense of violence, or sexually oriented offense charged) in circumstances in which the victim was a family or household member in violation of (section of the Revised Code designating the specified violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented offense charged), or charging the named defendant with a violation 28087 of a municipal ordinance that is substantially similar to 28088

..... (section of the Revised Code designating 28089 the specified violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented 28090 offense charged) involving a family or household member. 28091

I understand that I must appear before the court, at a time 28092 set by the court within twenty-four hours after the filing of this 28093
appear because of hospitalization or a medical condition resulting 28095 from the offense alleged in the complaint, a person who can 28096 provide information about my need for a temporary protection order 28097 must appear before the court in lieu of my appearing in court. I 28098 understand that any temporary protection order granted pursuant to 28099 this motion is a pretrial condition of release and is effective 28100 only until the disposition of the criminal proceeding arising out 28101 of the attached complaint, or the issuance of a civil protection 28102 order or the approval of a consent agreement, arising out of the 28103 same activities as those that were the basis of the complaint, 28104
under section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 28105

..... 28106

Signature of person 28107

(or signature of the arresting officer who filed the motion on 28108 behalf of the alleged victim) 28109

..... 28110

Address of person (or office address of the arresting officer who 28111 filed the motion on behalf of the alleged victim)" 28112

(C)(1) As soon as possible after the filing of a motion that 28113 requests the issuance of a temporary protection order, but not 28114 later than twenty-four hours after the filing of the motion, the 28115 court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether to issue the 28116 order. The person who requested the order shall appear before the 28117 court and provide the court with the information that it requests 28118 concerning the basis of the motion. If the person who requested 28119 the order is unable to appear and if the court finds that the 28120 failure to appear is because of the person's hospitalization or 28121 medical condition resulting from the offense alleged in the 28122 complaint, another person who is able to provide the court with 28123 the information it requests may appear in lieu of the person who 28124 requested the order. If the court finds that the safety and 28125 protection of the complainant, alleged victim, or any other family 28126 or household member of the alleged victim may be impaired by the 28127 continued presence of the alleged offender, the court may issue a 28128 temporary protection order, as a pretrial condition of release, 28129 that contains terms designed to ensure the safety and protection 28130 of the complainant, alleged victim, or the family or household 28131 member, including a requirement that the alleged offender refrain 28132 from entering the residence, school, business, or place of 28133 employment of the complainant, alleged victim, or the family or 28134 household member. The court may include within a protection order 28135 issued under this section a term requiring that the alleged 28136 offender not remove, damage, hide, harm, or dispose of any 28137 companion animal owned or possessed by the complainant, alleged 28138 victim, or any other family or household member of the alleged 28139 victim, and may include within the order a term authorizing the 28140 complainant, alleged victim, or other family or household member 28141 of the alleged victim to remove a companion animal owned by the 28142

from the possession of the alleged offender. 28144

(2)(a) If the court issues a temporary protection order that 28145 includes a requirement that the alleged offender refrain from 28146 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 28147
of the complainant, the alleged victim, or the family or household 28148 member, the order shall state clearly that the order cannot be 28149 waived or nullified by an invitation to the alleged offender from 28150

the complainant, alleged victim, or family or household member to 28151 enter the residence, school, business, or place of employment or 28152 by the alleged offender's entry into one of those places otherwise 28153 upon the consent of the complainant, alleged victim, or family or 28154
household member. 28155

(b) Division (C)(2)(a) of this section does not limit any 28156 discretion of a court to determine that an alleged offender 28157
charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 28158
with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent 28159
to that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 28160 on an alleged violation of a temporary protection order issued 28161 under this section, did not commit the violation or was not in 28162 contempt of court. 28163

(D)(1) Upon the filing of a complaint that alleges a 28164 violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 2911.211 of the 28165 Revised Code if the alleged victim of the violation was a family 28166 or household member at the time of the violation, a violation of a 28167 municipal ordinance that is substantially similar to any of those 28168 sections if the alleged victim of the violation was a family or 28169 household member at the time of the violation, any offense of 28170 violence if the alleged victim of the offense was a family or 28171 household member at the time of the commission of the offense, or 28172 any sexually oriented offense if the alleged victim of the offense 28173 was a family or household member at the time of the commission of 28174 the offense, the court, upon its own motion, may issue a temporary 28175 protection order as a pretrial condition of release if it finds 28176 that the safety and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, 28177 or other family or household member of the alleged offender may be 28178 impaired by the continued presence of the alleged offender. 28179

(2)(a) If the court issues a temporary protection order under 28180 this section as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as soon as 28181 possible after the issuance of the order, a hearing in the 28182 presence of the alleged offender not later than the next day on 28183 which the court is scheduled to conduct business after the day on 28184 which the alleged offender was arrested or at the time of the 28185 appearance of the alleged offender pursuant to summons to 28186 determine whether the order should remain in effect, be modified, 28187 or be revoked. The hearing shall be conducted under the standards 28188 set forth in division (C) of this section. 28189

(b) If at a hearing conducted under division (D)(2)(a) of 28190
this section the court determines that the ex parte order that the 28191
court issued should be revoked, the court, on its own motion, 28192 shall order that the ex parte order that is revoked and all of the 28193
records pertaining to that ex parte order be expunged. 28194

(3) An order issued under this section shall contain only 28195 those terms authorized in orders issued under division (C) of this 28196
section. 28197

(4) If a municipal court or a county court issues a temporary 28198 protection order under this section and if, subsequent to the 28199
issuance of the order, the alleged offender who is the subject of 28200
the order is bound over to the court of common pleas for 28201
prosecution of a felony arising out of the same activities as 28202 those that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order is 28203 based, notwithstanding the fact that the order was issued by a 28204 municipal court or county court, the order shall remain in effect, 28205 as though it were an order of the court of common pleas, while the 28206 charges against the alleged offender are pending in the court of 28207 common pleas, for the period of time described in division (E)(2) 28208 of this section, and the court of common pleas has exclusive 28209 jurisdiction to modify the order issued by the municipal court or 28210 county court. This division applies when the alleged offender is 28211 bound over to the court of common pleas as a result of the person 28212 waiving a preliminary hearing on the felony charge, as a result of 28213 the municipal court or county court having determined at a 28214 preliminary hearing that there is probable cause to believe that 28215 the felony has been committed and that the alleged offender 28216 committed it, as a result of the alleged offender having been 28217 indicted for the felony, or in any other manner. 28218

(E) A temporary protection order that is issued as a pretrial 28219 condition of release under this section: 28220

(1) Is in addition to, but shall not be construed as a part 28221 of, any bail set under Criminal Rule 46; 28222

(2) Is effective only until the occurrence of either of the 28223
following: 28224

(a) The disposition, by the court that issued the order or, 28225 in the circumstances described in division (D)(4) of this section, 28226 by the court of common pleas to which the alleged offender is 28227 bound over for prosecution, of the criminal proceeding arising out 28228 of the complaint upon which the order is based; 28229

(b) The issuance of a protection order or the approval of a 28230 consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those 28231 that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order is 28232 based, under section 3113.31 of the Revised Code; 28233

(3) Shall not be construed as a finding that the alleged 28234 offender committed the alleged offense, and shall not be 28235 introduced as evidence of the commission of the offense at the 28236 trial of the alleged offender on the complaint upon which the 28237 order is based. 28238

(F) A person who meets the criteria for bail under Criminal 28239
Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that rule, 28240 executes or posts bond or deposits cash or securities as bail, 28241 shall not be held in custody pending a hearing before the court on 28242
a motion requesting a temporary protection order. 28243

(G)(1) A copy of any temporary protection order that is 28244 issued under this section shall be issued by the court to the complainant, to the alleged victim, to the person who requested the order, to the defendant, and to all law enforcement agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the defendant on the same day that the order is entered. If a municipal court or a county court issues a temporary protection order under this section and if, subsequent to the issuance of the order, the defendant who is the subject of the order is bound over to the court of common pleas for prosecution as described in division (D)(4) of this section, the municipal court or county court shall direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the court of common pleas to which the defendant is bound over.

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this section, the court shall provide the parties to the order with the following notice orally or by form:

As a result of this protection order, it may be unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8). If you have any questions whether this law makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, you should consult an attorney."

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain an index for the temporary protection orders delivered to the agencies pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section. With respect to each order delivered, each agency shall note on the index, the date and time of the receipt of the order by the agency.

(4) A complainant, alleged victim, or other person who obtains a temporary protection order under this section may provide notice of the issuance of the temporary protection order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other than the county in which the order is issued by registering that 28277 order in the other county in accordance with division (N) of 28278 section 3113.31 of the Revised Code and filing a copy of the 28279 registered protection order with a law enforcement agency in the 28280 other county in accordance with that division. 28281

(5) Any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a 28282 temporary protection order issued by any court in this state in 28283 accordance with the provisions of the order, including removing 28284
the defendant from the premises, regardless of whether the order 28285 is registered in the county in which the officer's agency has 28286 jurisdiction as authorized by division (G)(4) of this section. 28287

(H) Upon a violation of a temporary protection order, the 28288 court may issue another temporary protection order, as a pretrial 28289 condition of release, that modifies the terms of the order that 28290 was violated. 28291

(I)(1) As used in divisions (I)(1) and (2) of this section, 28292 "defendant" means a person who is alleged in a complaint to have 28293 committed a violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented 28294 offense of the type described in division (A) of this section. 28295

(2) If a complaint is filed that alleges that a person 28296
committed a violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented 28297 offense of the type described in division (A) of this section, the 28298 court may not issue a temporary protection order under this 28299 section that requires the complainant, the alleged victim, or 28300 another family or household member of the defendant to do or 28301 refrain from doing an act that the court may require the defendant 28302 to do or refrain from doing under a temporary protection order 28303 unless both of the following apply: 28304

(a) The defendant has filed a separate complaint that alleges 28305 that the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or household 28306 member in question who would be required under the order to do or 28307 refrain from doing the act committed a violation or offense of 28308 violence of the type described in division (A) of this section. 28309

(b) The court determines that both the complainant, alleged 28310 victim, or other family or household member in question who would 28311 be required under the order to do or refrain from doing the act 28312 and the defendant acted primarily as aggressors, that neither the 28313 complainant, alleged victim, or other family or household member 28314

The court shall not grant the motion without a hearing. If a court 28924 denies a motion without a hearing, the court later may consider 28925 judicial release for that eligible offender on a subsequent motion 28926 filed by that eligible offender unless the court denies the motion 28927 with prejudice. If a court denies a motion with prejudice, the 28928 court may later consider judicial release on its own motion. If a 28929 court denies a motion after a hearing, the court shall not 28930 consider a subsequent motion for that eligible offender. The court 28931 shall hold only one hearing for any eligible offender. 28932

A hearing under this section shall be conducted in open court 28933 not less than thirty or more than sixty days after the motion is 28934 section 5120.66 of the Revised Code the offender's name and all of 28949 the information specified in division (A)(1)(c)(i) of that 28950 section. If the court schedules a hearing for judicial release, 28951 the court promptly shall give notice of the hearing to the 28952 prosecuting attorney of the county in which the eligible offender 28953 was indicted. Upon receipt of the notice from the court, the 28954 prosecuting attorney shall do whichever of the following is 28955

applicable: 28956

(1) Subject to division (E)(2) of this section, notify the 28957 victim of the offense or the victim's representative pursuant to 28958 representative of the hearing regardless of whether the victim or 28963 victim's representative has requested the notification. The notice 28964 of the hearing shall not be given under this division to a victim 28965 or victim's representative if the victim or victim's 28966 representative has requested pursuant to division (B)(2) of 28967 section 2930.03 of the Revised Code that the victim or the 28968 victim's representative not be provided the notice. If notice is 28969 to be provided to a victim or victim's representative under this 28970 division, the prosecuting attorney may give the notice by any 28971 reasonable means, including regular mail, telephone, and 28972 electronic mail, in accordance with division (D)(1) of section 28973 2930.16 of the Revised Code. If the notice is based on an offense 28974 committed prior to March 22, 2013, the notice also shall include 28975 the opt-out information described in division (D)(1) of section 28976

Code, shall keep a record of all attempts to provide the notice, 28979 and of all notices provided, under this division. Division (E)(2) 28980 of this section, and the notice-related provisions of division (K) 28981 of this section, division (D)(1) of section 2930.16, division (H) 28982

2967.28, and division (A)(2) of section 5149.101 of the Revised 28985
Code enacted in the act in which division (E)(2) of this section 28986 was enacted, shall be known as "Roberta's Law." 28987

(F) Upon an offender's successful completion of 28988 rehabilitative activities, the head of the state correctional 28989 institution may notify the sentencing court of the successful 28990 completion of the activities. 28991

(G) Prior to the date of the hearing on a motion for judicial 28992 release under this section, the head of the state correctional 28993 institution in which the eligible offender is confined shall send 28994 to the court an institutional summary report on the eligible 28995 offender's conduct in the institution and in any institution from 28996 which the eligible offender may have been transferred. Upon the 28997 request of the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the 28998 eligible offender was indicted or of any law enforcement agency, 28999 the head of the state correctional institution, at the same time 29000 the person sends the institutional summary report to the court, 29001 also shall send a copy of the report to the requesting prosecuting 29002 attorney and law enforcement agencies. The institutional summary 29003 report shall cover the eligible offender's participation in 29004 school, vocational training, work, treatment, and other 29005 rehabilitative activities and any disciplinary action taken 29006 against the eligible offender. The report shall be made part of 29007 the record of the hearing. A presentence investigation report is 29008 not required for judicial release. 29009

(H) If the court grants a hearing on a motion for judicial 29010 release under this section, the eligible offender shall attend the 29011 hearing if ordered to do so by the court. Upon receipt of a copy 29012 of the journal entry containing the order, the head of the state 29013 correctional institution in which the eligible offender is 29014 incarcerated shall deliver the eligible offender to the sheriff of 29015 the county in which the hearing is to be held. The sheriff shall 29016 convey the eligible offender to and from the hearing. 29017

(I) At the hearing on a motion for judicial release under 29018 this section, the court shall afford the eligible offender and the 29019 eligible offender's attorney an opportunity to present written 29020 and, if present, oral information relevant to the motion. The 29021 court shall afford a similar opportunity to the prosecuting 29022 attorney, the victim or the victim's representative, and any other 29023 person the court determines is likely to present additional 29024 relevant information. The court shall consider any statement of a 29025 victim made pursuant to section 2930.14 or 2930.17 of the Revised 29026 Code, any victim impact statement prepared pursuant to section 29027 2947.051 of the Revised Code, and any report made under division 29028
(G) of this section. The court may consider any written statement 29029 of any person submitted to the court pursuant to division (L) of 29030 this section. After ruling on the motion, the court shall notify 29031 the victim of the ruling in accordance with sections 2930.03 and 29032

(J)(1) A court shall not grant a judicial release under this 29034 section to an eligible offender who is imprisoned for a felony of 29035 the first or second degree, or to an eligible offender who 29036 committed an offense under Chapter 2925. or 3719. of the Revised 29037 Code and for whom there was a presumption under section 2929.13 of 29038 the Revised Code in favor of a prison term, unless the court, with 29039 reference to factors under section 2929.12 of the Revised Code, 29040 finds both of the following: 29041

(a) That a sanction other than a prison term would adequately 29042 punish the offender and protect the public from future criminal 29043 violations by the eligible offender because the applicable factors 29044 indicating a lesser likelihood of recidivism outweigh the 29045 applicable factors indicating a greater likelihood of recidivism; 29046

(b) That a sanction other than a prison term would not demean 29047 the seriousness of the offense because factors indicating that the 29048 eligible offender's conduct in committing the offense was less 29049 serious than conduct normally constituting the offense outweigh 29050 factors indicating that the eligible offender's conduct was more 29051 serious than conduct normally constituting the offense. 29052

(2) A court that grants a judicial release to an eligible 29053 offender under division (J)(1) of this section shall specify on 29054 the record both findings required in that division and also shall 29055 list all the factors described in that division that were 29056 presented at the hearing. 29057

(K) If the court grants a motion for judicial release under 29058 this section, the court shall order the release of the eligible 29059 offender, shall place the eligible offender under an appropriate 29060 community control sanction, under appropriate conditions, and 29061 under the supervision of the department of probation serving the 29062 court and shall reserve the right to reimpose the sentence that it 29063 reduced if the offender violates the sanction. If the court 29064 reimposes the reduced sentence, it may do so either concurrently 29065 with, or consecutive to, any new sentence imposed upon the 29066 eligible offender as a result of the violation that is a new 29067 offense. Except as provided in division (R)(2) of this section, 29068 the period of community control shall be no longer than five 29069 years. The court, in its discretion, may reduce the period of 29070 community control by the amount of time the eligible offender 29071 spent in jail or prison for the offense and in prison. If the 29072 court made any findings pursuant to division (J)(1) of this 29073 section, the court shall serve a copy of the findings upon counsel 29074 for the parties within fifteen days after the date on which the 29075 court grants the motion for judicial release. 29076

If the court grants a motion for judicial release, the court 29077 shall notify the appropriate person at the department of 29078 rehabilitation and correction, and the department shall post 29079 notice of the release on the database it maintains pursuant to 29080 section 5120.66 of the Revised Code. The court also shall notify 29081 the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the eligible 29082 offender was indicted that the motion has been granted. Unless the 29083 victim or the victim's representative has requested pursuant to 29084 division (B)(2) of section 2930.03 of the Revised Code that the 29085 victim or victim's representative not be provided the notice, the 29086 prosecuting attorney shall notify the victim or the victim's 29087

(N) Notwithstanding the eligibility requirements specified in 29110 division (A) of this section and the filing time frames specified 29111 in division (C) of this section and notwithstanding the findings 29112 required under division (J) of this section, the sentencing court, 29113 upon the court's own motion and after considering whether the 29114 release of the offender into society would create undue risk to 29115 public safety, may grant a judicial release to an offender who is 29116 not serving a life sentence at any time during the offender's 29117 imposed sentence when the director of rehabilitation and 29118 correction certifies to the sentencing court through the chief 29119 section is subject to the notice, hearing, and other procedural 29127 requirements specified in divisions (D), (E), (G), (H), (I), (K), 29128 and (L) of this section, except for the following: 29129

(1) The court may waive the offender's appearance at any 29130 hearing scheduled by the court if the offender's condition makes 29131 it impossible for the offender to participate meaningfully in the 29132 proceeding. 29133

(2) The court may grant the motion without a hearing, 29134 provided that the prosecuting attorney and victim or victim's 29135 division (E) of this section indicate that they do not wish to 29137 participate in the hearing or present information relevant to the 29138 motion. 29139

(Q) The court may request health care records from the 29140 department of rehabilitation and correction to verify the 29141 certification made under division (N) of this section. 29142

(R)(1) If the court grants judicial release under division 29143 community control is not subject to the five-year limitation 29154 described in division (K) of this section and shall not expire 29155 earlier than the date on which all of the offender's mandatory 29156 prison terms expire. 29157

(S) If the health of an offender who is released under 29158 division (N) of this section improves so that the offender is no 29159 longer terminally ill, medically incapacitated, or in imminent 29160 danger of death, the court shall, upon the court's own motion, 29161 revoke the judicial release. The court shall not grant the motion 29162 without a hearing unless the offender waives a hearing. If a 29163 hearing is held, the court shall afford the offender and the 29164 offender's attorney an opportunity to present written and, if the 29165 offender or the offender's attorney is present, oral information 29166 serve that term in an institution under the control of the 29177 department of rehabilitation and correction. 29178

(B)(1) A person who is convicted of or pleads guilty to a 29179 felony other than aggravated murder, murder, or an offense 29180 punishable by life imprisonment and who is sentenced to a term of 29181 imprisonment or a prison term pursuant to that conviction shall 29182 serve that term as follows: 29183

(a) Subject to divisions (B)(1)(b) ~~and~~, (B)(2), and (B)(3) of 29184 this section, in an institution under the control of the 29185

(3)(a) Except as provided in division (B)(3)(b) of this 29198 section, on and after July 1, 2018, no person sentenced to a 29199 that applies in the state fiscal year in which the sentence was 29234 imposed, as determined under division (B)(1) of section 5120.116 29235 of the Revised Code, or under an initial or continuing local 29236 confinement waiver with respect to that person, as determined 29237

under section 5120.117 of the Revised Code. 29238

(2) Order the release of an inmate who is confined in the 29269 objection; 29844

(e) Weigh the interests of the applicant in having the 29845 records pertaining to the applicant's conviction or bail 29846 forfeiture sealed against the legitimate needs, if any, of the 29847 government to maintain those records. 29848

(2) If the court determines, after complying with division 29849
(C)(1) of this section, that the applicant is an eligible offender 29850 or the subject of a bail forfeiture, that no criminal proceeding 29851 is pending against the applicant, ~~and~~ that the interests of the 29852 applicant in having the records pertaining to the applicant's 29853 conviction or bail forfeiture sealed are not outweighed by any 29854 legitimate governmental needs to maintain those records, and that 29855 the rehabilitation of an applicant who is an eligible offender 29856 applying pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section has been 29857 attained to the satisfaction of the court, the court, except as 29858 provided in ~~divisions~~ division (C)(4), (G), (H), or (I) of this 29859 section, shall order all official records of the case that pertain 29860 to the conviction or bail forfeiture sealed and, except as 29861 provided in division (F) of this section, all index references to 29862 the case that pertain to the conviction or bail forfeiture deleted 29863 and, in the case of bail forfeitures, shall dismiss the charges in 29864 the case. The proceedings in the case that pertain to the 29865 conviction or bail forfeiture shall be considered not to have 29866 occurred and the conviction or bail forfeiture of the person who 29867 is the subject of the proceedings shall be sealed, except that 29868 upon conviction of a subsequent offense, the sealed record of 29869 prior conviction or bail forfeiture may be considered by the court 29870 in determining the sentence or other appropriate disposition, 29871 including the relief provided for in sections 2953.31 to 2953.33 29872

of the Revised Code. 29873

(3) An applicant may request the sealing of the records of 29874 more than one case in a single application under this section. 29875 Upon the filing of an application under this section, the 29876 applicant, unless indigent, shall pay a fee of fifty dollars, 29877 regardless of the number of records the application requests to 29878 have sealed. The court shall pay thirty dollars of the fee into 29879 the state treasury. It shall pay twenty dollars of the fee into 29880 the county general revenue fund if the sealed conviction or bail 29881 forfeiture was pursuant to a state statute, or into the general 29882 revenue fund of the municipal corporation involved if the sealed 29883 conviction or bail forfeiture was pursuant to a municipal 29884 ordinance. 29885

(4) If the court orders the official records pertaining to 29886

the case sealed, the court shall do one of the following: 29887

(a) If the applicant was fingerprinted at the time of arrest 29888 or under section 109.60 of the Revised Code and the record of the 29889 applicant's fingerprints was provided to the court under division 29890
(B) of this section, forward a copy of the sealing order and the 29891 record of the applicant's fingerprints to the bureau of criminal 29892 identification and investigation. 29893

(b) If the applicant was not fingerprinted at the time of 29894 arrest or under section 109.60 of the Revised Code, or the record 29895 of the applicant's fingerprints was not provided to the court 29896 under division (B) of this section, but fingerprinting was 29897 required for the offense, order the applicant to appear before a 29898 sheriff to have the applicant's fingerprints taken according to 29899 the fingerprint system of identification on the forms furnished by 29900 the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 29901 investigation. The sheriff shall forward the applicant's 29902 fingerprints to the court. The court shall forward the applicant's 29903 fingerprints and a copy of the sealing order to the bureau of 29904 criminal identification and investigation. 29905

Failure of the court to order fingerprints at the time of 29906 sealing does not constitute a reversible error. 29907

(5) At the time an applicant files an application under 29908 division (A) of this section, the following shall apply: 29909

(a) The clerk of court shall notify the applicant in writing 29910 that the court will send notice of any order under division (C)(2) 29911 of this section to the qualified third party selected by the 29912 attorney general under section 109.38 of the Revised Code and 29913 shall inform the applicant of the procedures under section 109.381 29914
of the Revised Code. 29915

(b) The applicant shall then notify the clerk if the 29916 applicant wishes to opt out of receiving the benefits of having 29917 the court send notice of its order under division (C)(2) of this section to the qualified third party and having the procedures under section 109.381 of the Revised Code apply to the records that are subject to the order. 29918

29921

(c) If the applicant does not opt out under division (C)(5)(b) of this section, the applicant shall pay to the clerk of court the fee provided in the contract between the attorney general and the qualified third party under division (C)(2)(b) of section 109.38 of the Revised Code. 29922
29923
29926

(6)(a) Upon the issuance of an order under division (C)(2) of this section, and unless the applicant opts out under division (C)(5)(b) of this section, the clerk shall remit the fee paid by the applicant under division (C)(5)(c) of this section to the qualified third party. The court shall send notice of the order under division (C)(2) of this section to the qualified third party. 29927
29928
29930
29931
29933

29938
29940

(D) Inspection of the sealed records included in the order may be made only by the following persons or for the following purposes: 29943
29944
29945

(1) By a law enforcement officer or prosecutor, or the assistants of either, to determine whether the nature and character of the offense with which a person is to be charged 29946
29947
29948 would be affected by virtue of the person's previously having been 29949 convicted of a crime; 29950

(2) By the parole or probation officer of the person who is 29951 the subject of the records, for the exclusive use of the officer 29952 in supervising the person while on parole or under a community 29953 control sanction or a post-release control sanction, and in making 29954 inquiries and written reports as requested by the court or adult 29955 parole authority; 29956

(3) Upon application by the person who is the subject of the 29957 records, by the persons named in the application; 29958

(4) By a law enforcement officer who was involved in the 29959 case, for use in the officer's defense of a civil action arising 29960 out of the officer's involvement in that case; 29961

(5) By a prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's 29962 assistants, to determine a defendant's eligibility to enter a 29963 pre-trial diversion program established pursuant to section 29964
2935.36 of the Revised Code; 29965

(6) By any law enforcement agency or any authorized employee 29966 of a law enforcement agency or by the department of rehabilitation 29967 and correction or department of youth services as part of a 29968 background investigation of a person who applies for employment 29969 with the agency or with the department; 29970

(7) By any law enforcement agency or any authorized employee 29971 of a law enforcement agency, for the purposes set forth in, and in 29972 the manner provided in, section 2953.321 of the Revised Code; 29973

(8) By the bureau of criminal identification and 29974 investigation or any authorized employee of the bureau for the 29975 purpose of providing information to a board or person pursuant to 29976 division (F) or (G) of section 109.57 of the Revised Code; 29977

(9) By the bureau of criminal identification and 29978

investigation or any authorized employee of the bureau for the 29979 purpose of performing a criminal history records check on a person 29980 to whom a certificate as prescribed in section 109.77 of the 29981 Revised Code is to be awarded; 29982

(10) By the bureau of criminal identification and 29983
investigation or any authorized employee of the bureau for the 29984 purpose of conducting a criminal records check of an individual 29985 pursuant to division (B) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code 29986 that was requested pursuant to any of the sections identified in 29987 division (B)(1) of that section; 29988

(11) By the bureau of criminal identification and 29989 investigation, an authorized employee of the bureau, a sheriff, or 29990 an authorized employee of a sheriff in connection with a criminal 29991 records check described in section 311.41 of the Revised Code; 29992

(12) By the attorney general or an authorized employee of the 29993 attorney general or a court for purposes of determining a person's 29994 classification pursuant to Chapter 2950. of the Revised Code; 29995

(13) By a court, the registrar of motor vehicles, a 29996 prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's assistants, or 29997 a law enforcement officer for the purpose of assessing points 29998 against a person under section 4510.036 of the Revised Code or for 29999 taking action with regard to points assessed. 30000

When the nature and character of the offense with which a 30001 person is to be charged would be affected by the information, it 30002 may be used for the purpose of charging the person with an 30003 offense. 30004

(E) In any criminal proceeding, proof of any otherwise 30005 admissible prior conviction may be introduced and proved, 30006 notwithstanding the fact that for any such prior conviction an 30007 order of sealing previously was issued pursuant to sections 30008
2953.31 to 2953.36 of the Revised Code. 30009

(F) The person or governmental agency, office, or department 30010 that maintains sealed records pertaining to convictions or bail 30011 forfeitures that have been sealed pursuant to this section may 30012 maintain a manual or computerized index to the sealed records. The 30013 index shall contain only the name of, and alphanumeric identifiers 30014 that relate to, the persons who are the subject of the sealed 30015 records, the word "sealed," and the name of the person, agency, 30016 office, or department that has custody of the sealed records, and 30017 shall not contain the name of the crime committed. The index shall 30018 be made available by the person who has custody of the sealed 30019 records only for the purposes set forth in divisions (C), (D), and 30020
(E) of this section. 30021

(G) Notwithstanding any provision of this section or section 30022 2953.33 of the Revised Code that requires otherwise, a board of 30023 education of a city, local, exempted village, or joint vocational 30024 school district that maintains records of an individual who has 30025 been permanently excluded under sections 3301.121 and 3313.662 of 30026 the Revised Code is permitted to maintain records regarding a 30027 conviction that was used as the basis for the individual's 30028 permanent exclusion, regardless of a court order to seal the 30029 record. An order issued under this section to seal the record of a 30030 conviction does not revoke the adjudication order of the 30031 superintendent of public instruction to permanently exclude the 30032 individual who is the subject of the sealing order. An order 30033 issued under this section to seal the record of a conviction of an 30034 individual may be presented to a district superintendent as 30035 evidence to support the contention that the superintendent should 30036 recommend that the permanent exclusion of the individual who is 30037 the subject of the sealing order be revoked. Except as otherwise 30038 authorized by this division and sections 3301.121 and 3313.662 of 30039 the Revised Code, any school employee in possession of or having 30040 access to the sealed conviction records of an individual that were 30041 the basis of a permanent exclusion of the individual is subject to 30042

section 2953.35 of the Revised Code. 30043

(H) For purposes of sections 2953.31 to 2953.36 of the 30044
Revised Code, DNA records collected in the DNA database and 30045 fingerprints filed for record by the superintendent of the bureau 30046 of criminal identification and investigation shall not be sealed 30047 unless the superintendent receives a certified copy of a final 30048 court order establishing that the offender's conviction has been 30049 overturned. For purposes of this section, a court order is not 30050
"final" if time remains for an appeal or application for 30051 discretionary review with respect to the order. 30052

(I) The sealing of a record under this section does not 30053 affect the assessment of points under section 4510.036 of the 30054 Revised Code and does not erase points assessed against a person 30055 as a result of the sealed record. 30056

Sec. 2953.37. (A) As used in this section: 30057

(1) "Expunge" means to destroy, delete, and erase a record as 30058 appropriate for the record's physical or electronic form or 30059 characteristic so that the record is permanently irretrievable. 30060

(2) "Official records" has the same meaning as in section 30061
2953.51 of the Revised Code. 30062

(3) "Prosecutor" has the same meaning as in section 2953.31 30063
of the Revised Code. 30064

(4) "Record of conviction" means the record related to a 30065 conviction of or plea of guilty to an offense. 30066

(B) Any person who is convicted of, was convicted of, pleads 30067 guilty to, or has pleaded guilty to a violation of division (B), 30068 (C), or (E) of section 2923.16 of the Revised Code as the division 30069 existed prior to September 30, 2011, and who is authorized by 30070 division (H)(2)(a) of that section to file an application under 30071 this section for the expungement of the conviction record may 30072 apply to the sentencing court for the expungement of the record of conviction. The person may file the application at any time on or after September 30, 2011. The application shall do all of the following:

(1) Identify the applicant, the offense for which the expungement is sought, the date of the conviction of or plea of guilty to that offense, and the court in which the conviction occurred or the plea of guilty was entered;

(2) Include evidence that the offense was a violation of division (B), (C), or (E) of section 2923.16 of the Revised Code as the division existed prior to September 30, 2011, and that the applicant is authorized by division (H)(2)(a) of that section to file an application under this section;

(3) Include a request for expungement of the record of conviction of that offense under this section.

(C) Upon the filing of an application under division (B) of this section and the payment of the fee described in division (D)(3) of this section if applicable, the court shall set a date for a hearing and shall notify the prosecutor for the case of the hearing on the application. The prosecutor may object to the granting of the application by filing an objection with the court prior to the date set for the hearing. The prosecutor shall specify in the objection the reasons for believing a denial of the application is justified. The court shall direct its regular probation officer, a state probation officer, or the department of probation of the county in which the applicant resides to make inquiries and written reports as the court requires concerning the applicant. The court shall hold the hearing scheduled under this division.

(D)(1) At the hearing held under division (C) of this section, the court shall do each of the following:

(a) Determine whether the applicant has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation of division (E) of section 2923.16 of the Revised Code as the division existed prior to September 30, 2011, and whether the conduct that was the basis of the violation no longer would be a violation of that division on or after September 30, 2011;

(b) Determine whether the applicant has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation of division (B) or (C) of section 2923.16 of the Revised Code as the division existed prior to September 30, 2011, and whether the conduct that was the basis of the violation no longer would be a violation of that division on or after September 30, 2011, due to the application of division (F)(5) of that section as it exists on and after September 30, 2011;

(c) If the prosecutor has filed an objection in accordance with division (C) of this section, consider the reasons against granting the application specified by the prosecutor in the objection;

(d) Weigh the interests of the applicant in having the records pertaining to the applicant's conviction or guilty plea expunged against the legitimate needs, if any, of the government to maintain those records.

(2)(a) The court may order the expungement of all official records pertaining to the case and the deletion of all index references to the case and, if it does order the expungement, shall send notice of the order to each public office or agency that the court has reason to believe may have an official record pertaining to the case if the court, after complying with division (D)(1) of this section, determines both of the following:

(i) That the applicant has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation of division (E) of section 2923.16 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to September 30, 2011, and the 30135 conduct that was the basis of the violation no longer would be a 30136 violation of that division on or after September 30, 2011, or that 30137 the applicant has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a 30138 violation of division (B) or (C) of section 2923.16 of the Revised 30139 Code as the division existed prior to September 30, 2011, and the 30140 conduct that was the basis of the violation no longer would be a 30141 violation of that division on or after September 30, 2011, due to 30142 the application of division (F)(5) of that section as it exists on 30143 and after September 30, 2011; 30144

(ii) That the interests of the applicant in having the 30145 records pertaining to the applicant's conviction or guilty plea 30146 expunged are not outweighed by any legitimate needs of the 30147
government to maintain those records. 30148

(b) The proceedings in the case that is the subject of an 30149 order issued under division (D)(2)(a) of this section shall be 30150 considered not to have occurred and the conviction or guilty plea 30151 of the person who is the subject of the proceedings shall be 30152 expunged. The record of the conviction shall not be used for any 30153 purpose, including, but not limited to, a criminal records check 30154 under section 109.572 of the Revised Code or a determination under 30155 section 2923.125 or 2923.1212 of the Revised Code of eligibility 30156 for a concealed handgun license. The applicant may, and the court 30157 shall, reply that no record exists with respect to the applicant 30158 upon any inquiry into the matter. 30159

(3) Upon the filing of an application under this section, the 30160 applicant, unless indigent, shall pay a fee of fifty dollars. The 30161 court shall pay thirty dollars of the fee into the state treasury 30162 and shall pay twenty dollars of the fee into the county general 30163 revenue fund. 30164

(4) At the time an applicant files an application under 30165 division (B) of this section, the following shall apply: 30166

(a) The clerk of court shall notify the applicant in writing that the court will send notice of any order under division (D)(2)(a) of this section to the qualified third party selected by the attorney general under section 109.38 of the Revised Code and shall inform the applicant of the procedures under section 109.381 of the Revised Code. 30167
30170
30172

(b) The applicant shall then notify the clerk if the applicant wishes to opt out of receiving the benefits of having the court send notice of its order under division (D)(2)(a) of this section to the qualified third party and having the procedures under section 109.381 of the Revised Code apply to the records that are subject to the order. 30173
30174
30176
30177
30178

(c) If the applicant does not opt out under division (D)(4)(b) of this section, the applicant shall pay to the clerk of court the fee provided in the contract between the attorney general and the qualified third party under division (C)(2)(b) of section 109.38 of the Revised Code. 30179
30180
30183

(5)(a) Upon issuance of an order under division (D)(2)(a) of this section, and unless the applicant opts out under division (D)(4)(b) of this section, the clerk shall remit the fee paid by the applicant under division (D)(4)(c) of this section to the qualified third party. The court shall send notice of the order under division (D)(2)(a) of this section to the qualified third party. 30184
30185
30187
30188
30190

(b) If the applicant's application under division (B) of this section is denied for any reason or if the applicant informs the clerk of court in writing, before the issuance of the order under division (D)(2)(a) of this section, that the applicant wishes to opt out of having the court send notice of its order under division (D)(2)(a) of this section to the qualified third party, the clerk shall remit the fee paid by the applicant under division (D)(4)(c) of this section that is intended for the qualified third 30191

Sec. 2953.38. (A) As used in this section: 30200

(1) "Expunge" means to destroy, delete, or erase a record as 30201 appropriate for the record's physical or electronic form or 30202
characteristic so that the record is permanently irretrievable. 30203

(2) "Prosecutor" has the same meaning as in section 2953.31 30204
of the Revised Code. 30205

(3) "Record of conviction" means the record related to a 30206
conviction of or plea of guilty to an offense. 30207

(4) "Victim of human trafficking" means a person who is or 30208 was a victim of a violation of section 2905.32 of the Revised 30209 Code, regardless of whether anyone has been convicted of a 30210 violation of that section or of any other section for victimizing 30211 the person. 30212

(B) Any person who is or was convicted of a violation of 30213 section 2907.24, 2907.241, or 2907.25 of the Revised Code may 30214 apply to the sentencing court for the expungement of the record of 30215 conviction if the person's participation in the offense was a 30216 result of the person having been a victim of human trafficking. 30217
The person may file the application at any time. The application 30218 shall do all of the following: 30219

(1) Identify the applicant, the offense for which the 30220 expungement is sought, the date of the conviction of that offense, 30221 and the court in which the conviction occurred; 30222

(2) Describe the evidence and provide copies of any 30223 documentation showing that the person is entitled to relief under 30224
this section; 30225

(3) Include a request for expungement of the record of 30226 conviction of that offense under this section. 30227

(C) The court may deny an application made under division (B) 30228 of this section if it finds that the application fails to assert 30229 grounds on which relief may be granted. 30230

(D) If the court does not deny an application under division 30231
(C) of this section, it shall set a date for a hearing and shall 30232 notify the prosecutor for the case from which the record of 30233 conviction resulted of the hearing on the application. The 30234 prosecutor may object to the granting of the application by filing 30235 an objection with the court prior to the date set for the hearing. 30236
The prosecutor shall specify in the objection the reasons for 30237 believing a denial of the application is justified. The court may 30238 direct its regular probation officer, a state probation officer, 30239 or the department of probation of the county in which the 30240 applicant resides to make inquiries and written reports as the 30241 court requires concerning the applicant. 30242

(E) At the hearing held under division (D) of this section, 30243 the court shall do both of the following: 30244 prosecutor in the objection; 30247

(2) Determine whether the applicant has demonstrated by a 30248

(F) If after a hearing the court finds that the applicant has 30252 demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that the 30253 applicant's participation in the offense that is the subject of 30254 the application was the result of the applicant having been a 30255 victim of human trafficking, the court shall grant the application 30256 and order that the record of conviction be expunged. 30257

(G)(1) The court shall send notice of the order of 30258

(b) That the interests of the applicant in having the records 30265 pertaining to the applicant's conviction expunged are not 30266 outweighed by any legitimate needs of the government to maintain 30267 those records. 30268

(2) The proceedings in the case that is the subject of an 30269 order issued under division (F) of this section shall be 30270 court shall, reply that no record exists with respect to the 30276 applicant upon any inquiry into the matter. 30277

(H) Upon the filing of an application under this section, the 30278 applicant, unless indigent, shall pay a fee of fifty dollars. The 30279 court shall pay thirty dollars of the fee into the state treasury 30280 and shall pay twenty dollars of the fee into the county general 30281

30293
30294
30295
30296

(3) If the applicant does not opt out under division (I)(2) of this section, the applicant shall pay to the clerk of court the fee provided in the contract between the attorney general and the qualified third party under division (C)(2)(b) of section 109.38 of the Revised Code. 30297
30298
