As Re-reported by the House Higher Education and Workforce Development Committee

CORRECTED VERSION

132nd General Assembly

Regular Session

Sub. H. B. No. 58

2017-2018

Representatives Brenner, Slaby

Cosponsors: Representatives Perales, Zeltwanger, Vitale, Hambley, Conditt, Young, Roegner, Riedel, Thompson, Dean, Cupp, Keller, Blessing

A BILL

То	amend sections 3301.0721 and 3301.0722 of the	1
	Revised Code to require the State Board of	2
	Education to develop and adopt a model	3
	curriculum in cursive handwriting instruction,	4
	which may be used by public schools.	5

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 3301.0721 and 3301.0722 of the	6
Revised Code be amended to read as follows:	7
Sec. 3301.0721. (A) The superintendent of public	8
instruction shall develop a model curriculum for instruction in	9 college and career readiness and financial literacy. The	10
curriculum shall focus on grades seven through twelve, but the	11
superintendent may include other grade levels. When the model	12
curriculum has been developed, the department of education shall	13
notify all school districts, community schools established under	14
Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, and STEM schools established	15

Sub. H. B. No. 58

Page 2

Sub. H. B. No. 58 As Re-reported by the House Higher Education and Workforce Development Committee	Page 3
of the Revised Code are hereby repealed.	46
Section 3. The State Board of Education shall develop the	47
model curriculum prescribed in division (B) of section 3301.0721	48 of the Revised Code not later than December 31, 2018. The State	49
Board of Education shall make a decision on whether to adopt the	50
model curriculum not later than March 31, 2019, so that it is	51
ready for use in the 2019-2020 school year.	52