(6) If any person chooses to obtain a copy of a public record in accordance with division (B) of this section, the public office or person responsible for the public record may require that person to pay in advance the cost involved in providing the copy of the public record in accordance with the choice made by the person seeking the copy under this division. maintenance, and that charges no fee to search, access, 452 download, or otherwise receive records provided on the web site, 453 person does not intend to use or forward the requested records, 458 or the information contained in them, for commercial purposes. 459 criminal investigation or prosecution or concerning what would 469 be a criminal investigation or prosecution if the subject of the 470 investigation or prosecution were an adult, unless the request 471 to inspect or to obtain a copy of the record is for the purpose 472 of acquiring information that is subject to release as a public 473 record under this section and the judge who imposed the sentence 474 or made the adjudication with respect to the person, or the 475 include the journalist's name and title and the name and address 510 of the journalist's employer and shall state that disclosure of 511 the information sought would be in the public interest. 512

(b) Division (B) (9) (a) of this section also applies to 513 journalist requests for customer information maintained by a 514 municipally owned or operated public utility, other than social 515 security numbers and any private financial information such as 516 credit reports, payment methods, credit card numbers, and bank 517 account information. 518

(c) As used in division (B)(9) of this section, 519
"journalist" means a person engaged in, connected with, or 520 employed by any news medium, including a newspaper, magazine, 521 press association, news agency, or wire service, a radio or 522 television station, or a similar medium, for the purpose of 523 gathering, processing, transmitting, compiling, editing, or 524 disseminating information for the general public. 525

(C)(1) If a person allegedly is aggrieved by the failure 526 of a public office or the person responsible for public records 527 to promptly prepare a public record and to make it available to 528 the person for inspection in accordance with division (B) of 529 this section or by any other failure of a public office or the 530 person responsible for public records to comply with an 531 obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section, the 532 person allegedly aggrieved may do only one of the following, and 533 not both: 534

(a) File a complaint with the clerk of the court of claims 535 or the clerk of the court of common pleas under section 2743.75 536 of the Revised Code; 537

(b) Commence a mandamus action to obtain a judgment that 538 orders the public office or the person responsible for the 539 public record to comply with division (B) of this section, that 540 awards court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person 541 that instituted the mandamus action, and, if applicable, that 542 includes an order fixing statutory damages under division (C)(2) 543 of this section. The mandamus action may be commenced in the 544 court of common pleas of the county in which division (B) of 545 this section allegedly was not complied with, in the supreme 546 court pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 2 of 547 Article IV, Ohio Constitution, or in the court of appeals for 548 the appellate district in which division (B) of this section 549 allegedly was not complied with pursuant to its original 550 jurisdiction under Section 3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 551

(2) If a requester transmits a written request by hand 552 delivery or certified mail to inspect or receive copies of any 553 public record in a manner that fairly describes the public 554 record or class of public records to the public office or person 555 responsible for the requested public records, except as 556 otherwise provided in this section, the requester shall be 557 entitled to recover the amount of statutory damages set forth in 558 this division if a court determines that the public office or 559 the person responsible for public records failed to comply with 560 an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section. 561

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one 562 hundred dollars for each business day during which the public 563 office or person responsible for the requested public records 564 failed to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 565
(B) of this section, beginning with the day on which the 566 requester files a mandamus action to recover statutory damages, 567 up to a maximum of one thousand dollars. The award of statutory 568 damages shall not be construed as a penalty, but as compensation 569 for injury arising from lost use of the requested information. 570
The existence of this injury shall be conclusively presumed. The 571 award of statutory damages shall be in addition to all other 572 remedies authorized by this section. 573

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 574 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 575 following: 576

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory 577 law and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 578 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 579 for the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a 580 failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 581

(B) of this section and that was the basis of the mandamus 582 action, a well-informed public office or person responsible for 583 the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 584 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 585 responsible for the requested public records did not constitute 586 a failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with 587 division (B) of this section; 588

(b) That a well-informed public office or person 589 responsible for the requested public records reasonably would 590 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct of the public 591
office or person responsible for the requested public records 592 would serve the public policy that underlies the authority that 593 is asserted as permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 594

(3) In a mandamus action filed under division (C) (1) of 595 this section, the following apply: 596

(a) (i) If the court orders the public office or the person 597 responsible for the public record to comply with division (B) of 598 this section, the court shall determine and award to the relator 599 all court costs, which shall be construed as remedial and not 600 punitive. 601

(ii) If the court makes a determination described in 602 division (C) (3) (b) (iii) of this section, the court shall 603 determine and award to the relator all court costs, which shall 604 be construed as remedial and not punitive. 605

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public 606 office or the person responsible for the public record to comply 607 with division (B) of this section or if the court determines any 608 of the following, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees 609 to the relator, subject to the provisions of division (C) (4) of 610 this section: 611

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the 612 public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to 613 the public records request in accordance with the time allowed 614 under division (B) of this section. 615

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the 616 public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or 617 receive copies of the public records requested within a 618 specified period of time but failed to fulfill that promise 619 within that specified period of time. 620

(iii) The public office or the person responsible for the 621 public records acted in bad faith when the office or person 622 voluntarily made the public records available to the relator for 623 the first time after the relator commenced the mandamus action, 624 but before the court issued any order concluding whether or not 625 the public office or person was required to comply with division 626
(B) of this section. No discovery may be conducted on the issue 627 of the alleged bad faith of the public office or person 628 responsible for the public records. This division shall not be 629 construed as creating a presumption that the public office or 630 the person responsible for the public records acted in bad faith 631 when the office or person voluntarily made the public records 632 available to the relator for the first time after the relator 633 commenced the mandamus action, but before the court issued any 634 order described in this division. 635

(c) The court shall not award attorney's fees to the 636 relator if the court determines both of the following: 637

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section and that was the basis of the mandamus action, a well-informed public office or person responsible for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section;

(ii) That a well-informed public office or person responsible for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for the requested public records would serve the public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as permitting that conduct or threatened conduct.

(4) All of the following apply to any award of reasonable attorney's fees awarded under division (C) (3) (b) of this section:

(a) The fees shall be construed as remedial and not punitive.

(b) The fees awarded shall not exceed the total of the reasonable attorney's fees incurred before the public record was made available to the relator and the fees described in division (C) (4) (c) of this section.

(c) Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable fees incurred to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount of the fees and to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. 667

(d) The court may reduce the amount of fees awarded if the 668 court determines that, given the factual circumstances involved 669 with the specific public records request, an alternative means 670 should have been pursued to more effectively and efficiently 671 resolve the dispute that was subject to the mandamus action 672 filed under division (C) (1) of this section. 673

(5) If the court does not issue a writ of mandamus under 674 division (C) of this section and the court determines at that 675 time that the bringing of the mandamus action was frivolous 676 conduct as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 of the 677 Revised Code, the court may award to the public office all court 678 costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined 679 by the court. 680

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the 681 provisions of this section. 682

(E) (1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are 683 appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under 684 division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their 685 appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the 686 attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised 687 Code. In addition, all public offices shall adopt a public 688 records policy in compliance with this section for responding to 689 public records requests. In adopting a public records policy 690 under this division, a public office may obtain guidance from 691 the model public records policy developed and provided to the 692 public office by the attorney general under section 109.43 of 693 the Revised Code. Except as otherwise provided in this section, 694 the policy may not limit the number of public records that the 695 public office will make available to a single person, may not 696 limit the number of public records that it will make available 697 during a fixed period of time, and may not establish a fixed 698 period of time before it will respond to a request for 699 inspection or copying of public records, unless that period is 700 less than eight hours. 701

(2) The public office shall distribute the public records 702 policy adopted by the public office under division (E)(1) of 703 this section to the employee of the public office who is the 704 records custodian or records manager or otherwise has custody of 705 the records of that office. The public office shall require that 706 employee to acknowledge receipt of the copy of the public 707 records policy. The public office shall create a poster that 708 describes its public records policy and shall post the poster in 709 a conspicuous place in the public office and in all locations 710 where the public office has branch offices. The public office 711 may post its public records policy on the internet web site of 712 the public office if the public office maintains an internet web 713 site. A public office that has established a manual or handbook 714 of its general policies and procedures for all employees of the 715 public office shall include the public records policy of the 716 public office in the manual or handbook. 717

(F)(1) The bureau of motor vehicles may adopt rules 718 pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit 719 the number of bulk commercial special extraction requests made 720 by a person for the same records or for updated records during a 721 calendar year. The rules may include provisions for charges to 722 be made for bulk commercial special extraction requests for the 723 actual cost of the bureau, plus special extraction costs, plus 724 ten per cent. The bureau may charge for expenses for redacting 725 information, the release of which is prohibited by law. 726

(2) As used in division (F) (1) of this section:	727
(a) "Actual cost" means the cost of depleted supplies,	728 records storage media costs, actual mailing and alternative	729 delivery costs, or other transmitting costs, and any direct	730 equipment operating and maintenance costs, including actual	731 costs paid to private contractors for copying services.	732
(b) "Bulk commercial special extraction request" means a	733 request for copies of a record for information in a format other	734 than the format already available, or information that cannot be	735 extracted without examination of all items in a records series,	736 class of records, or database by a person who intends to use or	737 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or	738 resale for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special	739 extraction request" does not include a request by a person who	740 gives assurance to the bureau that the person making the request	741 does not intend to use or forward the requested copies for	742 surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial	743 purposes.	744
(c) "Commercial" means profit-seeking production, buying,	745
or selling of any good, service, or other product.	746
(d) "Special extraction costs" means the cost of the time	747 spent by the lowest paid employee competent to perform the task,	748
the actual amount paid to outside private contractors employed	749
by the bureau, or the actual cost incurred to create computer	750 programs to make the special extraction. "Special extraction	751 costs" include any charges paid to a public agency for computer	752 or records services.	753
(3) For purposes of divisions (F) (1) and (2) of this	754
section, "surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for	755 commercial purposes" shall be narrowly construed and does not 756 include reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering 757 information to assist citizen oversight or understanding of the 758 operation or activities of government, or nonprofit educational 759 research. 760

(G) A request by a defendant, counsel of a defendant, or 761 any agent of a defendant in a criminal action that public 762 records related to that action be made available under this 763 section shall be considered a demand for discovery pursuant to 764 the Criminal Rules, except to the extent that the Criminal Rules 765 plainly indicate a contrary intent. The defendant, counsel of 766 the defendant, or agent of the defendant making a request under 767 this division shall serve a copy of the request on the 768 prosecuting attorney, director of law, or other chief legal 769 officer responsible for prosecuting the action. 770

Sec. 149.436. Notwithstanding division (A)(1)(ff) of section 771 149.43 of the Revised Code, upon written request made and signed by 772 the parent or guardian of an individual who is less than eighteen 773 years of age and was an occupant of a school vehicle involved in a 774 traffic accident, a public office or person responsible for public 775 records, having custody of any record related to the traffic 776 accident containing the personal information of the individual, 777 shall transmit a copy of that record to the recipient identified in 778 the request. 779

The written request shall identify the individual on whose 780 behalf the record is requested and the person to whom the record 781 shall be transmitted. The record shall be transmitted only to 782 the person identified in the written request as the recipient of 783 the record. 784

A public office or person responsible for records 785 responding to a request under this section shall redact any 786 personal information contained in the record of any individual 787 less than eighteen years of age who is not the subject of the 788 request, before providing the record to the recipient. 789

Section 2. That existing section 149.43 of the Revised 790
Code is hereby repealed. 791

Section 3. Section 149.43 of the Revised Code is presented 792 in this act as a composite of the section as amended by Sub. 793
H.B. 317, Sub. H.B. 359, and Sub. S.B. 321, all of the 131st 794
General Assembly. The General Assembly, applying the principle 795 stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that 796 amendments are to be harmonized if reasonably capable of 797 simultaneous operation, finds that the composite is the 798 resulting version of the section in effect prior to the 799 effective date of the section as presented in this act. 800
