S. R. No. 760

Senators LaRose, Sykes

A RESOLUTION

Honoring The University of Akron on the One Hundredth Anniversary of its Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps

WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of the 132nd General Assembly of Ohio are pleased to congratulate The University of Akron on the One Hundredth Anniversary of its Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps; and

WHEREAS, Recognition of this milestone occasion is, indeed, a fitting tribute to The University of Akron. Over the past century, UA's Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps has commissioned officers that meet the impressive leadership requirements of our armed forces and has motivated many young people to be better citizens, and its impressive accomplishments readily explain why it is so widely held in high esteem; and

WHEREAS, Since its inception, The University of Akron has consistently provided a host of opportunities to students by offering them outstanding curricula, instruction, facilities, and programs, including Army ROTC. To its credit, the university's expert faculty members and conscientious, dedicated administrators have always insisted upon exacting academic standards, and they merit praise for preparing people of all ages for fulfilling occupations and rewarding positions in our complex society. It has steadily grown in stature as an exciting hub of intellectual discovery and an indispensable scholastic center for the exchange of ideas and information; and

WHEREAS, The University of Akron can be depended upon to produce a sizable number of qualified leaders who are ready to assume key roles in their fields, and it inspires confidence that it will tenaciously maintain its long tradition of academic excellence. During this landmark year, marking one hundred years of Army ROTC, the administration, faculty, staff, students, and alumni of the program can take pride in their contributions to the school's distinguished heritage. Clearly, this fine educational institution will thrive and flourish for many years to come; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Senate of the 132nd General Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, commend The University of Akron on the Centennial of its Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps and extend best wishes for the future; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the Senate transmit a duly authenticated copy of this Resolution to The University of Akron.
