Section 2. That existing sections 9.63 and 5747.502 of the 464
Revised Code are hereby repealed. 465

Section 3. If any provision of this act or the application 466 of this act to any person or circumstance is held invalid, that 467 invalidity does not affect any other provisions or applications 468 of this act that can be given effect without the invalid 469 provision or application. 470

Section 4. (A) The General Assembly finds that all of the 471 following are true: 472

(1) Sanctuary policies that restrict, obstruct, or 473 discourage cooperation with federal immigration authorities are 474 prohibited by such federal laws as Section 642 of the "Omnibus 475 Consolidated Appropriations Act of 1996," 8 U.S.C. 1373, which 476 states that "a Federal, State, or local government entity or 477 official may not prohibit, or in any way restrict, any 478 government entity or official from sending to, or receiving 479 from, the Immigration and Naturalization Service information 480 regarding the citizenship or immigration status, lawful or 481 unlawful, of any individual." 482

(2) On January 25, 2017, the President of the United 483 States issued an executive order, "Enhancing Public Safety in 484 the Interior of the United States," that addresses sanctuary 485 jurisdictions. The order states that it is the policy of the 486 executive branch of the federal government to ensure that 487 Section 642 of the "Omnibus Consolidated Appropriations Act of 488

1996," 8 U.S.C. 1373, is enforced to the fullest extent of the 489 law and that the United States Attorney General and Secretary of 490 Homeland Security must ensure that jurisdictions that willfully 491 refuse to comply with that law are ineligible for federal 492 grants, except as the Attorney General or the Secretary deem 493 necessary for law enforcement purposes. 494

(3) In Arizona v. United States, 567 U.S. 387 (2012), the 495
Supreme Court of the United States ruled that the United States 496 Congress has the exclusive authority to legislate on immigration 497 matters, that states may not augment the penalties for violating 498 federal immigration laws, that "consultation between federal and 499 state officials is an important feature of the immigration 500 system," and that "Congress has encouraged the sharing of 501 information about possible immigration violations." 502

(B) The General Assembly declares all of the following: 503

(1) Given the supremacy of all federal laws pertaining to 504 immigration, including Section 274 of the "Immigration and 505 Nationality Act," 8 U.S.C. 1324, as amended, which prohibits 506 knowingly harboring persons who are unlawfully present in the 507 United States, it is inappropriate and contrary to the public 508 safety and welfare of this state for any public official to 509 encourage, endorse, or otherwise support any public or private 510 organization that seeks to offer so-called "sanctuary 511 protection" to persons who are unlawfully present in the United 512 States. 513

(2) Policies that direct state or local employees not to 514 cooperate with federal immigration authorities or that protect 515 persons who are unlawfully present in the United States are 516 contrary to federal law, the interests of this state, and the 517 safety and welfare of the people of this state. 518

(3) This act is necessary to ensure consistency and	519
fairness in the enforcement of the laws of this state.	520
(4) The subject of this act is a matter of statewide	521
concern.	522
Section 5. This act is declared to be an emergency measure	523 necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace,	524 health, and safety. The reason for that necessity is that	525 government policies that prohibit cooperation with federal	526 authorities in the enforcement of immigration laws endanger the	527 public safety and welfare. Therefore, this act shall go into	528
immediate effect.	529
