То	amend sections 107.03, 5703.48, and 5703.95 of	1
	the Revised Code to require the Tax	2
	Commissioner's biennial tax expenditure report	3 to include information on property tax	4
	exemptions and to require the Tax Expenditure	5
	Review Committee to periodically review each	6 property tax exemption.	7

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1 . That sections 107.03, 5703.48, and 5703.95 of	8
the Revised Code be amended to read as follows:	9
Sec. 107.03. (A) As used in this section, "transportation	10 budget" means the biennial budget that primarily includes the	11
following:	12
(1) Motor fuel excise tax-related appropriations for the	13
department of transportation, public works commission, and	14 development services agency;	15
(2) Other appropriations that pertain to transportation	16
and infrastructure related to transportation.	17

As Introduced

(B) The governor shall submit a transportation budget to	18
the general assembly not later than four weeks after the general	19
assembly's organization.	20
(C) The governor shall submit to the general assembly, not	21

- (C) The governor shall submit to the general assembly, not later than four weeks after its organization, a state budget containing a complete financial plan for the ensuing fiscal biennium, excluding items of revenue and expenditure described in section 126.022 of the Revised Code. However, in years of a new governor's inauguration, this budget shall be submitted not later than the fifteenth day of March.
- (D) In years of a new governor's inauguration, only the new governor shall submit a budget to the general assembly. In addition to other things required by law, each of the governor's budgets shall contain:
- (1) A general budget summary by function and agency setting forth the proposed total expenses from each and all funds and the anticipated resources for meeting such expenses; such resources to include any available balances in the several funds at the beginning of the biennium and a classification by totals of all revenue receipts estimated to accrue during the biennium under existing law and proposed legislation.
- (2) A detailed statement showing the amounts recommended to be appropriated from each fund for each fiscal year of the biennium for current expenses, including, but not limited to, personal services, supplies and materials, equipment, subsidies and revenue distribution, merchandise for resale, transfers, and nonexpense disbursements, obligations, interest on debt, and retirement of debt, and for the biennium for capital outlay, to the respective departments, offices, institutions, as defined in section 121.01 of the Revised Code, and all other public purposes; and, in comparative form, the actual expenses by	48 source of funds during each fiscal year of the previous two	49 bienniums for each such purpose. No alterations shall be made in	50 the requests for the legislative and judicial branches of the	51

state filed with the director of budget and management under	52 section 126.02 of the Revised Code. If any amount of federal	53 money is recommended to be appropriated or has been expended for	54
a purpose for which state money also is recommended to be	55 appropriated or has been expended, the amounts of federal money	56 and state money involved shall be separately identified.	57
(3) A detailed estimate of the revenue receipts in each	58 fund from each source under existing laws during each year of	59
the biennium; and, in comparative form, actual revenue receipts	60 in each fund from each source for each year of the two previous	61
bienniums;	62
(4) The estimated cash balance in each fund at the	63
beginning of the biennium covered by the budget; the estimated	64 liabilities outstanding against each such balance; and the	65 estimated net balance remaining and available for new	66 appropriations;	67
(5) A detailed estimate of the additional revenue receipts	68
in each fund from each source under proposed legislation, if	69 enacted, during each year of the biennium;	70
(6) A description of each tax expenditure; a detailed	71 estimate of the amount of revenues not available to the general	72 revenue fund under existing laws during each fiscal year of the	73 biennium covered by the budget due to the operation of each tax	74 expenditure; and, in comparative form, the amount of revenue not	75 available to the general revenue fund during each fiscal year of	76

the immediately preceding biennium due to the operation of each-tax expenditure. The most recent report prepared by the	78 department of taxation pursuant to under section 5703.48 of the	79

Revised Code, which shall be submitted to the general assembly	80
as an appendix to the governor's budget. As used in this	81 division, "tax expenditure" has the same meaning as in section	82
5703.48 of the Revised Code.;	83
(7) The most recent report prepared by the tax expenditure	84
review committee under division (F) of section 5703.95 of the	85
Revised Code, which shall be submitted to the general assembly	86
	87
as an appendix to the governor's budget.	0 /
Sec. 5703.48. (A) As used in this section—and section—	88
107.03 of the Revised Code, "tax-:	89
(1) "Tax expenditure" means a tax provision in the Revised	90
Code that exempts, either in whole or in part, certain persons,	91 income, goods, services, or property from the effect of taxes	92 levied by the state, including, but not limited to, tax	93
deductions, exemptions, deferrals, exclusions, allowances,	94 credits, reimbursements, and preferential tax rates, provided	95
all of the following apply to the provision:	96
all of the following apply to the providion.	30
$\frac{(1)}{(a)}$ The provision reduces, or has the potential to	97 reduce, revenue to the general revenue fund;	98
(2) The persons, income, goods, services, or property	99 exempted by the provision would have been part of a defined tax	100 base;	101
(3)—(c) The persons, income, goods, services, or property	102 exempted by the provision are not subject to an alternate tax	103 levied by the state;	104
$\frac{(4)-(d)}{(d)}$ The provision is subject to modification or repeal	105
by an act of the general assembly.	106

(2) "Property tax exemption" means a provision in the	107
Revised Code that exempts or authorizes a subdivision to exempt	108 from taxation all or a portion of the value of real or tangible	109 personal property.	110
(B) The department of taxation shall prepare and submit to	111
the governor not later than the first day of November in each	112
even-numbered year a report describing the effect of containing	113 certain information about tax expenditures on the general	114 revenue fund and property tax exemptions. The report shall	115 contain—a each of the following:	116
(1) A description of each existing tax expenditure under	117
existing laws and, in and property tax exemption;	118
(2) In comparative form, a detailed estimate of the	119 approximate amount of revenue not available to the state general	120 revenue fund in each fiscal year of the current and ensuing	121 fiscal bienniums as a result of the operation of each tax	122 expenditure ;	123
(3) The aggregate true value of real and tangible personal	124 property exempted in this state for the preceding tax year as	125
the result of the operation of each property tax exemption;	126
(4) The amount of revenue paid from the general revenue	127 fund in the preceding calendar year to reimburse subdivisions	128 for each property tax exemption for which such reimbursement is	129 required. The	130
The report shall be prepared in such a manner as to	131 facilitate the inclusion of the information provided by the	132 report in the governor's budget.	133
Sec. 5703.95. (A) As used in this section, "tax	134 expenditure" has and "property tax exemption" have the same	135

meaning meanings as in section 5703.48 of the Revised Code.	136
(B) There is hereby created the tax expenditure review	137 committee, consisting of seven members, composed of the	138
following:	139
(1) Three members of the house of representatives	140 appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives in	141 consultation with the minority leader of the house of	142 representatives. Members described in division (B)(1) of this	143 section shall not all be members of the same party and should be	144 members of the house of representatives committee that deals	145 primarily with tax legislation;	146
(2) Three members of the senate appointed by the president	147 of the senate in consultation with the minority leader of the	148 senate. Members described in division (B)(2) of this section	149 shall not all be members of the same party and should be members	150 of the senate committee that deals primarily with tax	151 legislation;	152
(3) The tax commissioner or the tax commissioner's	153 designee. The member described in division (B)(3) of this	154 section shall be a nonvoting member.	155
The speaker of the house of representatives and the	156 president of the senate shall make initial appointments to the	157 committee not later than thirty days following the effective	158 date of the enactment of this section. Thereafter, the terms of	159
the office for appointed members shall be the same as the term	160 of each general assembly. Members may be reappointed, provided	161
the member continues to meet all other eligibility requirements.	162
Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for original	163 appointments. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy before the	164 expiration of the term for which the predecessor was appointed	165 shall hold office as a member for the remainder of that term.	166

Appointed members of the committee serve at the pleasure of the	167 member's appointing authority and may be removed only by the	168 appointing authority.	169

(C) The tax expenditure review committee shall hold its 170 first meeting within ninety days after the effective date of the 171 enactment of this section. At the first meeting, the members 172 shall elect a chairperson, who shall be one of the members 173 described in division (B)(1) or (2) of this section. Thereafter, 174 the committee shall meet at least once during the first year of 175 each fiscal biennium to review existing tax expenditures and 176 177 property tax exemptions pursuant to division (D) of this section, provided the committee shall hold, for any such 178 expenditure and exemption, at least one meeting at which a 179 person may present to the committee evidence or testimony 180 related to that expenditure or exemption. Any person may submit 181 to the chairperson a request that the committee meet to accept 182 evidence or testimony on a tax expenditure or property tax 183 exemption. The committee is a public body for the purposes of 184 section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 185

186 The chairperson of the committee shall serve until the thirty-first day of December of each even-numbered year. 187 Thereafter, members shall elect a new chairperson. If the 188 preceding chairperson was a member described in division (B)(1) 189 of this section, the new chairperson shall be a member described 190 in division (B)(2) of this section. If the preceding chairperson 191 was a member described in division (B)(2) of this section, the 192 new chairperson shall be a member described in division (B)(1) 193 of this section. 194

A vacancy on the committee does not impair the right of	195
the other members to exercise all the functions of the	196 committee. The presence of a majority of the voting members of	197
the committee constitutes a quorum for the conduct of business	198 of the committee. The concurrence of at least a majority of the	199 voting members of the committee is necessary for any action to	200 be taken by the committee.	201

Upon the committee's request, a county auditor or county

treasurer or the department of taxation, development services agency, office of budget and management, or other state agency shall provide any information in its possession that the committee requires to perform its duties.

The staff of the legislative service commission shall assist the committee as directed by the committee.

(D) The committee shall establish a schedule for review 209 for each tax expenditure and each property tax exemption so that 210 each expenditure and exemption is reviewed at least once every 211 eight years. The schedule may provide for the review of each tax 212 expenditure and exemption in the order the expenditures and 213 exemptions were enacted or modified, beginning with the least 214 recently enacted or modified tax expenditure or exemption. 215 Alternatively, the review schedule may group tax expenditures 216 and property tax exemptions by the individuals or industries 217 benefiting from the expenditures expenditure or exemption, the 218 objectives of each expenditure or exemption, or the policy 219 rationale of each expenditure or exemption. In its review, the 220 committee shall make recommendations as to whether each tax 221 expenditure and property tax exemption should be continued 222 without modification, modified, scheduled for further review at 223 a future date to consider repealing the expenditure or 224

exemption , or repealed outright. For each expenditure and	225
<pre>exemption reviewed, the committee may recommend accountability</pre>	226 standards for the future review of the expenditure or exemption.	227
The committee may consider, when reviewing a tax expenditure or	228 property tax exemption, any of the relevant factors described in	229
division (E) of this section.	230
(E) In conducting reviews pursuant to division (D) of this	231
section, the committee may consider the following factors:	232
(1) The number and classes of persons, organizations,	233 businesses, or types of industries that would receive the direct	234 benefit or consequences of the tax expenditure or property tax	235
<pre>exemption;</pre>	236
(2) The fiscal impact of the tax expenditure or property	237
<pre>tax exemption on state and local taxing authorities and</pre>	238 subdivisions, including any past fiscal effects and expected	239 future fiscal impacts of the <pre>tax</pre> expenditure or exemption in the	240
following eight-year period;	241
(3) Public policy objectives that might support the tax	242 expenditure or property tax exemption. In researching such	243 objectives, the committee may consider the expenditure's or	244
<pre>exemption's legislative history, the tax-expenditure's or_</pre>	245
<pre>exemption's sponsor's intent in proposing the tax expenditure or</pre>	246 exemption, or the extent to which the tax expenditure or	247
<pre>exemption encourages or would encourage business growth or</pre>	248 relocation into the state, promotes or would promote growth or	249 retention of high-wage jobs in the state, or aids or would aid	250 community stabilization.	251
(4) Whether the tax expenditure or property tax exemption	252 successfully accomplishes any of the objectives identified in	253

253

division (E)(3) of this section;	254
(5) Whether the objectives identified in division (E)(3)	255
of this section would or could have been accomplished	256 successfully in the absence of the tax expenditure or property	257 tax exemption or with less cost to the state or local	258
<pre>governments;</pre>	259
(6) Whether the objectives identified in division (E)(3)	260
of this section could have been accomplished successfully	261 through a program that requires legislative appropriations for	262
funding;	263
(7) The extent to which the tax expenditure or property	264 tax exemption may provide unintended benefits to an individual,	265 organization, or industry other than those the general assembly	266 or sponsor intended or creates an unfair competitive advantage	267 for its recipient with respect to other businesses in the state;	268
(8) The extent to which terminating the tax expenditure or	269
property tax exemption may have negative effects on taxpayers	270 that currently benefit from the tax expenditure;	271
(9) The extent to which terminating the tax expenditure or	272
property tax exemption may have negative or positive effects on	273
the state's employment and economy;	274
(10) The feasibility of modifying the tax expenditure or	275
<pre>property tax exemption to provide for adjustment or recapture of</pre>	276
the proceeds of the tax-expenditure or exemption if the	277
objectives of the tax expenditure or exemption are not fulfilled	278
by the recipient of the tax expenditure or exemption.	279
(F) The committee shall prepare a report of its	280 determinations under division (D) of this section and, not later	281 than the first day of July of each even-numbered year, submit a	282

copy of the report to the governor, the speaker of the house of	283 representatives, the president of the senate, the minority	284 leader of the house of representatives, and the minority leader	285 of the senate. The first report shall be submitted either in the	286 year of the effective date of this section or in the first even-	287 numbered year thereafter. If the committee maintains a web site,	288
the committee shall cause a copy of the report to be posted on	289
the web site in a form enabling access to the report by the	290 public within thirty days after the report is submitted under	291 this division. If the committee does not maintain a web site,	292
the committee shall request that the president of the senate and	293
the speaker of the house of representatives cause the report to	294 be posted on the web site of the general assembly.	295
(G) Any bill introduced in the house of representatives or	296
the senate that proposes to enact or modify one or more tax	297 expenditures or property tax exemptions should include a	298 statement explaining the objectives of the $ extstyle{ extstyle{tax}}$ -expenditure $ extstyle{ extstyle{or}}$	299 exemption or its modification and the sponsor's intent in	300 proposing the tax expenditure or exemption or its modification.	301
Section 2. That existing sections 107.03, 5703.48, and	302

5703.95 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed.
