A BILL

To amend section 127.19 and to enact sections 1
109.47, 120.56, 127.20, 307.451, 307.452, and 2
307.453 of the Revised Code to allow the 3
Controlling Board to transfer money to the 4 Attorney General and State Public Defender to 5 defray county costs associated with certain 6 capital cases and to declare an emergency. 7

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That section 127.19 be amended and sections 8
109.47, 120.56, 127.20, 307.451, 307.452, and 307.453 of the 9
Revised Code be enacted to read as follows: 10

Sec. 109.47. (A) There is hereby created in the state 11 treasury the capital case extraordinary prosecution cost fund. 12
The fund shall consist of transfers under divisions (B) (2) and 13
(3) of section 127.19 of the Revised Code and any other funds 14 appropriated by the general assembly. The fund shall be 15 administered by the attorney general. 16

(B) Following controlling board approval and transfer of 17 funds pursuant to a joint request under division (B) (2) of 18 section 127.19 of the Revised Code or a request under division 19
(B) (3) of section 127.19 of the Revised Code, the attorney 20 general shall distribute money in the fund to the county upon 21 request for the prosecution costs. 22

(C) (1) If the prosecution costs incurred exceed the funds 23 appropriated, the prosecuting attorney for the county that 24 received the funds may submit a request for additional funds to 25 the attorney general. If a request is submitted, the prosecuting 26 attorney shall inform the board of county commissioners of the 27 request. After receiving a request, the attorney general shall 28 request additional funds under division (B) (2) or (3) of section 29 127.19 of the Revised Code by submitting a request that includes 30 all of the following: 31

(a) Facts demonstrating the need for the additional funds; 32

(b) A statement explaining why the original funds were not 33 sufficient for the prosecution; 34

(c) The amount of additional funds being requested. 35

(2) After receiving a request for additional funds, the 36 controlling board shall add the request to the agenda of the 37 board's next scheduled meeting. 38

(3) If no additional funds are appropriated, the county 39 shall be responsible for all remaining prosecution costs as 40 otherwise provided in the Revised Code. 41

Sec. 120.56. (A) There is hereby created in the state 42 treasury the capital case extraordinary defense cost fund. The 43 fund shall consist of transfers under division (B) (2) of section 44 127.19 of the Revised Code and any other funds appropriated by 45 the general assembly. The fund shall be administered by the 46 state public defender. 47

(B) Following controlling board approval and transfer of 48
funds pursuant to a joint request under division (B) (2) of 49 section 127.19 of the Revised Code, the state public defender 50 shall be responsible for all defense costs related to defendants 51 determined to be indigent under the standards of indigency 52 established by the Ohio public defender commission, and the 53 county shall not be responsible for any defense costs related to 54 such indigent defendants. The state public defender shall 55 distribute money in the fund to pay bills as submitted for the 56 defense costs after approval by the court. 57

(C) (1) If the defense costs exceed the funds appropriated, 58 the state public defender may request additional funds under 59 division (B) (2) of section 127.19 of the Revised Code by 60 submitting a request that includes all of the following: 61

(a) Facts demonstrating the need for the additional funds; 62

(b) A statement explaining why the original funds were not 63 sufficient for the defense; 64

(c) The amount of additional funds being requested. 65

(2) If the state public defender requests additional 66 funds, the state public defender shall inform the board of 67 county commissioners of the county in which the indigent 68 defendants are being tried of the request. 69

(3) After receiving a request for additional funds, the 70 controlling board shall add the request to the agenda of the 71

board's next scheduled meeting. 72

(4) If no additional funds are appropriated, the state 73 public defender shall notify the board of county commissioners 74 of the county in which the indigent defendants are being tried 75 of the controlling board's determination. The county then shall 76 be reimbursed in accordance with section 120.35 or 2941.51 of 77
the Revised Code. 78

(D) The fund shall be used to provide funding for defense 79 costs related to defendants determined to be indigent under the 80 standards of indigency established by the Ohio public defender 81 commission only. 82

(E) The state public defender shall return to the director 83 of budget and management any unused money remaining upon the 84 conclusion of the capital case for which funds have been 85 requested. The director shall deposit the returned money into 86 the state treasury to the credit of the controlling board 87 emergency purposes/contingencies fund created under section 88
127.19 of the Revised Code. 89

Sec. 127.19. (A) There is hereby created in the state 90 treasury the controlling board emergency purposes/contingencies 91 fund, consisting of transfers from the general revenue fund and 92 any other funds appropriated by the general assembly. ~~Moneys~~ 93

(B) ~~Moneys~~ in the fund may be used by the controlling 94 board ~~at~~ as follows: 95

(1) At the request of a state agency or the director of 96 budget and management for the purpose of providing disaster and 97 emergency aid to state agencies and political subdivisions or 98 for other purposes approved by the controlling board. 99

(2) At the joint request of the attorney general and state 100 public defender under division (A) (2) of section 127.20 of the 101 Revised Code or at the request of the attorney general or state 102 public defender for additional funds under section 109.47 or 103 120.56 of the Revised Code, for the purposes of defraying the 104 county's prosecution or defense costs in capital cases if all of 105 the following apply: 106

(a) The county's estimated prosecution and defense costs 107 exceed five per cent of the county's general fund appropriations 108 as specified under division (A) (2) of section 307.451 of the 109
Revised Code; 110

(b) The case is a capital case in which there are multiple 111
defendants or multiple victims; 112

(c) At least one of the defendants in the case is 113
determined to be indigent under the standards of indigency 114 established by the Ohio public defender commission. 115

(3) At the request of the attorney general under division 116
(A) (3) of section 127.20 of the Revised Code, for the purposes 117 of defraying the county's prosecution costs for capital cases if 118 both of the following apply: 119

(a) The county's estimated prosecution costs exceed five 120 per cent of the county's general fund appropriations as 121 specified under division (A) (2) of section 307.452 of the 122
Revised Code; 123

(b) The case is a capital case in which there are multiple 124
defendants or multiple victims. 125

Sec. 127.20. (A) (1) If the attorney general receives a 126 request from a county under section 307.451 or the state public 127 defender receives a request from a county under section 307.452 128 of the Revised Code for extraordinary capital case cost funding 129 and one or more defendants in the case is indigent, the attorney 130 general and state public defender jointly shall estimate the 131 county prosecution and defense costs. If the attorney general 132 receives a request under section 307.451 of the Revised Code and 133 no defendant in the case is indigent, the attorney general shall 134 estimate the county's prosecution costs. 135

(2) If the county's estimated prosecution and defense 136
costs exceed five per cent of the county's general fund 137 appropriations as specified under division (A)(2) of sections 138 307.451 and 307.452 of the Revised Code, the attorney general 139 and state public defender shall submit a joint request to the 140 controlling board to transfer funds from the controlling board 141
emergency purposes/contingencies fund created under section 142 127.19 of the Revised Code to the capital case extraordinary 143 prosecution cost fund created under section 109.47 of the 144 Revised Code and the capital case extraordinary defense cost 145 fund created under section 120.56 of the Revised Code. 146

(3) If the county's estimated prosecution and defense 147
costs exceed five per cent of the county's general fund 148 appropriations as specified under division (A)(2) of section 149 307.451 of the Revised Code and none of the defendants in the 150 case are determined to be indigent under the standards of 151 indigency established by the Ohio public defender commission, 152 the attorney general shall submit a request to the controlling 153 board to transfer funds from the controlling board emergency 154 purposes/contingencies fund created under section 127.19 of the 155 Revised Code to the capital case extraordinary prosecution cost 156 fund created under section 109.47 of the Revised Code. 157
