or (c) of this section that such person is entitled to exercise 233 after the acquisition, provided, in the case of an acquisition 234 transferor's acquisition of shares of the issuing public 239 corporation. 240

(3) The acquisition of shares of an issuing public 241

(Z) (2) or (3) of this section, does not constitute a control 249 share acquisition for the purpose of section 1701.831 of the 250 Revised Code unless such acquisition entitles the person making 251 the acquisition, directly or indirectly, alone or with others, 252 agreement to vote as instructed by the transferee, or otherwise. 299

(2) If any part of this division is held to be illegal or 300 invalid in application, the illegality or invalidity does not 301 affect any legal and valid application thereof or any other 302 provision or application of this division or section 1701.831 of 303 the Revised Code that can be given effect without the invalid or 304 illegal provision, and the parts and applications of this 305 division are severable. 306 scientific, or technological nature for the benefit of persons, 329 entities, communities, or interests other than shareholders in 330 their capacity as shareholders. 331

Sec. 1701.03. (A) (1) A corporation may be formed under 332 this chapter for any purpose or combination of purposes for 333 which individuals lawfully may associate themselves, except 334 that, if the Revised Code contains special provisions pertaining 335 to the formation of any designated type of corporation other 336 than a professional association, as defined in section 1785.01 337 of the Revised Code, a corporation of that type shall be formed 338 in accordance with the special provisions. 339

(2) The purpose for which a corporation is formed may 340 include a beneficial purpose. Except to the extent that the 341 articles otherwise provide, both of the following apply: 342

(a) Having a beneficial purpose does not prevent a 343 corporation is formed, including operation of the corporation 345 for pecuniary gain or profit and distribution of net earnings. 346

(b) No particular purpose of a corporation has priority 347 instances. 352

(4) To be effective, a beneficial purpose shall be 353 expressly provided in the articles. A statement of purpose in 354 the articles that includes any purpose or combination of 355 purposes for which individuals lawfully may associate 356 themselves, without the express provision of a beneficial 357 purpose, does not establish a beneficial purpose as a purpose of 358 the corporation. 359

(B) On and after July 1, 1994, a corporation may be formed 360 under this chapter for the purpose of carrying on the practice 361 of any profession, including, but not limited to, a corporation 362 for the purpose of providing public accounting or certified 363 public accounting services, a corporation for the erection, 364 owning, and conducting of a sanitarium for receiving and caring 365 for patients, medical and hygienic treatment of patients, and 366 instruction of nurses in the treatment of disease and in 367 hygiene, a corporation for the purpose of providing 368 architectural, landscape architectural, professional 369 engineering, or surveying services or any combination of those 370 types of services, and a corporation for the purpose of 371 providing a combination of the professional services, as defined 372 in section 1785.01 of the Revised Code, of optometrists 373 authorized under Chapter 4725. of the Revised Code, 374 chiropractors authorized under Chapter 4734. of the Revised Code 375

Code, mechanotherapists authorized under section 4731.151 of the 383

Code. 391

the authority or responsibilities of any agency, board, 393 commission, department, office, or other entity to license, 394 register, and otherwise regulate the professional conduct of 395 individuals or organizations of any kind rendering professional 396 services, as defined in section 1785.01 of the Revised Code, in 397 this state or to regulate the practice of any profession that is 398 within the jurisdiction of the agency, board, commission, 399 department, office, or other entity, notwithstanding that an 400 individual is a director, officer, employee, or other agent of a 401 corporation formed under this chapter and is rendering 402 professional services or engaging in the practice of a 403 profession through a corporation formed under this chapter or 404 that the organization is a corporation formed under this 405 chapter. 406

(C) Nothing in division (A) or (B) of this section 407 precludes the organization of a professional association in 408 accordance with this chapter and Chapter 1785. of the Revised 409 Code or the formation of a limited liability company under 410
Chapter 1705. of the Revised Code with respect to a business, as 411 defined in section 1705.01 of the Revised Code. 412

1785.01 of the Revised Code, of optometrists authorized under 415
Chapter 4725. of the Revised Code, chiropractors authorized 416 from entering into a contract with a corporation described in 449 this division that includes a provision requiring utilization 450 reasonable in the circumstances. 642

The selection of a time frame for the achievement of corporate goals shall be the responsibility of the directors.

(B) A director shall perform the director's duties as a director, including the duties as a member of any committee of the directors upon which the director may serve, in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. (D) For purposes of division (B) of this section, the following apply:

(1) A director shall not be found to have violated the director's duties under division (B) of this section unless it is proved by clear and convincing evidence that the director has not acted in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, or with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances, in any action brought against a director, including actions involving or affecting any of the following:

(3) A director's duties under division (B) of this section 726 competent jurisdiction that the director's action or failure to 736 act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate 737 intent to cause injury to the corporation or undertaken with 738 reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation. 739 Nothing contained in this division affects the liability of 740 directors under section 1701.95 of the Revised Code or limits 741 relief available under section 1701.60 of the Revised Code. This 742 division does not apply if, and only to the extent that, at the 743 time of a director's act or omission that is the subject of 744 complaint, the articles or the regulations of the corporation 745 state by specific reference to this division that the provisions 746 of this division do not apply to the corporation. 747

(F) For purposes of this section, a director, in 748 determining what the director reasonably believes to be in the 749 best interests of the corporation, shall consider the interests 750 of the corporation's shareholders and any beneficial purposes 751 and related provisions set forth in the corporation's articles. 752
The director shall consider any priority among purposes provided 753 in the corporation's articles and shall consider any other 754

(4) The long-term as well as short-term interests of the 763 corporation and its shareholders, including the possibility that 764 these interests or any beneficial purpose set forth in the 765 corporation's articles may be best served by the continued 766 independence of the corporation. 767

(G) Nothing contained in division (D) or (E) of this 768 section affects the duties of either of the following: 769

(1) A director who acts in any capacity other than the 770 director's capacity as a director; 771

(2) A director of a corporation that does not have issued 772 by one or more members of a national or affiliated securities 775 association, who votes for or assents to any action taken by the 776 directors of the corporation that, in connection with a change 777 in control of the corporation, directly results in the holder or 778 holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the 779 corporation receiving a greater consideration for their shares 780 than other shareholders. 781 section 1701.64 of the Revised Code. 860

Unless otherwise provided in the close corporation 861 agreement, the invalidity of a provision pursuant to this 862 division does not affect the validity of the remainder of the 863 agreement. 864

of the outstanding shares of each class or, as may be provided 875 by the close corporation agreement, of the holders, then parties 876 section 1701.73 of the Revised Code. No corporation with respect 886 to which a close corporation agreement is in effect shall cause 887 to occur any of the actions described in division (I) (1) (a), 888 (b), or (c) of this section unless the action has been 889 authorized by the affirmative vote or written consent of the 890 holders, then parties to the close corporation agreement, of 891 that proportion of shares of each class that is required to 892 terminate the close corporation agreement. 893 may be amended or terminated by the affirmative vote or written 898 consent of the holders, then parties to the close corporation 899 agreement, of four-fifths of the outstanding shares of each 900 class. 901

(F) No close corporation agreement is invalid among the 902 parties or in respect of the corporation on any of the following 903 grounds: 904

(1) The agreement is an attempt to treat the corporation 905 as if it were a partnership or to arrange the relationship of 906 the parties in a manner that would be appropriate only among 907 partners; 908

(2) The agreement provides for the conduct of the affairs 909 of a corporation or relations among shareholders in any manner 910 that would be inappropriate or unlawful under provisions of this 911 chapter other than those set forth in division (D) (2) of this 912 section or under other applicable law; 913

(3) The agreement interferes with the authority or 914 discretion of the directors; 915

(4) The agreement has not been filed with the minutes as 916 required by division (B) of this section. 917

(G) If a close corporation agreement provides that there 918 shall be no board of directors, both of the following apply: 919

(1) The shareholders, for the purposes of any statute or 920 rule of law relating to corporations, are deemed to be the 921 directors and to have all of the liabilities, immunities, 922 defenses, and indemnifications of directors with respect to any 923 action or inaction of the corporation, except that any 924 shareholder who is not permitted by the articles, the 925 regulations, or the close corporation agreement to vote on or 926 assent to an action or assent to an inaction shall not be liable 927 as a director with respect to the action or inaction. 928

(2) Except to the extent that the voting rights of the 929 shares of a class are increased, limited, or denied by the 930 articles, the regulations, or the close corporation agreement, 931 each outstanding share regardless of class shall entitle its 932 holder to one vote on each matter, including any matter normally 933 voted on by directors, that is properly submitted to the 934 shareholders for their vote, consent, waiver, release, or other 935 action. 936

(H) The existence of a close corporation agreement shall 937 be noted conspicuously on the face or the back of every 938 certificate for shares of the corporation and a purchaser or 939 transferee of shares represented by a certificate on which such 940 a notation so appears shall be conclusively considered to have 941 taken delivery with notice of the close corporation agreement. 942 Any transferee of shares by gift, bequest, or inheritance and 943 any purchaser or transferee of shares with knowledge or notice 944 of a close corporation agreement is bound by the agreement and 945
