46

for whom case plans are not required by division (A) of this 47 section. The rules for public children services agencies shall 48 include the requirements for case plans or family service plans 49 maintained for children and their families who are receiving 50 services in their homes from public children services agencies 51 pursuant to an alternative response. The agencies shall maintain 52 case plans and family service plans as required by those rules; 53 however, the case plans and family service plans shall not be 54 subject to any other provision of this section except as 55 specifically required by the rules. 56

(D) Each public children services agency and private child 57 placing agency that is required by division (A) of this section 58 to maintain a case plan shall file the case plan with the court 59 prior to the child's adjudicatory hearing but no later than 60 thirty days after the earlier of the date on which the complaint 61 in the case was filed or the child was first placed into shelter 62 care. If the agency does not have sufficient information prior 63 to the adjudicatory hearing to complete any part of the case 64 plan, the agency shall specify in the case plan the additional 65 information necessary to complete each part of the case plan and 66 the steps that will be taken to obtain that information. All 67 parts of the case plan shall be completed by the earlier of 68 thirty days after the adjudicatory hearing or the date of the 69 dispositional hearing for the child. 70

(E) Any agency that is required by division (A) of this 71 section to prepare a case plan shall attempt to obtain an 72 agreement among all parties, including, but not limited to, the 73 parents, guardian, or custodian of the child and the guardian ad 74 litem of the child regarding the content of the case plan. If 75 all parties agree to the content of the case plan and the court 76 approves it, the court shall journalize it as part of its 77 dispositional order. If the agency cannot obtain an agreement 78 upon the contents of the case plan or the court does not approve 79 it, the parties shall present evidence on the contents of the 80 case plan at the dispositional hearing. The court, based upon 81 the evidence presented at the dispositional hearing and the best 82 interest of the child, shall determine the contents of the case 83 plan and journalize it as part of the dispositional order for 84

the child. 85

(F) (1) All parties, including the parents, guardian, or 86 custodian of the child, are bound by the terms of the 87 journalized case plan. A party that fails to comply with the 88 terms of the journalized case plan may be held in contempt of 89 court. 90

(2) Any party may propose a change to a substantive part 91 of the case plan, including, but not limited to, the child's 92 placement and the visitation rights of any party. A party 93 proposing a change to the case plan shall file the proposed 94 change with the court and give notice of the proposed change in 95 writing before the end of the day after the day of filing it to 96 all parties and the child's guardian ad litem. All parties and 97 the guardian ad litem shall have seven days from the date the 98 notice is sent to object to and request a hearing on the 99 proposed change. 100

(a) If it receives a timely request for a hearing, the 101 court shall schedule a hearing pursuant to section 2151.417 of 102
the Revised Code to be held no later than thirty days after the 103 request is received by the court. The court shall give notice of 104
the date, time, and location of the hearing to all parties and 105 the guardian ad litem. The agency may implement the proposed 106 change after the hearing, if the court approves it. The agency 107 shall not implement the proposed change unless it is approved by 108

the court. 109

(b) If it does not receive a timely request for a hearing, 110 the court may approve the proposed change without a hearing. If 111 the court approves the proposed change without a hearing, it 112 shall journalize the case plan with the change not later than 113 fourteen days after the change is filed with the court. If the 114 court does not approve the proposed change to the case plan, it 115 shall schedule a hearing to be held pursuant to section 2151.417 116 of the Revised Code no later than thirty days after the 117 expiration of the fourteen-day time period and give notice of 118
the date, time, and location of the hearing to all parties and 119
the guardian ad litem of the child. If, despite the requirements 120 of division (F)(2) of this section, the court neither approves 121 and journalizes the proposed change nor conducts a hearing, the 122 agency may implement the proposed change not earlier than 123 fifteen days after it is submitted to the court. 124

(3) If an agency has reasonable cause to believe that a 125 child is suffering from illness or injury and is not receiving 126 proper care and that an appropriate change in the child's case 127 plan is necessary to prevent immediate or threatened physical or 128 emotional harm, to believe that a child is in immediate danger 129 from the child's surroundings and that an immediate change in 130 the child's case plan is necessary to prevent immediate or 131 threatened physical or emotional harm to the child, or to 132 believe that a parent, guardian, custodian, or other member of 133 the child's household has abused or neglected the child and that 134 the child is in danger of immediate or threatened physical or 135 emotional harm from that person unless the agency makes an 136 appropriate change in the child's case plan, it may implement 137 the change without prior agreement or a court hearing and, 138 before the end of the next day after the change is made, give 139 all parties, the guardian ad litem of the child, and the court 140 notice of the change. Before the end of the third day after 141 implementing the change in the case plan, the agency shall file 142 a statement of the change with the court and give notice of the 143 filing accompanied by a copy of the statement to all parties and 144 the guardian ad litem. All parties and the guardian ad litem 145 shall have ten days from the date the notice is sent to object 146 to and request a hearing on the change. 147

(a) If it receives a timely request for a hearing, the 148
court shall schedule a hearing pursuant to section 2151.417 of 149
the Revised Code to be held no later than thirty days after the 150 request is received by the court. The court shall give notice of 151
the date, time, and location of the hearing to all parties and 152
the guardian ad litem. The agency shall continue to administer 153 the case plan with the change after the hearing, if the court 154 approves the change. If the court does not approve the change, 155 the court shall make appropriate changes to the case plan and 156 shall journalize the case plan. 157

(b) If it does not receive a timely request for a hearing, 158 the court may approve the change without a hearing. If the court 159 approves the change without a hearing, it shall journalize the 160 case plan with the change within fourteen days after receipt of 161 the change. If the court does not approve the change to the case 162 plan, it shall schedule a hearing under section 2151.417 of the 163 Revised Code to be held no later than thirty days after the 164 expiration of the fourteen-day time period and give notice of 165
the date, time, and location of the hearing to all parties and 166
the guardian ad litem of the child. 167

(4) (a) Except as provided in division (F) (4) (b) of this 168 section, the court shall not approve a change to the child's 169 placement and may presume that continuation of the child's 170 current placement is in the child's best interests if all of the 171

following apply: 172

(i) The child's current placement has been in a stable 173 home environment for the past nine months. 174

(ii) A change in the child's placement would be 175 detrimental to the child's emotional well-being. 176

(iii) The child's foster caregiver has not requested, in 177 writing, that the placement be changed. 178

(b) The court may approve a change to the child's 179 placement if it is in the child's best interests and the child's 180 foster caregiver requests, in writing, the change in the child's 181 placement. 182

(G) (1) All case plans for children in temporary custody 183 shall have the following general goals: 184

(a) Consistent with the best interest and special needs of 185 the child, to achieve a safe out-of-home placement in the least 186 restrictive, most family-like setting available and in close 187 proximity to the home from which the child was removed or the 188 home in which the child will be permanently placed; 189

(b) To eliminate with all due speed the need for the out- 190 of-home placement so that the child can safely return home. 191

(2) The director of job and family services shall adopt 192 rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code setting forth 193 the general goals of case plans for children subject to 194 dispositional orders for protective supervision, a planned 195 permanent living arrangement, or permanent custody. 196

(H) In the agency's development of a case plan and the court's review of the case plan, the child's health and safety shall be the paramount concern. The agency and the court shall be guided by the following general priorities:

(1) A child who is residing with or can be placed with the child's parents within a reasonable time should remain in their legal custody even if an order of protective supervision is required for a reasonable period of time;

(2) If both parents of the child have abandoned the child, have relinquished custody of the child, have become incapable of supporting or caring for the child even with reasonable assistance, or have a detrimental effect on the health, safety, and best interest of the child, the child should be placed in the legal custody of a suitable member of the child's extended family;

(3) If a child described in division (H) (2) of this section has no suitable member of the child's extended family to accept legal custody, the child should be placed in the legal custody of a suitable nonrelative who shall be made a party to the proceedings after being given legal custody of the child;

(4) If the child has no suitable member of the child's extended family to accept legal custody of the child and no suitable nonrelative is available to accept legal custody of the child and, if the child temporarily cannot or should not be placed with the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, the child should be placed in the temporary custody of a public children services agency or a private child placing agency;

(5) If the child cannot be placed with either of the child's parents within a reasonable period of time or should not be placed with either, if no suitable member of the child's 226 extended family or suitable nonrelative is available to accept 227 legal custody of the child, and if the agency has a reasonable 228 expectation of placing the child for adoption, the child should 229 be committed to the permanent custody of the public children 230 services agency or private child placing agency; 231

(6) If the child is to be placed for adoption or foster 232 care, the placement shall not be delayed or denied on the basis 233 of the child's or adoptive or foster family's race, color, or 234 national origin. 235

(I) The case plan for a child in temporary custody shall 236 include at a minimum the following requirements if the child is 237 or has been the victim of abuse or neglect or if the child 238 witnessed the commission in the child's household of abuse or 239 neglect against a sibling of the child, a parent of the child, 240 or any other person in the child's household: 241

(1) A requirement that the child's parents, guardian, or 242 custodian participate in mandatory counseling; 243

(2) A requirement that the child's parents, guardian, or 244 custodian participate in any supportive services that are 245 required by or provided pursuant to the child's case plan. 246

(J) A case plan may include, as a supplement, a plan for 247 locating a permanent family placement. The supplement shall not 248 be considered part of the case plan for purposes of division (E) 249 of this section. 250

(K) (1) A public children services agency may request that 251 the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 252 investigation conduct a criminal records check with respect to a 253 parent, guardian, custodian, prospective custodian, or 254

prospective placement whose actions result in a finding after 255 the filing of a complaint as described in division (A) (1) of 256 this section that a child is an abused, neglected, or dependent 257 child. The public children services agency shall request that 258 the superintendent obtain information from the federal bureau of 259 investigation as part of the criminal records check. 260

(2) At any time on or after the date that is ninety days 261 after ~~the effective date of this amendment~~ September 10, 2012, a 262 prosecuting attorney, or an assistant prosecuting attorney 263 appointed under section 309.06 of the Revised Code, may request 264 that the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification 265 and investigation conduct a criminal records check with respect 266 to each parent, guardian, custodian, prospective custodian, or 267 prospective placement whose actions resulted in a finding after 268 the filing of a complaint described in division (A) (1) of this 269 section that a child is an abused, neglected, or dependent 270 child. Each prosecuting attorney or assistant prosecuting 271 attorney who makes such a request shall request that the 272 superintendent obtain information from the federal bureau of 273 investigation as part of the criminal records check for each 274
prospective placement who is a subject of the request. 276

(3) A public children services agency, prosecuting 277 attorney, or assistant prosecuting attorney that requests a 278 criminal records check under division (K) (1) or (2) of this 279 section shall do both of the following: 280

(a) Provide to each parent, guardian, custodian, 281 prospective custodian, or prospective placement for whom a 282 criminal records check is requested a copy of the form 283 prescribed pursuant to division (C) (1) of section 109.572 of the 284

Revised Code and a standard fingerprint impression sheet 285 prescribed pursuant to division (C) (2) of that section and 286 obtain the completed form and impression sheet from the parent, 287 guardian, custodian, prospective custodian, or prospective 288
placement; 289

(b) Forward the completed form and impression sheet to the 290 superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 291 investigation. 292

(4) A parent, guardian, custodian, prospective custodian, 293 or prospective placement who is given a form and fingerprint 294 impression sheet under division (K) (3) (a) of this section and 295 who fails to complete the form or provide fingerprint 296 impressions may be held in contempt of court. 297

Sec. 2151.417. (A) Any court that issues a dispositional 298 order pursuant to section 2151.353, 2151.414, or 2151.415 of the 299 Revised Code may review at any time the child's placement or 300 custody arrangement, the case plan prepared for the child 301 pursuant to section 2151.412 of the Revised Code, the actions of 302 the public children services agency or private child placing 303 agency in implementing that case plan, the child's permanency 304 plan if the child's permanency plan has been approved, and any 305 other aspects of the child's placement or custody arrangement. 306
In conducting the review, the court shall determine the 307 appropriateness of any agency actions, the safety and 308 appropriateness of continuing the child's placement or custody 309 arrangement, and whether any changes should be made with respect 310 to the child's permanency plan or placement or custody 311 arrangement or with respect to the actions of the agency under 312 the child's placement or custody arrangement. Based upon the 313 evidence presented at a hearing held after notice to all parties 314 and the guardian ad litem of the child, the court may require 315 the agency, the parents, guardian, or custodian of the child, 316 and the physical custodians of the child to take any reasonable 317 action that the court determines is necessary and in the best 318 interest of the child or to discontinue any action that it 319 determines is not in the best interest of the child. 320

(B) If a court issues a dispositional order pursuant to 321 section 2151.353, 2151.414, or 2151.415 of the Revised Code, the 322 court has continuing jurisdiction over the child as set forth in 323 division (F) (1) of section 2151.353 of the Revised Code. The 324 court may amend a dispositional order in accordance with 325 division (F) (2) of section 2151.353 of the Revised Code at any 326 time upon its own motion or upon the motion of any interested 327 party. The court shall comply with section 2151.42 of the 328 Revised Code in amending any dispositional order pursuant to 329 this division. 330

(C) (1) Any court that issues a dispositional order 331 pursuant to section 2151.353, 2151.414, or 2151.415 of the 332 Revised Code shall hold a review hearing one year after the 333 earlier of the date on which the complaint in the case was filed 334 or the child was first placed into shelter care to review the 335 case plan prepared pursuant to section 2151.412 of the Revised 336 Code and the child's placement or custody arrangement, to 337 approve or review the permanency plan for the child, and to make 338 changes to the case plan and placement or custody arrangement 339 consistent with the permanency plan. The court shall schedule 340 the review hearing at the time that it holds the dispositional 341 hearing pursuant to section 2151.35 of the Revised Code. 342

(2) The court shall hold a similar review hearing no later 343 than every twelve months after the initial review hearing until 344 the child is adopted, returned to the parents, or the court 345 otherwise terminates the child's placement or custody 346 arrangement, except that the dispositional hearing held pursuant 347 to section 2151.415 of the Revised Code shall take the place of 348 the first review hearing to be held under this section. The 349 court shall schedule each subsequent review hearing at the 350 conclusion of the review hearing immediately preceding the 351 review hearing to be scheduled. 352

(3) The court is not required to continue holding review 353 hearings under divisions (C) (1) and (2) of this section 354 regarding a child subject to an order of legal custody under 355 section 2151.353 or 2151.415 of the Revised Code, if all of the 356
following apply: 357

(a) The child is not subject to an order of protective 358 supervision under section 2151.353 or 2151.415 of the Revised 359 Code. 360

(b) A public children services agency or private child 361 placing agency is not providing services to the child. 362

(c) The court finds that further review under divisions 363
(C) (1) and (2) of this section are no longer necessary to serve 364 the child's best interests. 365

(D) If, within fourteen days after a written summary of an 366 administrative review is filed with the court pursuant to 367 section 2151.416 of the Revised Code, the court does not approve 368 the proposed change to the case plan filed pursuant to division 369
(E) of section 2151.416 of the Revised Code or a party or the 370 guardian ad litem requests a review hearing pursuant to division 371
(E) of that section, the court shall hold a review hearing in 372 the same manner that it holds review hearings pursuant to 373 division (C) of this section, except that if a review hearing is 374 required by this division and if a hearing is to be held 375 pursuant to division (C) of this section or section 2151.415 of 376 the Revised Code, the hearing held pursuant to division (C) of 377 this section or section 2151.415 of the Revised Code shall take 378 the place of the review hearing required by this division. 379

(E) If a court determines pursuant to section 2151.419 of 380 the Revised Code that a public children services agency or 381 private child placing agency is not required to make reasonable 382 efforts to prevent the removal of a child from the child's home, 383 eliminate the continued removal of a child from the child's 384 home, and return the child to the child's home, and the court 385 does not return the child to the child's home pursuant to 386 division (A)(3) of section 2151.419 of the Revised Code, the 387 court shall hold a review hearing to approve the permanency plan 388 for the child and, if appropriate, to make changes to the 389 child's case plan and the child's placement or custody 390 arrangement consistent with the permanency plan. The court may 391 hold the hearing immediately following the determination under 392 section 2151.419 of the Revised Code and shall hold it no later 393 than thirty days after making that determination. 394

(F) The court shall give notice of the review hearings 395 held pursuant to this section to every interested party, 396 including, but not limited to, the appropriate agency employees 397 who are responsible for the child's care and planning, the 398 child's parents, any person who had guardianship or legal 399 custody of the child prior to the custody order, the child's 400 guardian ad litem, and the child. The court shall summon every 401 interested party to appear at the review hearing and give them 402 an opportunity to testify and to present other evidence with 403 respect to the child's custody arrangement, including, but not 404 limited to, the following: the case plan for the child; the 405 permanency plan, if one exists; the actions taken by the child's 406 custodian; the need for a change in the child's custodian or 407 caseworker; and the need for any specific action to be taken 408 with respect to the child. The court shall require any 409 interested party to testify or present other evidence when 410 necessary to a proper determination of the issues presented at 411 the review hearing. In any review hearing that pertains to a 412 permanency plan for a child who will not be returned to the 413 parent, the court shall consider in-state and out-of-state 414 placement options and the court shall determine whether the in- 415 state or the out-of-state placement continues to be appropriate 416 and in the best interests of the child. In any review hearing 417 that pertains to a permanency plan for a child, the court or a 418 citizens board appointed by the court pursuant to division (H) 419 of this section shall consult with the child, in an age- 420 appropriate manner, regarding the proposed permanency plan for 421

the child. 422

(G) After the review hearing, the court shall take the 423 following actions based upon the evidence presented: 424

(1) If an administrative review has been conducted, 425 determine whether the conclusions of the review are supported by 426 a preponderance of the evidence and approve or modify the case 427 plan based upon that evidence; 428

(2) If the hearing was held under division (C) or (E) of 429 this section, approve a permanency plan for the child that 430 specifies whether and, if applicable, when the child will be 431 safely returned home or placed for adoption, for legal custody, 432 or in a planned permanent living arrangement. A permanency plan 433 approved after a hearing under division (E) of this section 434 shall not include any provision requiring the child to be 435 returned to the child's home. 436

(3) If the child is in temporary custody, do all of the 437 following: 438

(a) Determine whether the child can and should be returned 439 home with or without an order for protective supervision; 440

(b) If the child can and should be returned home with or 441 without an order for protective supervision, terminate the order 442 for temporary custody; 443

(c) If the child cannot or should not be returned home 444 with an order for protective supervision, determine whether the 445 agency currently with custody of the child should retain custody 446 or whether another public children services agency, private 447 child placing agency, or an individual should be given custody 448 of the child. 449

The court shall comply with section 2151.42 of the Revised 450
Code in taking any action under this division. 451
