A BILL

То	amend sections 101.30 and 103.51 and to enact	1
	sections 103.52 and 103.53 of the Revised Code	2
	to delineate the public records, public	3 meetings, and other requirements with which the	4
	Ohio Redistricting Commission, the General	5
	Assembly, and the Legislative Task Force on	6
	Redistricting, Reapportionment, and Demographic	7
	Research must comply during the redistricting	8 process, to make an appropriation, and to	9 declare an emergency.	10

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 101.30 and 103.51 be amended and	11 sections 103.52 and 103.53 of the Revised Code be enacted to	12
read as follows:	13
Sec. 101.30. (A) As used in this section:
(1) "Legislative document" includes, but is not limited	15
to, all of the following:	16

H. B. No. 313 As Introduced

(a) A working paper, work product, correspondence, preliminary draft, note, proposed bill or resolution, proposed amendment to a bill or resolution, analysis, opinion, memorandum, or other document in whatever form or format prepared by legislative staff for a member of the general assembly or for general assembly staff;

(b) Any document or material in whatever form or format provided by a member of the general assembly or general assembly staff to legislative staff that requests, or that provides information or materials to assist in, the preparation of any of the items described in division (A) (1) (a) of this section;

(c) Any summary of a bill or resolution or of an amendment to a bill or resolution in whatever form or format that is prepared by or in the possession of a member of the general assembly or general assembly staff, if the summary is prepared before the bill, resolution, or amendment is filed for introduction or presented at a committee hearing or floor session, as applicable.

(2) "Legislative staff" means the staff of the legislative service commission, legislative budget office of the legislative service commission, or any other legislative agency included in the legislative service commission budget group.

(3) "General assembly staff" means an officer or employee of either house of the general assembly who acts on behalf of a member of the general assembly or on behalf of a committee or either house of the general assembly.

(B) Legislative staff shall maintain a confidential relationship with each member of the general assembly, and with 44
each member of the general assembly staff, with respect to 45

35

36

37

communications between the member of the general assembly or 46 general assembly staff and legislative staff. Except as 47 otherwise provided in this division and division (C) of this 48 section and in sections 103.51, 103.52, and 103.53 of the 49 Revised Code, a legislative document arising out of this 50 confidential relationship is not a public record for purposes of 51 section 149.43 of the Revised Code. When it is in the public 52 interest and with the consent of the commission, the director of 53 the commission may release to the public any legislative 54 document in the possession of the commission staff arising out 55 of a confidential relationship with a former member of the 56 general assembly or former member of the general assembly staff 57 who is not available to make the legislative document a public 58 record as provided in division (C) of this section because of 59 death or disability, whom the director is unable to contact for 60 that purpose, or who fails to respond to the director after the 61 director has made a reasonable number of attempts to make such 62 contact. 63 64

(C) (1) A legislative document is a public record for purposes of section 149.43 of the Revised Code if it is an analysis, synopsis, fiscal note, or local impact statement prepared by legislative staff that is required to be prepared by law, or by a rule of either house of the general assembly, for the benefit of the members of either or both of those houses or any legislative committee and if it has been presented to those members.

(2) A legislative document is a public record for purposes of section 149.43 of the Revised Code if a member of the general assembly for whom legislative staff prepared the legislative document does any of the following:

(a) Files it for introduction with the clerk of the senateor the clerk of the house of representatives, if it is a bill orresolution;

(b) Presents it at a committee hearing or floor session, if it is an amendment to a bill or resolution or is a substitute bill or resolution;

(c) Releases it, or authorizes general assembly staff or82legislative staff to release it, to the public.83

Sec. 103.51. (A) There is hereby created the legislative task force on redistricting, reapportionment, and demographic research, consisting of six members. The president of the senate shall appoint three members, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party. One member appointed by the president shall not be a member of the general assembly. The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint three members, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party. One member appointed by the speaker shall not be a member of the general assembly.

Appointments to the task force shall be made within 94 fifteen days after the commencement of the first regular session 95 of each general assembly in the manner prescribed in this 96 division. A vacancy on the task force shall be filled for the 97 unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment. 98 Members of the task force shall serve on the task force until 99 the appointments are made in the first regular session of the 100 following general assembly or, in the case of task force members 101 who also are general assembly members when appointed, until they 102 are no longer general assembly members. 103

The president of the senate shall appoint a member of the task force, and the speaker of the house of representatives 105 shall appoint a member of the task force, to serve as co- 106 chairmenco-chairpersons of the task force. The co-chairmenco-107 chairpersons shall be members of different political parties. 108 The co-chairmenco-chairpersons may enter into any agreements on 109 behalf of the task force and perform any acts that may be 110 necessary or proper for the task force to carry out its powers 111 and duties under this section. 112 (B) The members of the task force shall serve without 113 compensation, but shall be reimbursed for their actual and 114 necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official 115 duties. 116 (C) The task force shall do all of the following: 117 (1) Provide such assistance to the general assembly and 118 its committees as requested in order to help the general 119 assembly fulfill its duty to establish districts for the 120 election of representatives to congress; 121 (2) Provide such assistance to the apportionment board as 122 requested in order to help it fulfill its duty to provide for 123 124 the apportionment of this state for members of the general assembly. As used in this section, "apportionment board" means 125 the persons designated in Section 1 of Article XI, Ohio 126 Constitution, as being responsible for that apportionment. 127 (3) Engage in such research studies and other activities 128 as the task force considers necessary or appropriate in the 129 preparation and formulation of a plan for the next apportionment 130 of the state for members of the general assembly and a plan for 131 the next establishment of districts for the election of 132 representatives to congress and in the utilization of census and 133 other demographic and statistical data for policy analysis,134program development, and program evaluation purposes for the135benefit of the general assembly.136

(D) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary,137the task force may do all of the following:138

(1) Hire such employees and engage such experts and technical advisors and fix their compensation, and obtain such services, as are necessary for the task force to exercise its 141
duties under this section;

(2) Authorize the providing of such services and the 143 furnishing of such data by the task force to any state agency or 144 political subdivision of this state as the task force may 145 specify, on such terms and conditions as the task force may 146
specify, including the amount of the payment for providing the 147 services and furnishing the data;

(3) Conduct meetings and hearings both within and outside this state and otherwise exercise all of the powers of a standing or select committee of the general assembly; 151

(4) Request and receive from any state agency or political 152 subdivision of this state such assistance and data as will 153 enable the task force to exercise its powers and duties under
this section.

(E) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section156121.22 of the Revised Code, the co-chairpersons of the task157force shall provide the public with at least seventy-two hours158of advance notice of the time and location of any meeting or159hearing of the task force, shall make that meeting or hearing160open to the public, and shall hold that meeting or hearing in a161public building or office.162

(F) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section	163
101.30 of the Revised Code, all records related to the work of	164
the task force kept by any member of the task force or the	165
member's employee or agent, including any contractor or	166 consultant directly or indirectly retained by any member of the	167
general assembly, any task force member, or the Ohio	168
redistricting commission, or by any other public office are	169
public records within the meaning of section 149.43 of the	170
Revised Code.	171
Sec. 103.52. (A) The governor shall convene the Ohio	172
redistricting commission described under Article XI, Ohio	173
Constitution, not later than the first day of June of each year	174 ending in the numeral one. During the period beginning on the	175 day the governor convenes the Ohio redistricting commission and	176 ending on the day the commission is dissolved, the co-	177 chairpersons of the commission shall do all of the following:	178
(1) Within fourteen days of the commission's convening,	179 adopt rules for the commission, announce the hiring of staff for	180
the commission, announce a plan for spending the commission's	181 appropriated funds in a bipartisan manner, and adopt a plan for	182 holding public hearings both before and after congressional maps	183 are proposed;	184
(2) Hold a public hearing or briefing concerning the	185
status of the commission's work at least once each week;	186
(3) Begin holding public hearings at least three weeks	187
before any final map approval vote, the same requirement	188 applying to any committees doing the work of the commission,	189 regardless of whether data from the United States census bureau	190
is available;	191

(4) Issue a written progress report to the public at least	192
once each week concerning the status of the commission's work,	193 signed by the co-chairpersons and include copies of all draft	194
redistricting plans that have been shared between two or more	195 members of the commission or their employees or agents during	196
the period covered by the report;	197
(5) Develop and maintain a process by which the commission	198 receives and considers, in real time, maps and comments	199 submitted by members of the public concerning any draft	200 redistricting plan;	201
(6) Cause to be developed and maintained the Ohio	202
redistricting web site described in division (B) of this	203
section.	204
(B) The Ohio redistricting web site shall be a publicly	205 accessible online redistricting tool with a population and	206 redistricting data set identical to the data set used by the	207
general assembly and the Ohio redistricting commission to draw	208
new legislative and congressional districts. The most recent	209 census population data from the 2019 American community survey	210 shall be made available on the web site while the United States	211
census bureau finishes compiling enumeration data from the 2020	212 census. The 2020 enumeration data shall be made available on the	213 web site once it is provided to the state by the United States	214 census bureau. The web site shall be hosted by the legislative	215 service commission, shall be accessible from the web site of the	216 legislative service commission, and shall do all of the	217
following:	218
(1) Include a space for members of the public to submit	219
comments on any state legislative or congressional maps, and to	220
submit their own maps in various formats;	221

(2) Provide information on Ohio's redistricting process,	222 including redistricting criteria and previous maps;	223
(3) Provide information about upcoming hearings, including	224
time and place;	225
	223
(4) Provide contact information for all elected officials	226
who are members of the commission, the legislative task force on	227 redistricting and demographic research, or any legislative	228 committees involved in the redistricting process.	229
(C) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section	230
121.22 of the Revised Code, the co-chairpersons of the	231 commission shall provide the public with at least seventy-two	232 hours of advance notice of the time and location of any meeting	233 or hearing concerning redistricting, shall make that meeting or	234 hearing open to the public, and shall hold that meeting or	235 hearing in a public building or office.	236
(D) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section	237
121.22 of the Revised Code, the Ohio redistricting commission	238 and any related committees shall conduct public hearings outside	239
of standard working hours and in locations compliant with the	240
"Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990," 42 U.S.C. 12101 et	241
seq. that are accessible by public transportation.	242
(E) Any person who has submitted a complete map, directly	243 or through the Ohio redistricting web site under division (B) of	244
this section, which is compliant with the basic principles of	245 redistricting, to a chairperson or the co-chairpersons of the	246
Ohio redistricting commission or a related committee shall be	247 permitted to discuss the proposed map at any of the general	248
assembly's or commission's public hearings regarding	249
redistricting.	250

(F) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section	251
101.30 of the Revised Code, all records related to the Ohio	252 redistricting commission kept by any member of the commission or	253
the member's employee or agent or by any other public office are	254
public records within the meaning of section 149.43 of the	255
Revised Code.	256
(G) The commission shall allow for virtual, interactive	257
testimony and participation by the public and shall not require	258 members of the public to appear in person to testify.	259
Sec. 103.53. (A) Beginning on the first day of July in a	260 year ending in the numeral one, and continuing until the general	261 assembly has adopted new congressional districts, the speaker	262 and minority leader of the house of representatives and the	263
president and minority leader of the senate shall do all of the	264
following:	265
(1) Hold a public hearing or briefing concerning the	266 status of the general assembly's work on congressional redistricting at least once each week;	268
(2) Issue a written progress report to the public at least	269
once each week concerning the status of the general assembly's	270 work on congressional redistricting, including the public input	271 received with transcribed copies of hearings and public comments	272
submitted on the Ohio redistricting web site under section	273
103.52 of the Revised Code. The report shall be signed by the	274
speaker and minority leader of the house of representatives and	275
by the president and minority leader of the senate and,	276 notwithstanding section 101.30 of the Revised Code, shall	277 include copies of all draft redistricting plans that have been	278 shared between two or more members of the general assembly or	279 their employees or agents during the period covered by the	280

Revised Code.

report. This report shall be routinely uploaded to the Ohio redistricting web site.
(3) Develop and maintain a process by which the members of	283
the general assembly receive and consider, in real time, maps	284
and comments submitted by members of the public concerning any	285 draft congressional redistricting plan.	286
(B) In accordance with Article XIX of the Ohio	287
Constitution, the general assembly shall create a joint	288 committee called the joint committee on redistricting to hold	289 hearings and report a congressional district plan to the general	290 assembly. The committee shall begin holding public hearings at	291 least three weeks before any final map approval vote. Hearings	292 shall take place both before and after maps are introduced for	293 consideration by the committee. The committee shall be comprised	294 of an equal number of majority party and minority party members,	295 who shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of	296 representatives, the minority leader of the house, the president	297 of the senate, and the minority leader of the senate.	298
(C) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section	299
121.22 of the Revised Code, the public shall be provided with at	300 least seventy-two hours of advance notice of the time and	301 location of any meeting by committees of the general assembly	302 concerning congressional redistricting, and that meeting shall	303 be open to the public and held in a public building or office.	304
(D) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section	305
101.30 of the Revised Code, all records related to congressional	306
