A BILL

To enact section 3345.024 of the Revised Code to 1
enact "The Testing Your Faith Act" to require 2
each state institution of higher education to 3
adopt a policy providing students with religious 4 accommodations. 5

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That section 3345.024 of the Revised Code be 6 enacted to read as follows: 7

Sec. 3345.024. Each state institution of higher education, 8 as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, shall adopt 9
a policy that reasonably accommodates the sincerely held 10 religious beliefs and practices of individual students with 11 regard to all examinations or other academic requirements and 12 absences for reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief 13 system. The policy shall satisfy all of the following 14 conditions: 15

(A) The policy shall permit a student to be absent for up 16

to three days each academic semester to take holidays for 17 reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief system or 18 participate in organized activities conducted under the auspices 19
of a religious denomination, church, or other religious or 20 spiritual organization. The institution shall not impose an 21 academic penalty as a result of a student being absent as 22 permitted in the policy. 23

(B) (1) The policy shall require that students be provided 24
with alternative accommodations with regard to examinations and 25
other academic requirements missed due to an absence described 26 in division (A) of this section, if both of the following apply: 27

(a) The student's sincerely held religious belief or 28
practice severely affects the student's ability to take an 29
examination or meet an academic requirement. 30

(b) Not later than fourteen days after the first day of 31 instruction in a particular course, the student provides the 32
instructor with written notice of the specific dates for which 33
the student requests alternative accommodations. 34

(2) An instructor shall accept without question the 35
sincerity of a student's religious or spiritual belief system. 36
An instructor shall keep requests for alternative accommodations 37 confidential. An instructor shall schedule a time and date for 38 an alternative examination, which may be before or after the 39 time and date the examination or other academic requirement was 40
originally scheduled, but shall do so without prejudicial 41
effect. 42

(C) The policy shall require the institution to post both 43
of the following in a prominent location on the institution's 44
web site: 45

(1) A copy of the policy adopted under this section, which shall include the contact information of an individual who can provide further information about the policy; 46
47
48

(2) A nonexhaustive list of major religious holidays or festivals for the next two academic years 49
50

. The chancellor of higher education shall provide each state institution with a nonexhaustive list of major religious holidays or festivals for the next two academic years at the beginning of each academic year. Each state institution may adopt the chancellor's list in its entirety or choose which holidays to include on its list. 51
52
54
55
56

Each time a state institution's policy is posted, printed, or published, including as described in divisions (C) and (D) of this section, the state institution shall include a statement that the list is nonexhaustive, and the list may not be used to deny accommodation to a student for a holiday or festival of the student's faith or religious or spiritual belief system that does not appear on the list. 57
58
59
60
61
62
63

Nothing in this section, and no inclusion or exclusion of a religious holiday or festival on the list posted by a state institution, shall preclude a student from full and reasonable accommodations for any sincerely held religious beliefs and practices with regard to all examinations or other academic requirements and absences for reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief system provided under this section. 64
65
67
68
69
70

(D) The policy shall require instructors to include in each course syllabus a statement regarding the institutions's policy adopted under this section. The statement shall include both of the following: 71
72
73
74

(1) A description of the general procedure for requesting accommodations;	75
	76
(2) Contact information for an individual whom a student may contact for more information about the policy adopted under this section.	77
	78
	79
(E) The policy shall include a procedure under which a student may notify the institution of any grievance with regard to the implementation of the policy.	80
	81
	82
Section 2. This act shall be known as "The Testing Your Faith Act."	83
