A BILL

To amend sections 107.03, 5703.48, and 5703.95 of 1 the Revised Code to require the reporting of 2 information on and legislative review of 3 property tax exemptions. 4

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 107.03, 5703.48, and 5703.95 of 5 the Revised Code be amended to read as follows: 6

Sec. 107.03. (A) As used in this section, "transportation 7 budget" means the biennial budget that primarily includes the 8 following: 9

(1) Motor fuel excise tax-related appropriations for the 10 department of transportation, public works commission, and 11 development services agency; 12

(2) Other appropriations that pertain to transportation 13 and infrastructure related to transportation. 14

(B) The governor shall submit a transportation budget to 15 the general assembly not later than four weeks after the general 16 assembly's organization. 17

(C) The governor shall submit to the general assembly, not 18 later than four weeks after its organization, a state budget 19 containing a complete financial plan for the ensuing fiscal 20 biennium, excluding items of revenue and expenditure described 21 in section 126.022 of the Revised Code. However, in years of a 22 new governor's inauguration, this budget shall be submitted not 23 later than the fifteenth day of March. 24

(D) In years of a new governor's inauguration, only the 25 new governor shall submit a budget to the general assembly. In 26 addition to other things required by law, each of the governor's 27 budgets shall contain: 28

(1) A general budget summary by function and agency 29 setting forth the proposed total expenses from each and all 30 funds and the anticipated resources for meeting such expenses; 31 such resources to include any available balances in the several 32 funds at the beginning of the biennium and a classification by 33 totals of all revenue receipts estimated to accrue during the 34 biennium under existing law and proposed legislation. 35

(2) A detailed statement showing the amounts recommended 36 to be appropriated from each fund for each fiscal year of the 37 biennium for current expenses, including, but not limited to, 38 personal services, supplies and materials, equipment, subsidies 39 and revenue distribution, merchandise for resale, transfers, and 40 nonexpense disbursements, obligations, interest on debt, and 41 retirement of debt, and for the biennium for capital outlay, to 42 the respective departments, offices, institutions, as defined in 43 section 121.01 of the Revised Code, and all other public 44 purposes; and, in comparative form, the actual expenses by 45 source of funds during each fiscal year of the previous two 46 bienniums for each such purpose. No alterations shall be made in 47 the requests for the legislative and judicial branches of the 48 state filed with the director of budget and management under 49 section 126.02 of the Revised Code. If any amount of federal 50 money is recommended to be appropriated or has been expended for 51 a purpose for which state money also is recommended to be 52 appropriated or has been expended, the amounts of federal money 53 and state money involved shall be separately identified. 54

(3) A detailed estimate of the revenue receipts in each 55 fund from each source under existing laws during each year of 56 the biennium; and, in comparative form, actual revenue receipts 57 in each fund from each source for each year of the two previous 58 bienniums; 59

(4) The estimated cash balance in each fund at the 60 beginning of the biennium covered by the budget; the estimated 61 liabilities outstanding against each such balance; and the 62 estimated net balance remaining and available for new 63 appropriations; 64

(5) A detailed estimate of the additional revenue receipts 65 in each fund from each source under proposed legislation, if 66 enacted, during each year of the biennium; 67

~~(6) A description of each tax expenditure; a detailed 68 estimate of the amount of revenues not available to the general 69 revenue fund under existing laws during each fiscal year of the 70 biennium covered by the budget due to the operation of each tax 71 expenditure; and, in comparative form, the amount of revenue not 72 available to the general revenue fund during each fiscal year of 73 the immediately preceding biennium due to the operation of each 74 tax expenditure. The most recent report prepared by the 75 department of taxation pursuant to under section 5703.48 of the 76~~

Revised Code, which shall be submitted to the general assembly 77 as an appendix to the governor's budget. ~~As used in this~~ 78 ~~division, "tax expenditure" has the same meaning as in section~~ 79
~~5703.48 of the Revised Code.;~~ 80

(7) The most recent report prepared by the tax expenditure 81 review committee under division (F) of section 5703.95 of the 82
Revised Code, which shall be submitted to the general assembly 83 as an appendix to the governor's budget. 84

Sec. 5703.48. (A) As used in this section ~~and section~~ 85
~~107.03 of the Revised Code, "tax:~~ 86

(1) "Tax expenditure" means a tax provision in the Revised 87
Code that exempts, either in whole or in part, certain persons, 88 income, goods, services, or property from the effect of taxes 89 levied by the state, including, but not limited to, tax 90 deductions, exemptions, deferrals, exclusions, allowances, 91 credits, reimbursements, and preferential tax rates, provided 92 all of the following apply to the provision: 93

~~(1)~~ (a) The provision reduces, or has the potential to 94 reduce, revenue to the general revenue fund; 95

~~(2)~~ (b) The persons, income, goods, services, or property 96 exempted by the provision would have been part of a defined tax 97 base; 98

~~(3)~~ (c) The persons, income, goods, services, or property 99 exempted by the provision are not subject to an alternate tax 100 levied by the state; 101

~~(4)~~ (d) The provision is subject to modification or repeal 102 by an act of the general assembly. 103

(2) "Property tax exemption" means a provision in the 104

Revised Code that exempts or authorizes a subdivision to exempt 105 from taxation all or a portion of the value of real property, as 106 reported on forms otherwise prescribed by the tax commissioner 107 and as categorized by the tax commissioner for purposes of this 108 section as: 109

(a) Charitable and public worship; 110

(b) Public and educational; 111

(c) Local economic development; 112

(d) Other exemptions. 113

(B) The department of taxation shall prepare and submit to 114 the governor not later than the first day of November in each 115 even-numbered year a report ~~describing the effect of~~ containing 116 certain information about tax expenditures on the general 117 revenue fund and property tax exemptions. The report shall 118 contain ~~a~~ each of the following: 119

(1) A description of each existing tax expenditure under 120 existing laws and, in and property tax exemption; 121

(2) In comparative form, a detailed estimate of the 122 approximate amount of revenue not available to the state general 123 revenue fund in each fiscal year of the current and ensuing 124 fiscal bienniums as a result of the operation of each tax 125 expenditure; 126

(3) The aggregate true value of real property exempted in 127 this state for the preceding tax year as the result of the 128 operation of each property tax exemption; 129

(4) The amount of revenue paid from the general revenue 130 fund in the preceding calendar year to reimburse subdivisions 131 for each property tax exemption for which such reimbursement is 132

required. The	133
The report shall be prepared in such a manner as to	134 facilitate the inclusion of the information provided by the	135 report in the governor's budget.	136
Sec. 5703.95. (A) As used in this section, "tax	137 expenditure" has and "property tax exemption" have the same	138 meaning meanings as in section 5703.48 of the Revised Code.	139
(B) There is hereby created the tax expenditure review	140 committee, consisting of seven members, composed of the	141
following:	142
(1) Three members of the house of representatives	143 appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives in	144 consultation with the minority leader of the house of	145 representatives. Members described in division (B)(1) of this	146 section shall not all be members of the same party and should be	147 members of the house of representatives committee that deals	148 primarily with tax legislation;	149
(2) Three members of the senate appointed by the president	150
of the senate in consultation with the minority leader of the	151 senate. Members described in division (B)(2) of this section	152 shall not all be members of the same party and should be members	153 of the senate committee that deals primarily with tax	154 legislation;	155
(3) The tax commissioner or the tax commissioner's	156 designee. The member described in division (B)(3) of this	157 section shall be a nonvoting member.	158
The speaker of the house of representatives and the	159 president of the senate shall make initial appointments to the	160 committee not later than thirty days after March 21, 2017.	161

Thereafter, the terms of the office for appointed members shall 162 be the same as the term of each general assembly. Members may be 163 reappointed, provided the member continues to meet all other 164 eligibility requirements. Vacancies shall be filled in the 165 manner provided for original appointments. Any member appointed 166 to fill a vacancy before the expiration of the term for which 167 the predecessor was appointed shall hold office as a member for 168 the remainder of that term. Appointed members of the committee 169 serve at the pleasure of the member's appointing authority and 170 may be removed only by the appointing authority. 171

(C) The tax expenditure review committee shall hold its 172 first meeting within ninety days after March 21, 2017. At the 173 first meeting, the members shall elect a chairperson, who shall 174 be one of the members described in division (B)(1) or (2) of 175 this section. Thereafter, the committee shall meet at least once 176 during the first year of each fiscal biennium to review existing 177 tax expenditures and property tax exemptions pursuant to 178 division (D) of this section, provided the committee shall hold, 179 for any such expenditure and exemption, at least one meeting at 180 which a person may present to the committee evidence or 181 testimony related to that expenditure or exemption. Any person 182 may submit to the chairperson a request that the committee meet 183 to accept evidence or testimony on a tax expenditure or property 184 tax exemption. The committee is a public body for the purposes 185 of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 186

The chairperson of the committee shall serve until the 187 thirty-first day of December of each even-numbered year. 188 Thereafter, members shall elect a new chairperson. If the 189 preceding chairperson was a member described in division (B)(1) 190 of this section, the new chairperson shall be a member described 191 in division (B)(2) of this section. If the preceding chairperson 192 was a member described in division (B) (2) of this section, the 193 new chairperson shall be a member described in division (B) (1) 194 of this section. 195

A vacancy on the committee does not impair the right of 196 the other members to exercise all the functions of the 197 committee. The presence of a majority of the voting members of 198 the committee constitutes a quorum for the conduct of business 199 of the committee. The concurrence of at least a majority of the 200 voting members of the committee is necessary for any action to 201 be taken by the committee. 202

Upon the committee's request, a county auditor or county 203 treasurer or the department of taxation, development services 204 agency, office of budget and management, or other state agency 205 shall provide any information in its possession that the 206 committee requires to perform its duties. 207

The staff of the legislative service commission shall 208 assist the committee as directed by the committee. 209

(D) The committee shall establish a schedule for review 210 for each tax expenditure and each property tax exemption so that 211 each expenditure and exemption is reviewed at least once every 212 eight years. The schedule may provide for the review of each tax 213 expenditure and exemption in the order the expenditures and 214 exemptions were enacted or modified, beginning with the least 215 recently enacted or modified ~~tax~~-expenditure or exemption. 216 Alternatively, the review schedule may group tax expenditures 217 and property tax exemptions by the individuals or industries 218 benefiting from the ~~expenditures~~expenditure or exemption, the 219 objectives of each expenditure or exemption, or the policy 220 rationale of each expenditure or exemption. In its review, the 221 committee shall make recommendations as to whether each tax 222 expenditure and property tax exemption should be continued 223 without modification, modified, scheduled for further review at 224 a future date to consider repealing the expenditure or 225 exemption, or repealed outright. For each expenditure and 226 exemption reviewed, the committee may recommend accountability 227 standards for the future review of the expenditure or exemption. 228

The committee may consider, when reviewing a tax expenditure or 229 property tax exemption, any of the relevant factors described in 230 division (E) of this section. 231

(E) In conducting reviews pursuant to division (D) of this 232 section, the committee may consider the following factors: 233

(1) The number and classes of persons, organizations, 234 businesses, or types of industries that would receive the direct 235 benefit or consequences of the tax expenditure or property tax 236 exemption; 237

(2) The fiscal impact of the tax expenditure or property 238 tax exemption on state and local taxing authorities and 239 subdivisions, including any past fiscal effects and expected 240 future fiscal impacts of the ~~tax~~-expenditure or exemption in the 241 following eight-year period; 242

(3) Public policy objectives that might support the tax 243 expenditure or property tax exemption. In researching such 244 objectives, the committee may consider the expenditure's or 245 exemption's legislative history, the ~~tax~~-expenditure's or 246 exemption's sponsor's intent in proposing the ~~tax~~-expenditure or 247 exemption, or the extent to which the ~~tax~~-expenditure or 248 exemption encourages or would encourage business growth or 249 relocation into the state, promotes or would promote growth or 250 retention of high-wage jobs in the state, or aids or would aid 251 community stabilization. 252

(4) Whether the tax expenditure or property tax exemption	253 successfully accomplishes any of the objectives identified in	254
division (E) (3) of this section;	255
(5) Whether the objectives identified in division (E) (3)	256
of this section would or could have been accomplished	257 successfully in the absence of the tax expenditure or property	258
tax exemption or with less cost to the state or local	259
governments;	260
(6) Whether the objectives identified in division (E) (3)	261
of this section could have been accomplished successfully	262 through a program that requires legislative appropriations for	263
funding;	264
(7) The extent to which the tax expenditure or property	265
tax exemption may provide unintended benefits to an individual,	266 organization, or industry other than those the general assembly	267 or sponsor intended or creates an unfair competitive advantage	268 for its recipient with respect to other businesses in the state;	269
(8) The extent to which terminating the tax expenditure or	270
property tax exemption may have negative effects on taxpayers	271 that currently benefit from the tax expenditure;	272
(9) The extent to which terminating the tax expenditure or	273
property tax exemption may have negative or positive effects on	274
the state's employment and economy;	275
(10) The feasibility of modifying the tax expenditure or	276
property tax exemption to provide for adjustment or recapture of	277
the proceeds of the tax -expenditure or exemption if the	278 objectives of the tax -expenditure or exemption are not fulfilled	279
by the recipient of the tax -expenditure or exemption .	280
(F) The committee shall prepare a report of its	281 determinations under division (D) of this section and, not later 282 than the first day of July of each even-numbered year, submit a 283 copy of the report to the governor, the speaker of the house of 284 representatives, the president of the senate, the minority 285 leader of the house of representatives, and the minority leader 286 of the senate. The first report shall be submitted either in 287 2017 or 2018. If the committee maintains a web site, the 288 committee shall cause a copy of the report to be posted on the 289 web site in a form enabling access to the report by the public 290 within thirty days after the report is submitted under this 291 division. If the committee does not maintain a web site, the 292 committee shall request that the president of the senate and the 293 speaker of the house of representatives cause the report to be 294 posted on the web site of the general assembly. 295

(G) Any bill introduced in the house of representatives or 296 the senate that proposes to enact or modify one or more tax 297 expenditures or property tax exemptions should include a 298 statement explaining the objectives of the ~~tax~~-expenditure or 299 exemption or its modification and the sponsor's intent in 300 proposing the ~~tax~~-expenditure or exemption or its modification. 301

Section 2. That existing sections 107.03, 5703.48, and 302
5703.95 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 303
