A BILL

To enact sections 2904.01, 2904.02, 2904.03, 1
2904.031, 2904.032, 2904.04, 2904.05, 2904.22, 2
2904.30, 2904.35, and 2904.40 of the Revised 3
Code to enact the Human Life Protection Act to 4 prohibit abortions based upon a condition 5 precedent. 6

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 2904.01, 2904.02, 2904.03, 7 2904.031, 2904.032, 2904.04, 2904.05, 2904.22, 2904.30, 2904.35, 8 and 2904.40 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows: 9

Sec. 2904.01. (A) This chapter applies only upon the 10 occurrence of either of the following conditions precedent: 11

(1) The supreme court of the United States issuing an 12 opinion that upholds, in whole or in part, a state's authority 13 to prohibit abortion; 14

(2) The adoption of an amendment to the United States 15 Constitution that authorizes, in whole or in part, a state to 16 prohibit an abortion. 17

(B) Once either condition precedent in division (A) of 18 this section has occurred: 19

(1) This chapter supersedes all conflicting provisions of 20
the Revised Code; and 21

(2) No state funds shall be disbursed that would support a 22 violation of this chapter. No contract that is executed after 23 this chapter becomes applicable shall be enforced, if that 24 enforcement would require or support a violation of this 25 chapter. 26

Sec. 2904.02. As used in this chapter: 27

(A) "Abortion" means the purposeful termination of a human 28 pregnancy with an intention other than to produce a live birth 29 or to remove a dead fetus or embryo. 30

(B) "Drug" has the same meaning as in section 4729.01 of 31
the Revised Code. 32

(C) "Physician" has the same meaning as in section 33
2305.113 of the Revised Code. 34

(D) "Reasonable medical judgment" means a medical judgment 35 that would be made by a reasonably prudent physician, 36 knowledgeable about the case and the treatment possibilities 37 with respect to the medical conditions involved. 38

(E) "Unborn child" means an individual organism of the 39 species homo sapiens from fertilization until live birth. 40

Sec. 2904.03. (A) No person shall purposely cause or 41 induce an abortion by either of the following: 42

(1) Prescribing, administering, or personally furnishing a 43 drug or substance; 44

(2) Using an instrument or other means. 45

(B) Whoever violates division (A) of this section is 46 guilty of criminal abortion, a felony of the fourth degree. 47

Sec. 2904.031. (A) It is an affirmative defense to a 48 charge under section 2904.03 of the Revised Code that the 49 abortion was purposely performed or induced or purposely 50 attempted to be performed or induced by a physician and that the 51 physician determined, in the physician's reasonable medical 52 judgment, based on the facts known to the physician at that 53 time, that the abortion was necessary to prevent the death of 54 the pregnant woman or a serious risk of the substantial and 55 irreversible impairment of a major bodily function of the 56
pregnant woman. 57

(B) No abortion shall be considered necessary under 58 division (A) of this section on the basis of a claim or 59 diagnosis that the pregnant woman will engage in conduct that 60 would result in the pregnant woman's death or a substantial and 61
irreversible impairment of a major bodily function of the 62 pregnant woman or based on any reason related to the woman's 63 mental health. 64

Sec. 2904.032. Except when a medical emergency exists that 65 prevents compliance with one or more of the following 66 conditions, the affirmative defense set forth in section 67 2904.031 of the Revised Code does not apply unless the physician 68 who purposely performs or induces or purposely attempts to 69 perform or induce the abortion complies with all of the 70 following conditions: 71

(A) The physician who purposely performs or induces or 72 purposely attempts to perform or induce the abortion certifies 73 in writing that, in the physician's reasonable medical judgment, 74 based on the facts known to the physician at that time, the 75 abortion is necessary to prevent the death of the pregnant woman 76 or a serious risk of the substantial and irreversible impairment 77 of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman. 78

(B) A different physician not professionally related to 79 the physician described in division (A) of this section 80 certifies in writing that, in that different physician's 81 reasonable medical judgment, based on the facts known to that 82 different physician at that time, the abortion is necessary to 83 prevent the death of the pregnant woman or a serious risk of the 84 substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily 85 function of the pregnant woman. 86

(C) The physician purposely performs or induces or 87 purposely attempts to perform or induce the abortion in a 88 hospital or other health care facility that has appropriate 89 neonatal services for premature infants. 90

(D) The physician who purposely performs or induces or 91 purposely attempts to perform or induce the abortion terminates 92 or attempts to terminate the pregnancy in the manner that 93 provides the best opportunity for the unborn child to survive, 94 unless that physician determines, in the physician's reasonable 95 medical judgment, based on the facts known to the physician at 96 that time, that the termination of the pregnancy in that manner 97 poses a greater risk of the death of the pregnant woman or a 98 greater risk of the substantial and irreversible impairment of a 99 major bodily function of the pregnant woman than would other 100 available methods of abortion. 101

(E) The physician certifies in writing the available 102 methods or techniques considered and the reasons for choosing 103

the method or technique employed. 104

(F) The physician who purposely performs or induces or 105 purposely attempts to perform or induce the abortion has 106 arranged for the attendance in the same room in which the 107 abortion is to be performed or induced or attempted to be 108 performed or induced at least one other physician who is to take 109 control of, provide immediate medical care for, and take all 110 reasonable steps necessary to preserve the life and health of 111 the unborn child immediately upon the child's complete expulsion 112 or extraction from the pregnant woman. 113

Sec. 2904.04. (A) No person shall purposely manufacture, 114 possess for sale or distribution, advertise, or hold one's self 115 out as possessing for sale or distribution, or sell or 116 distribute, any drugs, medicine, instrument, or device, when any 117 of the following apply: 118

(1) The person knows or has reasonable cause to believe 119 that such drug, medicine, instrument, or device is capable of 120 causing an abortion and is used primarily for that purpose. 121

(2) The person knows or has reasonable cause to believe 122 that the recipient to whom the person sells or distributes such 123 drug, medicine, instrument, or device intends to use it to cause 124 an abortion. 125

(3) The person directly or indirectly represents that such 126 drug, medicine, instrument, or device is effective in causing an 127 abortion, regardless of whether it is effective as represented. 128

(B) This section does not prohibit a manufacturer or 129 distributor of drugs or surgical supplies, or a pharmacist or 130 physician, from lawfully manufacturing, possessing, selling, or 131 distributing, in the usual course of that person's business or 132 profession, any drug, medicine, instrument, or thing intended 133 for any lawful medical purpose, including an abortion that meets 134 the affirmative defense as provided in sections 2904.031 and 135

2904.032 of the Revised Code. 136

(C) Whoever violates this section is guilty of promoting 137 abortion, a misdemeanor of the first degree. 138

Sec. 2904.05. (A) No person shall purposely take the life 139 of a child born by attempted abortion who is alive when removed 140 from the uterus of the pregnant woman. 141

(B) No person who performs an abortion shall purposely 142 fail to use reasonable medical judgment to preserve the life of 143 a child who is alive when removed from the uterus of the 144
pregnant woman. 145

(C) Whoever violates this section is guilty of abortion 146 manslaughter, a felony of the first degree. 147

Sec. 2904.22. A woman on whom an abortion was induced or 148 attempted shall be immune from prosecution for any violation of 149 sections 2904.03 to 2904.05 of the Revised Code. 150

Sec. 2904.30. The state medical board shall revoke a 151 physician's license to practice medicine in this state if the 152 physician is guilty of any violations of sections 2904.03 to 153
2904.05 of the Revised Code. 154

Sec. 2904.35. (A) A woman on whom an abortion was 155 performed in violation of sections 2904.03, 2904.04, or 2904.05 156 of the Revised Code may file a civil action for the wrongful 157 death of her unborn child if the violation was a proximate cause 158 of the death of her unborn child. 159

(B) A woman who prevails in an action filed under division 160

(A) of this section shall receive both of the following from the 161 person who committed the one or more acts described in that 162 division: 163

(1) Damages in an amount equal to ten thousand dollars or 164 an amount determined by the trier of fact after consideration of 165 the evidence, at the mother's election at any time prior to 166 final judgment subject to the same defenses and requirements of 167 proof, except any requirement of live birth, as would apply to a 168 suit for the wrongful death of a child who had been born alive; 169

(2) Court costs and reasonable attorney's fees. 170

(C) A determination by a court of record that section 171 2904.03, 2904.04, or 2904.05 of the Revised Code is 172 unconstitutional shall be a defense to an action filed under 173 division (A) of this section alleging that the defendant 174 violated the division that was determined to be 175 unconstitutional. 176

(D) If the defendant in an action filed under division (A) 177 of this section prevails and all of the following apply, the 178 court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the defendant in 179 accordance with section 2323.51 of the Revised Code: 180

(1) The court finds that the commencement of the action 181 constitutes frivolous conduct, as defined in section 2323.51 of 182
the Revised Code. 183

(2) The court's finding in division (D)(1) of this section 184 is not based on that court or another court determining that 185 section 2904.03, 2904.04, or 2904.05 of the Revised Code is 186
unconstitutional. 187

(3) The court finds that the defendant was adversely 188 affected by the frivolous conduct. 189

Sec. 2904.40. Notwithstanding any other provision of the 190
Revised Code, the following offenses shall be punished as 191 described: 192

(A) As used in section 2904.05 of the Revised Code, a 193 felony of the first degree shall be punishable by a minimum of 194 four, five, six, or seven years and a maximum of twenty-five 195 years of imprisonment and a fine of not more than ten thousand 196 dollars. 197

(B) As used in section 2904.03 of the Revised Code, a 198 felony of the fourth degree shall be punishable by a minimum of 199 one-half, one, one and one-half, or two years of imprisonment 200 and a fine of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars. 201

Section 2. This act shall be known as the "Human Life 202 Protection Act." 203
